

Morehouse School of Medicine

GROW CELLS

Summer Cancer Research
Opportunity for Rising
10th, 11th & 12th Grade
High School Students

The GROW CELLS (Granting Research Opportunities in Wellness by Creating Exciting Learning Laboratories in Science) program is led by the Cancer Health Equity Institute at Morehouse School of Medicine. It enhances the opportunity for local high school students to participate in science education and to encourage them to pursue cancer research.

June 9 – July 3

Monday – Thursday, 10 AM – 3 PM
Virtual and In-Person Presentations

July 7 – 18

Fieldwork, Practicum
and Abstract Review

July 22 – 23

Cancer Research Symposium
Crowne Plaza, Peachtree City, GA

Scan the QR code below and apply today!

Application Deadline: April 25, 2025

$500/Month Stipend Included

Program Contact: Jennifer Creighton (jcreighton@msm.edu)

www.msm.edu/cancerhealthequity

I AM MSM
50 Years of Shaping the Future of Health Equity