Laura Schneider – Supervisor of Transportation

To Whom It May Concern:

By Board of Education policy, written notice must be given to the Warwick Valley Central School District, Director of Transportation, by the parent or guardian of a student desiring transportation to a non-public school, no later April 1, preceding the beginning of the next school year.

State Law or district referendum will be utilized for establishing bus runs:

1) Maximum transportation mileage shall not exceed 15 miles one way.

This form will serve notification of transportation to a non-public school. Please complete this notification and forward it to the Director of Transportation no later than April 1.

Your failure to submit this form by April 1st may result in the loss of your transportation privileges.

Your child cannot be registered in two schools, i.e. - a private and a public school. If your child is registered for two schools, he/she will be assigned to the public school. You must make a choice.

Anyone requesting an alternate pick-up or drop-off for childcare purposes may obtain a Childcare Transportation Request Form from www.WarwickValleySchools.com. For any questions please contact the transportation department.

Please use a separate form for each child:
