

GRADUATE PROGRAMS IN READING (M.ED)

Built on a 50-year legacy, our reading program enhances the professional development, intellectual growth, and expertise of our practicing educators. Bridgewater State University offers three options for those looking to hone skills in Reading Education at the graduate level:

Hybrid
courses with a Fully Online
Option

Small Class
Sizes &
Affordable
Tuition

Possible
TEACH Grant
Eligibility

Aligned to
Current ILA
Standards

Faculty with Real-World
Experience

Advances Initial Licensure to Professional

Adds a Second
License as a
Reading Specialist*

Reading Specialist MA Licensure (30 credits)

Advance your career as a Reading Specialist/Literacy Coach, educating students with diverse learning & literacy needs

Reading Specialist MA Licensure, Concentration in TESOL (36 credits)

Advance your career as a Reading Specialist/Literacy Coach with focused electives in Teaching English to Speakers of other Languages

Reading Specialist MA Licensure, Concentration in SPED (36-39 credits)

Advance your career as a Reading Specialist/Literacy Coach with focused electives in Special Education

CONTACT

APPLY

Dr. Marlene Correia
m8correia@bridgew.edu

www.bridgew.edu/apply

01

02

03