Dear Karen:

We have prepared the following returns from information provided by you without verification or audit.

Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990)

We suggest that you examine these returns carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items contained therein to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements.

Federal Filing Instructions

Your Form 990 for the year ended 12/31/19 shows no balance due.

Your return is being filed electronically with the IRS and is not required to be mailed. If you mail a paper copy of your return to the IRS it will delay the processing of your return. Your electronically filed return is not complete without your signature. You are using a Personal Identification Number (PIN) for signing your return electronically. Form 8879-EO, IRS e-file Signature Authorization for an Exempt Organization should be signed and dated by an authorized officer of the organization and returned as soon as possible to:

McDonnell Richardson CPA, PC 215 W Second St Waxahachie, TX 75165

Important: Your return will not be filed with the IRS until the signed Form 8879-EO has been received by this office.

Also enclosed is any material you furnished for use in preparing the returns. If the returns are examined, requests may be made for supporting documentation. Therefore, we recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years.

Tax professionals, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding the privacy of client information. Our firm has been, and continues to be, bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. We have always protected your right to privacy.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

We collect nonpublic personal information that is either provided by you or obtained with your authorization.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law for both current and former clients. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees, and in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

Protecting the Confidentiality and Security of Current and Former Clients' Information

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

In order that we may properly advise you of tax considerations, please keep us informed of any significant changes in your financial affairs or of any correspondence received from taxing authorities.

If you have any questions, or if we can be of assistance in any way, please call.

Sincerely,

McDonnell Richardson CPA, PC

Privacy Notice: As a tax practioner, I receive and collect nonpublic personal information from various forms and statements that you provide. I do not disclose such information unless you instruct me to do so. I maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Dear Karen:

Dear Karen:

This letter is to confirm our understanding of the terms and objectives of our engagement and the nature and limitations of the services we will provide.

- We will provide 2019 tax preparations for all active entities on the attached list including:
 - a. Prepare the Federal Tax Return including supporting schedules and statements;
 - b. Prepare Texas Franchise Tax Return with supporting schedules;
 - Prepare addition State Income Tax Returns with supporting schedules (if applicable) listed below;

Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990)

d. Prepare any bookkeeping entries that we find necessary in connection with preparation of the income tax returns (additional fees apply);

You are responsible for the safeguarding of assets, the proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, the substantial accuracy of the financial records, and the full and accurate disclosure of all relevant facts affecting the returns to us. You also have final responsibility for the tax return and, therefore, the appropriate officials should review the return carefully before an authorized office signs and files it.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of the tax return and the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that do not meet these standards. Accordingly, we will advise you if we identify such a situation, and we will discuss those tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement. Likewise, where we disagree about the obligation to disclose a position, you also have a right to choose another professional to prepare your return. In either event, you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of the withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

Certain communications involving tax advice may be privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you, your employees, or agent may be waving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communication, you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expense incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court cost, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege.

The return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in our fees for preparation of the tax return(s).

You are responsible for making all management decisions and performing all management functions, and for designation and individual who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee any bookkeeping services, tax services, or other services we provide. In addition, you are responsible for evaluating the adequacy and results of the services performed and accepting responsibility for such services.

Jim Richardson is the engagement partner and is responsible for supervising the engagement and signing the report or authorizing another individual to sign it.

We agree with you that our fees for corporate income tax return services begin at approximately $500, State income tax returns are $100 per return and any accounting work related thereto is billed at a minimum of $95 per hour. For any additional services, the fee range is between $85 per hour to $275 per hour depending on the level of staff providing the service. You will also be billed for out-of-pocket costs such as report production, word processing, postage, travel, etc. The fee estimate is based on anticipated cooperation from your personnel and the assumption that unexpected circumstances will not be encountered during the work performed. If significant additional time is necessary, we will discuss it with you and arrive at a new fee estimate before we incur the additional costs. Our invoices for these fees will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation.

Our fees are based upon the complexity of the work to be performed and our professional time to complete the work. Additionally, this fee is dependent on the timely delivery, availability, quality, and completeness of the information you provide. If the information you provide is not submitted in a timely manner or is incomplete or unusable, we reserve the right to charge additional fees and expenses for services required to correct the problem. If this occurs, we will contact your representative to discuss the matter and the anticipated delay in performing our services.

In accordance with our firm policies, work may be suspended if your account becomes 20 days or more overdue and will not be resumed until your account is paid in full. If we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination, even if we have not completed our report. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended and to reimburse us for all out-of-pocket expenditures through the date of termination.

You may request that we perform additional services not contemplated by this engagement letter. If this occurs, we will communicate with you regarding the scope of the additional services and the estimated fee. We also may issue a separate engagement letter covering the additional services. In the absence of any other written communication from us documenting such additional services, our services will continue to be governed by the terms of this engagement letter.

Termination and Other Terms

We reserve the right to withdraw from this engagement without completing the work if you fail to comply with the terms of this engagement letter. If any portion of this agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the finding shall not invalidate the remainder of the terms set forth in this engagement letter.

You agree to hold us harmless and to release, indemnify, and defend us from any liability or costs, including attorney's fees, resulting from management's knowing misrepresentations to Please sign and return the attached copy of this letter to indicate your acknowledgement of, and agreement with, the arrangements for our engagement to prepare the financial statements described herein, and our respective responsibilities.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

ery truly yours,
IcDonnell Richardson CPA, PC
