Box Tops:

- Update-$183.00 as of 4/1/25
- currently at $201.20 as of 4/9/25
- we did not reach our goal on time, but the goal doubled from our original number. We need to decided what to do moving forward.
- Krystal made the thermometer reusable, we need to decide where to keep it

Doughnuts with Dads Update:

- 3 helpers arrived at 6:30 to set up, make coffee (takes 45 mins) and frost 250 doughnuts. 1 hour was just enough time to prepare and frost everything.
- only 3 people took coffee-should we stop serving coffee in the future? Most people arrive with their own coffee, and making it requires more time and money from the PTO.
- of the 250 doughnuts, we had less than 20 left over so perfect amount. Kitchen made 3 toppings, glazed (vanilla), chocolate, and maple. For next year, we could use more maple and chocolate, glazed was less popular

Freeze dried candy:

- Krystal Picked up candy in Missoula-will bring to meeting to show everyone
- we need to decide how we want to sell our trial run of candy
- Miranda has numbers for cost and profit of candy

Teacher appreciation week:

- Last meeting we agreed to do something small each day of the week for teacher appreciation, but the day the school does something

Ideas: 1. You're all that and a bag of chips-assortment of small chips in the break room

2. candace cookies- cost-$125.00

4.

-In addition to small something or other-we have been collecting donations from our community to put gift baskets together. Our idea for this was to do a “reverse Bluehawk bucks” drawing for teachers. Students would put a note in a drawing bucket for teachers for moments throughout the week that they appreciate them. Then we’ll do drawings for teachers to come pick a gift basket. Everyone will bring their donations to the meeting. If this idea isn’t approved, we will use the donations for something else towards teacher appreciation.

Recognize retirees:

-some PTO members suggested we do something to recognize the staff that are retiring this year

-if we decide to do this, we need to brainstorm, budget, and plan. A small committee for this would be ideal unless we want to include in staff appreciation somehow

Popcorn Friday:

April 11th-Candace Spake & Tori Helvey-both are looking for someone to cover them if possible.

May 9th-Hiddi Helvey & Sunday Sauter

Other business:

-Hiddi Made a PTO notebook that has information for future PTO members, minutes, calendar of events, etc.

-New PTO Facebook-do we want to use messenger again?

-should we set a cutoff date for things to be added to the agenda? It would be nice to have the agenda out for people to look over more in advance and give our secretary more time to prepare minutes.

Set date for next meeting:

May _____? Last meeting of the year?
