A.P. EXAMS
ARE COMING!

A.P. exams begin May 5

In less than a month, TABS will drop $10,696 to administer a total of 236 A.P. exams to 200 students. Those are some big numbers! But students can save big numbers in college tuition with a qualifying A.P. exam score, which can result in credit for multiple courses. If you do the math, there's no reason not to take every A.P. exam as seriously as a college final.

Here's the schedule. Students can study on A.P. Classroom, Khan Academy and Bluebook.

- ◆ May 5: Biology
- ◆ May 6: Human geography
- ◆ May 12: Calculus BC
- ◆ May 13: Precalculus and environmental science
- ◆ May 15: Spanish language and culture
- ◆ May 16: Spanish literature and culture

Building a better future for FWISD

It takes courage to talk to the boss, but two Tornados had an opportunity to do just that. Eleventh-graders Mohamed Eissa and Jayden Meza were part of the Superintendent's Advisory Council this school year, where they advised the district chief on improving the student experience.

Mr. Henson and the entire TABS team would like to express their appreciation to Eissa and Meza for their contributions to this council. Thank you!

Algebra 2 students to take TSIA in class

All students who have not yet met the TSI math standard will take the TSIA math portion during their Algebra 2 classes beginning April 21. This will likely be their last opportunity to test this school year. Students should refer to the advisory page on Canvas for study help. Contact: Ms. Hicks and Mr. Wooddell
