Determination

AVID is more than just a class; it's a college readiness system designed to ensure all students, especially those traditionally underrepresented in higher education, are prepared for success in a global society.

Mission Statement

AVID's mission is to close the opportunity gap by preparing all students for college and career readiness and success in a global society.

What is AVID and their History?

Why AVID?

- Equity and Access: AVID ensures all students have access to rigorous coursework and are equipped with the skills needed for college and career readiness, regardless of their background or socioeconomic status.
- High Expectations: AVID fosters a culture of high expectations, encouraging students to challenge themselves academically and reach their full potential.
- Supportive Community: AVID provides a supportive community where students feel valued, motivated, and supported by both their peers and educators.
- Critical Skills Development: AVID teaches critical skills such as organization, time management, collaboration, and critical thinking, which are essential for success both in school and beyond.
- College and Career Readiness: AVID prepares students for the rigors of college-level coursework and equips them with the skills necessary to thrive in a competitive job market.

The Impact of AVID

- Academic Achievement: Studies have shown that AVID students outperform their peers in both high school and college, with higher GPAs, graduation rates, and college enrollment rates.
- Confidence and Self-Efficacy: AVID instills confidence and self-efficacy in students, empowering them to take ownership of their learning and pursue ambitious goals.
- College Attendance and Persistence: AVID increases college attendance and persistence rates, ensuring that students not only enroll in college but also successfully complete their degree programs.
- Closing the Achievement Gap: AVID has a proven track record of closing the achievement gap by providing support and resources to students who may face academic or socio-economic challenges.
