

FROM OVERWHELMED TO EMPOWERED:

Supporting Diverse Learners with Confidence

Teaching a classroom full of diverse learners can feel overwhelming... but it doesn't have to be!

This one-day workshop will equip you with practical, research-based strategies to support all students, including those with disabilities, within the general education setting.

Facilitator: Jennifer Taylor, Education Behavioral Consultant, Greenbush Specialized Learning

Using Visible Learning, High-Leverage Practices, and Specially Designed Instruction, both elementary and secondary educators will:

Gain tools to enhance instruction, provide meaningful supports and collaborate effectively with paraprofessionals.

Walk away with actionable strategies to create an inclusive, engaging, and effective learning environment.

Learn how to implement these tools and strategies
- *without adding more to your plate!
