VIKING 2002 DEDICATION

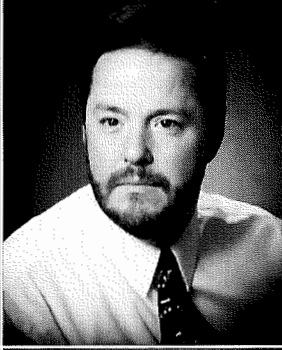

Mr. Patrick F. Joyce

The Riverside Yearbook Staff dedicates Viking 2002 to Mr. Patrick Joyce for his twenty-four years of outstanding service as Viking Yearbook advisor. This year Mr. Joyce completes the last of his Riverside yearbooks and closes a career of yearbook service that began in 1979 and spanned four decades. Throughout the history of the Taylor-Moosic and Riverside School Districts, no other yearbook advisor has served as long in that position. Mr. Joyce leaves behind a legacy that includes two nationally award winning yearbooks. The Viking 2002 Yearbook Staff has labored and sacrificed to produce what we hope will be yet another honored publication. Thank you, Mr. Joyce. We dedicate our effort and treasured yearbook to you.

The Yearbook Staff sponsored Riverside's first-ever themed dance. The Hawaiian Luau Dance was held on December 2nd, 2001. The cafeteria was decorated in true Hawaiian fashion, complete with tiki torches, lights, and a volcano erupting streams of paper as ash and sparkling lava. Pictures from the 2000-2001 Viking yearbook were sold as well as soda garnished with colorful umbrellas. The festivities began with the Crowning of the King and Queen Kahuna. The titles were awarded to Tim Gronski and Lindsay McAndrew for wearing the most original Hawaiian-themed outfits. Shaun Bell won the raffle for a dance with Riverside's newest computer-science teacher, Ms. Barucki. The night of firsts concluded with a selection of karaoke songs performed by Mr. Kollesar which the entire school was invited to choose. He amazed the crowd with his stylized versions of popular seventies Bee Gee hits. The evening proved to be a truly unforgettable event in our senior year.

Ryan Joyce 2002

Pennsylvania and Virginia on September 11, 2001. Lest we forget...

SCENE: The year is 2012. The place is a local television station where Mike Schmitt is now a big important TV producer.

J: Excuse me sir. Can you tell me where the auditions for the Colgate Smile Commercial are?

M: (Looks at each lady back and forth) Ladies, Ladies... Please! (Ladies walk away) Sure can mam. Right this way.

J: Wait, I know that voice... Michael Schmitt!

M: That's me. And who might you be?

J: Julie... Julie Hunisch! Boy have you changed. All this money! All these ladies! I remember when you couldn't get a girl at all in high school. And you tried so hard when we had one month of school left, with that new haircut and those earrings.

M: And you, auditioning for a part... with a smile in it? I don't think I've ever seen your teeth!

J: That's right.

M: Okay then it'll be just a few minutes. So how have you been since high school?

J: I've been great. It seems like only yesterday we were at our senior prom.

M: Yea. Remember king and queen, Sean Bell and Kelly Coombs?

J: Sean Bell? You men Rip Tan Winkle? I think he fell asleep in the tanning bed for 100 years. He got really dark.

M: Yea. You know who else got really dark? Oh what's his name...

J: Dave Walters?

M: Yea that's it. I was so jealous. Hey, speaking of tanning Julie, remember when you tried it? (laughs) Your white skin was red for weeks! But I see you're pretty tan now. About as tan as this piece of paper! (Holds up paper)

J: Haha. Oh come on. It wasn't that bad.

M: Yea, you're right. If tanning was a sport, you'd get most improved player.

J: On the subject of sports, remember our girls softball team? They had a great senior year.

M: Yea, Jillian Helcoski, Robin Scaramastro, and Joleen Wheeler were great players.

J: and Karyn Kollonige too.

M: Yea, Karyn and Jill got their arm strength from practicing pitching in their backyards.

J: and Joleen got her arm strength from fighting with girls, ripping their hair out and throwing it on the cafeteria floor. But hey, whatever made her a great athlete.

M: Yep. I remember the football team had a good season that year too.

J: Yea, Matt Smith and Ronnie Pavalonie were always good.

M: Ronnie Pavalonis? Is he still with Jenn Haberek?

J: Yea, they're still together. Last time I saw her she was locked down in his basement trying to finish his homework.

M: Oh. Speaking of good football players, do you remember Ronnie's good friends Jack Jorgenson and Steve Sandly?

J: Oh yea! I heard they were asked to join the Dallas Cowboys, but they wouldn't allow them to get on the plane to go to Dallas.

M: Why not?

J: Well the airline attendant said they were carrying too much luggage.

M: Oh well. Still on the subject of sports... Tennis! Weren't you one of the tennis greats? You had huge muscles... in your right arm. Doesn't look like the le one ever caught up.

M: (flexing his right arm) Yea, me and Steve Clewell and my good friend Shawn Joyce were great at tennis!

J: Steve Clewell. Remember that one time when I actually gave studying a break? No... wait... I brought his Chemistry book with him to the movies.

M: Yep. And remember when Shawn Joyce was voted best looking most popular boy ever?

J: Yea Mike. Mr. Popular.

M: Speaking of popular people, remember at class night when Lesha Knight was voted most popular?

M: And most dependable.

J: And most fake smiles.

M: Wow. All of those awards. But she deserved them.

J: Speaking of awards, didn't Jenn Evans and Bob Odzana get the award for being best friends?

J: Oh I heard she's in the hospital because her fifth lung collapsed after she had knee surgery and the new kidney she had put in stopped working. But I went to see her the other day. She's fine and just as fun as ever.

M: And who's Bob Odzana?

J: Oh well you probably never saw him. He only came to school on days that end with zero.

M: But that's okay because all of the days he missed Chris Kowalski made up for with his perfect attendance record.

J: Yea, I remember always seeing his smiling face in the homeroom. Right after he finished his breakfast... a

CLASS F Mike Schmitt

Wikki's hoagie.

A: Man, high school sure was fun. Do you remember some of the funny moments we had? J: Oh. You mean like the time Jared Mallis ripped the faucet off of the sink in the art room and water started flying everywhere and caused a flood?

A: (laughs) Yea, or when Matt Snyder mentioned how "The Rain in Spain falls mainly on the... ground" in Mr. Armillay's class.

J: Yea that was pretty funny.

A: Or that time when Phil Godlewski and Megan McDermott tried to open a daycare.

J: Oh, did they get a lot of business? M: No, but their dating lives improved greatly.

J: Hey didn't Phil play baseball? M: Yea, I think so.

J: Yea, him Mike Ambrose, Jay Jarecki, Justin Lacombs, and Matt Zumbach were really good players.

ISTORY

Julie Hunisch

M: Yea they had a good season senior year too.

J: Matt Zumbach... he didn't talk much did he?

M: mmmnbmnbmnbmnbmnm.

J: Yea you're right. He did say that once.

M: mmmnbmnbmnbmnbmnm.

J: And that too. Hmm. I guess he was pretty talkative.

M: Yea. Our senior football cheerleaders were pretty talkative that year too.

J: Oh! Are you talking about that time at the pep ally when they talked a little too much and got themselves suspended from the last home game ever?

J: Yea, but it was worth it. They cheered so well at all of the other games.

J: Hey Mike do you remember the donut shop? Everyone used to hang out there back in the day.

J: Yea, in fact I remember some people seeing a little too much of Tim Gronski and Jared Mallis there one day.

J: Hey, didn't Phil wreck his car there? Or wait was it at the community center?

J: Are you talking about his first, second, third, or fourth accident?

J: Ahh, I don't even remember, but speaking of accidents, remember right before the prom when we had that mock accident? It was so kind of Ashley Fauver to let them borrow her car.

M: Yea, well she was always a crazy driver, they just figured it would look like that in a few days anyway.

J: Yea, I guess you're right.

M: We had a lot of crazy people in our grade.

J: Yea. Remember the time when Dave and Joe man fought?

M: Julie, they fought every day.

J: No Mike, every other day. They needed that day in between so they could become best friends again before they hated each other the next day.

M: Yea, they were just like Jenn Stocki and Ryan Joyce. Holding hands one minute and hating each other the next.

J: Haha, yea. Jenn and Ryan - they were really good singers.

M: and Amber Rugletic and Jessica Schield were good too.

J: Yea, Speaking of music remember when Paul Novack played the Alma Mater at honor society senior year?

M: Oh that's what he was trying to play?!

J: (laughs) Yea that was one of honor societies funnier moments.

M: You mean honor societies only funny moment.

J: Speaking of honors, weren't we the only class ever to have the all honors banquet held at the school?

M: Yea, great idea. No one came.

J: You're right no one did show up. But I remember a day that everyone always came to school.

M: When's that? light beef gravy topping in the cafeteria.

M: What? Oh! You mean "Chicken Slop"! That stuff was great. I think we got a few black eyes from people trying to cut in line that day.

J: Yea everyone tried to get to lunch early that day, if not to school early just to smell it cooking.

M: No Julie, not everyone came early, Jenn Haberek was late almost every day.

J: Yea you're right. She got so many late slips she could have pasted over her Ronnie Pavalonis wallpaper.

M: No, because then when Stephanie Semian was peeking in her window to make sure Ronnie wasn't there, she wouldn't have been able to stare at it.

J: Speaking of staring, I was just looking at the clock on the wall. Do you think they're ready for me to audition yet?

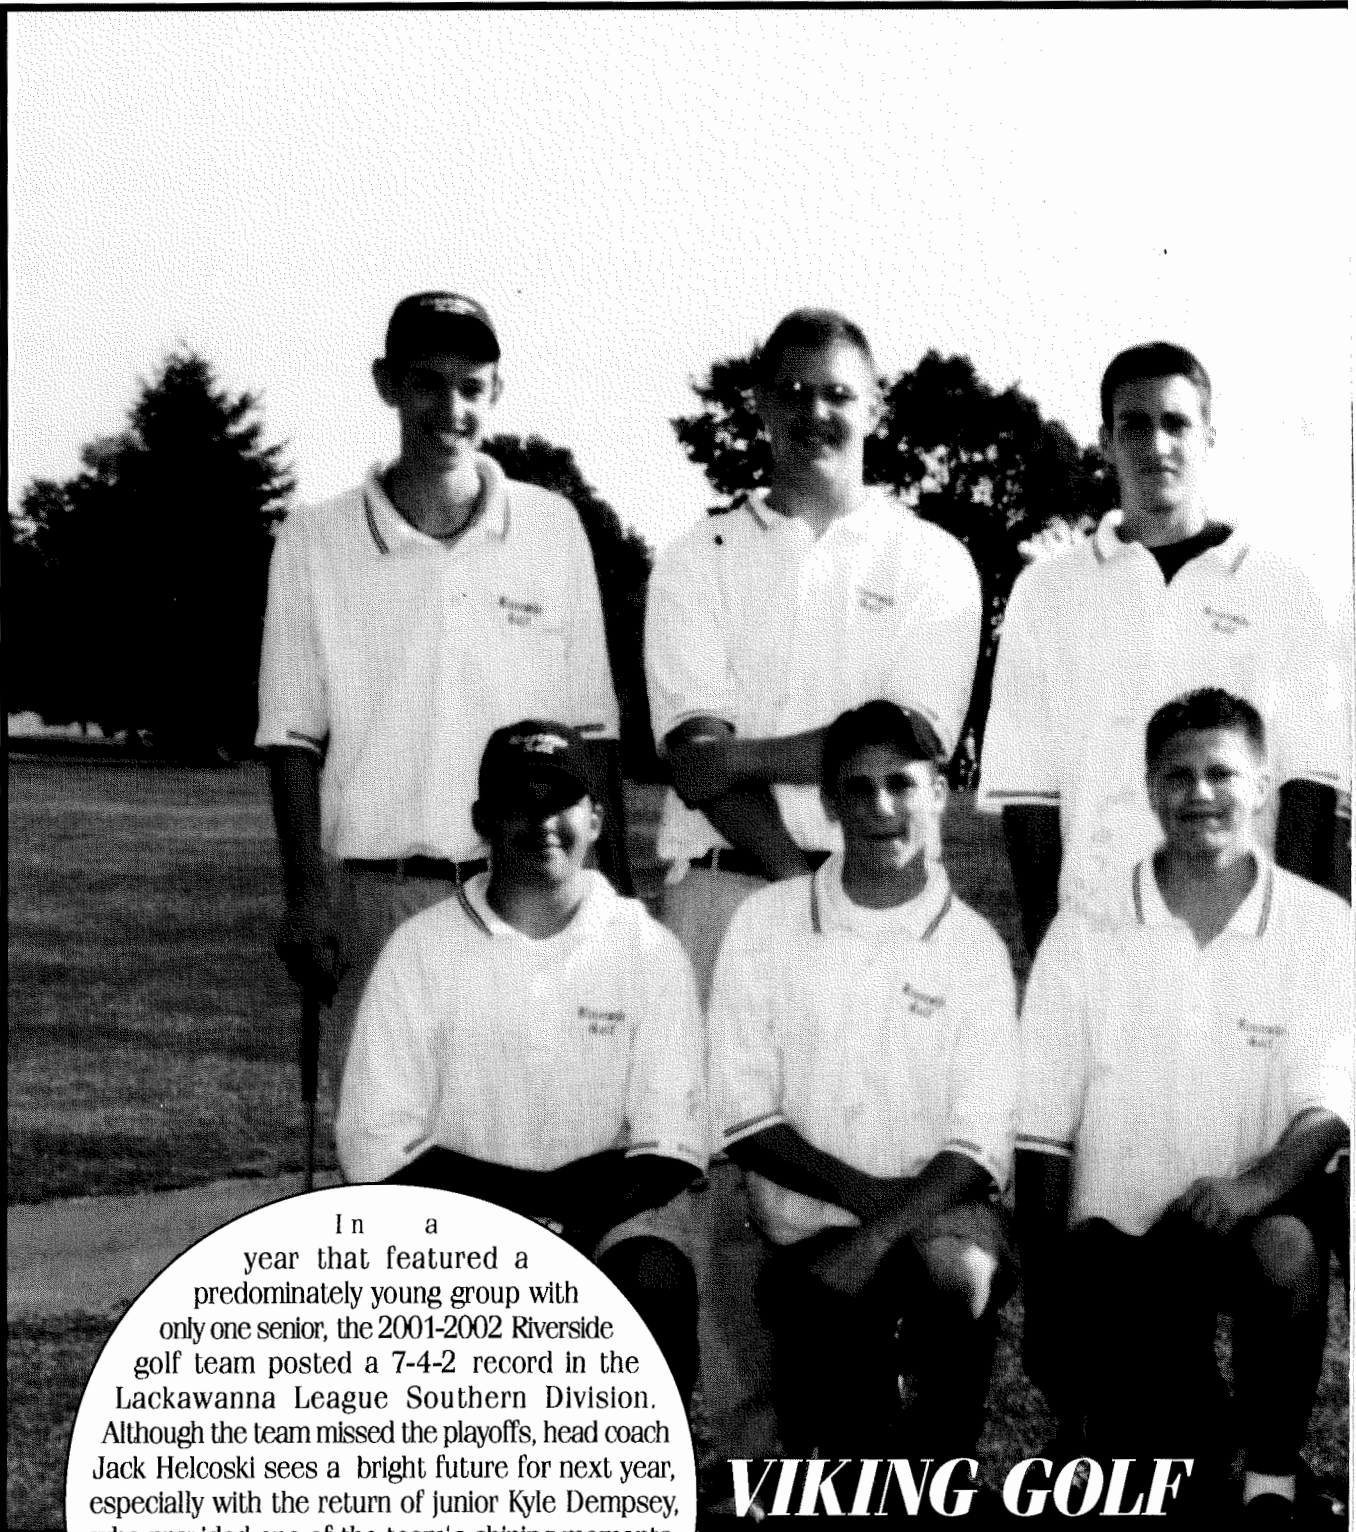

M: I think so Julie. Well it's been great talking about high school. Those days were great. I hope our reunion will be filled with just as many funny moments.

J: Yea and I hope the class of 2002 has turned out just as successful as we did.

TICS

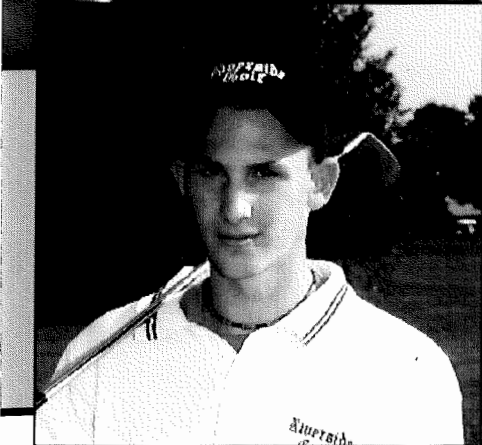

In a year that featured a predominately young group with only one senior, the 2001-2002 Riverside golf team posted a 7-4-2 record in the Lackawanna League Southern Division. Although the team missed the playoffs, head coach Jack Helcoski sees a bright future for next year, especially with the return of junior Kyle Dempsey, who provided one of the team's shining moments. After shooting a nine-hole school record of 31 in a match against Dunmore, he took his undefeated record of 12-0-1 into districts where he posted a score of 84. The only senior on the team was Drew Nicholson. His two years on the team brought a maturity that enabled Riverside golfers to meet the pressure of competition with dignity and class. His contributions and hard work will be missed.

VIKING GOLF

The Lady Vikes Tennis team had yet another productive year under the guidance of Mr. John Radzwillowicz. Laura Nageli was first seed, Tiffany Golden was second seed, Jenna Flipkowski was third seed, and Tiffany Duda was fourth seed. The senior team players were Tiffany Golden, Tiffany Duda, and Jennifer Evans.

2002 VIKING

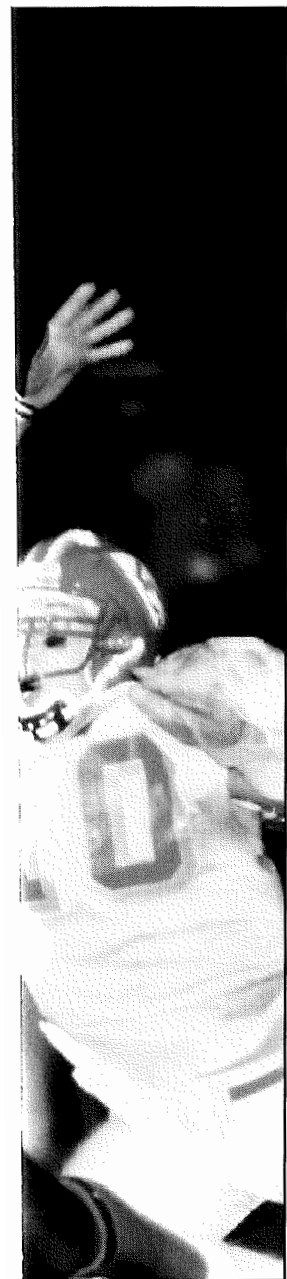

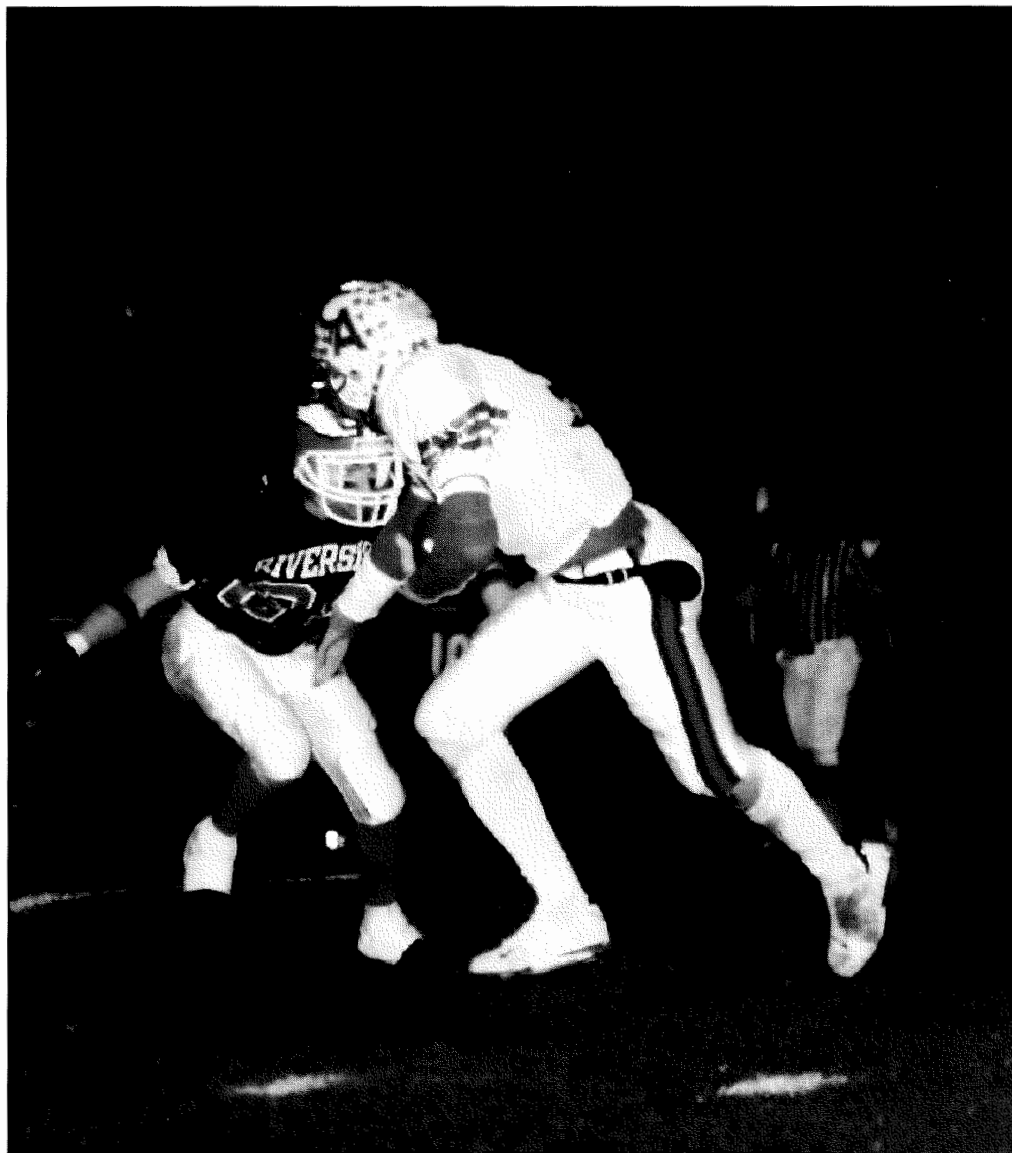

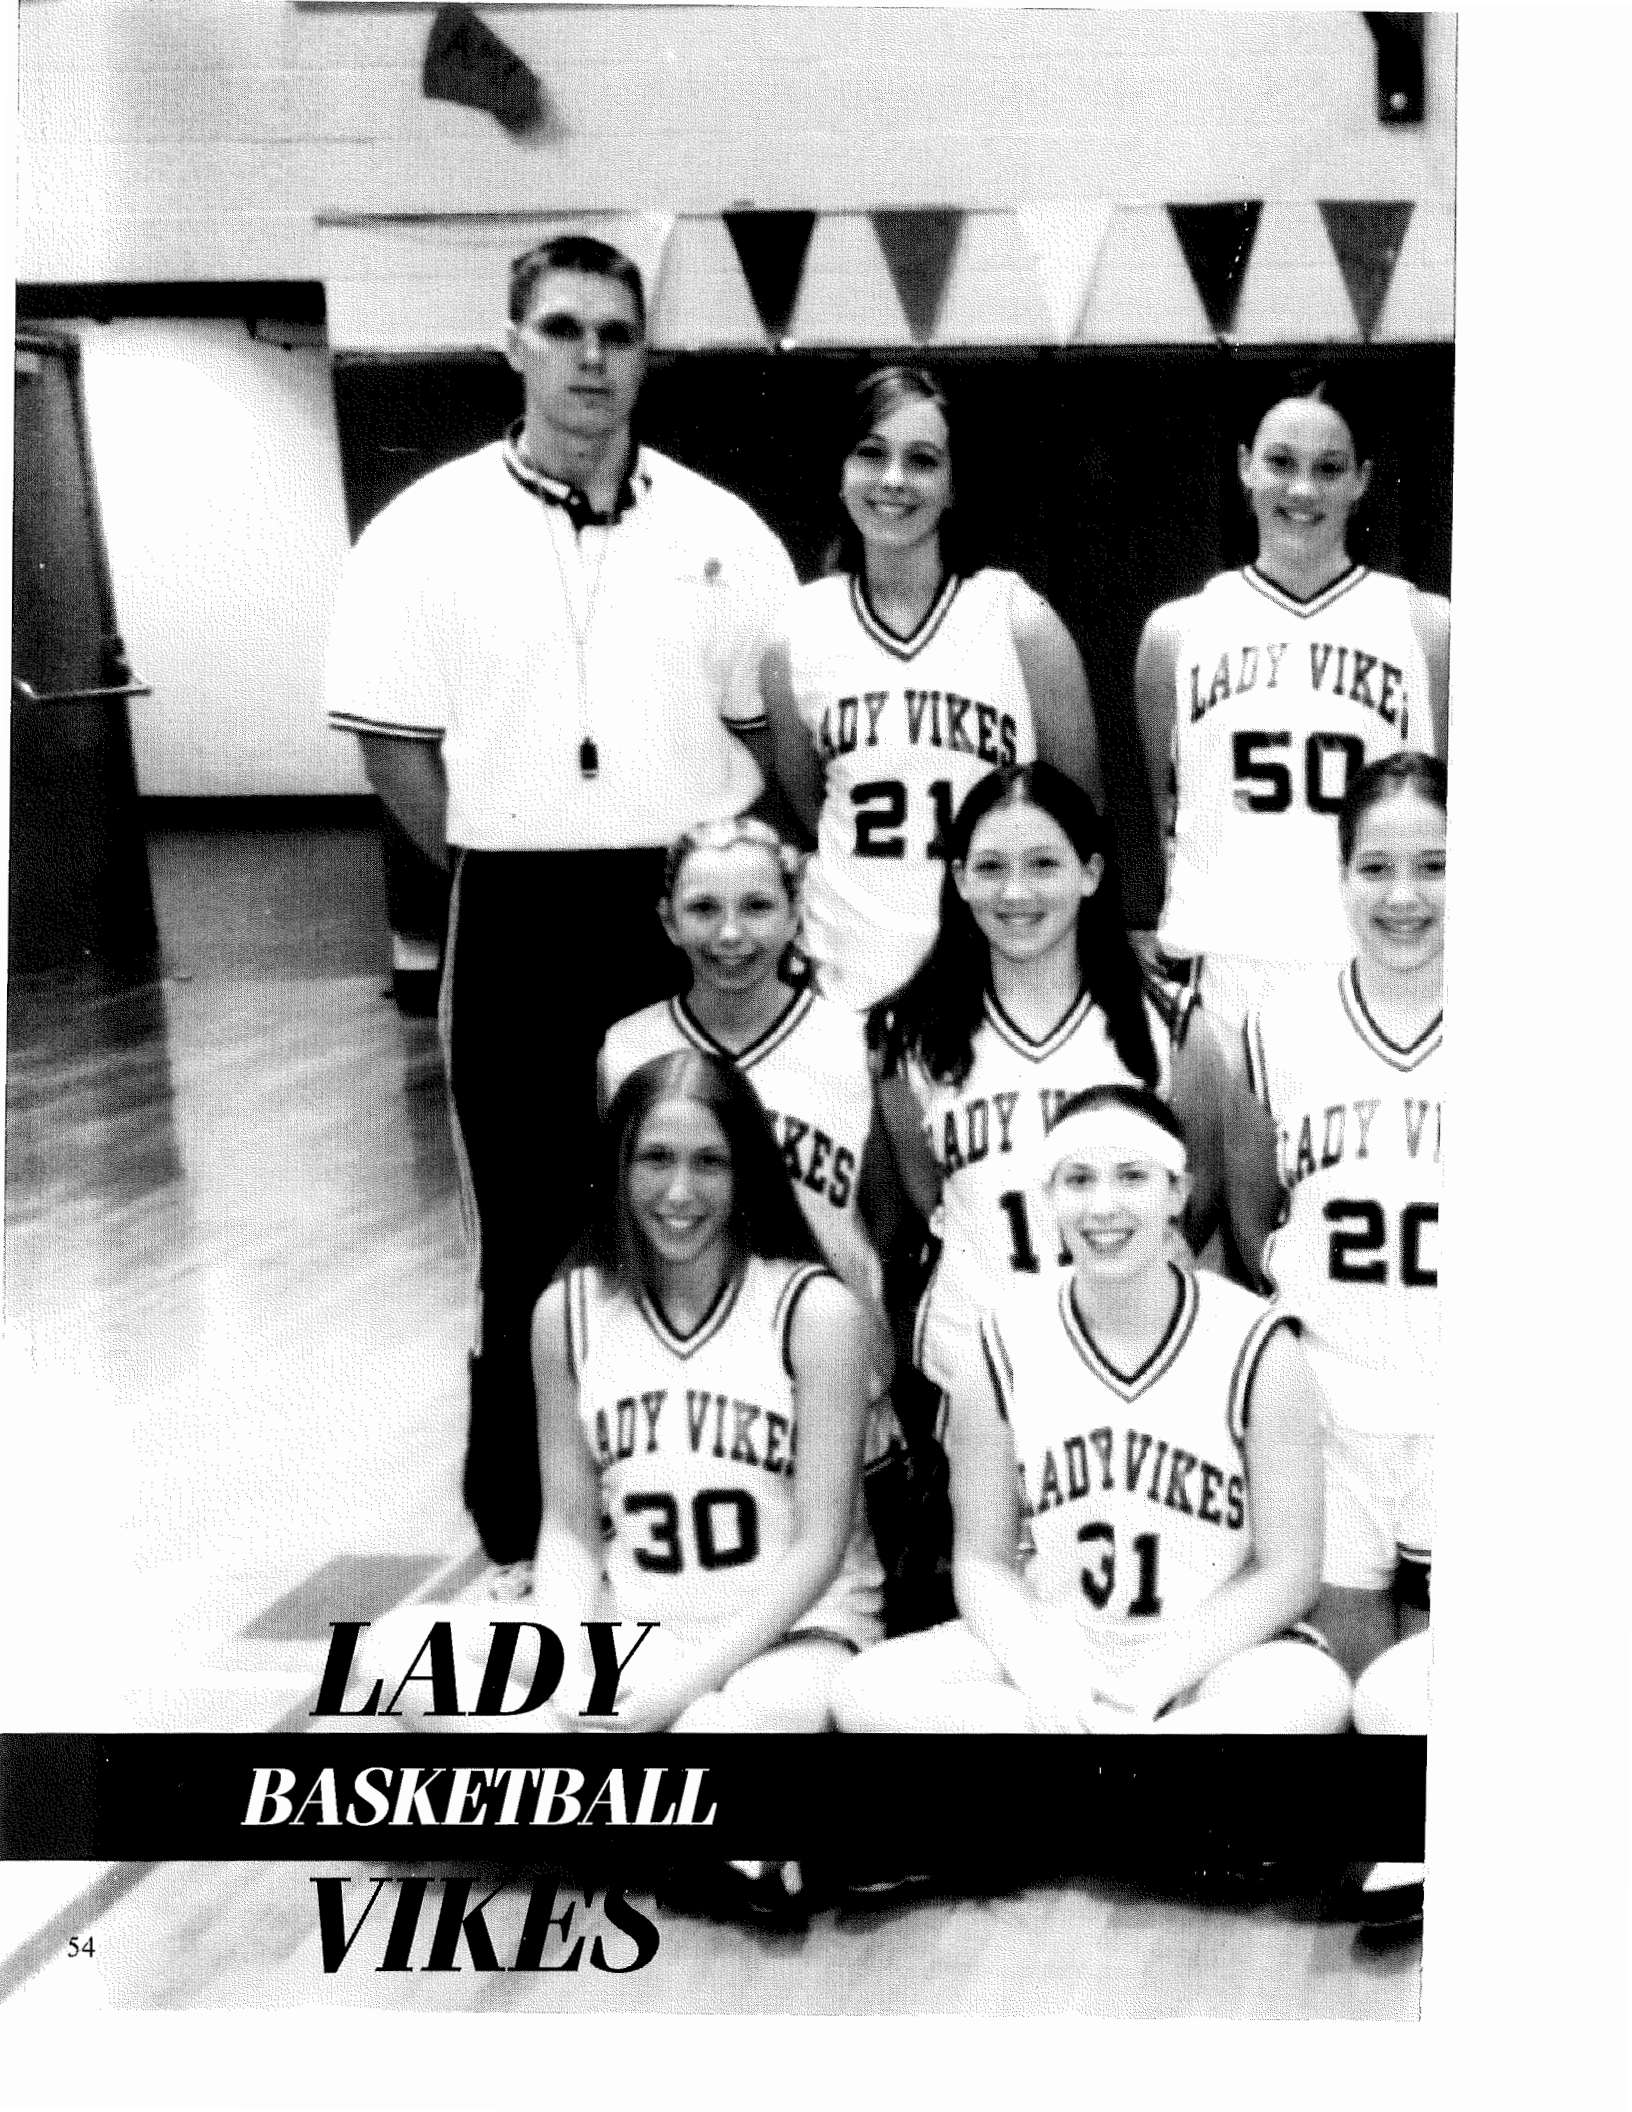

FOOTBALL TEAM

The Riverside football team completed another great season with a final record of 8-3. The senior captains this year were Matt Smith, Steve Sandly, Ron Pavalonis, Brian McLaughlin, and Chris Kowalski. The team made it to the first round of playoffs, returning home with the Co-Division Champions title. Great job, guys!

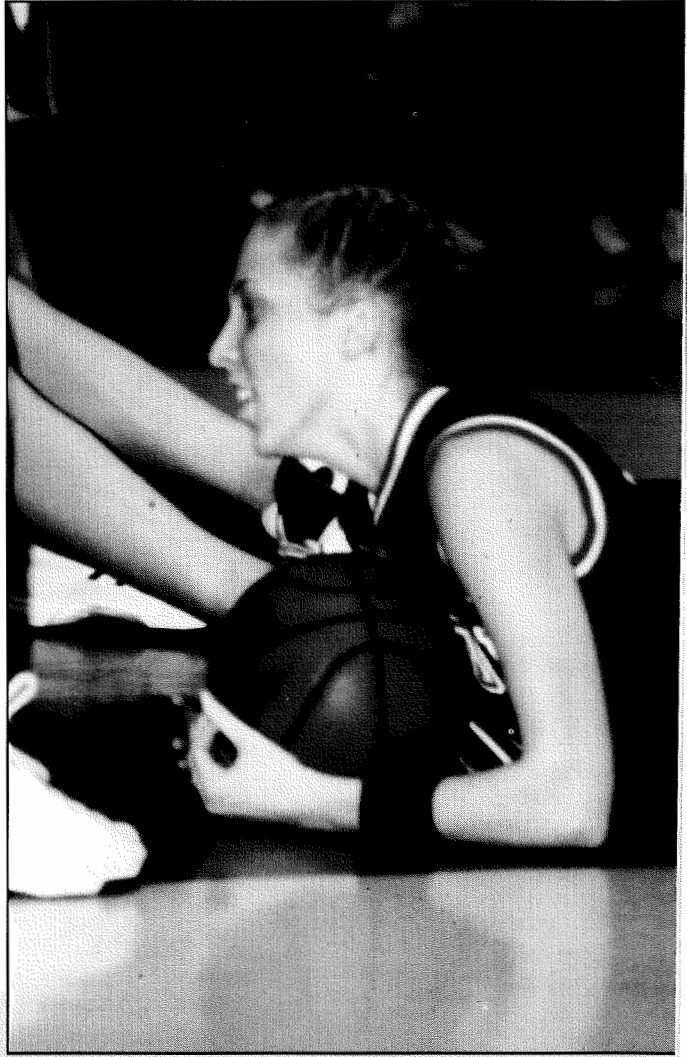

LADY

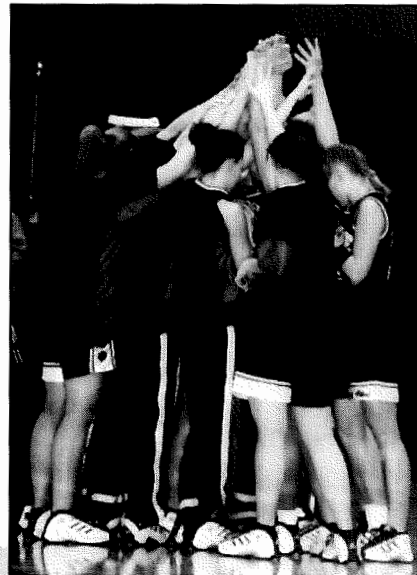

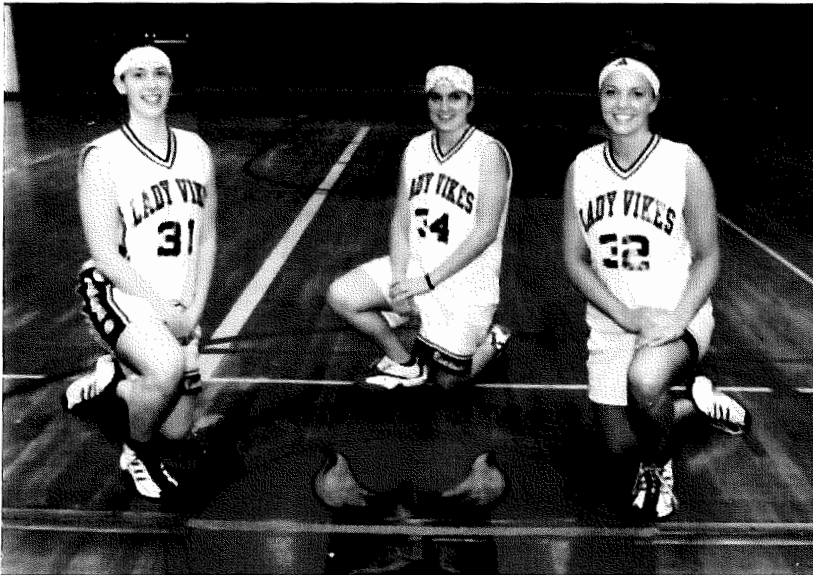

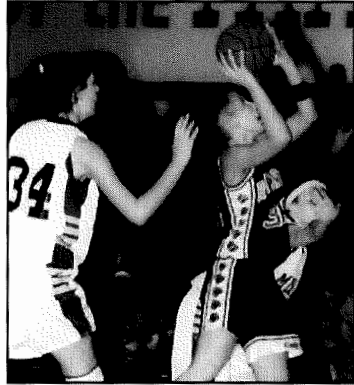

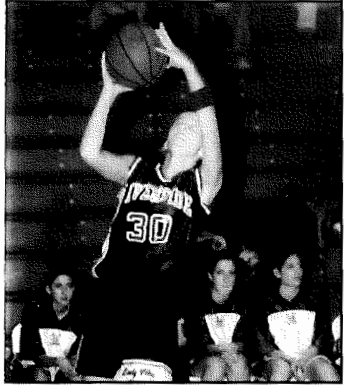

BASKETBALL

VIKES

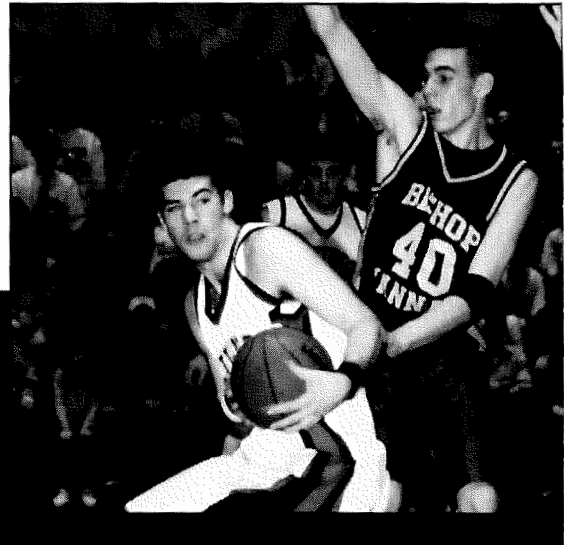

THE SEASON

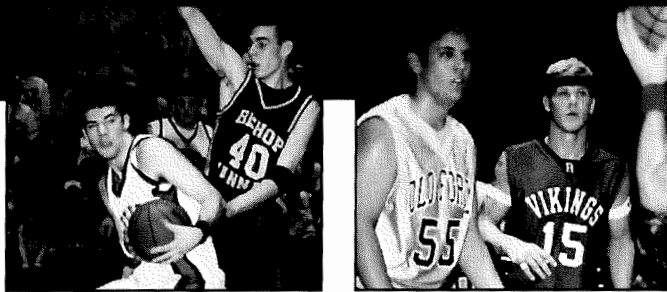

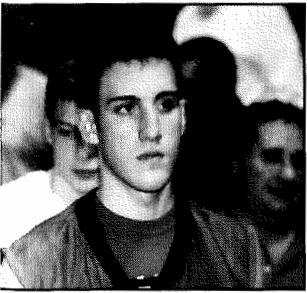

The Riverside Lady Vikes basketball team had a winning season with eleven wins and ten losses despite not having any returning seniors. The team was comprised of predominately juniors, including captains Jessica Lisowski and Lisa Paden, and sophomores Nikki Turoni and Melissa Kollonige. Errol Mannick and Lynn Tallo coached the Lady Vikes to the first round of the district playoffs. The Lady Vikes are looking to improve next season with all of their returning starters including Second Team All-Stars Melissa Kollonige and Lisa Paden. Good luck, Lady Vikes!

VIKING BASKETBALL

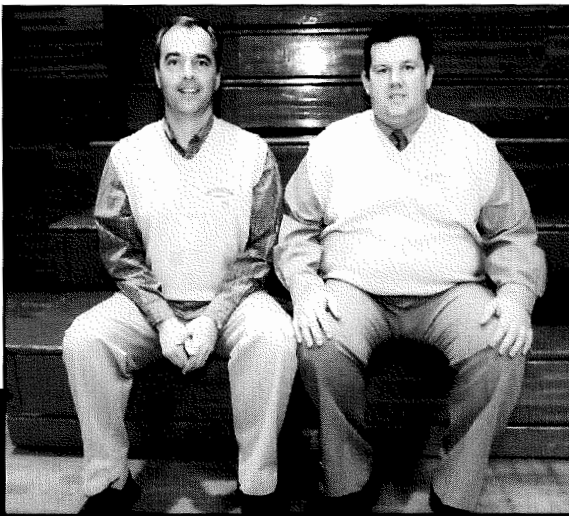

This year was supposed to be a rebuilding year for the Riverside Vikings basketball team, but co-captains Joe Nardone and Josh Aniska had other plans. The Vikings stayed in contention for the playoffs all the way up to the last week of the season. Not only did they play above their potential but also pounded arch-rival Old Forge three times this season. The first game was at Old Forge where seniors Ron Pavalonis and Joe Nardone along with junior Josh Aniska all had double digit scoring games to win at the Devils' Den. The second time these two teams met was in the Taylor Lions Tournament where all four seniors including Mike Shertza and Tom Pavalonis got playing time. Co-Captain Joe Nardone led all scores with 16 to lead the Vikings to a win, thereby earning All-Tourney Team honors. The "Rebuilding Year" had to wait for another time. Thanks for all the memories Viking basketball provided.

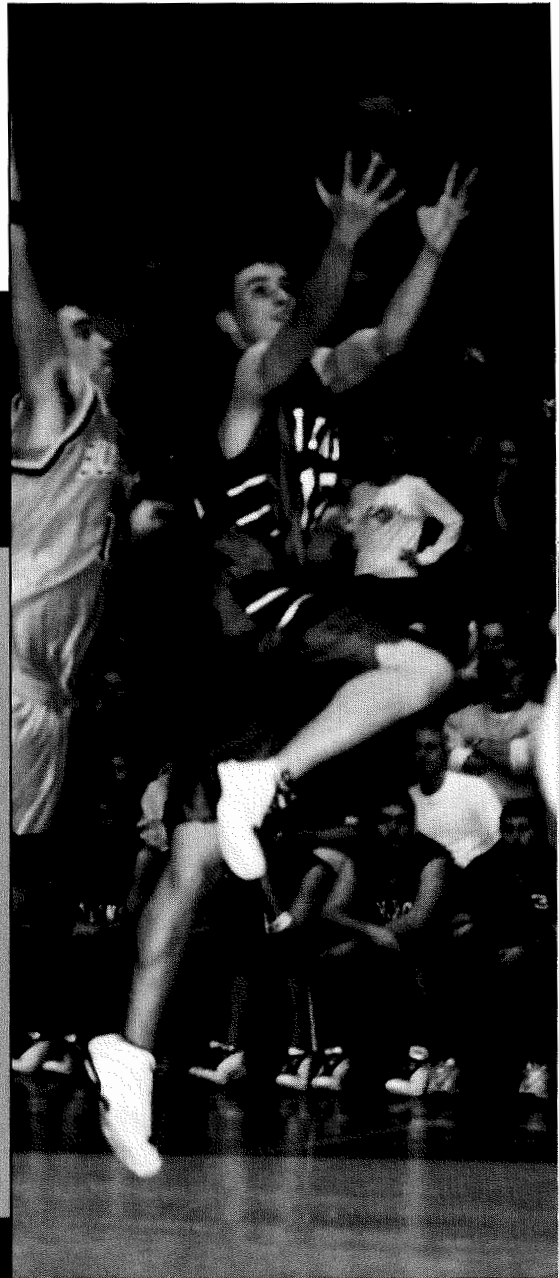

2001-2002 RIVERSIDE VIKINGS

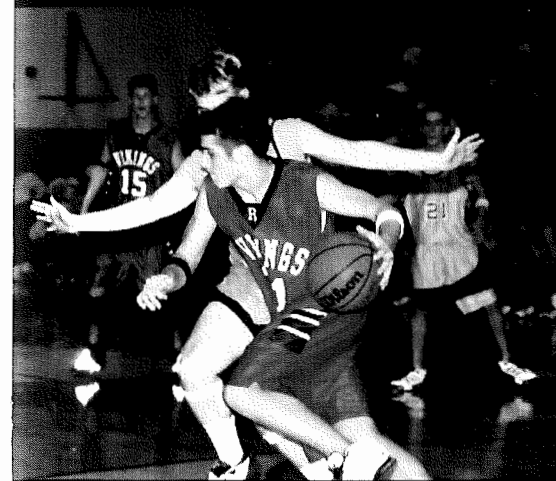

THE COACHES

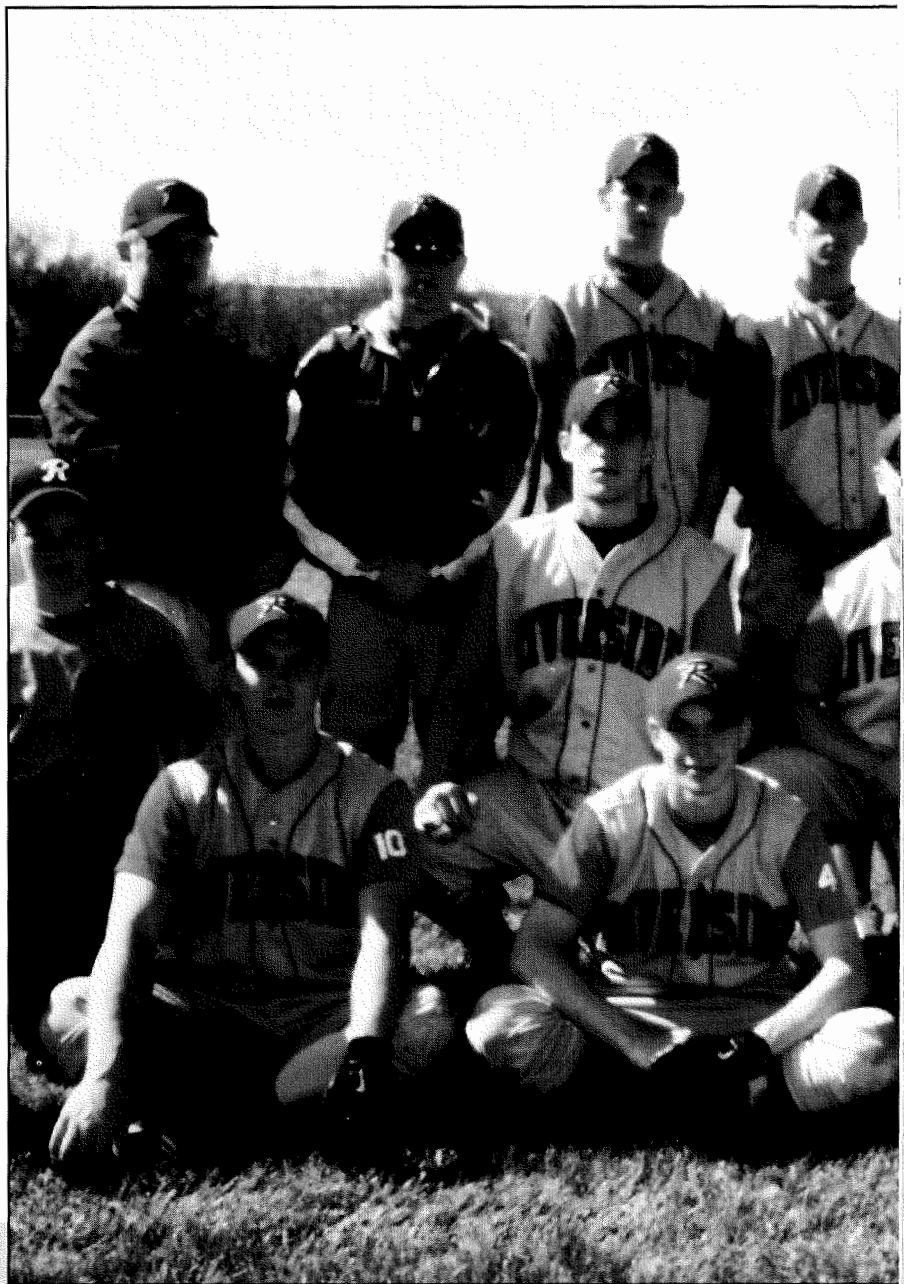

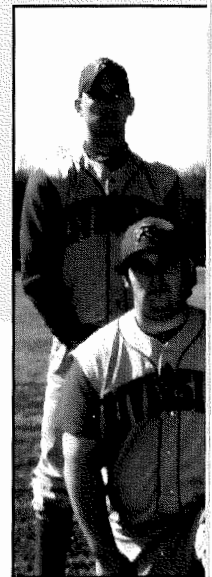

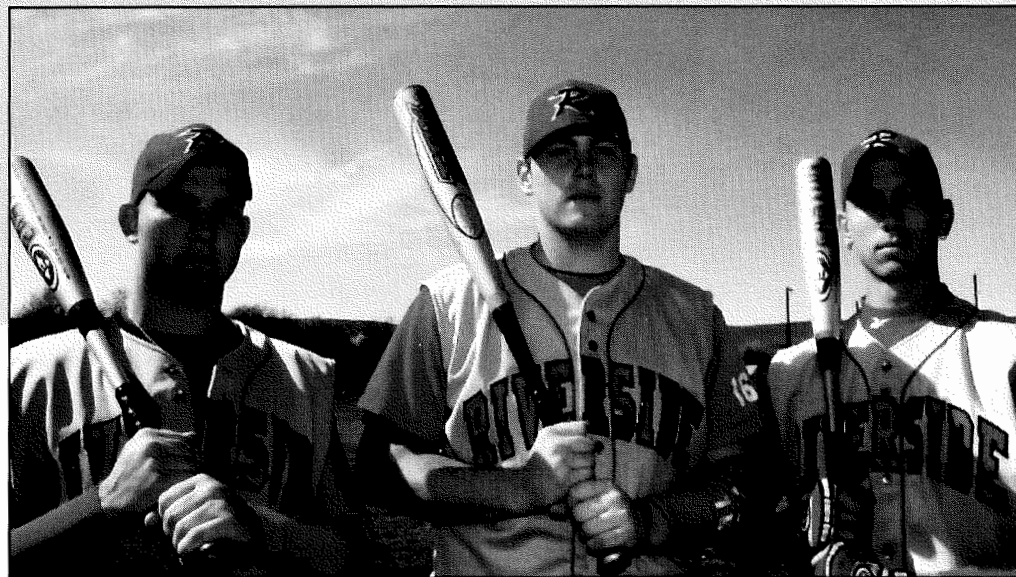

THE SENIORS

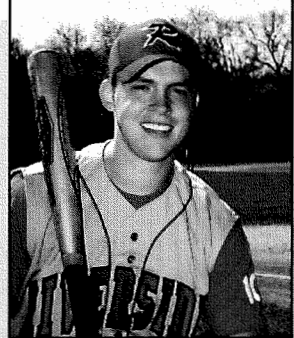

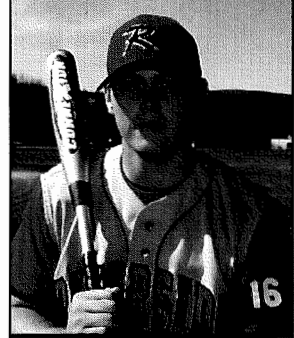

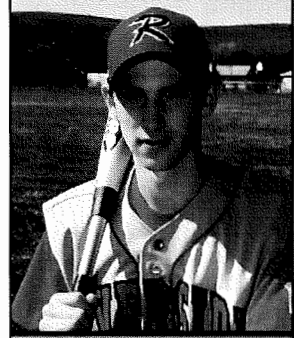

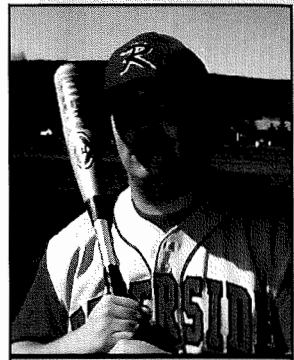

The Riverside Vikings Varsity baseball team completed the 2002 season with another remarkable record of 15-1. The team, coached by Dan Digwood with the assistance of Ed Gaidula, completed the year by crushing such opponents as the Bishop Hannon Lancers and arch rivals Old Forge Blue Devils. This earned the Vikings the Lackawanna League Southern Championship for the fourth consecutive year. Team captains include Phil Godlewski, Matt Zumbach, and Jason Jarecki. The remaining senior players are Mike Ambrose, Justin Lacomis, Drew Nicholson, and Shawn Foley. The outstanding teamwork along with the amazing pitching abilities of Phil Godlewski and strength of Matt Zumbach's bat led the Vikes to the playoffs once again, showing supporters the true meaning of Viking baseball!

VIKING
BASEBALL

A new coaching regime headed by Joe Helcoski and assistants Bruce Chickeletti and Joe Streznetcky led the Lady Vikes softball team to an 11-5 regular season record and a trip to districts. The team was well on their way until the second half of the season where they suffered multiple losses, the most devastating being a 4-3 loss in extra innings, (10 in all), to #1 Valley View. This did not keep the Lady Vikes out of districts however, nor did it dampen their spirits. The team fought hard all season, led by senior captains Karyn Kollonige, Robin Scaramastro, Jillian Helcoski, Jolene Wheeler, and Heather Ellis.

JV TEAM

The Riverside Vikings Cross Country team compiled a total of twenty victories this season. Captains Sara Davis, a junior, and Brian Fauver, a sophomore, both medalled in the District Competition and qualified for the State competition. They were members of the prestigious All-Star team, along with some of the most acclaimed runners in the conference. Much is expected of the team and of the two young cross country stars, who will both return next year to lead the Vikings to yet another victorious season.

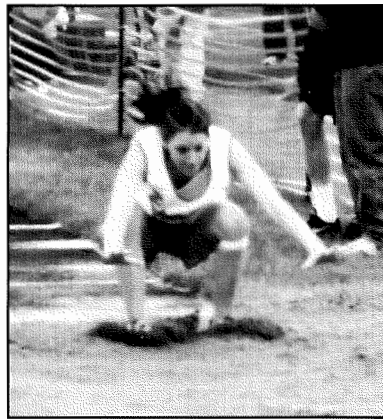

LADY VIKES

THE SEASON

The 2002 Riverside Lady Vikes Varsity Track team enjoyed a competitive season this year with a record of 5 wins, 4 losses under the leadership of Coach Ken Bednash. 8 of the 18 girls comprising the team competed in Districts in a variety of events including the 1600 and 3200, where Junior Sara Davis earned 5th place. Senior member Karyn Kollonige held her own in her first year of Track and Field. Great season, girls!

TRACK

THE SEASON

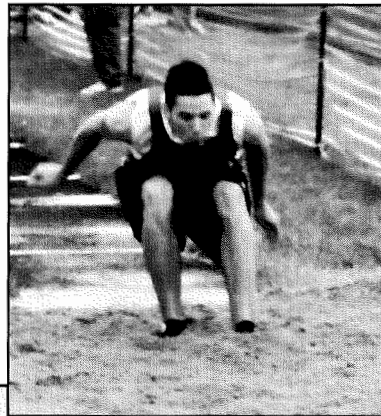

It was senior captains Matt Smith and Shawn Cole, along with junior captains Jason Wagner and Seth Thomas, that led the Viking track team during the 2002 season. Sophomore standout Brian Fauver broke the 5-minute mile with a time of 4:56. At districts, Smith medalled, capturing third place in the triple jump. The highlight of the season was the last meet of the year against Mountain View, where the margin of victory was over 100 points. The future looks bright for the team, as many Juniors are ready to fill the holes Smith and Cole leave behind.

CAPTAINS

VIKING TENNIS

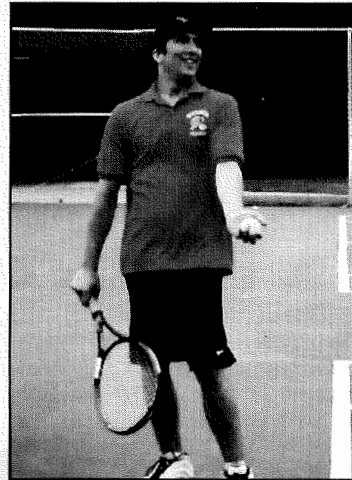

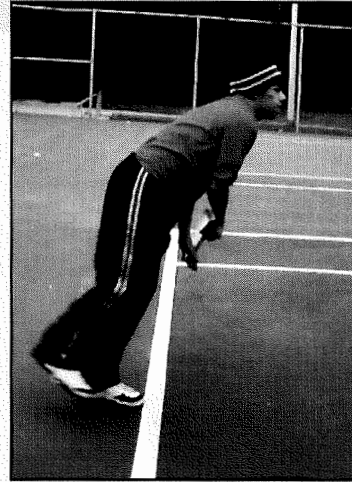

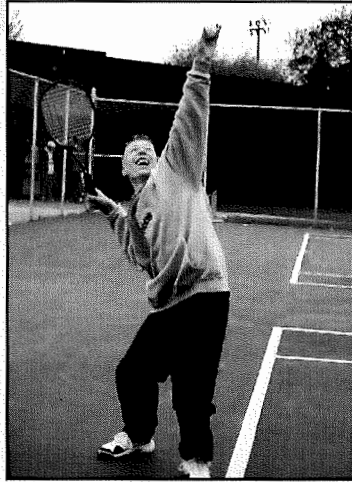

The Riverside Vikings tennis team finished the year with a solid 5-5 record. Michael Schmitt played the number 1 spot, Shawn Joyce was number 2, Stephen Clewell played 3, and Michael Shertza took the number 4 spot. Not to be overlooked, Corey Thomas and Chris Conaboy rounded out the line up. Michael Schmitt and Shawn Joyce made a strong 3rd round showing at District 2 doubles. Each of the four starters won at least half of their matches. Jown Radzwillowicz coached the Vikings for yet another successful season.

Scene: Backstage at the Wizard of Oz Broadway Revival —

JM: Jenn!

JS: Oh my God, Jared, how are you?

JM: I'm fine. How's things?

JS: Oh great! Did you come to see the show?

JM: Yeah, you were great as mayor of the Munchkin City.

JS: So I heard you're a pilot now.

JM: Yup.

JS: You mean they actually found a helmet that could fit your head?

JM: Very funny. Say, aren't you and Chris Partyka married now?

JS: Um, no. Honestly I never see him. He's always camping in the woods.

JM: So what about the rest of our class? Any idea where they ended up?

JS: Well, some of them.

JM: Like who?

JS: Well, actually, Christine Resio joined me here at the Wizard of Oz as one of the munchkins, and her sister Janice is her personal bodyguard.

JM: Yeah, I heard that a lot of people from our class became famous?

JS: Really? Who else?

JM: Dave Walters and Christine Cotrell co-starred in the new Casper the Friendly Ghost movie.

JS: You're kidding!

JM: Nope, and Jen McGurgan starred in the new Legs of Steel video.

JS: Are they the only ones in the movie business?

JM: No, Amanda To and Mike Hall directed the revival of the movie Milo and Otis.

JS: Hey I saw Jack Jorgenson on ESPN the other day.

JM: Oh really?

JS: Yeah, he was sitting on the sidelines.

JM: Are you serious?

JS: Yeah, the coach said that in order to play, Jack had to straighten himself out... so Colleen Noakes had to fill in as starting quarterback.

JM: Speaking of quarterbacks, did you hear about Matt Smith?

JS: No, why?

JM: After Mansfield lost their first game, he got carted off the field in a straightjacket.

JS: Well, he will fit right in with some of our other classmates.

JM: Who?

JS: Megan McDermott, Amy Schifano, Kristin Ives, and Jolene Wheeler all ended up in a mental hospital for the insane.

JM: Robin Scaramastro made the national softball team.

JS: Yeah, her mom is her biggest fan.

JM: What about Ryan Joyce?

JS: Oh WOW! Ryan Joyce is probably 2002's biggest success story. Not only is he a multi-award-winning star of stage and screen, as well as BMW's top automotive designer, but he's also a world-renowned artist and has such a successful singing career that Andrea Bocelli is his backup vocalist.

JM: Remember Courtney Blasko? She'n the reunion tour for Sir Mix-A-Lot.

JS: And, did you know that Lesha Knight holds the world record for the most fake smiles?

JM: No, but I know that Laura Keogh created her own hair color company.

JS: Kelly Coombs is the spokesperson for Aquafresh Whitening.

JM: Yeah, and she and Jill Helcoski ended up being best friends.

JS: Speaking of best friends, Heather VanLuvender and Steve Clewell are best friends now.

JM: How did that happen?

JS: Well, it's only natural since neither of them ever talk to anyone.

JM: Alissa Rizzo and Steph Staretz are still best friends of course
JS: Yeah and Amber Rugletic and Renee' Peters even wor together now.

JM: What do they do?

JS: They moved out to Montana to open a horse ranch.

JM: Some of our classmates went back to Riverside.

JS: Like who?

JM: Well, Jay Jarecki is a girls softball coach so it's easier for him to get dates.

JS: Phil Godlewski is a preschool teacher for the same reason.

JM: But I thought Phil wanted to be a dentist.

JS: Yeah, but actually, Mike A ended up being the dentist.

JM: Why?

JS: Because he's so interested in personal hygiene.

JM: Oh yeah. I head that since Bob Odzana started going to him he's got the biggest, brightest smile on earth.

JS: Steve Sandly is a professional WWF wrestler under the name Housewrecker and Tim Gronski and Adam Rodger are his personal punching bags.

JM: Speaking of Tim, did he and Lindsay McAndrew ever ge married?

JS: No, Lindsay is always too busy lifting at the gym.

JM: So is Paul Klebon practicing for that Mr. Universe pageant.

JS: So what about other couples from our class?

JM: Some of the obvious happened of course. Lisa Herie married Slusher, Kori Kneiss married Joe Johnson, Betsy Borer married Gary, and Tony Immediato and Karyn Kollonige got married.

JS: Really? Do Karyn and Tony have any kids?

JM: Yeah, they had the tallest baby ever recorded. And Jill Digwood and Tommy Pavolonis got married and invested in the Sam's Club chain.

JS: They must have made a ton of money.

JM: They sure did.

JS: Well, Mr. and Mrs. Sara Carrotto did well for themselves they...

JM (interrupting): Wait, wait, who's Sara's spouse?

JS: Drew Nicholson.

JM: James Alexander finally married April, and he and his brothe Jeff own a car rental place so they could drive a different ca around every day.

JS: Speaking of businesses, Julie Hunisch opened up her own tanning salon.

JM: Really? What's the name of it?

JS: I'm Still Pasty.

JM: Chad Reveillo is the CEO of Peter Pan Peanut Butter.

JS: Matt Snyder, Shaun Bell, Joe Hudson, and Scott Murray are now volunteers at the American Cancer Society.

JM: Shawn Cole, Randy Greenfield, and Jeremy Wayno own their own greenhouse.

JS: Louie Mickivicz bought a yellow mustang.

JM: Yeah, I heard he's never seen in it without his pet gremlin.

JS: Brittany Tulaney moved to Cuba to become the new dictator.

JM: What about Brian MacLaughlin?

JS: Who's Brian MacLaughlin? OH! You mean Beaner! He starred in the new Planet of the Apes movie.

JM: Speaking of apes, what about Chud?

JS: He owns the nationwide chain of Orloski's quick-marts.

JM: How does he get to all of them?

JS: He walks of course. Hey, what's Matty Francis do now?

JM: He's head designer for Banana Republic.

JS: Matt Lipperini, Jeff Smith, Tim Walsh, John Kistler, Sand Lewis, and Adam Wickizer took over the Career Technology Center.

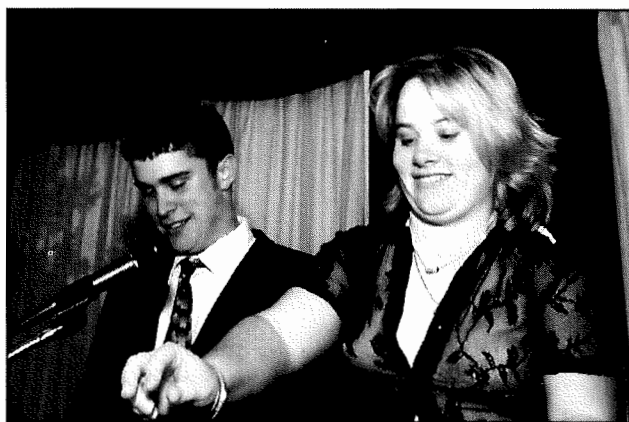

JM: What about Amy Derenick and Richard Hodak?

S: I don't know, they never really said much.
M: Heather Ellis and Chris Borent are still hanging out at the arena.
S: Jen Tillberry built the new Twin Towers out of all of her magazines.
M: Sloan Svadeba is the best psychologist on the eastern seaboard.
S: Where did Ryan Field end up?
M: He's a speech pathologist specializing in mumbling.
S: Chris Kowalski owns Nikki's Hoagies AND Dino's.
M: Amy Sarti is a marriage counselor.
S: Jen Supeck, Jason Krouchik, and Bryan Skoranski still have the same haircut since 8th grade.
M: Lindsey Pilger made a remake of that Meredith Brooks song.
S: Ashley Fauver is a driving instructor.
M: Yeah, I heard the student success rate is 0%.
S: Alfred VanLouvender took time off after graduation to become a family man.
M: Tiff Duda is an interior decorator.
S: Yeah, and Jon Marianelli is her assistant.
M: Justin Lacomis's wife made him take anger management classes.
S: Ryan Lacomis wore out 5 Fast and the Furious tapes trying to figure out how to make his car a little faster.
M: Sarah Hodge is still following guys around.
S: Will Cicale is still trying to find his niche.
M: Justin Stalbird cleaned up his act. He's married, has a good job, 5 kids...
S: Really?
M: Yeah.
S: Paul Novak finally opened his eyes and finds the girl of his dreams.
M: Yeah, but Amanda Czankner is still sitting by her phone waiting for NYU to show up on her caller ID.
S: Bobby Abbot works as an EMT in Old Forge.
M: Shawn Foley is a special exhibit in the Philadelphia zoo.
S: Really? For what?
M: For being the only spotted leopard found in North America.
S: Pro circuit player Mike "Tennis Arm" Schmitt did a cameo for a remake of the hit 80s song "Hit Me with your Best Shot".
M: What happened to Jen Evans?
S: Didn't you hear? She's in the hospital now with a punctured lung. Or maybe it was a heart attack...or emphysema...or a brain aneurysm... Well, whatever it is, she's on her deathbed.
M: I haven't seen Teddy Moeller around either.
S: Yeah, I heard he drove his truck down south to enlist in the Confederate army.
M: Hopefully his truck made the trip.
S: So where's Alicia Orzel now? I thought she had liked Joe Gardone.
M: No, she dropped him when she realized that all she needed was herself.
S: So what happened to Joe?
M: He and Matt Zumbach ran off together in search of their dream girl. But, I don't know what happened to Zumbach's girlfriend Mike Shertza.
S: He and Daryl Rafalko still work at Cinemark. Ya know I saw Daryl Esgro the other day.
M: Really?
S: Yeah, she's happily married. Her stepdaughter is older than he is.
M: Speaking of youth, I saw Jessica Schield, Megan Sporer, and Jeff Golden in the produce section the other day.
S: Really?
M: Yeah, they had lost their cantaloupes.
S: Hey, do you remember Stephanie Semian?

JM: Yeah, she opened up a deli.
JS: Oh that's right, and Ronnie Pavalonis was her best customer.
JM: Speaking of Ronnie, how's Jenn Haberek? Wasn't she supposed to go to Temple?
JS: Yeah, but she only lasted like half of a semester.
JM: Why?
JS: Because Ronnie needed her to do his research paper on Rats for him.
JM: Wow, our class really turned out ok huh?
JS: Yeah, and I never would have thought they would with the way they were in high school.
JM: Well, hey listen, I gotta get goin'. See ya.
JS: Ok, it was great seeing you, Jared. Keep in touch.
JM: I will. Bye.

ART CLUB

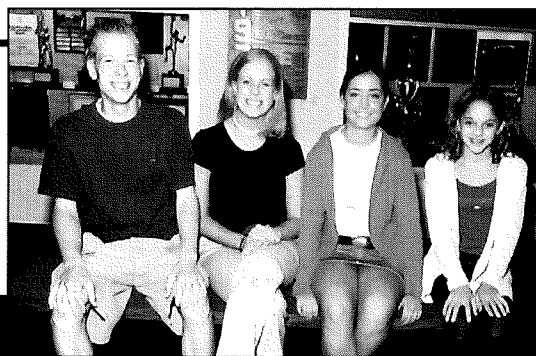

The Art Club thrived once again this year under the guidance of Mr. John Kosek. The club was involved in numerous activities including window painting both for the Christmas season and for Red Ribbon Week which also served as a remembrance of those involved in the tragic events of September 11th, 2001. Senior Ryan Joyce immortalized those events on a wall of the high school in a mural dedicated by the class of 2002. (see page 40) The Club visited Stormking Art Center and a gallery at Vassar College on the annual spring field trip. Ryan Joyce was elected to the office of president for a second consecutive term. Mike Schmitt served as vice-president, Inthira OuParavong was secretary, and Sharee Marciano was treasurer. Senior members were presented with calligraphy sets on Class Day and scholarships were awarded to two students who will further their education in the fine arts: Tiffany Golden, who will be attending Marywood University and Ryan Joyce who will be attending Keystone College with a Presidential Scholarship.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club enjoyed yet another year as one of Riverside's most exciting clubs and continued to prosper under the inspiring leadership of Mr. Patrick Joyce and Mr. Jack Evans. Weekly trips to Montage Mountain provided an enjoyable escape from the winter doldrums. The annual Presidents' Day trip to Windham, New York highlighted February's trips, and a weekend excursion to Sugarbush, Vermont ended the ski season with a bang. March 1st-3rd provided the dates for one of the most successful Vermont trips in recent history. The club luxuriously stayed at Burlington's finest hotel and enjoyed the town's many quaint shoppes and restaurants.

SELECT CHORUS

The Riverside Chorus was very active this year, appearing at the annual Christmas sing-along at the Taylor Cemetary, entertaining guests in area nursing homes, and participating in this year's Spring Fling. The chorus was conducted by Mrs. Carol Hapstack and accompanied by Mr. Ron Geise. The musical accomplishments of senior members Ryan Joyce and Jenn Stockl, however, provided Riverside with regional and state-wide honors. For the third consecutive year, Riverside students qualified for the PMEA District 9 Chorus Festival. Ryan, who attended the festival the year earlier, placed 10th out of 30 Bass IIs and Jenn placed 8th out of 60 Soprano IIs. Then, Ryan placed 7th out of 24 Bass IIs, making school history as the first person from the Riverside School District ever to qualify for and attend the PMEA Region 5 State Chorus Festival, held at Wyoming Seminary later that year. Following these festivals, both Jenn and Ryan performed in the World Music Honor Choir in Philadelphia, PA in April. Their talent and contributions to the chorus will be greatly missed.

UNIT SHOW

GIRLS' NIGHT OUT

"Ladies Night" was the theme for Riverside's 23rd annual unit show. The show was held in the auditorium on February 2, 2002. All squads danced to a song about ladies such as "Man, I Feel Like a Woman", "She Drives Me Wild", and "I'm Not a Girl, Not Yet a Woman". This year's Miss Viking Stephanie Semian and Feature Dancer Lesha Knight choreographed the special jazz, modern, ballet, and tap numbers. Co-Captains from each squad choreographed separate dances for their squads. This year's senior dance was "I'm Not a Girl, Not Yet a Woman", and "There You'll Be" which marked the end of the seniors' unit shows. As a surprise for the girls, each senior was presented with a flower and a gift from advisor Sharon Roche. Along with the dancing, this year's Masters of Ceremony were Joseph Nardone and David Walters, who brought some laughter to the stage. It was evident that the girls' hard work and determination paid off that night. "Ladies Night" was a chance for our units to shine and our seniors to have one more moment dancing on the stage.

MARCHING BAND

FIELD SHOW

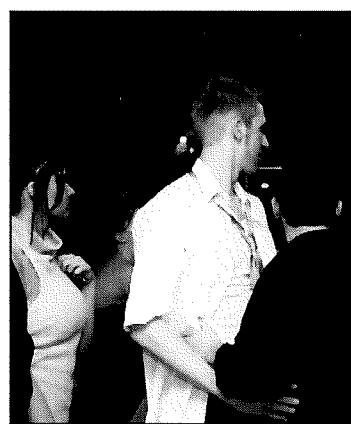

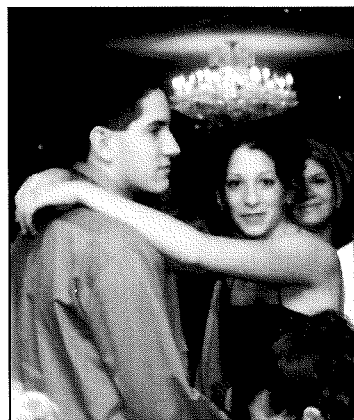

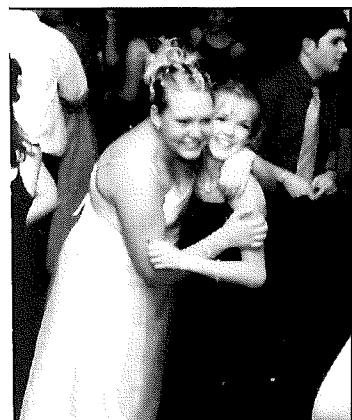

The Riverside band, under the direction of Mr. Ron Geise, was again an essential part of our football season this year. The band performed "American Woman", "New York, New York", "Cleveland Rocks", "California Nights" (featuring a senior solo by Reneé Peters) and the Riverside Alma Mater in the field show. The band performed in the Pompsburg Fair and various parades throughout the year. Leading the band was drum major Amber Rugletic, an attendee of the All-County Band Festival for 3 consecutive years. The band captain was Reneé Peters. The "Voice of the Vikings," this year's half-time show announcer, was Ryan Price.

SEMI-FORMAL PASSING OF THE SWORD

Riverside students in grades 9 through 12 attended Riverside's annual "Passing of the Sword" Ceremony and Semi-Formal at the Clarion Hotel in Scranton on February 23, 2002. Graduating senior unit captains and features handed down their titles to next year's new captains and features. The positions were decided based on final scores from try-outs. Cara Cacoppo was named 2003 Miss Viking. Also named were Feature Dancer Sharee Marciano, Feature Pom pon Laura Nitch, Feature Twirler Lori Potorski, and Drum Majorette Lauren Peters. Assisting them will be Varsity Co-captains Stacey Schield and Tiffany Lutkowski, JV Co-captains are sophomores Nicole Lemoncelli and Amanda Sopko, Basketball Co-captains Leslie Davis and Amanda Davis, Pom pon Co-captains Heather Jones and Jenna Washko, and Band Captains Jason Scarnato and Ashley Gaus.

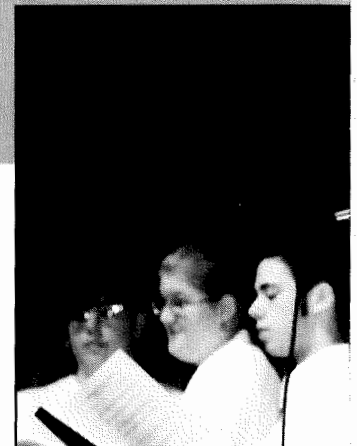

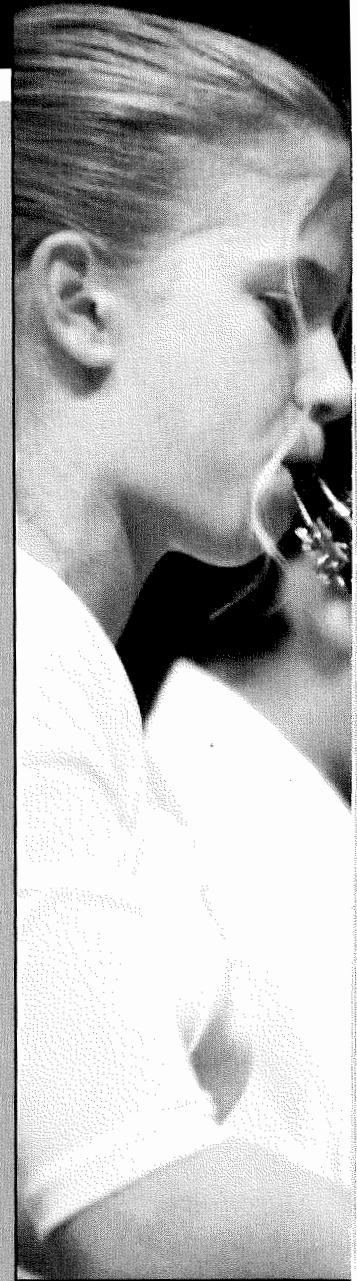

SPRING FLING

On June 15th, 2002, the Riverside Band, Select Chorus, and "Broadway Performers" entertained faculty, administration, students, school board members and members of the community, at the second annual Spring Fling Concert. The concert began with the band performing The "Star Spangled Banner", "Autumn Leaves", "Arabian Dream," and "Tribal Drums," directed by Mr. Ron Geise, and "America the Beautiful" directed by Drum Major Amber Rugletic. The Select Chorus then sang "The Theme from Ice Castles," "What the World Needs Now," "You Light Up My Life," and "Looking Through Your Eyes." After a brief intermission, the Broadway Performers entertained the crowd. Jenn Stocki and Jessica Schield sang "In His Eyes," followed by Renee Peters and Amber Rugletic with "Anything You Can Do." The Dance "Macavity" was performed by Laura Bushinski, Vanessa Bulgowski, and Stephanie Thomas. The Italian classic "Time To Say Goodbye" was performed by Ryan Joyce, followed by "Someone Else's Story," performed by Jessica Schield. Jenn Stocki performed with Amber Rugletic the bittersweet "I Know Him So Well," followed by the show-stopping "Dangerous Game," performed by Ryan Joyce and Bishop Hoban's Diana Drogalis. The final song of the evening was "I Know The Truth," by Jenn Stocki. The evening was overflowing with entertainment. Good job to all of the performers!

“THERE YOU’LL BE”

PROM 2002

The annual Junior-Senior Prom, titled “There You’ll Be”, was held Friday, May 10th at St. Mary’s Center in Scranton. Junior and Senior Class members united during a night of dancing, music, pictures, and the making of special memories. Junior president Tricia Cipriano, and Junior Vice President Steve Gavin presented warm thoughts and best wishes to the Class of 2002. Katie Coolbaugh was named Queen’s Scepter Bearer, and Laura Nageli received the honor of King’s Trophy Bearer. Cara Cacioppo was announced as the Queen’s Crown Bearer. The first Junior Attendant was Lisa Paden. Holly Esgro and Lindsay McAndrew were honored as Senior Attendants. The crowning of Shaun Bell as Prom King and Kelly Coombs as Prom Queen added to the excitement. Prom 2002... One night, two classes, and a whole lot of memories.

Class Night was held on May 24th at Genetti Manor in Dickson City. This was the last time the senior class gathered with teachers to enjoy a formal dinner. The program began with dinner followed by the Class Prophecy read by Jared Mallis and Jenn Stocki. Class Awards were then given out. It was no surprise when Inthira Ouparavong and Shawn Joyce were voted class couple or Jack Jorgensen and Matt Smith were voted best guy friends. The night was then concluded with a slide show which recalled many memories of the Senior Class' time at Riverside.

GRADU

Fourteenth annual Commencement exercises took place Tuesday, June 12th at 8:00 PM in the high school auditorium. The top four graduating students of the Class of 2000 gave orations. Valedictorian Stephen Clewell presented his speech "Framework for the Future." Salutatorian Alic Orzel addressed the class with her speech "Community Strengthens Identity." Third Honors graduate Robin Scaramastro presented an oration on "Sacrifice for Success." Fourth Honors graduate Amber Rugletic spoke on the subject "Sources of Strength." The class sang the National Anthem, All My Life, Ain't No Mountain High Enough, and the Alma Mater. Musical director was Mr. Carol Hapstack.

accompanied by Mr. Ron Geise, Dr. Salvatore F. Luzio, Sr., Superintendent of Schools, and Mrs. Carol Armstrong, Board of Education President, offered remarks. High School Principal Mr. Robert Ruthkowsky presented the class. Vice Principal Mr. Joseph Moceyunas and Mrs. Armstrong presented diplomas. Following the ceremony, Mr. Robert Thomas and Mrs. Nancy Thomas held a reception in the graduates' honor in the high school cafeteria. It was a great night for graduates to reflect upon their 13 years of friendship and guidance. The night was not merely an end to their familiar high school years, but more importantly, a new beginning.

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

Shawn Joyce

What began early in September,
Verges on history now in June.
Our senior year at Riverside,
will be youthful memories soon.

But before we go on to our tomorrow,
And as these final days draw near.
Let us enjoy the moment,
And reflect upon our senior year.

Returning from summer vacation,
College applications loomed over our heads.
Yet thanks to Mrs. Lisowski,
We spread acceptance letters all over our beds.

Fall weekends were for football games,
Cheering on our powerful Viking team.
At October's Homecoming we celebrated,
As Jared and Lesha were crowned King and Queen.

December's Yearbook Luau Dance,
Attired students in costumes of Hawaiian theme.
Although underclassmen tried their hardest,
Tim and Lindsay were crowned Kahuna King and Queen.

2002 brought snow-less winter months,
And few coveted cancellations and delays.
Yet the ski club found snow at Windham,
And weekends at Sugarbush, Vermont for three powdery days.

The basketball team shot from beyond the arc,
Enjoying a season of success.
While they did not beat Hannan,
They trounced Old Forge all three times - with finesse.

The annual volleyball tournament packed the bleachers
For that final championship game.
Phil, Ronnie, Robin, and Inthira served with might Giving all gym warriors their hard fought fame.

The tennis team "Kept it Gangsta",
Complete with matching tees.
Although they sold them for profit,
Schmitt collected all the fees.

Ryan sang his way to Regional Chorus,
A first for Riverside.
Then painted the class mural,
A place where our post-911 memories reside.

May brought out spring formal,
Our prom with "There You'll Be" theme.
White tuxes, top-hats, cold girls in tux jackets,
And Shaun and Kelly crowned King and Queen.

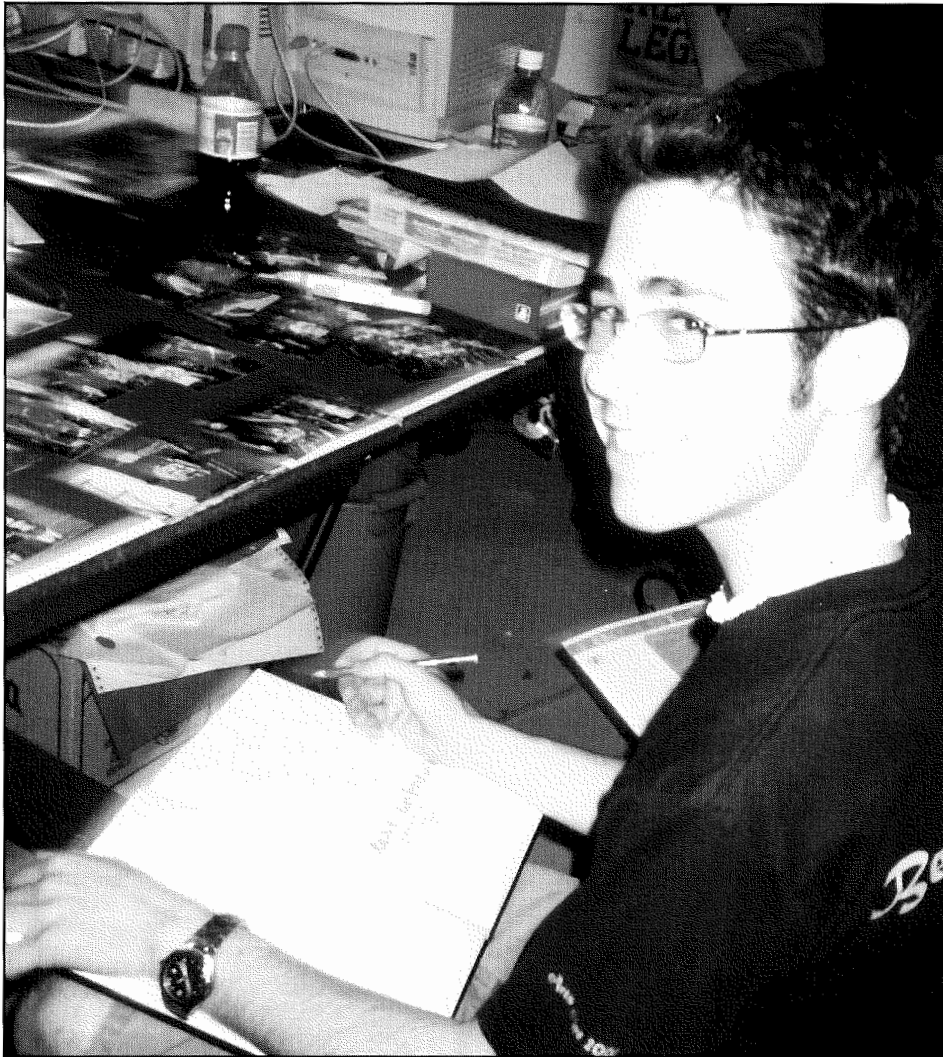

Class Night brought us together,
For a final night as one.
We watched the slideshow of our years gone by,
And cried when it was done.

Bernoulli's Principle, Battleship Potemkin, and hall passes behind us,
Bucks County field trips no more.
We have passed through many places on this journey,
Now the future we wait fervently to explore.

We have all learned so much along the way,
A tribute to our outstanding teachers.
They illuminated our path in red and blue,
Helping clear it of adverse features.

For years we have tread in our teachers' shadows,
The comfort of their presence in sight.
The time is now fellow seniors,
To emerge from their shadows and step into our own light.

VIKING YEARBOOK STAFF

The Viking 2002 yearbook "Just the Beginning" was an undertaking of immense proportions. The dedication of advisor Mr. Patrick Joyce, Editor-in-chief Ryan Joyce, and Assistant Co-Editors Jennifer Stocki and Inthira OuParavong was of the highest calibre. This small but talented team worked dilligently throughout the school year to raise funds and then sacrificed their entire summer to create this book. We believe the quality, design, and painstaking attention to detail is apparent on every page. The editorial staff of the Riverside Viking yearbook offer this 40th edition to you, the Class of 2002. We trust that its pages will rekindle fond memories of the good times we shared throughout our high school years, a time we will all too soon realize was "Just the Beginning."

(The Joyce family basement served as ground-zero for the creation of this book.)

I, Courtney Blasko, and I Jennifer Haberek, being of sound mind and body, leave the following to this year's underclassmen and teachers:

C: Teddy Moeller leaves to fight for the south in the Civil War.

J: Justin Stalbird leaves with the love from his entire graduating class.

C: Jennifer Evans wills her stories to Ripley's Believe It or Not.

J: Jack Jorgensen leaves to straighten himself out.

J: Chud leaves to walk to Orloski's.

C: Shawn Bell leaves to take over Cinemark, rename it Cinebell, and also permit smoking.

J: Will Cicale leaves to become a spokesperson for the dangers of golf carts.

C: Bobby Abbott leaves to patrol Old Forge.

J: James Alexander leaves but not without April.

C: Michael Ambrose leaves to go "somewhere over the rainbow".

J: Jeff Alexander leaves, oh wait he didn't, sorry.

J: Kristen Ives leaves... wait how could she leave when she never came in the first place? line.

J: Heather Ellis leaves her hair for Sarah Weasley.

C: Jon Marianelli leaves but not without cell phones for all his girlfriends.

J: Amy Derenick leaves to be with her boyfriend.

C: Inthira OuParavong leaves to find some dramamene.

J: Jessica Schield leaves all her clothes for Natalie... umm wait weren't they Natalie's anyway?

C: Adam Roger leaves to find Bin Laden.

J: Michael Schmitt leaves to find a girlfriend.

C: Robin Scaramastro leaves in a "league of her own."

J: Stephanie Semian leaves her shield and sword to Cara C. but she has to remember where she left them....

C: Chris Kowalski leaves to go to Nikki's Hoagies.

J: Lindsay McAndrew leaves to strut her stuff at the 2002 Miss Fitness America Pageant with Janice Resio as runner up.

C: Justin Lacomis leaves hoping not to find Trish right behind him.

J: Kelly Coombs leaves to become the corporate leader of TATU.

C: Louie Mickavicz leaves to put his sister in an all girls school.

J: Dave Walters leaves to open up his own tanning salon.

C: Tiffany Duda leaves to go to his tanning salon.

J: Tiffany Golden leaves thinking that homeroom is optional.

C: Stephanie Staretz leaves her tanning abilities to Sara Davis.

J: Sloan Svadeba leaves to go "home" and watch 90210.

C: Holly Esgro leaves still thinking Cincinatti is a state.

J: Yeah, her head was always up in the clouds.

C: Paul Klebon leaves to co-star in John Basedow's next perfect abs video.

J: Lisa Herie leaves to be with Slusher.

C: Who Kevin?

J: No! Bob.

C: Matthew Snyder leaves to start his own car club called "Something Fancy".

J: Megan McDermott leaves to start her own daycare center.

C: Julie Hunisch leaves to find the meaning of McDonald's slogan... "We love to see you smile."

J: Chad Reviello leaves to make a peanut butter sand wich.

C: Tim Gronski leaves for Arizona... I wonder why.

J: Christine Cottrell and Amy Sarti leave as quietly as they came.

C: Matthew Francis leaves to go "south of the border"

J: Betsy Borer leaves making sure she has the last word

C: Chris Borent leaves answering the infamous question "who's your daddy?"

J: Laura Keogh leaves to go to Fresno's with number 45 or was it number 78, or maybe number 29...

C: Ryan Joyce leaves being an overachiever.

J: Sara Carrotto and Drew Nicholson leave for K-mart.

C: Jason Jarecki leaves to pick up a certain someone at Dunkin Donuts.

J: John Kistler leaves but only if his truck will make it.

C: Brian Skoranski leaves to enjoy some crayons like he did in elementary.

J: Shawn Cole leaves to go to the optometrist.

C: Amy Schifano and Holeen Wheeler leave to join the WWF.

J: Tony Immediato leaves his trapper keeper to his younger brother.

C: Jill Digwood leaves to go to Sam's house.

J: Tommy Pavalonis already left to go there.

C: Daryl Ragalko leaves to own Banana Joe's.

J: Ryan Field leaves thinking school ends at 11:15, not 2:22.

C: Phil Godlewski leaves all the elementary girls in tears.

J: Jared Mallis leaves to buy some eggs.

C: Joe Hudson leaves his tap shoes to Cassie Rhodes.

J: Sandy Lewis leaves looking the same as she did in third grade.

C: Jennifer McGurgan leaves to go to church camp.

J: Colleen Noakes leaves to play football with the boys.

C: Scott Murray leaves as the Eagles' number one fan.

J: Amber Rugletic and Renee' Peters leave the teachers in search of new pets.

C: Kori Kneiss leaves with Joe Johnson, like everyone thinks, but she really leaves to hang out by a pool somewhere.

J: Christopher Partyka leaves Jenn Stocki disappointed, very disappointed.
 C: Bob Odzana leaves admitting his true feelings for Jen Evans.
 J: Lesha Knight left 2 hours ago, but Dave Walters is still waiting for her.
 C: Joe Nardone leaves to move into Scary Mary's basement.
 J: Brian McLaughlin leaves to star in the new Gillette Sensor commercial.
 C: Amanda Czanknew leaves to find another Matthew.
 J: Jenn Stocki leaves her sunglasses to the security guard.
 C: Matthew Smith leaves his "lancemove" to Tony Mattioli.
 J: Richard Hodak, Jason Krouchik, Ryan Lacomis, Matthew Lipperini, and Jeff Smith leave together not telling anyone else.
 C: Heather VanLuvender leaves behind her straightening iron to her sister.
 J: Jillian Helcoski leaves still taking pictures for the slideshow.
 C: Shawn Joyce leaves procrastinating as usual.
 J: Alicia Orzel leaves to go flex some muscles.
 C: Jennifer Tillberry leaves as nicely as she came.
 J: Brittany Tulaney leaves her school spirit to Sharee Marciano.
 C: Jeremy Wayno and Randy Greenfield leave for a long vacation.
 J: Adam Wickizer leaves to help Bobby Abbott in Old Forge by being an EMT.
 C: Paul Novak leaves to go find Scooby Doo.
 J: Stephen Sandly leaves thinking his tough guy attitude will get him far.
 C: Ashley Fauver leaves her car for next year's mock accident.
 J: Michael Shertza leaves his bench-warming position to Adam McCormick.
 C: Ronnie Pavalonis leaves his economics book in his locker... he'll be needing it for the summer.
 J: Alissa Rizzo leaves having the most late slips in Riverside history.
 C: Alfred van Louvender leaves to become a barber.
 J: Karyn Kollonige leaves her sister Missy as the dominant Kollonige.
 C: Sarah Hodge leaves behind her animosity for Jenn Stocki.
 J: Jennifer Supeck leaves her attitude to Jesse McGowan.
 C: Stephen Clewell leaves to become an Austin Powers impersonator.
 J: Amanda To leaves to live off Otis.
 C: Megan Sporer leaves to cruise around in her stang.
 J: Tim Walsh leaves as wild as he came.
 C: Matthew Zumbach leaves to go to Toys R Us to buy a Chuckie doll.
 J: Lindsay Pilger leaves, but only with Bill's permission.

our notes to get out early, our "special" student-teacher relationships, but most of all, we leave our cherished memories and sincere wishes that your senior year will be as enjoyable and unforgettable as ours has been.

Signed this sixth day of June, two thousand and two by: Courtney Blasko and Jennifer Haberek.
