

6th Grade AIG

Service Day Program

6th grade AIG students submitted original poems to read during their service day field trips to local assisted living homes. Six students were chosen to share their poems at each of the service day field trips. Other AIG students were also chosen to read a speech to open the program, lead the 6th grade students in the RAISE pledge, and read a speech to close the program.

