“WE LOVE THE CLASS OF '96”

ODE TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1996

Seniors, the year we all waited for is finally here, and soon we'll be going our separate ways. Our goals, dreams, and futures are waiting ahead as we count down the last 180 days.

Although it seems like yesterday we walked through those doors as seventh graders, today as seniors we look back on our years and realize they've gone by so fast. As of now, our only goal seems to be making our good times last.

Underclassmen, we hope you take our advice and enjoy your high school years, for you see they go by so quickly. Before you know it, you'll be in our shoes saying goodbye to all your friends. To us there's not a moment to waste, since our time here is coming to an end.

Soon, my friends, our years at Riverside will become memories and our stories will be left to be told. I only hope we'll all remain friends and realize our friendships can't be sold.

1996 CLASS HISTORY

Scene: The year is 2016. The place is Candlestick Park for the World Softball Championship. Dawn DelGuercio, the most famous umpire in the history of Softball, will be umpiring the game in which Samantha "Say it ain't so" Zigmont will be coaching the Marachino Lady Vikes.

D. Well coach let's get over here so we can go over the ground rules.

S. What do you mean ground rules? That should have been taken care of. You're the ump but I think you blew that call, you can't see, when did you become an ump, where did they get you from?

D. Wait a minute the game didn't even start and you're acting like a . . . well you're acting like a coach I knew in high school think his name was DPA.

S. Hey, don't cut DPA down, he was my coach. I learned all my coaching strategies from him.

D. Say it ain't so, you're Samantha Zigmont from Riverside High's Class of '96, I thought you looked familiar.

S. And you're Dawn DelGuercio, I can't believe you're an umpire, but you'll be in trouble umping a game I'm coaching.

D. Well, I'm used to it, it seems like our class was always in trouble, especially when we were in Washington, D.C.

S. Like our Senior year Government trip when Tex, our bus driver, got pulled over for speeding or was it tailgating.

D. Or how about the time when you and Eileen Preslock decided to cut the White House lawn and had to be interrogated by the secret service.

S. Speaking of bus trips what about the time when the bus from Lake Placid broke an axle and everyone had to lean to one side of the bus. After that everyone called it the leaning tower of Joe Joe's.

D. Driving wasn't one of our strong points. Do you remember when Taras Thomas and Scott Ericson decided to race at the Riverside 500 in the Elementary School parking lot?

S. Yeah, didn't Scott get the checkered flag by taking out the pole? But I remember Brian Butts took out more than just a pole.

D. Yeah, didn't Brian hit Jared Goul's BMW? When he forgot to put his truck into park.

S. Or was it Jared who hit Howard Timm's jeep?

D. Or did Brian just roll down a hill into a house?

S. Buttsy seems to hit everything including a car on the way to our Senior Prom.

D. Senior Prom was exciting. I'll remember it "Forever".

S. Especially the all white band trying to sing Coolio. 1, 2, 3, 4 . . .

D. Yeah, I thought it was Vanilla Ice with back up.

S. Michele Naughton was crowned Prom Queen.

D. Wasn't Michelle also crowned Homecoming Queen?

S. Boy oh boy, she was just Queen of the school that year.

D. And even the teachers boogied down like they did at their proms way back when!

S. Finally Bob Flickenger and Chrissy Argot decided to show up at the prom.

D. Ya, about a half hour before it was over.

S. Bob wasn't only late for the prom he was always late for practices, homeroom, classes, games . . .

D. Wait, Bob who?

S. Oh, I mean Flick — just like Paul VanLuvender was known as Unger and Howard Timms was Loco.

D. Oh yeah and Michele Dreistadt was Mish the Fish and Kenny Judge was known as D. and S. The Judge

S. And I remember Mr. Evans was like a Judge in our senior calculus class.

D. Didn't he work you guys bell to bell?

S. Ya, for 180 days. Hmm, were they windows or were they bars. Was it calculus or was it prison?

D. And Mr. Roberts rehearsing his same old dry jokes year after year.

S. Didn't he make a spectacle of himself?

D. Ya, his jokes were about as old as the school was.

S. Speaking of spectacles, how about the play Bye Bye Birdie in our senior year?

D. Jared Goul in a little yellow dress with a blonde wig was something to see.

S. Then again so was Danny Lorenzini in his metallic pajamas.

D. But did we really need to hear Danny sing?

S. and D. Ahh, no.

S. I thought it was karaoke night at Riverside.

D. No karaoke night was the talent show.

S. Good thing Jenn Uher and Chrissy Kilonski weren't auditioning for Broadway that night.

D. Ya, I remember their performance started off as a duet and ended up as a solo by Jenn when they both forgot their part.

S. Brian Butts and Jim McGrath didn't seem too nervous about their first and last performance together.

D. They thought going topless during their song would have the girls lining up for them.

S. Well, it worked but the girls they dated were so young they had to be in by 8.

D. Brian and Jim should have taken a few lessons from Powerlifter Danny Gronski.

S. Yes, Danny worked his way up to become State Champion in Bench Press.

D. The name Champion is something familiar to our graduating class.

S. The girl's track team was the Jordan Relay Champions.

D. Nikole Argonish was District Champion in the 100 meter dash.

S. And the boy's golf team became Champions in our eyes when they beat both Scranton Prep and our very own faculty.

D. But I can never forget the day when golf member Peter Symuleski became star hurdler.

S. Yeah, I remember Pete had to hurdle over the fence to Dan Walsh's house after drinking something that didn't sit well him.

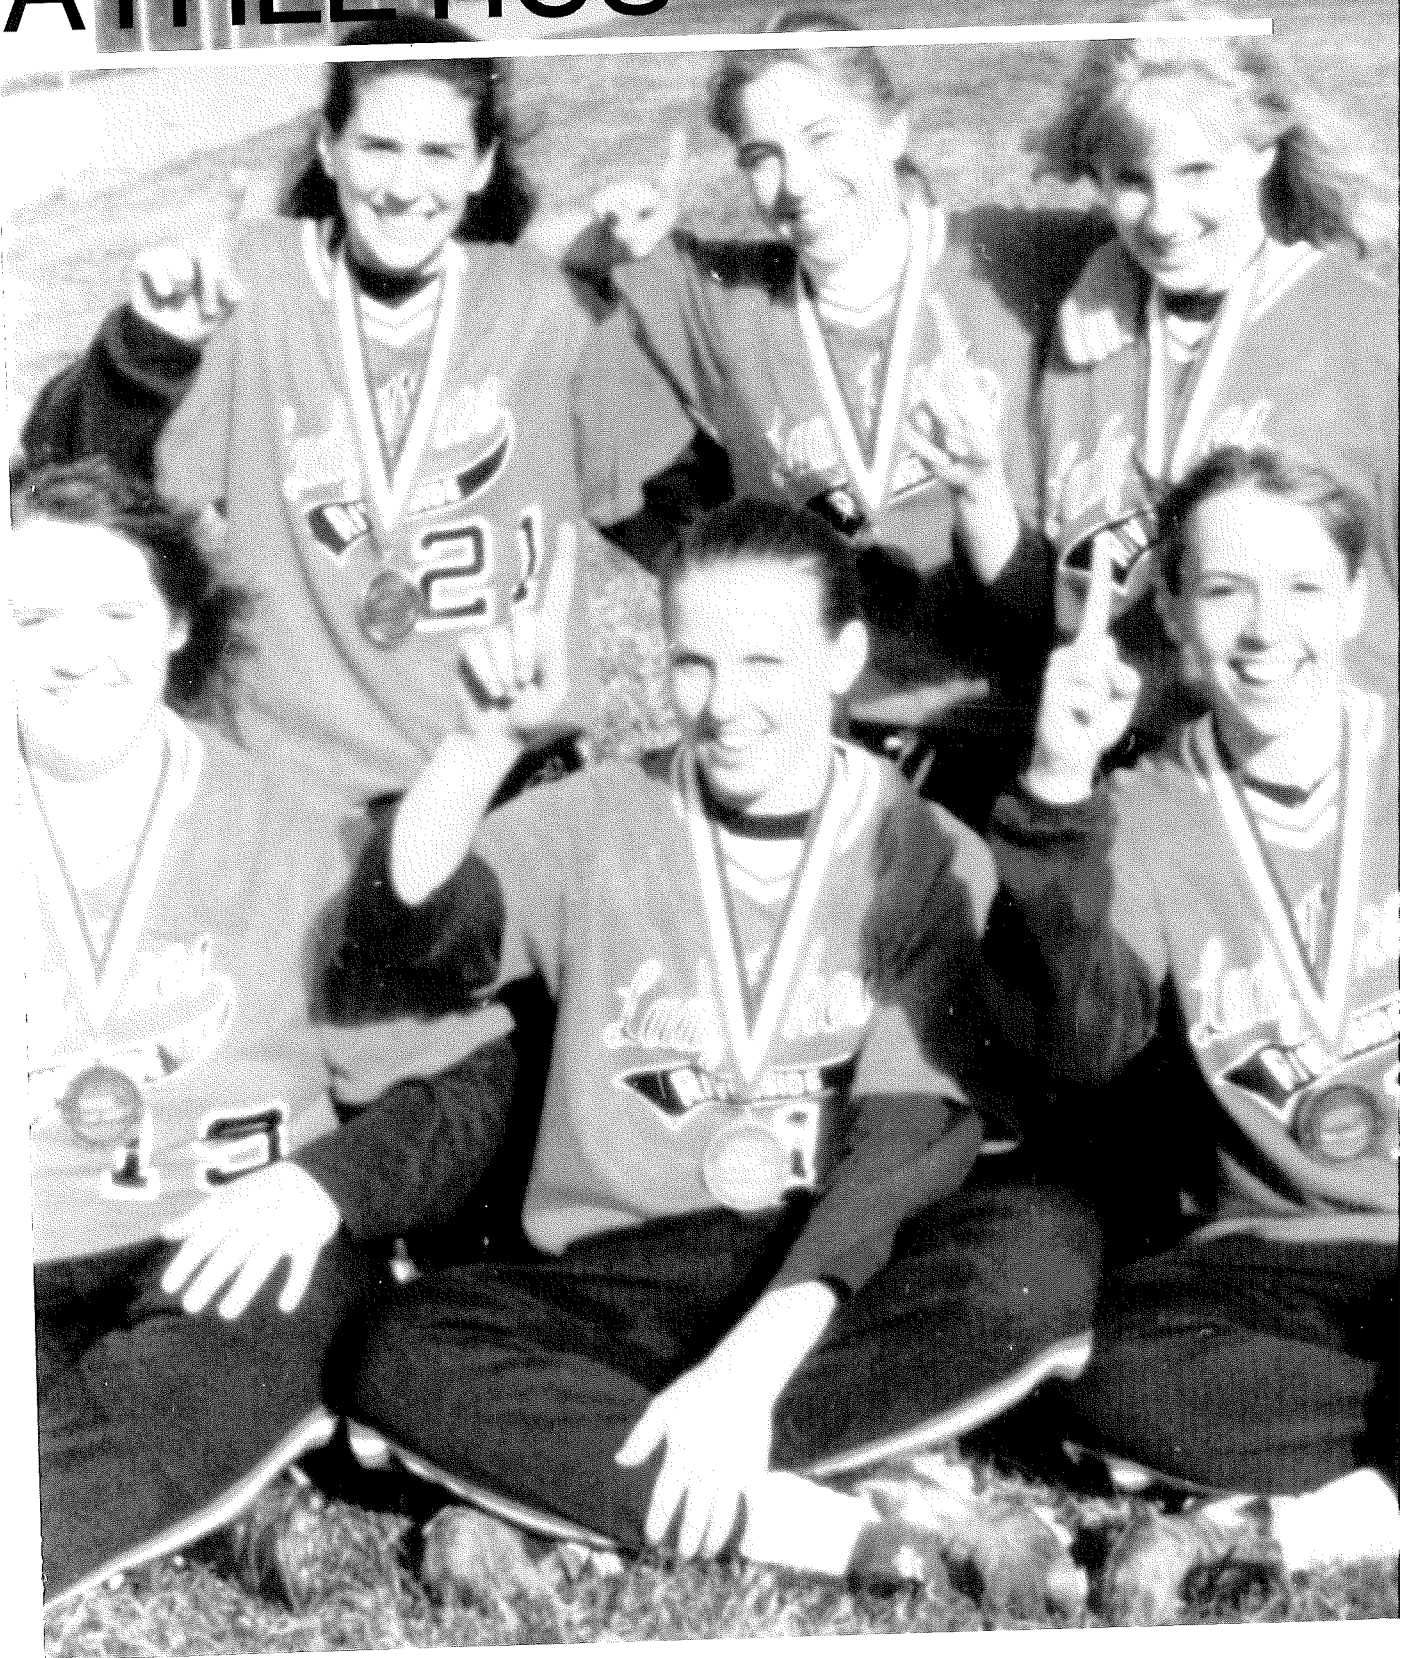

D. And when he got there, he didn't sit very well.

Let's just say Dan's mother had a mess to clean up.
And Keith Davis really cleaned up in most of his track meets.
His speed must have come from trying to get away from Pam Heckman who followed him everywhere.
Yes, every track practice, every track meet, every track meeting. In fact she even got her own boy's track hat with her me on it.
Boy's baseball finally, after 18 years, reached District playoffs with a record of 12-4.
But girl's softball took it even further by winning the District 2 Class "AA" Softball Championships and participating in the ite playoffs.
After 20 years of countless ejections, and his on the diamond antics, Coach Adomiak's girls finally brought it home for him.
Sam what was his reaction after winning the playoff game?
BABY DOLL! It took a little more for us to become Champions.
According to the Cheerleaders shirts it takes a little more to make a Cheerleader.
Yeah, a little more hairspray.
A little more make-up.
A little more hair dye.
Ben Thomas brought home a 4 year football scholarship to the University of Maryland for himself.
He also came home from Terp Country with a whole new wardrobe consisting of Maryland T-shirts.
Maryland shorts.
Maryland hats.
I think he even had a pair of Terp underwear.
Joyce Plisko knew the teachers lav duty schedule as well as Ben knew Terp Country.
She knew Mrs. B would be there 1st period.
Second period Miss Lud.
And on and on.
She really had to use the bathroom a lot during her high school career.
Joyce was really concerned about her hair. (gestures as if smoking)
No, no that was Shannon Armillay that was concerned about her hair.
Shannon would never go anywhere unless she had her mirror, pick, and hairspray.
The only time I saw her hair a mess was during Spirit Week when she and Brian Butts received the pie in the face.
And even after that I saw her running for a mirror.
By the end of 1996's winter everybody was running to the South.
Yeah, didn't weatherman Tom Clark predict we would get about 2 inches, but when I woke up the next morning we had out 22 inches on the ground.
That's when Tom Clark started calling it the Blizzard of '96!
That's one winter I'll never forget.
There's one person I'll never forget.
Really, who's that?
Mr. Pettinato.
Oh! I remember him, he didn't stick around for our senior year though.
He must have developed food poisoning from all that food we fed him from the floor.
Either that or he left one day and couldn't find his way back.
He would have liked our first snack machine, but then again maybe not because it was never filled.
Joy Tigie didn't like her first try of jumping over the camp fire though.
Yeah, instead of landing over it she landed in it.
People were more worried about her putting the fire out than if she was OK.
Yeah, especially Ben Thomas.
The tension between them was always burning.
Yeah I could remember those 2 fighting all the time.
In English class.
In Trig class.
In the Hall.
Some of their fights were better than the Ricki Lake Show.
Speaking of the Ricki Lake I just saw an episode on "Long Lost Twins Separated at Birth and Reunited later in Life."
Yeah, I think I saw the same show, weren't Hilary Moore and Heather Vesey on it.
Yeah they were always alike. They have the same hair.
The same clothes.
They were like they were attached at the hip.
Well you mean the hip and knee.
Hips and Knees were just a few things hurting us after our mile runs in Miss Kresge's gym class.
But we could always rely on our school nurse, Miss Pliss to set us straight.
Yeah, we'd go in with a stomach ache and come out with a cough drop, a spray of Chloroseptic, have our eyes checked made to scrub with soap and water.
How could we ever forget those good old days at Riverside High.
Well coach, let's get this game going before another 20 years pass.
What do you mean? My players aren't warmed up enough!!! We still have to do our flexies!!! And Mr. Kasulis just told me the opposing pitcher is throwing an illegal pitch!!!
Yeah, I guess Dipppa's tactics live on and so does the final result
U'RE OUT OF HERE!!!"

ATHLETICS

GOLF

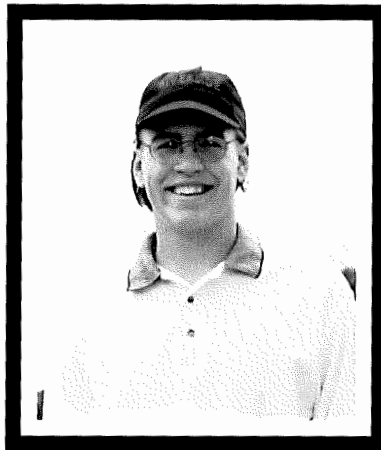

The Riverside golf team recorded a record of 4 wins, 1 loss, and 3 ties. The team starters were comprised of seniors Erik Matticola, Taras Thomas, and Peter Symuleski, juniors Dino Vervitsiotis and Tim Celuck, and freshman Greg Gondella. Matticola, Thomas, and Celuck served as captains. The team finished third in the Lackawanna Southern Division and earned a playoff birth against Abington Heights. Highlights of the season included a major upset victory over Scranton Prep and a win over the Riverside faculty. Tim Celuck was honored as a first team all-star member for his outstanding performances and was awarded team MVP. Erik Matticola was the recipient of the Chuck Sigman Memorial Award. Mr. Jack Helcoski serves as coach of the team which exceeded all preseason expectations.

It was a fine season for the Boys' Varsity Tennis team this year. Even though the team only had a 2-6 record, Coach John Radzwillowicz made a lot of progress with the newcomers.

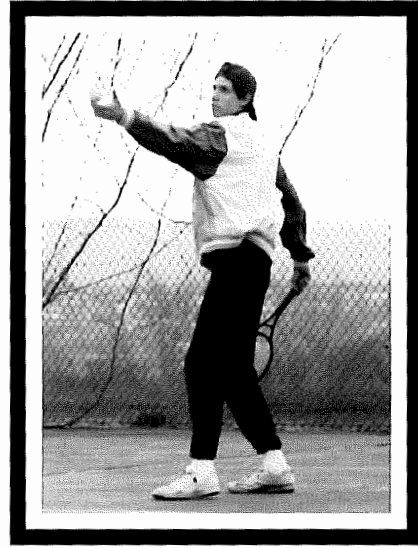

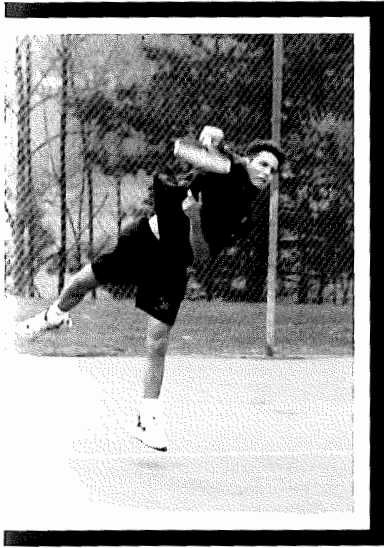

Sadly, the team will see the loss of their #1 seeded player Dan Lorenzini who held that position since he was a freshman. As the team's Captain, Dan finished by playing impressive matches at the District Tournaments and setting a school record with 38 victories in 4 seasons.

Filling the #2 singles spot, Junior Eric Pencek had a tough season but gained some ground for next year. At the #3 position, Freshman Tim McNulty stepped in and won some matches in his 1st season. Also, the #4 seed was shared by Senior Co.-Capt. Todd Zaladonis and Sophomore John Dodge. Another Senior Co.-Capt. Dan Kimes, and Soph. Jack Supek helped with the doubles game as well.

Dan and Tim represented Riverside at the District 2 Tournament in both singles and paired up in #1 doubles. The doubles team of Pencek and Zaladonis also took part in the tournament. Dan Lorenzini, who was selected as an East Conference All-Star, was awarded the Outstanding Tennis Player Award for the second time and will move his game to the Division 1 level at Temple University. Zaladonis, another 2 year starter, may also try his game at the Div. 3 level in the fall.

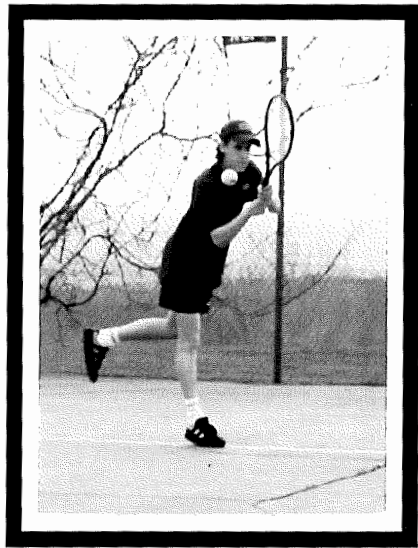

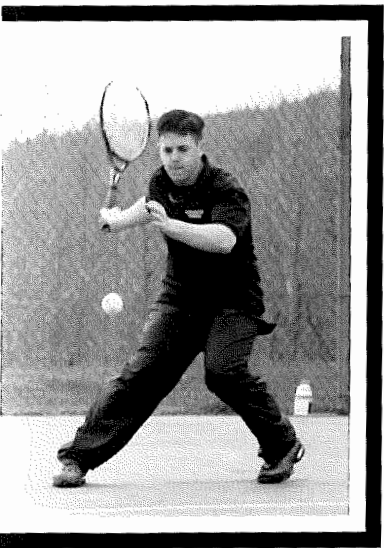

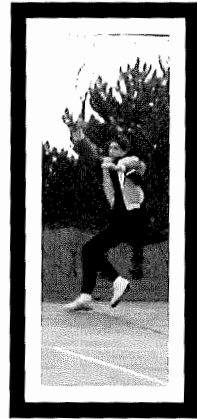

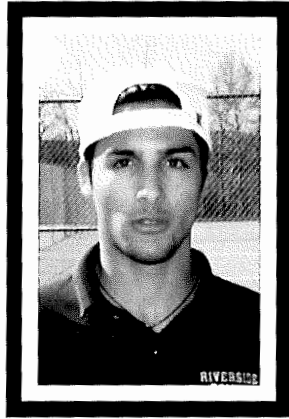

With some younger players and returning starters, Coach Radz certainly has high expectations for this team in the upcoming years.

COACH

This year's co-captains were Samantha Zigmont and Stacy Appnel. They had a record of 12 wins and 3 losses. They were tied for third place with Bishop Hannan. Those who attended district were Stacy Appnel, Samantha Zigmont, Joyce Panko, and April Sentivan. The other senior members of the team were Kerri Onofrey and Beth Brown. John Radzillowicz coached the girls' tennis team. Congratulations on a successful year.

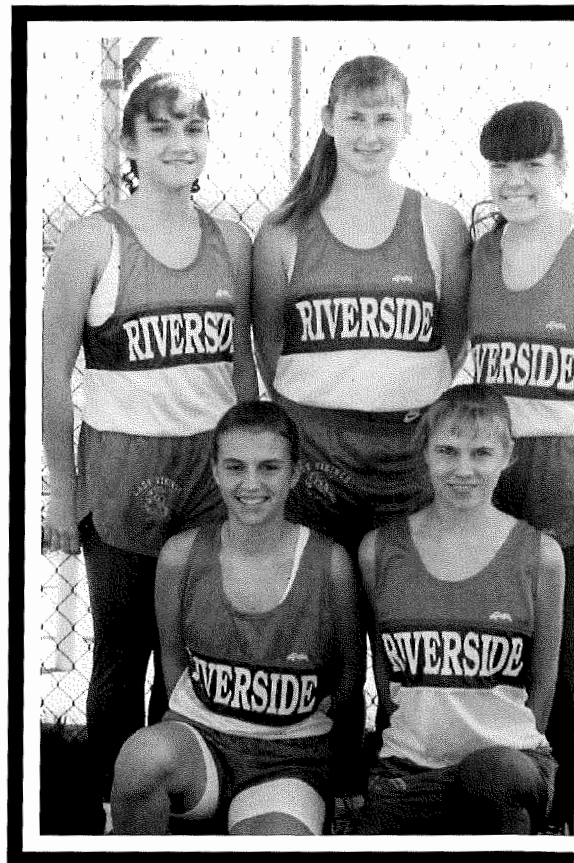

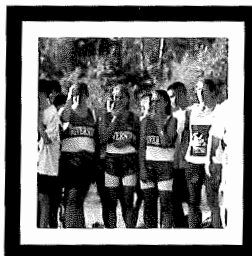

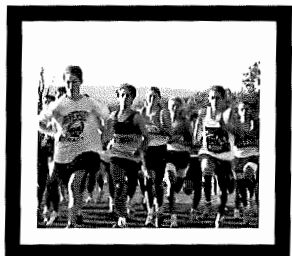

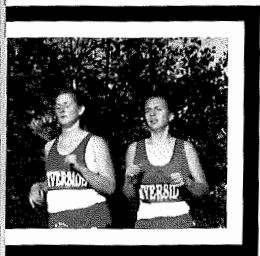

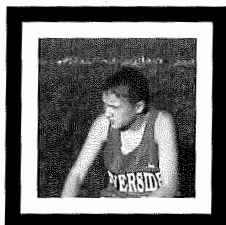

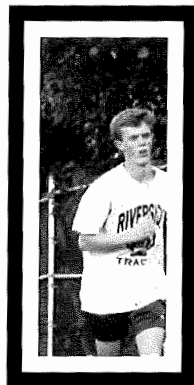

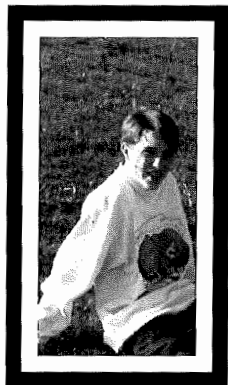

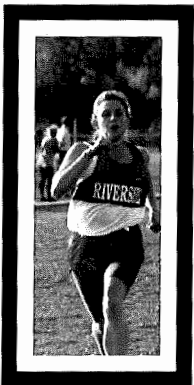

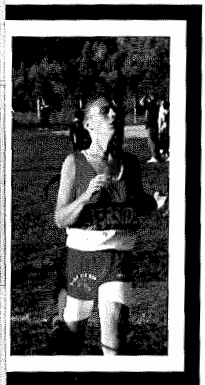

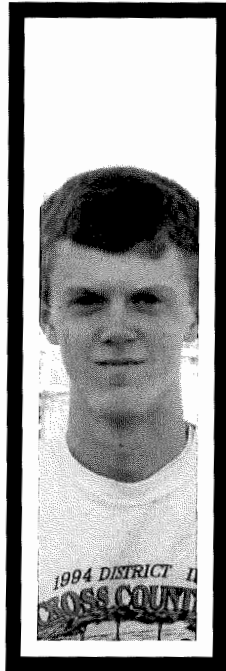

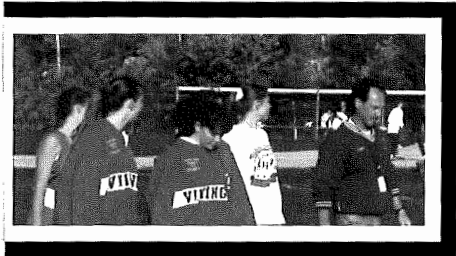

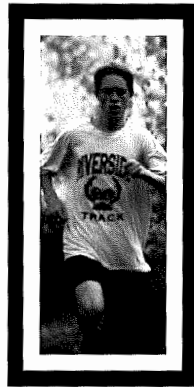

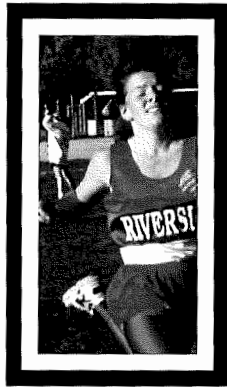

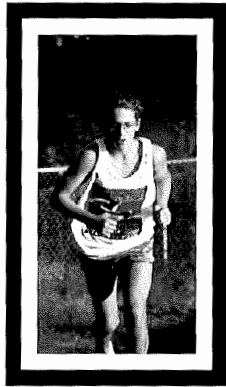

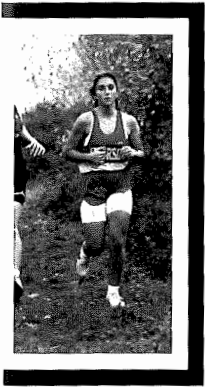

CROSS COUNTRY CO-CAPTAINS KEITH DAVIS HEIDI WOLFSBERGER

Cross Country made its debut at Riverside this season. The boys finished the season with a 3 and 13 record while the girls finished with a 6 and 7 record. Both programs, especially the girls', were considered to be highly successful for a first year program and both produced conference All Stars. For the boys' team, Keith Davis became one of the conference's premier runners which earned him a second team All Star berth. His female counterpart, Heidi Wolfsberger also earned a first team All Star berth along with becoming one of the top runners in the conference. Teammate Jennifer Tucker also earned a spot on the second All Star team. With many of the runners returning next season, the team hopes to improve upon its record.

VARSITY GIRLS' TRACK

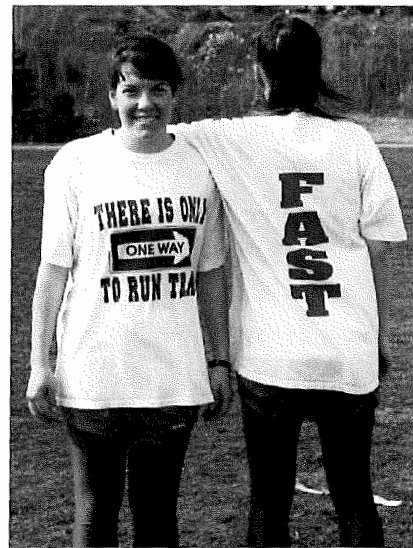

Once again Coach Ken Bednash with a limited number of athletes defied the odds and guided the Lady Vikings to another highly successful season. For the 2nd straight year the Lady Vikings finished 2nd in the conference with a 4-1 record. Then, with only 7 girls, the team convincingly won the Jordan Relay Championship again for the 2nd year in a row. Both the 3200 relay team of Michelle Wolfsberger, Heidi Wolfsberger, Jessica Mitchell, Jennifer Tucker and the 400 relay team of Nikole Argonish, Leslie Ozark, Kelly Sarti, and Jennifer Tucker finished 3rd along with a 2nd in the 400 by Jennifer Tucker and a 3rd in the 800 by Heidi Wolfsburger.

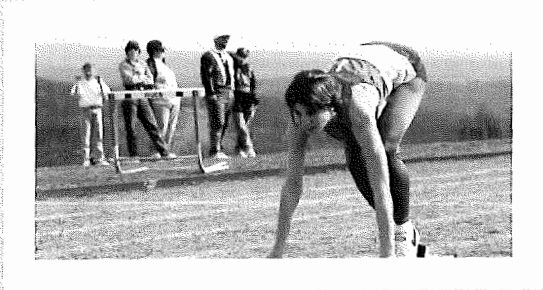

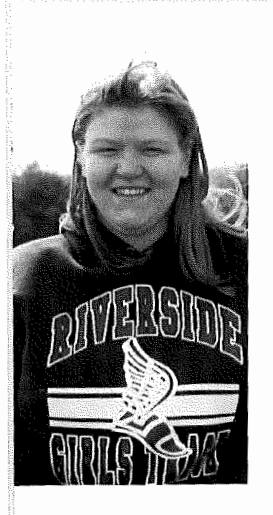

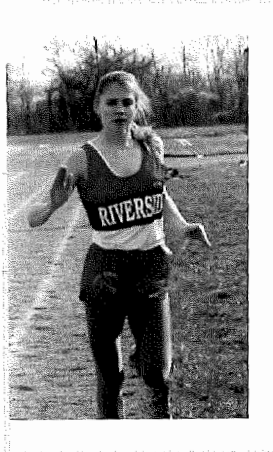

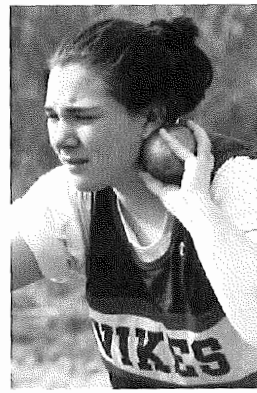

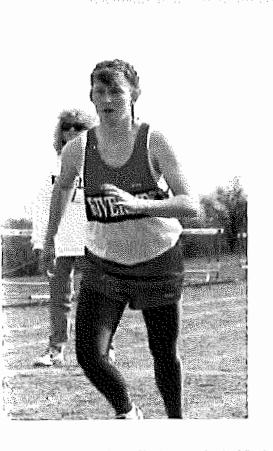

Nikole Argonish was crowned the 100 meter District Champion and then the 1600 relay team of Tucker, Ozark, Wolfsberger and Argonish repeated as District Champions. Both Nikole and the relay team advanced to State Competition in Shippensburg, finishing the season with an admirable performance. As a culmination to an already fantastic season, 6 Lady Viking runners received All Star berths.

In recognition of their athletic talents, awards were given to several members of the team. Heather Tucker received the award for Outstanding Field Athlete while Nikole Argonish, Leslie Ozark, Jennifer Tucker and Heidi Wolfsberger received the awards for Outstanding Track Athlete.

VARSITY BOYS' TRACK

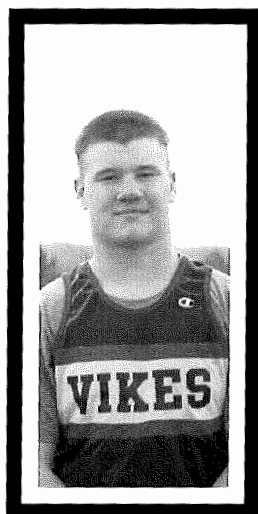

Although the Boys' Track Team ended with a record of 1-4, several team members had outstanding individual seasons. Ben Thomas placed 5th in both the shot put and discus at Districts, and broke the school record in discus with a throw of 151 feet and 8 inches.

Bryan Pica also had a great season. He placed 8th out of a field of 36 in long jump at district meets and only lost once in the long jumping the entire season.

Keith Davis was one of the best long distance runners in the league. He ran the 1000m run, 1600m run, and 1800m run.

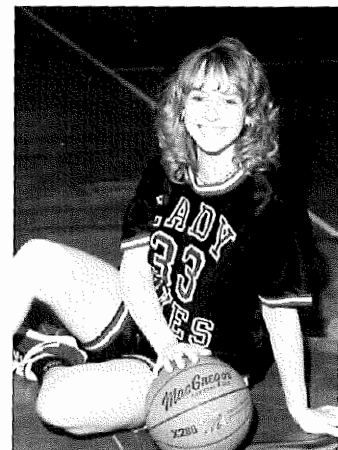

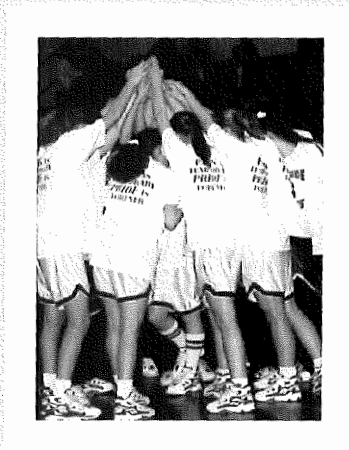

LADY VIKES

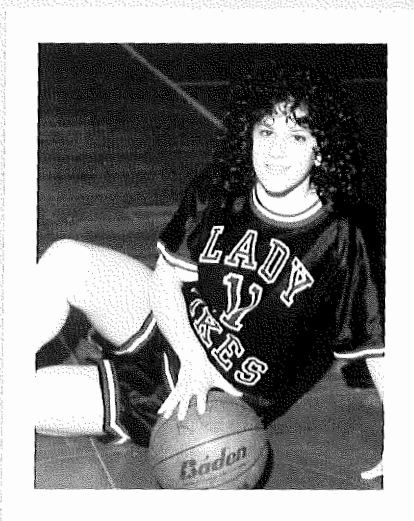

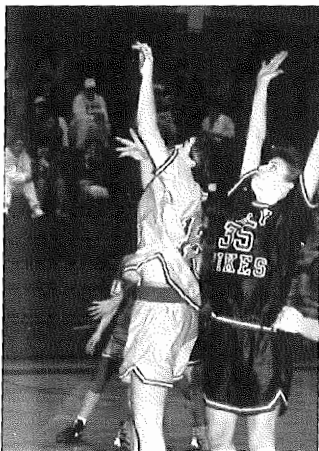

The 1995-1996 Lady Vikes Basketball season became the time to turn their program around. With a little help from new coaches Lisa Sporer and Lee Ann Ksaszick, the team logged a league record of 11-3 and an overall record of 10-10. Placing third in the division, the ladies extended their season to the second round of District 2 playoffs. Highlights of the season included their overtime victory against locally ranked and previously undefeated Lady Vikes of Honesdale. This win, considered a major upset, caused a three-way tie for first-half champs. This year's team had all five returning starters and was led by an outstanding senior trio of Eileen Preslock, Rachel Drazdowski, and Kelly Connor. Rounding off the team was junior Leslie Ozark and sophomore Laura Nicoletti. At the close of the season, Kelly, Eileen, and Leslie were named Division 2 second-team All-Stars and Rachel and Laura were selected as Honorable Mention. Finally, at the Honors Banquet, Kelly was given Outstanding Senior Basketball Player, Eileen was selected Best Offensive Player, Rachel was named Outstanding Rebounder, and Leslie was chosen Best Defensive Player.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

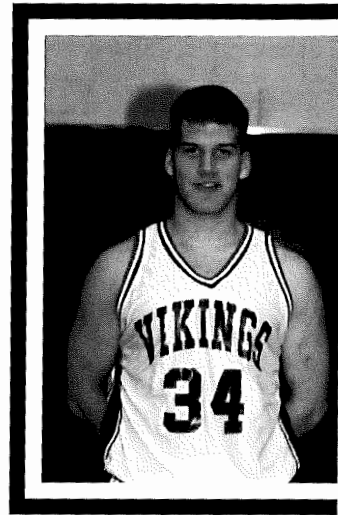

The 1995-96 Boys' Basketball season marked the end of David MacArt's many years of successful coaching, but his retirement did not overshadow the many accomplishments the team made. The team was led by senior captain third year returning starter Jim Preston. Seniors Bob Flickinger and Kevin Uher became large assets to the team during the progression of the season in spite of the fact that this was their first year playing. Our team was recognized early in the season as a threatening presence after posting a decisive victory over state ranked Bishop Hanlon. The end of the year awards named Jim Preston the recipient of the Burton Reese Memorial Award, Kevin Uher as Best Offensive Player, Bob Flickinger as Best Defensive Player.

Salute To Riverside

As we move quickly toward graduation,
It's time to look back at our lives,
And how they have been changed
By our days at Riverside High.

In seventh grade we should have been the youngest,
But, while sharing the halls with kindergarten, we didn't seem so small.
As eighth grade came, kindergarten moved on and we were left,
To dream of walking senior hall.

Ninth grade came and we moved upstairs,
High school we knew must arrive.
Did we know what to expect?
How would we ever survive?

Tenth and eleventh grade seemed to take forever,
But they too soon passed,
And when we became seniors,
We were at the top, at last.

For seniors, guidance was the place to be,
Searching for a college and a career.
Everyone was making plans,
Knowing the time to leave would soon be here.

Our last spirit week came and went.
There was lots of fun for all,
Batman was our theme,
And, of course, the seniors had the best hall

The golf team did well,
They defeated Prep and the faculty this year,
And when Dino beat "Coach",
Everyone let out a cheer.

Cross country was introduced as a new sport,
The runners did love to compete,
Although champions they were not,
In their hearts they couldn't be beat.

Winter came and basketball soon followed,
The boys, they had our support,
They tried to do their best,
And showed dedication to their sport.

The Lady Vikes, with a new coach on the bench,
Had winning on their mind.
They went 11-3, making the playoffs,
A team like this is hard to find.

January meant snow,
The blizzard of '96 came and went,
By the end, an entire week of school was lost,
To all the snow that was sent.

Our drama club performed Bye Bye Birdie,
A great job was done by all,
The performance was spectacular,
Deserving of a second curtain call.

Tennis season came,
And it was proof that spring was here,
As the season moved on,
Our opponents, they felt fear.

Baseball had an exciting season,
And for the first time in years,
They made the playoffs,
We are all proud of them here.

Seven was the magic number for girls track,
Jordan champions they have become,
A team like this is unusual,
But they ended up as number one.

The softball team with their dream season,
Always drew a crowd,
They won the District 2 title,
And for that they are quite proud.

The prom came in May,
We hoped it wouldn't end, ever,
And as Bryan and Michelle were crowned,
We all danced "From Now Until Forever".

The teachers here deserve so much,
They do more than is required,
We'd like to thank them all,
For the hopes and dreams they have inspired.

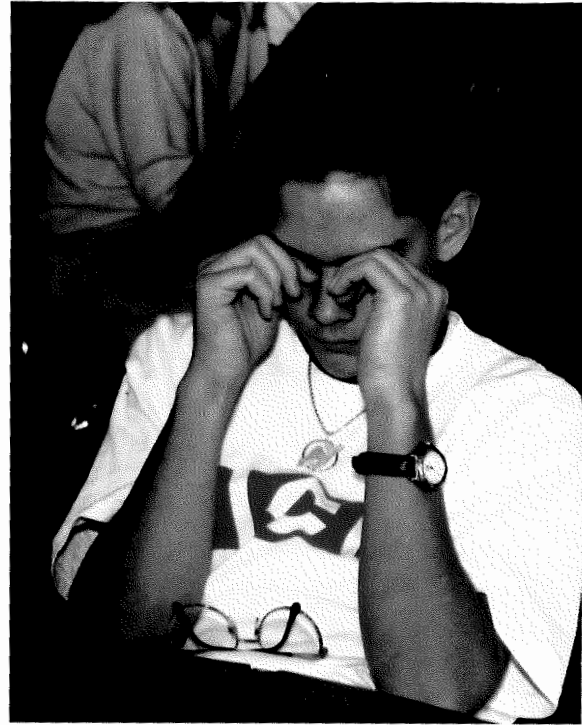

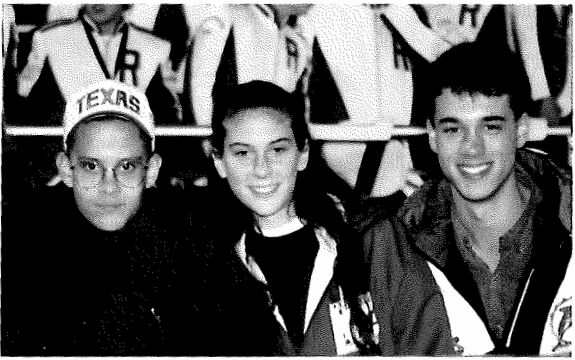

Now that the years have ended,
And our days here are numbered,
I hope that you can say,
There is so much to be remembered.

KEITH DAVIS

GEORGEANNE RADLE
NOV. 11, 1977-APR. 19, 1992

We think of you in silence,
And make no outward show,
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.
To us who loved you dearly,
Your parting brought great pain,
The world would seem like Heaven,
If we had you back again.
If tears could build a staircase,
And memories a lane,
We would walk all the way to Heaven,
And bring you back again.

To The Senior Class of

Senior the year we all waited for is finally here and soon we'll be going our separate ways. Our goals, dreams and futures are waiting ahead as we count down the last 100 days.

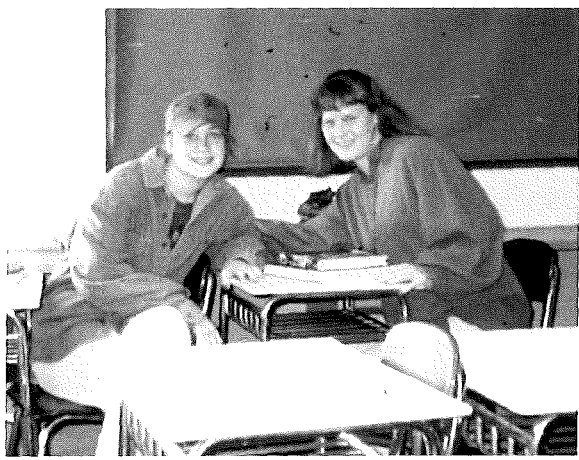

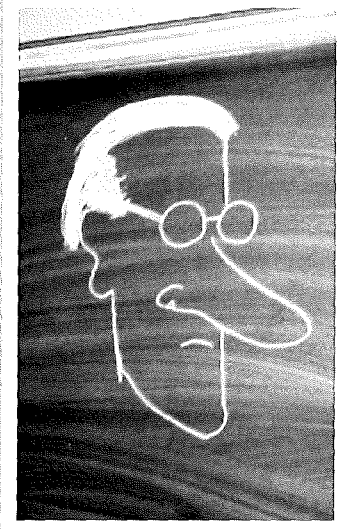

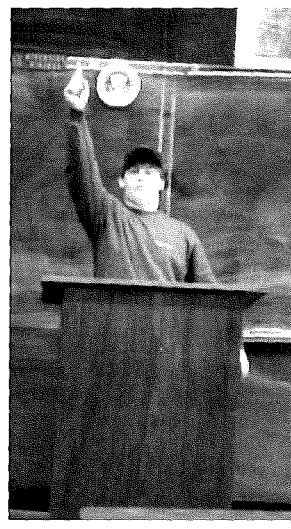

Although, it seems like yesterday we walked through those doors, seventh graders, today as seniors we look back on our years and realize they've gone by so fast. And of now, our only goal seemed to be making our good times last.

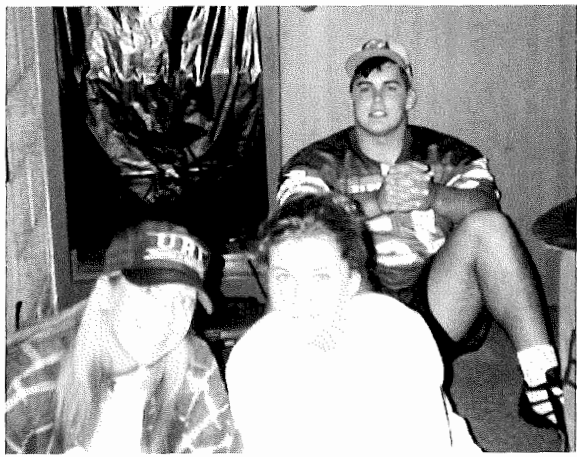

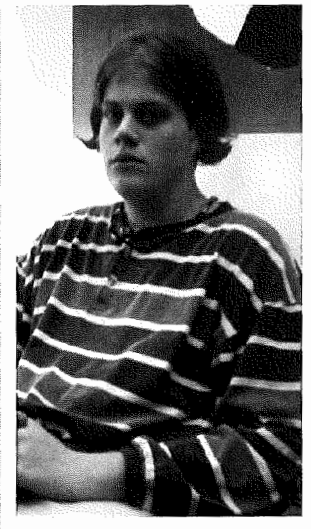

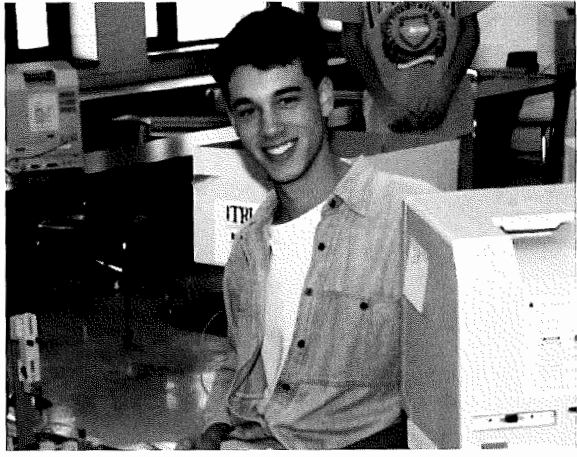

Underclassmen, we hope you take our advice and enjoy your high school years for you see they go by quickly. Before you know it, you'll be in our shoes saying good-bye to all your friends. There's not a moment to waste, since our time here is coming to an end.

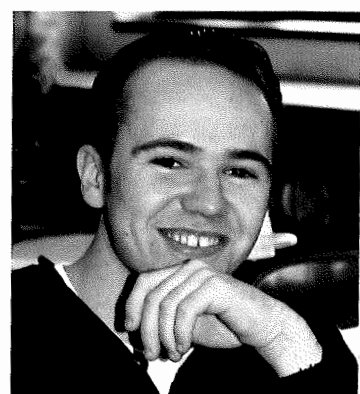

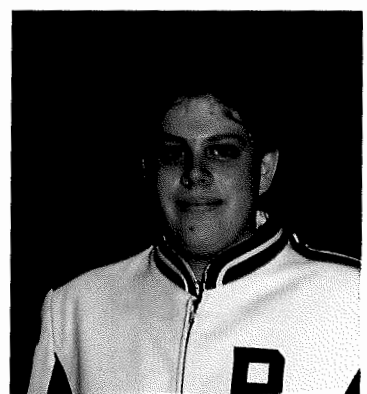

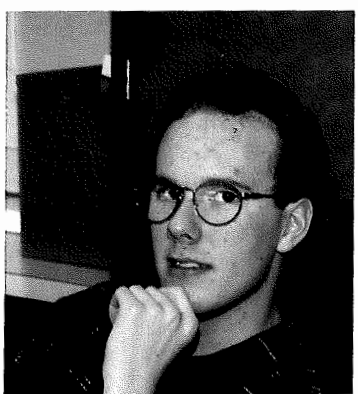

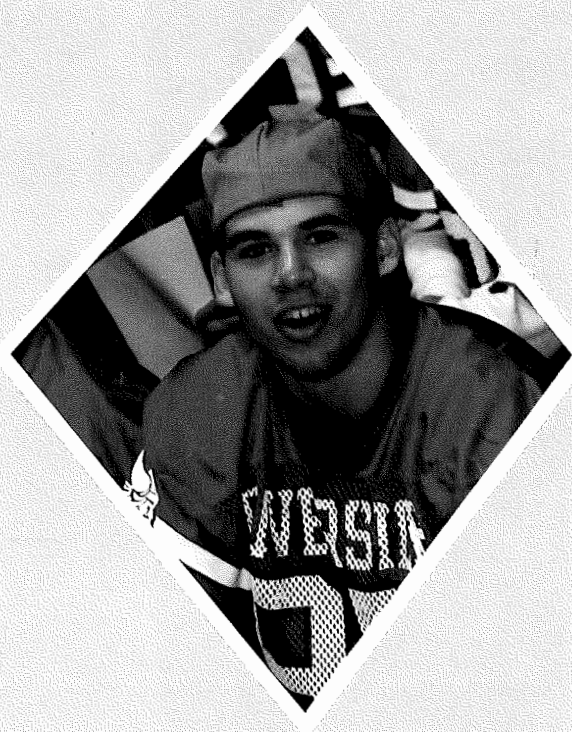

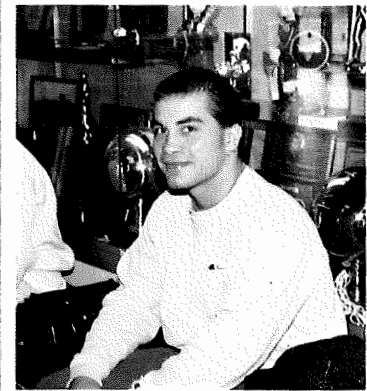

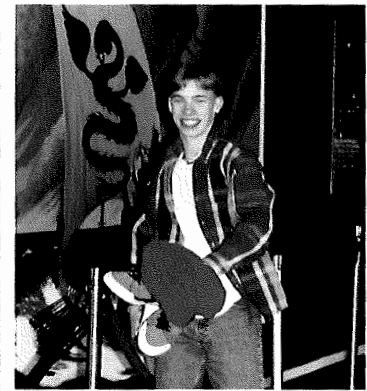

Soon my friends, our years at Riverside will become memories and our stories will be life-to-be told. I only hope we'll all see friends and realize our friendships can't be sold.

The 1996 Viking Baseball Team worked hard to achieve goals that haven't been met in the past. They showed determination by qualifying for the PIAA District II Playoffs against Lake Lehigh. The Vikings, coached by Bruce Moore, plowed their way through a difficult schedule and ended the year with a total of 10 wins and only 4 losses. The team was led by senior captains Jim Preston, Jared Goul, Ken Paulino, and Len Webb. After the season, several players received awards for their efforts. Jim Preston was named Most Valuable Player as well as Outstanding Hitter. Len Webb was awarded Outstanding Infielder while junior Dan Laffey received an award for Outstanding Outfielder. The Outstanding Pitcher Award went to senior Jerry Connor.

BABY DOLLI Two words to best describe the Lady Vikes 1996 softball season. The dynamic defense was rounded off by outstanding freshman pitcher Jen Borowski, junior leftfielder Corrine Kanetski, sophomore catcher Courtney Helcoski, sophomore first baseman Jen Kishel, and freshman rightfielder Nicole Capwell. With a 12-2 league record, the ladies finished just one game behind league "champs" Mid Valley. They clinched their playoff spot with a dramatic 4-1 last inning victory over the previously undefeated Spartanette team. In District 2 playoff action, they rocked 16-0 Hanover Hawkeyes. A final score of 7-2 landed the Lady Vikes in district finals where they would once again face their rivals Mid Valley and, once again, would defeat them. For the first time in over twenty years the Lady Vikes softball team won districts and entered state playoffs. Reaching the quarter final round the Ladies ended their season with an 18-3 overall record. The end of the season awards given at the All Honors Banquet named Michele and Samantha co-MVPs, Rachel was selected Most Improved Player, Kelly was given the Coaches Award, and Jen Borowski was this season's Rookie of the Year.

This year's Student Council, with Miss Susan Ludwikowski as advisor, once again experienced a highly successful year, meeting all of their goals and expectations. Throughout the year, this group was responsible for Spirit Week, the Homecoming Dance, our beautiful Christmas decorations, and the annual Valentine's Day lollipop and roses sales. However, their most valuable contributions was the yearly blood drive which was held in the Spring.

Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) is the organization which helps to increase students awareness about the dangers of drinking and driving. Every year the club sponsors activities to demonstrate those dangers. This year SADD held a mock D.U.I. accident in the school parking lot in conjunction with local police and fire/rescue teams. This activity sends home a very clear message about the dangers of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Advisor to SADD is Miss Susan Ludwikowski.

Riverside High School has many talented students this year. The Drama club held a great performance of "Bye Bye Birdie" in the spring, with the main role, Conrad Birdie, played by senior Danny Lorenzini. The rest of the leading cast characters were Kim McAfee, Albert Peterson, Rose Alvarez, Harry McAfee, Hugo Peabody, Ursula Merkle, and Mrs. Peterson. These were played by senior members Shannon Armilay, Eric Matticola, Pam Heckman, Peter Symuleski, Jared Ghoul, Nikole Argonish, and Lorie Smith. The Drama club also sponsored the annual talent show, and traveled to New York to see the performance of "Beauty and the Beast". Advisors to the Drama club are Mrs. Carol Hapstak, Mr. Michael Hapstak, and Mr. Joseph Knecht.

Once again the Ski Club remained one of the most popular and active clubs at Riverside. However, the big event of the season was the weekend trip to Sugarbush Valley Ski Resort in Vermont. The 1995-96 advisors were Mr. Patrick Joyce and Mr. Jack Evans.

This year the members of the Astronomy Club and their advisor, Mr. John Kosek, had one of their best years yet. After the annual fundraiser the club had more than enough money for their annual trips. So Mr. Kosek went on a shopping spree with the extra money buying newer equipment for the observatory. As always, students and public alike enjoyed the observatory, especially during Comet Hyakutake.

The annual trip to West Side Intermediate Planetarium was enlightening, but everyone agreed the Washington trip was the highlight of '96. While in Washington the club visited the Air and Space Museum, among other interesting and educational sites.

"Movies," the theme for Homecoming Week '96, inspired some exciting, yet traditional activities. Among them were Toga Day, Pajama Day, Hat and Sunglasses Day, Senior Hippie Day, and of course Red and Blue Day. Once again the seniors ruled the halls with their "Batman" theme.

The annual Homecoming Pep Rally was highlighted as the school attempted to participate in Bleachermania and our "Pie In the Face" recipients were Shannon Armillay and Brian Butts. Spirit Week came to end with the crowning of our King, Brian Williams, and our Queen, Michele Naughton. The Queen's Court included Rachel Drazdowski, Kelly Connor, Robyn Mishuk, and Amber Thiel.

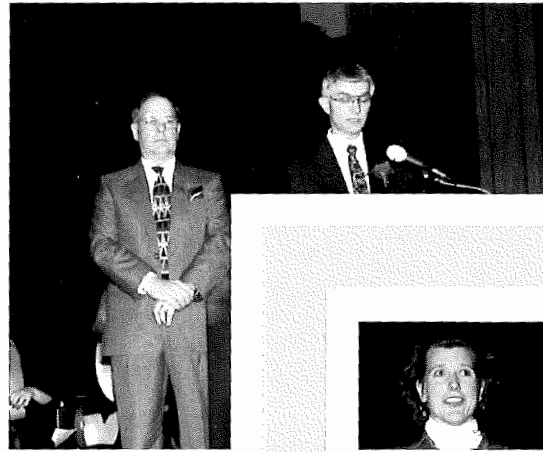

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

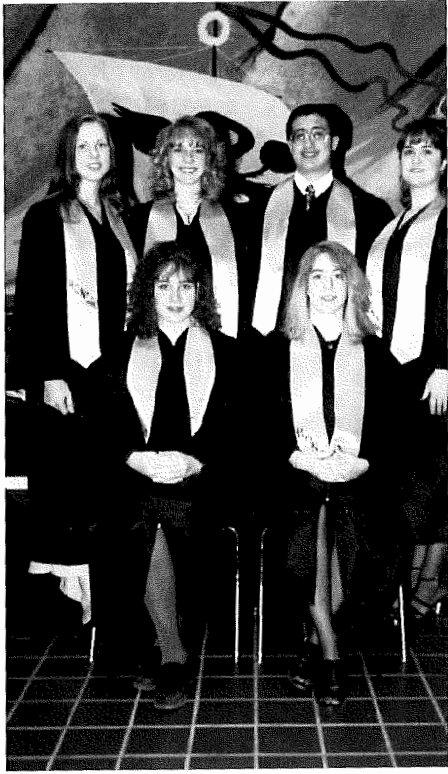

The Riverside Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual induction on March in Riverside's Davis auditorium. Mrs. Leigh Ann Ksiasek served as guest speaker while Pam Heckman, Samantha Zigmont, and Kristen MacArt provided musical entertainment. Twenty new members were inducted by the end of the evening, along with the six new officers. Speeches on History, Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service were delivered by Amy Manley, Kelly Connor, Jessica Morgan, Rachel Drazdowski, and Samantha Zigmont respectively. ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH

The students who meet the challenge of thinking, reading, and writing at an elevated level of discourse each play a pivotal role in developing the AP English course for the year.

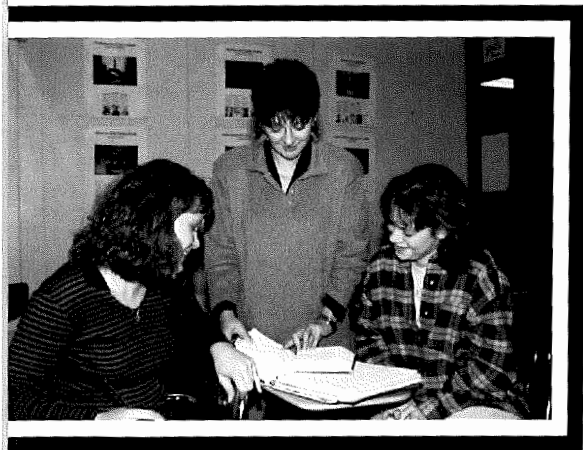

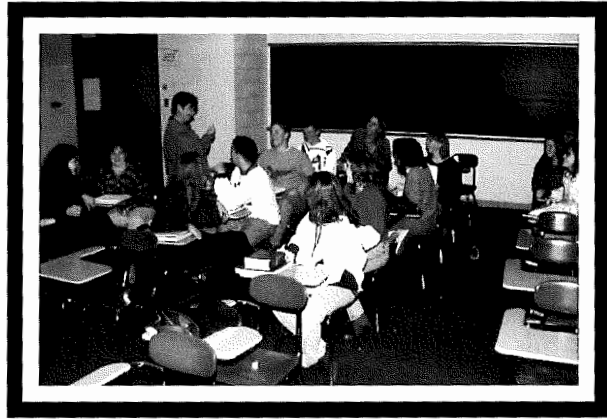

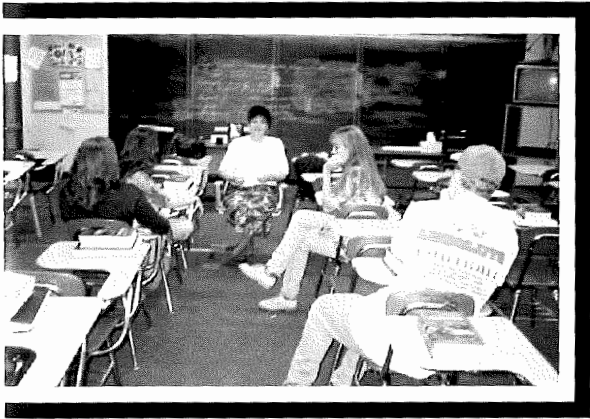

Obviously, this year's group feels a photograph would be complete with "Dan".

When a course is so academically demanding some students are more frustrated than others. After a while it can become difficult to think literally. However, the students soon learn that their teacher is the perfect source for guidance in these matters.

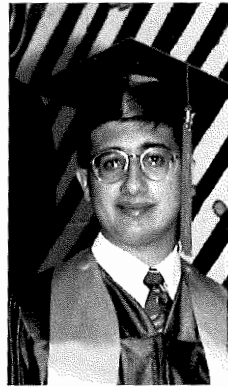

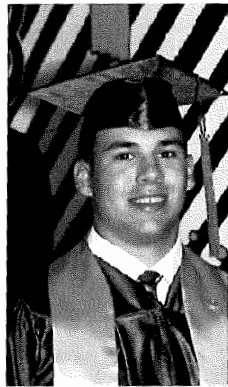

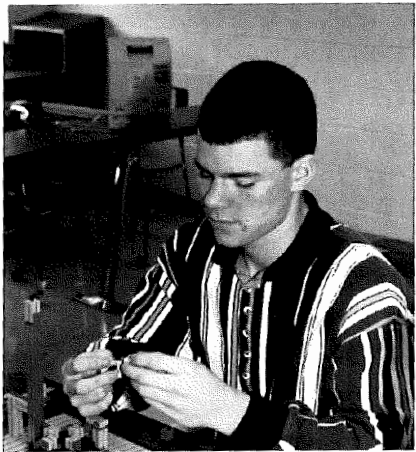

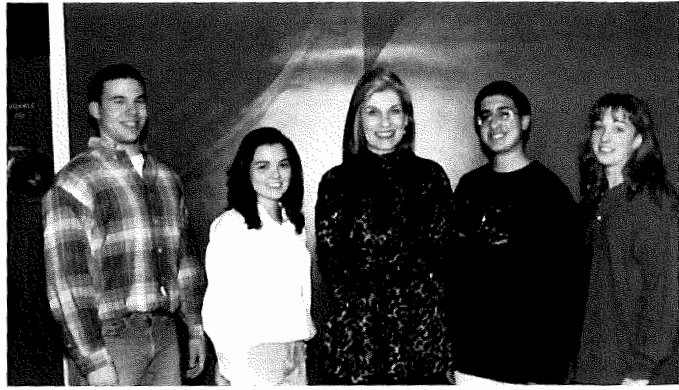

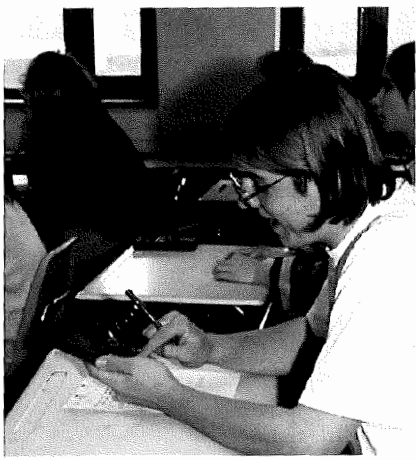

Actually, what initially appears to be an insurmountable task can become a focus of work, and objectives ultimately become a vehicle of discovery, sometimes of ourselves and each other.

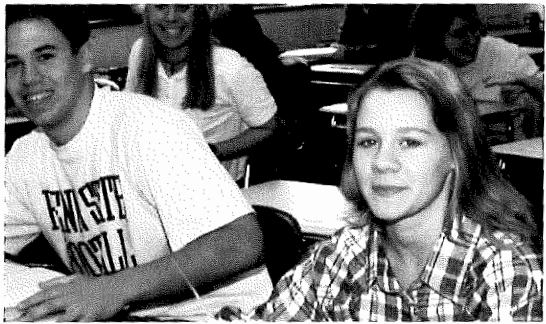

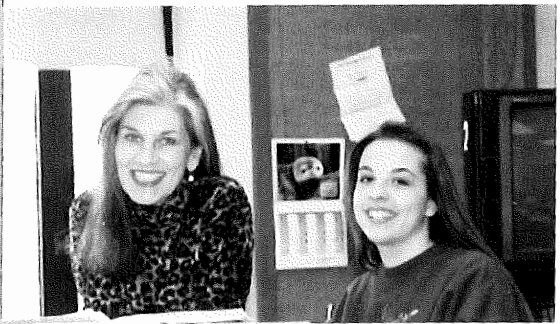

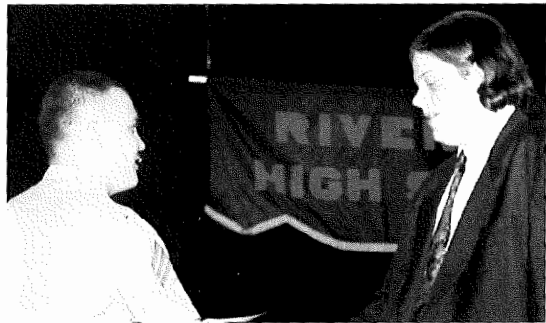

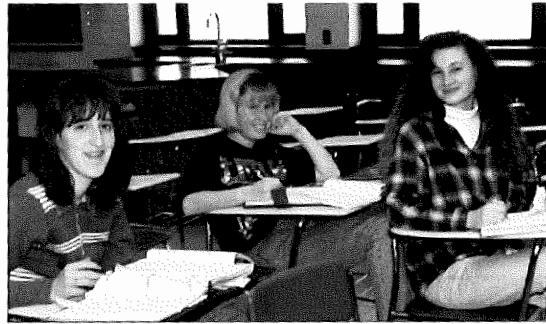

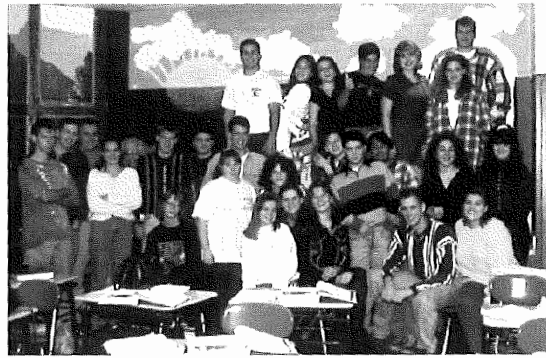

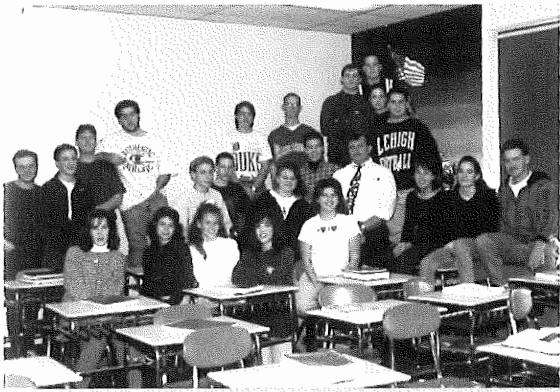

It is good to understand well enough to argue, joke, and explain ourselves within the context we once feared.

“PASSING OF THE SWORD”

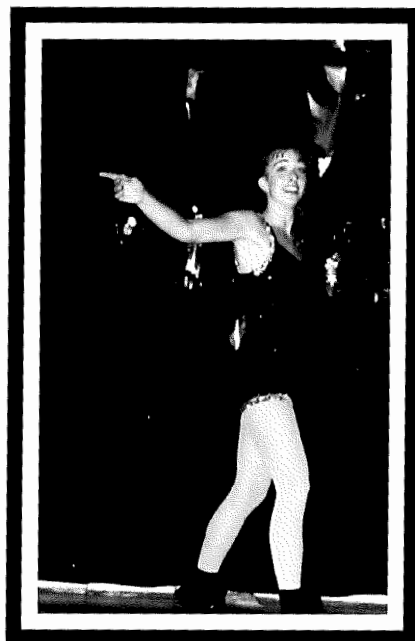

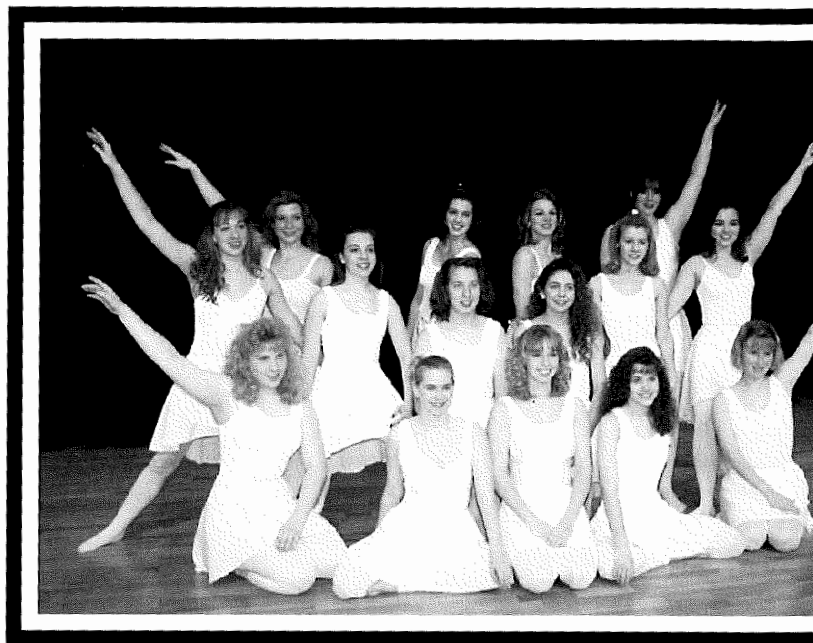

This year's Passing of The Sword was held at Via Appia in Taylor. The 1995-96 Miss Viking, Rachel Drazdowski, passed her sword to Melissa Snyder. Captains and Features for the 1996-97 year were also announced. Feature Performer is Amy Williams; Feature Pom Pon is Lucy Fetch; and Feature Twirler is LeAnne Loureiro. Varsity Co-Captains are Corrine Kanitski and Nicole D'Annunzio; Pom Pon Co-Captains are Jocelyn Boyko and Kristy Holmes; Junior Varsity Football Co-Captains are Serena Saar and Alycia Paulino; Junior Varsity basketball Co-Captains are Becky Buldowski and Stephanie Copeland; Swing Flag Co-Captains are Laura Gleason and Marie Charney and Color Guard Co-Captains are Judy Kwiatkowski and Jennifer Collins.

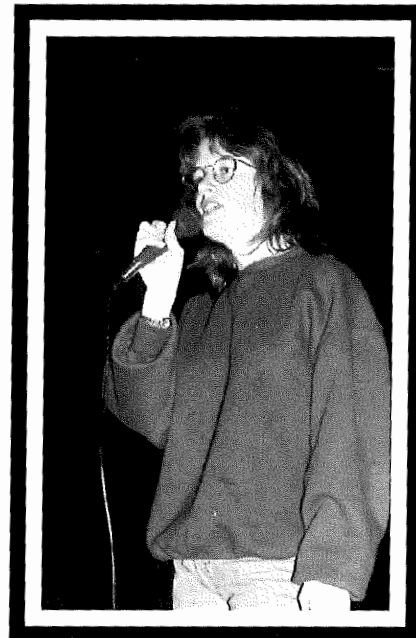

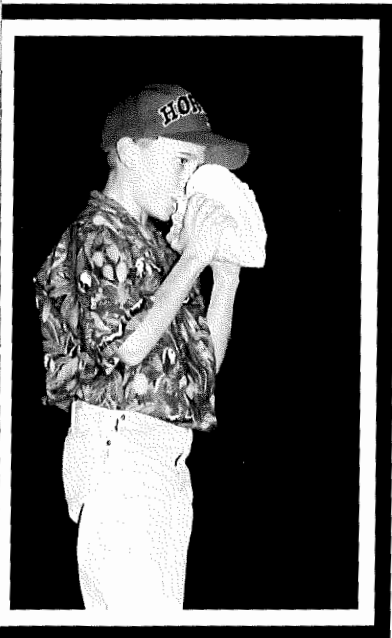

SOMETIMES A FANTASY

The theme for this year's unit show was "Sometime's a Fantasy." It was held on Feb. 24 in the high school auditorium. Rachel Drazdowski along with the other squad captains choreographed many of the dances. The seniors appropriately danced to "Come Sail Away." Rachel Drazdowski and Heather Tucker presented a slide show to the song "In My Life." This marked the first time students presented a slide show. With everyone's hard work the show turned out to be a great success.

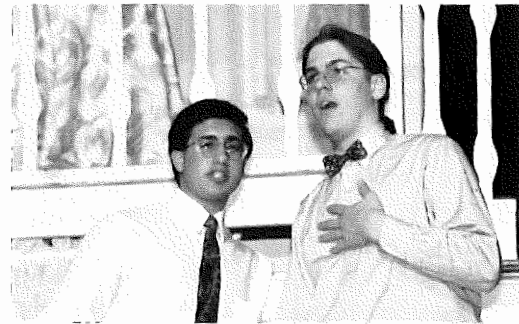

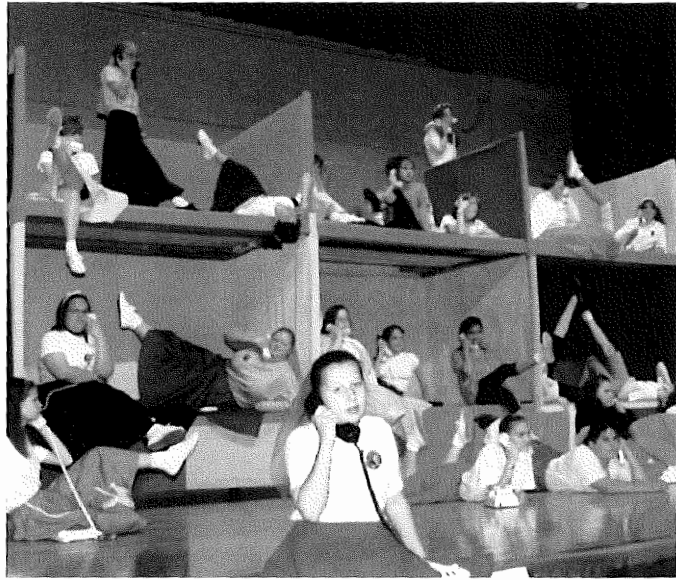

TALENT SHOW

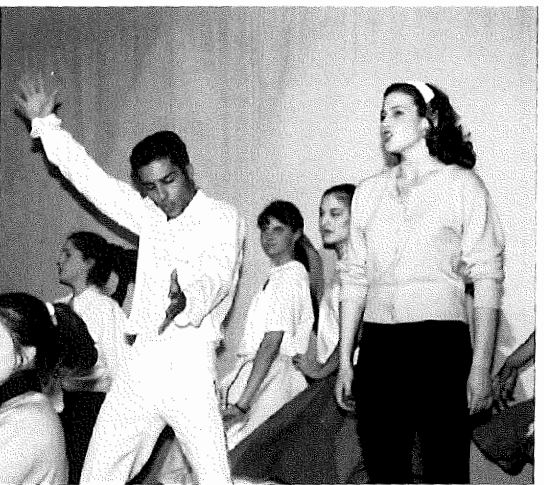

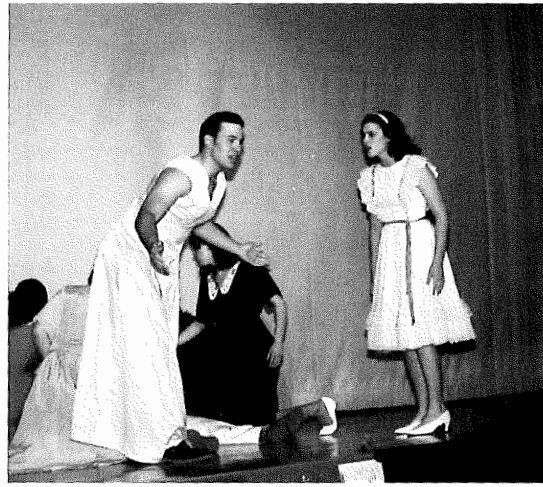

The annual Talent Show was held this year on December 7, in the High School auditorium. The show contained a variety of performances which displayed the creativity and talents of the students at Riverside. Beckie Brown and Christal Jenkins danced to "Dreams" by Van Halen; Pam Heckman displayed her vocal talents by singing "Still" by Teba McIntyre; and perhaps the most unique performance of the night was by Ryan Onofrey who played "Jingle Bells" on a seashell. The memories of this year's talent show will be embedded in the minds of everyone — forever.

BYE BYE BIRDIE

The Drama Club did a fantastic job presenting "Bye Bye Birdie" on April 25 and 26, 1996 in the Riverside High School auditorium. The cast was led by Erik Matticola who portrayed Albert Peterson, Pamela Heckman as Rose Alvarez, and Dan Lorenzini who was Conrad Birdie. Other characters included Nikole Argonish (Ursula), Shannon Armillay (Kim), Keara Piekanski (Mrs. MacAfee), Pete Symuleski (Mr. MacAfee), Joey Aniska (Randolph), Lorie Smith (Mae), Jared Goul (Hugo), and Dennis Trutwin (the Mayor and Maude). All of the cast members worked hard to make this year's play one of the most memorable performances ever.

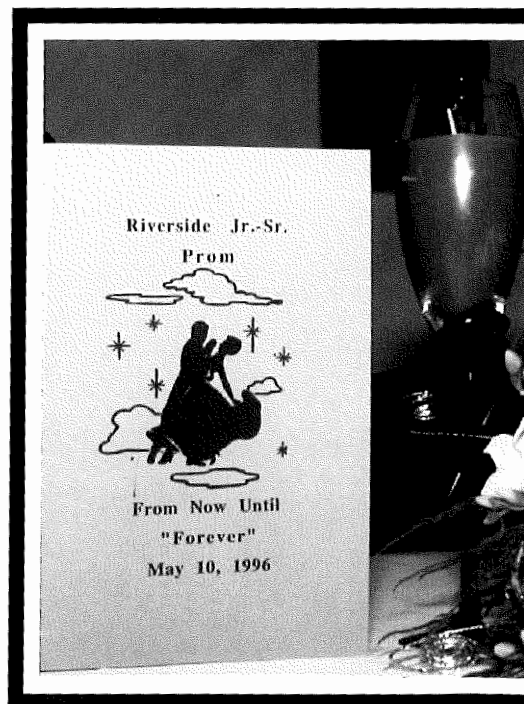

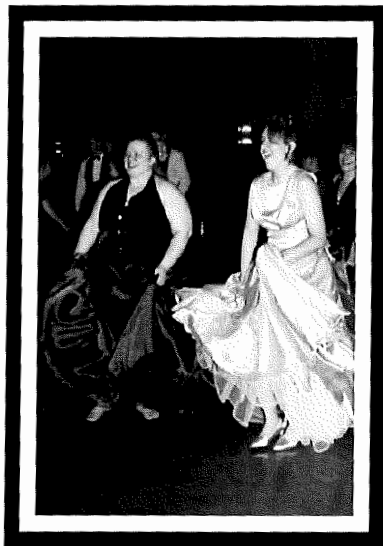

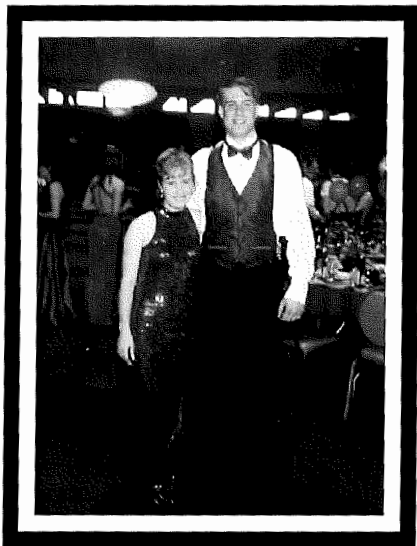

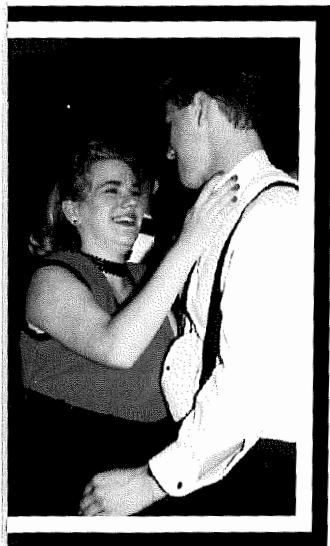

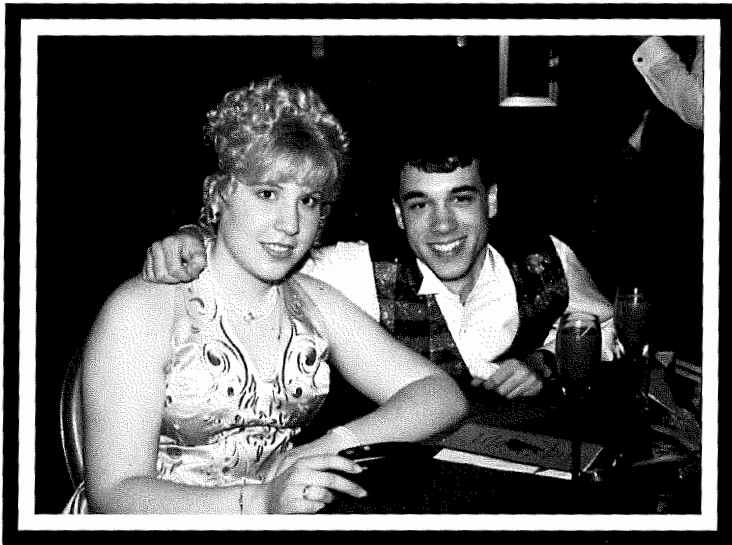

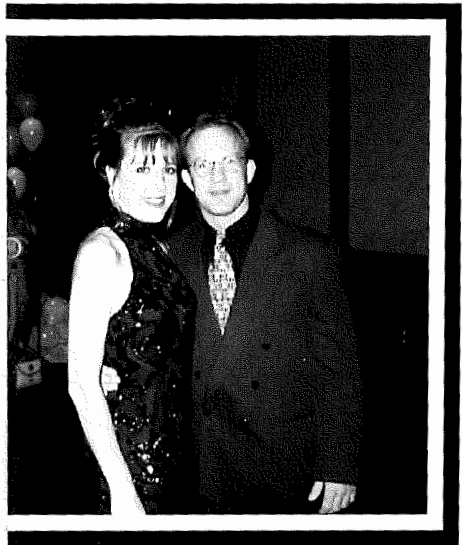

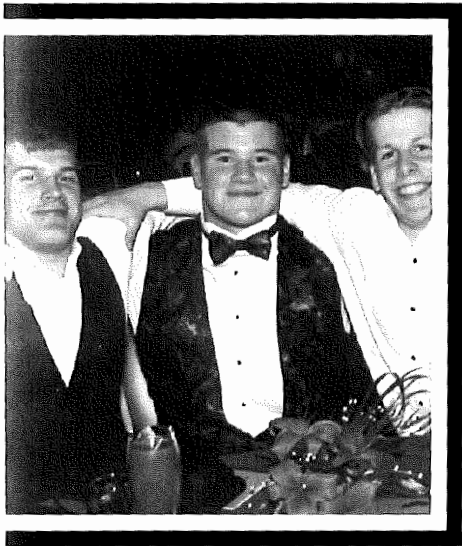

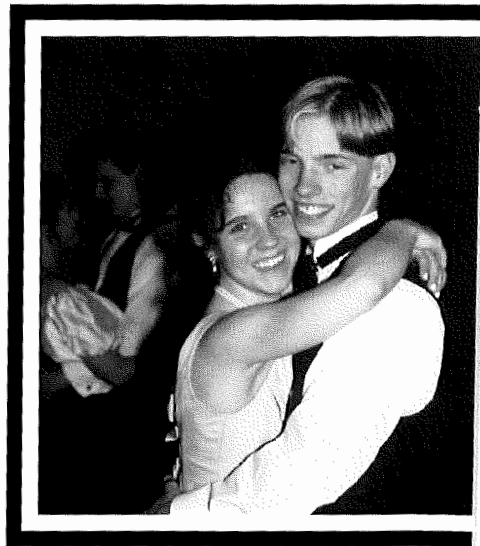

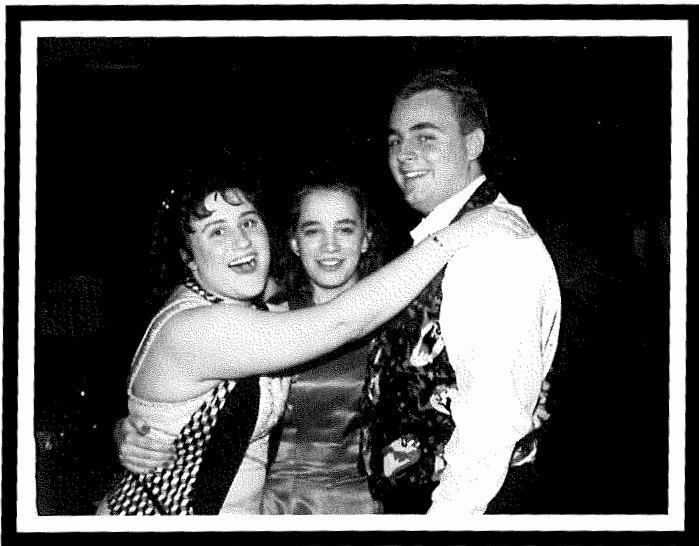

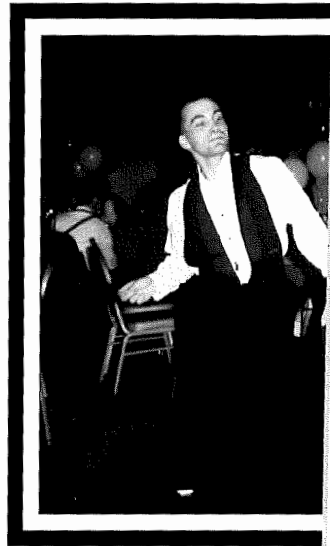

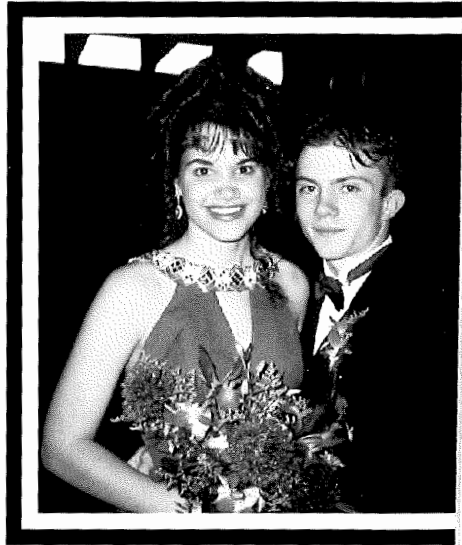

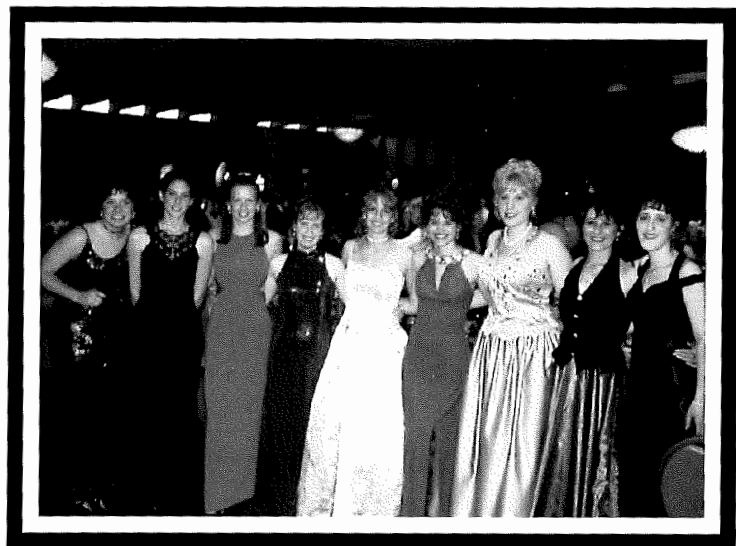

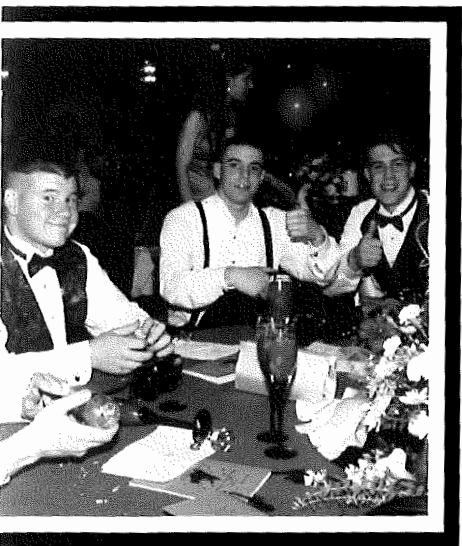

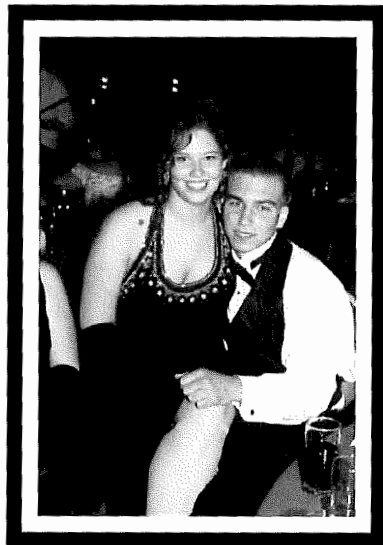

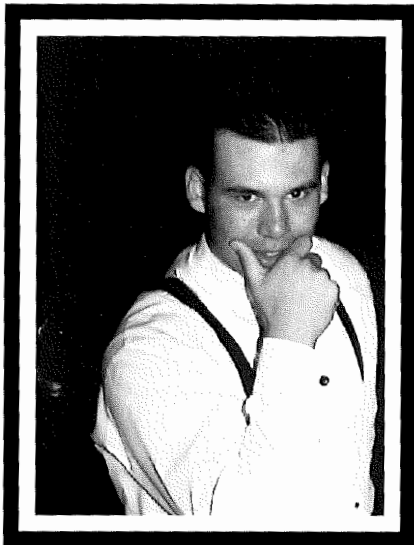

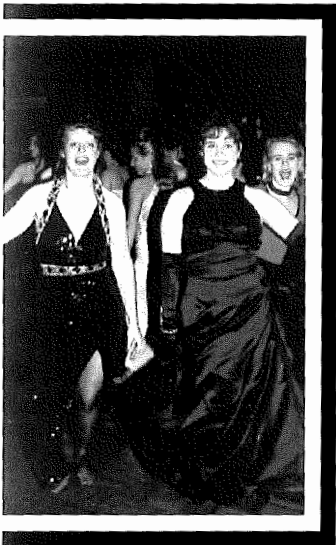

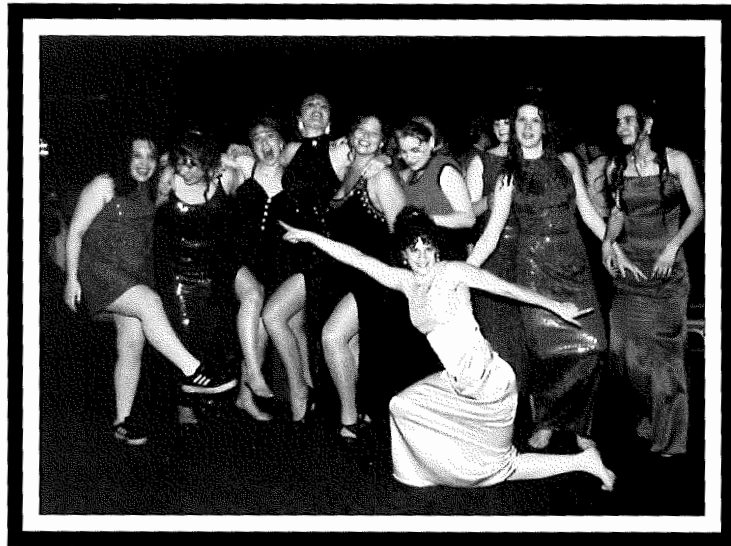

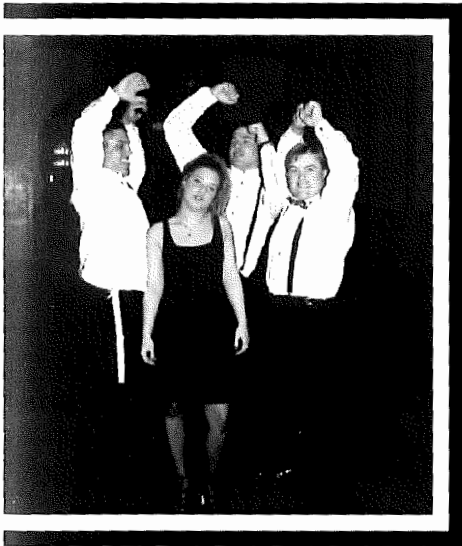

“FROM NOW UNTIL FOREVER”

This year's prom was held on Friday, May 10th at Saint Mary's Center in Scranton. The theme was "From Now Until Forever" and the music was provided by "Fancy Dancer". The most exciting moment of the evening came when the King and Queen of the Prom were crowned. Michele Naughton was crowned Queen and Bryan Pica was crowned King. Robyn Mishuk was selected as the First Senior Attendant and Dawn Sadowski was selected as the Second Senior Attendant. The Junior Attendants were Nicole D'Annunzio, the King's Scepter Bearer, Lucy Fetch, the King's Crown Bearer, Cristina Noto, the Queen's Crown Bearer, and Susan Brzenski, the First Junior Attendant. Unfortunately, the evening did not last "Forever".

JESSICA MORGAN

The memories which spanned the past 12 years culminated at eight o'clock on Friday, June 14, 1996, as we gathered for the last moments we would spend as a class at Riverside. While we listened to the speeches by Jessica Morgan, Jared Goul, Erik Matticola, Abbey Armstrong, and Ben Thomas, we reflected on the times we had shared. With the guidance of the administration, the assistance of our teachers, and the love of our parents, the Class of 1996 reached the point where it was time to move on. We know we will smile when we recall the laughter we shared, the tears we cried, and the places we went. We'll often stop and think about the friendships we created here in the halls of Riverside. We are grateful for having had the opportunity to grow and to be nurtured in that setting, but sorrowful for leaving behind all of the things that have become a part of each of us.

We said our final good-byes and turned to face our new beginnings.

CLASS PROPHECY

Setting: Area hospital breakroom. Night of the 20th year class reunion for the class of 1996.

K: Hey Dan how are you doing? That was a tough one.

D: Oh yeah. Could you believe our entire class had to have their stomachs pumped from food poisoning at the reunion.

K: It was great talking to them. Though they have a lot of different professions, a lot of people made the same decisions. Both Jen Uher and Kim Holmes are elementary teachers. Beckie Brown teaches speech therapy, even though Caroline Grasso cried about not getting that job she was given a kindergarten teaching job instead. Shannon Armillay teaches the class Hair and Make-up for the Modern Primadonna at the Barbizon school and Gail Posluszny is a high school guidance counselor.

D: Brian Sweeney works downstairs in the hospital pharmacy and, of course, Marie Hazleton works along side him. Either that or she has just been simply following him around.

K: Some careers had dynamic beginnings. John Decker, R.J. Calvey, and Ed Wilson all parachuted onto Bob Flickinger and Danny Gronski's coast Guard vessel. They then sailed up the "Lucky" into Taylor, and overtook the Power Gym by force.

D: Some other people went into business too.

K: Yeah, Mike Snyder, Sal and John Carmsione went into welding and opened up an auto body repair shop which makes tons of money fixing Howard Timm's Jeep.

D: He can afford it since he started that accounting firm with Jimmy Preston and Kenny Paulino.

K: I heard that Scott Ericson works in computers.

D: Uh-huh, I read he invented a computer which easily integrates secant x, and mathematically proved he was always right.

K: There are a lot of computer people in our class. Dan Hughes makes games and writes in for video game magazines, though I'm not a Game fan, Joe Basile and Rich Kearney work on computers, as does Rob Ragni. Taras Thomas also got into computers.

D: Yeah but, Taras has been into a lot of things. He still has his ace golf game and frequently receives a hole in one.

K: Anyone else?

D: Well, Dionne Kleback manages a swank hotel and Matt Seliga, John Barrett, and Scott Likowski work there as plumbers and maintenance men.

K: Oh, Kristen Stahurski and Brian Prazzi are correctional officers in the state prison, and Debie O'hara works there as a social worker.

D: Kathy Gilchrist is a very busy psychologist who specializes in multiple personality disorders.

K: Didn't Rachel Drazdowski write a book about that

D: Well apparently she developed her thesis when she couldn't decide whether she was to be a doctor, a professional basketball player, or a dancer.

K: Oh, that's right and it got complicated when she had a different boyfriend for each personality.

D: In sports careers we've crossed some gender barriers; Chrissy Argott is a racecar driver.

K: Timmy Gaughan broadcasts football games and occasionally he covers Ben Thomas' games since he is a Dallas Cowboy . . . Cheerleader.

D: Brian Butts, Brian Williams and Jim McGrath ended up together again. Jimmy was a gym teacher, but now all three run indoor-outdoor camping instructional classes.

K: Oh, and what groups do they teach?

D: Mainly the Girl Scouts.

K: But Paul VanLuvender, the game commissioner, always arrests them for poaching game that is too young.

D: Who are we forgetting?

K: Didn't you say that you saw Todd Zaldonis when you were working at that hospital in Liverpool?

D: Yeah, he's one of the most promising writer's in Europe and in his spare time, he's a part of a Beatle's look-alike band.

K: Joyce Plisko brought cigarette advertising back to television, Kerri Onofrey follows Joyce around, as an environmental scientist, protesting everything Joyce does and cites her as one of the leading causes of pollution in the country.

D: What did Dan Lorenzini do with himself?

K: Oh, he became a famous actor, the most popular in all of Honduras.

D: Wow, I heard he has quite an entourage.

K: Yeah, for his hair he has Nicole Abbott, Jennifer Woolaver and Jennifer Christman.

D: That's a lot of people working on his hair

K: Well, it's for his role as a mexican punk rocker and since he wears his hair in a big spike, he has a hard time getting it up.

D: Did you ask what Michele Whymeyer was doing?

K: No, I couldn't.

D: Why not?

K: She didn't show up.

D: You know I asked Keith Davis what he was doing, but he ran away.

K: Well, that's O.K., someone told me he's working as a mathematician somewhere.

D: Where did Jamie Kowalcik end up?

K: I'm not sure, I couldn't hear him. I think he said something about the marines.

D: That's right, Ken Judge is also in the marines and he told me that Jamie is the drill instructor for one of the units.

K: Did you hear anything about Michele Dreistadt?

D: She and Jeff Salony have their own advertising agency and even though Dawn DelGuercio only runs the business portion of the company, she came up with a few hit slogans for them.

K: Like what?

D: Well, she did that famous one for "Dr. Ovi Schlangehofts Space Peanut Butter."

K: How did it go?

D: "Space Peanut Butter has just taken a 'quantum' leap in taste. The incredible spreadable spread that's not astronomical in 'price'."

K: April Sentivan opened her own business and Christine Janczak is her accountant. Jason Sopinski got even more tattooed when he opened his own shop. Karen Saranchuk runs a massage parlor and Lorie Smith opened a cooking school for those who weren't accepted to the Cordon Bleu.

D: Come to think of it, there were a lot of our old classmates that went into business for themselves. Barbi Deininger opened her coffee shop, Sherry Casale took over HOT 97, Michele Naughton owns her own jewelry design shop and Angela Schoonover started her own accounting firm.

K: Jason Jablonski had Heather Tucker as his attorney in his recent trial.

D: He's still up to the same ol' antics, I see.

K: No, I guess he lost his french fry company to Todd Bankowski in a big law suit.

D: Didn't Samantha Zigmont do the investigating on that case?

: Yeah, from what I hear she's working small cases for the F.B.I. until the year 2023, which is when the government releases the missing evidence for the J.F.K. assassination, then she plans to reopen that investigation.

: Eileen Preslock entered the government scene when she ran for Congress.

: Yeah, I was pretty surprised at that. It was a shame she lost though. She keeps saying that she would've won if she were a . . . nevermind.

: I hear Dawn Sadowski is moving her medical practice back into the area.

: Where is she coming from?

: The Virgin Islands.

: Some of our classmates have ended up working together in the medical field.

: Like Jessica Morgan is a Physical Therapist who just hired Nicole Sopinski as her assistant.

: And Lisa Wahlers is Abbey Armstrong's health assistant in her doctor's office which is located at Annapolis where Rear Admiral Jared Soul runs a tight ship.

: Erik Matticola is now a famous virologist.

: Oh yeah, I heard he invented something, what was it?

: It's great, it's called the Advanced Scanning Electron Ultra Microscopic Microscope for the Advancement of Virological Studies.

: Man, it was so much easier when he just called it his glasses.

: There were a lot of our old friends that entered different areas of medicine. Like Robyn Mishuk who is now a dental hygienist, and Joey Stearns is the local veterinarian.

: And Hilary Moore is working as a registered nurse in the E.R. and surprisingly, Heather Vesey's hair salon is right next door.

: Did you hear about Nikole Argonish?

: Well, I heard she's in marketing.

: Yeah, she markets geriatric products for "that special older person in your life."

: I didn't see Lisa Gleason here, did you?

: Who?

: You know, Lolita.

: Oh, that's because she's doing nothing but travel around the world for the past 20 years.

: Don't forget about Ed Phonechanh who is the new owner of a phone company. They made most of their money from those 1-900 numbers.

: There were a few other business people that came out of our class. For instance, Lori Russamano, Crystal Jenkins and Janelle Evans.

: Yeah and don't forget about Stacy Appnell and Amy Manley who started a business together.

: Oh, I almost forgot. You will never believe who is the new mayor of Old Forge.

: Who?

: Joy Tigue

: You're kidding.

: No, she's really doing a job down there. She even set up a toll booth, so now people have to pay to get in.

: I saw you talking to Bill Reap, what did he do with himself?

: Well, he moved out of his house, got a job at Suckle Corp., studied to become a local cop, and then moved to Tennessee to become a sheriff's deputy.

: Dan Kimes also landed a job in the law enforcement field.

: Oh yeah?

: I believe he was being honored at the annual State Police convention held recently.

: And Lisa Mynyk just received a pay raise at her elementary school.

: Wow, She and Dan must really be enjoying their 15th wedding anniversary.

: I imagine so.

: Did you know Jim Cimasky sells discount snow blowers now?

: Yeah, and Dave Boyle, Jim Taft, and Joe Liccadone all work on construction.

: What's Jackie Singleton up to?

: She left radiology to pursue working with and educating handicapped children.

: Oh, that's noble. What children?

: Jerry's kids.

: Pete Symuleski is now a film maker who's exploring a new combination of film styles. He's incorporated Avant Garde, Film Noir, westerns, and an old tape of Wrestiemanla 3. And of course Sean McGinnis and Tom Farrell just complain about them in their computer magazine articles.

: And Lenny Webb took over Joey Stiles job as announcer at ECW.

: Oh yeah, and before I asked Kevin Uher what he was doing, but he was too sick to talk so he wrote it on a piece of paper. Let see . . . hh I can't read what it says . . . Hey look there he is, let me ask him. Kev what does this say?

EVIN: (ROCK!!!)

: Also, I was talking to Dennis Trutwin and he's stationed in an Army base in Germany and while he's away Bryan Pica manages his business. Who else did you see?

: Amber Thiel opened up a tanning salon and hair color shop called "The Dyes the Limit."

: And I think Crissy Kilonsky works along with her there also.

: What's Pam Heckman been doing?

: Crying.

: No, no, no. I mean for the past 20 yrs.

: So did I. I think she said between sobs she's a lawyer.

: Oh, who did we forget. Ummm, oh, Rob Bennie, What's he up to?

: A 72, he might pass this year.

: Uh-oh. There goes my pager. It must be important. I gotta go.

: Alright, see ya.
