III. Meeting Notes:

Guest Presenter: Patricia Rivera with DSHS-Texas Health and Human Services-Community Health Improvement Program

- Presented on the different community services available. The services include:
  - Maternal & Child Health: safe sleep awareness, injury prevention, tobacco prevention & control (SCRIPT, AAR, vaping toolkit), oral health (discuss the importance of dental hygiene with elementary students), obesity prevention, community assessment, coalitions, and child fatality review teams.
    - All of the programs are free due to funding received for their fiscal year that ends in August 2021.
    - Would be able to setup tables to cover these topics at future health fairs.
  - Suicide prevention: seminars provided by DSHS through the Grant Halliburton Foundation. Each participating ISD receives a parent seminar and a student seminar (middle school and high school). The parent session would be available in the evening and the student session during the day.
    - The seminar is 45 min. to 50 min. long. Live sessions, online with time for questions and answers.
    - 500 logins are made available per session for the student session

- 500 logins are made available per session for the parent session
  - Flyer with information is made available to the school. Up to the school district to publicize.
  - Susan Brown will work with Patricia Rivera to coordinate a date and time for interested SHAC members to have an opportunity to view a parent session.
- Approved SHAC meeting dates and times for the 2021-2022 school year. Cassie Street made a motion to approve and it was second by Candace Ketchum. The meetings will be the first Tuesday of the month at 6pm. Motioned by Cassie Street and second by Andrea Jones to conduct these meetings via Zoom.
    - October 5, 2021
    - November 2, 2021
    - February 1, 2022
    - March 1, 2022
  - Victoria Ybarra stated that she would share the Zoom link from tonight's presentation with those that missed it. ROISD SHAC Meeting 03.02.21
  - Eve thanked all of the members for their participation and service this school year and recognized Candace Ketchum for her service and input to SHAC as she will be moving from ROISD soon.
