THE BAND

The Riverside Marching Band experienced many changes during the 1997-98 school year, starting with a new band director. Mr. Ron Geise took over the position after long-time director, Mr. James Bone, retired. The band improved on past years with both a more advanced repertoire and overall striking performances at the games and parades in which they performed. They hope to continue this tradition in the coming years.

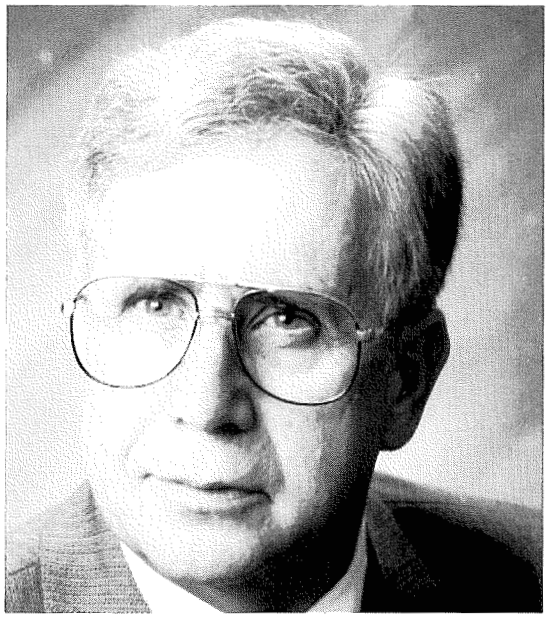

DEDICATION

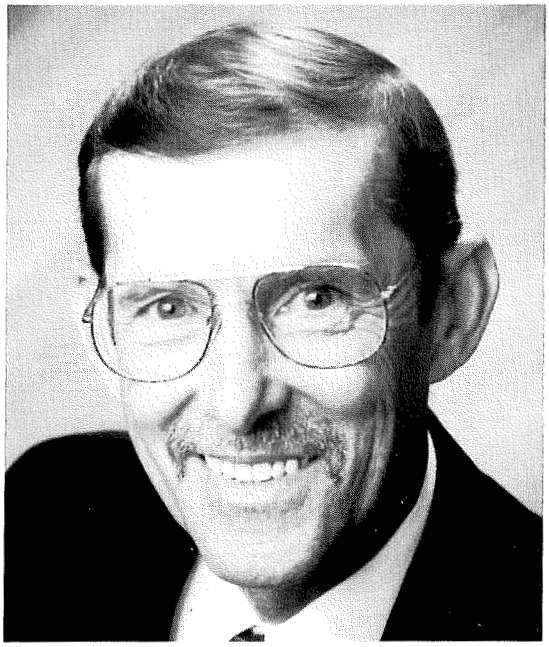

MR. JOSEPH LUKASIEWICZ

After several years of teaching at Riverside, Mr. Joseph Lukasiewicz announced his retirement. He has proven his ability both as a teacher and as influence to all of his students. The 1998 Yearbook Staff joins the members of the faculty, administration, and school board in wishing him the best of luck in his retirement.

1998 CLASS HISTORY

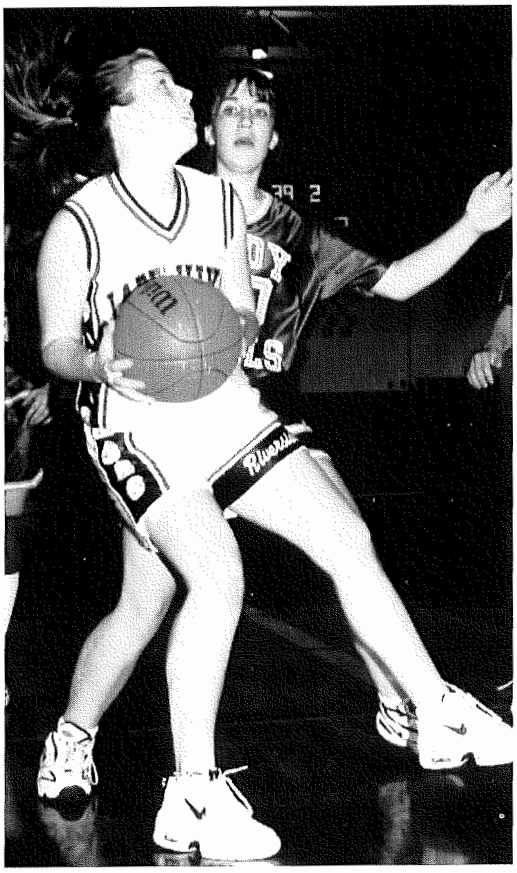

Scene: The year is 2015, Valerie has been working at a local hospital for the past 10 years. Holly is visiting the hospital for a month to research. As Valerie is punching in, Holly rushes in late as usual. Val quickly turns around and they collide.
H: O, I'm sorry. Let me help you pick up those papers.
(Pick up papers together.) Valerie Felter that name sounds familiar.
V: Hi, I'm Valerie Felter. I don't believe I've seen you around here. Are you new?
H: I'm Holly Hewitt. I'm here for a month to do research.
V: Wait, didn't I go to high school with you? Did you graduate from Riverside?
H: Yes, the class of '98.
V: The worst class ever.
H: Remember when Demon stole Sean Namlick's seat at lunch?
V: Yeah, that led into a chair riot.
H: Speaking of a riot, remember in English class when Ryan Thiel thought he was big.
V: Joe Dente also thought he was big, flexing for us*all the time.*
H: Remember how Stanley was a member of*every* team but*never*played.
V: Our football team was very successful our senior year.
H: They won the Eastern State title on their way to Altoona.
V: Harry Armstrong & Jeremy Ransom both surpassed the 3500 yard mark in the Mid-Valley game.
H: Remember how Jeremy would blow his girlfriend a kiss after every single touchdown.
V: Jay wouldn't know what touchdowns were since he was a misfit.
H: He was along side Bernie, the best equipment manager ever, even if he did crash into the goal post.
V: How about when Ryan McDonnell couldn't fit the Viking head on because his head was too big.
H: Remember at the pep rally when what was supposed to be a pie eating contest turned into a pie fight.
V: Remember how well all the senior unit members got along?
H: What do you mean, we never got along.
V: Speaking of people not getting along, remember when the boys' basketball game vs. Abington got out of hand?
H: Yeah, a certain somebody pulled a Mike Tyson imitation and the rest of the Abington players got what they deserved.
V: Remember last year's rumble after the Old Forge game at Family Affair?
H: Yeah, don't worry no one got hurt, especially Joe Kowalski since he wasn't there because of his nervous condition.
V: Kelly Kerrigan obviously wasn't nervous when she took her family car on a tour through Thrift Drug.
H: When the spring sports began the Vikings tore up their opponents.
V: Our baseball & softball teams both had winning seasons, finishing one spot out of the play-offs.
H: Hey Hoover, maybe you could of been in the play-offs if you & Cortney spent your time on the field instead of running around to catching the bus.
V: The girls' track team with the help of Señor Bednash won the Jordan Relays for the fourth straight year.
H: The boys' track team was also successful with school records being broken by Glen Digwood in the 1600m and Sean Namlick in 100 & 200m.
V: Heidi Wolfsberger & Sean Namlick both qualified for the state meet at Shippensburg, where Heidi won Riverside's "first gold meda by winning the 3200m.
H: Other members of the girls' track team included: Tracy Van-Luvender, Kelly Sarti, Jen Tomczyk, Jessica Mitchell, & Laura Nicolet
V: The track team weren't the only girls running, Jillian Sopp sprinted off the stage during the unit show, leaving Nicole Thomas m clueless.
H: Remember how all the guys went for younger girls?
V: Moose, Mayer, Dodge & Steve Thomas all perferred younger girls.
H: Joe Dente went out with Stacey or was it Sloan.
V: Remember John before he had a 14 year old girlfriend.
H: Hey Val, remember our semi?
V: No, maybe because it only lasted about a half-hour.
H: However, the prom was "The Time to Remember."
V: Laura Gleason got crowned queen and John Jezorwski was Prom King.
H: Remember last year's prom that was the time to remember between Josh & Sheli.
V: Sheli discovered her new nickname by wearing a tee shirt titled night moves.
H: A lot of people in our class had nicknames.
V: There was Moose for John Harrison.
H: Monkey for Brian Jones.
V: Cha chi for Josh Korczakowski.
H: Eggburt for Chris Vosburg.
V: Spanky for John Dodge.
H: Slerpie for Jen Tucker.
V: Dooper for Shannon Piragas.
H: Willow for Gina Meranti.
V: and Peg-leg for Nicole Thomas.
H: Remember hall decorating our sophomore year at Nicole Thomas's, Moose got a little out of hand & found himself in a cop car.
V: Speaking of things getting a little out of hand, our senior year hall decorating was almost cancelled.
H: Michelle McHugh cancelled class for a day when she told Mr. Lisowski what he could do.
V: The same thing happened to Steve Golosky in Ms. Fox's room, except he got suspended.
H: We did have some interesting teachers through the years.
V: Mr. Butcher was known for showing us his false teeth.
H: Mr. Voytko was known for his Voytko shuffle.
V: Mr. Roberts made class more tolerable with his dry but funny jokes.
H: Mr. Evans was known for his bell to bell teaching and his multiple personalities.
V: That wasn't Mr. Evans who made us work so hard, that was Ramon.
H: It's funny how Joel Jablonski never seemed to be in calculus but passed every test with flying colors.
V: Melissa Schraeder seemed to excel in calculus as she tried to teach Mr. Evans new calc moves.

Speaking of moves Mr. Kryzanowski & Mr. Kasulis moved out and the new administration consisting of Mr. Moe as vice-principal ıd Mr. Ruthkowsky as principal worked real hard at making Riverside a stricter environment.
Mr. Kryzanowski had to take a leave of absence after Rachel Conaby kissed him in the hall.
One of the rules the new administration established was that students had to actually park in their parking lot.
The teachers didn't want Shaun Decker's beat up truck exploding on their cars.
Lee Greenfield drove around in his apartment "The Big Worm".
Angela Basile & Alycia Pappa both thought the school was a zoo, when they both brought pets to school.
They should of given them to Charlie Burdett, he would hav sneaked them in.
Remember our senior year, it was the first year for the pep band.
Jeremy Fanucci & Mike Scaramastro were a part of the band and thank God Mike stopped hitting people over the head with his ɔmbone.
John Muskey would have been a good addition tot he pep band with his great drumming ability.
Ted Praschak banged on a huge drum every time he went across the stage in the play "Guys & Dolls", while Ronnie Kelly sang "Sit ɔwn You're Rockin the Boat."
Amanda Fredmonski & Peter Hocking were the class couple in that play.
However, our official class couple was Kris Karnis & Gina Meranti.
Our class clowns were Melissa Casey & John Maher.
Dana DePaolo was the class chatterbox constantly spreading rumors.
Rose Walsh & Jason Supeck got best friends.
Our class aggressors were Jenn Kishel & Tom Best.
Class Night was a great time ending with our great slide show by Kelly Gaidula.
Yeah, it was real good.
You know what else was real good the class mural by Jamie Rutkowski & Christina Petcavage.
The blood drive was a success our senior year, supplying the most units of blood ever.
Steve Thomas & Brandi Bartels both passed out.
Kathleen Turner didn't even make it past the ear prick test.
Jen Collins couldn't give blood because Mr. Moe reported that her temperature was way too high — 108°.
Speaking of sicknesses remember when Jessica Knight went with her dad to work, passed out and ended up a patient and til this day ɛ's still confused.
Michelle Clewell & Cathy Onfrey always claimed that they were injured.
Wrapped in ace bandages, Joe Bakaysa looked like he was injured all the time.
As president, Christen MacArt, could of used ace bandages to hold our class together.
Remember Jane Kernan told us that the first thing she did in the morning was brush her hair.
Harry Armstrong obviously didn't take her advice when he was fixing his hair during the Dunmore basketball game and got hit in the ad with the ball.
Remember when Joe Dudzik & Mike Krouchick both had long hair.
Good thing that was a thing of their past.
Remember Mark Clark thought he was a girl, dyeing his hair and plucking his eyebrows.
Mark & Nicole Armbruster should of traded blue jeans.
Chrissy Tugend became best friends with Anna Lipperini after Loribeth stole the color red for a prom dress.
Hol, remember when you said that you didn't wear underwear to gym . . . I mean shorts shorts.
Well anyway, remember Tom Semian, Rob Gronski, Jason Herron & Brian Wilson.
Not really, they never ever talked.
Kim Kosierowski, Jill Brazen, Ali Trayer & Kris Conway never really talked either.
We never really got the chance to talk to Jen Wysocki because she was never really in school.
Amanda Fredmonski was the same way.
Jim Neberman, Derek Dalbo, Kenny Pawlikowski, Tasha Patton & Sue Schiavo are always late and find themselves in detention.
Hey! Better late than never.
A lot of seniors packed up the school year early.
Amanda Fedor packed in anatomy real early when she refused to do the final.
Amy Russamano & Dietrick Weitz also packed up the year rather early.
Remember how whenever you needed advice on how to give attitude toward someone you were always able to rely on Stef Armillay & thy Sabbatini.
Chrissy Johnson & Nicole Thomas should have gone to seek advice on how to get over their ex-boyfriends.
They should of settled it peacefully like Jason Mizwinski & Judy Kwiakowski.
Robert Keogh should have also went to seek advice.
Although some of our classmates seemed to fight til the end, when our school pride was on the line we seemed to unite.
The class of '98 shared many great times together, many that will not be forgotten.
Well, I have to go I'm late as usual. Nice seeing you again.
Yeah, nice seeing you. Keep in touch!

HEIDI WOLFBURGER STATE CHAMP

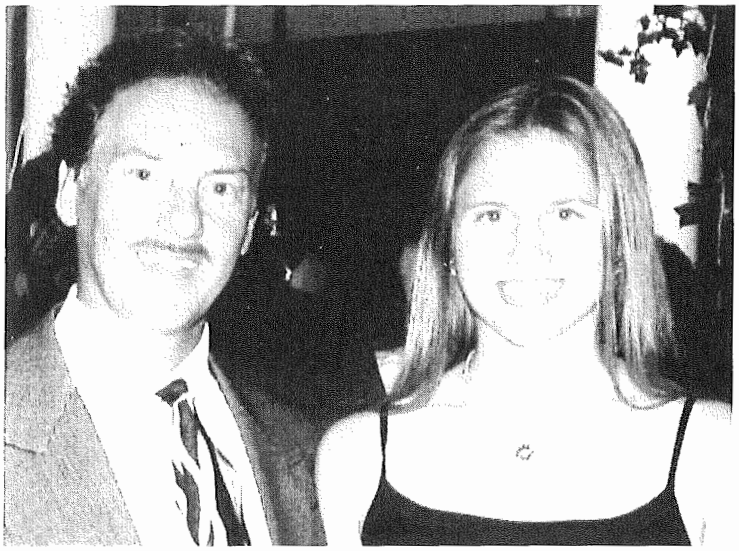

Heidi Wolfburger is a very talented, dedicated, goal oriented and self motivated individual who established herself as one of the premier runners in Track, progressing to new levels with each passing year. Her courageousness in the face of injury only enhanced her desire to become the best she could be.

She accomplished this goal in the final season of her senior year. Because of her mental and physical fortitude, even in times of adversity, Heidi persevered never wavering from the path she had chosen and became the best she could be, gold medal winner and PIAA State Champion in the 3200 meters.

Riverside High School salutes Heidi and her accomplishments and hopes that she serves as an inspiration and example that we would like all our future athletes to follow so they too can fulfill their dreams.

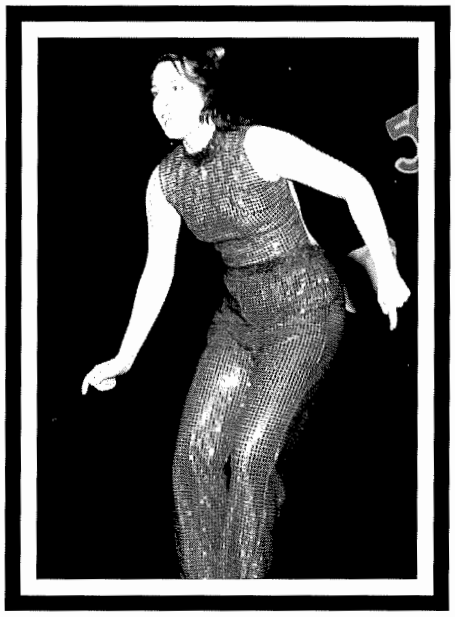

DANCING THROUGH THE DECADES

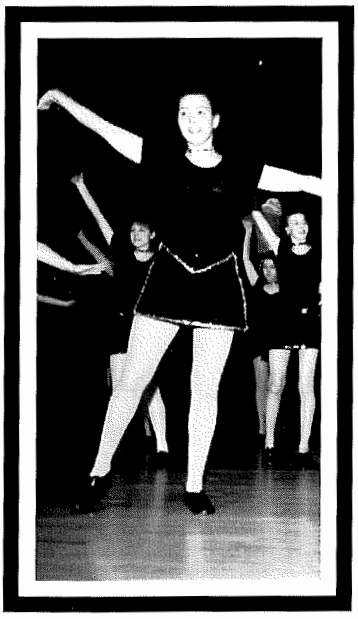

The theme for this year's Unit Show was "Dancing Through the Decades". It was held in February in the High School auditorium. 1997-1998 Miss Viking, Stefanie Armillay, along with the other squad captains and features choreographed the dances. The seniors danced to "This Is the Time." The show was a great success, with the help of everyone's hard work and dedication.

The Student Council, with the return of two officers, experienced another spectacular year. Sponsoring Spirit Week and Homecoming, the club ignited spirit throughout the school. The club also sponsored the distribution of Halloween and Christmas candy, the decoration of the Christmas tree, and the lollipop sales on Valentine's Day. In the spring, the club held its annual blood drive. One of the most successful blood drives in the area, the effort netted the American Red Cross more than 100 pints of blood to bolster their depleted banks. The club finished the year with the second annual Kiss the Seniors Good-bye service, proving once again that it is the school's most valuable and successful organization. The advisor to the Student Council is Miss Susan Ludwikowski.

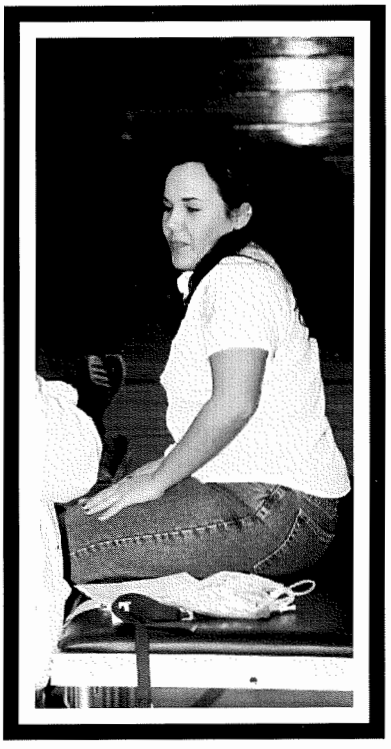

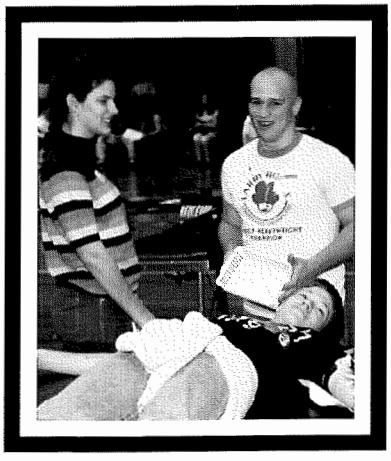

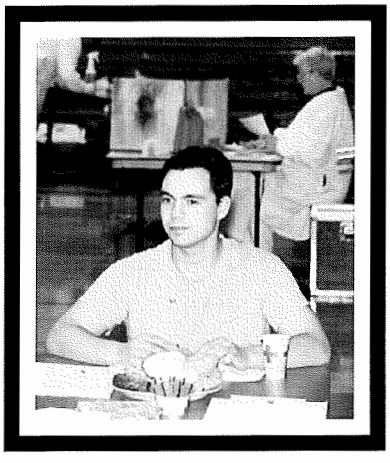

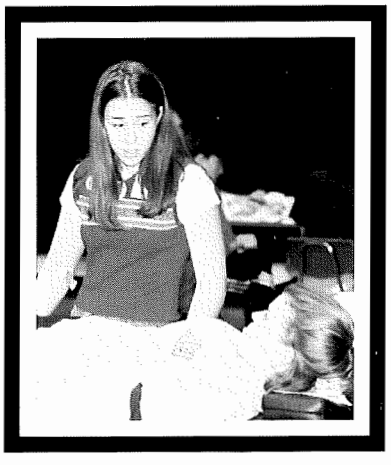

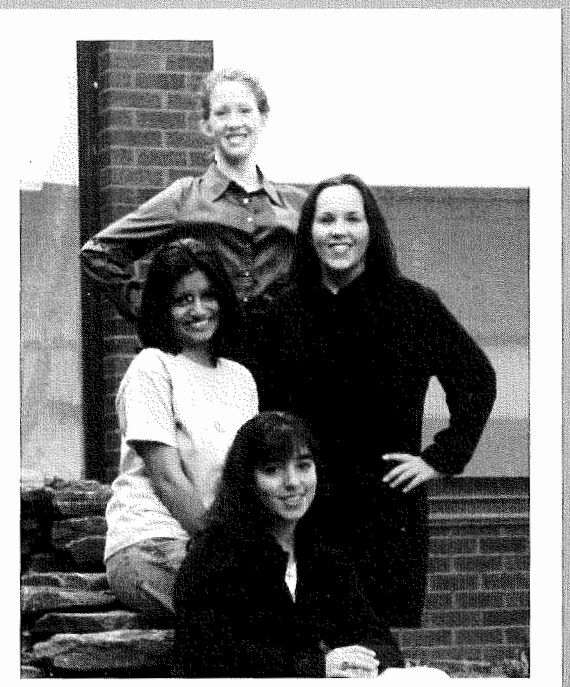

S.A.D.D.

Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) works to increase student awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving. To demonstrate this belief, they held a mock car accident which showed students the reality of the consequences of drinking and driving. They also ran the White Face program to demonstrate the statistics of deaths related to drinking and driving. SADD also distributed fifty cents to all the students attending the Prom in case of an emergency. SADD wanted to deliver the message to everyone there. Their efforts were greatly appreciated. Advisor to the club is Miss Susan Ludwikowski.

GIRLS' TRACK

Despite having lost three key starting performers at the beginning of the season to injuries, Coach Ken Bednash and Carly Donnelly still managed to put together a winning season, finishing with a 3-2 record. The team's greatest accomplishment came when, sparked by some outstanding performances, they won the Jordan Relays for the fourth straight year. The Lady Vikings were not finished. In Districts, the 3200 relay team of Shari D'Annunzio, Kristen Gretz, Michelle Wolfsberger and Heidi Wolfsberger became District champions for the second straight year. But the best was yet to come when Heidi Wolfsberger became the individual District Champion in the 1600 and 3200 as well as a second place finish in the 800. The relay team and Heidi moved on to the State Championships where Riverside history was made. First, the relay team finished 12th in the state and then Heidi became the first Riverside athlete ever to win a gold medal in Track and Field. Heidi Wolfsberger became the PIAA State Champion in the 3200 meter run. She also picked up a second state medal for a 7th place finish in the 1600 and capped off a very memorable and rewarding season for Coach Bednash and Donnelly.

PEP BAND

The 1997-98 basketball season was the first for the Riverside Pep band. Directed by Mr. Ron Geise, the band entertained the fans during time outs at both boys' and girls' basketball home games. It featured Jeremy Fanucci and Jason Ortona on trumpet, Mike Scaramastro on trombone, and Steve Uher on Drums. After a successful first season, the pep band hopes to continue supplying Riverside Basketball with pep for years to come.

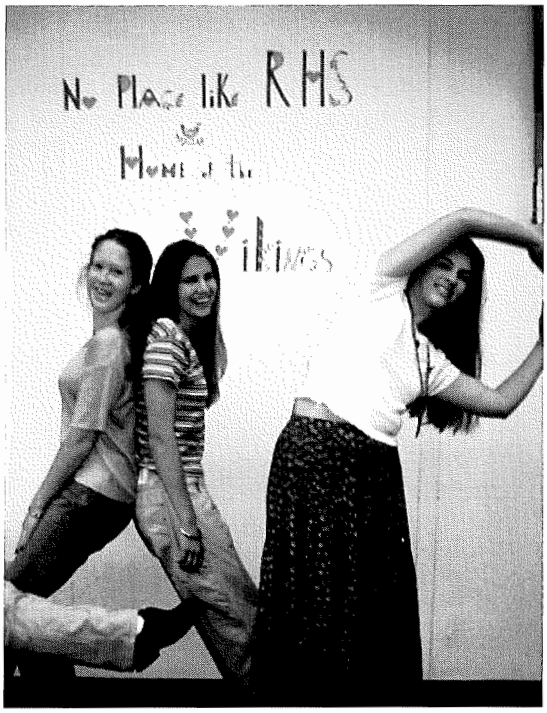

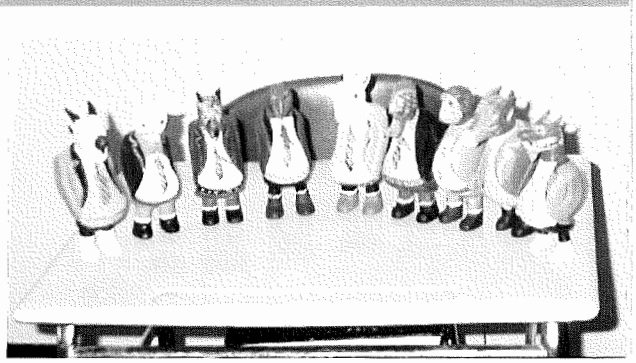

AP ENGLISH

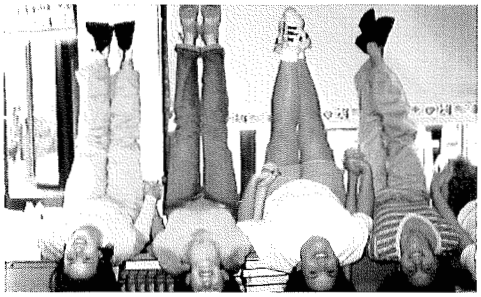

At first glance the Advanced Placement English cou load seemed nearly impossible for mere mortals to complish. Small in numbers, the class held high pectations and steadily improved throughout the ye The AP class provided a place for students to expr their thoughts and ideas about life while learning abo the thoughts and ideas that have shaped the world as know it. In the beginning, students came in with fear a anticipation. They walked out in June gliding past th obstacles with an ability to think for themselves.

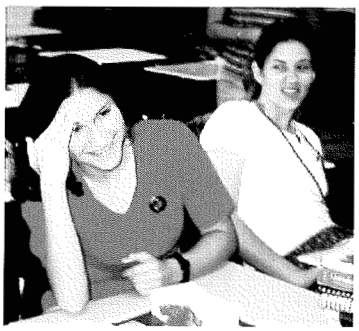

DRAMA CLUB

Riverside's Drama Club worked to their potential this year to put on its various productions. The first of the productions was the Talent Show, which was held in the fall. This year's show put together comedy and talent that was both creative and unusual. The show left everyone in the audience with something to remember. Also this year, the Drama Club presented its annual spring play. This year's production was "Guys and Dolls," combining talent in drama, music and dance. Once again, this year's performances helped to show the talent of Riverside's students. Towards the end of the year, the club took a trip to New York City to see a Broadway play. The Drama Club is under the direction of Mrs. Carol Hapstack.

TALENT SHOW

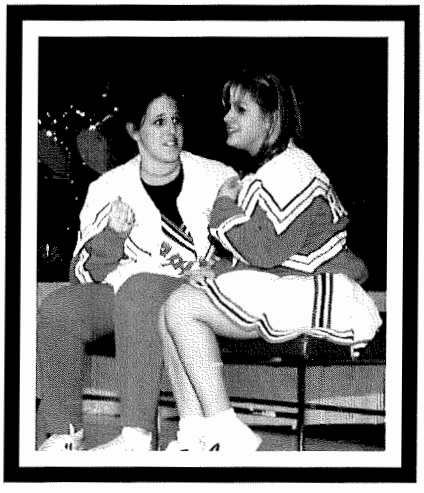

The annual Talent Show was held this year on Thursday, December 11, in the high school auditorium. The show contained a variety of performances which displayed the talents of our Riverside students. Riverside's chorus was the opening act of the evening. Michelle McHugh, Heidi Wolfsberger, Michelle Clewell, Keara Piekanski, Mike Morgan, PJ Gronski, Gary Beck, and Ted Praschak displayed their artistic abilities through a comedic ballet. Dershna Patel displayed her singing abilities performing "Foolish Games" by Jewel.

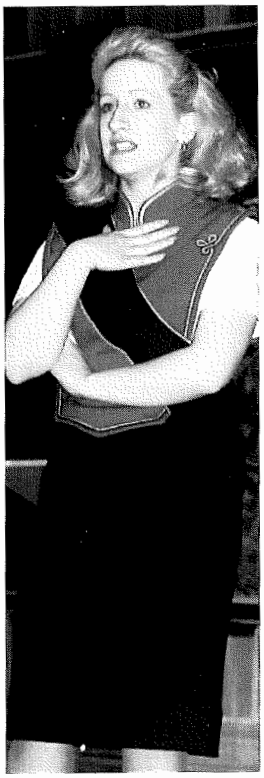

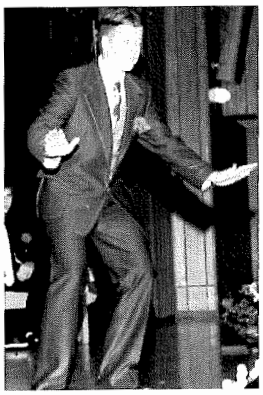

GUYS AND DOLLS

Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Hapstack, the drama club displayed its theatrical ability during this year's production of "Guys and Dolls." Laura Gleason captivated the audience in the role of Adelaide with Joe Aniska as Nathan Detroit. Amanda Fredmonski showed her dramatic and song talents in the role of Sarah, while Peter Hocking played Sky Masterson. Ron Kelley played the role of Nicely Nicely Johnson, Ryan Joyce played Bennie South Street, and Ted Praschak played the part of Arvide. As always, the cast and crew worked diligently to put together an unforgettable and successful production.

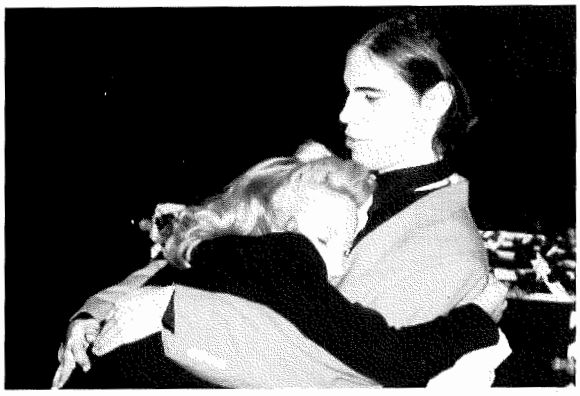

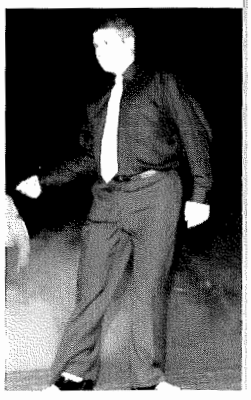

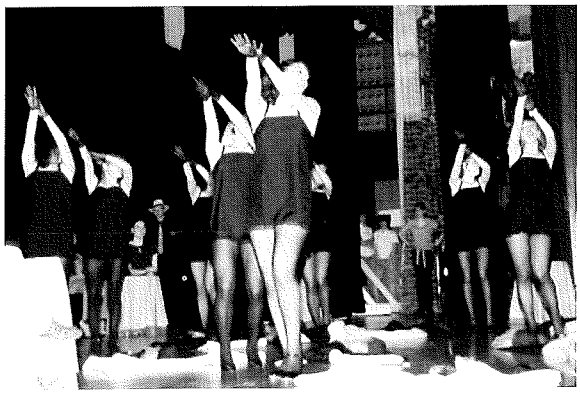

PASSING OF THE SWORD

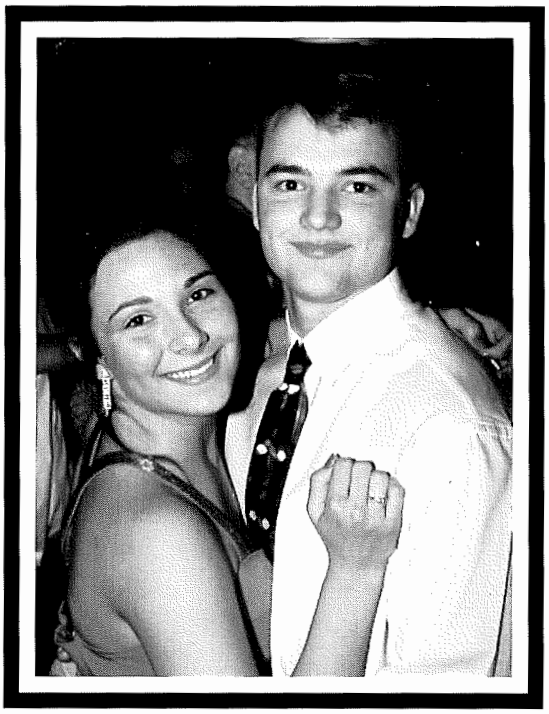

The annual "Passing of the Sword" semiformal was held at Via Appia on March 21, 1998. As the evening unfolded, everyone became anxious to hear the announcement of the Unit heads for '98-'99 school year. Maura Foley and Nicole Puchalski were named Pom-Pon co-captains; Tiffany Sopko received feature Pom-Pon honors; Serena Saar and Jessica Tokash received Varsity co-captain honors; Alicia Paulino received Feature Dancer designation. However the main event was when '97-'98 Miss Viking Stefanie Armillay, passed the sword to the '98-'99 Miss Viking, Chrissy Meehan.

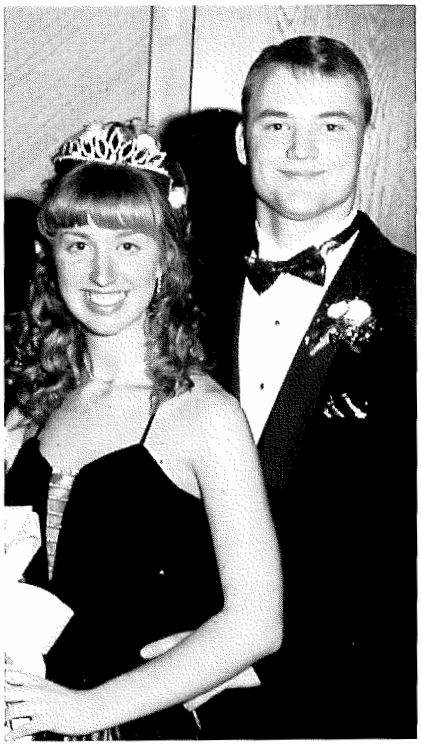

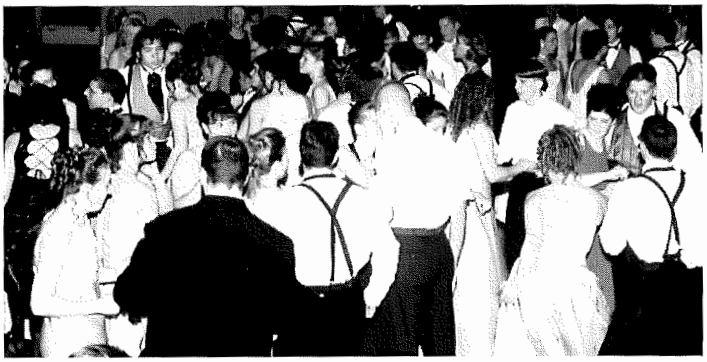

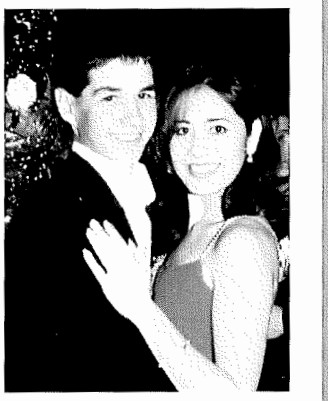

"A TIME TO REMEMBER"

PROM '98'

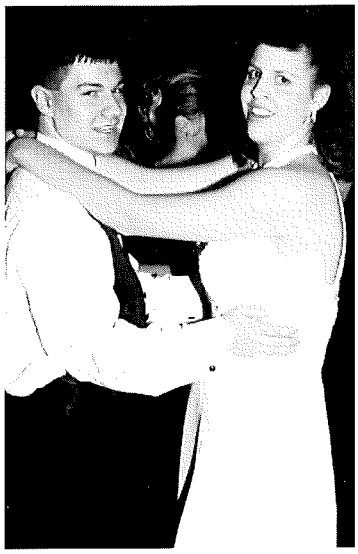

"A Time to Remember" was the theme for this year's prom, which was held at St. Mary's Center in Scranton on Friday, May 8. "Jumpin Jeff Walker" supplied the music for the evening. Laura Gleason was crowned Prom Queen and John Jezorwski crowned Prom King. The junior attendants were Chrissy Meehan, Jessica Smith, Cara Nageli, and Michelle Wolfsberger. The senior attendants were Holly Hewitt and Jessica Knight. For the juniors and seniors that attended the prom, May 8 was truly a 'Night to Remember'.

FACULTY BASKETBALL VOLLEYBALL

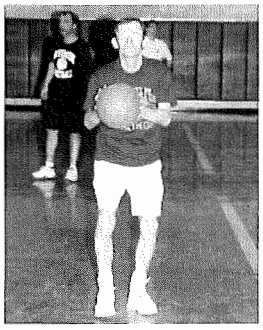

The Riverside Yearbook Staff sponsored a faculty basketball and volleyball tournament that was played on March 24. Champions of the first annual student volleyball tournament moved on to play the faculty in this game. The local radio station 98.5 KRZ, played the faculty in a friendly game of basketball. The students went on to narrowly defeat the faculty in the best of three games. The faculty redeemed its honor by handing the KRZ team its first ever defeat. Money raised for the games directly benefitted the 1998 Riverside Yearbook.

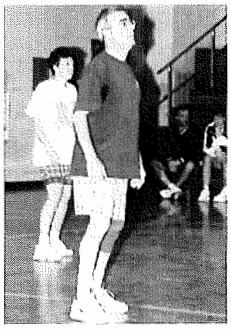

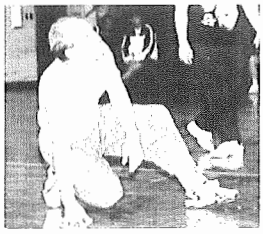

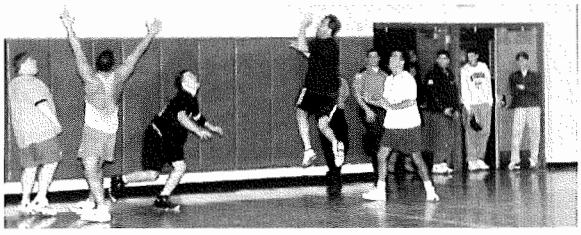

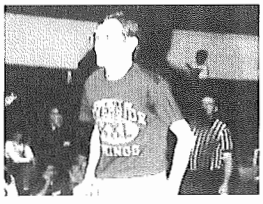

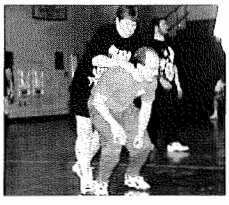

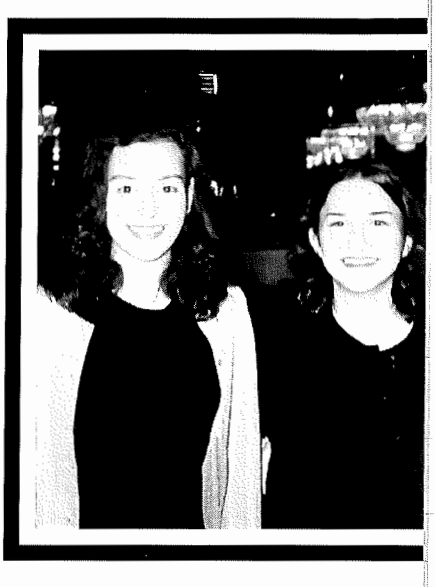

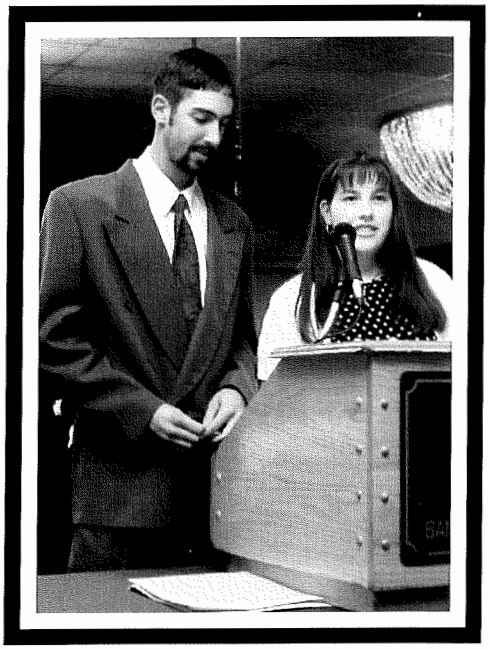

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night, the final semi-formal gathering for seniors before graduation, was held at Genetti Manor at the end of May. Class president, Christen MacArt gave a warm welcome to the seniors. Her speech was followed by the Class Prophecy, which was presented in a comical fashion by Josh Zumbach and Michelle McHugh. Class awards were given after the prophecy. Following the award presentation, seniors watched a slide show full of class memories.

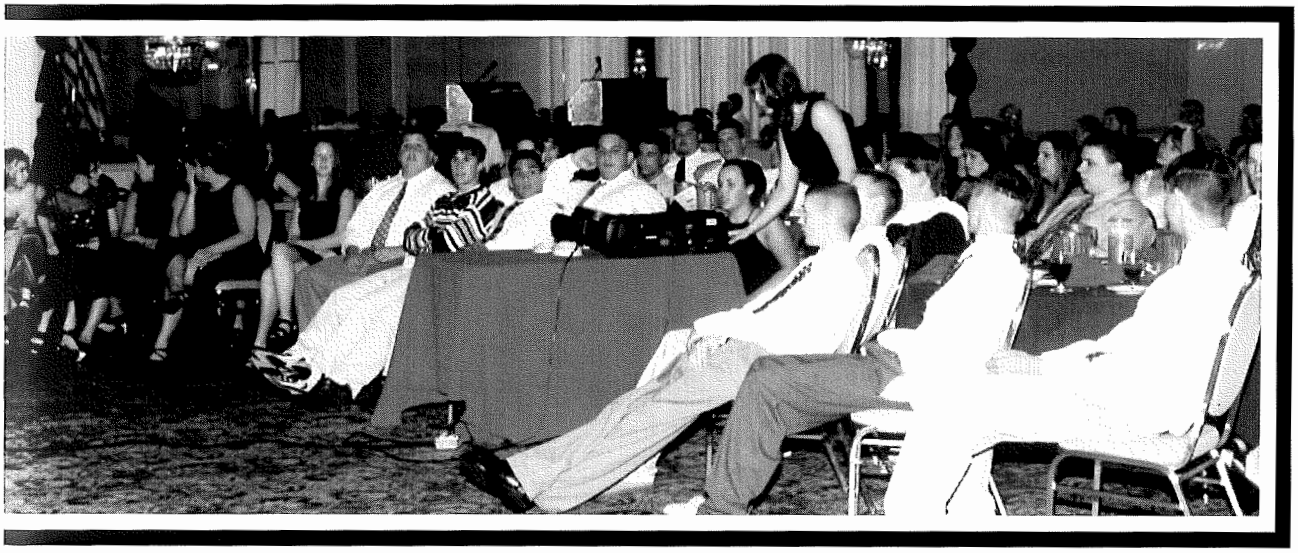

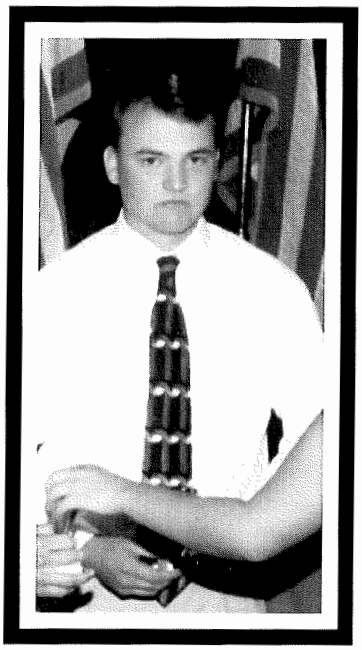

CLASS DAY

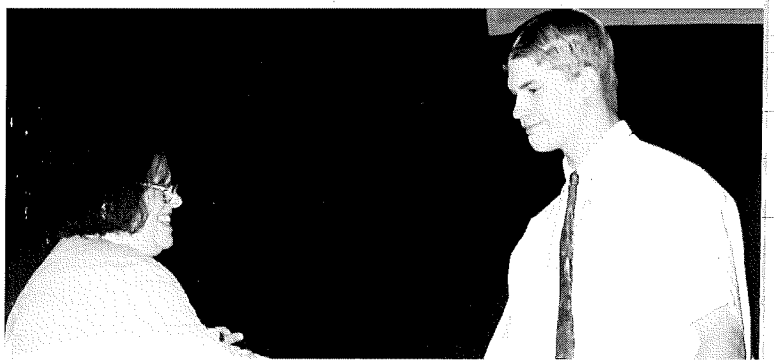

Seniors, faculty and friends gathered for annual Class Day cermonies in the Riverside auditorium on June 9th. Sue Schiavo recited her Salute to Riverside; Holly Hewitt and Val Felter read the Class History; and Jess Knight and Christen MacArt left the Class Will to the underclassmen and incoming seniors.

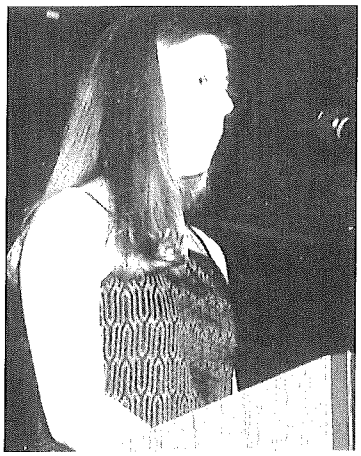

Mrs. Donna Lisowski and honored guests presented various financial, academic, and athletic awards to seniors who have honored Riverside with their commitment to excellence.

CLASS PROPHECY

SETTING: Before a Phillie's baseball game the year 2010 (players signing autographs).

S: Can I have your autograph?

J: Sure

S: (looking at autograph) Josh Zumbach? I know you!

J: Hey, I know you too! You're Sheli McHugh! What have you been up to?

S: I have my own cartoon show, and at night my character turns into a super hero.

J: What's the name of the show?

S: "Night Moves". You're with the Phillies? That's great!

J: Yeah, today we're playing the Mets and Joe Dente is pitching.

S: That's neat! I heard Jason Mizwinski made it to the major leagues too, but he stopped playing to flip burgers at McDonald's.

J: Oh, that's too bad. I saw on "Sportscenter" that Laura Nicoletto is the starting center for a team from the WNBA and Shaun Decker is a professional race car driver.

S: Yep, and Joe Kowalski became a professional boxer. He never threw a punch, though, because he was too nervous.

J: Jeremy Ransom and Kris Karnis play in the NFL too. Jeremy is the running back for the Eagles. He is running behind Kris on the offensive line and Bernie Posluszny is the manager for the team.

S: Did you see Joe Decker and Sean Boyle on TV last night?

J: No, for what?

S: I guess you didn't hear. They are tag-team wrestlers in the WCW.

J: Courtney Helcoski and Val Felter play for the same professional women's softball team. Courtney catches, and Val is the solid second baseman.

S: I heard that Amanda Fedor is a teacher somewhere.

J: Yeah and Sean Namlick became a world class sprinter. It was difficult, though, managing his career with 3 marriages and divorces, all with Amanda.

S: So does Stanley Stravinskas still play baseball anywhere?

J: No, but he still loves the game so much that he opened a sporting goods store, specializing in wooden bats, named "Stanley's Woody's".

S: There are a lot of successful athletes from our class. John Jezorwski is the quarterback for the Chicago Bears and Harry Armstrong is his back-up.

J: How ironic.

S: Jen Kishel is an interior designer.

J: Really? She designs homes?

S: Yes, she won an award for her creative bathroom designs. Have you heard about Kelly Gaidula and Rachel Conaboy?

J: Yep they got married . . . to two guys. Rachel is a Broadway dancer and Kelly is her manager.

S: Laura Gleason, Nicole Thomas, and Pete Hocking are all on Broadway. Nicole plays a pirate in "Pirates of Penszants".

J: Christen MacArt became a physical therapist. John Musky's in a band with Mike Krouchick and they won an MTV music award last year.

S: Sue Schiavo became a dentist and she's the leading promoter of wearing helmets for all activities.

J: Helmets? I thought it was hardhats? Is Heidi still running?

S: She stopped competing after the 2004 Olympics, but she still runs for fun . . . and Mr. Bednash still follows her around in his car.

J: That's funny!

J: That's good to hear. Melissa Schraeder became an English and History Professor. She's a very good history teacher because she makes everything seem bigger, better, and more exciting than it really was.

S: That sounds like Missy to me. Chrissy Tugend and Anna Lipperini became leading contributions to the Hair Club for Men, by donating some of their hair for research.

J: Kelly Sarti became a heart surgeon.

S: I heard she was a ventrilloquist.

J: No she was just good at talking to herself. Did you hear about Alycia Pappa? She fulfilled her life long dream.

S: What did she become an actress?

J: No, the other life long dream, she got a pet monkey.

S: That's great and reminds me that Brian Jones is a very successful monkey trainer for the circus. Because the monkey's really seem to relate to him.

J: A couple guys took over their family businesses. Rob Gronski took over Gronski's and he still doesn't talk.

S: Yeah and Brian Wilson took over his family's garage and franchised it all over the country and Jason Herron, Joe Dudzick, and Chris Vosburg work at some of the branches as mechanics.

J: Charlie Burdett is an undercover cop exposing that black market in NEPA and he has contacts all over the country.

S: Did you hear about Mark Clark?

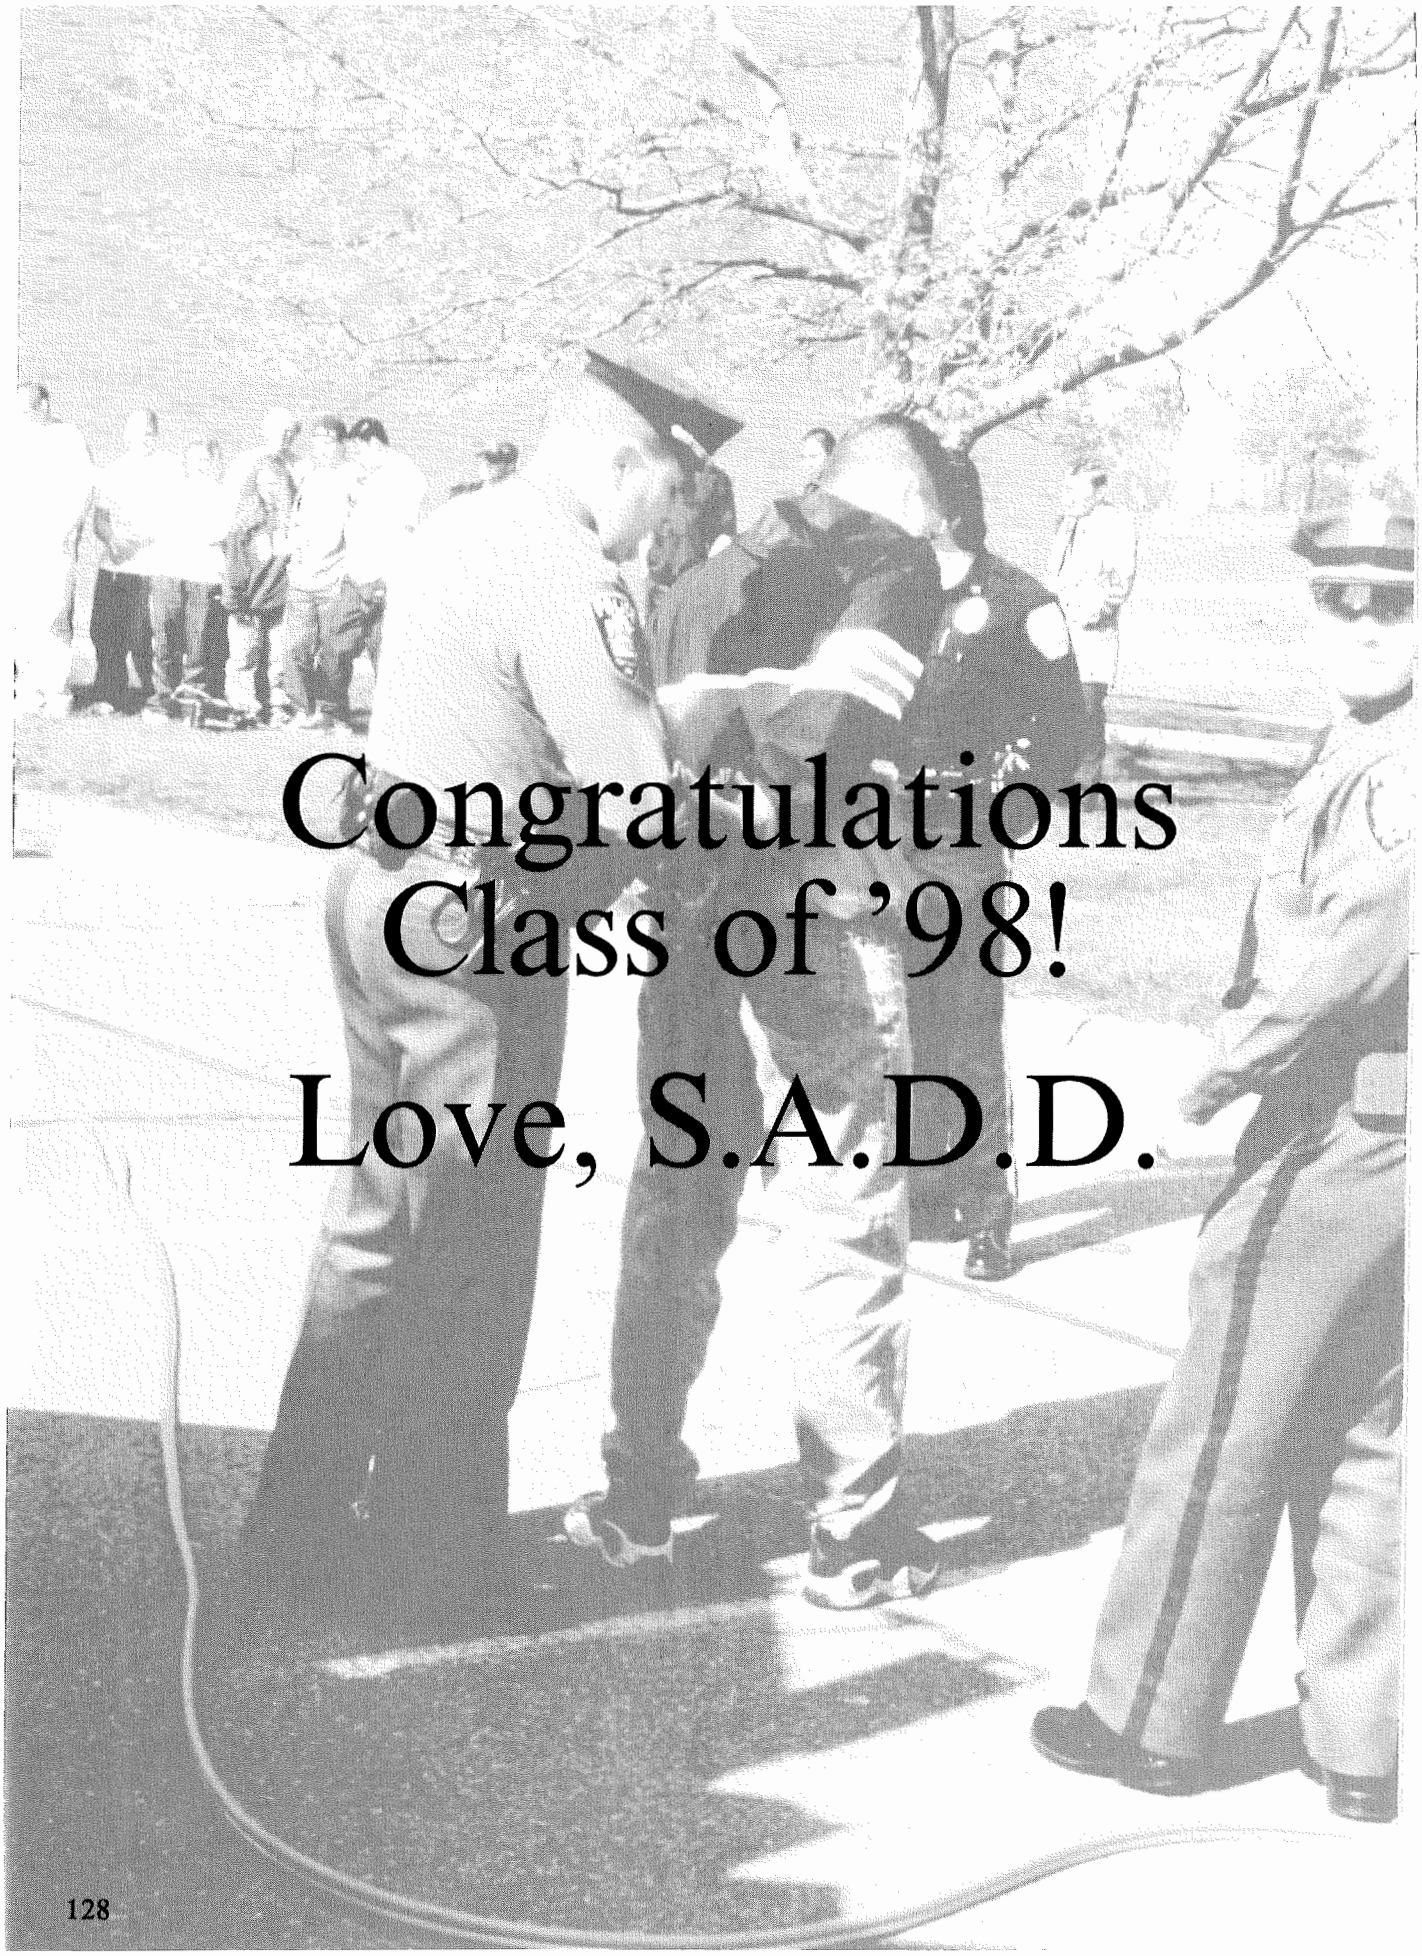

J: No, why?

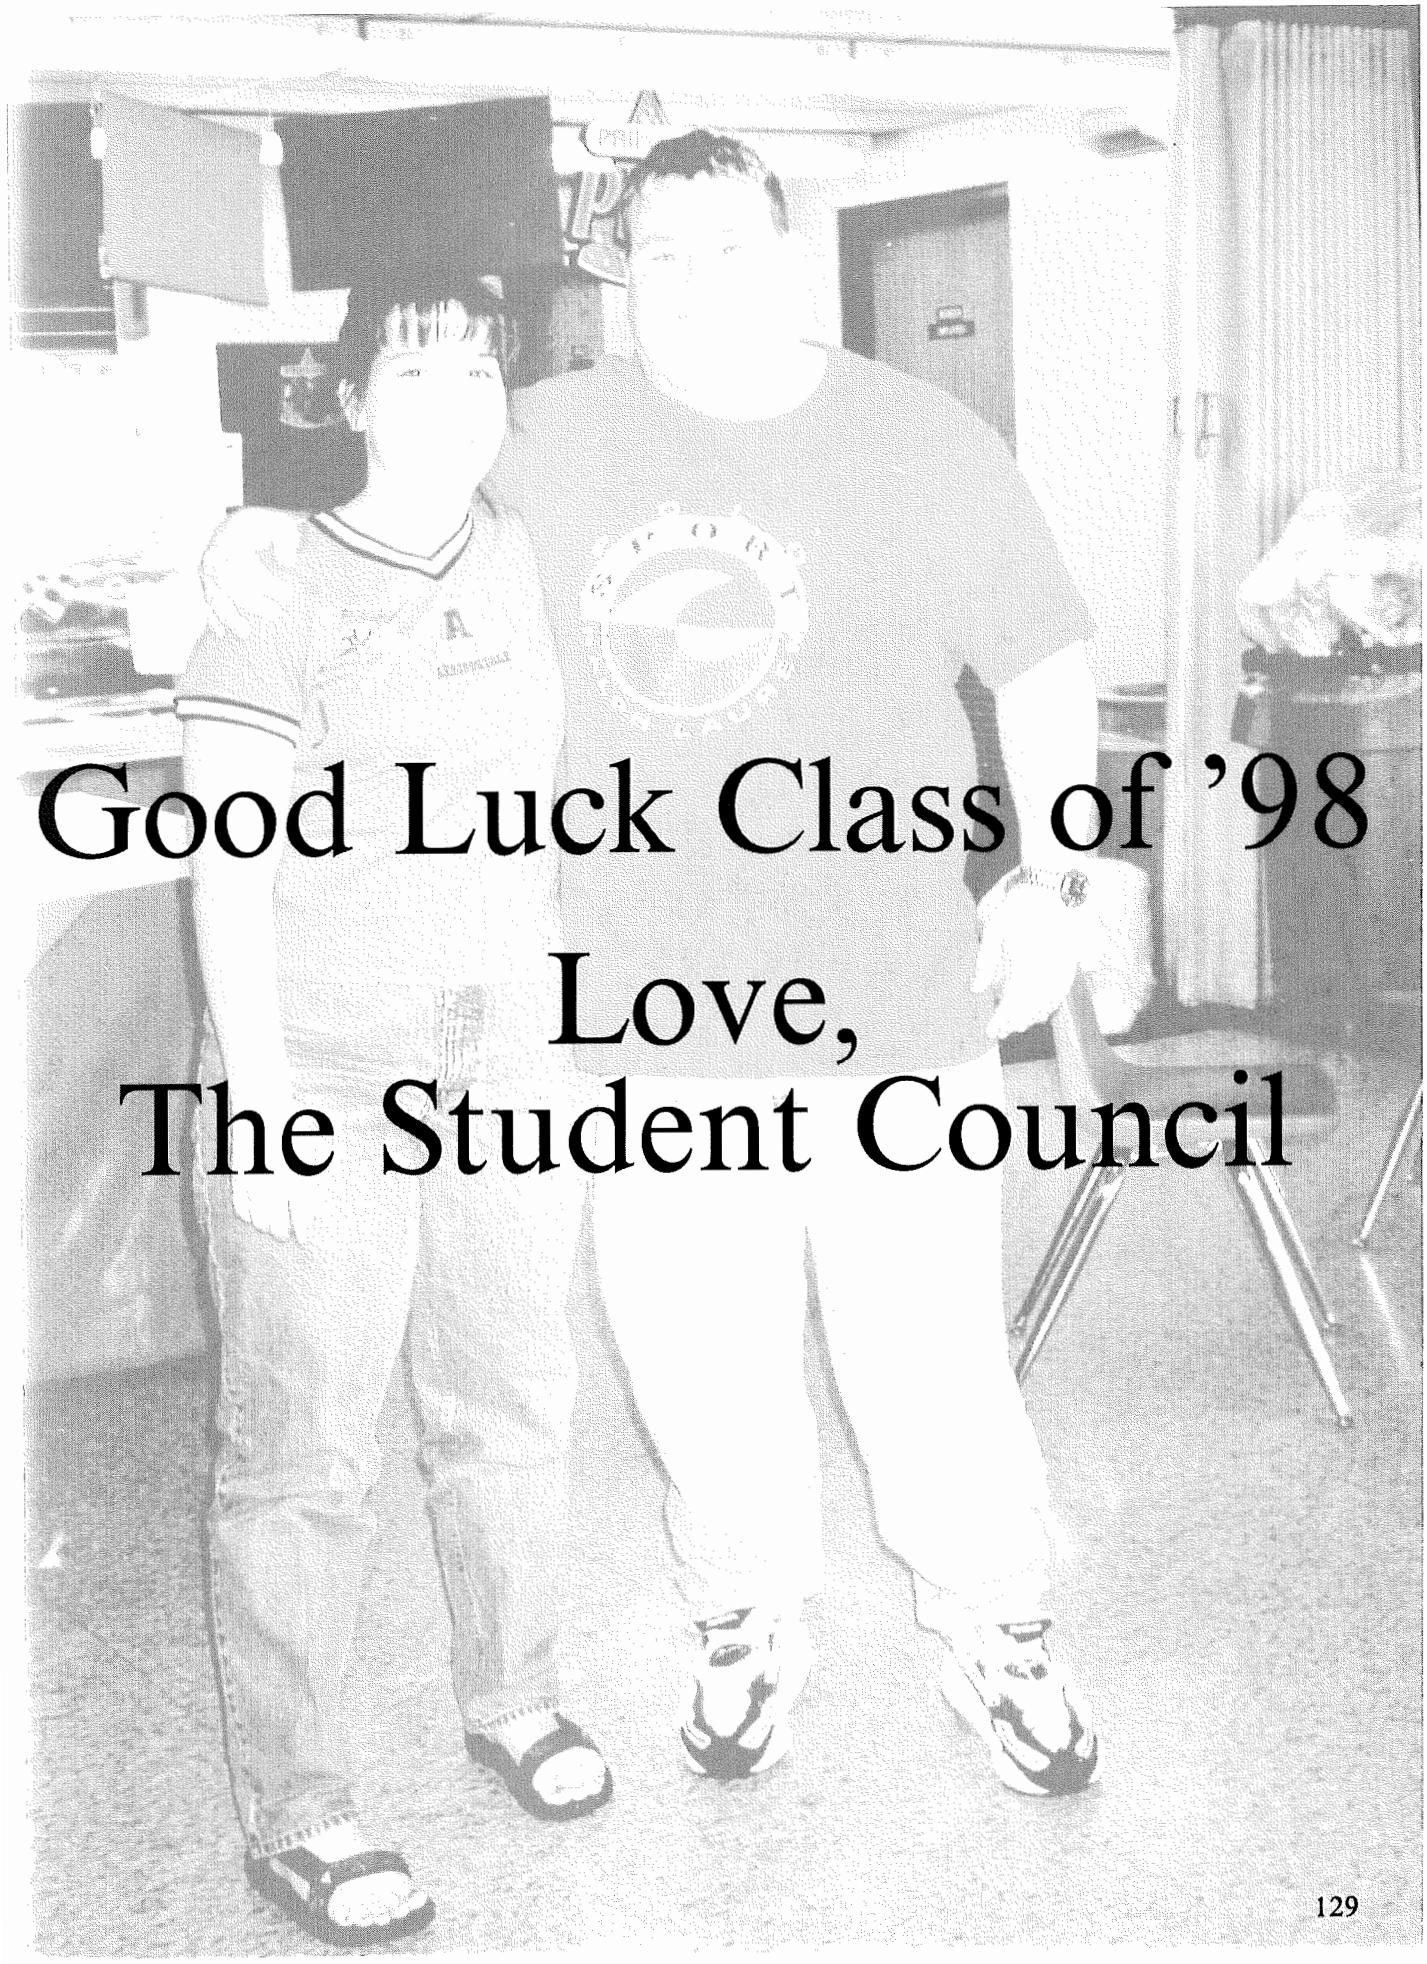

S: He is wanted for hacking the U.S. governments' computers which were programmed by Rob Keogh!

J: Well, I heard we do have a couple of classmates who became stars.

S: Yep. Jeremy Fanucci took over for Paul Shaffer on "Late Show with David Letterman." Ali Trayer moved to Hollywood and became a movie star.
J: Yeah, and Dietrick Weitz has his own TV show. He's supposed to be the next Houdini.
S: Tom Siemion and Tasha Patton opened a Bubble-Yum factory in Scranton.
J: Yeah and Amanda Fredmonski opened a Kawasaki dealership because of her interest in quads.
S: After many years of practice, Melissa Casey finally became the 13th member of the Wu Tang Clan.
J: Have you heard anyting about Lee Greenfield, Jim Neberman, or Derek Dalbo?
S: Just that they live in the Big Worm down by the river.
J: That's interesting. I heard Michelle Clewell became a chiropractor and ear doctor, now she can diagnose herself.
S: Yep, and Jaime Rutkowski and Christina Petcavage became world famous artists painting murals all over the world.
J: And Jen Collins became Miss America!
S: Wow, that's great! Kristine Conway and Jane Kernan are hair stylists.
J: Nicole Armbruster and Angela Basile opended a Levis Jean Company. Nicole is responsible for the main selling point: all women can wear a size smaller that usual.
S: What ever happened to Jen Tucker?
J: She won a gold medal in the 2008 Olympics and now her picture is on the cups of those drinks they sell at 7-11's.
S: Steph Armillay is a newscaster for Newswatch 16 and Amy Russomano is the camera woman.
J: Steve Thomas owns a restaurant and bar where he is also the chef.
S: Gina Meranti and Kris Karnis ended up getting married and had lots of kids who all averaged out to normal height.
J: Holly Hewitt is an aerobics instructor at the fitness center.
S: Yeah I was going to join her class but she said she enforces the same dress code she used for gym class.
J: Jess Knight overcame her fear of blook and she is now a doctor working with her Dad in a family practice.
S: That's cool, so what ever happened to Ryan Thiel?
J: Well . . . Ronny Kelly became a forest ranger and he found Ryan wandering around in the woods.
S: How bout Cathy Onofrey?
J: She became an astronaut and landed on the moon.
S: That's amazing, Kim Kosierowski is a registered nurse at C.M.C.
J: Jill Brazen became a psychiatrist and tested Joel Jablonski and she discovered he has the highest IQ in the world!
S: Jessica Mitchell is one of the few, the proud, the Marines and Kathy Sabatini became the 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force.
J: What ever happened to Tracy VanLuvender after she moved?
S: She became a southern Baptist preacher, and in her spare time she cooks Cajun food for her parishioners.
J: That's weird.
S: What else do they do in Louisiana?
J: Did you hear about Ryan McDonnell?
S: No, what happened to him?
J: He is a millionaire, he invented the first non-cancerous form of chewing tobacco!
S: Lori Bowen works at Syracuse University in admissions, and she is also her brother's sports agent.
J: Brandi Bartels opened her own restaurant with Dana DePaolo and Chrissy Johnson working as waitresses and Rose Walsh became manager of a chain of Burger Kings.
S: Zack Morgan opened his own gentleman's club with Tom Best "workin" as a bartender.
J: Ted Praschak became the President of the United States with Jason Supeck as his Vice President. Ted was the first Democratic President we have had in office since Clinton.
S: Glen Digwood became an optometrist and discovered a cure for color blindness, so Josh Korczakowski could start wearing normal clothes.
J: Mike Scaramastro surpassed Bill Gates as the richest man in the world when he patented a new type of computer.
S: Kenny Pawlikowski and Jenn Tomczyk opened up a chain of Save-A-Lots. Judy Kwaitkowski, Jen Wysoski, and Kathleen Turner moved by the ocean and became marine biologists.
J: Moose, John Dodge, and John Maher opened up an elementary school because the 8th graders lost interest in them.
S: Joe Bakaysa is a taste-tester for Gertrude Hawks.
J: Jill Sopp, Shannon Piragas, and Kelly Kerrigan became social workers and opened up a rehab center.
S: That's interesting. Jay Reviello moved to a farm with a pond to breed ducks. They follow him wherever he goes.
J: Wow, it seems like everyone from our class became successful.
S: Yeah, I hope they're all happy too. Well, I've got to go, it was nice seeing you.
J: You too. And I'll watch for your "Night Moves" show.
S: Okay, and good luck with baseball too!
J: Thanks. Bye!
S: Bye bye!
