MCHS JUNIOR SELECTED FOR GOVERNOR'S SCHOLARS PROGRAM

EDMONTON, Ky. (April 16, 2025) – Metcalfe County High School is pleased to announce junior Addison Morgan will represent MCHS at the 2025 Governor's Scholars Program (GSP).

GSP is a summer residential program for rising seniors who have demonstrated outstanding high school careers. Selected scholars will network with other exceptional students across the state to strengthen their leadership capabilities while developing critical thinking, adaptability, and creativity.

"We are incredibly proud of Addison for being selected as a Governor's Scholar," MCHS Principal Joseph Eaton said. "This is a testament to her outstanding academic record, her engagement in the classroom, and her overall commitment to excellence."

Addison will join more than 1,000 other Kentucky high school students for the five-week program at either Centre College, Morehead State University, or Murray State University.

"The Governor's Scholars Program is a transformative experience, and we are confident that Addison will thrive in this environment and grow as an individual and student. Addison will definitely show that Hornet Hustle at GSP!"

There is no fee for the program, which is supported financially by the Office of the Governor, the Kentucky State Legislature, and private donors.
