DIANE VAJDOS
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Investing in Education

About the Scholarship

In addition to being a beloved wife, mother and friend, Diane Vajdos was a dedicated teacher. She had a passion for education and genuine love for her students. She believed that every student had potential – they just had to find the way to unlock it! She made it her mission to help every student, devoting countless hours to providing them the resources to be their very best.

Diane passed away in 2017 after a courageous battle with breast cancer. Her husband and children established the Diane Vajdos Memorial Scholarship to honor her legacy and ensure that students could continue finding ways to reach their full potential.
