Happy Mother's Day!

...or should I say happy parent's day?

Legal gaurdian day?

Something along those lines.

Have a card for whatever this day is for.

You may not be my mom,
but you are the one who raised me,
and you deserve celebration!

Since there isn't a day just for you,
we can share this one.

Love you!
P.S. you're bird-tiful :))
