

SHAC MEETING

OCTOBER 2, 2018

Present: Eve Spearman, Deb Harner, Cheryl Sanders, Penny Story, Susan Brown, Jeri Brungot, Alicia Rowe, Candace Ketchum, Ida-Laurinda Larmouth, Lynne Grandstaff, Ava Towner, Tiffanie Williams, Dr. Rebeca Piantini.

Deb welcomed the group and distributed information to new members.

Chair Eve Spearman called the meeting to order at 6:06 p.m. Members introduced themselves.

Meeting dates will be sent out. School reps were asked to find a substitute if they must be absent.

Election of officers: Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary.

Eve Spearman is willing to serve as chair. Vice Chair- Candace Ketchum from Wooden volunteered. Lynne Grandstaff is willing to continue as Secretary. The slate was elected unanimously.

New Business: Early stages of repeating the health and safety fair. Will need to set a date earlier. Discussed what was done last year, vendors, organizations, teen driving experiences, doctors, dentists, fitness, drug education, cooking demonstrations, master gardeners taught cooking with herbs, parenting information, senior assisted living were some of the booths. It was on a Saturday from 10 am-2pm. Student groups were there as volunteers. Tables were set up on Friday before. Businesses donated gifts for door prizes. Student groups were there to perform. About 300-400 attended. Discussed the communication surrounding the event: All social media, school newsletters, posters at local businesses. Sue will research dates and locations. Will try for an April date again.

Reviewed the history of the SHAC. Discussed some possible areas of concern and focus.

Next meeting is November 6 at 6 pm at Wooden Elementary in the Learning Commons.

Adjourned at 6:38 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lynne Grandstaff
Secretary