DEDICATION

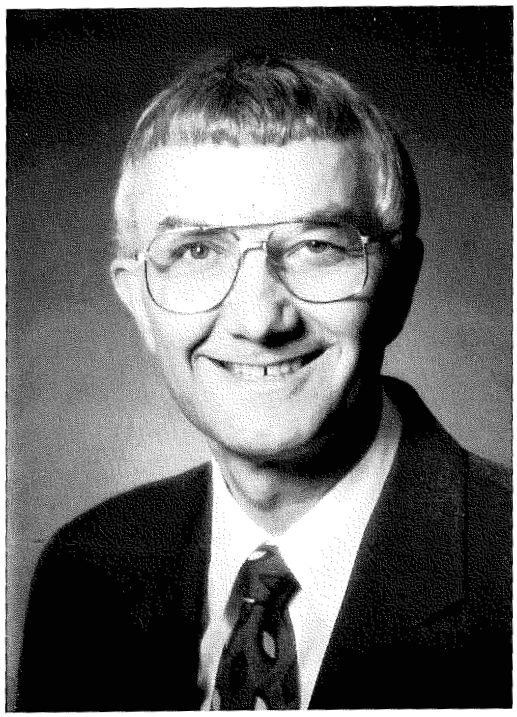

MR. WILLIAM J. KASULIS

Earlier this year, Mr. William J. Kasulis announced his retirement as High School Vice-Principal. With twenty-six years of dedicated service to Riverside, he has proven his ability, not only as an administrator, but also as a friend. The 1997 Yearbook Staff joins the members of the faculty, administration, and board of education in wishing Mr. Kasulis the best of luck in his activities for the future.

VIKING FOOTBALL

What a great season! Senior football captains Jason Hughes, Erick Knight, Eric Melesky, Jerry Connor, and Jamie Siminski led this year's football team to an overall record of 7-5. The boys made history this year by becoming the first Riverside team to win the district championship. The Vikes claimed the PIAA district II class A championship with a 28-6 victory over Springfield-Montco. The Vikes made their fans prouder than ever by ranking fourth in the state at year's end.

Charlie Waters, Jamie Siminski, Mark Brennan, Erick Knight, and Rudy Marciano were selected to play in this year's dream game. Rudy Marciano will continue to play football at the University of New Hampshire, where he received a full scholarship. Jamie Siminski will continue to play at Fairfield University, where he also received a full scholarship. This year's team was proudly coached by Mr. Steve Armillay.

GIRLS' TENNIS

This year's girls' tennis team experienced a rebuilding season. Led by senior Sue Sophabixay and captains Sue Donati and Cathy McNulty, the team compiled a record of 3-4. Concluding the season, Sue Sophabmixay, Michelle Clewell, Sue Donati, and Cathy McNulty attended districts. Their coach was Mr. John Radzillowicz.

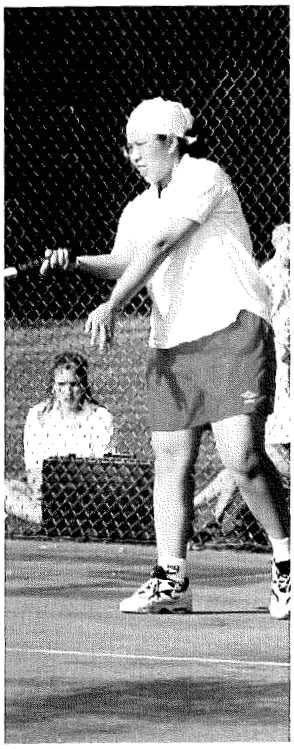

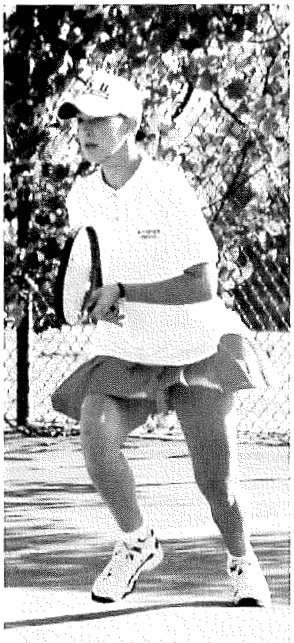

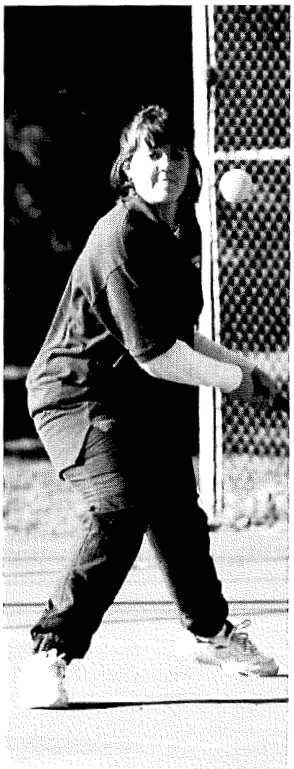

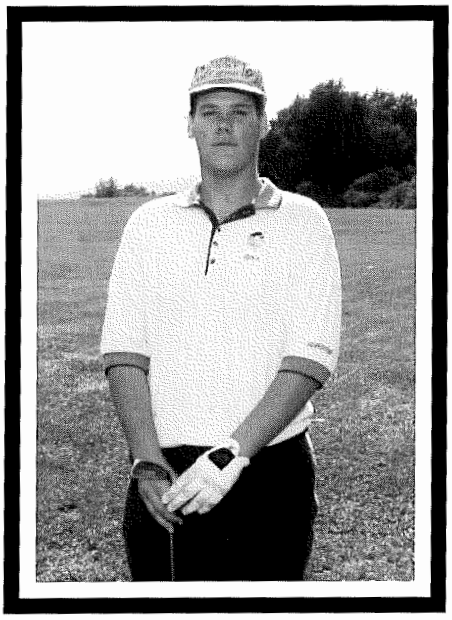

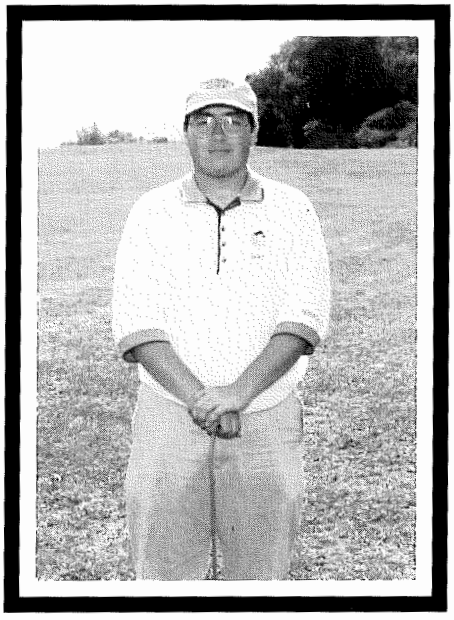

GOLF

The Riverside Golf team, under the direction of Coach Helcoski, surprised many teams this year by tying for 4th place in Lackawanna League Southern Division, just missing the playoffs as a result of a tiebreaker. Seniors Dino Vervitsiotis and Captain Tim Celuck led the team of mostly freshmen to the biggest upset in the Lackawanna league this year by upsetting one of the Southern Division's top teams, Seton Catholic. Tim made Riverside history by being one of the handfull of golfers to make districts 4 years in a row and by joining Greg Gondella as the only Riverside golfers to have Holes-in-One during their high school careers.

CROSS COUNTRY

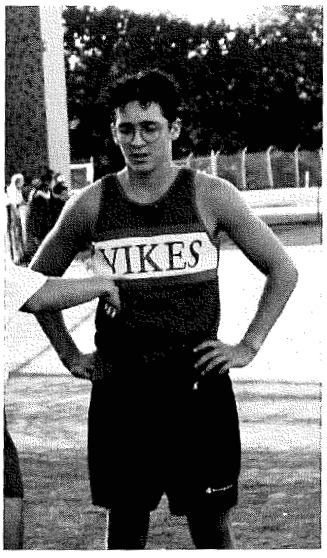

In only second year existance the Riverside Cross Country program is on the rise. The girls finished 8-4, and had a third place finish in the conference with two district medalists, Heidi Wolfsberger and Jennifer Tucker. Heidi was also a state medalist. Three All Stars on the team are Heidi Wolfsberger, Jennifer Tucker and Michelle Wolfsberger. Heidi Wolfsberger was named the "Female Runner of the Year." Although the boys struggled, they still managed to get one All Star and a district medalist, Glen Digwood. Both Heidi Wolfsberger and Glen Digwood received Most Valuable Athlete for 1996. All these athletes return for what should be a fantastic season in 1997.

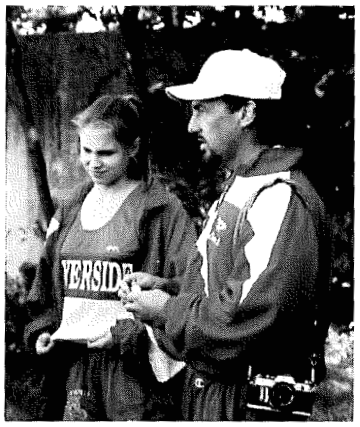

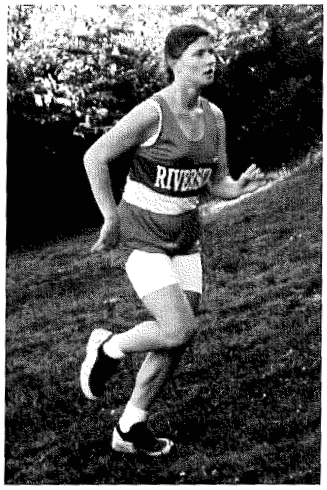

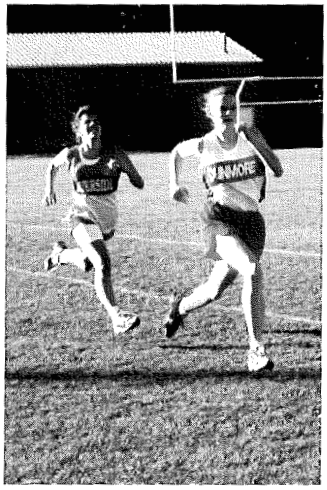

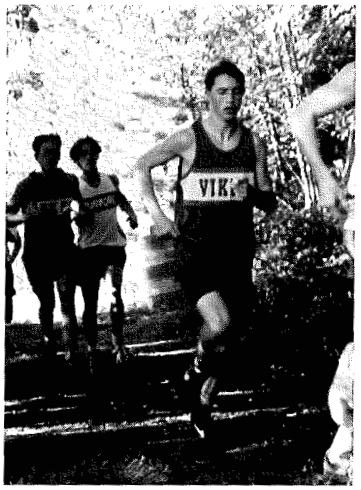

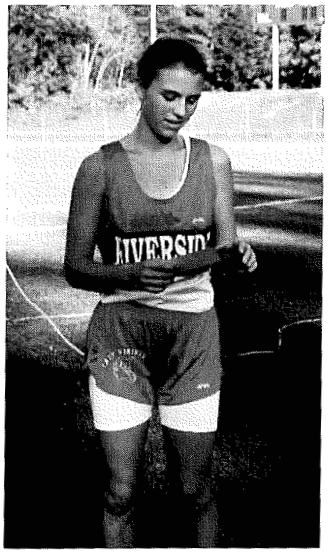

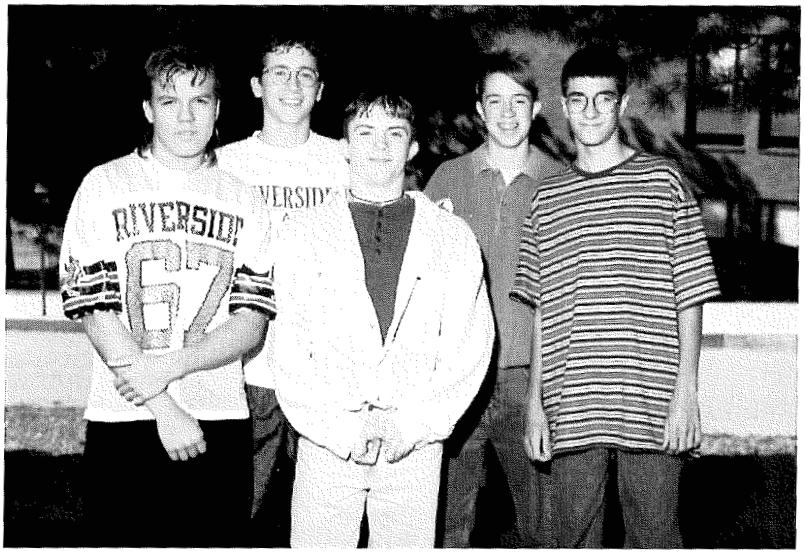

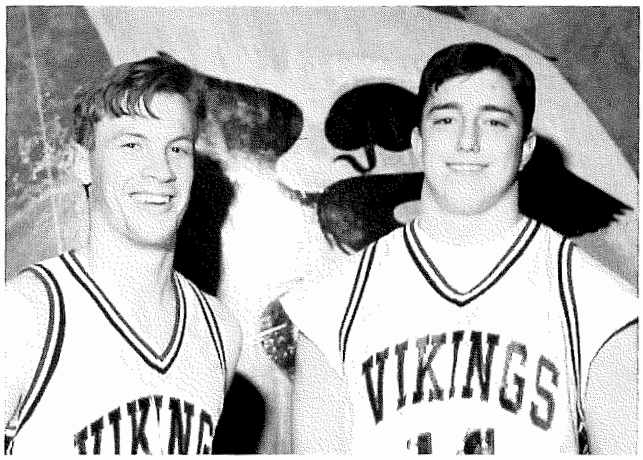

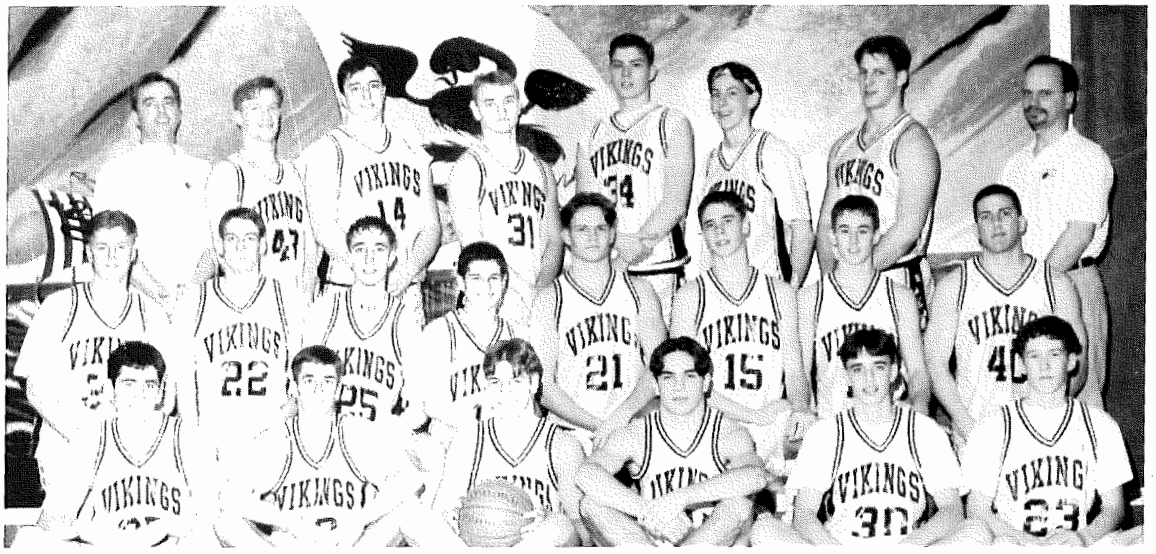

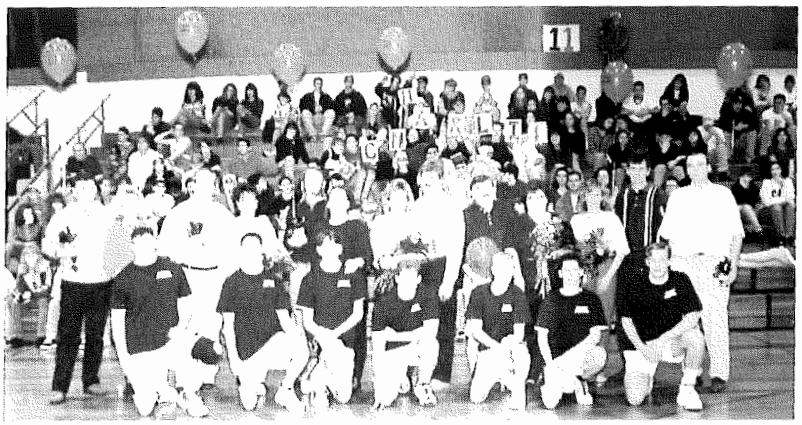

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Following a very competitive preseason, the boys basketball team captured the title of the Taylor Lions Tournament. Led by captains Jamie Siminski and Charlie Waters, the team compiled an overall 8-14 record. The seniors, including Matt Pivovarnik, Rudy Marciano, Tom Correll, Ron Aniska, and Jason Olechna, offered an array of talent on the court.

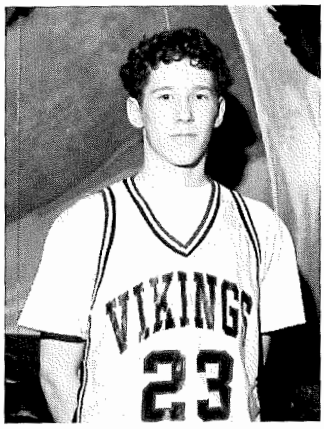

At home in front of a packed gymnasium, Charlie Waters scored his 1000 point basket and eventually finished off his high school career with a total of 1049 points. At the end of the year awards were given to Jamie Siminski for Best Rebounder, Ryan Oustrich for Best Defensive Player, and Charlie Waters for Best Offensive Player and Most Outstanding Senior Player. The 1996-97 varsity coach was Mr. Michael Morgan who was assisted by Mr. Gary Bisignani and Mr. Dan Digwood.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Girls' Basketball team compiled a league record of 8-6 and an overall record of 11-12 for the 1996-97 season. The Lady Vikes ended their season with a 50-32 loss to Bishop Hoban in the first round of the District 2 Playoffs. The team was led by Senior captains Karyn Felter, Allison Hart, Katie Higgins, and Leslie Ozark. At the end of the season, Leslie Ozark and Junior Laura Nicoletto were named to the Lackawanna League 2nd team All-stars. Leslie Ozark received the Most Valuable Player Award, Laura Nicoletto received the Best Rebounder Award, and Valerie Felter earned the "Hustler" Award.

SOFTBALL

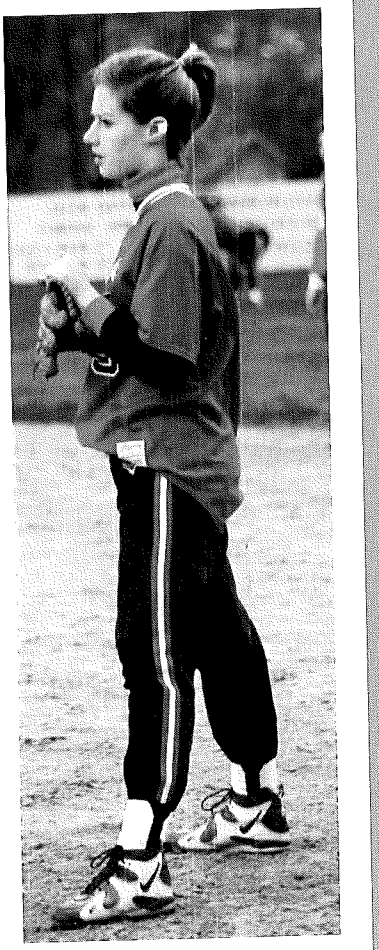

Once again the Girls' Softball team enjoyed a competitive season in the Lackawanna League. Coached by Mr. David Adomiak, Mr. Steve Petrunich, and Mr. Bill Roever, the Lady Vikes posted a 9-5 record. The highlight of the season came on Senior Night when the girls defeated first place Bishop O'Hara 1-0 in an eight inning hame. The team was led by seniors Lucy Fetch and Katie Higgins. Junior Courtney Helcoski won the Most Valuable Player Award, senior Katie Higgins received the Most Improved Player, sophomore Jennifer Borowski earned the Coach's Award, and junior Valerie Felter captured the "Gamer Award." Freshman Martina Wheeler was the "Rookie of the Year."

We've been through many things together
The good times and the bad.
We remember all the memories
And all the fun we had

So to the Class of '97
As we're coming to a close,
Keep in mind the better things
And all the friends we've known.

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

As senior year comes to a close,
I start to remember all the fun we've had.
The laughs, the memories we've all shared,
To leave it all now will surely be sad.

Our time together is almost ending,
It seems unbelievable to me.
But now's the perfect time to go back
And think of what used to be.

As seventh and eighth graders
We were downstairs all alone,
Desperately waiting for our time to move up
And have a hall of our own.

In ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades
We anxiously wondered our fate.
Would we ever have the chance to roam senior hall?
We just couldn't stand the wait.

We spent lots of time in guidance as seniors,
Searching for a college and a career.
We knew this was the place to make decisions
Since graduation time was very near.

We had our last Spirit Week in October,
The fun we had could not be compared.
Painting signs, decorating our hall,
And the many memories we all shared.

As for our football team,
They sure did great this year.
With their incredible District II Championship,
They made the fans proud to cheer.

Our golf team tied for fourth place in the league,
With Dino and Tim as the seniors on the team.
Both were excellent at their game,
A better pair there could never be.

With Charlie scoring 1,000 points,
Basketball season sure was fun.
And even though they didn't win a title,
To us they'll always be #1.

Our senior Lady Vikes ended their final season
Advancing to the playoffs as in the past.
And even though those times are gone,
They will be left with the memories that last.

Our girls' varsity track team
Was again a huge success,
By winning the Jordan Relays for the third time
And proving they're still the best.

Boys' track, softball, baseball, and tennis
Brought many athletes out in the spring.
No one would have guessed all the talent and de ication
Our senior girls and boys would bring.

Our drama club this year performed "Annie,"
The play was a success without a doubt.
But the only senior to get a part was Dino
Even though so many others had tried out.

This year's prom theme was "Meet Me Halfway,"
Everyone had so much fun.
Billy was crowned king and Nicole crowned queen
Before the night was done.

We'd like to take time to thank our teachers
For all their support, care, and trust.
We really hope they know how much they mean
To each and every one of us.

Mr. Kasulis, our Vice Principal,
Is also leaving in June.
We'd like to thank him and wish him luck now,
Since we'll all be on our way soon.

Although it's now time to part,
And go our separate ways,
Remember that we'll always have our memories
Of all our high school days.

Never forget our great times together,
Nor all the friends we've known.
Because now is our time to move forward,
And face the world on our own.

We never knew how hard it would be
To leave all of these familiar faces.
But as long as you hold memories in your heart,
Time never erases.

MARCHING UNITS

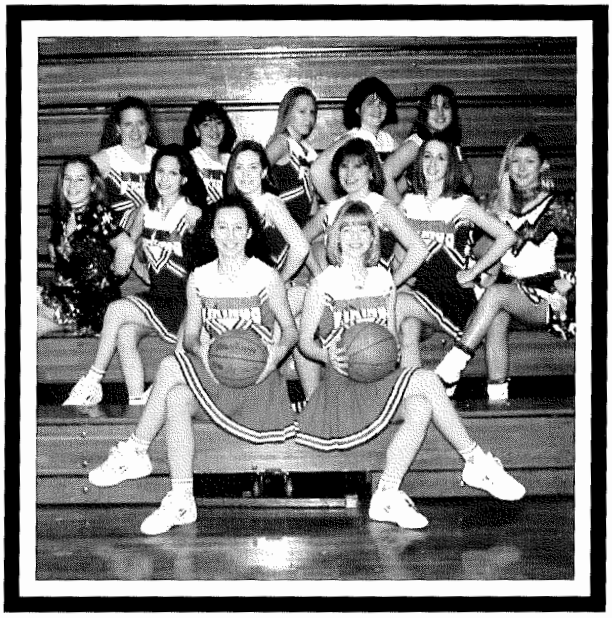

The Riverside Marching Units under the direction of Mrs. Sharon Roche had a very exciting year. They began the year with the Moosic Centennial parade and the Taylor parade. In the fall, the Units performed at the Bloomsburg Fair, helped to cheer our football team to their Class A District 2 Championship and during the winter the basketball cheerleaders cheered our basketball team to win the annual Taylor Lions Tournament. In February, the annual unit show was held with this year's theme being "Hollywood Nights."

ACTIVITIES

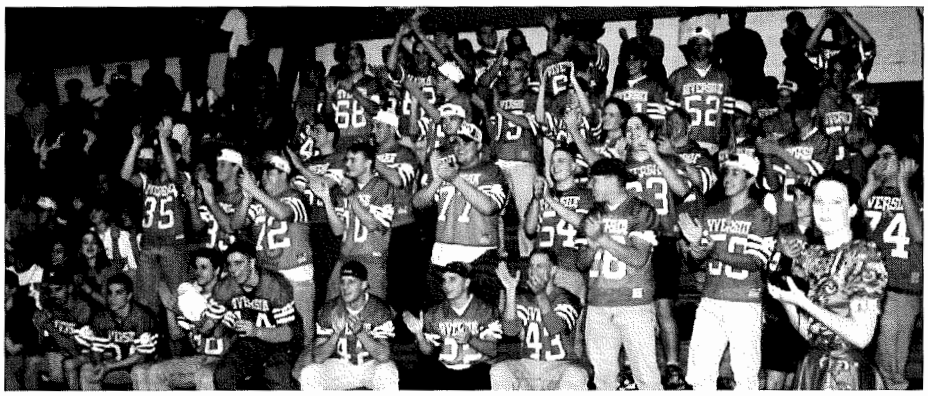

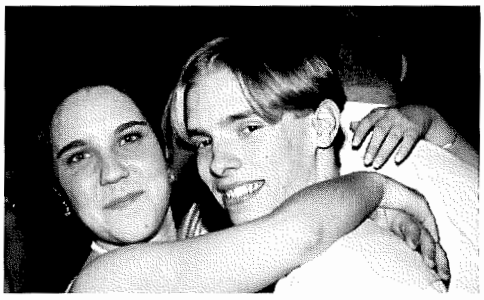

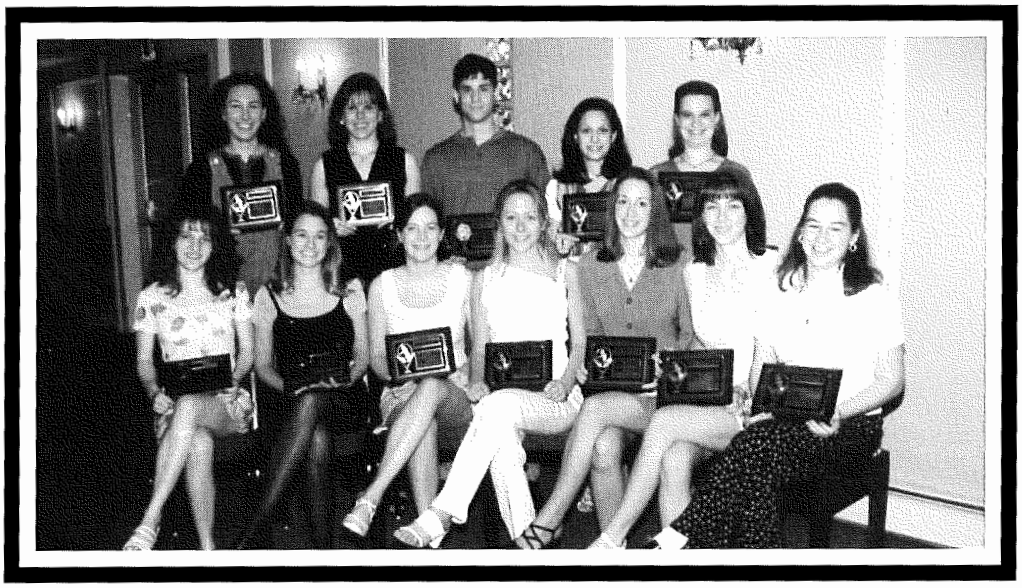

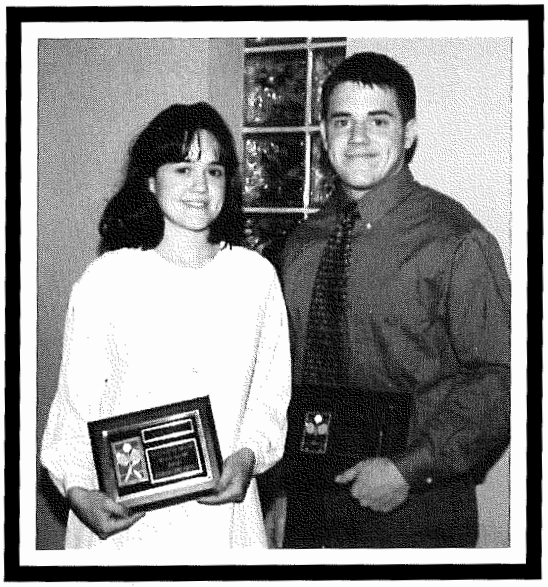

ALL HONORS

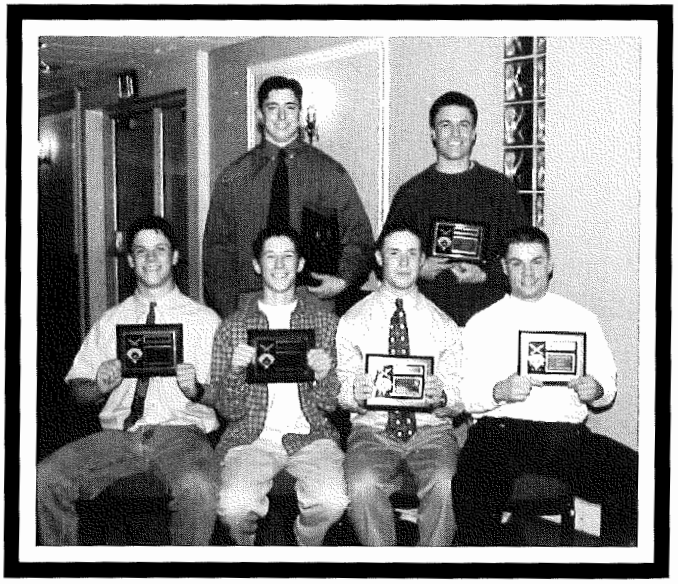

ART CLUB

The Art Club, under the direction of Mr. John Kosek, participated in a number of activities this year. Its members painted Christmas decorations on the windows of the Taylor Post Office and our very own cafeteria. The students also entered many art contests throughout the year. On May 14 the club engaged in an adventurous tour through New York City.

DRAMA CLUB

Riverside's Drama Club worked vigorously to put on two productions this year. The first, held during the fall, was the Talent Show. Everyone witnessed Eric Williams show his surfing ability as an unexpected ending to the show. Their second production was the spring play "Annie." Both were successful in proving once again that Riverside has a lot of talent. All of this was made possible by advisor Mrs. Carol Hapstak.

HOMECOMING

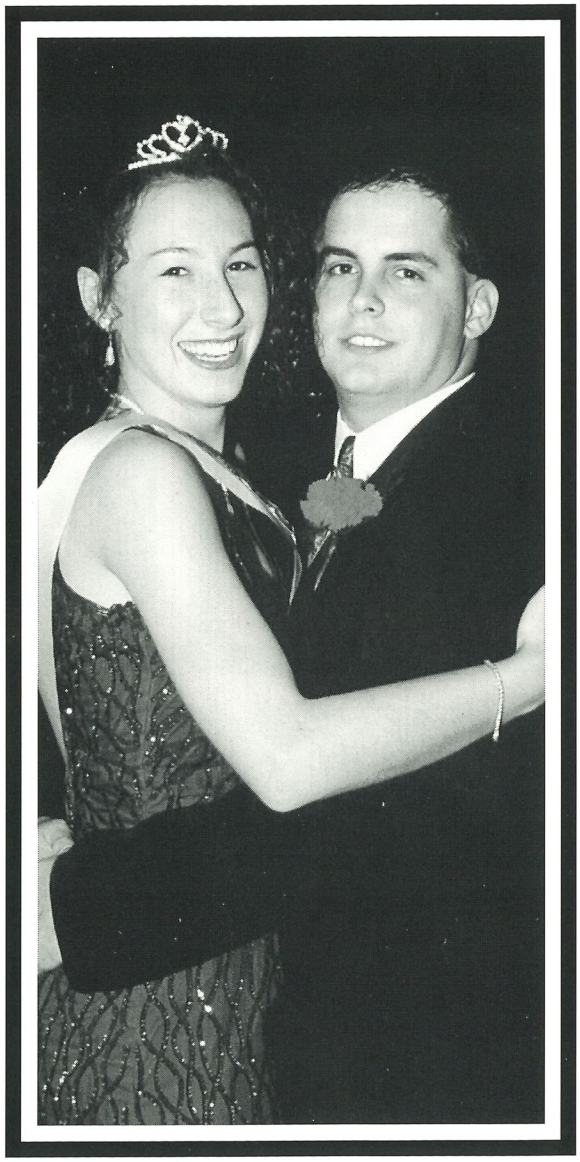

This year's Homecoming Dance was held on October 19th and was the final event of the Spirit Week activities. Nicole D'Annunzio was crowned queen and the court included Amy Williams, Soutchai Sophabmixay, Marissa Neberman, and Susan Brzenski. This night was the perfect ending to a fun-filled week.

SPIRIT WEEK

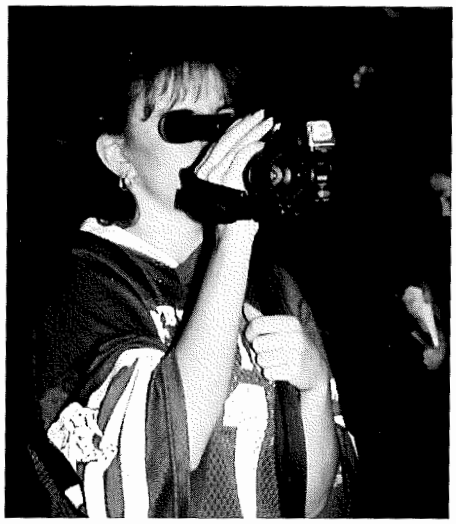

"Holidays," the theme for Spirit Week '97, inspired some exciting yet traditional activities. Among them were Hat & Sunglass Day, Pajama Day, Senior Hippie Day, Halloween Day, and, of course, Red & Blue Day. And once again seniors won the Penny Wars. The annual Homecoming Pep Rally was highlighted by the "Pie in the Face." Recipients were Sean Martini and Melissa Snyder. The Spirit Week Pep Rally came to an end with the crowning of our king, Erick Knight.

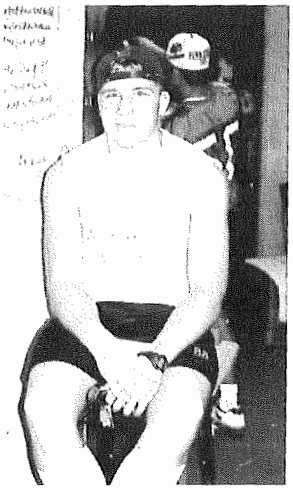

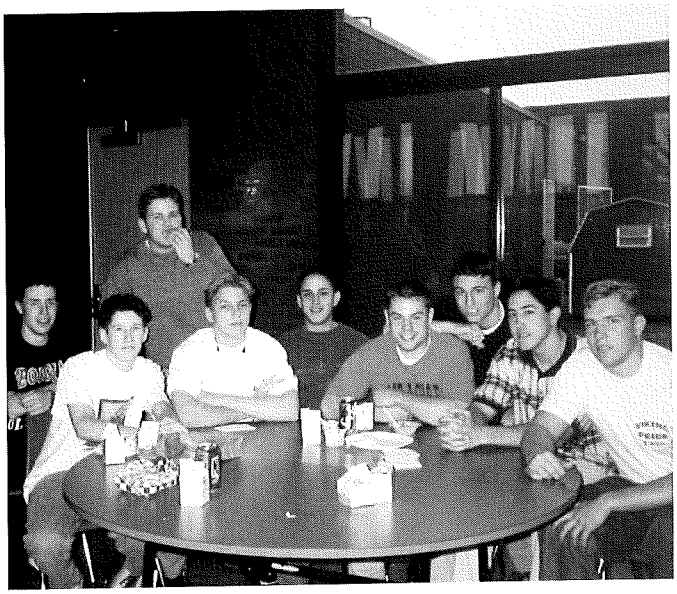

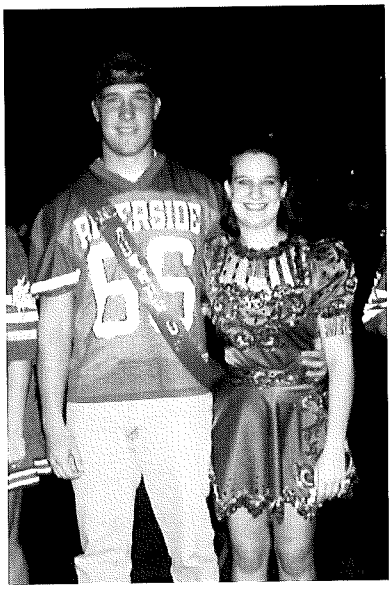

PASSING OF THE SWORD

The annual "Passing of the Sword" semi-formal was held and Pitston Convention Hall on March 8, 1997. As the evening unfolded, everyone became anxious to hear the announcement of the Unit heads for the '97-'98 school year. Jillian Sopp and Nicole Thomas were named Pom-Pon co-captains; Michelle Clewell received Feature Pom-Pon honors; Holly Hewitt and Jennifer Kishel received Varsity co-captain honors; Jessica Knight received Feature Dancer designation. However, the main event of the night was when the '96-'97 Miss Viking, Melissa Snyder, passed the sword to the '97-'98 Miss Viking, Stefanie Armillay.

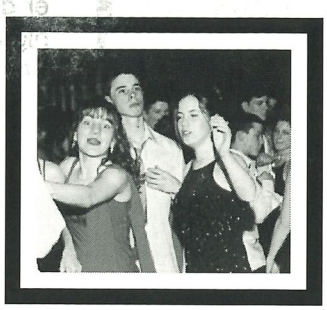

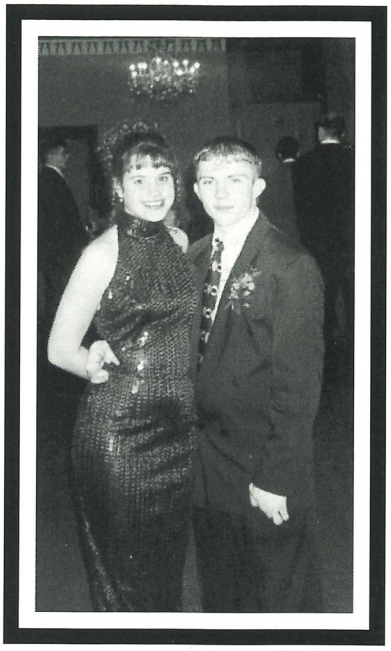

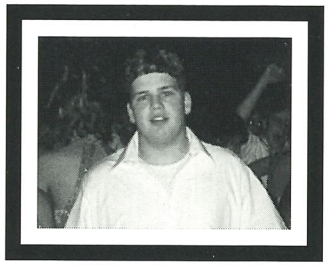

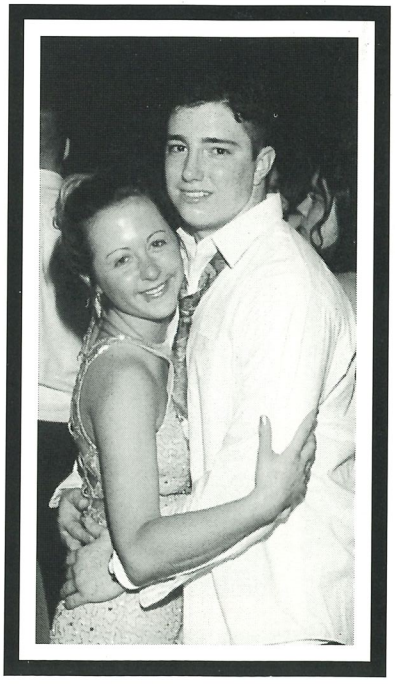

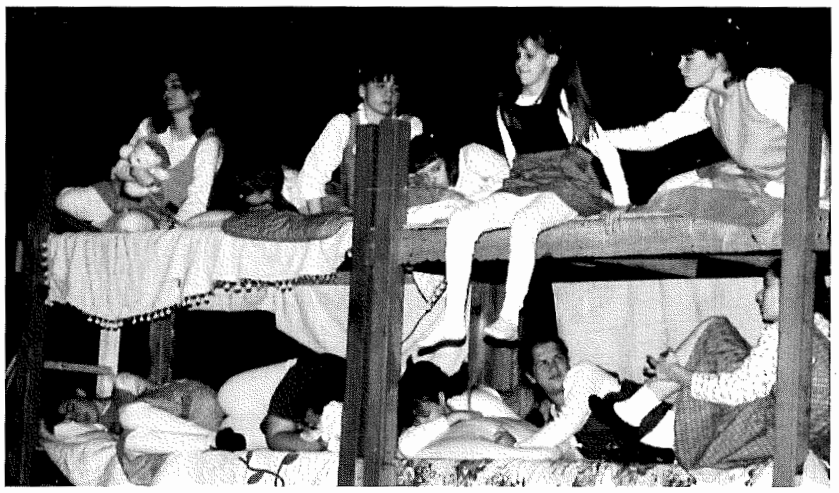

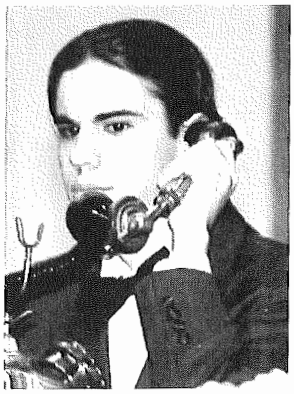

ANNIE

The Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Hapstak, really showed its theatrical talents during this year's version of "Annie." The role of Annie was played by Stephanie Semian with Peter Hocking as Daddy Warbucks. Senior Dino Vervitsiotis showed a wide variety of talent by portraying a multitude of characters. The cast and crew obviously worked very hard to make this production a success.

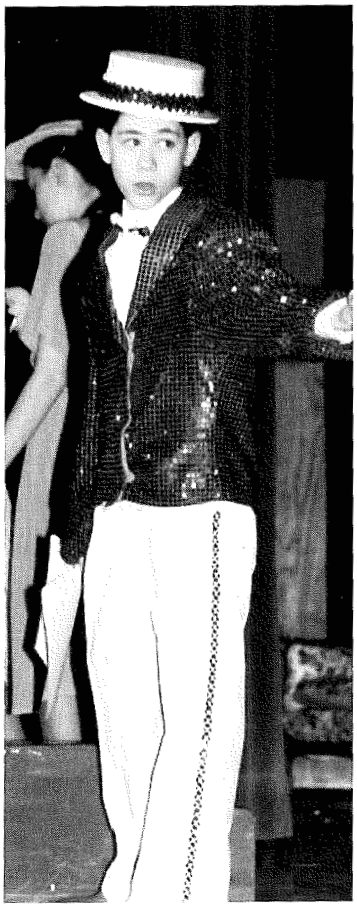

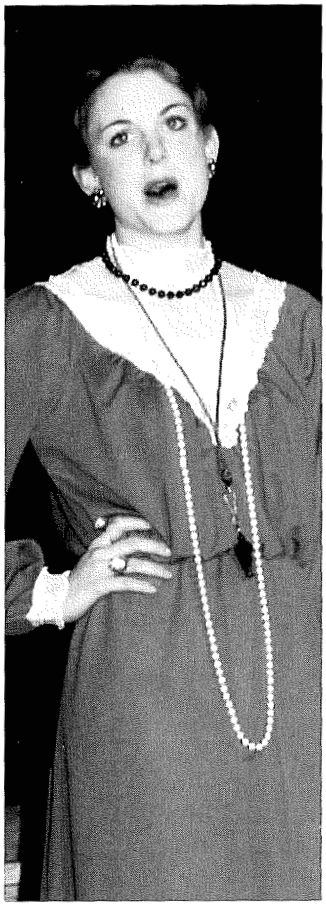

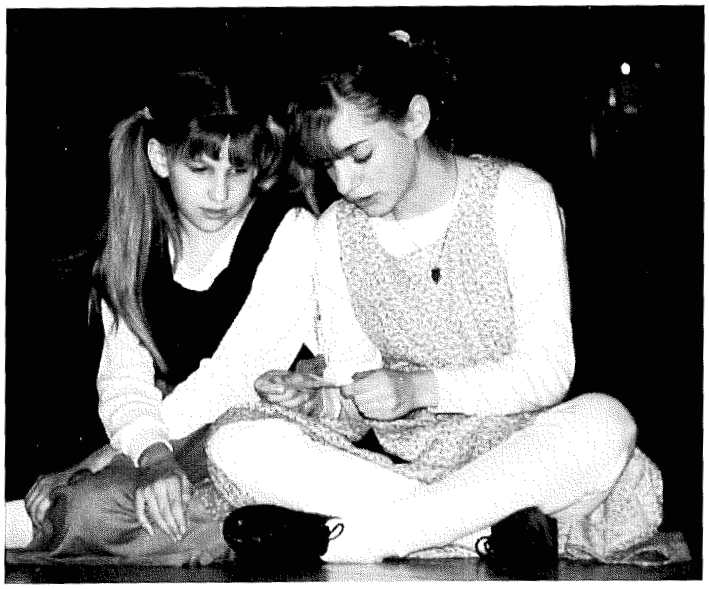

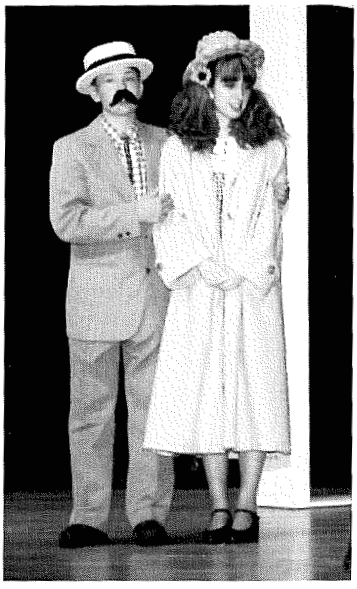

"MEET ME HALFWAY"

"Meet Me Halfway" was the theme for this year's prom, which was held at St. Mary's Center in Scranton on Friday, May 9. "Fancy Dancer" supplied the music for the magical evening. The most shocking event of the night was when Nicole D'Annunzio was crowned Prom Queen and Billy Borent was crowned Prom King. The senior attendants were Amy Williams and Mindy Kelley. Junior attendants were Heidi Wolfsberger, Holly Hewitt, Jessica Knight and Melissa Casey. For the juniors and seniors that attended the prom, May 9 was truly an evening to remember.

The Ski Club continued to hold its position as one of the most popular clubs at Riverside. Throughout the winter, the club offered weekly trips to Montage Mountain. This year the club successfully completed a day trip to Windham, New York and a weekend trip to Lake Placid, New York under the leadership of advisors Mr. Pat Joyce and Mr. Jack Evans.

The Student Council experienced a spectacular year. By sponsoring Spirit Week and Homecoming, the club ignited spirit throughout the school. Other activities included the distribution of Halloween candy, the decoration of the Christmas tree, and the lollipop sales on Valentine's Day. They finished the year with the annual blood drive proving, once again, to be the school's most valuable and successful organization. The advisor to the Student Council is Miss Susan Ludwikowski.

HOLLYWOOD NIGHTS

The theme for this year's Unit show was "Hollywood Nights." It was held on February 8, 1997 in the high school auditorium. The 1996-97 Miss Viking, Melissa Snyder, along with the other squad captains and features choreographed the dances. The seniors appropriately danced to "Every Road Leads Back To You." The show was a great success, with the help of everyone's hard work. As the 1996-97 units gathered for their last performance, it looked as though it really was a "Hollywood Night."

ACADEMICS

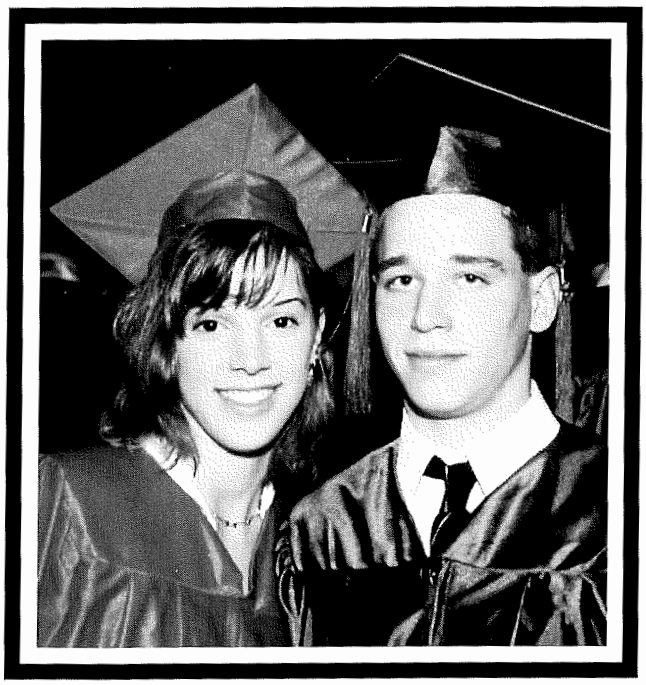

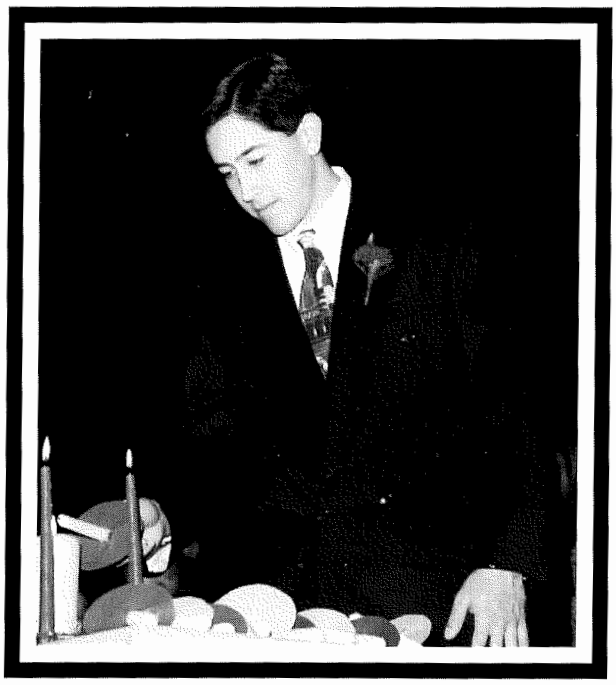

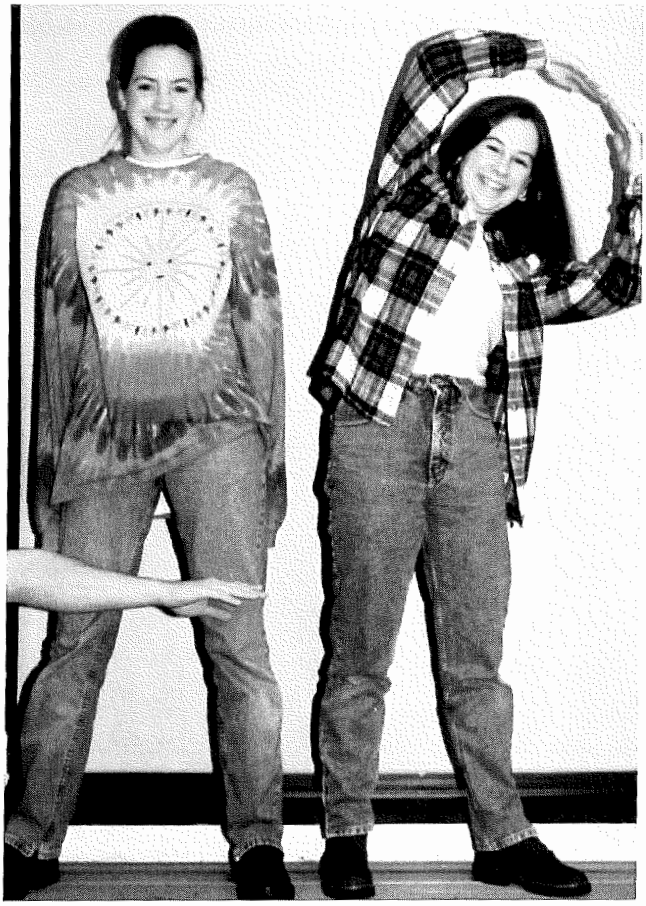

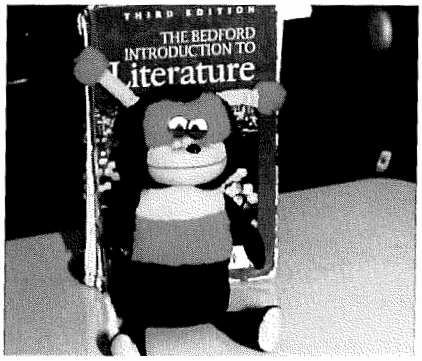

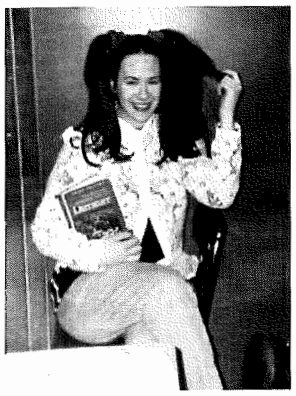

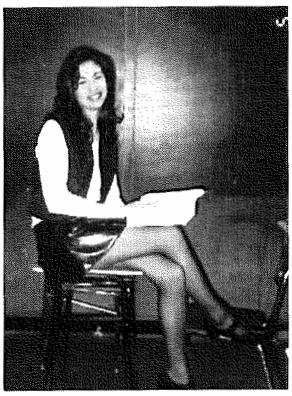

At first glance the Advanced Placement course load may seem like an insurmountable obstacle. However, with the aid of our textbooks, Ms. Mis, and a strong desire to learn, we overcame our inhibitions and learned how to express our thoughts and ideas without hesitation. We became like Eric Pencek, casting out the demons of Scientific thought and delving into the deeper, sometimes hidden meanings of the works we studied. Just like Joey Czerw, who mounted his flower car unhesitatingly and thrusting himself repeatedly into his work, we glided past the obstacles in our path and learned to think for ourselves.

The Riverside Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony on March 26, 1997. The guest speaker for the night was Mr. Mark Donati. He is a former graduate of Riverside and past treasurer of the National Honor Society. During the service Cathy McNulty, Melissa Snyder, Suzanne Donati, LeAnne Loureiro, and Ryan Jones gave speeches for History, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service respectively. By the end of the night, thirty-one new members were inducted along with six new officers. The advisor to the National Honor Society is Mrs. Paula Bartkovsky.

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night, the final semiformal gathering for seniors before graduation, was held at Genetti Manor on May 23, 1997. The class president, Cristina Noto gave a warm welcome to the seniors. Her speech was followed by the class prophecy, which was then presented in a comical fashion by Rudy Marciano, and Marissa Caboot. Class awards were given after the conclusion of the prophecy. Following the awards seniors enjoyed a touching presentation of class memories with the slide show.

CLASS DAY

Seniors gathered for the annual Class Day ceremonies in the auditorium on June 4th. Christina Harchar recited her Salute to Riverside; Jaren Danilovitz and Dino Vervitsiotis read the Class History; and Ryan Jones and Karyn Felter left the Class Will to the underclassmen and incoming seniors.

Mr. William Kasulis presented the Gertrude Francis Memorial Award and the Hank Evanish Award to Ryan Jones. The Louis Serafini and the Chuck Sigman Awards went to Cathy McNulty and Melissa Snyder, with the Kleback-Procik Award going to Suzanne Donati and Joe Iannuzzo.

Continuing the presentation of awards, Mrs. Donna Lisowski awarded Charlie Waters the Reviello Memorial Scholarship, Rudy Marciano the Robert Powell Award, Dino Vervitsiotis the Administrators Award, and the Marian McQueen Award went to both Joe Czerw and Sue Brzenski. Mrs. Lisowski distributed the Tandy Technology Awards to Cathy McNulty and Melissa Snyder.

The PTA awarded the top ten students and the top Vo-Tech student with monetary awards. Miss Anne Dillon and Mrs. Helen Czerw also presented the Science Award to Joe Iannuzzo, the Language Arts Award to Marissa Caboot, the Foreign Language Award to Christina Harchar, the Math Award to Suzanne Donati, the Social Studies Award to Dino Vervitsiotis, and the Computer Science Award to Sue Brzenski.

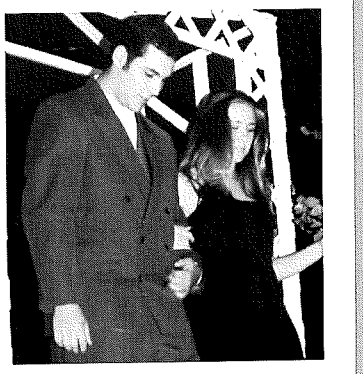

Mrs. Tina Haas and Karen Haas presented the Kim Haas Sunshine Memorial Award to Marissa Caboot. Joe Iannuzzo and Dawn Sklanka were awarded the Moosic Lions Club Scholarship with the Taylor American Legion Award going to Ryan Jones and Christina Harchar. The Scholar Athlete Awards went to Ryan Jones and Leslie Ozark with the Distinguished Athlete Award going to Steve Metro and Karyn Felter. The Semper Fidelis Award was presented to Dino Vervitsiotis. Mr. John Kosek distributed calligraphy sets to the graduating members of the Art Club. Mrs. Carol Hapstak presented Drama Awards to Dino Vervitsiotis and Suzanne Donati. The Carroll-Davis Award went to Leslie Ozark and Dino Vervitsiotis. The REA Awards were presented to Ryan Jones, Suzanne Donati, and Christina Harchar. Dino Vervitsiotis received the SAT Award for the highest math score and Eric Pencek received the award for highest English score. Class Day displayed a number of students' abilities and achievements.

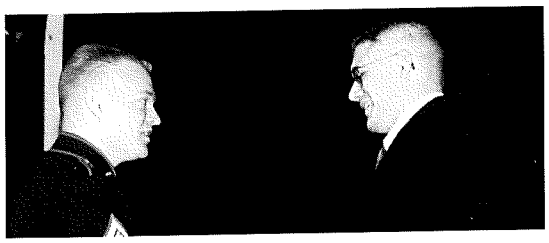

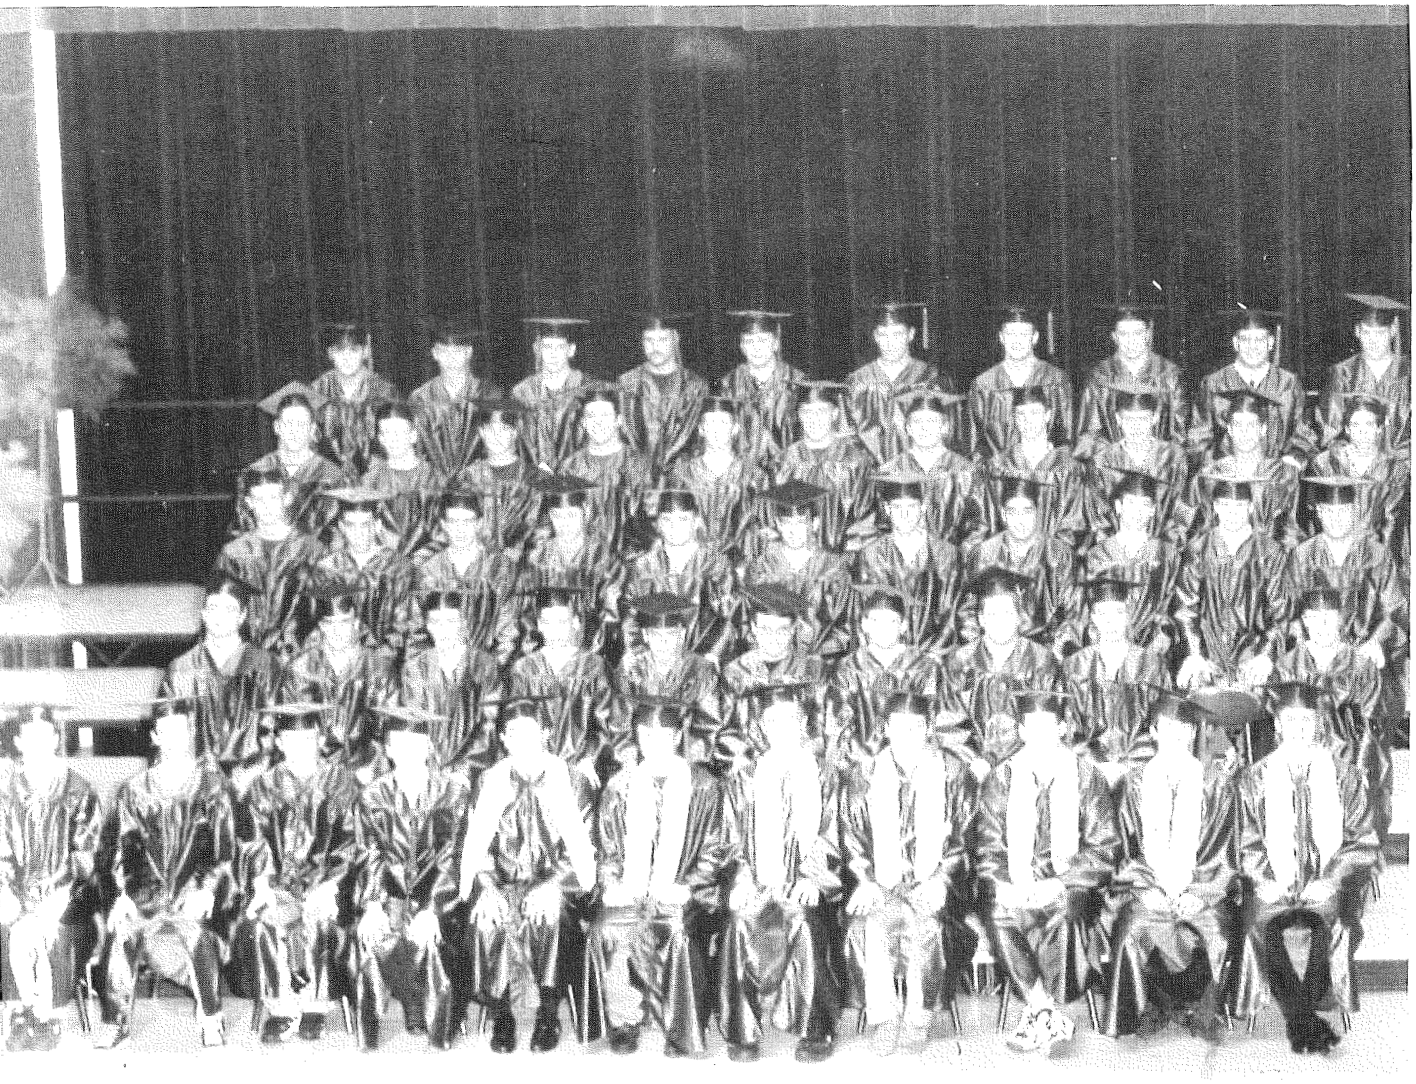

CLASS HISTORY

Scene: The year is 2009. Jaren Danilovitz, a church choir director is leaving practice for the day. Dino Vervitsiotis, with can of spray paint in hand, is preparing to tattoo Jaren's hatchback with the latest Nine Inch Nails lyrics.

J: Young man, what do you think you are doing?
D: Oh be quiet you chunky pumpkin head. You can just go straight to . . .
J: Hey! Watch your mouth.
D: Oh up you . . . Jaren? Is that you? You look so, umm . . . umm, different.
J: Yes, I'm Jaren, but who are you?
D: I'm Dionisios Spiro Vervitsiotis.
J: Who?
D: Dino, from Riverside's class of 1997.
J: Wow, have you changed! I recall I was once like yourself but I finally saw the light.
D: The light of, umm, God?
J: No, the light reflecting from Mr. Voytko's head.
D: Yeah, we had some pretty unique teachers, didn't we?
D: Remember Mr. Butcher and his "Bonehead" Sheets?
J: Yeah, it was almost as funny as Mr. Roberts and his recycled jokes.
D: What about Miss Ludwikowski and her Penn State stories?
J: And posters.
D: And pictures.
J: We can't forget Malachi, either.
D: Or Carl Sagan, who sadly, died during our senior year.
J: We really worked hard in her class though.
D: Not as hard as in Mr. Evans' Algebra, Geometry, and Calculus classes.
J: Yeah, we worked us like snaves on a 1800s plantation.
D: Remember when Mr. Hordich and Mrs. Kozlowski got engaged?
J: Yeah, the rock he bought her was so big she needed to have a student help her carry it, which could have been Mr. Hordich's adopted son, Marcel.
D: What about Miss Sklaney and her two favorite students "Steve" Melesky and "Joee" Czerw?
J: Hey, Joey had some unique nicknames, didn't he?
D: Yeah, I wonder where he got some of them.
J: I don't know but we had some unique ones.
D: Like "Rabbit" for Ryan Jones.
J: "Lizard" for Marc Arvonio.
D: And "Yam," "Meathead" and "Ted" for Sean Martini.
D: Speaking of Sean, he really did well Mrs. Johnson's Home Economics class didn't he?
J: Yup, he really knew what to do with a can of pea soup.
D: He also made a great cheerleader during spi week.
J: Yeah, that was pretty funny, but not as funny as Eric Williams showing everyone the prope procedure for tossing a "Grenade!"
D: As I recall, Eric was also quite the dancer. H danced up a storm at our senior prom, clever named "Meet Me Halfway."
J: Speaking of the prom, did you see Eric Pencek's date?
D: Yeah, but I wonder how they got there. Neith of them could drive. Did he walk all that way i a tuxedo?
J: Nope, I think they hitchhiked.
D: How about Fancy Dancer trying to sing Cooli again.
J: You think they would have learned the first time.
D: Billy Borent was crowned our Prom King.
J: And Nicole D'Annunzio our Prom Queen.
D: Wasn't she also Homecoming Queen?
J: Yes, and speaking of Homecoming, wasn't Erick Knight named Homecoming King?
D: Yeah. He was also, coincidentally, one of the captains of our football team.
J: I didn't pay much attention at the time. How d they do that season?
D: They became the PIAA District II Class A Champions.
J: How did our basketball teams do that year?
D: Although they didn't have winning seasons, they sure had a champion among them: Cha Waters, who scored his 1000th point.
J: The Girls Track Team, under the direction of Señor Bednash, did well our senior year.
D: For the third straight year they won the Jord Relay title and they even sent their 3200 rela team to the state meet.
J: I remember that you were on the golf and tennis teams during our Senior year, how did they do?
D: The golf team tied for 4th place in the league and sent Captain Tim Celuck to districts for t fourth straight year. Tim also got his first career Hole-In-One during a practice round early in the season.
D: Both the girls and boys tennis team had, um rebuilding seasons that year.
J: Remember when Melissa Snyder became Mi Viking?
D: Yeah. A lot of the girls in our class were members of the marching units.
J: Amy Williams became Feature Dancer.

D: Lucy Fetch became Feature Pom-pon, while Leanne Louriero was Feature Twirler.
J: What about Bob?
D: Christina Harchar was a cheerleader too, wasn't she?
J: Yeah, but she was better known for other things.
D: Like what?
J: Her really young boyfriends.
D: Anything else?
J: Yeah, she called Ms. Mischianti rude and obnoxious.
D: Well, as long as we're on the subject of Christina's really young boyfriends, we can't forget Sue Donati's older men.
J: And remember our class couples?
D: Although Christina Noto and Joe Iannunzo were our "official" class couple, there were many others.
J: Yeah, like Karyn Felter and Charlie Waters.
D: Amy Williams and Jamie Siminski.
J: Melissa Snyder and Mike DelVecchio.
D: Tia McAndrew and Jim Babkowski.
J: And Heidi and Chuck!
D: Our class had some pretty wild times on field trips too.
J: I remember you being a control freak and writing most of the first draft of the Class History without me on the trip to Baltimore.
D: Ok, ok, I apologize, but Remember when Ryan Jones broke his arm on the Ski Club trip to Vermont?
J: Yeah, he was probably trying to impress some younger girls.
D: Speaking of girls, do you remember when the girls in our class locked themselves in the bathroom of the 2 story McDonald's on the New York trip?
J: How about when Eric Pencek and Becky Reviello disappeared on the AP English trip?
D: I wonder what they were doing.
J: One thing our class was always doing was showing off our talent.
D: Bleached impressed us all at the talent show with their rendition of "Burger King Queen." And John Bakaysa let the world know that "He Can't Dance" (SUNG!)
J: Leanne Louriero, Marissa Neiberman and Leslie Ozark showed us all their driving talents. Too bad the garbage truck drivers, Mr. Nageli and their parents were not impressed.
D: A lot of things changed during our senior year. The new scheduling system really confused me.
J: Yeah, how could we go from 8 periods to 10 periods and still get out at the same time? That was confusing.
D: Yeah, well your ever changing hair and eyebrow colors confused ME.
J: And I was confused when the paper said we were number one in violence.
D: I never did understand that one.
J: But we all understood that as seniors we could finally go outside during lunch.
D: A lot of people took advantage of that privilege. I never could figure out why though . . .
J: Speaking of that, Pennsylvania put a new tobacco law into effect that year.
D: Yeah, that was really effective.
J: Well at least our blood drives were effective.
D: I'll never forget how scared some were to give blood.
J: I know Cathy McNulty will never forget them.
D: Why?
J: She passed out.
D: Oh, she got weak from donating blood?
J: No, just watching.
D: A lot of people watched and listened during our sophomore year when we hosted PMEA District 9 band.
J: Yes and every Thursday morning we could hear their version of The Star Spangled Banner echoing through the halls.
D: And we can't forget Whitney Houston on Fridays.
J: Or how heartbroken Allison Hart was when JFK Jr. got married.
D: And I don't think we'll ever forget Louis Jimmie, or was it Jimmie Louis.
J: I'll never forget Corrine Kanetski and Amy Puchalski.
D: Who were they? I don't remember ever seeing them in school!
J: One thing I didn't enjoy seeing in school was Rudy Marciano in his spandex shorts and half shirts during gym class.
D: But the sixth grade girls really enjoyed seeing and taking pictures of Jamie Trescavage at field day.
J: We really did have some great times and great classmates from the class of 1997.
D: And you know, Jaren, that when we left so did our Vice-Principal, Mr. William Kasulis.
J: Yes, neither he nor us would ever have to worry about invalid excuses again!
D: Well, I don't want to be late. I'm auditioning for the group Nine Inch Nails.
J: Oh, do they need a new drummer?
D: No, I'm trying to convince them that they need to hire a trumpet player!

The Thirty-seventh Commencement Ceremony of Riverside High School was held on Friday, June 6 in the school's auditorium. During this momentous occasion, the graduates performed "The Star Spangled Banner", "In My Life", "For Just a Moment", and "RHS Alma Mater". Four honored students delivered speeches on various topics. Cathy McNulty's speech was titled "At the Threshold." Melissa Snyder gave a speech titled "A Touchstone of Life." Joe Iannuzzo spoke of "Castles in the Air", while Sue Donati told the audience about the "Refuge of the

Unimaginative.''

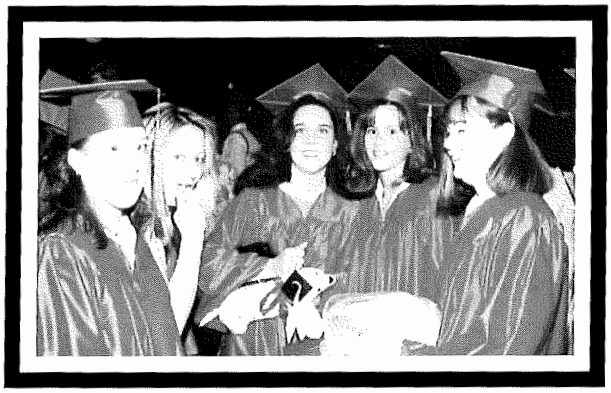

Following the speeches, district superintendent Dr. John Rooney and high school principal Mr. J. Dennis Kryzanowski offered remarks about the class. Following their speeches, vice-principal William Kasulis and Mr. Neil DeAngelo presented the students with their diplomas. The class president, Cristina Noto, delivered final remarks to her classmates as a final reminder of their times at Riverside.

CLASS PROPHECY

(Scene opens where Rudy is lying on the ground. Marissa walks by him.)

Rudy: "Hey, you got any change you can give me?"

Marissa: "Yeah, right. O.K. Whatever." As she proceeds to walk away, she mumbles "He looks familiar, like an unwashed version of . . . Rudy Marciano?"

Rudy: "Hey, that's . . . (Marissa turns around) . . . Marissa?"

Marissa: "Rudy?"

Rudy: "What have you been doing?"

Marissa: "Reporting for the Times. You look . . . different. Well, anyway, what have you been up to?"

Rudy: "Not very much. After high school I dropped out of college because I went into denial after I was informed that I was the son of the high school librarian."

Marissa: "You were adopted? Not by Mr . . .!

Rudy: "Yep, he's my Dad and now I'm embarrassed to show my face in public."

Marissa: "Well, that's too bad but it could be worse. After all, Dino Vervitsiotis — you remember him, don't you? — he started on a promising career as a forensic pathologist, but give it up suddenly to pursue his one true dream and formed a mutual partnership with Craig Keller."

Rudy: "Speaking about following dreams, did you hear about Nicole D'Annunzio?"

Marissa: "No."

Rudy: "Well, she's now a costume designer and make-up artist."

Marissa: "For whom?"

Rudy: "The Drag Queen RuPaul."

Marissa: "Wow. Did you know that just about all of our "class couples" got married?"

Rudy: "Really? I always figured that Joe Iannunzo and Chris Noto would end up together and Eric Melesky finally gave into his craving for Ravioli."

Marissa: "Yep. So did Mike DelVecchio and Melissa Snyder. Their kids can be seen playing with swords on Main Street in sequin outfits. They live next to Charlie Waters and Karyn Felter. All their kids make up the Elementary West.

Rudy: "Speaking of Taylor, I couldn't believe that Buddy Prushinski ran for mayor just so he could shake everyone's hand."

Marissa: "I heard about that. It was too bad, though, that he was defeated by Jake Sabatella. But, Jake and his council of Chris Vincent, Scott Vosburg, Jerry Conolly and Mark Colby really promised change."

Rudy: "Yeah, not everyone was pleased with their plans. For example, Mike O'Malley and Wyatt Shafer, who own the neighborhood pharmacy, were pretty upset with the business tax increase."

Marissa: "Hey, you know who else went into Politics? Allison Hart. I was surprised to see that she became the first woman president."

Rudy: "I always knew she'd make it in that field."

Marissa: "Yeah, she'll be great. She already passed a bill that lowers the legal drinking age to 12!"

Rudy: "That was passed to late for our class. Dan Laffey would have put that freedom to good use. Did you know that he moved to Ireland?"

Marissa: "No. What does he do?"

Rudy: "Well last I heard he owns a bar called "Laffey's Happy Beer."

Marissa: "A lot of people have moved away to start their lives in different places. Mike Puchalski moved to L.A. to pursue a career in gangster rap."

Rudy: "Yeah, and Amy Puchalski and Corrine Kanetski live in Euphoria."

Marissa: "Louis Jimmie moved back in with his original family."

Rudy: "Are you serious? He lives in the wilderness with the wolves?"

Marissa: "Yep. And Jason Hughes moved to Columbia to manage a banana plantation. Matt Pivovarnik went to the wilderness, too. He's currently on a jungle safari where he is studying chimps."

Rudy: "I never realized how many people in our class liked to work with animals."

Marissa: "That's why I wasn't surprised when I heard that Kristy Holmes and Jocelyn Boyko joined the Barnum and Bailey's circus when it came into town."

Rudy: "Yeah, I saw the headlines and it said that Kristy is the lion tamer and Jocelyn performs with a duck."

Marissa: "Angel Salerno works with the stallions. She became a professional jockey.

Rudy: "Plus, Tom Correll and Ron Aniska fill in as the world's skinniest men."

Marissa: "Wow, our clas had a lot of clowns."

Rudy: "Speaking of clowns, Renee Condeelis is currently filling in for Ronald McDonald in New Jersey."

Marissa: "Who would have expected that."

Rudy: "A lot of people went into business together. Did you kno that Mindy Kelley and Tia McAndrew are carpenters?"

Marissa: "No, when did that happen?"

Rudy: "When they starte laying the flat board in houses."

Marissa: "Did you hear about Katie Higgins and Lucy Fetch? They opened a brewery together."

Rudy: "I thought Lucy was still at the donut shop with James Wincovitch?"

Marissa: "No, but LeAnn Louereiro still works there. Marc Arvonio and Jason McDermott opened an amphibian shop and Ron Kolvech manages a Salvation Army."

Rudy: "Kim Heckman works for a designer shoe company."

Marissa: "How about Jacqueline Minutes, she sells Timex watches and Michael Burne is a tuna fisherman."

Rudy: "Well, Sue Brzenski is a seamstress for Levi's jeans co."

Marissa: "Wendy becam an orthodontist, and Erica Feiser is her receptionist."

Rudy: "And John Bakaysa became an eye doctor. Who would have figured?"

Marissa: "Oh ya? Well who would have figured Rico Battista would be selling spray paint, especially blue and gold."

Rudy: "Really? Well, Steve Metro and Marcel Kottke got an apartment together. And J.R. Donahue is still collecting every NBA jersey."

Marissa: "Still?"

Rudy: "Kevin Mitchell is still returning kicks at pick-up football games despite a broken nose."

Marissa: "Lots of our classmates became actors and actresses. Matthew Parker starred in the movie Powder II. Kris Nesko took over as the villian Heather Locklear on Melrose Place where she can put her attitude to use. Becky Reviello got a job in Disney World as Mickey Mouse."

Rudy: "And, Tina Gorleski host's 'NBA Showtime!!' "

Marissa: "Yeah, well Eric Williams hosts the Grind on MTV and his new workout video is due out any day. Remember Bleach, with Adam Snyder and Chris Kubilus? They are on tour and Scott Hansen is their manager."

Rudy: "I guess they made it big, too. So did Leslie Ozark. She's a part of the Women's Basketball Association. She also designed and coordinated her team's uniform with all the latest trends."

Marissa: "Jerry Rizzo and Tom Walsh are both famous environmentalists."

Rudy: "Tim Celck is a professional golfer and recently played against Tiger Woods and won."

Marissa: "Jerry Connors was put in the Guiness World Book for riding his mountain bike around the world. And Eric Pencek also was noted for having recruited the largest cult in history, called "The Temple of Pencek." Meredith Killino raised the world's largest cow, which produced 70 gallons of H_20 . . . I mean milk a day.

Rudy: "I really feel like a loser now. Did you hear that Sean Martini is rich?"

Marissa: "No, what does he do?"

Rudy: "He is a Speech Pathologist. He also helped Amy Williams to reach her goal of veterinarian by sending Puffalo, his three legged cat, to receive the first artificial leg attached to an animal."

Marissa: "That's a shocker. It's less of a surprise that Nick Kwiatkowski has his own comic strip in the local paper."

Rudy: "I found that out when world famous paperboy Todd Telipski delivered it to my cardboard box. I also noticed that in the advertisement section, Christina Harchar was representing the Dixie Cup company, and Heidi Davies was publicizing her body piercing parlor."

Marissa: "How about Tara Larsen, she works for the Bic razor company. Marissa Neberman opened a tattoo shop and her goal is to make enough money to get herself a full body tattoo. And, Dawn Sklanka writes the love advice column for the newspaper."

Rudy: "Really?"

Marissa: "The other day I bought a Jeep Cherokee from Cathy McNulty. She's the companies representative."

Rudy: "Anatomy classes seem to have prepared a lot of people for their careers. Joe Czerw became a proctologist. He works with Rich Edwards who recently invented a cure for pesky warts. What about your friends, Sue Sophabmixay and Jaren Danilovitz?"

Marissa: "Sue became a professional Bouncer and Jaren takes her along to all of the concerts that her husband, Trent Reznor of NIN, performs in."

Rudy: "We also had a lot of farmers emerge from our class. Jamie Trescavage still farms in Belin Village, and Chris Thomas helps out."

Marissa: "Did you know that Ryan Jones has his own carrot farm? Well, anyway, how about your friend, Mark Brennan?"

Rudy: "He's an 8th grade phys. ed. teacher. He teaches at the same school as Lisa Trubia."

Marissa: "What does she do?"

Rudy: "She is a Health and Sex ed. teacher. I heard that Erick Knight is still trying to pass her class."

Marissa: "Well, speaking of teachers, Jill Foley is teaching Driver's ed. And Bruce Kumor, Sharon Hiller, April Balendy, Nicole Urso, Kelly Sabbatini, and Mandy Evans run the Vo-tech school."

Rudy: "Ya, and Jennifer Johnson and Jessica Suanders coach rival debate teams."

Marissa: "Well, Sue Donati married a Snoopy look a like, and Trish Heil married her flame, the hosehead."

Rudy: "And Cherie Jones runs a prom dating service with Joe Kowalski."

Marissa: "Scott Gaylets and Mr. Joyce became powerlifters and opened a gym."

Rudy: "Oh ya, well Jason Olecha is the spokesman for Where's Waldo books. That's a perfect fit."

Marissa: "Steph Patton borrowed so much money for school lunches that she had to take up three jobs to repay everyone."

Rudy: "Well, Jim Babkowski was showing some promise on the boxing circuit, until the tin man broke his jaw."

Marissa: "Jamie Siminski made a million for doing phone scams that impersonate the Jerky Boys and retired in Florida at age 21."

Rudy: "Speaking of Florida, Billy Borent and Dawn went there for their honeymoon and still haven't come back."

Marissa: "Well, we had plenty of characters in our graduating class of '97. Even though it was a bumpy ride, I think we all had fun, don't you?"

Rudy: "Ya, now when we look back and remember some of these people and the times we've shared, I kind of get teary eyed."

Marissa: "Why, because you miss them?"

Rudy: "No, because I wonder what they'll do to me when they find out I've been the one sleeping in their sheds and picking through their garbage."

When You're Naked...
You Stand Out in a Crowd.

Naked Furniture just isn't like all the rest, and it shows. We sell real wood furniture, and we make it affordable.

If you need just a bed, we'll be glad to sell you just a bed, with no pressure to buy an entire room, unless an entire room is what you want.

Best of all, pick a color; any color, wood stain or combination, and that's the color your new furniture will be. It's that simple.

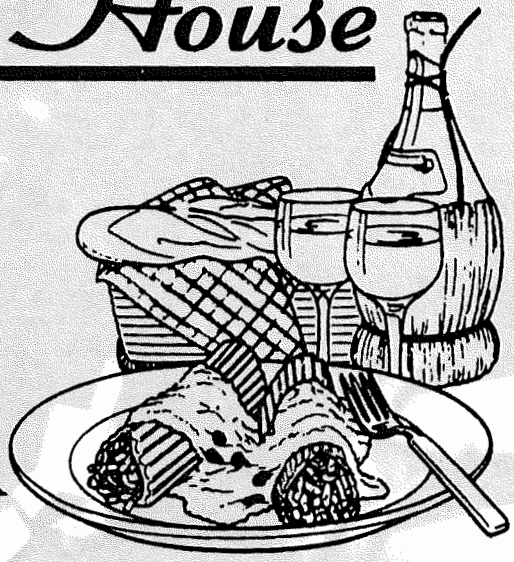

So the next time you find yourself in the crowd, take a look around, we think you'll notice the difference.
