What a memorable season our proud Vikings had this year! Coached by Mr. Steve Armillay, the triumphant Riverside Viking Football team covered a lot of ground and proved that they were a team to be reckoned with. Led by senior captains Stanley Lewandowski, Kevin Schultz and Joe Connolly, the Vikings completed their season with an impressive 6-7 record. The Vikings reached the Eastern Conference Championship game before losing to a vengeful GAR team in an exciting 19-22 contest.

Awards given to the senior football players for their accomplishments are as follows: Offensive Player of the Year, Stan Lewandowski; Defensive Back, Kevin Schultz; Offensive Back, Bill Posdon; Headhunter Award, Paul Chilek; Academic Award (Gillespie Award), Clayton Drumheller; William Gibbons Award, Joe Connolly. Coach Armillay feels that the seniors pointed the Vikings in the right direction, and any success the team has next year will be directly proportional to the work they did for the team.

GIRLS' TENNIS

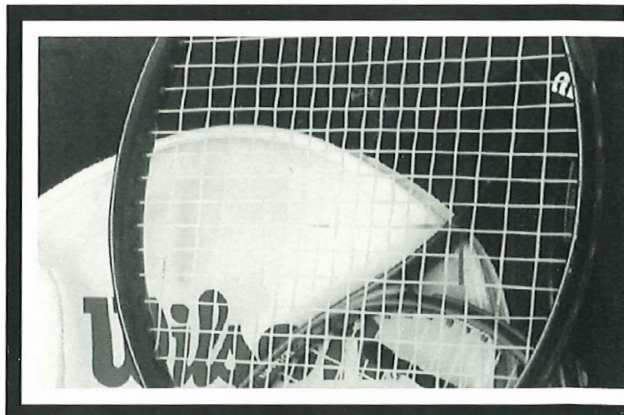

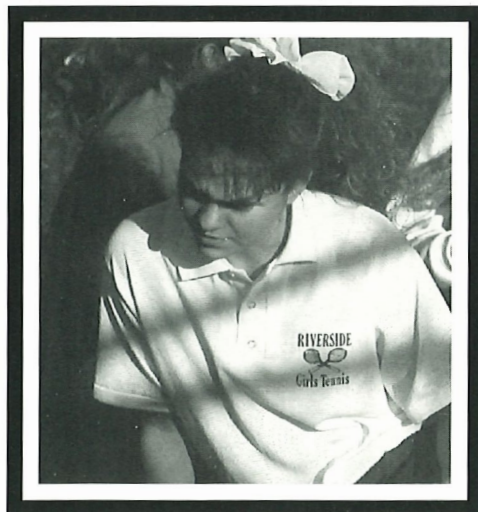

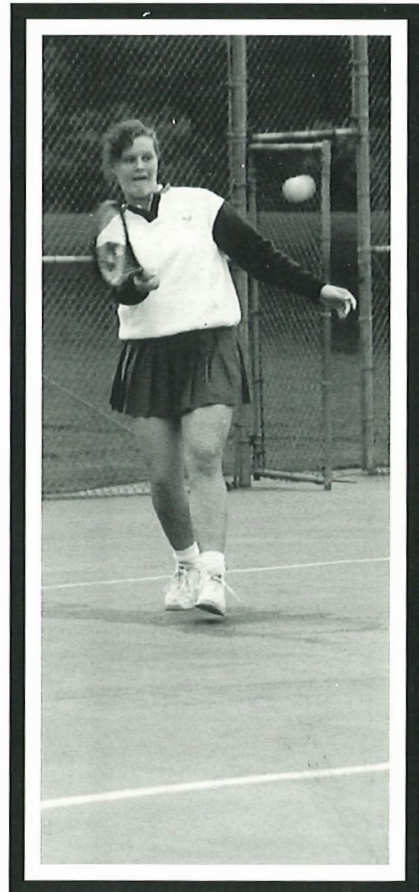

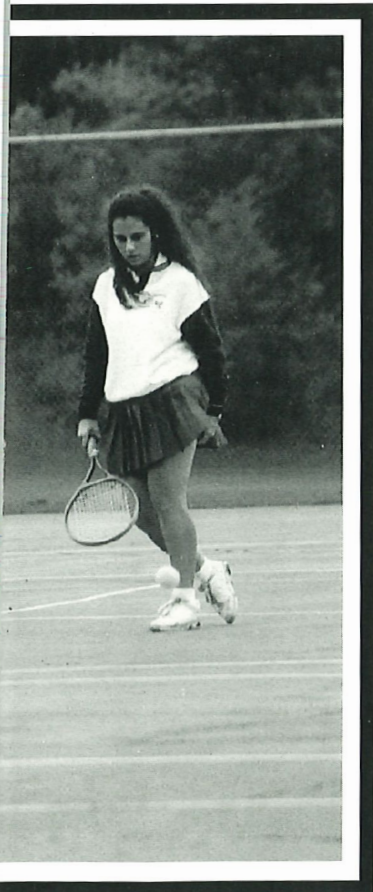

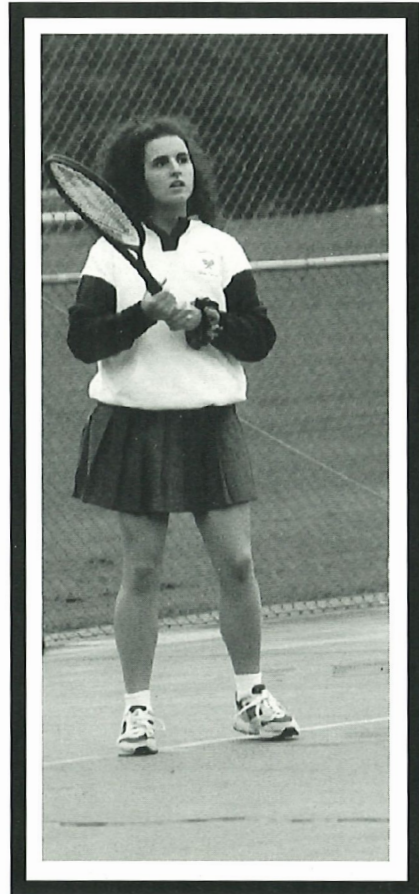

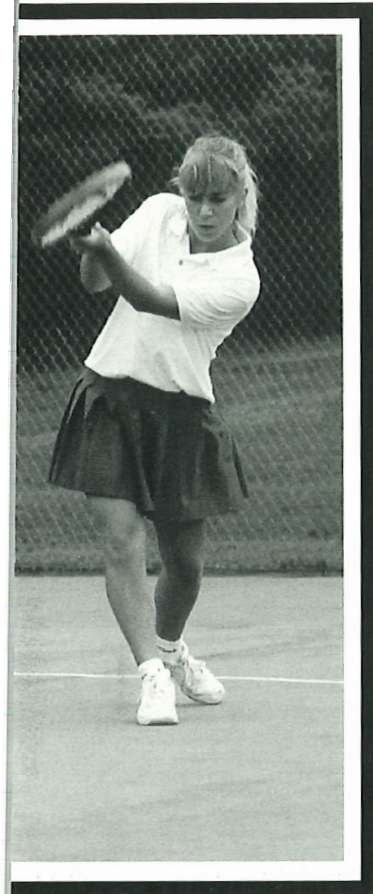

CAPTAINS

KRYSTAL KERRIGAN AND KATIE COPELAND

Led by senior captains Krystal Kerrigan and Katie Copeland, the Girls' Tennis Team posted a 5-3 record. The other senior members were Christy Bisignani and Chrissy V. Sberger. For their many contributions to the team, Krystal Kerrigan and Katie Copeland both received the Outstanding Tennis Player Award. The team is looking forward to a bright future for many seasons. These reasons include sophomores Stacey Apple and Samantha Zigmont, both contributed greatly to the success of this year's team.

"Disney" was the theme for this year's homecoming. The week was full of various events such as hall decorating and dress up days. Black and White Day began the week, and Sports Day followed. Wednesday was Disney Day and on Thursday the seniors wore their hats and sunglasses. Friday was the official Red and Blue Day. At the pep rally, Stan Lewandowski was named Homecoming King, while Farrah Pappa and Joe Connolly received the coveted "pie in the face" at the hands of Mr. Voytko and Miss Mischianti. The Homecoming Dance was held on Saturday and was highlighted by the crowning of the 1993-94 Homecoming Queen, Chrissy Wolfsberger.

The Science Club's mission is to provide students with an academic and social outlet through which to channel their interest in science. Many former club members have left Riverside to pursue undergraduate and advanced degrees in the sciences with others enhancing their lives by the experiences gained through active membership in the organization. The main event of this year's Science Club was the annual Science Fair held in the gym on May 19. Once again The Fair was a huge success. Also this year, the club sent five students to the Junior Academy of Science where they received the Peter Mensky Award for having the greatest number of first place finishers among all competitors. Two of the students who attended were seniors Brian Edsell and Jeff Thomas. The club is advised by Mr. Lou Petinato.

The Art Club maintained an active schedule this year with its many activities. The club continued in its annual window decorating activity, painting the cafeteria windows with festive holiday scenes during the Christmas season. Also, several members attended Keystone Jr. College during the spring for various art courses, while other members continued to add murals to the walls of Riverside. The highlight of the year was the combined Mass Media/Art Club trip to New York which everyone enjoyed. Mr. John Kosek is the advisor to the Art Club.

Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) is the organization which tries to increase student awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving. Each year the club sponsors different activities to demonstrate those dangers. This year SADD sponsored a mock D.U.I. accident in the school parking lot in a joint effort with local police and fire/rescue organizations. The activity sent home the very real message that alcohol and gasoline is a deadly mixture. Advisor to SADD is Miss Susan Ludwikowski.

MRS. SHIRLEY GOUL

The Class of 1994 extends congratulations and best wishes to Mrs. Shirley Goul on the occasion of her retirement. Mrs. Goul served Riverside for the past 11 years as secretary to the principal. Prior to that, she was secretary to the vice principal, a post she held for eleven years. Her combined 22 years of service were marked by a friendly smile and warm greeting for all who entered the "office." She made us feel at ease even when our presence there was not exactly social. We hope that her years ahead are happy and fulfilling ones and that she remembers Riverside as fondly as Riverside will surely remember her.

RIVERSIDE MARCHING BAND

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

May I have your attention please? Here are the announcements for Wednesday June 15, 1994. Class Day ceremonies will be held this afternoon in the auditorium. And now for a very, very, Special announcement.

"We are graduating in 2 days!!!"

Oh! Where has the year gone? Somehow yesterday was September and today is June. Our senior year magically flew by. Everyone had so many activities all year long that no one ever had a chance to stop and look back. Wait, I'm not complaining that I want a second chance or anything. I definitely don't feel that starting all over again is completely necessary. None of us realized as the year was progressing what we were leaving behind at Riverside; only the best days of our lives.

Back in September when school started; we were excited by the mere fact, we were Seniors. We had reached the top. No one was older than us and we were in charge. Many of us went a little overboard with our new senior status." We acquired quite the attitude making us a little difficult to get along with. Usually, most of the teachers are prepared for seniors and their larger than life heads. They often overlook our "expected" senior attitude and realize this attitude comes with the territory. Anyway, this was the year we could get away with being superior and all knowing because next year many of us will be demoted to the pitiful ranks of freshman. I know I personally shall be in shock the first few weeks of college. I also think some of us will eventually realize we were not as smart and invincible as we were prone to think.

While grasping the idea that yes, we are actually seniors; many of the fall festivities were going on. We had football games, pep rallies, and homecoming to name a few. All we have left of these activities are a few photos and a lot of memories. Too soon we moved from fall to winter which brought our many snowfalls. We forfeited many days to the snow. Everyday we had to turn on the TV to find out if there was going to be school or maybe a snow day. This resulted in less time together as a class. As '93 turned to '94, we associated that number as "our" senior year. This was the year we graduate. After chanting this year after year in pep rallies; it seemed like 1994 would never arrive. But 1994 did arrive and right on schedule. Everyone was still busy with their various activities. Basketball season turned into Baseball and Track seasons without anyone noticing. Then we were going to find Prom dates and now we're practicing for that final walk on stage.

Well, this year went by in the blink of an eye or at least that's what it seems. Now with only a few days left, I'm trying to cherish each and every moment. I'm trying to look at every member of my class and memorize the special qualities in each of them. The Class of '94's days here are numbered. I want to remember each one. I want to remember Riverside as somewhere I know I belong and somewhere I know I will always belong, at least in my heart. This school is a very special place. I don't think you could find a duplicate anywhere. Where else do you vacuum the halls while you're in class? Here the students feel like family and the faculty treats you as one of their own. I only hope I might be lucky enough to find another place like Riverside. But you know what? I seriously doubt I ever will. Finally, as each of us take that final walk across the stage to receive our diplomas, remember that we will all be separated next year. Remember all the good times we had together here and as you remember, think of me and DRY YOUR EYE; as will I.

To the Class of 1994.

Goodbye.

KRISTIN BELASKI

CLASS HISTORY

Scene: The year is 2003. This is Lisa's fourth year as a registered nurse at the Moses Taylor Hospital. This is Ryan's first year as a practicing lawyer in Scranton. Ryan recently suffered from a heart attack due to stress.

Setting: Lisa enters the room with Ryan in a wheelchair, she is taking him to daily therapy. She looks at the medical chart then helps him to a walker.

L: Good morning, Ryan, how are you feeling today?

R: Fine, thanks. You're such a helpful nurse. What's your name?

L: Lisa

R: Lisa Kraycar?

L: Oh my goodness! It's you Cabootie, we went to Riverside together. Speaking of Riverside, Ed Jezorwski is still in the hospital with the chickenpox. He's been here ever since he missed the Senior Prom.

R: Remember before the Prom how Mr. Kryzanowski planned a mock accident in our school parking lot to stress the dangers of drinking and driving.

L: Yeah! Lesya Popil, Jeff Thomas, Ryan Cooper and Ed Jezorwski were the senior actors in the accident.

R: Do you think they got the message across?

L: I'm not sure but I heard Joe Colarusso ask "Where's the Party???"

R: A lot of people did realize the significance of the demonstration. We had no major problems.

L: Our class broke tradition and had a D.J. at the prom.

R: It didn't matter to Nick Mynyk though.

L: He turned into John Travolta and showed everyone his footwork.

R: Footwork! How about when Mindy Lewis tripped over her feet and fell down a mud embankment completely ruining her white pants.

L: They looked more like a pair of Todd Morgan's black jeans.

R: He really did love his black jeans since he wore them all the time.

L: And all the time we knew Valerie Getts had been showing off her big toe.

R: Would you believe that it was 10 times bigger than her other toes?

L: Speaking of feet, how about Chris Pica and his sneakers?

R: They were a blinding yellow color!

L: Stan Lewandowski was surely breathtaking in his itty, bitsy, teeny, weeny, yellow, polka dot bikini.

R: Many of our German students packed up their bikinis to go to Hawaii.

L: Since they couldn't get enough people to go to Germany, they convinced everyone that the official language of Hawaii is German.

R: German class was a blast.

L: Especially when Amber Smerdon played that job Mr. Hordich.

R: Not even a chemical reaction could turn Hordich's face so red.

L: Red was the color of the flames at the Science when Brain Duffy and Dave Fedor set it on fire!

R: Or when our National Honor Society's Induction Ceremony went up in flames.

L: Were the flames ever put out between Mark Becker and Laura D'Angelo?

R: Or was it Mark Becker and Kerri Layland?

L: Kerri Layland, no that was Kerry Niemic.

R: Wrong again, Kerry Niemic was going out with Thomas.

L: That was Mindy Lewis.

R & L: At least that's what Jeff told us.

L: Larry McGurgan and Krystal Kerrigan didn't last ever like we thought.

R: Jim Connor and Chrissy Wolfsberger were the perfect couple.

L: Patty Daniels and Paul Stephens got class couple.

R: That's all the romances.

L: No wait! How about Mike McKeefery and every grade girl in the school?

R: Mike McKeefery? Wasn't he that shy kid who trouble talking to everyone?

L: Especially when he had to apologize to Mr. Migal.

R: Mr. Migal was cool. Remember how he encouraged senioritis?

L: "So when can we schedule a test to accommodate your busy lives?"

R: How about all those busy nerds in Ms. Mis's ever Advanced Placement English class?

L: Everyone back then wore Co-ed naked T-shirts in AP they wore ones that read "Coed InDishabile Get Advanced in Your Placement."

R: Those Coed Naked Shirts did cause some controversy.

L: Mr. MacArt was definitely not a fan of them.

R: Remember how surprised the teachers were at for wearing a Coed Naked Nursing Shirt?

L: They probably never expected it from me.

R: I guess no one ever expected Missy Sopp to go to Lycoming College.

L: She must have been following in Joey DeSimone's footsteps.

R: Unlike Missy our track team followed no one to the finish line.

L: They finished up one of their best seasons.

R: The girls also had a great year in softball.

L: Sue Bisignani should have won an award for sses were cancelled.

Did you know that because your anatomy class sn't motivated enough, Mr. Knecht saw to it that the ss was cancelled for the following year.
Rob Evans cancelled many of his classes by having Moosic Hose Co. call him on his beeper, which stantly went off in class.
How Convenient!!

L: Larry Lewis tried to get Charity Cohowicz out of class once.
R: By slam dunking her into a garbage can.
L: Out of a garbage can Michele Budziak picked up a brownie.
R: And devoured it.
L: Where those really peanuts on top of the brownie?
R: Did Lesya cook those brownies?
L: She must have. She won the "Betty Crocker Award" in home ec.
R: But Kerri Best really impressed us with her cooking ability.
L: She was always baking goodies for Nick Mynyk.
R: Larry McGurgan sure didn't deserve an award in home ec.
L: Mrs. Johnson should have failed him for sewing his fingers together.
R: It's amazing Laura Ducceschi didn't fail geography.
She has no sense of direction.
L: She even asked us directions to the Taylor Elementary School which you could see from every room in the high school.
R: Expressing morals was elementary to Kara Kneiss.
R: Heidi Kelly definitely acted out of frustration in that Bishop Hannon game.
L: She didn't realize that basketball wasn't a full contact sport, when she almost broke her opponent's leg.
R: Clayton Drumheller broke his leg in the last game of the baseball season.
L: The winter season really confused us.
R: We actually skipped the wrong day, for Senior skip day.
L: Finally graduation was upon us.
R: Then we were stuck writing that stupid class history.
L: And stuck singing that idiotic song "Hero" by Maria Carey.
R: How did they expect us to hit those high notes?
L: Well Ryan we better end on that note so that you're not late for therapy.
R: I'm not late yet.
L: Well, your doctor isn't the most patient in the world.
R: Wait, who's my doctor?
L: It's Dr. Occhipinti.
R: Oh No!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

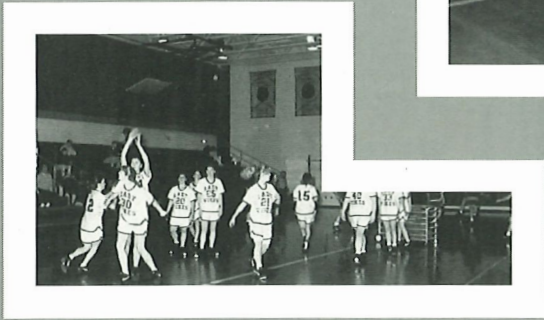

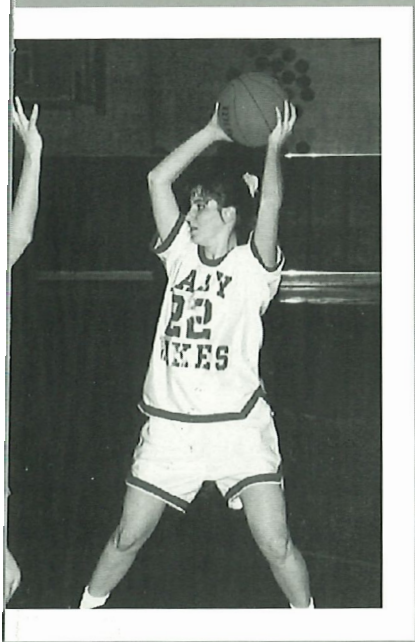

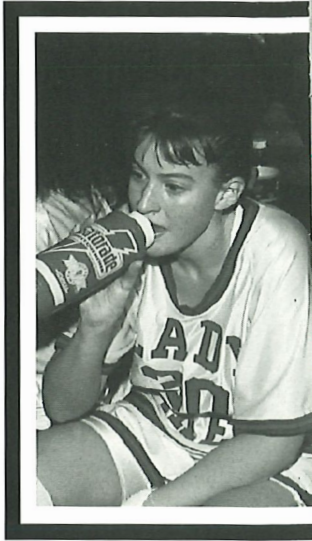

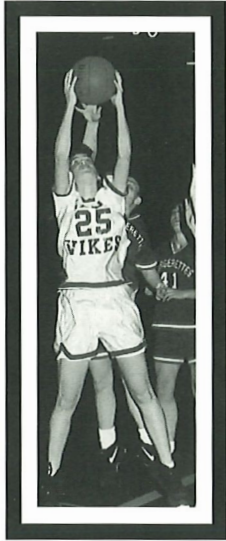

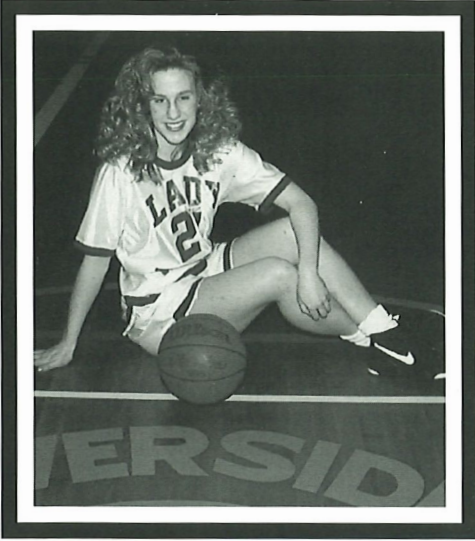

The Girls' Basketball Team compiled a record of 3 wins against 11 losses, but in no way could any of their faithful label them "losers." The Lady Vikes proved themselves to be scrappy opponents in all of their contests, many of which were decided by margins of fewer than five points. Win or lose, we celebrate their spirit and sportsmanship and look to the future where this year's lessons will transform to next year's victories.

The captains of the 1993-94 Lady Vikes were seniors Missy DeAngelo, Nicole Flaherty, Sara Jones, and Heidi Kelley. At the end of the season, Nicole Flaherty received the Outstanding Defensive Player Award and Sara Jones received the Outstanding Offensive Player Award. Also, Sara Jones was honored by being named to the First Team Northern Division All Scholastic All Star Team. The team is coached by Miss Debi Kapelan and Miss Denise Hart.

The Student Council once again experienced a highly successful year, meeting or exceeding all of their goal and expectations. With Miss Susan Ludwikowski as their advisor, the Student Council led and participated in various activities for the benefit of all students at Riverside. Beginning the year, the Student Council sponsored spirit week and the homecoming dance. They were responsible for the beautiful Christmas tree that stood in the commons area during the Christmas season, as they were for the generous donations of candy for each student. The Student Council held their annual lollipop and flower sale for Valentine's Day. However, the most significant contribution was their extraordinary effort put into the annual blood drive held in the spring. The Student Council once again proved its value to the Riverside community as one of its premier organizations.

This year the Astronomy Club achieved much more than they ever dreamed possible. As a dedicated group of students advised by Mr. Kosek, the Astronomy club was involved in numerous activities. As always, students and public alike enjoyed the convenient availability of the famous observatory adjacent to the high school. Special events such as the Astronomy Film Festival made normal school days interesting with "heavenly" videos shown on a weekly basis.

The annual trip to the West Side Intermediate Planetarium was on March 3, but all agree that the highlight of the year was the trip to the Rochester Science Museum and Grassenberg Planetarium on May 10. On that exciting trip, an annular eclipse was visible. This rare event enabled club members to see a thin ring on the surface of the sun. All Astronomy Club members agreed that this year's activities were among the most stimulating the club has offered.

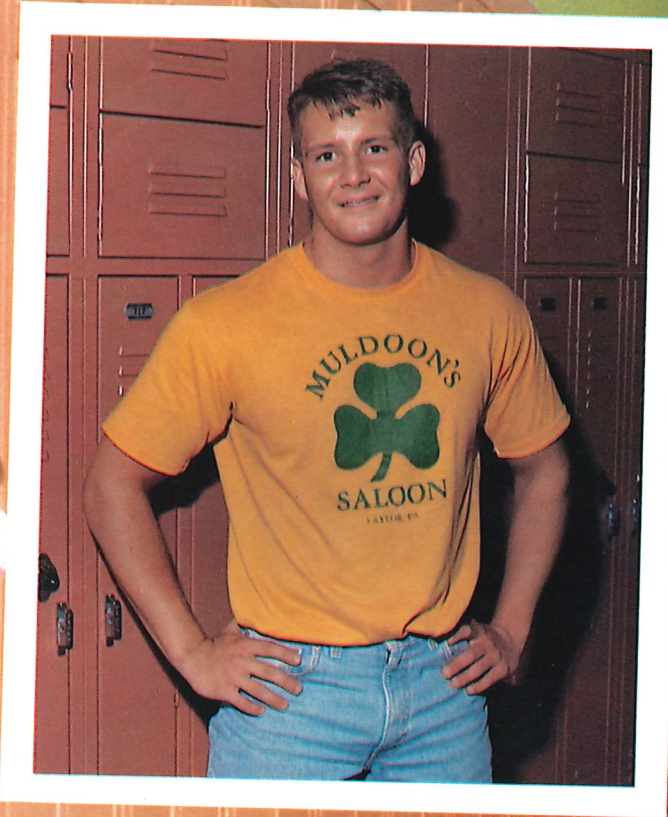

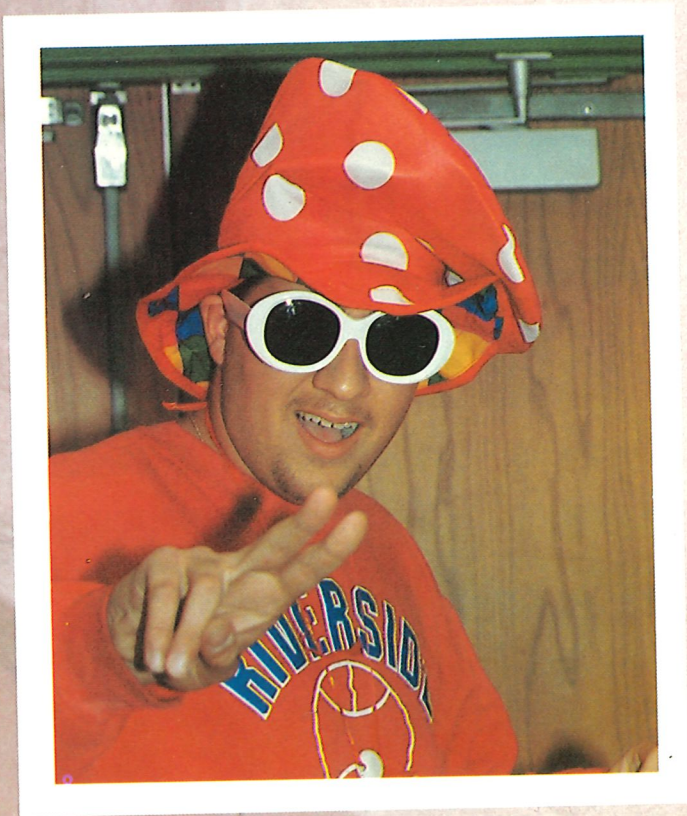

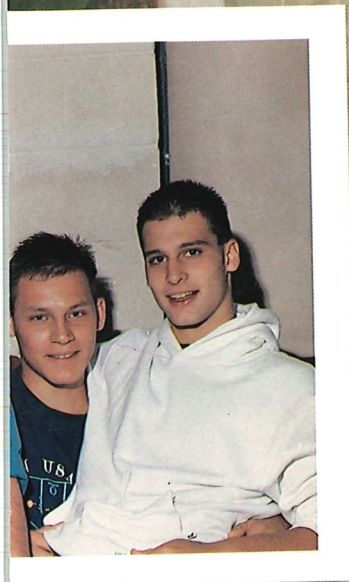

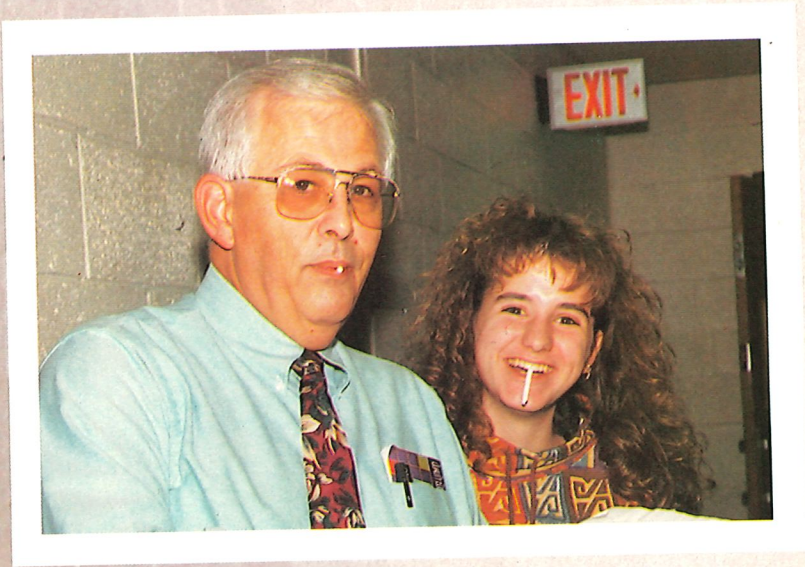

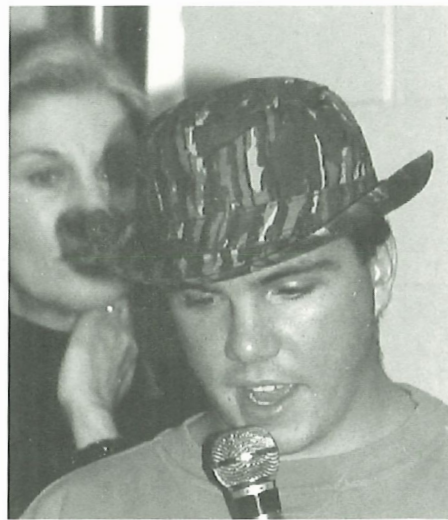

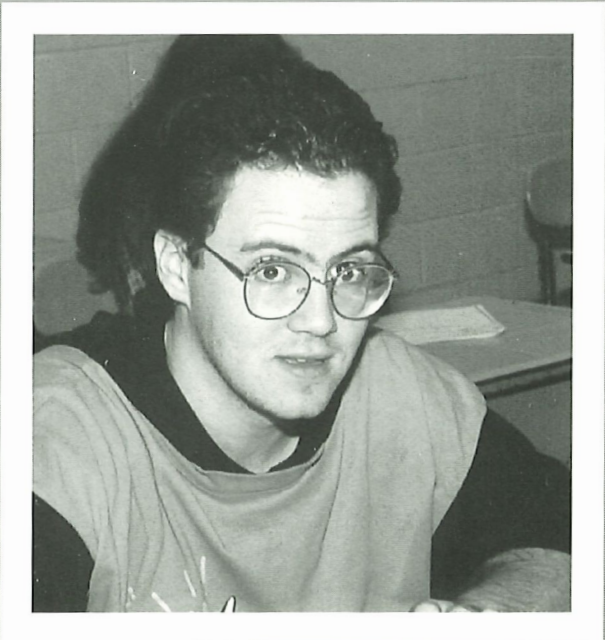

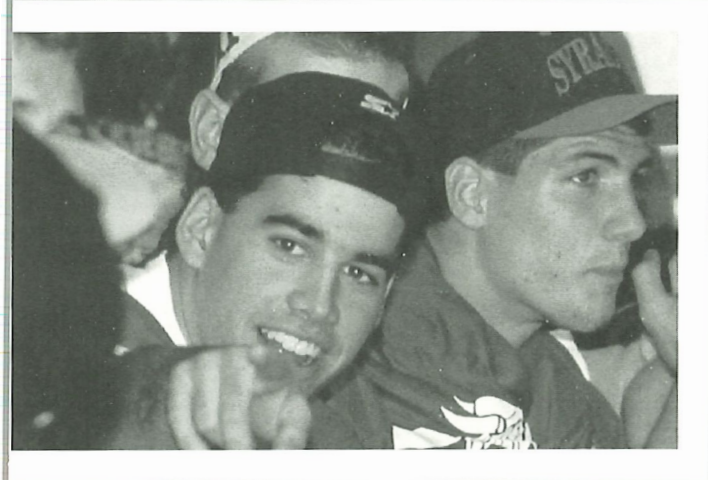

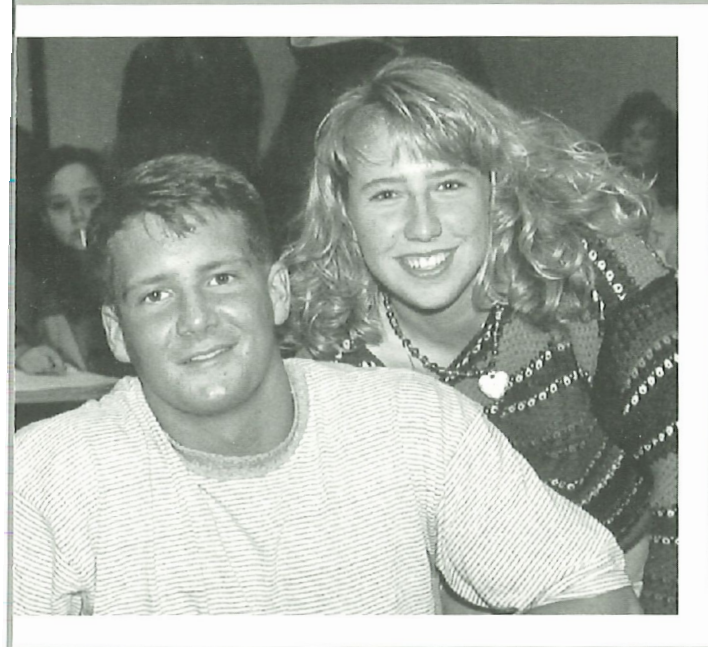

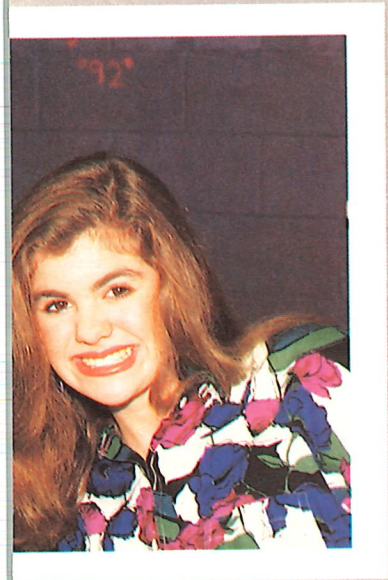

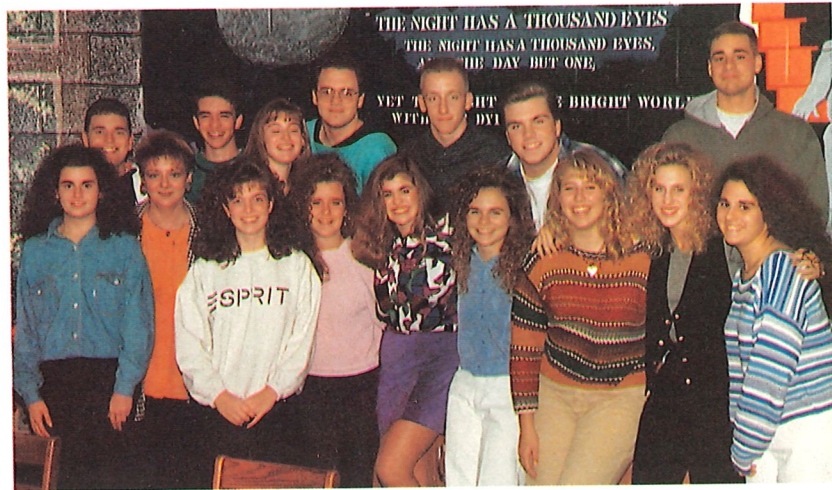

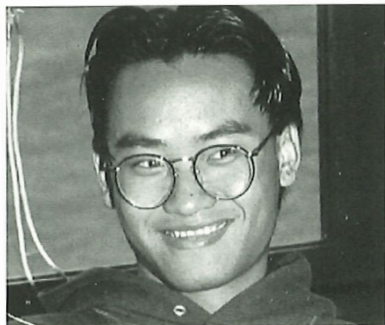

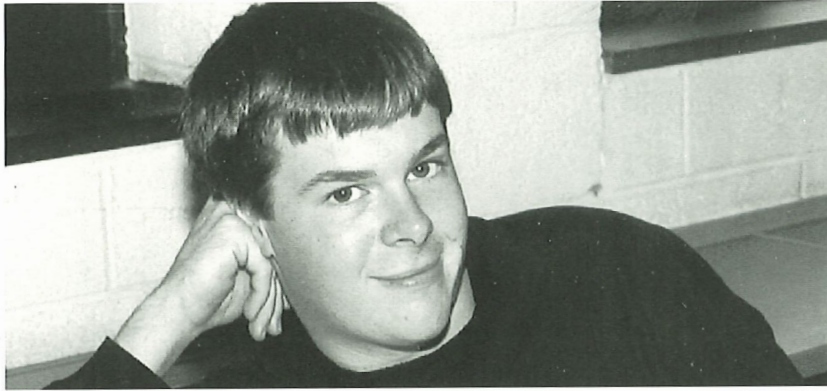

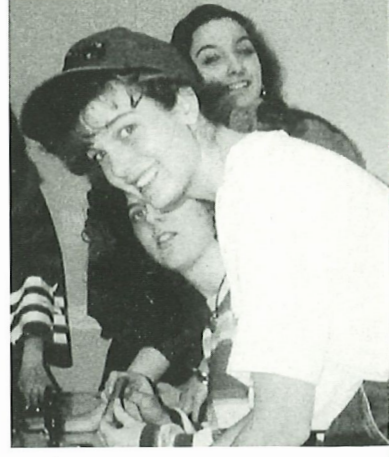

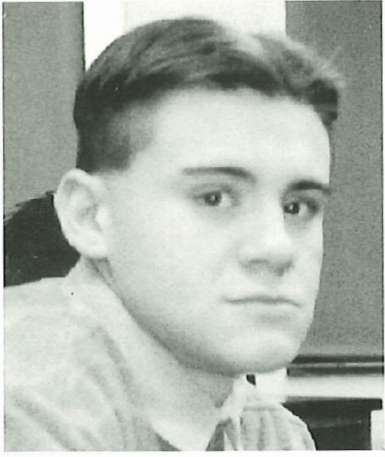

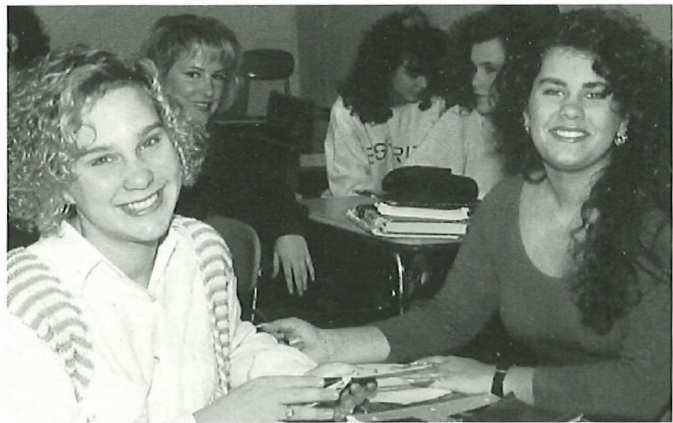

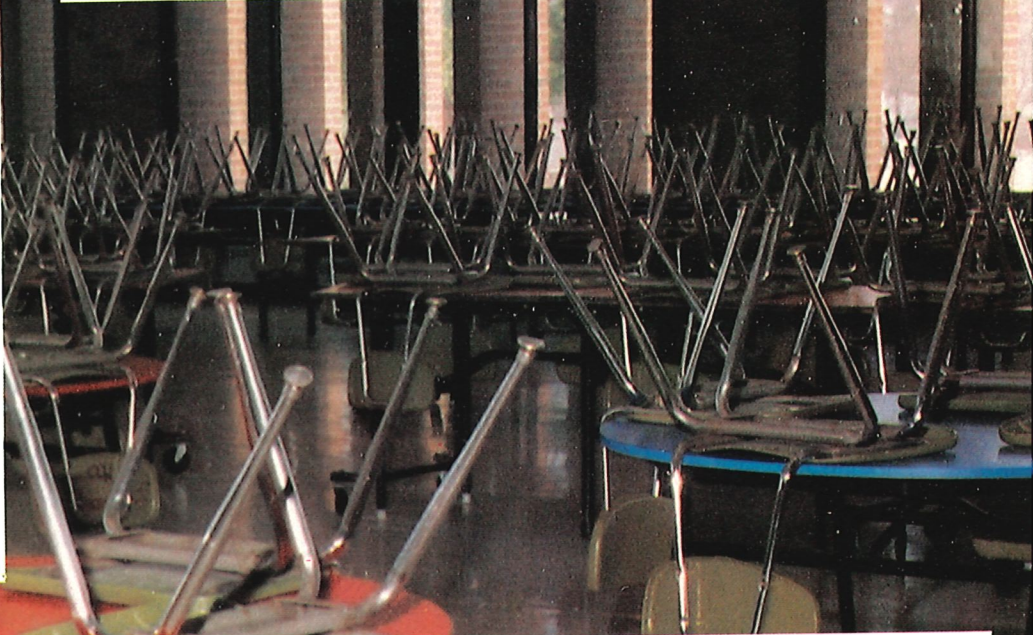

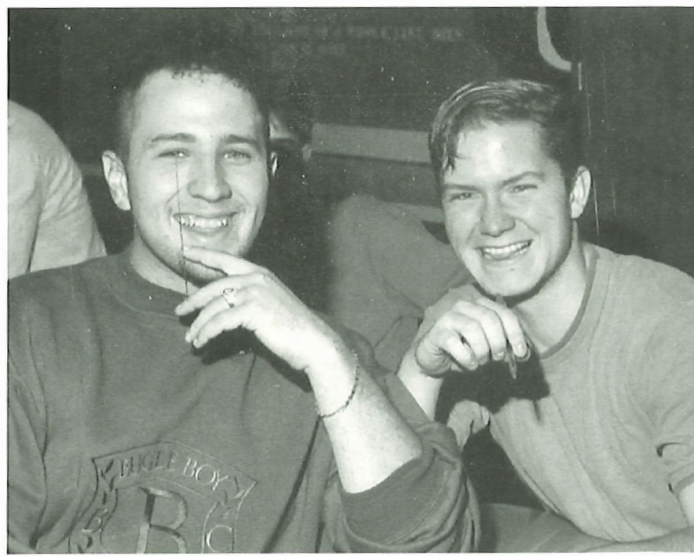

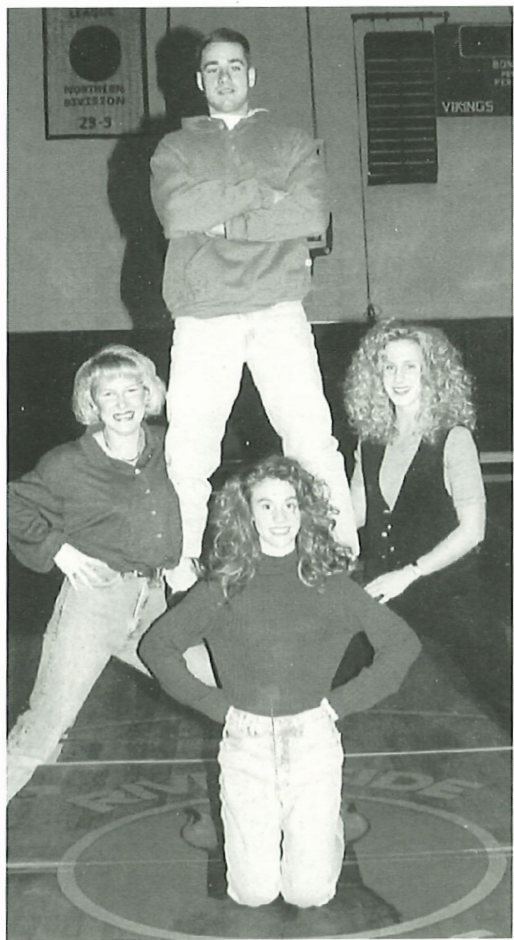

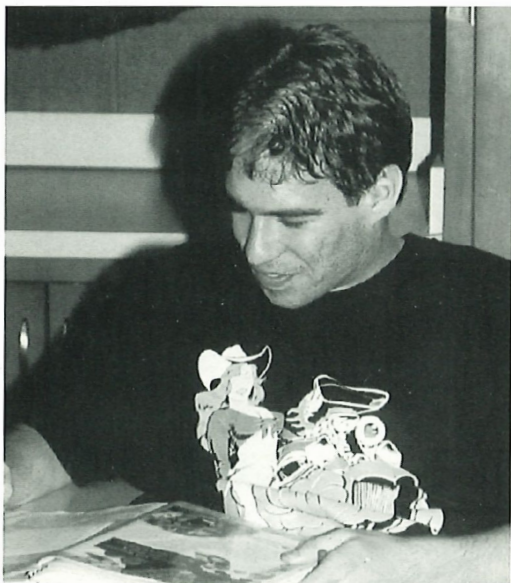

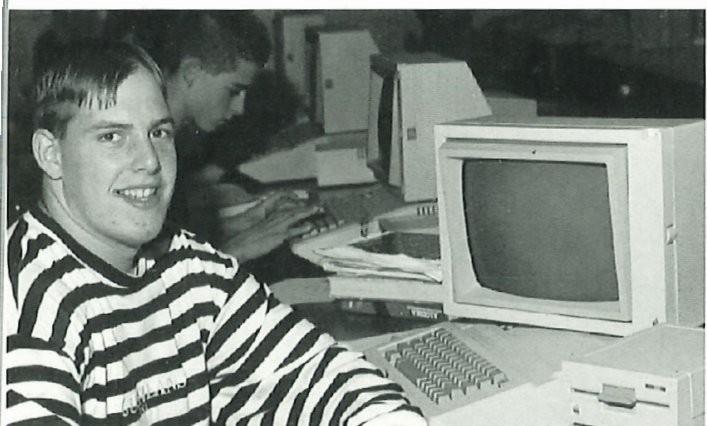

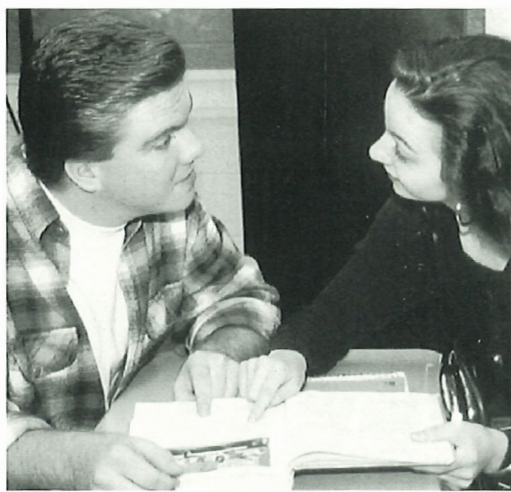

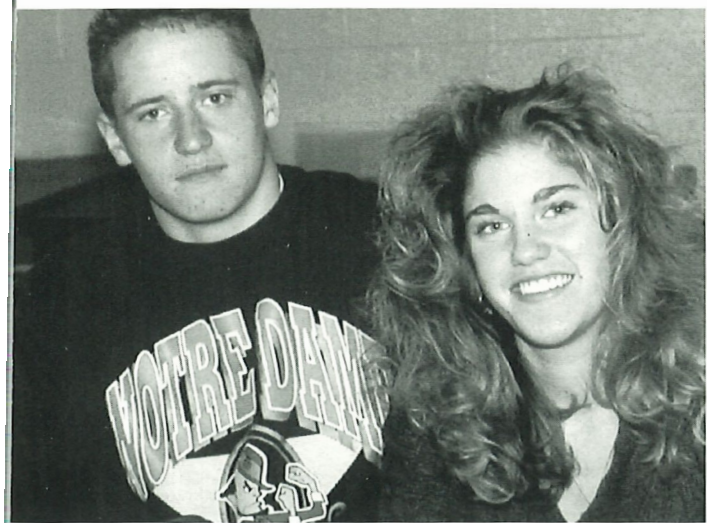

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

The Riverside Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony on March 23 in the auditorium. Former graduate and Marywood College scholar/athlete Miss Tracie Rieder delivered a speech on "No Intimidation," while Jeff Thomas, Samantha Zigmont, and Pam Heckman each sang musical selections. Nicholas Mynyk provided musical accompaniment.

During the service Chrissy Wolfsberger, Sue Bisignani, Valerie Getts, Sara Jones, and Tiana Valencia gave speeches for History, Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service respectively. By the end of the night, twenty-four new members were inducted along with six new officers. The advisor to the National Honor Society is Mrs. Paula Bartkovsky.

The Viking Yearbook Staff is an organization comprised of seniors who diligently work year long to produce the official annual publication of Riverside Junior-Senior High School. The objective of the staff is to objectively chronicle the events of the senior year from the first kick-off of the football season to the last tear of graduation.

Each year the Yearbook Staff conducts numerous fundraisers to help reduce/defray the ever-spiraling costs inherent in producing a quality yearbook. This year the staff sponsored its annual dance as well as the traditional patron drives. The combined efforts of a small but doggedly dedicated staff and an advisor who took time from his sabbatical leave to lead that staff enabled this yearbook to be successfully completed. The Yearbook Staff is proud of its achievement and wishes that you enjoy your yearbook as much as we did in producing it.

KEVIN MILEWSKI AND KEVIN RIPKA

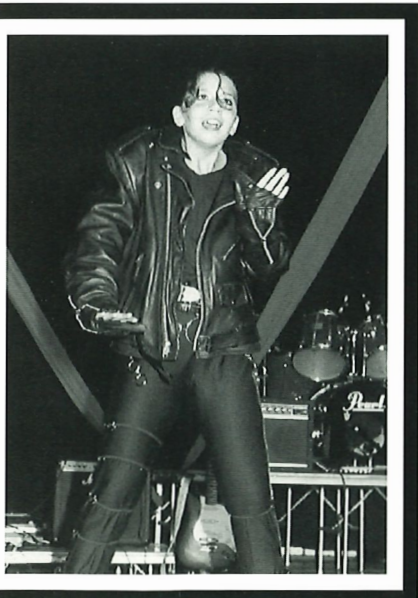

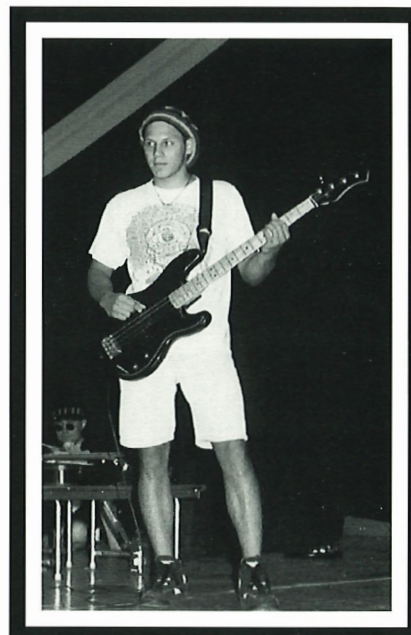

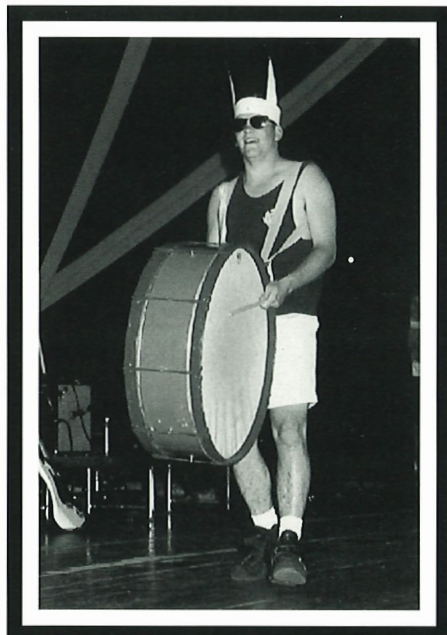

LAST DANCE

"Last Dance" was the theme for this year's annual unit show which was held on February 19 in the high school auditorium. Choreographed by our 1994 Miss Viking Valerie Getts and several of the squad captains, the show featured a wide variety of dances ranging from modern to classic. This was the first year the unit show featured a special tap dance and a ballet dance on pointe. Several dances performed this year were a modern ballet dance performed by Valerie Getts, an Egyptian ballet performed by Farrah Pappa, and energetic jazz dances performed by Mindy Lewis, Laura Ducceschi and Chrissy Allen, and Nicole Flaherty and Nicole Hannon. Probably the most memorable moment in the show was the senior dance with its fitting title "Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now."

ON WITH THE SHOW

The talent show was held on April 29 in the auditorium, and anyone who attended soon realized just how much talent our school has! Students showed their creative abilities in many areas such as dance, singing, and comedy. Some of the acts that night included: Nick Mynyk playing a piano selection; an interpretive dance to "Good Night Saigon"; an unforgettable "Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka Dot Bikini" performed by Stan Levandowski. The evening was fun filled and ended all-too-soon, but the memories of the performances — some outrageous, others thought provoking — will forever linger.

HELLO DOLLY

The Drama Club's performance "Hello Dolly" was held on April 9 and 10 in the high school auditorium. The part of Dolly was performed by Lesya Popil with the part of Horace Vandergelder portrayed by Brian Edsell. Other main parts included Michele Budziak playing Minnie Fay, Kevin Ripka playing Barnaby Tucker, and Kristin Belaski playing Ernestina Money. The play was directed by Mrs. Carol Hapstak.

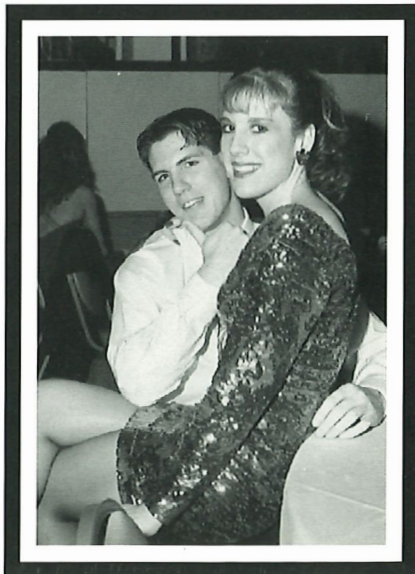

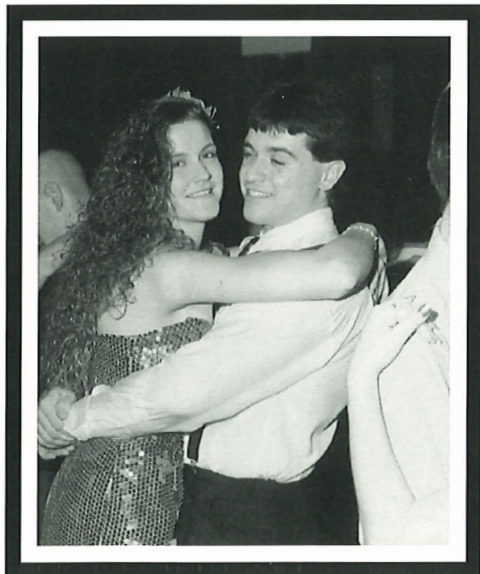

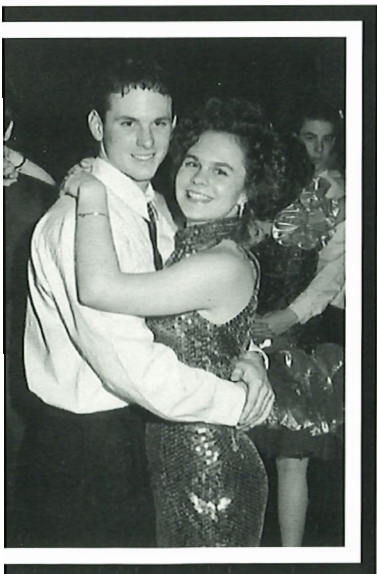

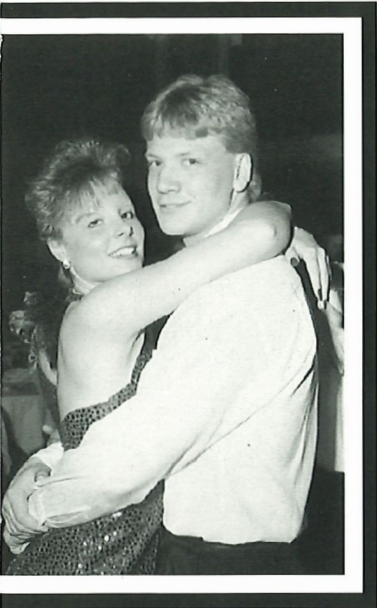

PASSING OF THE SWORD

The annual "Passing of the Sword" semi-formal was held at the Via Appia in Taylor on March 19. As usual, the evening was enhanced by a delicious dinner and a wide variety of music. Excitement tended to build, however, until it was time for the main event of the evening. Everyone listened in silent anticipation while the 1993-94 unit leaders passed their positions to the upcoming leaders for the 1994-95 school year. PomPon co-captains honors were awarded to Jessica Boyko and Jonelle Golden; Jaclyn Malinowski received Feature PomPon designation; Karen Coolbaugh and Dana Koval were named Varsity co-captains; Megan Merri-ck was elevated to Feature Dancer. The moment everyone awaited was the naming of the new Miss Viking. That title and honor was bestowed upon Kim Rinaldi, who will lead the band and units when they "take the field" for the 1994-95 school year.

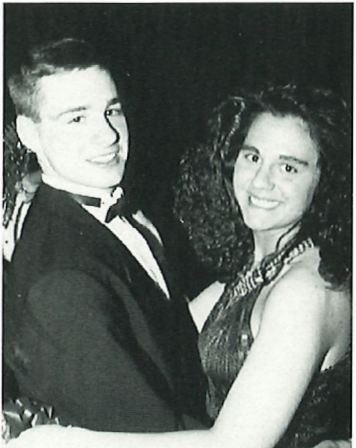

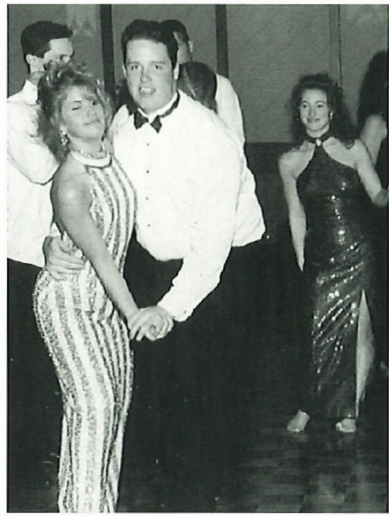

ALMOST PARADISE

"Almost Paradise" was the fitting theme of this year's prom which was held at St. Mary's Center in Scranton on Friday, May 13. For the juniors and seniors who attended, the prom provided one of their last opportunities to enjoy a social outing together as Riverside students. The music was provided by "Damien." The highlight of the evening was when Nicole Flaherty was crowned Prom Queen and Stan Lewandowski was crowned Prom King. The senior attendants were Nicole Hannon and Katie Copeland. The junior attendants were Dana Koval, Judi Talerico, Rene Lukasiewicz, and Jessica Boyko. Without exception, May 13, 1994 was Paradise.

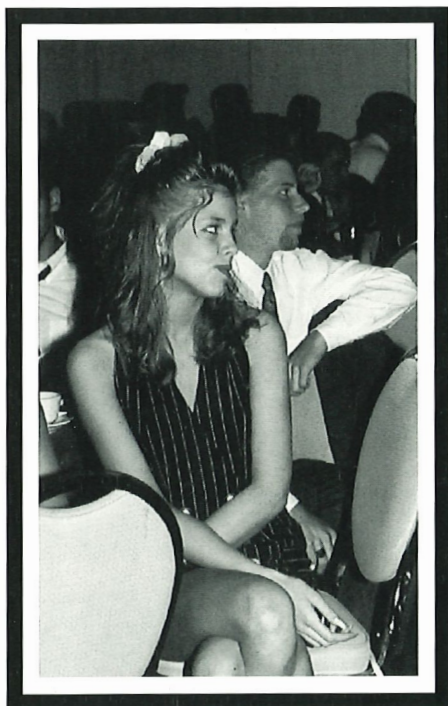

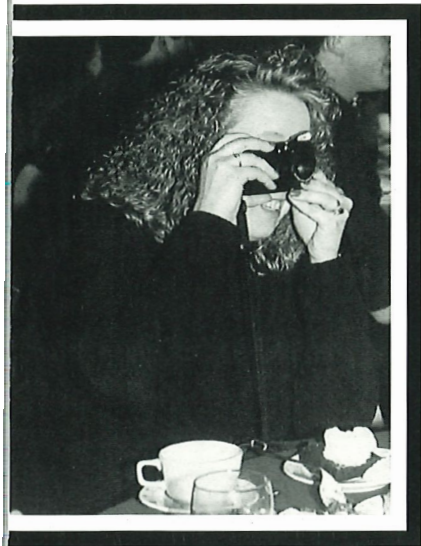

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night was held on May 28 at Genetti's Manor in Dickson City. After dinner, the Class Prophecy was read by Sue Bisignani and Ed Jezorwski. Also the traditional senior awards, such as Most Popular and Most Likely to Succeed, were given out. To end the evening, the Mass Media class gave an original slide show presentation. Many emotions were stirred as seniors realized that the year was almost completed. Everyone agreed that it was definitely a night to remember.

CLASS DAY

Honored seniors gathered for the annual Class Day ceremonies in the high school auditorium on June 15. During the program, Kristin Belaski delivered the Salute to Riverside, Lisa Kraycar and Ryan Caboot presented the Class History, and Nicole Flaherty and Kim Wincovitch offered the Class Will.

Mr. William Kasulis presented the Gertrude Francis Award to Sara Jones, the Kleback-Procik Award to Katie Copeland and Valerie Getts, the Louis Serafini Award to Chrissy Wolfsberger, and the Chuck Sigman Memorial Award to Katie Copeland.

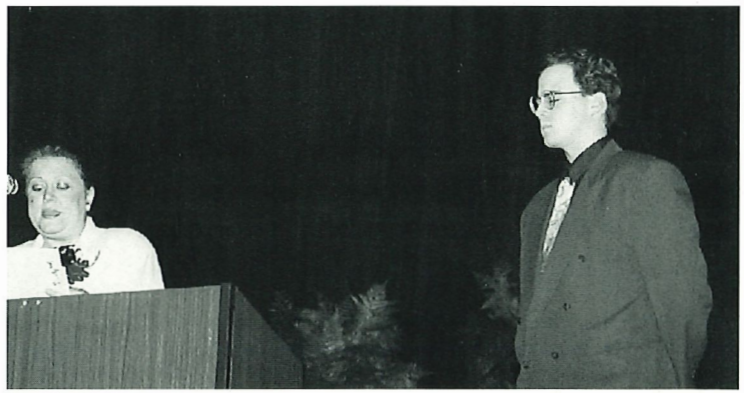

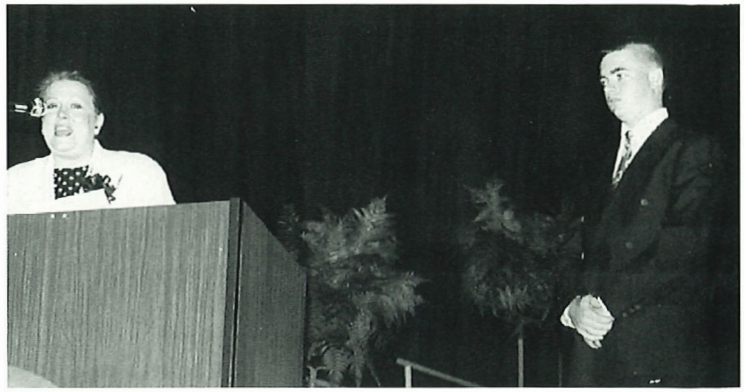

Mrs. Donna Lisowski continued the presentation by awarding sixteen seniors the Presidential Academic Fitness Awards. Lisa Kraycar and Ryan Caboot gained recognition for receiving the Riviello Memorial Scholarships. Valerie Getts received both the Triboro Banner Award and The Kimberly Haas "Sunshine" Memorial Award. Brian Edsell was the proud recipient of the Carl Martini Award, while Dave Fedor was given the Taylor Little League Award. Tim Higgins received the American Legion Award, while Paul Chilek and Sara Jones were recognized for their scholastic and athletic abilities.

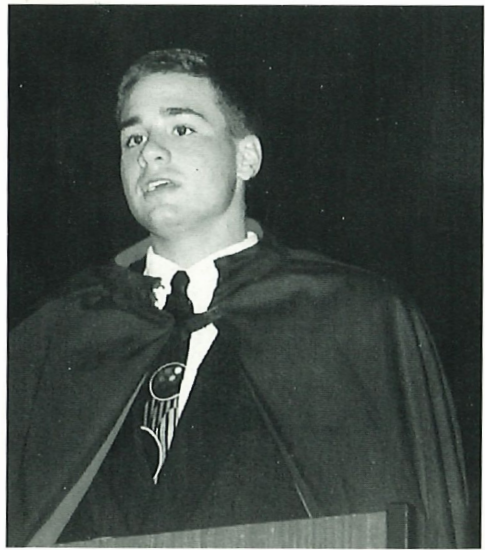

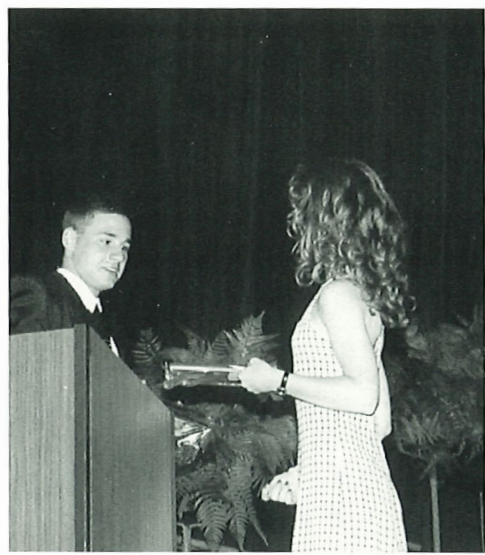

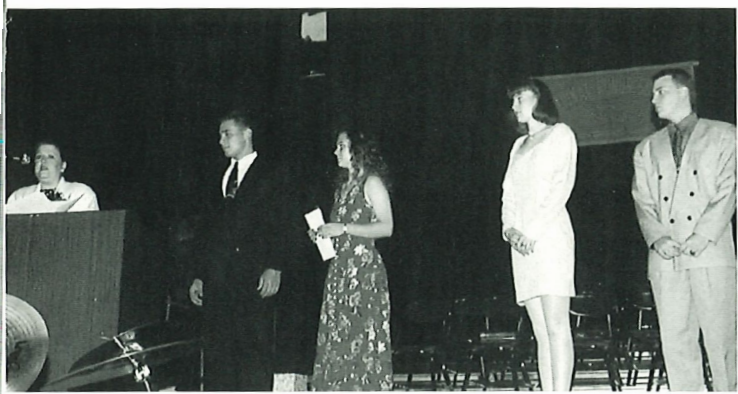

On behalf of the PTA, Mrs. Terry Schultz presented the top four seniors with very generous monetary awards. She also presented the PTA Foreign Language Award to Chrissy Wolfsberger, the PTA Language Arts Award to Sara Jones, the PTA Math Award to Katie Copeland, the PTA Science Award to Lisa Kraycar, and the PTA Social Studies Award to Ryan Caboot.

Mrs. Paula Bartkovsky, advisor to the National Honor Society, presented Fourth Honors to Valerie Getts, Third Honors to Sara Jones, Salutatorian to Katie Copeland, and Valedictorian to Chrissy Wolfsberger. She also gave Katie Copeland and Sara Jones NHS Awards for their contribution throughout the year. Jim Connor earned the SAT Math Award, a distinction achieved by earning a 720 on the math section of the Scholastic Aptitude Test. Mr. John Kosek, advisor to the Art Club, presented awards to his graduating members. Also, Mrs. Carol Hapstak, advisor to the Drama Club, presented many drama awards. The most significant of which was the best overall ability award, which was wisely given to Lesya Popil. Overall, Class Day saw a number of students honored for their academic excellence and leadership ability.

COMMENCEMENT

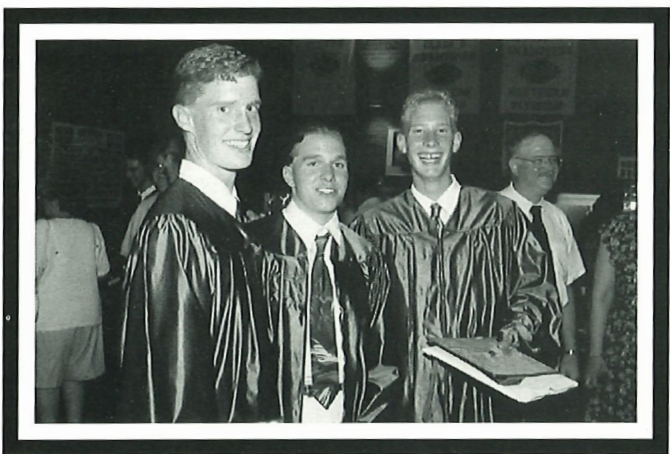

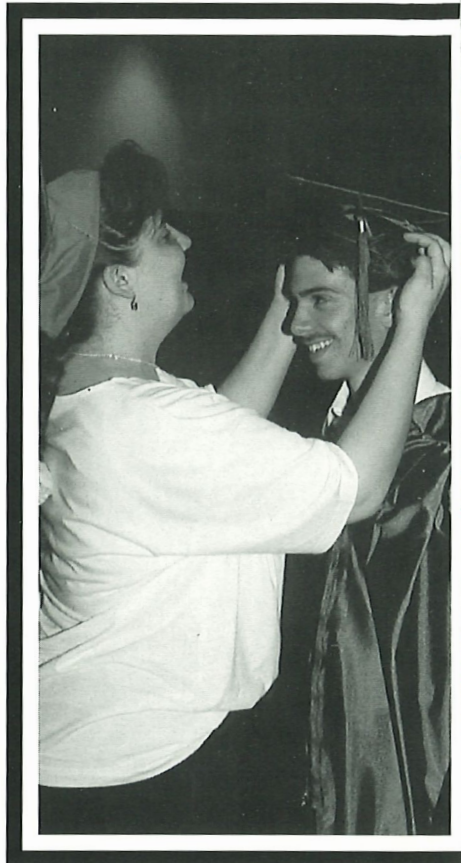

The Thirty-Fourth Annual Commencement Ceremony of Riverside High School was held on Friday, June 17 in the auditorium. Throughout the event, the class performed "The Star Spangled Banner", "Hero", "This Is My Country", and the "Alma Mater."

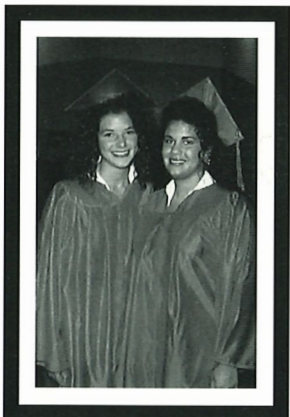

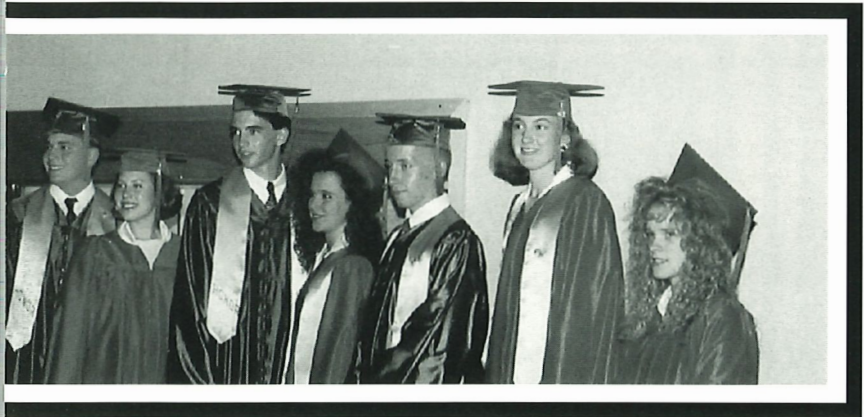

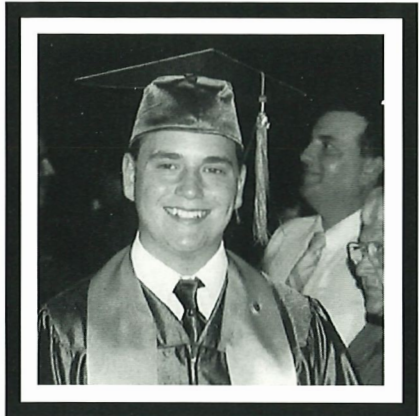

During the program, Katie Copeland presented an oration of "The Eloquence of Individuality"; Valerie Getts spoke about "The Degree of Excellence"; Sara Jones gave a speech on "The Journey of the Human Spirit"; and Chrissy Wolfberger expounded on "The Empowerment of Faith." Following the speeches, district superintendent Dr. John Rooney and high school principal Mr. J. Dennis Kryzanowski offered remarks to the class, with vice principal Mr. William Kasulis and school board vice-president Mr. Neil DeAngelo presenting students with their coveted diplomas.

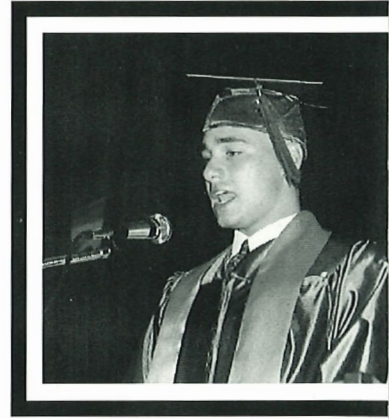

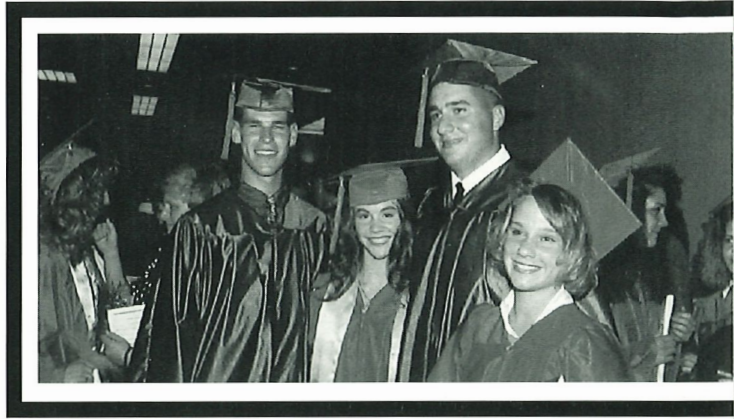

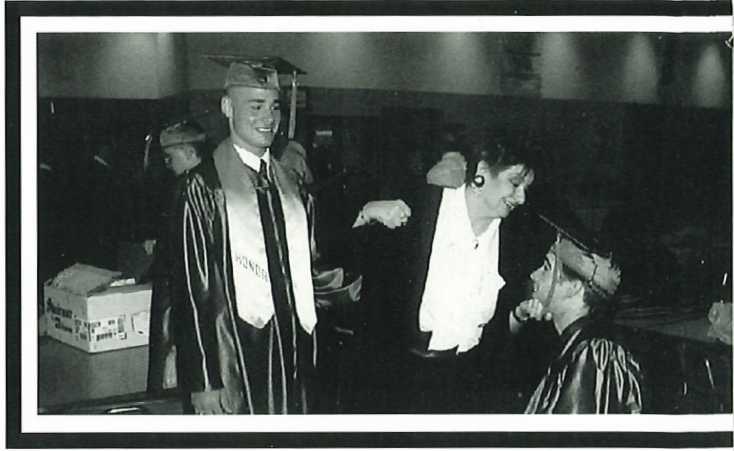

Finally Paul Chilek gave his salute — his final act as president of the Class of '94. Tears flowed as our class realized it was time for each of us to go our separate ways, eager to embrace the bright future that lays ahead.

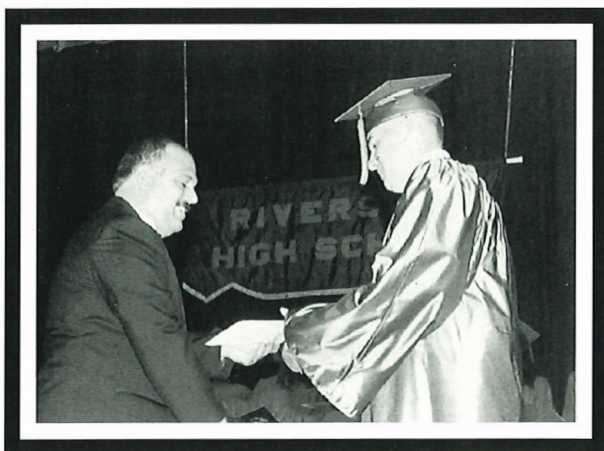

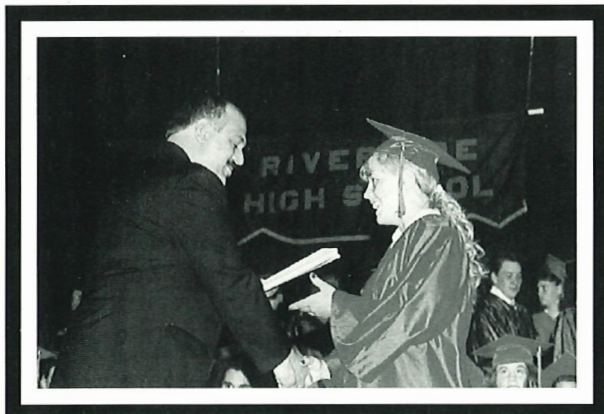

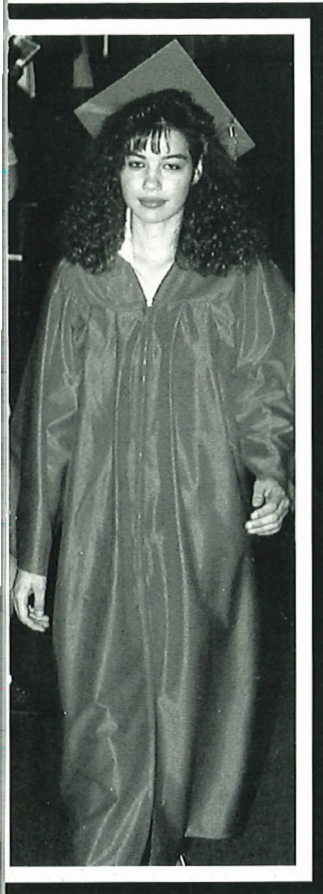

CLASS PROPHECY

Setting: Broadway Musical at intermission — 15 years later after graduation (the lobby outside the theater).

Sue Big Ed, Big Ed Jezowski is that really you?

Ed Yes, well I would know that voice anywhere. Sue Bisignani, I haven't seen you in about 5 years. How have you been?

Sue I'm fine. So are you still working with International Affairs?

Ed Yes, what are you doing now?

Sue I'm an executive for Allied Health. How do you like the musical so far?

Ed Lesya Popil is doing a great job in her debut performance.

Sue I know and Nick Mynk as usual is playing the piano to perfection.

Ed Have you seen anyone else from our class?

Sue Well of course, Katie Copeland.

Ed Oh, of course, mercurial Katie. I always knew she would become something really big.

Sue But I never thought President of the United States! Did you hear anything on Ryan Caboot?

Ed I kept in touch and he opened his own law practice in Washington D.C. with Christie Friesie as his secretary.

Sue That's great! How about Sara Jones?

Ed I heard from her fiancée Brian Edsell that the wedding is off, seems Sara is too busy these days because she is getting ready to become the first female principal of Riverside High School.

Sue Poor Edsell, what's he up to these days?

Ed He works with a company that tries to promote graphing calculators and back-packs to high school students. So whatever happened to some of the football players?

Sue Let's see. I heard that Billy Posdon is manager of his very own sports store while Joe Connolly opened a bakery in the "rear" of Billy's shop.

Ed Paul Chilek became a lawyer, and one day he screamed "shut-up" right at the judge, then he was held for contempt of court.

Sue I saw Stanley Lewandowski playing for the L.A. Raiders and Kevin Schultz starting as quarterback for the Giants.

Ed Don't forget Sue that P. J. Michaely and his band have had numerous top 10 hits since high school.

Sue I know, and Tim Higgins not only became an accountant for Hair Club for Men but also he became the supplier.

Ed Did you know that Chris Pica went into a business selling psychedelic colored sneakers?

Sue Yes, I heard that from someone. Whatever happened to Missy Sopp? I heard that she got into the medical profession.

Ed Yeah, she's now head nurse at the Boston Hospital on the neonatal unit. Patty Daniels is her assistant head nurse and Lisa Kraycar and Janet Conway work on their floor as RN's.

Sue Speaking of nurses, Amy Wiatrowski is a nurse in the radiation department at the Moses Taylor Hospital and Katina Lenko is a head nurse on the dialysis floor.

Ed Not to get off the subject, but wasn't Nicole Hannon also dancing on the stage?

Sue Yes, she told me that she and Jeremy Occhipinti are still very good friends and that they own their own all you can eat buffet.

Ed Where are Chrissy Wolfsberger and Jim Connor? I heard that they got married and now own this theatre.

Sue They are probably back stage with the actors and actresses.

Ed I read in the paper the other day that Kerri Best finally stopped the pigeon shoot in Hegins, PA. She is very active in animal rights.

Sue Didn't she also become a veterinarian?

Ed Yes, so did Shannin Cron and Frank Barbarsky. Frank specializes in cat scratches.

Sue Did Larry Lewis join the armed forces?

Ed Yeah, he became a general while Dave Visoski became the first Navy Seal with long hair. Did Krystal Kerrigan join the navy?

Sue No, but she did open her own tattoo shop. But I ran into Bradley Day and he told me that he is in the marines.

Ed What about Mark Becker? Didn't he go into the reserves?

Sue No, he became the first promoter of female boxing matches. That reminds me whatever happened to Kerri Layland?

Ed Kerri became a dental hygienist.

Sue Oh by the way, during the day I send my kids to Laura D'Angelo's and Katie Hogan's day care center. They love it there.

Ed Speaking of day care centers, Stacey Grant, Angela Grabosky and Tammy Wheeler opened one up in Taylor; however, they lost the competition because Laurie Pajalich opened one down the street.

Sue Mike McKeefery also opened his very own day care center.

Ed Who?

Sue McKeefery, the one who started out as a kindergarten teacher.

Ed Oh him, you know who else works with little kids? Heidi Kelley who teaches first grade at Riverside Elementary East, and Amber Smerdon, who teaches fourth grade at Riverside Elementary West.

Sue And then there is Mark Phonechanh who became a science teacher at Riverside High School.

Ed You know, I forgot to tell you that my kids had Alyson Kidwell as their third grade teacher a few years ago.

Sue If anyone picked the perfect job, it was Heather Olechna. Because being a chatterbox with her profession as a special ed. teacher, she can really keep the class focused.

Ed Tiana Valencia also picked the perfect job. She became a criminal psychologist because of her fascination with the criminal mind.

Sue Wasn't she the first female psychologist who got to interview Charley Manson and Jeffery Dahmer without them having handcuffs on?

Ed Yes, she was because they both knew that she was tougher than they are.

I know that psychology was a big field in our class. How many other psychologists are there from our class?
Let's see. There is Jennifer Smerdon who appeared on Oprah many a times, Farrah Pappa who was just on Donahue and Pam Singleton who just wrote a book on child psychology.
Is Kara Kneiss a psychologist because I heard her on a radio station counseling the morals of teenagers?
Yes, I think that is her radio show called "Kneiss's Thoughts." How about Chrissy Allen? Did she become a famous journalist?
Yeah, she is now a well-known writer for Teen Beat Magazine.
Oh boy, that Advanced Composition class really paid off.
Didn't Laura Ducceschi become a journalist?
Yeah, but she also holds a part time job selling cosmetics for Avon. Sue, whatever happened to the one who loved Jeff Thomas?
Who do you mean Mindy Lewis? She became a fashion designer, and Jeff Thomas became a heart surgeon.
Don't forget Sue that Dave Fedor became a family doctor, Michelle Kapacs also became a successful heart surgeon and Charity Cohowicz became a medical assistant.
That's right and there is also a lot of medical technicians like Billy Davies, Carrie Hart, Heather Laffey and Danielle Lewis who all work at the CMC.
We also have a lot of occupational therapists from our class like Melissa DeAngelo, Erin Leschinsky and Brian Duffy.
Do you know who I haven't seen since graduation? Rob Evans. Whatever happened to him?
Oh, that's easy. He became a firefighter just like Tony Marconi and Gregg Ruthkosky.
A lot of people really did go on to help others like Helen Bennie and Dana Kapelanovich who became social workers and Michele Budziak who became a speech pathologist.
Michele is also a taste tester for Betty Crocker's brownies.
Also there is Valerie Getts who works in public relations.
Are you sure Val works in public relations? I thought she opened a shoe store.
Well she did, but she is frequently absent from that job.
The other day when I was in L.A., I bumped into Kristin Belaski, and she told me that she owns a few night clubs on the L.A. strip.
That's great and did you know that a lot of people did move out of state like Cate Amato who became an undercover security guard in Scott Flanagan's casino in Nevada.
I read in the paper the other day that Jamie Gaughan became a Texas State trooper.
Wow and Kelli Flickinger is a sociologist who frequently helps the NYC Police Department.
You'll never guess who got into criminal justice? Sean Volack and Sean Gaidula. They run the department of homicide.
I never would have guessed that. Two Seans — double trouble.
The other day I took my car to a mechanic shop and it was owned by Ed Peck and Jim Skurka. They also have Joe Secor and Ken Frable working for them, but I also heard that Ken Frable holds a job as a driver's ed teacher.
There was a body building competition on T.V. last week and Jeff Belak and Matt Stull were contestants. They were tied for first place.
Belak told me yesterday that he is also the manager of "Overkill."
Mike Horoszko became a pro-basketball player for the Chicago Bulls.
I saw Joe Samsell's rookie card for the Mets. It was well over 200 dollars. What about Chrissy Terruso?
She became manager of the Phillies, and Paul Lazar became the mascot for the Washington Red Skins.
Did Nicole Flaherty stick with basketball?
No she became a pharmacist along with Kevin Milewski and Maria Petillo.
Larry McGurgan and Reese Thomas work for IBM computers.
Todd Morgans tried to become a photographer, but no one would let him take their picture so he and Kevin Ripka went into advertising.
And of course, Ryan Cooper owns Cooper's Seafood House, and Joe Colarusso owns Colarusso's Cafe.
And Brenda Harrington became the president of the Elby's Corporation, and Marilyn Larsen owns the Olive Gardens in Florida.
Shaun Fredrickson is the manager of the local Taco Bell in Wilkes-Barre.
Well, Kim Wincovitch moved on to bigger and better things. She is now the manager of a Wal-Mart Store.
Dan Swartz became a chemical engineer with the help of Mr. Pettinato.
Holly Davies, Frank Decker, and Shannon Quinn all became environmental engineers.
Jen Williams and Keri Collins opened a health spa where Keri is a nutritionist and Jen handles the business affairs.
I know that Walter Gontarski and David Murry opened a car stereo shop and Brandi Shrader and Kellee Ritts are in international business.
Did you hear that Clayton Drumheller opened a lounge and restaurant business?
Yeah, when I was there I saw Jack Czaja and he told me that he and Pat Naughton own a branch in the Chrysler Corporation.
That's great and Paul Stephens owns an art gallery where Paul Sopinski's works hang.
Well, it seems as all of our classmates have gone on to be quite successful.
I know, but the musical is starting again. I'll talk to you after the show.
See you then. Bye!!
