Career & College Readiness Standard

Being career and college ready is a multifaceted goal that involves developing a blend of academic, technical, and soft skills to successfully transition into postsecondary education or the workforce. It encompasses critical thinking, problem-solving abilities, and effective communication skills. Ultimately, being career and college ready empowers individuals to pursue their goals with confidence and adaptability in a rapidly changing world.

Meeting CCR by the end of 10th Grade

(Choose 1 Option)

- GPA of 3.0+ AND earn an A,B or C in Algebra 1 or score proficient or above on Algebra I MCAP assessment.
- Score Proficient or above on ELA 10 and Algebra I MCAP assessments.

Meeting CCR in 11th or 12th Grade

- 1-year GPA 3.0+ in 11th or 12th grade AND earn an A, B, or C in a high school math course at any point in the student's high school career.

Other Ways to Meet CCR

(Choose 1 Option)

- 2 Dual Enrollment (DE) courses:
  - Grade C or better
  - 1 course in mathematics
  - 1 course in English, Science or Social Studies
- 2 AP courses:
  - Score 3 or better
  - 1 assessment in Math
  - 1 assessment in English, Science or Social Studies
- Earn a 50+ score on ASVAB
- SAT and PSAT:
- SA480+ in Reading and Writing & 530+ in Math
- ACT: Score 18+ in English & 22+ in Math
- Score AT TARGET on Math and ELA DLM Alternate Assessments
- Earn Silver + on ACT WorkKeys Assessment
- Earn a State-Approved Industry Recognized Credential
- Complete the high school level of a registered apprenticeship