HERITAGE SUMMER CAMPS

Lower and Upper School Camps

Think Tank Camp, June 23-26

- Offered for rising C3-C7 Students
- Led by Mrs. Torrey Godbold

Think Tank is a simulation that replicates the conditions of a business that operates as a “think tank” in our society. Students will form companies, assume the roles of employees, and collaborate as they generate ideas to solve selected problems. The process requires them to brainstorm, evaluate the best solutions, and produce a final product that includes the strengths and weaknesses of their idea. Whether it is building a hide-out for a pirate's buried treasure, or helping a ninja retrieve an ancient secret, Think Tank is an opportunity for students to enter into the world of creativity while still learning real-world skills.

- Minimum of 10 participants; maximum of 18 participants
 - Time: 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
 - Cost: $200

World Travelers Camp, July 7-10

- Offered for rising C1-C5 Students
- Led by Mrs. Analise Buckingham

Pack your imagination and embark on an exciting journey around the world at World Travelers Camp! Students will explore diverse cultures through hands-on activities, traditional games, and delicious foods. From crafting unique souvenirs to learning fascinating customs, every adventure will spark curiosity and excitement. Each day, they'll 'travel' to a new country, learning and filling out their very own passport as they go. A great adventure awaits!

- Minimum of 10 participants; maximum of 18 participants
 - Time: 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
 - Cost: $200

STEM Camp, July 14-17

- Offered for rising C1-C5 Students
- Led by Mrs. Shannon Choate
- Join Mrs. Choate in STEM camp for the opportunity to build Rube Goldberg Machines. Can you think of a 10-step process for pouring a cup of water? Or 5 steps to turn on a light using dominoes and string? Rube Goldberg illustrated entertaining concepts of complex machines that complete simple tasks. We will bring these machines to life at STEM summer camp!
- Minimum of 10 participants; maximum of 18 participants
- Time: 9:00-1:00 p.m.
