The 1992-1993 football team gave an outstanding 4-7 season beating GAR, Myers, Lakeland, and Lake Leheman. Overall Jason Preitz was chosen All-Regional and All-Scholastic first team along with Mario Godino. Eric Revesz and Paul Mishuk achieved All-Scholastic second team. Mr. Steve Armillay was head coach for the Vikings. Jason Preitz, Rick Scherder, Jerry Gronski, and Paul Mishuk served as captains.

The success of the season could not be measured in wins and losses but more so in bringing back some of the Red and Blue Viking Pride. Seniors point with pride to the fact that they became a close knit family, willing to give up blood, sweat, and tears for the team, coaches, and most importantly, each other.

This year's districts competition was held at Kriby Park. Krista Bartosch, Missy Karnis, Mandy Antonaicci, Holly Owens, and Krystal Kerrigan competed in the first round.

"Hollywood" was the famous theme for this year's homecoming. This sparked a week of various events such as hall decorating and dress up days. Monday began the week with College Sweatshirt and Sports Day. Tuesday, the seniors wore black. Everyone was warm on Wednesday when they wore flannel, and Thursday the seniors donned hats and sunglasses. On Friday, the official Red and Blue Day took place with Paul Sochovka capturing Homecoming King, Kara Conte and Paul Mishuk receiving the honorable "pie in the face," and Mandy Antonacci being crowned Homecoming Queen.

GREASE

The Riverside Drama Club presented the musical "Grease" in the Melville I. Davis auditorium on November 19th and 20th, 1992.

The musical focused on a small group of friends and their last year of school at Rydell High. Sandy Dombroski, played by Michele Budziak, falls in love with Danny Zuko, played by Kevin Bisignani, and struggles to keep him as she joins up with the "Pink Ladies," led by Rizzo (Lesya Popil).

The play was based on a group of mismatched teenagers and their adventures in love and romance.

FAREWELL, MRS. GALLAGHER

Thank-you is simply not enough to express the gratitude we feel toward Mrs. Nancy Gallagher, who served Riverside High School as a nurse for many wonderful years. Besides her vast knowledge of nursing, Mrs. Gallagher was a friend who was always willing to talk to every student. Many of us remember her from our days at the Moosic Elementary through our high school years, where we saw her friendly, familiar face daily. No problem was too great for Mrs. Gallagher, and to her, everyone really mattered, which showed in the work that she performed here at Riverside.

Though we'll miss Mrs. Gallagher very much, we wish her a terrific retirement and much luck in the years ahead. Mrs. Gallagher, Riverside thanks you!

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

Graduation is in two days
The time is growing near,
But let's go back to the beginning
When we first started here.

We started here six years ago
Not knowing who we'd meet,
But as the years went on
The great times we had could not be beat.

As seventh and eighth graders
We were downstairs and alone,
Which at the time seemed to us
We were on our own.

We moved upstairs in ninth grade
And had a hall of our own,
Up from jr. high to high school
As freshmen we were known.

By the time we reached tenth and eleventh
We had just begun to fit in,
And knowing that when we got to twelfth
Our true dreams and challenges would begin.

When Mr. Kryzanowski left our senior year
Mr. Roberts filled the spot,
Everyone missed him greatly
To him we owe a lot.

Guidance was a popular place
For most seniors this year,
We were busy making college plans
Knowing the time was near.

Our Viking football team had quite a year
Even if they weren't number one,
They did their best
And that was all that could be done.

Spirit week here at Riverside
Was the last one for us ever,
But we'll keep the memories in our hearts
Which will last forever.

For the Riverside golf team this year
2-5-1 was the final score,
No matter what the record was
We couldn't ask for anything more.

The boy's basketball games
Always caught our eye,
With all the talented players
It's hard to say good-bye.

Even though the Lady Vikes
Didn't make it too far,
We want them to know in a special way
How proud of them we are.

Baseball, Softball, Tennis, and Track
Were the popular sports of spring,
Everyone cheered the athletes on
For the performance they would bring.

"Snow" was the word for March this year
It was the Blizzard of 93,
This prolonged the year to June 18th
As this was not meant to be.

"We've Got Tonight" was the theme of our prom
It was an extraordinary thing.
In the end, Mandy was crowned queen
And for the first year, Paul was crowned king.

Class night was held on May 28th
The last time we were together as a class,
But all the fun we shared that night
Will make the memories last.

We'd like to thank our teachers
For the job that they have done,
For the knowledge that they've given us
To them we owe a ton

It won't be long from today
When we'll go our separate ways,
And think of all the things we've done
Back in our high school days.

It will be that time soon
When we'll have to say our very last good-byes,
But let the memories that we've made Never ever die.

With this being one of our last days together
You and all our friends,
Remember it from this day forward
Forever until the end.

CLASS HISTORY 1993

Scene: The year is 2050, there is to be a championship shuffleboard game in the recreation room of the Senility Estates. Jennifer Jame cheering for Brian James resident and part owner of Senility Estates. Sarah Zigmont is cheering for Dave Weisenfluh. They are from Serenity Hill retirement home.

Jenn: Hey you over there.

Sarah: Who me?

Jenn: Where's your player? Let's get this shindig started. I have a bingo game at four o'clock.

Sarah: I don't know where he is. I went to high school with him and he was always late. They probably lost his walker again.

J: I hope he gets here soon. If I'm the hundredth person through the door I win a quilt.

S: You look really familiar, did you graduate from Riverside High School?

J: Yeah, the worst class ever.

J and S: Class of '93!

J: You look really familiar too. You're Sarah Zigmont. We were cheerleaders together, remember?

S: Oh yeah, I remember. You're Jennifer James. We used to call you Ruthie right?

J: How could I forget? You used to go out with that younger kid. Did he turn eighteen yet?

S: Yeah finally.

J: Speaking of finally, do you remember how long it seemed to take to finally graduate from Riverside?

S: It was all because of Mother Nature and her Blizzard of '93 that graduation got pushed back and we had to make up a whole week of school days.

J: School did seem to drag on, but we did have some fun times. Remember all those get togethers at Joy's house.

S: Yeah, I especially remember her pool. Pizza, chairs, bikes, you name it, it was in there. Those parties were crazy!

J: Not as crazy as LeRoy Jennings and John Sentivan shaving their heads at the Talent Show in 11th grade.

S: The song may have been "I'm Too Sexy," but they were definitely far from that.

J: Scott McNicholes wasn't far from winning a state title our senior year. He threw the discus 150.7 ft., which landed him 5th place in the state.

S: We had a lot of good athletes like Eric Revese, the star of our football team, who missed a thousand yards rushing by only 18 yards. How he missed a lot more days of school than that.

J: We can't forget about the rest of the team and how they all supported each other and kept up a winning attitude throughout the season.

S: I'm glad they had a winning something because they sure didn't have a winning season.

J: But we finally won a game in the Big 11 conference after losing 19 in a row, we beat Lakeland 21-7.

S: I guess that was an accomplishment, unlike the West Side game.

J: I'll never forget the big "W" they wrote in the middle of the field.

S: That sure caused a little ARGUMENT during the game.

J: Speaking of arguing, do you remember the disagreement between Erica Griffiths and Tara Casey in the lunchroom?

S: How could anyone forget. All we heard was I hate you.

J: I hate you.

S: I HATE YOU!!

J: In 8th grade Tara Petrunich thought she would be Mike Tyson for the day. She decided to beat up Chuck Breig with her purse.

S: The worst part is that she tried to get away with it by telling Mr. Kryzanowski "I was just swinging my purse and he walked into it."

J: Everyone got used to having Mr. Kryzanowski as our new principal but after having heart trouble he had to take the rest of our senior year

S: That left Mr. Kasulis as "acting principal."

J: And Mr. Roberts was "acting vice-principal."

S: I wonder if their performances ever landed them stars on the actors walk of fame.

J: Danny Grassi was seeing stars after Mr. Pettinato tried to impress us with a chemistry experiment. He smashed a frozen rose on Danny's desk. Pieces of it flew everywhere including Danny's face.

S: Poor Danny didn't know what hit him since he didn't see it coming.

J: And there was Mr. Evans class. It was the most exciting class we ever had.

S&J: NOT!

S: I'm glad we had that class for an hour. It gave us an extra 15 minutes to sleep.

J: Jim Douglas took full advantage of that.

S: The boys basketball team really had a tough season our senior year.

J: Rick Schraeder would know about that.

S: Didn't he get a concussion at the Old Forge game?

J: Yeah, but he showed up for school the next day just to take his calculus test.

S: He never missed a test, unlike someone I knew.

J: Who's that?

S: Erica Griffiths.

J: I remember she never came to school on the day of a test.

S: And at the end of each quarter she would run around saying I have this, this, this, this, this, this, I'm dead, I'm so dead.

J: We can't just pick on her though, we all got away with stuff.

S: One thing we couldn't get away with was being in the hall without a pass.

J: After 6 years of wondering, the teachers decided to take back the halls. Having an "official" pass was the only way to get through the halls.

S: Riverside turned into Fort Knox. At every checkpoint we had a full interrogation.

J: Where are you coming from?

S: Where are you going?

J: Why are you going there?

S: How long are you going to be?

J: Who signed this?

S: What do you mean you don't have a pass?

J: What's next photo identification cards?

S: Even president Clinton would have a hard time getting through our halls.

J: Didn't a bunch of us work for his election campaign headquarters?

S: Yeah, in our senior year; they gave us lists of people to call. But most of the time we were calling each other.

J: We did so well we got our own TV show.

S: Yeah, we were on Hatchy Malatchy with Miss Judy.

J: No it was For Our Kids with Miss Judy.

S: Are you sure it wasn't Jane Adonizio.

J: Yeah, Jane Adonizio did a report about sexual harassment in schools.

S: A few of us who were interviewed were on the news.

J: Didn't someone call Talk Back 16 and say that the way the girls were dressed they were asking for it.

S: Do you remember how offended Joy and Bichi were after hearing about it.

J: Yeah, you'd think that would have stopped them from wearing their short shorts.

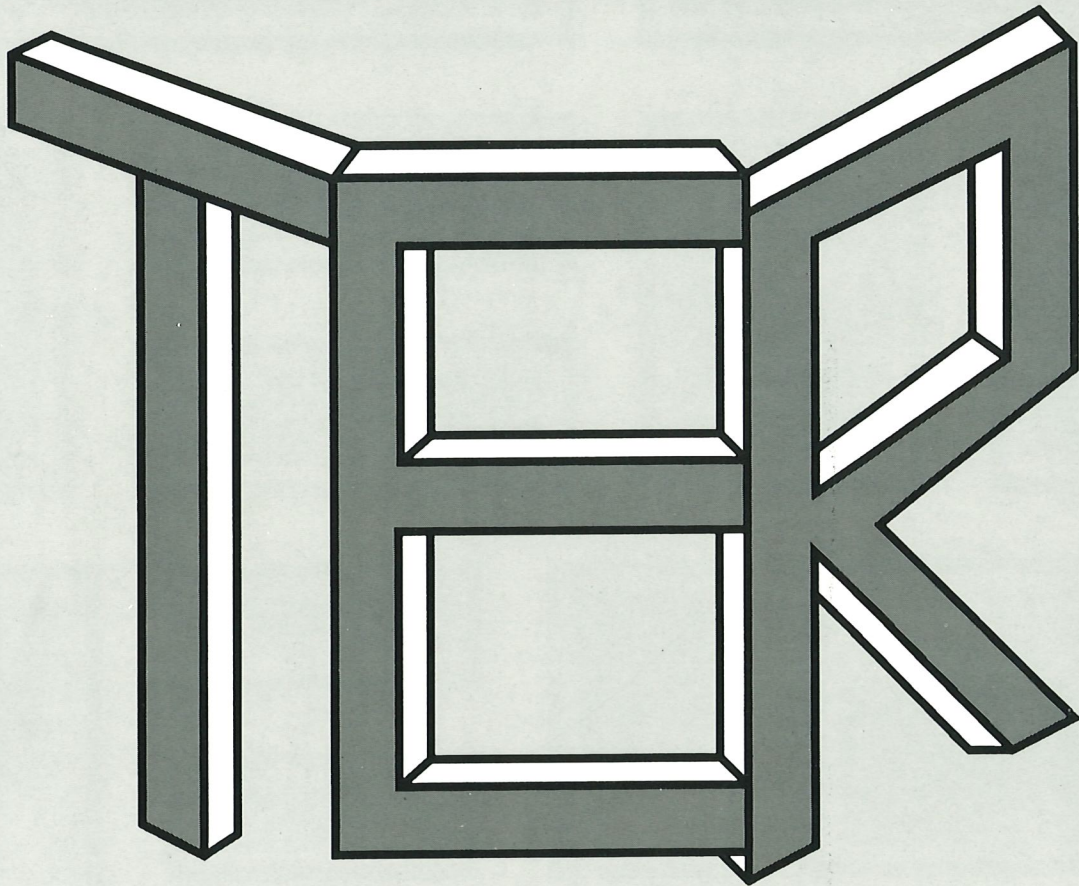

S: Well nothing stopped the administration from taking away ditties.

hey used to be a proud tradition of a graduating class at Riverside.
he administration said we couldn't do them but what the heck, let's be rebels.
ere's a ditty just for the class of '93.
n time for school was something we were not: We were always out for breakfast hoping not to get caught.
ywhere but school, we would rather be, throughout the years, we longed to be free.
: To you, we give a big late pass use it so Mr. Kasulis won't have to kick your . . . DITTY!
dn't our senior prom seem really different? It was fun but didn't it seem like there was something missing.
aybe it was the band? Remember how the juniors broke tradition and only had a D.J.
: least we started a tradition instead of ending one. At our senior prom we crowned the first prom king ever at Riverside.
f course, it was Paul Sochovka, our class' most friendly, most popular, and most dependable guy.
nd Mandy Antonacci was prom queen.
nd homecoming queen.
nd most popular.
nd most friendly. What's next Miss America?
o you remember Bichi Hailstone? Or was it Sylvia Jennifer?
o, I think it was Bichi Mueller, or maybe it was Sylvia Jennifer Mueller. I don't know.
o you remember Jerry Gronski?
eah, everyone used to call him a gorilla because he was so hairy.
ow about his red Camaro?
o, it was orange.
aybe it was red. I don't know. I'm going senile.
emember how they held the dances in the cafeteria, and how everyone used to gather around John Morgan as he lit up the dance floor.
ever mind him lighting up the dance floor, he burned holes through it. His feet were faster than a bullet and hotter than fire.
o you remember Honor Society Inductions in eleventh grade when we almost had to call the fire department.
I remember correctly, there was no need for it. We had our own firefighter, Rick Schraeder.
n yeah, that was when a candle fell over and caught the paper candle holders on fire. Rick calmly walked over, picked up the burning rs, and stood there holding them in his hands.
vish we had a camera to capture his "somebody help me" look that was on his face.
emember when Missy Karnis laid out in the sun after school and came in the next day looking like a lobster.
hat would you expect after laying on tin foil for an hour and a half.
en there was Guy and all his younger girlfriends.
one point I think he had a girlfriend for each hall.
dn't they start a waiting list for him?
rls just couldn't get enough of him.
What a Guy!
e didn't have a lot of class couples. There was Paul Mishuk and Tara Casey and Rochelle Shoemaker and Jeff McAllister.
an think of about four others.
o?
evin Bisignani and Mrs. Ermolovich, Kevin and Mrs. DiGiovani, Kevin and Mrs. Kozloski, Kevin and Mrs. Ludwikowski.
ouldn't call them couples, it was more like Kevin had the HOTS for them.
o bad the feeling wasn't mutual.
ould see why Kevin had a crush on Mrs. Ludwikowski. She did have a good sense of style.
ou want to call wearing bobby socks and sandals stylish.
o you remember in tenth grade, Brian Waters challenged Mr. Glenn to a game of basketball.
o was the guy that wore those red suspenders and we gave him the nickname "Elby's Big Boy."
e game was at the Taylor Community Center and a lot of people showed up to watch.
Unfortunately for Brian, he lost.
e girls basketball team on the other hand did win.
remember correctly they had a winning season and even made it to playoffs.
e softball team also had a winning season. But it was too bad they missed the playoffs.
ll we know who kept our winning spirits up throughout the year.
o you remember in tenth grade when Kathy Fuller pinched Mr. Hordich's butt and he called her a floozy?
at's not the only nickname she had, she was also known as smella.
ere were a few other people in our class who had nicknames. Like Scott Uher was Yard.
n Wescott was Niko.
son Siminski was Doogie.
ul Sochovka was Skuff.
uck Breig was Jack Swift.
rn Boyko was Snoopy.
d Brian Waters was Andre.
e teachers also had some nicknames, Mr. Evans was snave.
s Zimmerman was bubbles, Mr. Voytko was The Master.
d Mr. Hyduchak was Incredible. We may not have been the best class, but we did have a lot of fun together.
ah, remember the picnic we had during graduation week at McDade Park?
o thought we would remember the old times, but all we talked about was that we couldn't wait to go to the shore.
d that we should have done more things together like that.
ill, I think I see that old timer Weisenfluh taking his tiny little steps to get to the shuffleboard.
hat the way he walked in high school?
obably, why else would he be late very single day in our senior year?
ll, I guess we better go over and start cheering for our players.
ah, it's been nice talking to you Jennifer.
o too Sarah. We'll have to do it again sometime.

THE RIVERSIDE SKI CLUB

The Ski Club remained to be one of the most popular and active clubs once again at Riverside. Club officers were Kara Kneiss, president; Mindy Lewis, vice-president; Maria Petillo, secretary; and Chrissy Teruso, treasurer. The Ski Club offered several low cost trips to Montage Mountain throughout the ski season.

The highlight of the season was the annual weekend trip. Instead of the traditional trip to Vermont, 1992-93's Ski Club went to White Face Mountain located on Lake Placid, New York. Everyone enjoyed the challenging new slopes and the beautiful scenery, not to mention the ice skating or the snowmobiling in the town.

LAKE PLACID

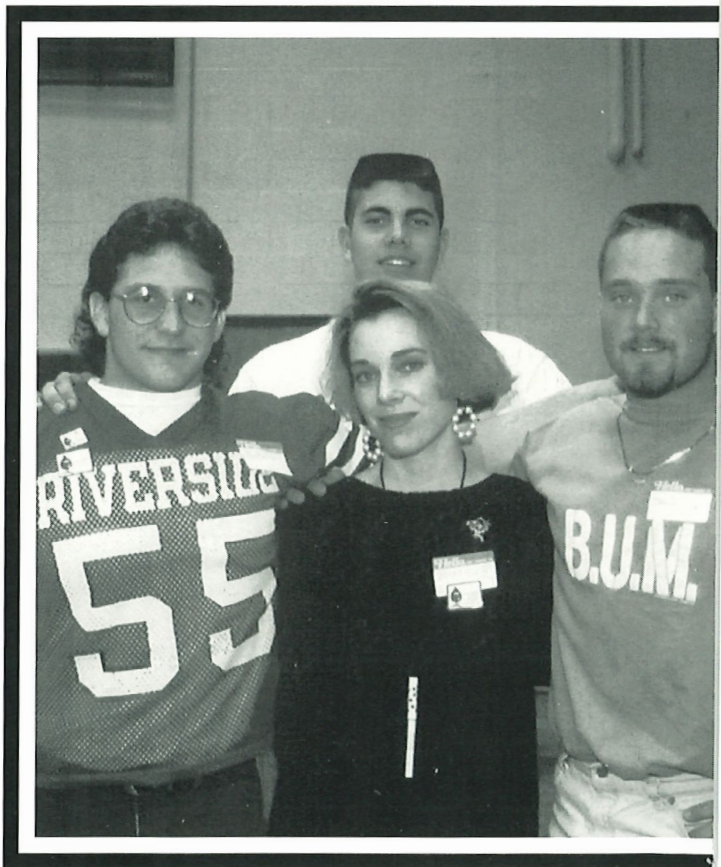

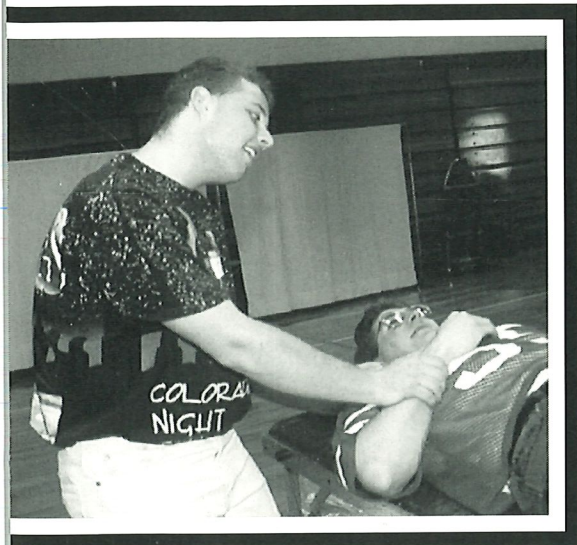

The 1992-1993 school year proved to be a busy one for the Riverside Student Council. Along with their many annual fundraisers, they sponsored Spirit Week and Homecoming. They added to the Christmas spirit by putting up the Christmas tree in the commons area. They conducted their annual lollipop sale on Valentine's Day. Finishing off the year with the annual blood drive proved to be a great success.

The Student Council officers include: Paul Sochovka, president; Jeff Thomas, vice president; John Sentivan, treasurer; and Rebecca Thomas, secretary. Miss Susan Ludwikowski is the Student Council advisor.

The 1993 Riverside Boys' Basketball team continued the basketball tradition of being competitive, playing with a tremendous amount of courage, and always leaving the court after giving their best effort. This year's team, although characterized by numerous underclassmen, was very competitive throughout the season. Led by seniors Brian Waters (an All Star Game participant), Ricky Schraeder, and Dave Hughes, the team improved as the season continued. Although the Vikings did not qualify for the playoffs, the team was "in" many of the games that they played. Based on the overall effort for this season, the seniors left a good role model for the following teams to emulate.

HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

The Riverside chapter of the National Honor Society had its annual induction ceremony on March 31, 1993. Miss Eileen Mischianti delivered a stirring and remarkably relevant speech, "Love Prevails," on this special night. Jeff Thomas and Krystal Kerrigan performed "A Whole New World" with piano accompaniment by Nick Mynyk. Also on the musical agenda, Sarah Zigmont performed "Faithfully" with Kathy Fuller on the piano and choral assistance from the members.

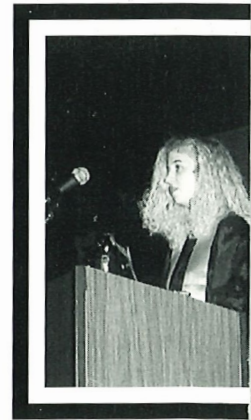

The fundamental part of the induction has traditionally been a "candle light service," and this year's ceremony was no exception. Rob Hartman, Kathy Fuller, John Morgan, Rick Schraeder, and Ron Wescott gave speeches for History, Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service respectively. During the service, twenty-one new members were inducted along with six officers. In reflection, the presentation turned out well, despite the lack of pyrotechnics.

SCIENCE FAIR

The Riverside Science Club sponsored the Science Fair on May 6, 1993. A wide variety of projects adorned the gymnasium with entries ranging from seventh grade through twelfth. Dino Vervitsiotis' project on the Rutherford Gold Foil Experiment received First Place in the Junior High Division of the competition. Sue Bisignani and Laura Ducceschi presented The Impact of Acid Mine Drainage on the Lackawanna River, a project which gained them First Place in the Senior High Division. Sophomore Rene Lukasiewicz won the First Place Award overall in this event. Hopefully this year's Fair heightened people's awareness concerning scientific fields.

ACADEMICS

MASS MEDIA

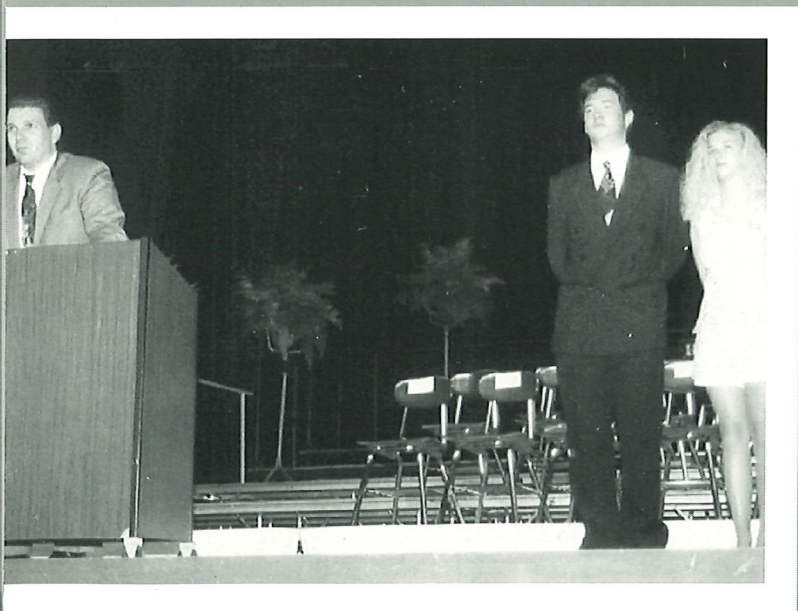

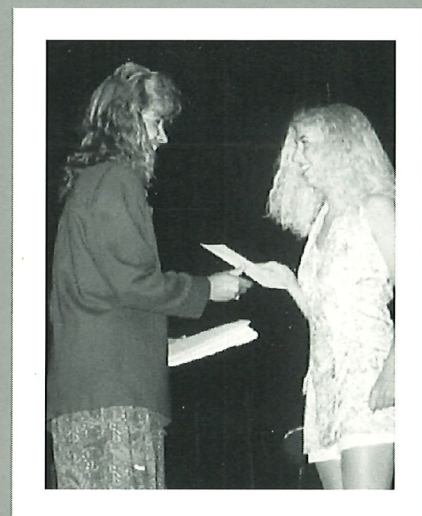

Members of the faculty and community alike honored student academic achievers on Class Day, June 16, 1993. Mr. Joseph Roberts initiated the awards presentation with the Gertrude Francis Award, given to Rick Schraeder; the Kleback-Procik Award, presented to Ron Wescott; the Louis Serafini Award, given to John Morgan; and the Hank Evanish Award, presented to Kevin Bisignani. Mr. Roberts also honored Rick Schraeder with the Chuck Sigman Memorial Award. These awards were primarily concerned with superior ability and dedication to academics.

Mrs. Donna Lisowski continued the presentation with the Presidential Academic Fitness Awards, honoring Rick Schraeder, Jim Douglas, John Morgan, Ron Wescott, Kevin Bisignani, Charles Breig, Dave Beecham, and Rob Hartman for their achievement. Ron Wescott and Melissa Karnis gained recognition for receiving the Riviello Memorial Scholarships. Terri Murman and Dena Gursky obtained awards and scholarships, including the Triboro Banner Award for Terri. Next in the program came the PTA awards, presented by Nancy Thomas, President of the PTA. Rick Schraeder received the PTA Math Achievement Award; Ron Wescott gained the PTA Language Arts Award; Kevin Bisignani's foreign language ability bought him the PTA Foreign Language Award; and John Morgan received two awards, the PTA Science and Social Studies Awards.

Mrs. Paula Bartkovsky represented the Honor Society on Class Day, presenting Fourth Honors to Kevin Bisignani, Third Honors to Ron Wescott, Salutatorian to Rick Schraeder, and Valedictorian to John Morgan. FIDDLER
ON

"Fiddler on the Roof" was the musical presented by the Riverside Drama Club in the Melville I. Davis auditorium on April 29th and 30th, 1993.

With LeRoy Jennings and Michele Budziak playing the parts of Tevye and Golde, the audience was caught up in the tradition of a small Jewish community in Russia during the eve of the Russian Revolution.

During the play, Tevye becomes distraught over his three daughters, Valerie Getts (Tzeitel), Lesya Popil (Hodel), and Alyson Kidwell (Chava), disobeying of Jewish traditions. The daughters' suitors were played by Kevin Bisignani (Motel), Jamie Granko (Perchik), and Rob Hartman (Fyedka).

TALENT SHOW

The Riverside Drama Club presented "On With The Show," a variety show performed by the students to show off their talents in dance, vocal, band, and even comedy. The Melville I. Davis auditorium provided the setting for the festivities which was held on May 27, 1993.

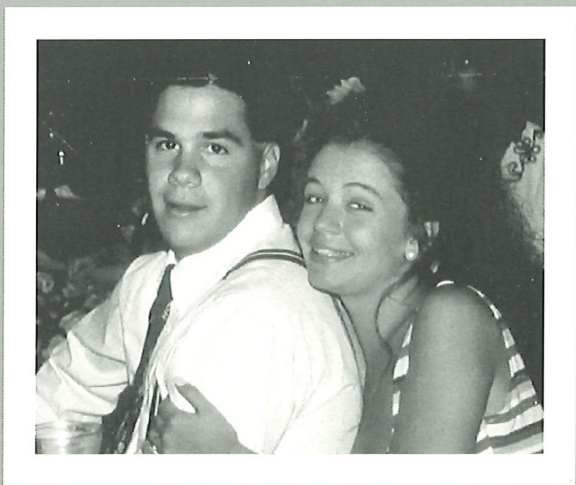

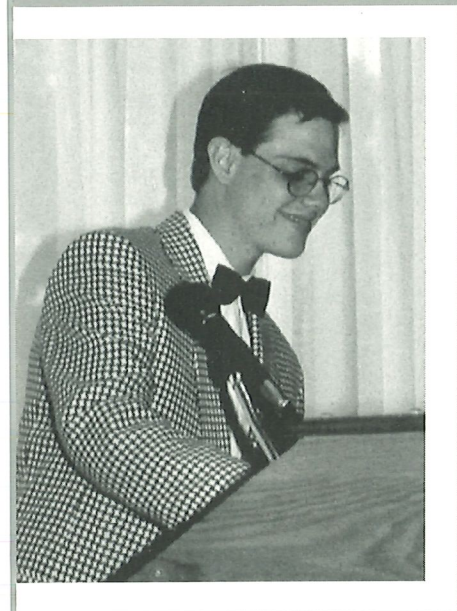

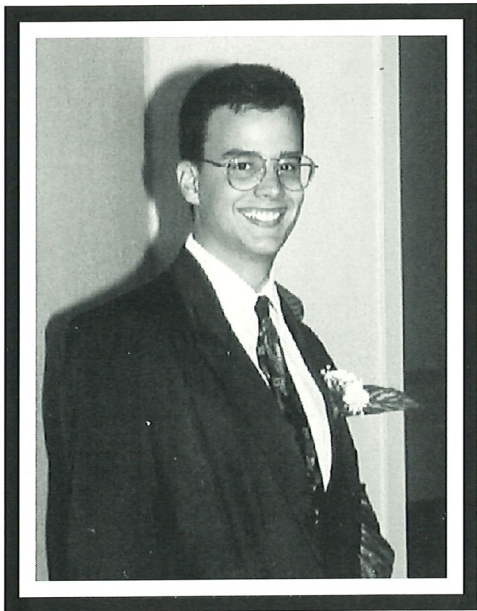

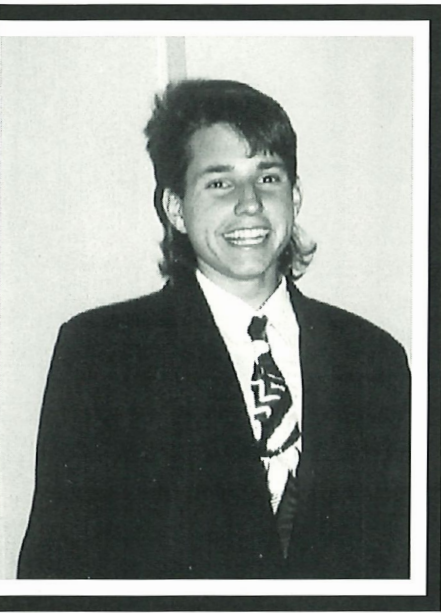

Class Night was held on Friday May 28, 1993 at Genetti's Manor in Dickson City. After dinner, the class prophecy was read by Kathy Fuller and Jim Douglas. Traditionally, senior awards such as Class Clowns, Most Likely to Succeed, and various others were given out. Le Roy Jennings completed the night when he sang a memorable "We Will All Be Rich Men."

CLASS NIGHT

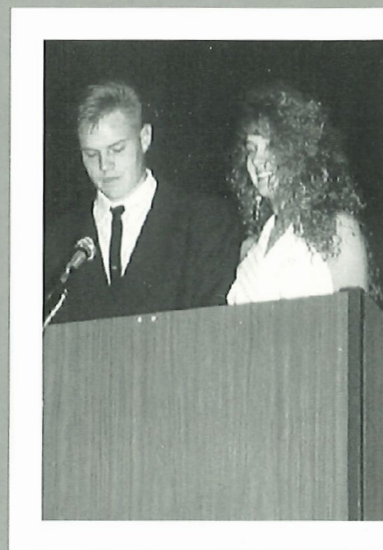

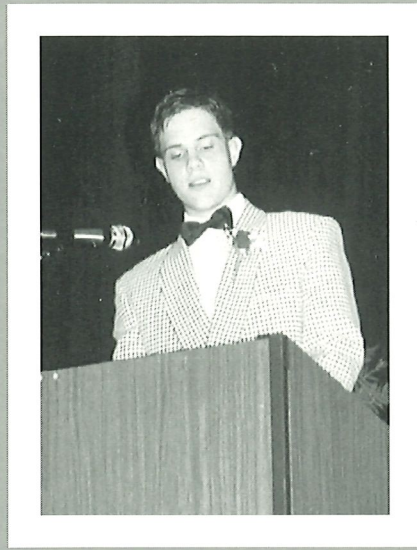

CLASS DAY

Honored seniors gathered for the annual Class Day ceremonies in the Melville I. Davis auditorium on June 16, 1993.

WE'VE GOT TONIGHT

The 1993 junior-senior prom was held May 14 at Saint Mary's Center in Scranton. The theme of the prom was "We've Got Tonight" and the music was by "Damion." The highlight of the night was when Mandy Antonacci was crowned Prom Queen and her senior court consisted of Tara Casey and Melissa Karnis. The junior attendants were Nicole Flaherty, Brandi Schraeder, Michelle Budziak, and Chrissy Wolfberger. This year was the first year that they also crowned a Prom King, who was Paul Sochovka. DEDICATION

The Class of 1993 would like to dedicate this Graduation section to Mr. J. Dennis Kryzanowski. Although Mr. Kryzanowski could not be with us for a part of the academic year due to illness, we are sure that his influence remained to guide us through the tough times. The administration, faculty, parents, students, and everyone else who made Riverside a true learning institution all missed Mr. Kryzanowski, and we wish him a fast and safe recovery.

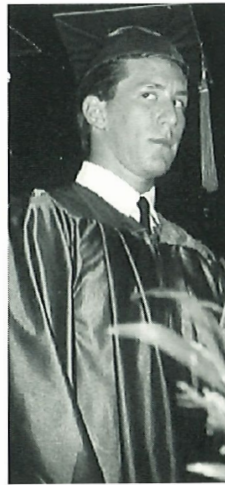

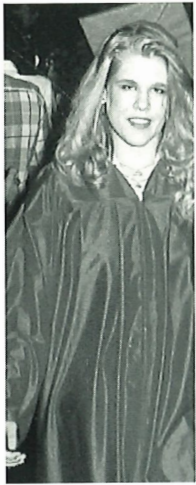

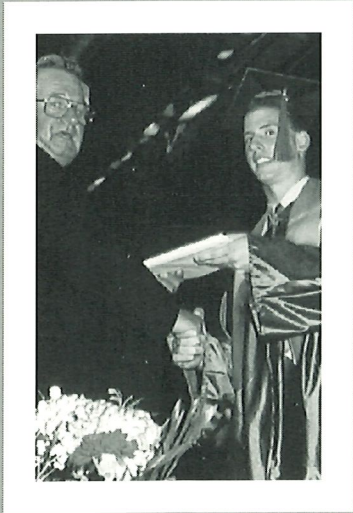

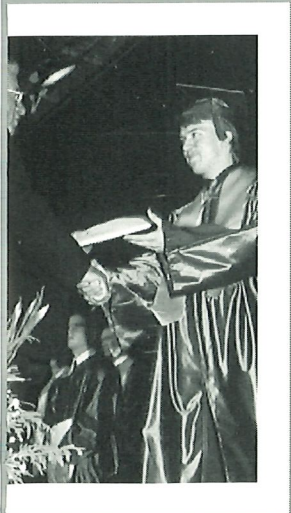

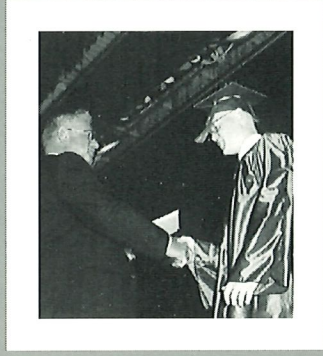

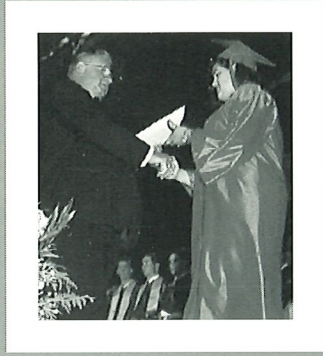

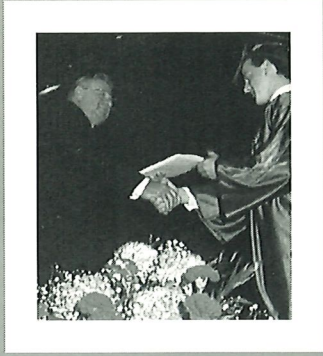

COMMENCEMENT

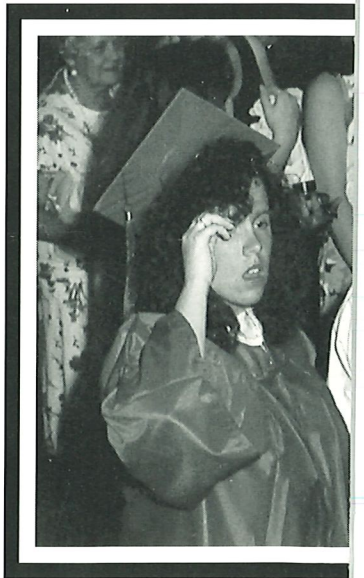

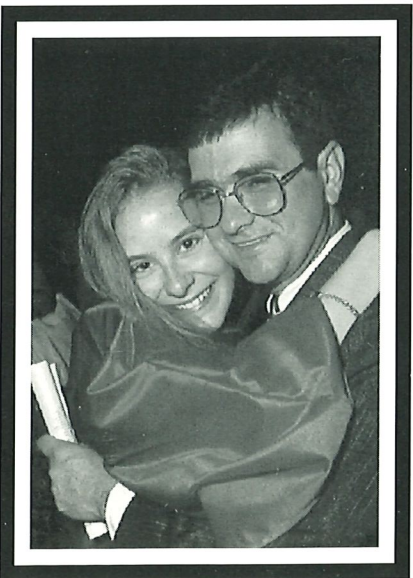

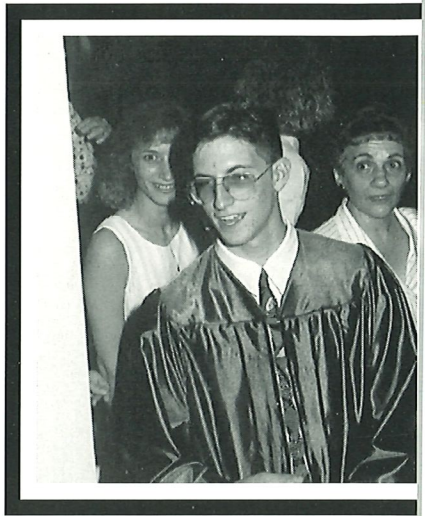

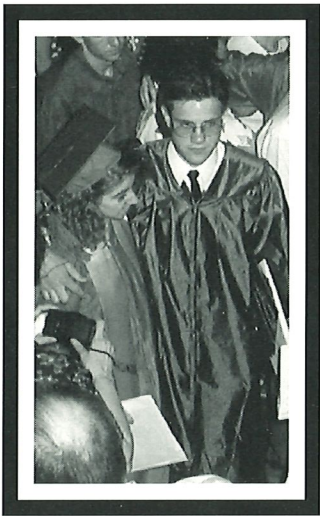

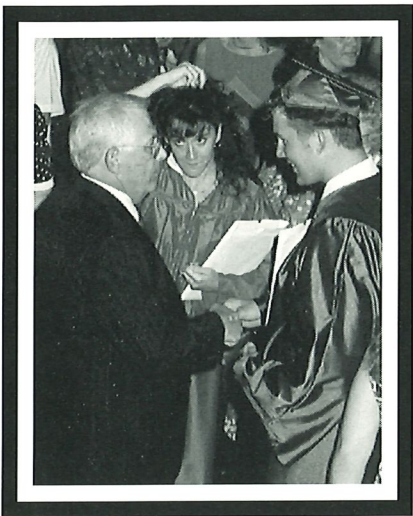

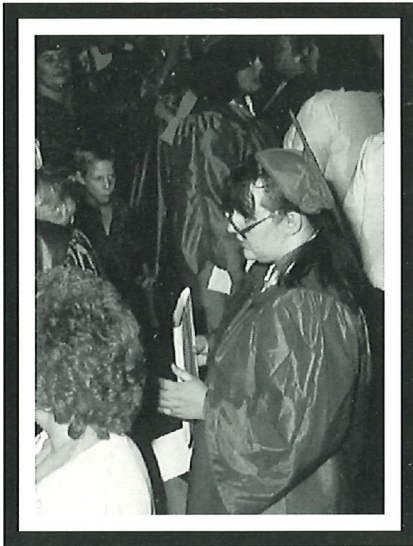

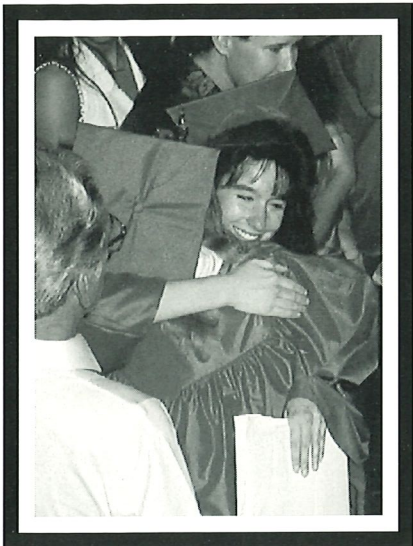

The Thirty-Third Annual Commencement Ceremony of Riverside High School was held on Friday, June 18, 1993, in the auditorium. During this special event, the graduating class performed traditional ("The Star Spangled Banner" and the "Alma Mater") and unique songs ("Heal the World" and "We'll Never Say Good-bye"). Throughout the program, Rick Schraeder gave his speech on "Faith Is The Evidence;" Kevin Bisignani presented "One Must Be Different To Make A Difference;" Ron Wescott related his speech "There Is No Finish Line;" and John Morgan's speech was on "The Unsung Heroes."

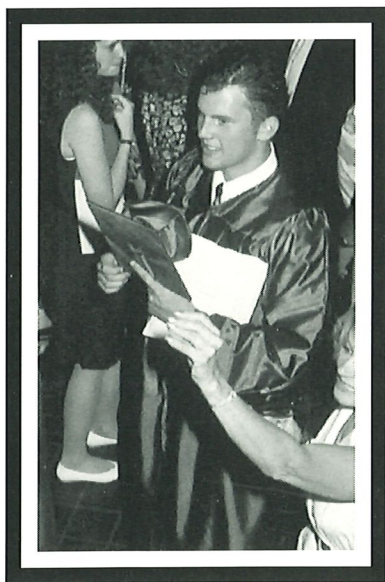

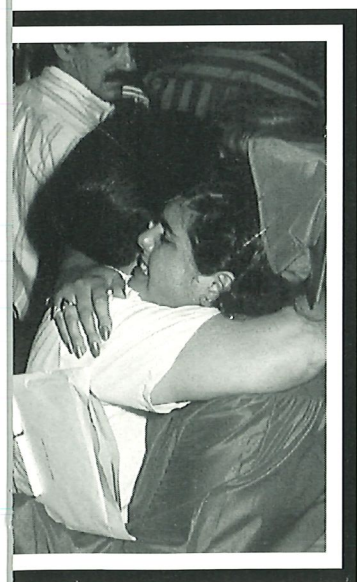

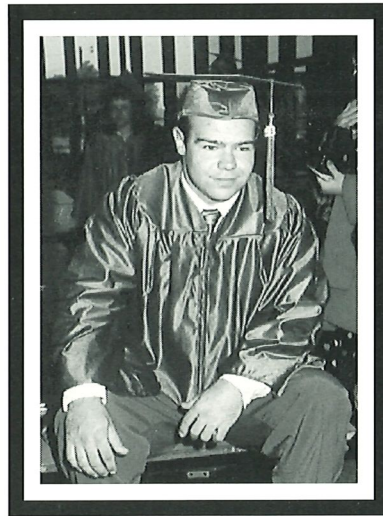

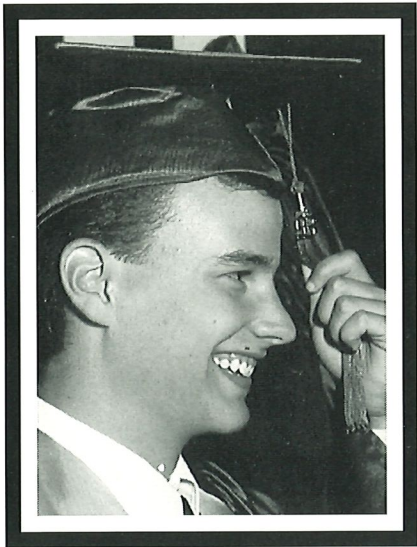

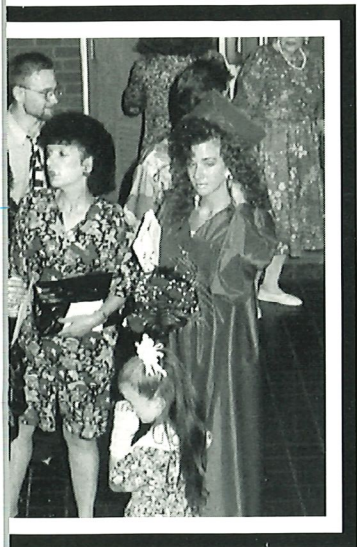

Following the speeches, keynote remarks were made by Dr. John Rooney, Mr. William Kasulis, and Mr. Richard Wielebinski, urging the graduates to take heed of their own lives. After the stirring remarks, the eagerly anticipated moment of the presentation of diplomas arrived. As the proud graduates marched across the stage to accept their diplomas from Mr. Joseph Roberts and Mr. Richard Wielebinski, many of them realized that a certain period in their lives was coming to an end. Then, as LeRoy executed his salute — his final act as president — the Class of '93 reached not only its ultimate culmination, but also its true beginning.

CLASS PROPHECY

SETTING — 15th reunion of the Riverside class of 1993.

Jim — Hey, I remember you, Fuller, Kathy Fuller, right. So what do you think of the reunion so far?

Kathy — All of these people look so different. The last time I saw them all was 15 years ago. So, what have you been up to these days?

Jim — I'm an electrical engineer for IBM. What are you doing?

Kathy — Well, I work as a pediatrician at the Moses Taylor Hospital.

Jim — You know, I heard a lot of people from our class are in the medical profession.

Kathy — Like Rob Hartman and Jennifer James who are physical therapists, and Tara Petrunich who became a child psychiatrist.

Jim — Kevin Bisignani is a psychiatrist too. He specializes in male/female relationships.

Kathy — I heard that John Morgan bought out the local Burger Kings and changed them into a chain of drive-through operating rooms, and that Jim Masters is a bone surgeon.

Jim — Ron Wescott moved to Idaho and became a successful surgeon, and Dave Beecham I heard became "Speaker of the House."

Kathy — I was reading the paper the other day and I saw Mandy Antoniaci's picture. She just started the first women's professional baseball league, with Staci Hughes and Maureen Felter playing on one of the teams.

Jim — Kerry Niemic and Dan Grassi both won gold medals for track events in the last Olympics, and Scott McNichols won a medal for throwing the discus.

Kathy — I read somewhere that Bob Coyle became a professional wrestler named "The Big Boss Man."

Jim — A lot of our high school football players went on to play professionally.

Kathy — Yeah, Brian Dymek and Eric Revesz both play for the Buffalo Bills, and Mario Godino plays for the Pittsburgh Steelers; Becky Griffin and Danielle Gallagher both became cheerleaders for the Dallas Cowboys.

Jim — Missy Karnis and Brian Waters were just inducted into the basketball Hall of Fame.

Kathy — Speaking of basketball, Rick Schraeder is a starter for the L.A. Lakers.

Jim — I heard that John Sentivan became the new owner of the Colorado Rockies baseball team.

Kathy — And Joe Barrett now owns Pocono Downs, and I saw on TV that Jason Siminski was named Mr. Universe again.

Jim — Some students came back to work at old Riverside High, like Paul Sochovka who became the new advisor for the Student Council, and Jennifer Morrell is the band director.

Kathy — Tara Casey and Erin Digwood became the unit advisors and Jared Godlewski is the new track coach.

Jim — Didn't Tara Casey marry Paul Mishuk?

Kathy — Yeah, Paul is now the head of the local crime watch.

Jim — Isn't Krista Bartosch the new commissioner of the Scranton Police Force?

Kathy — Yes, and Guy Giannone is her best law enforcement officer.

Jim — As I was driving through town I noticed that some students opened their own businesses. Ric Celuck owns a shoe store specializing in oversize shoes.

Kathy — Jason Preitz and Dave Schiavo have their own party planning business with Rebecca Thom as their secretary.

Jim — I just bought a new system for my car the other day from Brian James and Joe McGrath's car stereo shop.

Kathy — Mike Corrotto, Don Hart, and Dave Wiatrowski started their own construction company with Mike Connor working for them.

Jim — Joy Butts opened a world wide chain of dance clubs; one of which is managed by Bob Murray.

Kathy — John Williams opened a bakery known for his world famous pumpkin pies.

Jim — Laurie Charney just told me that she and LeAnn Nelson took over Big Lots in Moosic.

Kathy — I heard Kara Conte is entertaining children's birthday parties as the new Bobo the Clown.

Jim — Jason Connor is also in entertainment. He writes heavy metal songs for Bob Shertza and Scott Uher's band.

Kathy — Jamie Thomas plays the trumpet in a jazz band. Also, Kelli Brown and Sarah Zigmont became famous dancers.

Jim — Do you know who I haven't seen yet? Jen Ozark.

Kathy — Oh, she joined the Navy to be with her boyfriend, and Holly Owens and Cris Pawlikowski joined the army, along with Jerome Davis.

Jim — And Tom Evans joined the Air Force.

athy — Did you hear the news about Jenn Barbini?

m — Yeah, she's the new head of the Peace Treaty Organization with Amy Sica as her business secretary.

athy — Have you heard about all the business people who came out of our class? Jerry Gronski inherited his father's car shop.

m — Dave Hughes, Jenn Conway, and Betty Ann McGraw are computer programmers for a huge business firm, and Chuck Breig owns a trucking company called Chuck's Trucks and Jack's Macks.

athy — After taking over Peanuts, the comic strip, Jenn Boyko runs the largest comic strip business in the world. Snoopy is still her favorite.

m — Did you hear about the Scranton Times?

athy — No, why?

m — Because Mary Brown and Tracy Johnson are the new editors.

athy — Really? Pam Curry writes a series for the New York Times. She is a famous movie critic. I guess all those years at Blockbuster really paid off.

m — I was grocery shopping the other day and I found out that Danielle Cravetts, Cathy Flannery, and Dena Gursky all became managers at Mr. Z's Food Mart.

athy — I went to Becci Pfeiffer's Salon yesterday and she showed me two of the newest products on the market: Doug Turner's hair dye and Bill Preslock's hair straightener. Doug and Bill both patented their products and made big bucks.

m — I went to Broadway last month and saw that LeRoy Jennings had the lead in the Phantom of the Opera.

athy — Hey, what ever happened to that chatterbox, Dave Weisenfluh?

m — He moved to Africa to study the culture.

athy — I was just talking to PJ Saar before. Did you know that she was an executive producer for CBS in New York City?

m — Yeah, Kim Orazzi and Sandy Whahlers told me that she was a client at their accounting firm.

athy — Colleen Walsh and Terri Murman both went into communications like they always wanted. Hey look, there's Pam Hazelton.

m — She works for the Red Cross now and ran the blood drive at Riverside this past year.

athy — Isn't that Megan Decker?

m — Yes, she's a pharmacist for Fay's Drug Store now. Who is she talking to?

athy — That's Jolene Godlewski. She followed in Mrs. Kozloski's footsteps and became an English teacher.

Jim — Did Kelly Dougher become a teacher too?

Kathy — No, she owns a few tanning salons in the area.

Jim — Did you see all the posters of Sylvia Hailston outside?

Kathy — You mean Bichi? No, why?

Jim — Because she's running for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Kathy — Mike Pisaro has also been in the papers lately. He's the hero fireman who saved many people from sure death.

Jim — There's Karla Scioscia. I heard she became a nurse, and her friend Tammy Schild is her secretary.

Kathy — Isn't that Jeff McAllister and Rochelle Shoemaker over there?

Jim — Yeah, I heard they got married after high school and started their own business.

Kathy — I took my daughter to the dentist the other day and he told me to take her to the best orthodontist in town, Paul Brennan.

Jim — I heard that Amy Reilly and Sherry Norton recently opened a day care center.

Kathy — Yes, that's where I take my kids.

Jim — Alisa Maiese told me that she became a speech pathologist, and Sandy Halko and Melissa Vince work for her as secretaries.

Kathy — There is Jennifer Grasso over there. I heard she began her own law firm in New York. Hey, have you heard anything from Billy Simonson?

Jim — Yeah, I take my car to him when I need a tune-up. How about Erica Griffiths?

Kathy — Oh, I heard that she wrote a best selling book for teens named, "Surviving High School."

Jim — Well, it looks like all the people in our class became great successes, and accomplished a lot.

Kathy — Yes, they have.

Jim — Oh look, they are starting to serve the dinner. Well, I guess we better sit down now.

Kathy — Yeah, I guess so. Well, it's been nice talking to you. I guess I'll see you later. Bye.

Jim — Good-bye.

Suggestions to get the most out of life

As you go forth into the world always remember that the gaining of great happiness and success depends upon:

1. How well you treat others
2. How positive you think (There's never been an unhappy positive person . . . at least not for very long)
3. Knowing that no one on earth is either more important or less important than you
4. Knowing that everything in our lives comes as a direct result of how and what we think — So guard your thoughts and allow only good to fill your mind and good will follow you almost every day of your life
5. Seeking not to be the best, but trying to do your best and help others do their best — You will have the support of everyone
6. Believing in yourself, that an incredible genius lies within you; for you are capable of achieving things beyond your wildest dreams
7. To be enthusiastic every day of your life — For enthusiasm is the springboard for every great accomplishment
8. Making every day the greatest time of your life and believing that every day gets better
9. To allow every obstacle to be your teacher and make you stronger — Failure will not exist for you

We hope that these suggestions will help you to be happy and successful and that the more successful you become, the more humble you'll become.
