DESERT Storm

The 1991 Viking Yearbook Staff proudly dedicates this volume to the men and women of the United States Armed Forces who bravely served their country during Operation Desert Storm. We especially honor those members of the Riverside community listed here who contributed to the goal of freedom in a foreign land far from family and friends. Their sacrifice and their triumph served as an inspiration to all Americans, while helping advance the cause of world peace. We salute you!

TRI-CAPTAINS

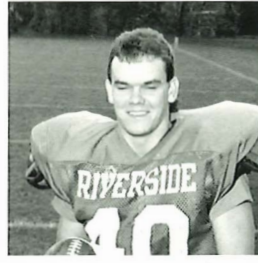

Our golf team finished another successful season under head coach Jack Helcoski. This year's team concluded its season at 8-1 in the Lackawanna League. That record earned them a berth in the play-offs, losing to a very experienced Honesdale team, to finish their year at 8-2.

A pre-season poll selected the Vikes to finish in the middle of the league. With only one returning starter from last year's championship team, they worked very hard and supported everyone with a second place in the league.

Randy Casey was a first team All-Scholastic and picked as the second best player in the league. Jonathan Dougher and Mike Evangelista were picked second team All-Scholastic. This year's captains were Jonathan Dougher, Eric Zimmer, and Randy Casey.

"One Performer to Another"

Includes my report, say I write
As I sit by candle-light
The night came quickly once again
So now I write to you my friend
The time has come that we have to go,
It's time to close with our last show,
We're held together year after year,
And as the clock tolls back his last year,
We remember the fun and happiness
As we wish you the better and pray for the best
For now some will have to scatter down
To find another show or break new ground,
"The show must go on" as we always say,
So we still perform our last day after day,
We have a short while before we depart
So with me, remember, from the bottom of your heart,
Remember the laughter - brave and true,
And keep his courage you while life through,
Remember the clown always happy & cheery,
Let them pick up your heart whenever you weary,
Remember the comedian - a comedian you may,
Sure you may be getting others to be day,
Remember the trapeze, as skilled and true,
But don't forget the one who is hard to see,
Remember the jester who is a little bit queer,
And remember the one who is a little bit weird,
Finally remember the one who is a little bit weird,
Here's a...

The week of October 15-20 was set aside as Spirit Week at Riverside. "It's Your Fantasy" was the theme for the week as the seniors decorated their hall as a three-ring circus. Aside from hall decorating, during this week, seventh through twelfth graders dressed up in unorthodox clothing. There was beach day, color day, college sweat-shirt day, the traditional hat and sunglass day for seniors and the traditional red and blue day. The week's festivities also included many other events such as "penny wars" and pep rallies. This year's Spirit Week's festivities ended with the crowning of the queen at the Homecoming Dance on Saturday night.

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

Up until now I don't think that any of us have pictured graduation a reality yet.
But now that you are sitting here looking up at the stage,
You're feeling a little scared I bet.

We've only a few more days together
As graduation nears,
So let us once more take time out
To reminisce about the years.

As seventh and eighth graders we were lonely
Remaining downstairs and isolated
Looking forward to the years
When we would be upgraded.

As ninth, tenth, and eleventh graders
The years seemed to crawl
As we patiently awaited our turn
For a chance in senior hall.

Mr. Kryzanowski became the head honcho
When our senior year began,
And Mr. Kasulis became his vice-
Mr. K's right hand man.

This year brought a breakthrough,
A change in old rules
Mr. Kryzanowski went wild and crazy
And allowed us to wear shorts to school.

Senioritis began in September
When the office was filled with seniors late for class.
It took quite a while for us to adjust
To Mr. Kasulis infamous invalid pass.

In guidance all of our fears
Of an unknown future were erased.
We found a career that was right for us
And a world of hope was put in its place.

Our Viking Football team was a rowdy bunch
Who was known throughout the land,
And even though they didn't win the Big 11
They captured the dedication of their fans.

Our last spirit week came and went,
But the fun we had couldn't be measured.
We all forgot what school was for a week
And the memories will last forever.

Our Riverside Golf Team was one to be proud of
With Jono, Billy, and Eric as our stars.
Our team went 8-1
They were certainly up to par.

At Christmas everyone was impressed with our tree
And decorating it sure was fun
Some will argue it looked more like a big shrub,

But whatever it was, it was a beautiful one.

In the winter, basketball season began again
And a great job was done by our boys.
They were famous for their overtimes
Where they created a lot of excitement and noise.

Our dynamic Lady Vikes need no introduction,
Though we all shed a tear at the end;
Not only because their season was over,
But they'd never play in high school again.

Senior skip day fell on January 28.
It went over really well.
If you want a laugh, there are a few from the class
Who have many a story to tell.

Our Vermont trip was almost as good as Jody's;
Right into the garbage cans did he coast.
Some of us liked skiing and some of us liked trying,
But we enjoyed the hot tub and Eric's guest appearance the most.

Tennis, softball, baseball, and track
Were all signs that spring fever was near,
Because as the days got hotter and longer
Our athletes were getting in gear.

Our Drama Club performed the Music Man
With Bone and Gnall in the lead.
They deserve two thumbs up for a job well done
They put on a class act indeed.

At the prom we were hoping "This Could Be the Nite"
Where the best time of our lives would be found
The boys danced around with their cummerbunds on their heads
And in the end as queen Danine was crowned.

Now that our days are numbered
And now that we've reminisced,
Our class can honestly say
That there wasn't too much we've missed.

We'd like to thank our teachers
Who did more than their jobs required.
They'll forever remain a part of our lives
Which they truly have inspired.

Although it seems so final,
Like it's our very last good-bye,
Think of all the laughs you've laughed
To help to get you by.

For through the years, in each other
We've found very special friends,
Friends we'll remember forever
And forever has no end.

CLASS HISTORY

RIVERSIDE Class Day
June 5, 1991

Karen Haas
Nadine Scavo

SCENE: The year is 1999. Nadine is at the service desk at K Mart. She is answering the phones. Karen walks in wearing a long white skirt with a white shirt. The phone rings.

N: Hello. Thank you for calling K Mart, can I help you?

N: Yes Miss Arens. We got them in today. Yes, they are all size fourteens, I am sure they will fit perfectly. Thank you.

Karen enters carrying mini skirts and low cut shirts.

N: Can I help you ma'am?

K: Yes. I would like to return these. They are just too tight and too short for my style. I need something more conservative.

N: OK, I need you to fill out this form. Just sign your name here. (Karen signs paper) OK. I don't believe it. Karen Haas! You don't remember me, do you? I'll give you a clue. We did the class history together 8 years ago.

K: No way. Nadine Scavo? Do you remember how embarrassing giving the history was?

N: Speaking of embarrassing, do you remember how Mr. Nee had to wake up Tommy Killino when he fell asleep during his lecture in 11th grade?

K: Yeah, Tommy turned so bright red from embarrassment that he could glow in the dark.

N: There were some people in our class who never seemed to get embarrassed.

K: Like Katie and Serpe.

N: Danielle and John.

K: You could never embarrass them about their behavior in the halls.

N: Or pry them apart.

K: There were some people we couldn't pry apart because they were too busy fighting. Like Kristin and Jonathan

N: Carly and Frank.

K: Maybe it's just basketball players.

N: I don't think so because Nicole Grasso and Denise Price had a few fights our senior year. And how about the fight to end all fights — Brenda Lutkowski v. Dave Tucker.

K: Brenda was ready to put some new dents in our lockers with Dave's head.

N: Thank God Mr. Lisowski came to the rescue.

K: Yeah, he helped her cool down, but I think some of the teachers have worse tempers than the students.

N: Mr. Armillay is a good example of that. Remember how he used to kick his globe at us and throw erasers around the room.

K: 7th grade was fun but Mr. Butcher's 9th grade history class was the best.

N: Everything in his class was either a widget factory or a bonehead sheet.

K: How about "The Master," Mr. Voytko and his 3 Musketeer bars.

N: Maybe he thought they would help him grow more hair.

K: He was a good teacher, but don't forget how much fun we had in Mr. Bednash's class in 8th grade.

N: I didn't have any fun because I was on the loud side since I talked too much.

K: But just think about his unique fashion statements.

N: Oh, you mean his pink socks with the blue diamonds.

K: And the cologne you could smell ten miles away. Maybe Bednash and Rich Chofey shop at the same cologne store.

N: Our teachers did have some strange styles.

K: Yeah, but nothing can beat J. J. Walsh and his wild tattoos.

N: What about Phileshia Dombroski? Her clothes were pretty original our senior year. Only Phileshia would wear red chucks to the prom.

K: Our prom theme was pretty unique. Only the junior class would come up with "This Could Be The Night."

N: It was almost the night for a major fight when Carrie Boyko and Amy Valvano wore the same dress.

K: Everything was under control after Rob Thomas took the dance floor with the "Shout Boys."

N: That had to be the longest version of Shout ever played.

K: Speaking of long, do you remember how long it took us to solve one calculus problem?

N: Mr. Evans gave us some challenging problems. He worked us like snaves.

K: Remember how he used to say, "If you would please."

N: Do you remember Elio Gould and Donny Buganesi?

K: Who? Were they in our class?

N: They were supposed to be, but they were never in school. Unlike Keene Bixler and Rich Geissler who were always in school, they were never in class.

K: How about Jennifer "Beaner" Keene?

N: How about her air cast. She must have worn it for eight months which helped her look sympathetic when she begged for points.

K: Speaking of begging for points, how about Eric Powell and Denise Owens with their love notes to Mrs. Ludd.

N: Like "Mrs. Ludd, we love you. Please pass us. We need a 74."

K: Do you remember how great the Lady Vikes Basketball Team was our senior year?

N: Jennifer Olexy scored her 1,000th point, and the other players had no problems in showing their talents.

K: How about the talent we showed in Capture the Flag.

N: We showed off our skills in that game.

K: Nothing lacked in skill more than the teachers trying to pronounce Mark Loureiro, Mark Lourerio, Mark Laroro.

N: Remember when we were allowed to wear shorts?

K: How could I forget the announcement.

N: It took Mr. Kryzanowski ten minutes to explain the "new" dress code.

K: Oh, you mean "girls are allowed to wear loose shorts that go to the top of the knee, boys are allowed to wear shorts that come to the middle of the knee area, which are not tight . . . Concerning skorts, split skirts, and other skirt like shorts, these can be shorter than the shorts, however some short outfits that were allowed today will not be allowed tomorrow."

N: We sure did have a lot of changes our senior year.

K: We were the first class to graduate without Mr. Rusincovitch as the principal. But with Mr. Kryzanowski as our new principal.

N: And we were the 1st class to have Mr. Kasulis as our vice.

K: And to listen to his announcements like, "8th grade classes will t anceled, correction on a previous announcement, 8th period asses will be canceled."

and the 1st to constantly announce, "that is not a valid excuse."

We were also the first class to have three different versions of the national Anthem.

One week it was Whitney.

The next week The Chipmunks.

Then the original boring version.

Then Whitney again.

And so on.

Weren't we also the first class to get sued over the haunted house?

Yes. Remember in the beginning of the year, when Miss Stampien's clown was kidnapped and a ransom note was left?

Mr. Joyce's mass media class was immediately blamed for it.

Joe Ambrose was a definite suspect.

But today, eight years later, we have a surprise.

Miss Stampien, will you please come up on stage? (present clown)

We weren't the first class for Mrs. Lisowski to call into guidance to touch base with.

The guidance department did bother us a lot when it came to setting schedules and applications in.

Nothing could beat Mr. Helcoski bothering us about getting the class history done.

Yeah, he stood outside like a guard on duty just waiting for one of us to pass by.

Mrs. Prusinski must have taken lessons from him with the way she guarded the library. Nobody could enter it without a pass.

You better not be caught by Mr. MacArt in the hall without a pass or you would hear, "Out of the hall girls. Get what you need and get out."

How remember what he taught you in soc class. It's not good.

It's not bad.

PH: IT'S JUST DIFFERENT!

Hey, do you remember Gina Buchalski?

You mean Crash. Robbie Jones is still working on the damage that Gina did to his car.

We had some really bad drivers in our class, didn't we?

Like Rich Volack.

And don't forget Paul Chimock, who holds the record for most accidents in a senior year.

Remember all the problems Kristin Nash had choosing a college?

Oh, don't worry about her. She called me last night. She is going to make her decision tomorrow.

How about Kevin "Flex" Quinlan and the power of the V.

Or Paul Scott and his push-ups.

Remember Willie Staretz?

Try not to, but wasn't he supposed to do the history with you originally?

And how about Tom Shaffer.

With him around no girl's back was ever safe.

Or their front either.

Do you remember how outspoken we were?

Nobody could out speak Carrie Boyko.

N: Maybe that's why she got a muzzle on Class Night.

K: We did have some unique ditties. Like Jeff Labrosky's "No, I'm not Tom Petty" T-Shirt.

N: Or Colleen Costello's French Club Award.

K: Do you recall how quickly senioritis set in our class? We had it the first day of school.

N: Nobody bothered to study or even pay attention in class. Most people didn't even go to class.

K: Well, some people did. They had some strange side effects from the pressures too.

N: Yeah, some people even developed what Kristin Nash called a twitch.

K: Remember the Student Council's financial problems.

N: And the top ten reasons to buy lollipops, with number one being the Student Council is going bankrupt.

K: And those ugly boxers.

N: How about all the times we changed class officers.

K: Our class changed officers more than some people changed clothes.

N: First we had Cheryl as President.

K: Then Sherry.

N: Sherry again.

K: Then Robert.

N: We even elected David Donati as an officer.

K: How sad was that?

N: Remember how we won hall decorating our Junior year?

K: And we should have won Sophomore year.

N: Yeah, we certainly have made a lot of good memories "Through the Years."

K: The Class of '91 will always remain as one of our fondest memories as we go through life.

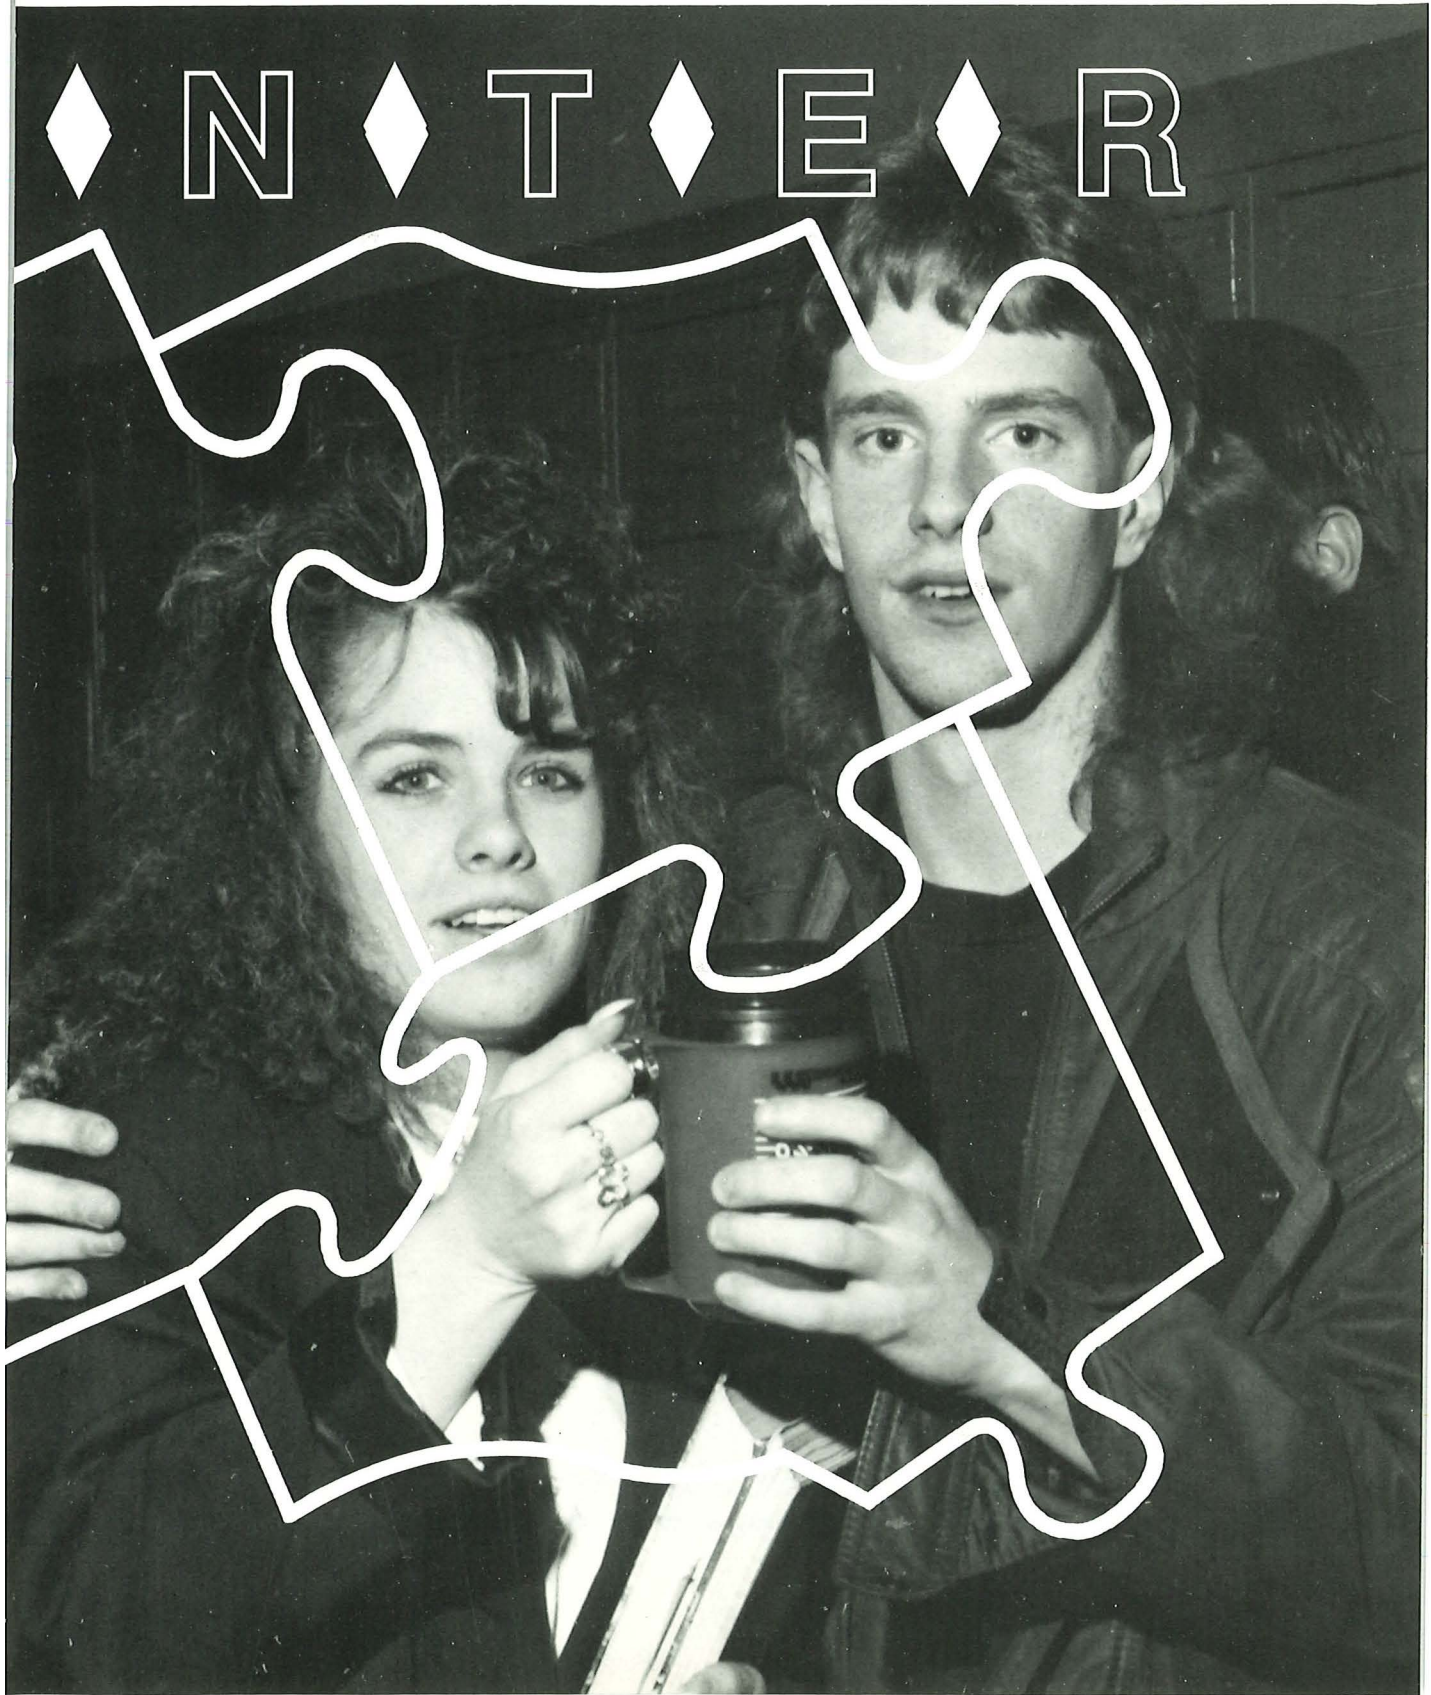

N: Speaking of our lives, I know I'm still here at K Mart, but what have you been doing?

K: I've been teaching Sunday School classes for the past 8 years, and next week I am joining the convent.

In the fall of 1990 and Spring of 1991, Riverside's gifted program participated in the Knowledge Master Open. Sherry Young and Jody Oustrich represented Riverside at the Annual Mayor's Prayer Breakfast.

J. J. Walsh received an award for his excellence in art. Also, Riverside graduate Lisa Chuff visited Mr. Joyce's Mass Media class to share her experiences as co-editor of The Wood Word, Marywood College's newspaper.

Richard Volack represented Riverside at this year's annual Press Luncheon. Juniors Nancy Alunni and Nicole Scavo received awards for their skills in cosmetology and hairdressing. Also, Cheryl Bisignani and Jennifer Keene received letters of commendation from the NMSQT for their performances on the PSATs.

Melissa Porfirio was named 1991's Bausch & Lomb Science Award winner. The PTA awarded Laura Ducceschi, Richard Volack, Jamie Thomas, and Terri Murman for their achievements in literature.

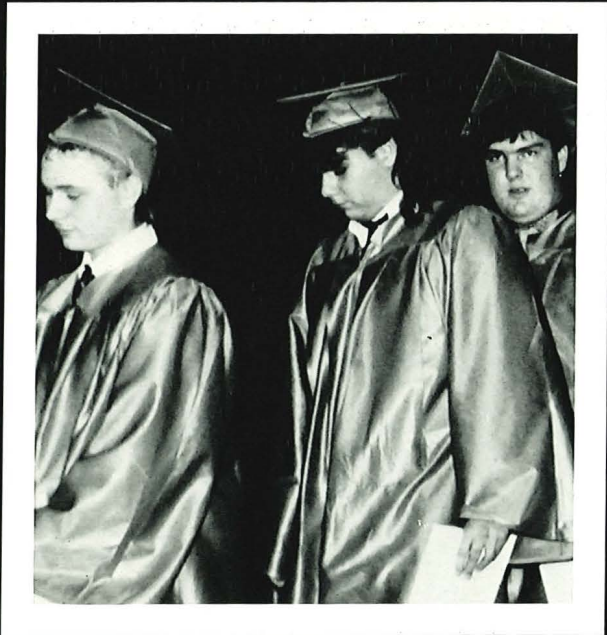

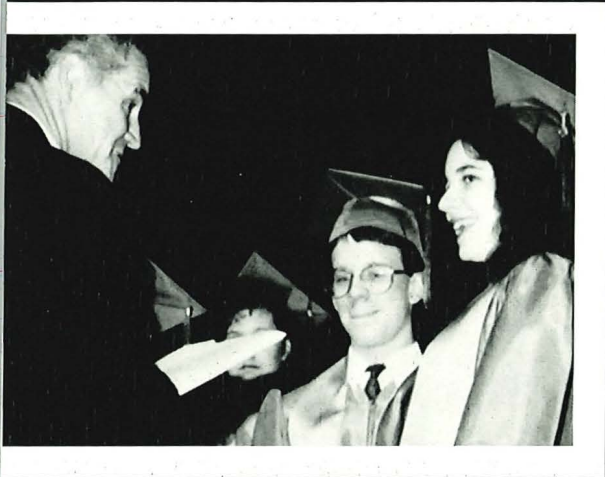

At Class Day on June 5th, the top five students received recognition for their academic achievement. Also during this program, Jill Radwanski received the Kimberly Haas Memorial Award for her interest in art. Senior class president Robert Thomas handed down the mantle to junior class president Melissa Porfirio. At the beginning of the program, seniors walked with their classmates for one of the last times ever.

After 13 years of being together, the Class of 1991 assembled one last time to receive their diplomas during graduation exercises. Pictured are seniors Rich Chofey, Karen Haas, and Jennifer Keene receiving their diplomas from School Board President Edward Martz. Also shown are several seniors leaving the stage after graduation with diplomas in hand.

Class Day was held on June 5th this year. And, aside from the numerous awards being received, our Class Will, Class History, and Class Prophecy were read to stir memories from the past and to anticipate the futures that we each hold. Of course, there also were barrels of laughter as anyone could expect of a great class like ours.

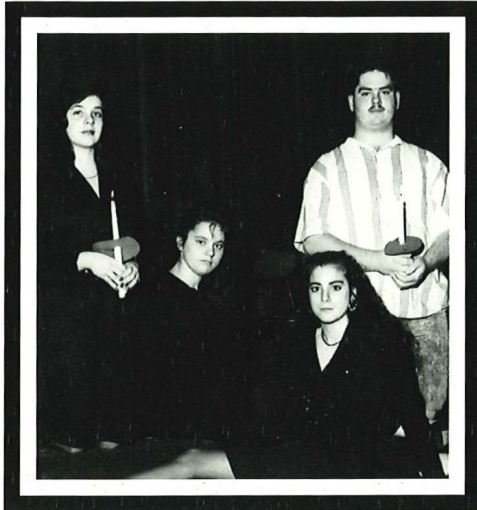

Jennifer Olexy and Jonathan Dougher each received an award from the U.S. Army Reserves for their athletic and academic ability. Shelley Brominski received a trophy for her achievement in typing. Jody Oustrich and Eric Drumheller were awarded scholarships from the Army ROTC and the Air Force ROTC, respectively. Also, Cheryl Bisignani, Kevin Quinlan, Eric Drumheller, and Richard Volack received awards for their academic excellence. CLASS OF

The Viking Yearbook Staff is an organization comprised of Juniors and Seniors who work diligently year long to produce the official annual publication of the Riverside Jr.-Sr. High School. The objective of the staff is to chronicle the events of the senior year from the first kick-off of the football season to the last tear of graduation.

Each year the Yearbook Staff conducts numerous fund raisers to help lower the cost of the yearbook. This year the staff sponsored its annual dance as well as the traditional patron drives.

The 1991 Yearbook Staff far exceeded all of the goals it had set at the beginning of the season. The combined efforts of the staff and its advisors enabled this yearbook to be successfully completed. This year's book includes a full color senior section and student life section. The Yearbook staff is proud of its achievements and wishes that you enjoy your yearbook as much as we did producing it.

Montage Manor provided the setting for the Passing of the Sword dinner dance on March 16, 1990. The evening's festivities included dinner, dancing and mingling. At ten o'clock, the unit leaders for the 1991-1992 school year were announced. Chosen as twirling co-captains were Nikole Argonish and Becky Brown; chosen as twirling captain was Kelly Brown. ALL HONORS

This year's All-Honors Banquet was held at Convention Hall in Pittston. Students were awarded letters for their achievements in academics and extracurricular activities. The guest speaker was Riverside High School senior Jody Oustrich.

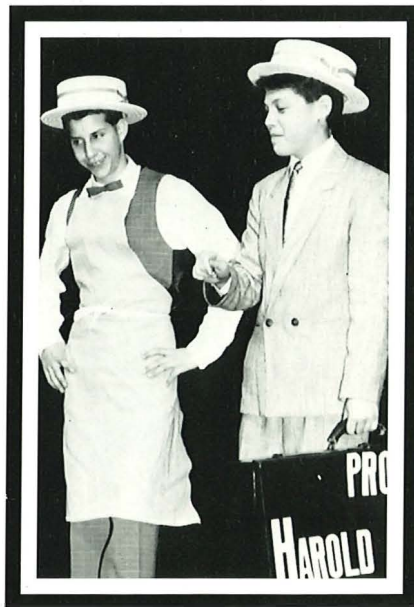

THE MUSIC MAN

"He's a what . . . he's a what?" "He's a music man!" And, Eric Gnall was just that as his character — Harold Hill — tried to capture the heart of Marion Paroo, the town librarian, while he scammed the town of River City out of their money to form a boys' band. Jennifer Stone portrayed Marion beautifully as she shared the spotlight with Gnall. Mrs. Paroo, Marion's mother, was played by Phileshia Dombroski with a bit of Irish brogue. Robert Thomas and Shelley Brominski played Mayor Shinn and Mrs. Shinn, and Rich Geissler . . . well . . . he played many roles. Other seniors in the play were Karen Haas as Mrs. Squires, Brenda Yaron, and Keene Bixler. Considering that the show almost didn't go on, the cast and crew did a marvelous job pulling it off in the end! A standing 'O' to Mr. and Mrs. Hapstack, also!

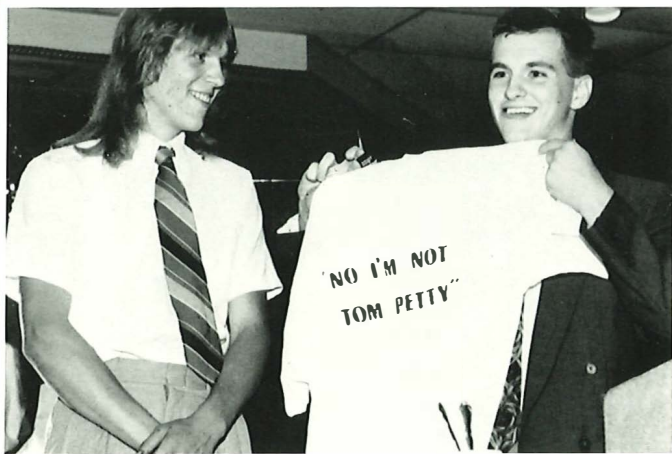

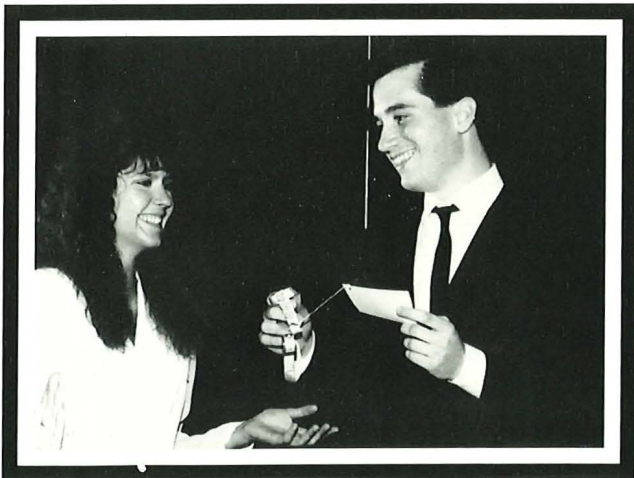

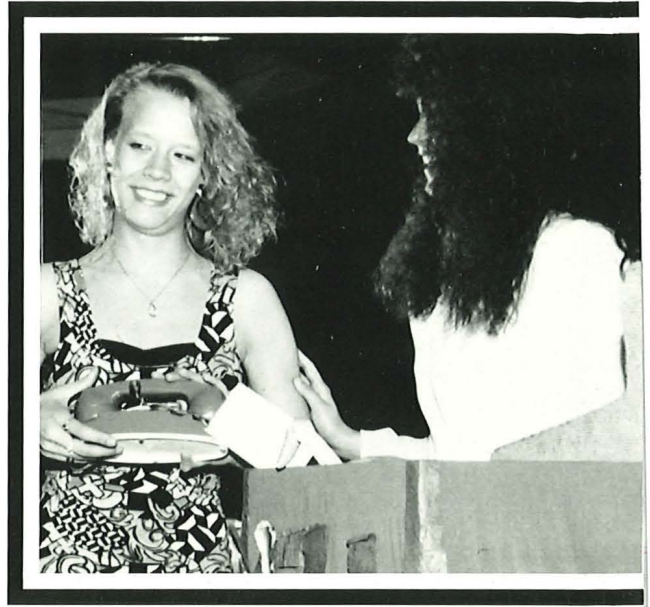

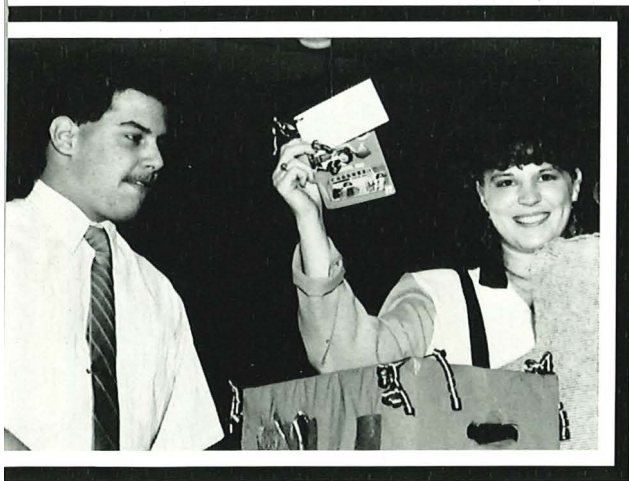

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night was held on May 24, 1991 at Genetti's in Dickson City. The Dittie Committee members presented tokens to all members of the senior class. Jeff Labrosky received a shirt that said "No, I'm not Tom Petty" and Jennifer Keene received a medical kit to keep her healthy at Cornell. No one will ever forget the picture of Willie Staretz that Shelley Brominski received. The Yearbook Staff would like to congratulate the Dittie Committee, Miss Willis, and Miss Stampien on a job well done.

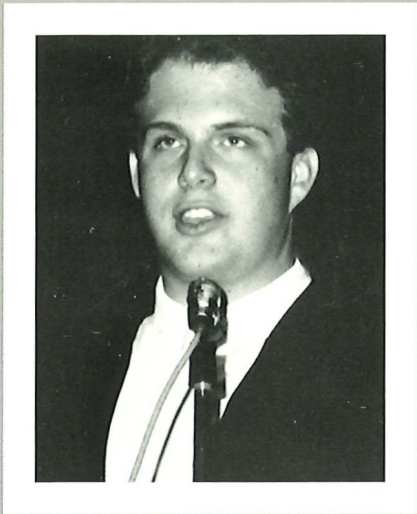

CLASS DAY

On June 5, the class of 1991 assembled one last time before graduation at Class Day. The Class History and Salute to Riverside brought back a lot of memories of our past 6 years that we spent together at Riverside High. Seniors were presented with awards for high academic merit and also for participating in school activities. The reading of the Class Will and Prophecy made us realize that the future would soon belong to us.

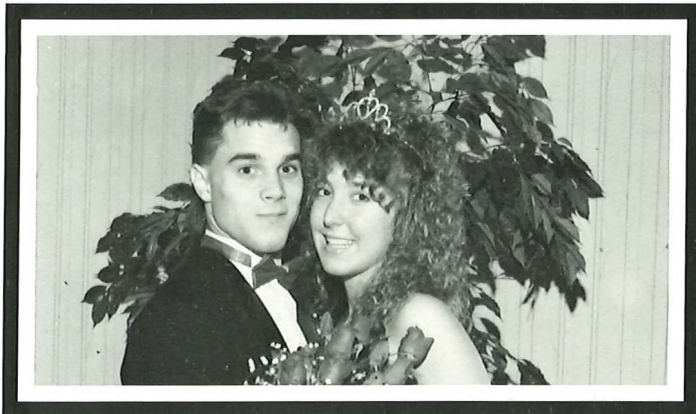

CLASS OF 1991

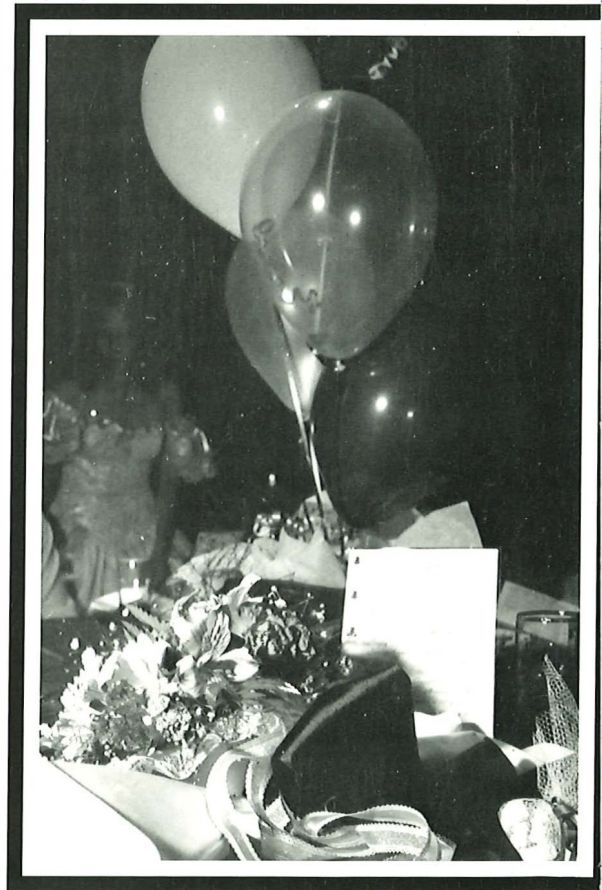

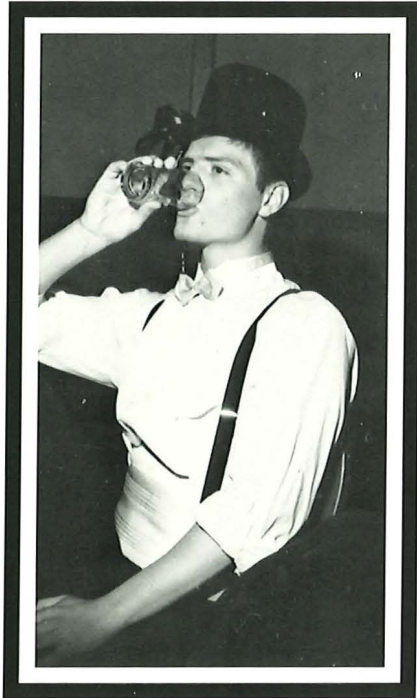

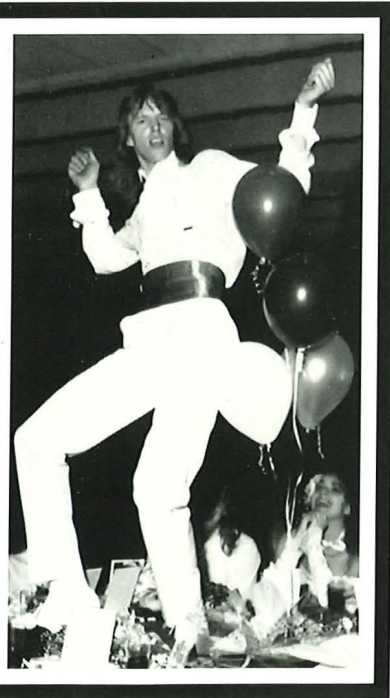

“THIS COULD BE THE NIGHT”

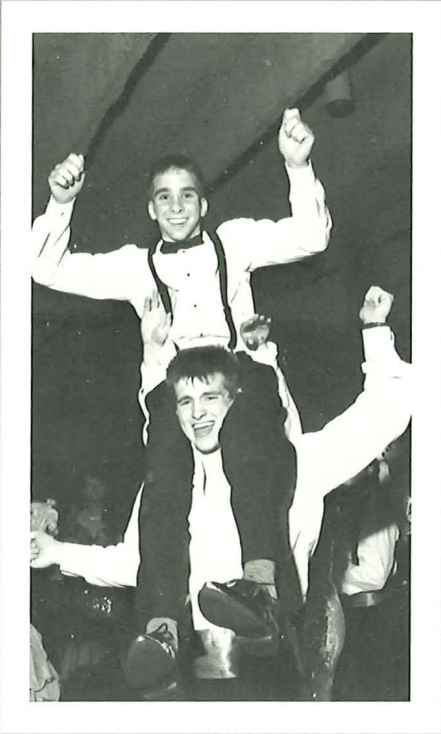

The 1991 Junior-Senior prom was held at the Saint Mary's Center in Scranton. The theme for the prom was "This Could Be the Night" and the music was provided by Fancy Dancer. The main highlight of the evening was the crowning of the queen, Danine Jarecki. Her senior court consisted of Tanya Knight and Jennifer Olexy. The junior attendants were Lisa Morgan, Barbara Pawlikowski, Marla Jarecki and Rebekah Oustrich. When that magical night came to an end, we all realized that "This Could Be the Night" that we would remember forever.

THROUGH THE YEARS

I can't remember when you weren't there, when I didn't care, for anyone but you. I swear we've been through everything there is, can't imagine anything we've missed, can't imagine anything the two of us can't do. Through the years, you've never let me down, you've turned my life around, the sweetest days I found I found with you, through the years, I've never been afraid, I love the life we've made, and I'm so glad I stayed, right here with you, through the years. I can't remember what I used to do, who I trusted, who I listened to before. I swear, you've taught me everything I know, can't imagine needing someone so, but through the years it seems to me, I need you more and more. Through the years, through all the good and bad, I know how much we've had, I've always been so glad to be with you, through the years, it's better every day, you've kissed my tears away, as long as it's okay, I'll stay with you, through the years. Through the years, when everything went wrong, together we were strong, I know that I belong right here with you, through the years, I never had a doubt, we'd always work things out, I've learned what life's about, by loving you, through the years. Through the years, you've never let me down, you've turned my life around, the sweetest days I found, I found with you. Through the years, it's better every day, you've kissed my tears away, as long as it's okay, I'll stay with you, through the years!

This year's Graduation Ceremony was held on June 7, 1991. Students gathered in the cafeteria to take pictures, secure caps, and to say good-bye to each other for the last time. As we walked on stage, we were flooded with bittersweet emotions. Our class has had a lot of dear memories that will never be forgotten.

As we snag those last words together, we left the auditorium and with a smile on our faces and tears in our eyes. THANKS FOR ALL THE MEMORIES, RIVERSIDE!

RECOGNITION • EDUCATION • MOTIVATION

The most valuable education is in human relations- regardless of academic grades the student who tries to understand himself and others, who demonstrates concern for all life and finds happiness in helping others will find not only happiness and success in life but he will be a positive inspiration to the world.

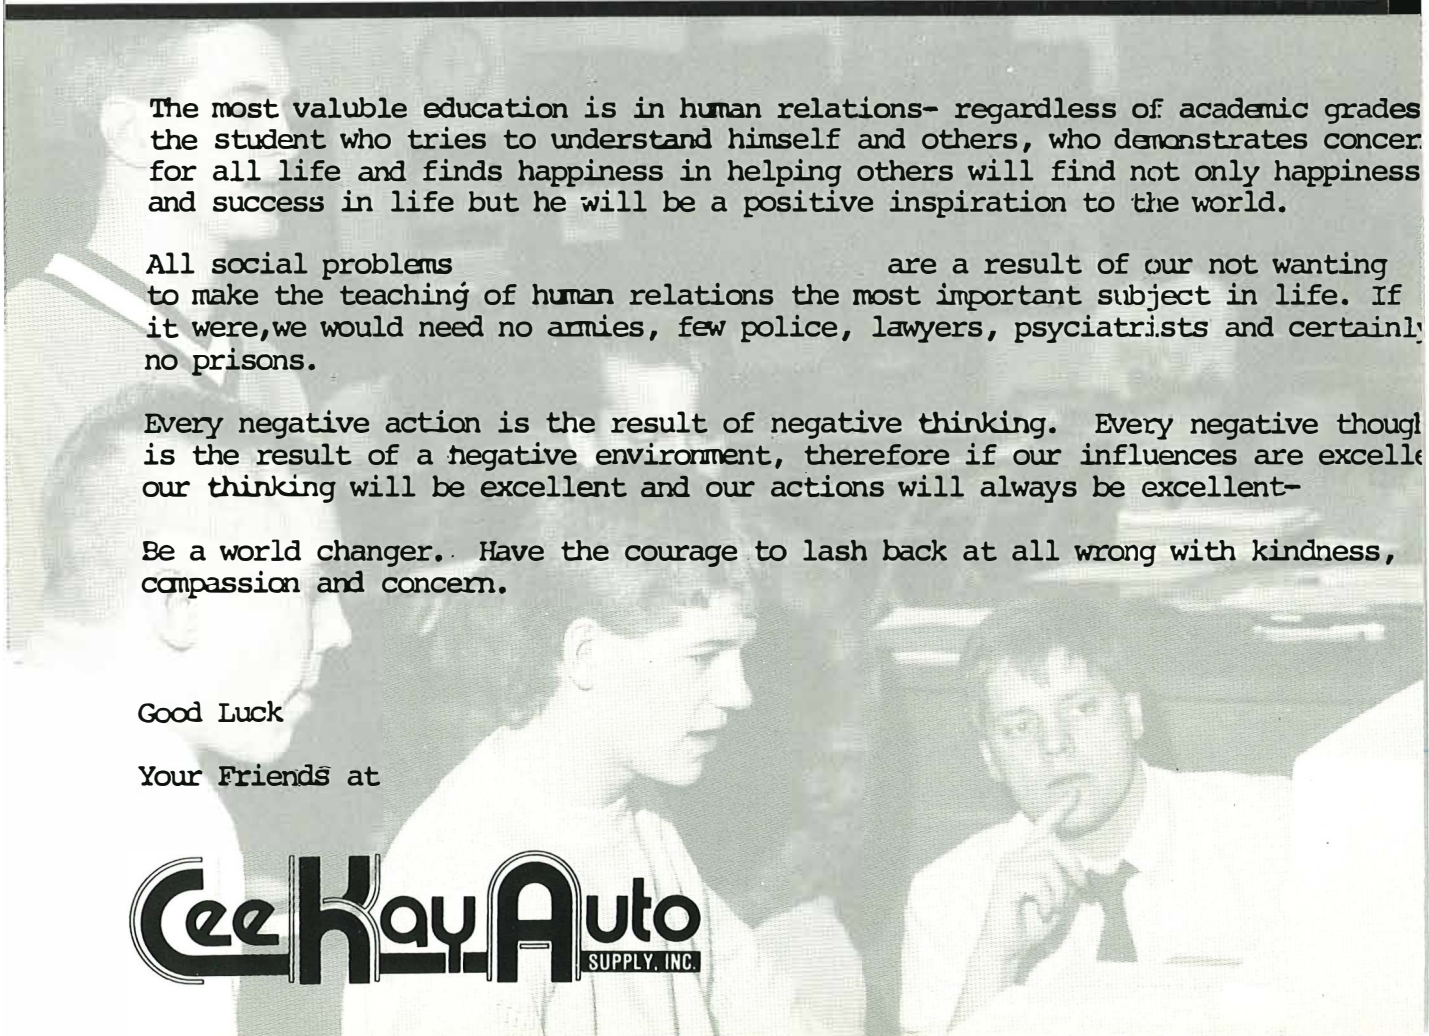

All social problems are a result of our not wanting to make the teaching of human relations the most important subject in life. If it were, we would need no armies, few police, lawyers, psychiatrists and certainly no prisons.

Every negative action is the result of negative thinking. Every negative thought is the result of a negative environment, therefore if our influences are excellent our thinking will be excellent and our actions will always be excellent-

Be a world changer. Have the courage to lash back at all wrong with kindness, compassion and concern.
