GOLF

The 1991-92 Viking Golf Team ended their season with a record of 6 2-1 under the direction of Mr. Helcoski. Randy Casey and Brian Kovatch served as the team's co-captains. Senior members included Mike Evangelista, Fred Johnson, and Tom Calpin. Randy Casey was a 1st team All Star selection, and Mike Evangelista was a 2nd team All Star selection. The Chuck Sigman award was presented to Randy Casey for his outstanding effort during the golf season.

GIRLS' TENNIS 1991-1992

The 1991-1992 girls' tennis team had an outstanding season, thanks to their determination and school spirit. Lady Vikes tennis team was coached by Ms. Jeanie Defazio. Senior members include Rebekah Oustrich, Kristina Wiedlich, Amy Maher, and Jennifer Malishewsky. Several members of the team also participated in the first round of singles and doubles. Congratulations to the team once again for all their unending efforts. Good luck next year!

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

"Things That Make You Go Hmm!" captured this year's homecoming theme. This brought about a week full of events, including hall decorating and dress up days. Monday started the week off with college sweat shirt day. On Tuesday, the upperclassmen wore all the black that they could find. The "all famous" Beach Day followed on Wednesday, with everyone wishing that they could be under the sun. Thursday the seniors masqueraded in hats and sunglasses, and Friday the official "Red and Blue" day took place. The week ended with Eddie Gaidula capturing Homecoming King, Jennifer Conte and Erick Price enjoying a taste of a pie in the face, and Lisa Morgan being crowned Homecoming Queen.

LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS

The Drama Club chose "Little Shop of Horrors" as this year's fall play. It began with a drop of blood, then two or three, then eventually amounts that couldn't satisfy the appetite of the evil plant, Audrey Two. Seymour, portrayed by Jamie Granko, created this evil plant just to win the love of Audrey, portrayed by Lesya Popil. But, Audrey's heart belonged to a dentist by the name of Orin Scrivello, played by Eric Gnall. Jealousy caused Seymour to feed the dentist to the plant, but later the plant grew bigger and took it upon himself to swallow the whole cast. The show turned out to be a great hit due to a determined and creative cast under the superior direction of Mrs. Carol Hapstak.

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE CLASS OF '92

Being here today finally makes us realize, how quickly the years have gone by.
Let's now take the time to analyze,
our years at Riverside High.

As underclassmen it was quite tough, trying to adjust to the sudden change.
But what we all did not know was,
at the end of 11th grade our life would be rearranged.

Our senior year had a visitor for a while,
studying with us from Mexico for a year.
A girl with a pretty smile,
to all her friends Gabby is very dear.

Guidance is a place where the seniors spent most of their time.
Visiting Mrs. Lisowski, who was busy as a bee.
She was swamped with a heavy workload, know the seniors would agree.

The "Class of 92" was the first in many years,
to have a pep rally under the lights.
This brought about the renewed tradition,
of home football games at night.

This year's football team didn't have a winning season,
and they weren't #1 on the charts,
but they can all be sure,
that they hold a special place in our hearts.

We knew our last spirit week couldn't last forever,
but we'll always remember the best things,
like our hall decorating fight,
and Lisa and Eddie as queen and king.

This year's golf team was certainly up to par,
with a final record of 6-2-1.
No matter what their record was,
I'm sure we'd all agree it was a job well done.

As the Lady Vikes captured the court, their dedication and commitment showed with their play.

The spirit of the fans never ran short,
even though they didn't make it all the way.

Now we have the team of boys' basketball,
who always had the support of the crowd.
Although they didn't have a winning season,
they still made all their fans very proud.

Baseball, Softball, Tennis, and Track, spring sports that were all exciting,

this year we brought an old sport back,
as we tried our hand at bowling.

On January 14 we faced something we'll remember forever,
something that just couldn't be missed.
We had a tornado, something quite like a tremor, which left in a sudden, unforgettable twist.

Senior skip day was such a sight,
because we went to this place we all admire.
Instead of Wednesday, we had it Tuesday night,
so we could just "talk" and "gather by the fire."

"For Just a Moment" the seniors took time out, for one final unit show, whose theme was "And We Danced."

They discovered what a unit show was all about.
At leading her troops, it was Miss Viking's "Last Chance."

Now here is the semi, that we call the "Passing of the Sword",
when everybody gathers with all of their friends
The unit leaders are announced for the upcoming year,
and most hoped the night would never end.

We gathered on stage for Honor Society Induction,
dressed in our Sunday best attire.
But what we all did not know was,
that this was just the start for a fire.

This year's talent show sure was different,
with Vatch and Occy on top of everyone's list.
When Vatch sang Humpty, the crowd went crazy, and Occ's imitation of Metallica was one not to be missed.

Now there are our class officers.
We all appreciate the job they've done.
They're a group of four, we'll never forget, working very hard but mostly having fun.

The theme of this year's prom was "Wonderful Tonight."

To all of the seniors, this would be one last scene.

Everybody wished the night would last forever,
and in the end, Missy was crowned as queen.

KIM MARTINI

CLASS HISTORY

Scene: The year is 2004. Eric is playing basketball for "Da Baby Bulls" of Chicago. "MBA-Midget Basketball Assoc.). Donna is cheering for the other team. Eric's team wins at the buzzer and the announcer says "Da Baby Bulls win it with Little Man Tate making the shot at the buzzer."

D: Little Man Tate? We had a Little Man Tate in our class at Riverside in '92 but his real name was Eric Gnall. Is that you Eric behind that mustache.

E: Yes it's me! I remember you you're Lisa Micciche. What are you doing cheering for our arch rivals "Coyle's Birds Nest".

D: I'm not Lisa Micciche.

E: Yes you are. I remember we always used to fight in highschool.

D: That's right. You and Lisa always did fight but I'm not her. I'm Donna Douglas.

E: You can't be Donna! You're kidding!

D: No really it's me!

E: I can't believe you're a cheerleader. You used to be so quiet in highschool. Boy things do change.

D: Well things have changed. I can't believe this mustache. I remember we used to tease you about it in highschool because you couldn't grow one.

E: Well it only took me 12 years and I'm still working on the beard.

D: Speaking of facial hair. Do you remember Marc Stefanelli. Or did he really go to Old Forge?

E: Ya. He looked more like one of the teachers than a student.

D: I remember Marc and Lara Bennie used to hang out in the weight room during gym class. Do you remember those skirts she wore?

E: Oh Ya! They were so short you could use them as head bands

D: Robin Powell wore some of those skirts herself.

E: That sure kept Joe Walters happy.

D: Tell me about it. You couldn't keep them away from each other. They were joined at the hip.

E: Erick Price and Missy Merrick were another long lasting couple.

D: I remember him. He was that very polite, well-mannered, quiet, shy kid.

D and E: NOT!

E: Speaking of well-mannered, remember how Kris Tompkins and Joe DiStasi used to make Disgusting noises in class.

D: Joe was always into that immature stuff.

E: Maybe that's why all of his girlfriends were in 8th grade.

D: Ya. But that's not as bad as Shad Lewis. Remember the poetry he used to write Mrs. Lud. and then he escorted her into Class Night.

E: But the best pair had to be Lisa Morgan and Ed Gaidula.

D: No that was Mike Antonacci.

E: Are you sure?

D: Yes. That was 3 long years of breaking up.

E: Going out.

D: Breaking up.

E: going out.

D: Speaking of fights, there was a lot of fights in our class. Remember the fight between Jackie Doleman and Kelly Dougher on the lunch room.

E: Kelly Dougher. Wasn't she the girl in Psychology class that got so confused and did her report on multiple sclerosis instead of multiple personalities?

D: Boy. That was almost as funny as when Mat Zelenowski nominated himself as class president in 10th grade.

E: But I felt bad when no one seconded the nomination.

D: Ya. Those elections were unpredictable.

E: Especially senior year when Rob Jones won over Melissa Porfirio for class president.

D: That was a good year for Rob. He was Honor Society President, Senior Class President, number 1 in the class . . .

E: And he finally got his first girlfriend.

D: Remember his speech at the prom when he told that dirty joke?

E: Mr. Kryzanowski sure loved that one.

D: But the prom was pretty good. Missy Merrick was the prom queen.

E: How about Tim Ott and Joey Yanchowski got the 2 for 1 deal on the tuxedos.

D: And the next day we all went to Great Adventure.

E: Ya. Fred Johnson drove with Lara Bennie and told everyone that he knew the directions and that he wouldn't get lost.

D: And then they ended up in Philadelphia . . .

E: Well Philadelphia was the only thing that didn't end up on Tim Ott's porch.

D: Ya. Brian Kovatch and Jim Thomas used to put construction cones, canoes, and anything else they could find on his front porch.

E: Mr. Ott wasn't too pleased with that.

D: Rob Jones has him on video tape chasing them down the street.

E: I can't believe Brian did that but Jim Thomas was always a trouble maker.

D: It all started in 7th grade when he poured the disappearing ink on Mr. Maestri's shirt.

E: That must have been the reason Mr. Maestri drop kicked the door.

D: Mr. Maestri always got picked on.

E: Remember how Amy Maher used to imitate him (Lawyers pack your bags, animals in your cages)

D: 8th grade was another fun experience.

E: Ya. How about Mr. Beecham's class when Rob Carter and the boys used to fire projectiles across the room.

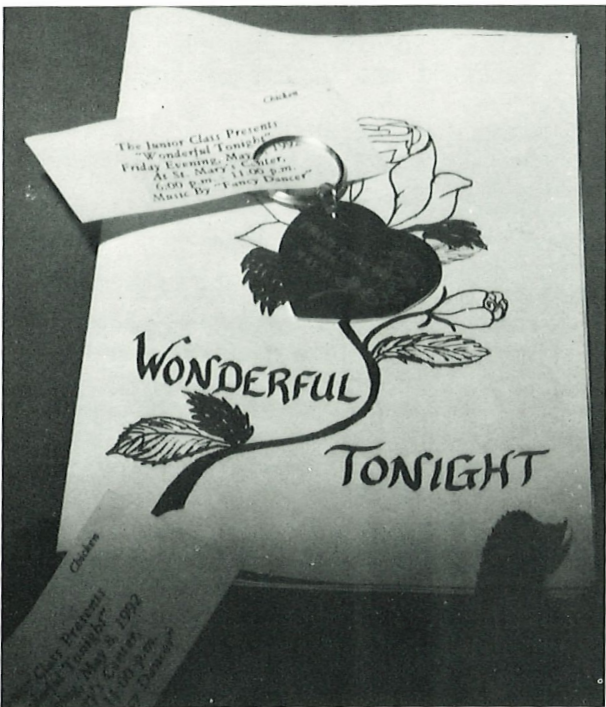

D: Lucky for them Mr. Beecham's eyes were always glued to his book.

E: How about when Melanie Cole beat Jeff Killin in arm wrestling in Miss Salavanti's class?

D: What was Jeff's excuse for losing?
E: He said his hand was hurting him that day.
D: Jeff had an excuse for everything. Maybe that's why he's so good at selling drugs.
E: Remember how he used to sell watches to all the teachers?
D: Mr. Migal sure loved when Jeff used his class time to sell his merchandise.
E: Remember Mr. Migal's "Handshake of Death"?
D: That was a good disciplinary tool.
E: Ed Gaidula used to get that every day.
D: Ya. That Eddie was always a trouble maker too.
E: Ya. He and Mr. Roberts used to have the joking contests in Physics class.
D: Mr. Roberts hacked up Eddie there every time.
E: Hacked off is what Tom Calpin used to talk about when he became an EMT.
D: Oh Ya! He used to tell us that if you get your arm chopped off it wouldn't bleed much.
E: I guess that didn't work for Tom because when he put the thermometer through his hand he was bleeding all over the room.
D: Speaking of blood, remember when Elena Ancherani passed out at the blood drive?
E: Or was that Eileen Ancherani? I could never tell them apart?
D: That blood drive was almost as exciting as our ofer football season.
E: Ofer? What's an ofer?
D: You know we were 0 for 10.
E: I was surprised because we had the biggest kid in the Big 11.
D: Oh you meam Stef or Price?
E: No. Joe Martz. He was a monster!
D: At least the girls basketball team did good that year.
E. What was their record?
D: I can't remember.
E: If Kris Tomkins were here he could tell you because he dated everyone on the team.
D: All I can remember was our junior year when we almost won the state championship.
E: You couldn't beat our cheering section that year.
D: What was that famous cheer you did?
E: (does Boom Chick a Boom)
D: We really had some good athletes in our class.
E: How about Amy Raniello finishing second in states and Lynn Bowen and Randy Casey winning that PIAA award.
D: I just hope that winning those awards didn't give Randy a Big Head!
E: But we deserved to have big heads after finally winning spirit week.
D: Remember in 9th grade we did Candy Land.
E: Too bad we got disqualified for the candy land road being duck taped to the floor.
D: Then in 10th grade we did Woodstock. That was cool.
E: I thought we would definitely win when Becky Oustrich and Amy Maher came dressed as two hip-pies.
D: But the best hall was the Wizard of Oz.
D and E: Laugh

E: Boy that was terrible.
D: The comic book hall was above all the best.
E: Thanks to Rob and his use of the overhead.
D: We took second in that hall but at least we won spirit week.
E: That's the first time our class ever won anything.
D: We weren't very good at winning but we were experts at goofing off.
E: Billy Gallegher was good at that.
D: Remember how he, Jeff Occhipinti, and Dan Digwood used to around chipping the gum off the desks in the library.
E: They were too cheap to buy their own.
D: Speaking of cheap, how about all our ditties.
E: One of the best was Jeff Danilovitz's rhyme about Price.
D: Did Erick like it?
E: He must have. He gave Jeff a big kiss.
D: Remember Maria Jarecki's party afterwards when Jeff Tigue got thrown in the pool.
E: "Ich" what a splash!
D: Speaking of splashes, remember the talent show?
E: You mean the one where Jeff Occhipinti sang "Enter Sandman" by Metallica.
D: I always knew what kid had a beautiful voice.
D and E: NOT!
E: And how about Brian Kovatch when he called the seniors up for the Humpty Dance.
D: Brian really gets into the parts just like Mr. Kasulis and his announcements.
E: I mean where did he get all those exciting adjectives? "We will have a very special announcement. I repeat we will have a very, very special announcement. Because of the severity of the storm there will be a late arriving bus, so teachers are asked to delay homeroom roll until, oops!! There's the bell. Never mind."
D: They were so exciting they even woke up Mike Sledgeski who slept in just about every class.
E: I guess he was just bored.
D: According to Danielle Hughes and Danyelle Butts a lot of our classes were boring.
E: Remember they used to remind Mr. Pettinato and Mr. Roberts about that every day.
D: And then our days at Riverside came to a close.
E: But we really did have some good memories. Well I guess it's off to the showers for me.
D: Boy Eric! I still can't get over this mustache.
E: It took some time to grow but if Jeff DeFazio could see me now he'd be really proud.
D: (pulls it off) I should have known!!
E: Give me that back!! Maybe I could sell it as a toupee to Cord Micavicz.

This year the Student Council's blood drive was a success. Over 134 pints of blood were donated by students, faculty, and the community. Along with the blood drive, Student Council topped the year with many fundraisers including candy sales, guessing of teachers baby pictures, Valentine sales and much more. Student Council also did a remarkable job of sponsoring this year's Homecoming activities which included pie in the face, hall decorating, and crowning of the queen.

CLASS WILL

I, Jeff Killino and I, Tracy Dreistadt, being of sound mind and body, leave the following to this year's underclassmen and teachers:

J — Tracy Dreistadt — leaves to check that Rob's hair is still in place.

1992 LADY VIKES SOFTBALL

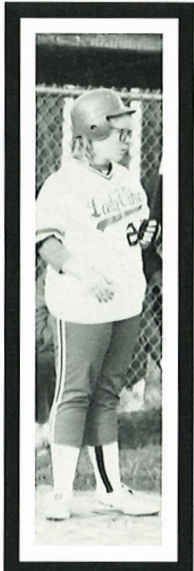

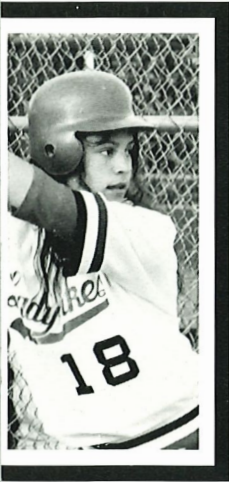

RENEE

This season, the Lady Vikes Softball Team proved to be major contenders in the Lackawanna League. The team, coached by Mr. David Adomial and Mr. Steve Petrunich, posted a 7-4 record. Team captains were Lynn Bowen and Renee Sweeney. Special awards were presented at the All Honors Banquet. Mandy Antonacci received the Offensive Player of the Year Award; Staci Hughes received the Defensive Player of the Year Award; and Lynn Bowen received the Most Valuable Player Award.

BASEBALL

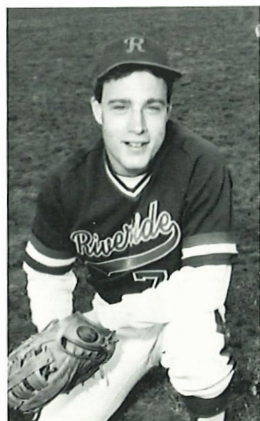

Tri-captains for the 1992 baseball season were Kevin Prislusky, Mike Antonacci and Eddie Gaidula. The team, coached by Mr. Joeseeph Graziano, finished their season with an 8 and 5 record. Senior players include, Lee Rosser, Randy Casey, Jim Brown, Kevin Prislupsky, Mike Antonacci, and Ed Gaidula. Outstanding Offensive Player and Most Valuable Player awards were presented to Ed Gaidula at this year's All Honors Banquet. Also presented was the Outstanding Pitcher Award given to Lee Rosser and the Outstanding Defensive Player Award given to Kevin Prislupsky. The highlight of their season was a victory over The Double A State Champion Old Forge Blue Devils.

REBEKAH OUSTRICH

The Riverside girls' track team's success came in district competition. Coach Ken Bednash and assistant Micky Osmolia took four runners, Amy Maher, Kerri Niemic, Erin Digwood, Sherri Norton and Amy Raniello into districts. Together they scored 62 points and finished second, better than the other team in the Lackawanna League. Amy Raniello took two first places and one second, throwing the shot put. She established new records for the school which will long remain unbroken. Senior members were Amy Maher, Amy Raniello, Rebekah Oustrich, and Janette Weltz. This year's co-captains were Amy Maher and Amy Raniello.

BOYS' TRACK

Congratulations to the boys track team for an exciting season. With individual and combined efforts, the boys track team broke two school records, one during the regular season and the other during district competition. The 1600 meter relay team broke the record set in 1986 and the 3200 meter relay team broke their record set in 1984 by just one tenth of a second! Several team members qualified for district competition, seniors Captain: Gil Hill, Billy Gallagher, Erick Price, Mark Pajalich, John Griffin, Co-Captain: Brian Kovatch, and Kris Tompkins, juniors Danny Grassi, Dave Weisenfluh, and sophomore Dave Fedor.

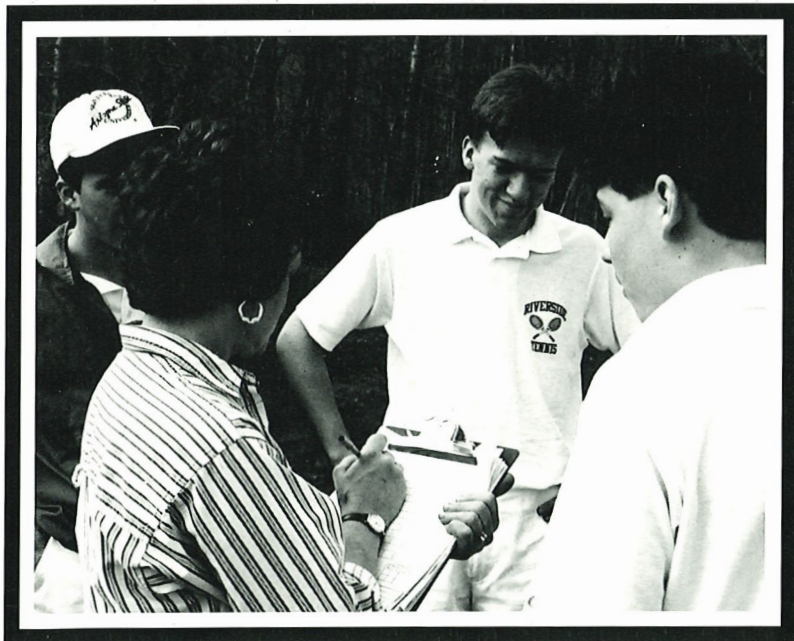

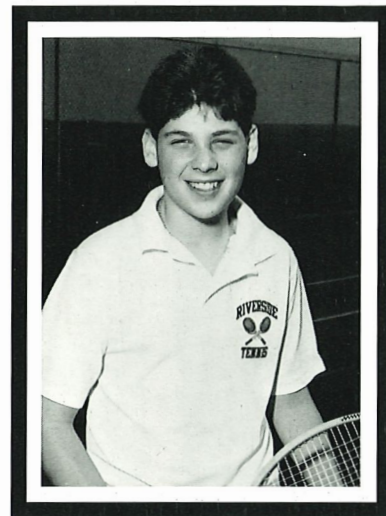

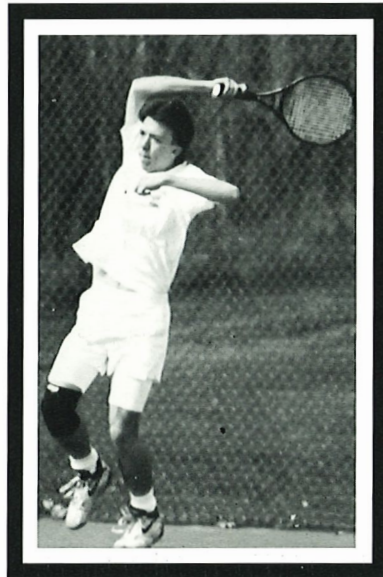

Once again congratulations to the boys track team and to the seniors and underclassmen, good luck next year.

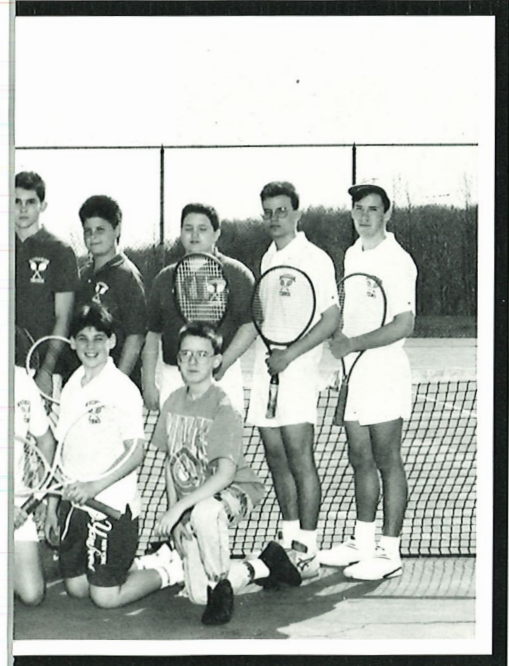

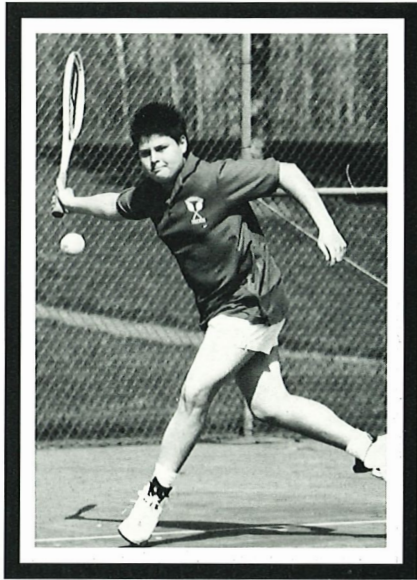

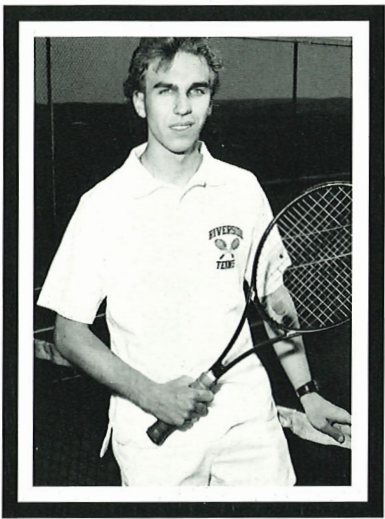

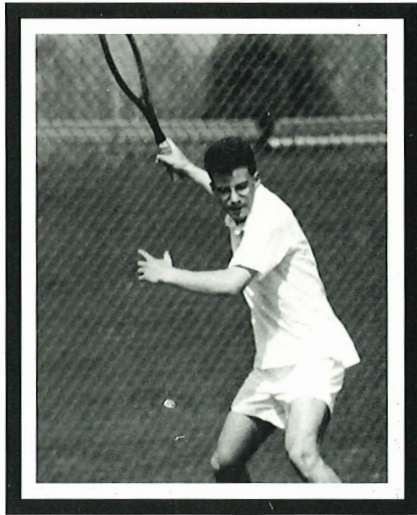

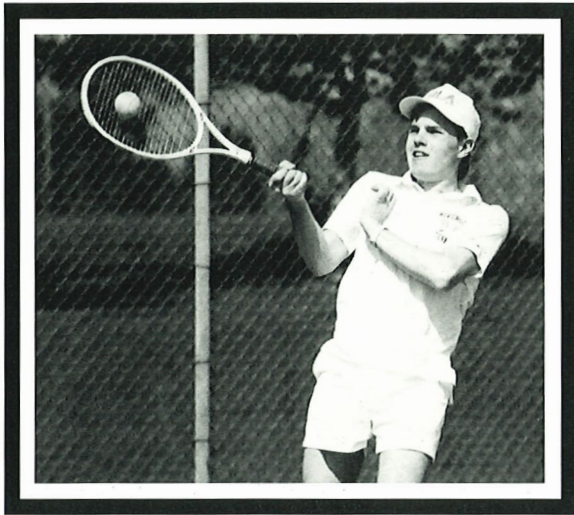

BOYS' TENNIS 1991-1992

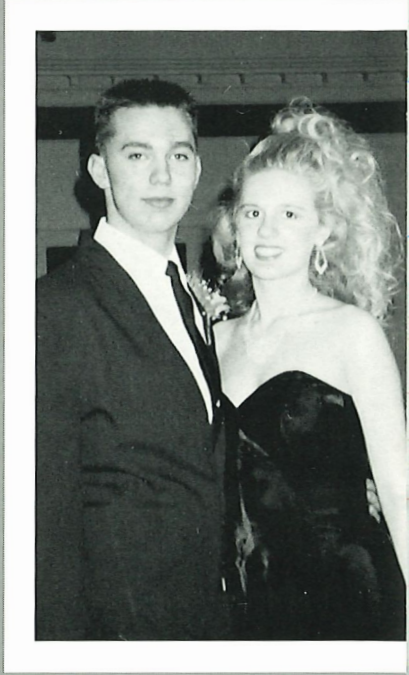

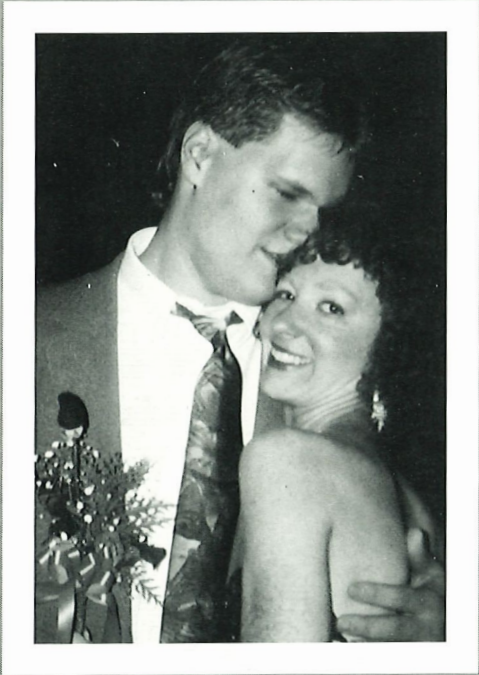

Coached by Ms. Jeanne DeFazio, The Riverside Vikings had an outstanding season. Senior members were Eric Gnall and Jody Novack, who also served as co-captains for the 1992 season. Eric Gnall was awarded the M.V.P. award at the All Honors Banquet held in May.

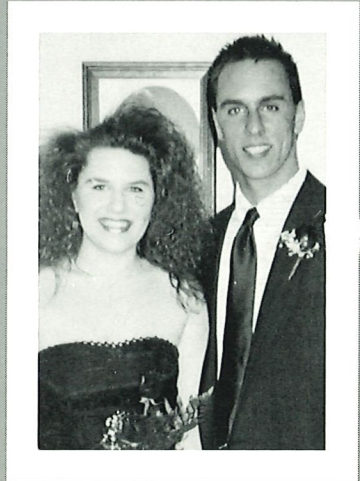

PASSING OF THE SWORD

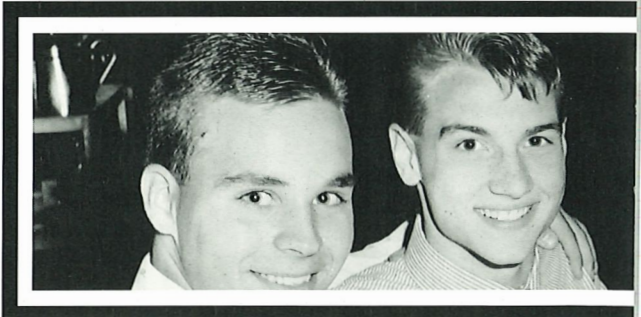

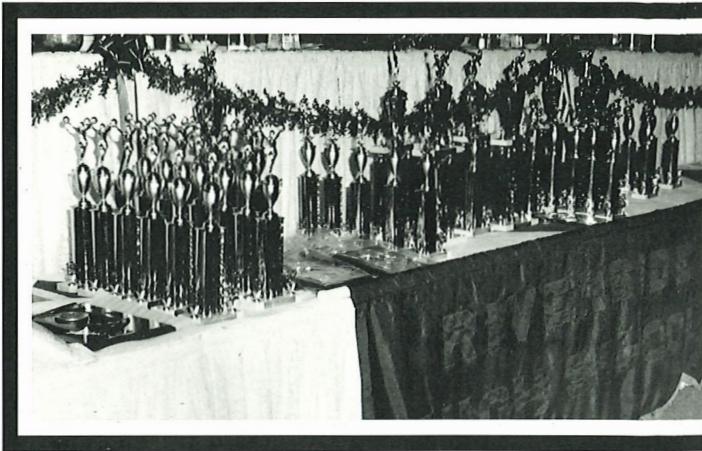

On March 29, 1992, the Riverside Units sponsored the Passing of the Sword at Montage Manor in Moosic. The evening included dinner, dancing and mingling. The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the newly elected unit leaders for the 1992-93 school year. Selected as pom-pon co-captains were Joy Butts and Chrissy Allen. Junior varsity co-captains were Karen Coolbaugh and Dana Koval. Feature dancer was Sara Zygmont, along with Kathy Fuller as Feature pom-pon. Chosen as Drum Majorette was Jamie Thomas. The evening's festivities culminated with the announcement of Erica Griffiths as the 1993 Miss Viking.

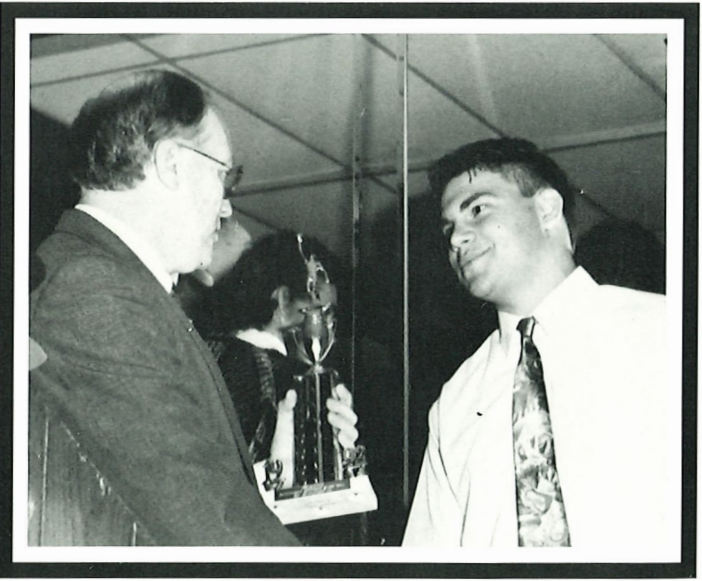

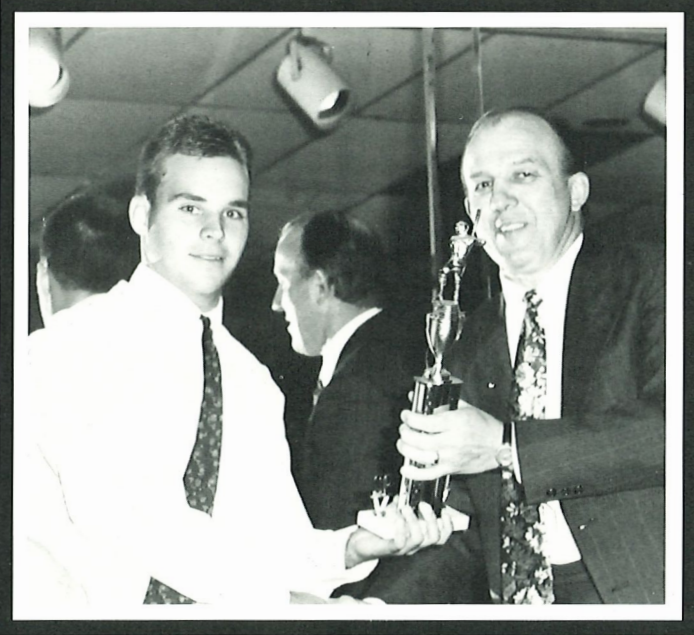

ALL HONORS

The All Honors banquet was held on May 20, 1992 at Convention Hall in Pittston. Students received letters for their remarkable achievements in sports and academics. Senior letter winners also received a jacket or sweater. The highlight of the evening was when Lynn Bowen and Randy Casey both received the PIAA Award. Athletic director Bernard Lazevnick served as Master of Ceremonies.

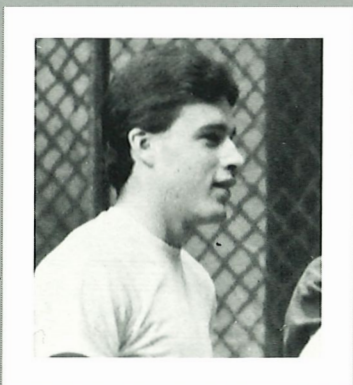

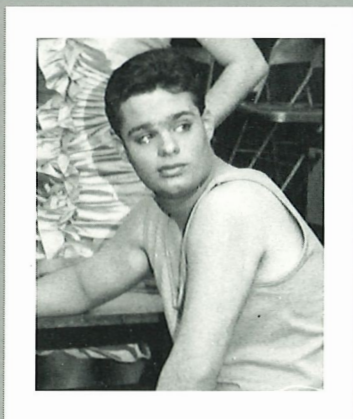

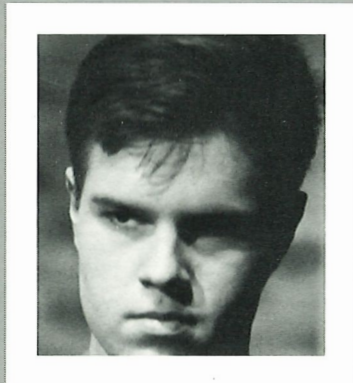

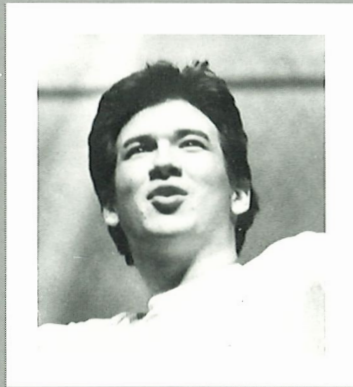

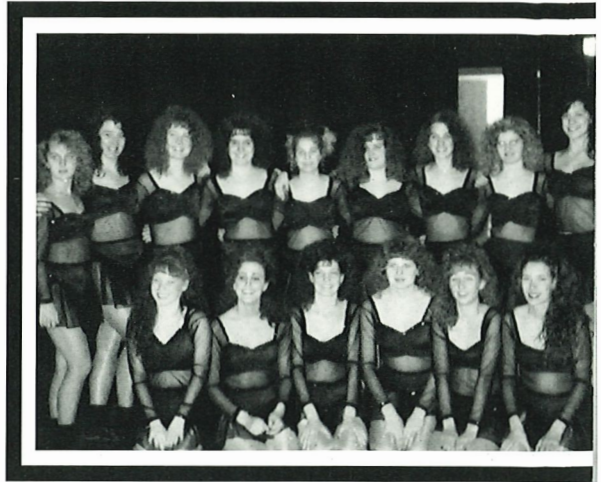

WEST SIDE STORY

GANGS, VIOLENCE, AND MURDER . . . These are what contributed to the mood, in the auditorium, during Riverside's production of WEST SIDE STORY on April 9th and 10th 1992. The members of the Jets or the "American" gang included stars such as Eric Gnall and Randy Casey. They strongly opposed the members of the Sharks or the "Puerto Rican" gang. Jim Thomas and Brian Capwell belonged to this gang that just wasn't accepted in this American city. The fighting continued throughout the play with "Glad Hand" or Gerard Perfetto and "Krupke" or David Mozeleski, trying to gain peace in the West Side of New York City.

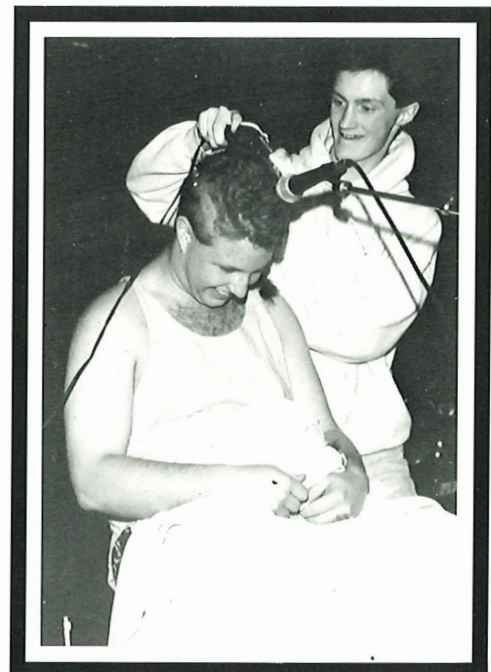

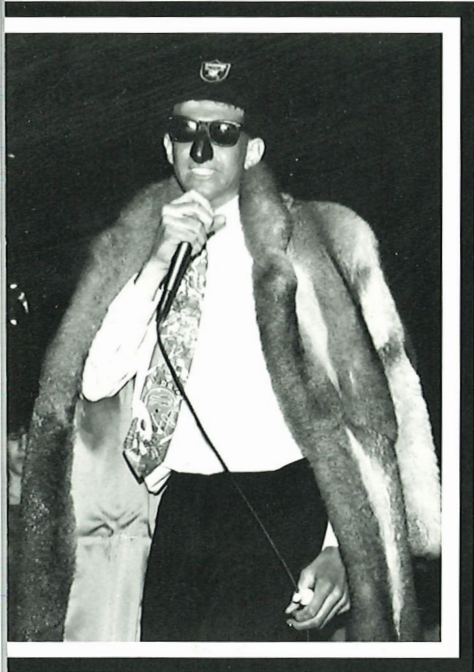

AND WE DANCED

"And We Danced" was exactly what happened the night of February 29, 1992, when the March Units sponsored this year's Unit Show. All the units came together and "strutted their stuff," showing the audience what real dancing is all about. The senior dance captured the audience's attention along with Drum Major Brian Capwell displaying his talents in a combined ballet routine. The night maxed when Lisa Morgan performed her last as Miss Viking with the remaining units joining her in the finale. The audience watched as the senior members enjoyed their last dance together, sharing tomorrow's memories in true Viking style.

TALENT SHOW

On April 30, the Drama Club presented "On With the Show." It featured many students displaying their talents in an entertaining evening of fun. Jeff Occiphinti captured the audience with his singing of Metallica's "Sand Man." Melissa Merrick showed the audience what true ballet form is like with her solo ballet routine to "Somewhere Out There." Eric Gnall kept the audience at the edge of their seats with many of the little skits that he performed. The show proved to be a hit when Brian Kovatch dressed himself up in a fur coat and a big nose and performed his impressions of the "Humpty Dance" which left Mr. Kryzanski a little unhappy.

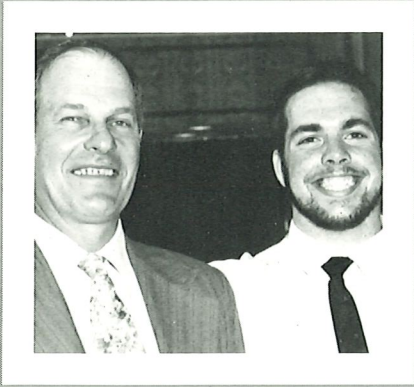

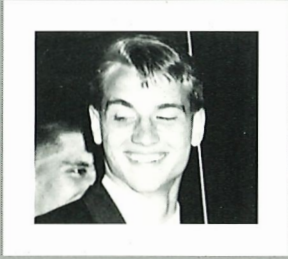

CLASS NIGHT

On Friday, May 22, 1992 the seniors gathered for one of their final times as a class at Genetti's Manor in Dickson City. The Dittie Committee presented each senior with a small gift to remind them of their days at Riverside. As the night ended the seniors slowly, but surely realized that their twelve years together were finally coming to an end.

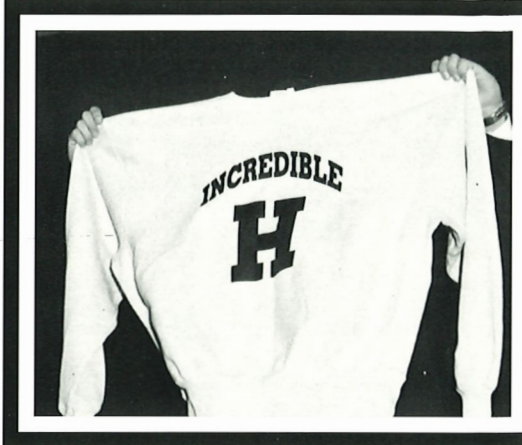

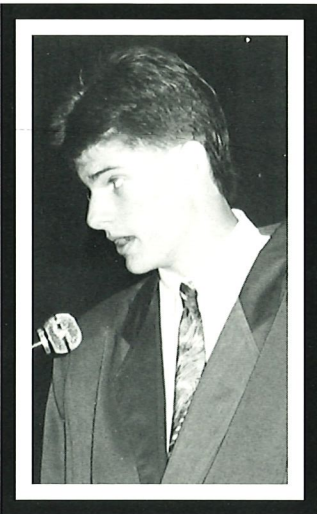

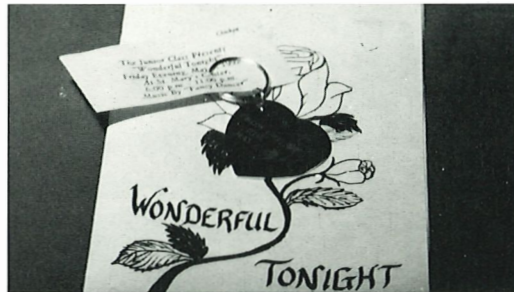

CLASS DAY

The Class of 1992's Class Day was held on June 3. Classmates gathered together to honor those who received scholarships or awards. The processional walk will always be remembered and the class sang the Alma Mater for one of the last times together. The mantle was passed down from Rob Jones (1992 Class Pres.) to Paul Sochovka (1993 Class Pres.). Rob Jones, Master of Ceremonies, gave a few last words to members of the class. The Class History was read by Donna Douglas and Eric Gnall to stir up memories from the past and the Salute to Riverside was given by Kim Martini in hopes to reminisce about the last six years. Also the Class Will read by Tracy Dreistadt and Jeff Killino and the Class Prophecy read by Lisa Micciche and Randy Casey were read to bring about laughter and memories among the class.

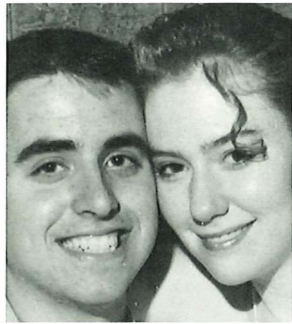

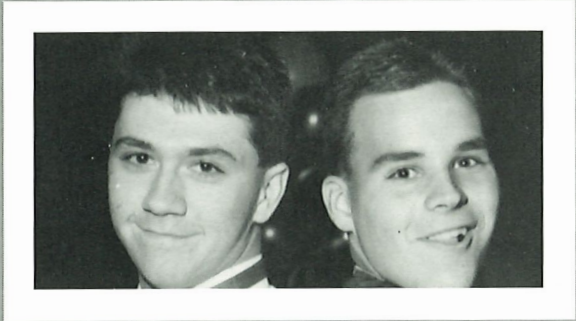

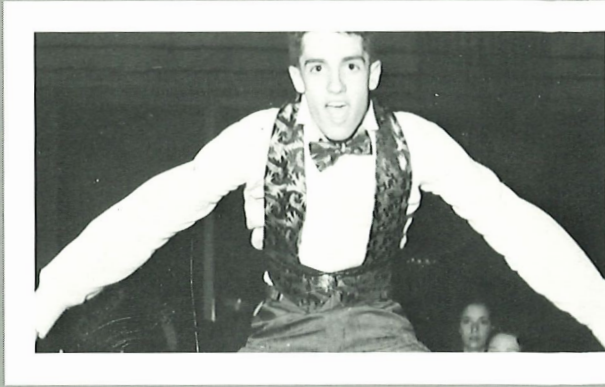

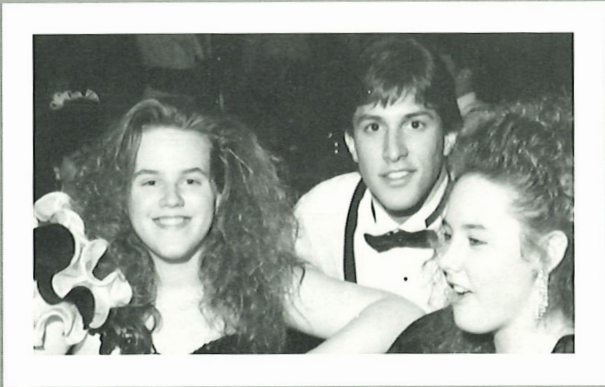

WONDERFUL TONIGHT

The 1992 Junior-Senior prom was held on May 8th at Saint Mary's Center in Scranton. The theme of our prom was "Wonderful Tonight" and music was provided by Fancy Dancer. Melissa Merrick was crowned at the end of the evening as queen. Her senior court included Lisa Morgan and Marla Jarecki. The junior attendants were Sarah Zigmont, Tara Casey, Mandy Antoniacci, and Jennifer Barbini. At the end of the evening, we all agreed that it was "Wonderful Tonight."

 Graduations here.
 The pain of going, I see it in your eyes,
 the love, the need, your tears.
 For I'll be lonely without you and I'll need your love to see me through.
 So please believe me, my heart is in your hands
 and I'll be missing you.

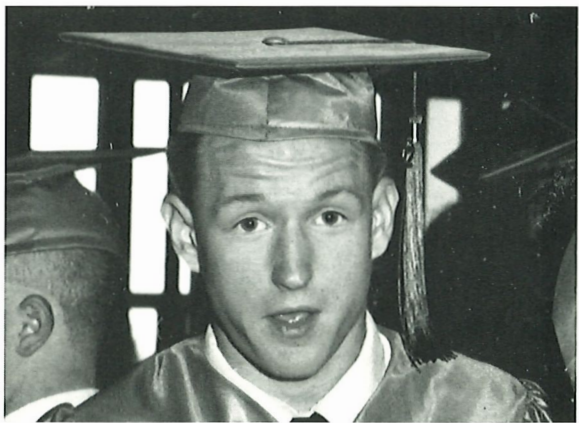

Cause you know, it's you friends
 whenever I get weary and I've had enough,
 feel like giving up.
 You know it's you friends, giving me the courage
 and the strength I need.
 Please believe, that it's true,
 Friends, I love you.

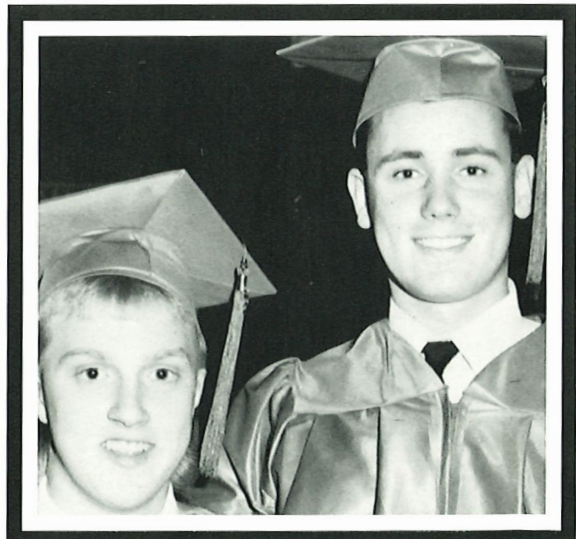

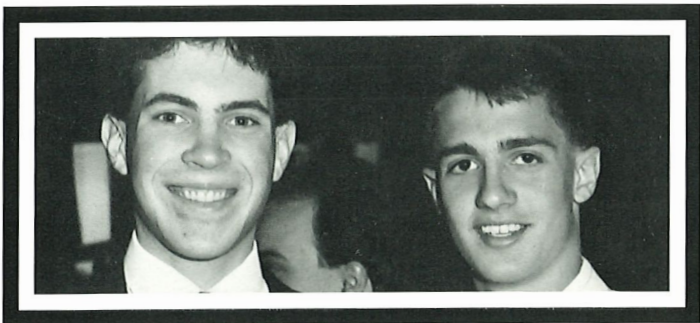

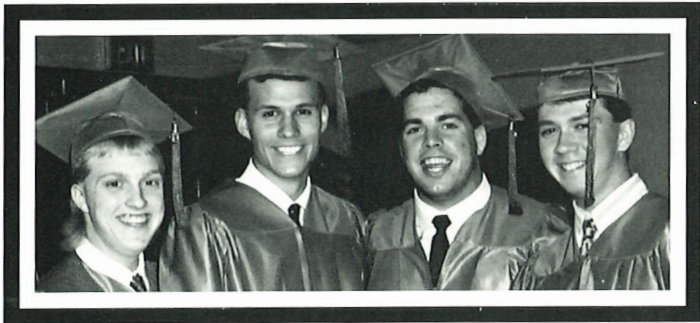

Cause you know, it's you Mom,
 whenever I get weary and I've had
 enough
 feel like giving up.
 You know it's you Dad, giving me the courage and the strength I need,
 please believe that it's true,
 Yes, I love you.

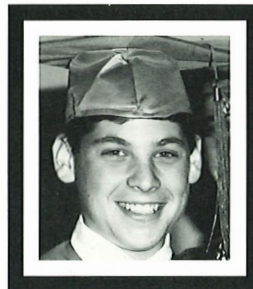

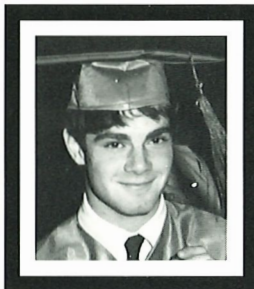

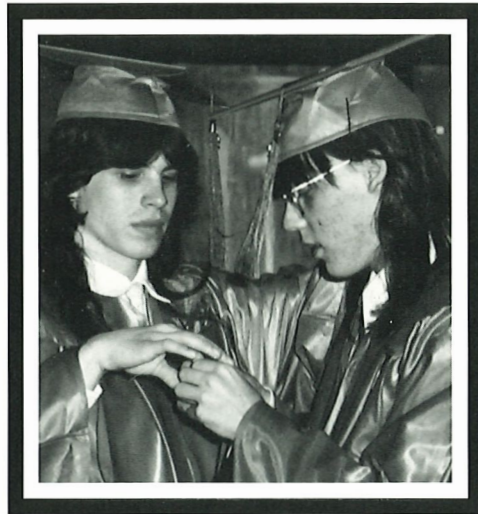

Mom, I leaving, I'll say it once again
 and Dad please try to smile.
 You are the parents we never could forget,
 not even for awhile.
 For I'll be lonely without you,
 and need your love to see me through.
 So, please believe me my heart is in your
 hands,
 and I'll be missing you.
 Mom, I love you. Dad, I love you.

COMMENCEMENT

The Class of 1992 held their Commencement Exercises on Friday, June 5th in the Riverside High School Auditorium. Speeches were given by Valedictorian Rob Jones, Salutatorian Renee Sweeney, Third Honors student Melissa Porferio and Fourth Honors student Nicole Holweg. Seniors sang "I'm Leaving" which left them teary eyed as they thought about their time spent as friends, the parents who have supported them and the faculty who have guided them. Remarks were given by Dr. John Rooney and Mr. Dennis Kryznowski, followed by the presentation of Diplomas by Mr. William Kasulis and Mrs. Perina Janeski. The ceremony concluded with a Benediction by the Rev. Edwin L. Martin and the singing of our Alma Mater. It was a bitter sweet occasion for all involved. However, tearful, the seniors realized that the ceremony was not an ending but merely another beginning.

CLASS PROPHECY

R — Hi Lisa! How ya doin'?

L — Good Randy.

R — How did you get here? Where did you come from?

L — That phone booth over there is my transportation.

R — You must be kidding. You're pullin' my leg, aren't you?

L — No, really. It's true. I just came from the future.

R — How far ahead from the future?

L — 13 years. I came from the year 2005.

R — How can I believe you?

L — Well, you know your friend Kevin Coleman?

R — Yes, what about him?

L — He's a professional wrestler for the WWF. His nickname is Hulk Coleman.

R — I can believe that. Anyone else from the future?

L — Dave Mozeleski had the rights of ownership of the Rocky Horror Picture Show transferred to him.

R — Really? I always knew he was a fanatic.

L — Enough about the future. What's happening now?

R — You have to see how many headlines our class has been making.

L — Who has been making them?

R — I'm ready the sports now and (PAUSE) here's Ed Gaidula's picture hitting a home run for the Mets. He's having his best year yet.

— And Lynn Bowen is a ballgirl for the crosstown New York team, the Yanks.

L — Really? and Kim Martini is a souvenir store manager for the Yanks too.

— Have you heard anything from Amy Maher, Amy Raniello, and Bill Gallagher?

R — No, last I heard, they completed successful college careers.

L — They are training for the Olympics in the year 2000.

R — Here's Mike Evangelista in the headlines ranked as one of the Top 5 amateur golfers in the country and Chris Slominski just won her first Firestone championship as a professional bowler.

L — What about our high school quarterback?

R — John Coyle, oh he plays for the NY-NJ Knights in the World League and Jeff Occhipinti even plays for the Scranton Eagles.

L — Well, Marc Stefanelli is the head coach for the Old Forge football team in the future.

R — Talking about Old Forge, Joe DiStasi just opened up his own pizza place with Jackie Dolman as one of his cocktail waitresses in the bar. While I was there, I ran into Donna Douglas. She works for the F.D.A. these days.

L — Yeah, that's probably because she worked at Kentucky Fried Chicken for so long. So anyway, where is this place in Old Forge?

R — Underneath Chris Kolveck and Janette Weltz's apartment building.

L — They're probably keeping their eyes on all the Old Forge guys (TURN PAPERS TO BUSINESS SECTION)

R — I'm tired of reading the sports. I have to check my investments out. I should call Brian Kovatch to get some hints on the stock market since he's become a very successful stock broker on Wall Street.

L — Renee Sweeney keeps in touch with him. That's where she found the money that she profited from in her investment in the Apple Jacks Company.

R — Do you know how the other parking buddy is?

L — Heah, Rob Jones. He opened up his own baseball card shop. Another buddy, Jen Radzwillowicz, is a lawyer.

R — She works for Jeff Killino's law firm.

L — I read of him in the future handling Ed Cook's court hearing dealing with the ownership of Montage.

R — I'm thinking of building a house at Glenmaura and I was going to ask Mike Rachko to be my housing contractor and Ed Andrejack's landscaping company to help me. How much development has that area gone through in the future?

L — Next to the Ski Shack, Amy Murman opened up her own pool supply shop. Elena and Elleen Ancherani built one of their many McDonald's across from the new mall and hired Brian Russamano as manager. Also, Kim Martini owns the Ponderosa just down the road at the Birney Plaza.

R — Anything else in the mall?

L — Bob Sickler opened up a bakery shop, and Alice Bartlow manages the IGA.

R — That's a lot of business people from our class! Did you know that Lana Kristoff is a successful business woman in New York with Gloriajean Warrick as her corporate secretary?

L — No. What do you think of Tracy Dreistadt taking over her father's bait shop?

R — That's great. (PAUSE) Look at this write-up of Tmalis' rising success. I think Shad Lewis works there as a salesman with Mrs. Ludwikowski's husband.

L — He always did like her.

R — Do you want to know anything else in the business section? Because I want to turn to the entertainment section and read the comics.

L — No, that's alright.

R — My favorite comic strip is Rub's Adventure's, it's based off of Calvin and Hobbes puns — Jim Thomas draws it.

L — Kim Ritts also became an artist. I saw her pictures in an art gallery along with Julie Patterson and Michelle Blakiewicz who skyrocketed after their painting the mural in Room 206 at Riverside High School.

R — Look at this! Ron Novotka, Fred Johnson, Dennis Stinson, and Steve Horoszko are stopping at Pocono Downs as part of their band's tour. They're good — even their groupie Debbie Boylan thinks so.

L — Yeah, they are good. They make it big in the future and one of their hits written by John Wheeler goes all the way to number one.

R — Jamie Grant is also a groupie, but he's for Vanilla Ice. I wonder what's on TV tonight.

L — You should see Brit Gazda on his HBO comedian special. His Jack Nicholson impersonations are perfect.

R — I hardly watch TV but I did see Lee Rosser last week at the Kirby Center putting on a comedy act. I do manage to catch some of Mike Antionacci's Turkey Hunting Show on ESPN.

L — Well, my favorite TV show is Danyelle Hughes' talk show, and I also catch some of Dave Yackobowitz's reporter show which he took off of Geraldo Rivera.

R — Just recently Eric Gnull won an Academy Award for best supporting actor in The Little Kid with Sean Connery.

L — Matt Zelenowski co-wrote a book with Stephen King which became another large movie for him. I think it was (PAUSE) in 2003.

R — Brian Capwell made a success of himself as the conductor for an orchestra at Carnegie Hall.

L — Just before I left to come here, I talked to Melissa Porfirio Stephanie Schraeder, and Elizabeth Davis.

R — What are they doing?

L — They performed a musical on Broadway entitled "The Best of the 60's".

R — Melissa Merrick is a professional ballerina in New York with Eric Price as her personal bodyguard.

L — Remember the trips to Buck's County? Gerard Perfetto starred as Tony in the new version of West Side Story.

R — Yeah, I even saw Dawn Kernan playing Little Red Riding Hood at Buck's County a couple years back.

L — Sometimes I visit Nicole Holweg, our U.S. Ambassador at the United Nations when they have meetings and Gabriela Perez is the Ambassador from Mexico.

R — Jeff Tighe works there as the English-German translator. Another person from our class who works in foreign relations is Jana Wydra. She's an English teacher at Oxford.

L — A Couple other people are teachers. Rhea Saar followed in Miss Stampien's footsteps as a typing teacher, Dan Digwood took Mr. Hyduchak's job at teaching and Kelly Allen became a government teacher at Riverside.

R — Well, Tracy Roche succeeded her mother as the Riverside Unit Director with Jenn Conte as her assistant.

L — Can you believe that Heather Seeley is still in Medical School?

R — Yeah, I could. Marla Jarecki and Melanie Cole are going for their doctorates in Psychology. They can always find a job at the Mental Institution headed by Jeff Defazio.

L — Candee Farrell works for the Syracuse Football team as a physical therapist. Also, Jeff Danilovitz works for Princeton University designing new math problems for the SAT's.

R — Tammy Williams works for Duke University as an announcer for the Basketball games.

L — Even Kris Tompkins played Basketball, for a while.

R — Our friends have a lot of affiliations with colleges today.

L — Rebekah Oustrich became a product of her own transportation as a flight attendant.

R — That'll do when you travel from Utah.

L — You know who travels a lot? Amy SurrIDGE, she travels the world from her lottery winnings. She even visits Robin Powell in Hawaii.

R — What does Robin Do?

L — She's a fashion model for Cosmopolitan magazine. She wears many of Lara Bennie's and Kelly Dougher's clothing designs, also Nicole Gera is the editor of the magazine.

R — Chrissy Nezlo is also a spokesmodel for Star Search, and Lisa Morgan is also a respected model who won numerous beauty pageants.

L — Did you know Joe Walters is Mr. America for his third year in a row?

R — No, that's ahead of my time. Joe Martz is a professional bodybuilder. Maybe he'll complete someday. (points no phone book)

R — What do you need the phone book for?

L — That's how I know where to travel.

R — Are Tim Ott and Joe Yanchowsky still as good of friends as they used to be?

L — Yeah, they are still together. In Fact, they organize many sports for the youths in Moosic and Taylor such as Little league baseball, Bidy football, and soccer.

R — Cord Mickavicz and Nick Gilchrist are still in our hometowns as chiefs of the Taylor and Moosic Fire Departments.

L — Well, Danielle Butts became the Moosic Mayor. She has done a real good job in bringing some jobs into the area, such as the new Stella Dora Breadstick Company owned by Stacie Taroll and there is a plan to bring in a new bubble gum factory owned by Jody Novack.

R — Is the I.B.M. company still around in your time? Because it moved here just recently.

L — Yes, as a matter of fact, it's thrived due to Kevin Prislupsky's hard work on the computers late every night.

R — I think Melinda Musso has a job there as a computer programmer because she answered the phone one day and helped me get the information on the best car garage in town.

L — So, who did she direct you to?

R — She said Kevin Searfoss and Teddy Hughes opened up their own full service station. (pause) Kevin Gable works as a welder for them.

L — Scott Hunter opens up his own van repair shop which he rents from Lapinski's garages to work on John Griffin's demolition derby car when he is in town.

R — Did you see Rob Carter beat Joe Amato in the Drag race?

L — NO, but I recently saw him in Florida along with Nancy Allunni's Harley Davidson's motorcycle gang.

R — Isn't it hot down there?

L — We keep cool with our swimming pools and ice cream really hits the spot, especially from Gil Hill's Ice cream Truck

R — Doesn't the ice cream melt quick and get all messy?

L — Yeah, but Danielle Johns invented a new bib, not just for babies, but for anyone to wear.

R — Some other inventions that you had to have heard about are Tony Elvidge's hearing aid and Keith Frable's new air flow jeans. (Randy looks in phone book)

R — Would you believe this? Jim Brown and Mike Sledgeski are in their own party coordinating business.

L — That reminds me of another Mike from our class (pause) — Mike Slater.

R — Did he become a priest like he wanted to?

L — Yes, I think so, along with John Miller — each of them followed their separate religions.

R — (looking through phone book) Here's Marion Maurer.

L — Yeah, she became a mortician like she always wanted to be.

R — and Kris Weidlich became an engineer just like SHE always wanted to.

L — (LOOK INTO CROWD) Hey, isn't that Kim Martini on that park Bench?

R — Think it is. She must be on her lunch break from her job as a pediatrician.

L — Doesn't she ever stop? She's always working.

R — Yes, it seems that way. (Look strange at each other)

R — Anyway, she works at the same hospital as Lisa Thomas. She is a paramedic for Geisenger.

L — Geisenger? That's where Barb Pawlikowski is the health care administrator.

R — Some other hospital personel out of our classmates are Mark Pajalich, who is an X-ray Technician, and with him as a radiologist is Jen Malishewsky.

L — Another person is Jill Matthews. She is a dental assistant for my dentist.

R — I recently gave blood to the Red Cross where (pause) you wouldn't believe it — Tom Calpin and Christy Heckman, — were taking my blood.

L — Come on, you're foolin me.

R — No. (look through phone book) Here is a title of Danielle McColligan as an auctioneer along with Rose Ann Francis.

L — On the opposite end, what happened to Tony Golya? He was always quiet.

R — He became a colonel in the Marines, along with Joe Cimaskasy.

L — Well, I have to be leaving. The time is drawing near.

R — Of what?

L — I have a wedding to attend, and you know how time consuming make-up can be to put on.

R — Actually I don't, Is make-up still as necessary in the future as it is today?

L — Yes, Colleen Fredrickson and Debbie Horvath are becoming rich from their new Maybellene products. Also Robin Ozack has benefitted from the advertisement of her perfume called Poison.

R — Who does your hair?

L — Tanya Berkosky and Nicole Scavo were my Hairdressers.

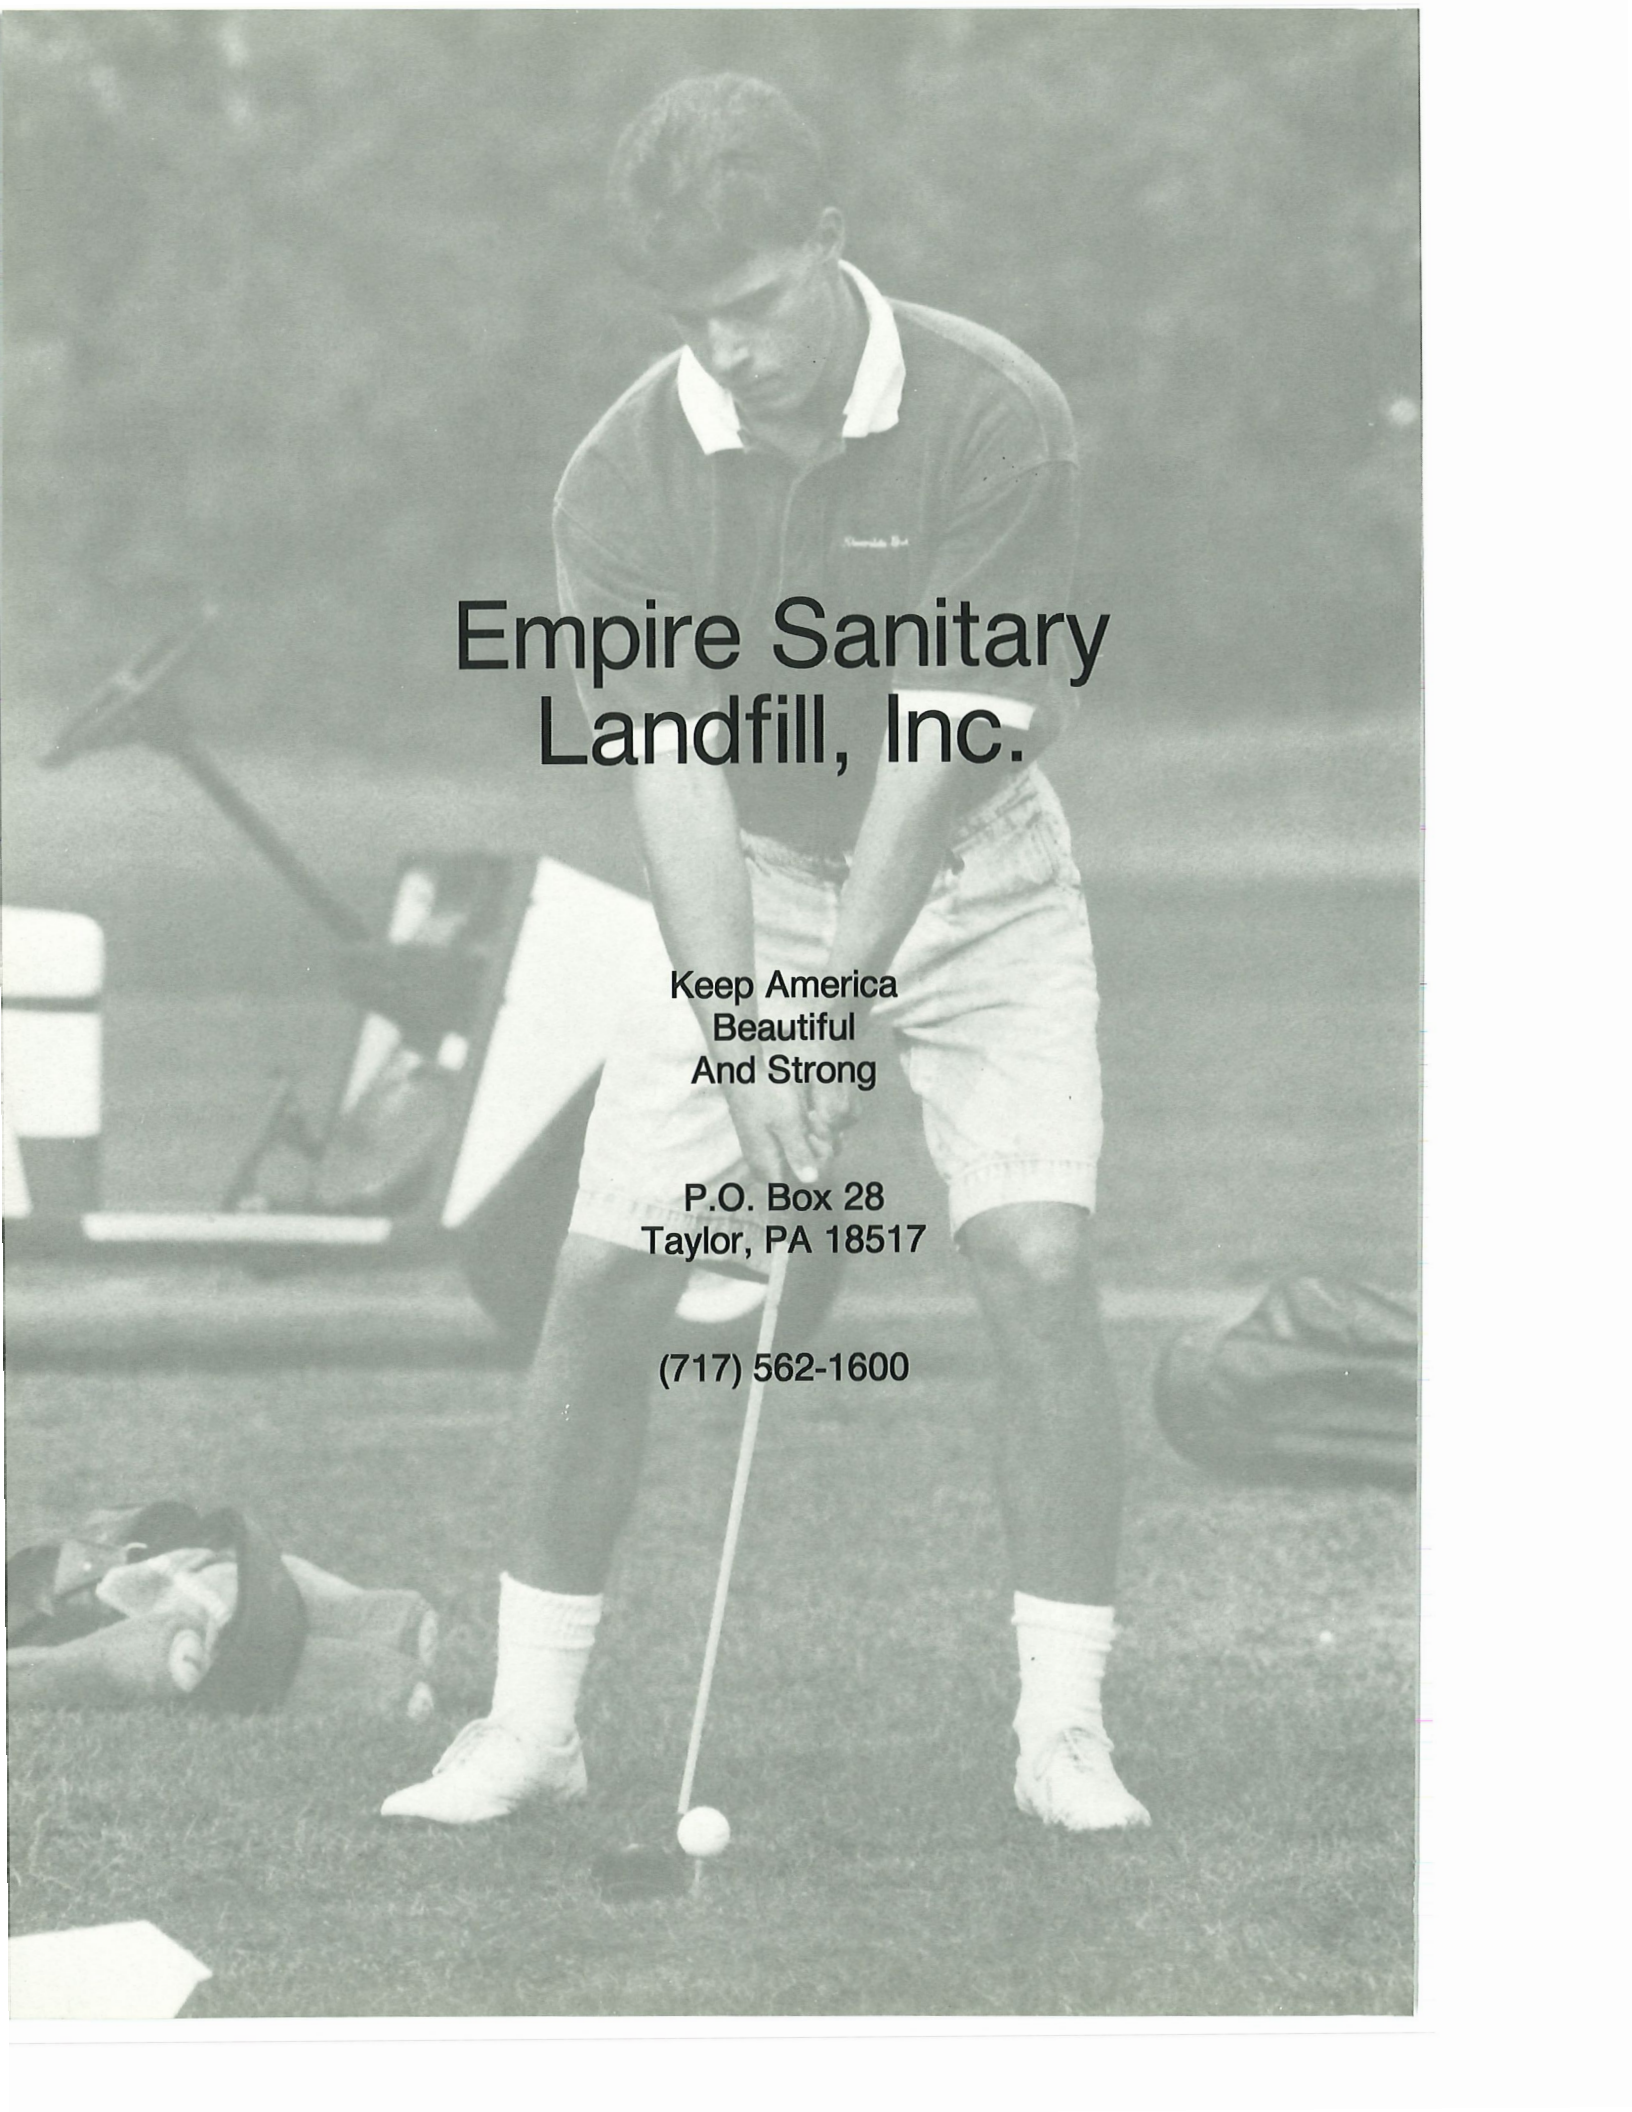

R — Oh, I thought it might've been Chrissy Correll or Nicole Petrosky.

R — Rachel Kalinich does my hair every so often. I don't fuss with it much. I guess I'll let you go because I have a couple of things to do. I have to stop off at Gene Hazelton's tool shop and get to work on my basement of my new house.

L — Alright, I'll see you next time — in the future, bye.

R — Bye!
