Provide visual glossary on an anchor chart to scaffold. Dissect sentences together. Reading: Work directly with students to read and annotate text. Model annotation for the first one or two paragraphs. Then, allow students to finish annotating with partners or in groups. Review Prompt and Rubric: Work directly with students as a group to review prompts and rubrics. Prewriting: Work directly with students to begin planning their responses. Project a graphic organizer or outline and complete as a group. Discussion: Work directly with students as a group. Use a discussion guide and speaking frames to facilitate the discussion. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Linguistics: Use sound and phonics transfer charts and lessons to identify where transfer of sounds occurs for English learners from students’ native languages into English. Review vocabulary words and parts of speech in figuring out meaning. ● Grammar Transfers: Use grammar transfer charts to address common mistakes that some English learners make in speaking and writing when they transfer grammatical forms from their native languages into English. Allow use of charts for grammar lessons and oral communication activities. Use of IXL. ● Cognates: Cognate strategy instruction helps students whose first language shares cognates with English draw on their first language knowledge by teaching how to use cognate knowledge. Provide opportunities for English language learners to find cognates in authentic text and compare meanings with their native language. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Presentation Strategies: Vary the method of presentation: lecture, small groups, large group, demonstration, individual experimentation. Provide opportunities for student driven instruction. Organizational/Behavioral Strategies: Establish a timeline for long-range projects ● Motivational Strategies: Provide fewer drill and practice activities when material is learned. Give students choices of activities in learning the content. Allow the student to ‘buy’ time for self-directed activities after material is learned. Assessment Strategies: Give a pretest to allow the student to demonstrate mastery. Provide self-checking materials. Provide tests at a higher level of thinking. Environmental Strategies: Arrange for a mentor to work with the student in the interest area Cluster group gifted/talented students by areas of strength in the classroom. Allow independent use of library.
