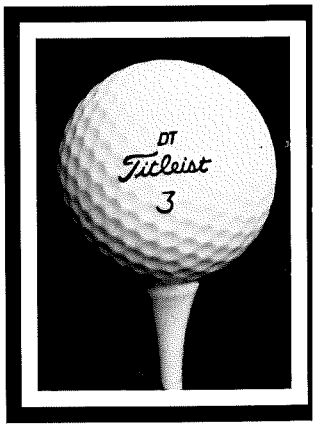
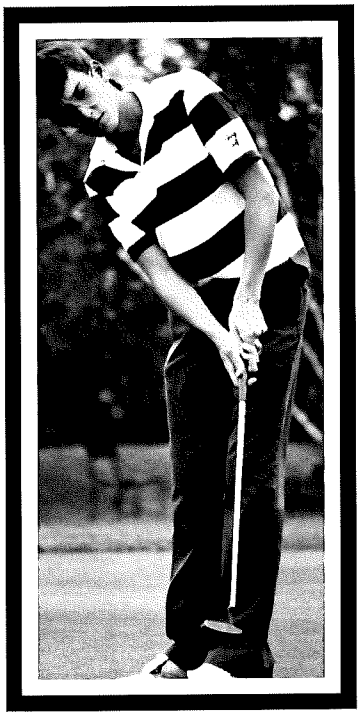
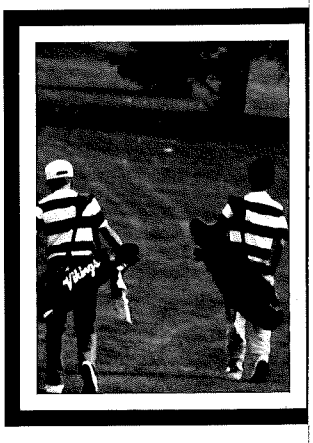
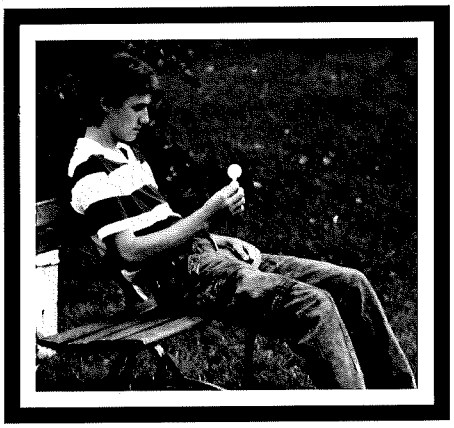
SENIOR MEMBER
MARK MEKILO

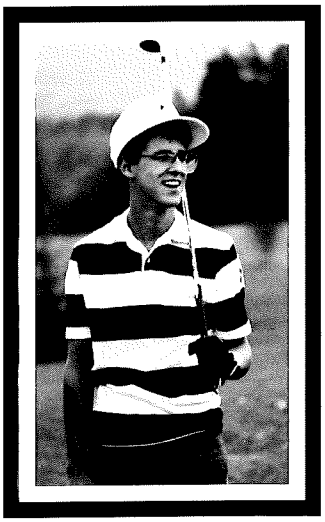






Vikings





Riverside's Golf Team had another successful year. Senior, Mark Mekilo, the team captain, led the team to playoffs with an average of 41.0. Riverside was represented in the League All-Star Team for the 8th consecutive year, this year by Mark Mekilo, Bruce De Sano, who was undefeated, and Greg Reilly. The team, which had a record of 7 and 3, was coached by Mr. Jack Helcoski and finished 3rd in the league.

Senior players who made the All-Scholastic first team were Joe DeSimone, Joe Rusincovitch, Brian Klimas, John Kreig, Pat Corby. Jeff Albrecht made the Second All-Scholastic team. The Bill Gibbons Award went to Joe DeSimone, the Bernie Gillespie Award went to Joe Rusincovitch. Brian Klimas received the Head Hunter Award for outstanding defense and the Best Offensive Lineman went to John Kreig.

The Vikes managed to turn the 1988-89 football season into a championship season ending with a record of 9 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. They finished number one in the Big Eleven and won the Northern Division of the Eastern Conference.

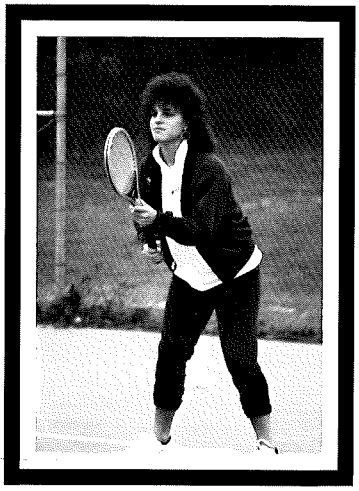
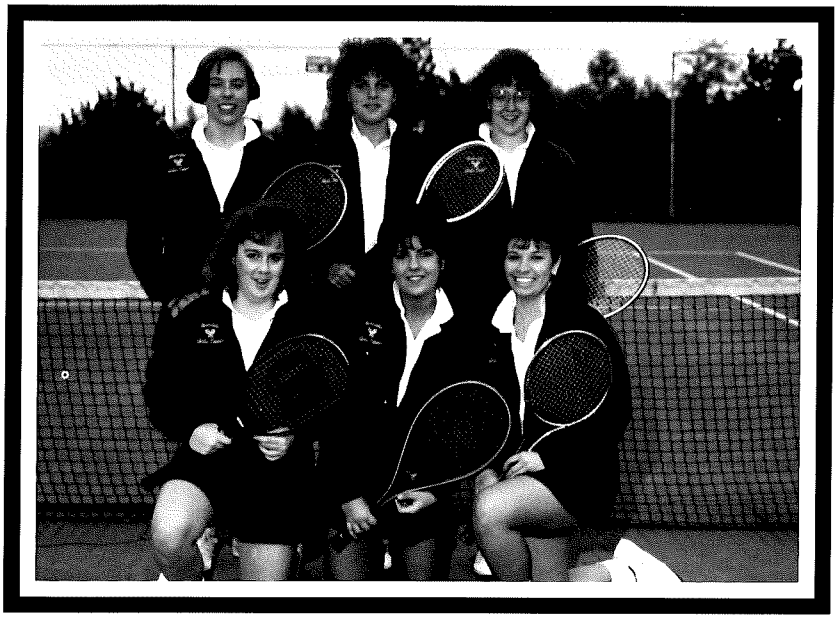
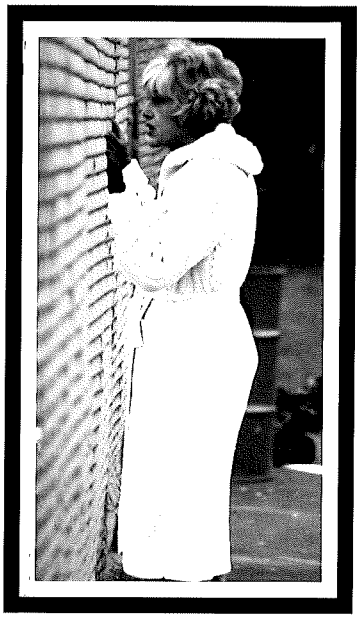
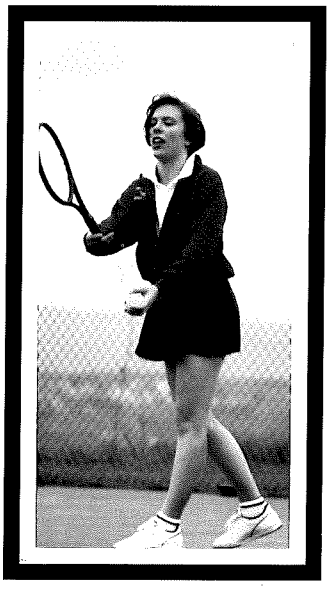
GIRLS' TENNIS

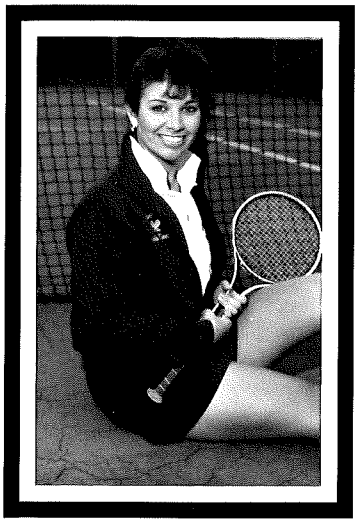
Although the Girls' Tennis Team didn't have a winning record, they were a team of good sports. Seniors, Lynne Arzie and Geri Weltz, who were also Co-Captains, along with senior, Tamara Petrowsky, led the team through the year. The underclassmen who are sure to provide for a winning team in the upcoming years include Shelley Brominski, Cheryl Bisignani, and Cathy Ludwikowski. The team, despite its record, was represented in District II Playoffs, coached by Ms. Jeanne DeFazio.

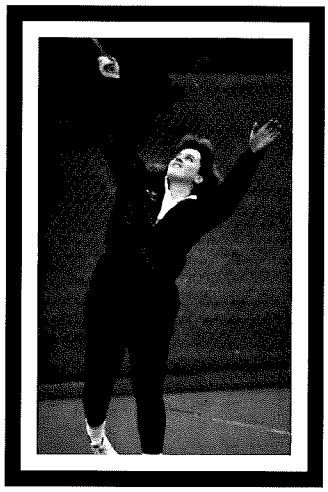


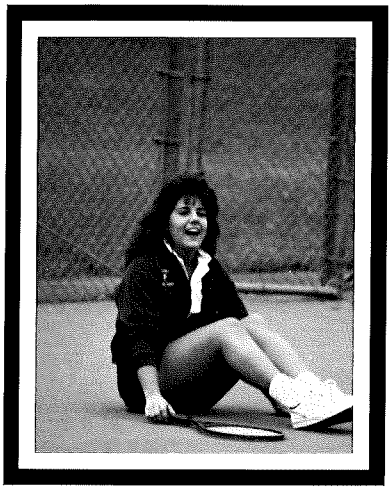


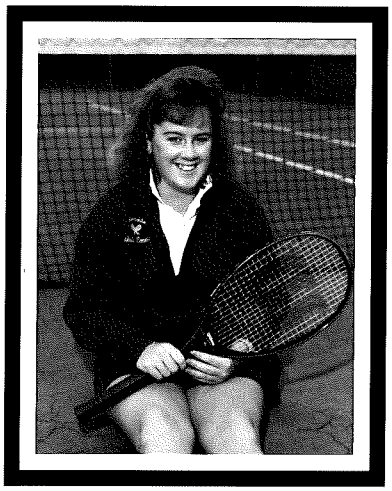


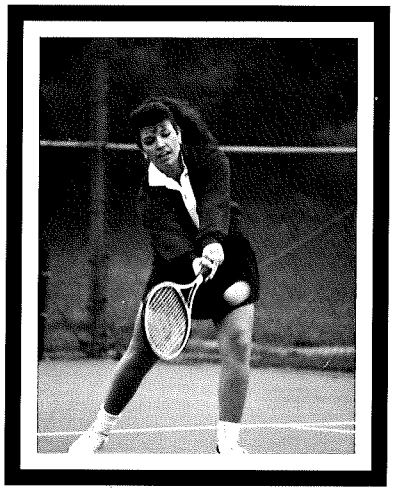












HOMECOMING '89

"Tell Me What's on Your Mind," the theme for Homecoming Week 88, inspired some exciting yet traditional activities. Among them were Senior Hat Day, Beach Day, Color Day, Camouflage and Tie-Dye Day, and Red and Blue Day. For the third consecutive year, the class of 1989 captured the hall decorating championship.

The week's festivities climaxed in the Homecoming Dance during which Roslyn Rowan was crowned the 1988 Homecoming Queen. The Queen's Court included Jelina Brown, Jennifer Coyne, Dana Ozark, and Wendy Weisenfluh.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On April 23, the Riverside Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony in the auditorium. Forty-five new members were inducted at the ceremony. Sid Michaels, a graduate of Riverside, was the guest speaker. Faculty advisor Ann Marie Ermolovitch coordinated a dignified ceremony for both inductees and members to remember.

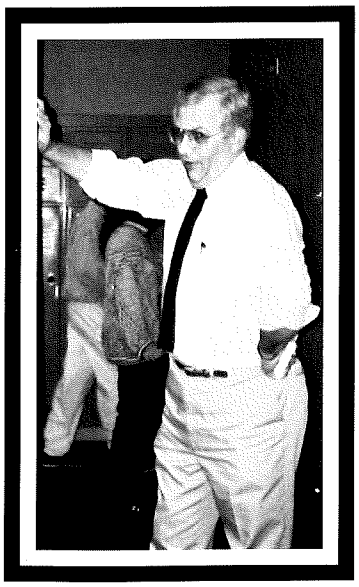
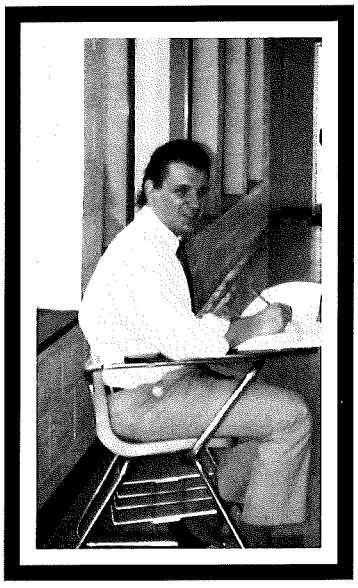
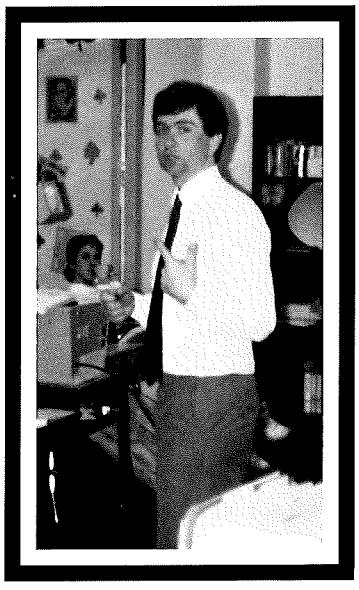
When you think of teachers, pictures of dusty old schoolmarms wielding wooden crops automatically come to mind. But not our teachers at Riverside. The faculty here really knows how to have fun. There's Mrs. Dougher dancing her heart out at the Prom. Miss Sklaney was all smiles for the photographer and Miss Caswell looks as if she couldn't find anywhere to hide. There's also Mr. Migal trying to keep people from leaving his class, and Mr. Pettinato hurriedly correcting tests for his next class. He didn't get them done the night before because he was at Claudes. Mr. Joyce is shown here in one of his many roles, a teacher, trying to amuse his class.

These are just six members of our faculty. We remember the rest as kind caring individuals whose main concern was the education of their students.







CLASS HISTORY

Scene: (Back Room of St. Rico's Parish. Mark is sitting. Jill walks in and approaches him.)
Mark: Can I help you my child?
Jill: Yes, I'm looking for the Father of the Parish.
Mark: Well, what do I look like?
J: You're the Priest?!
M: Well, You're a nun?!
J: Sister Giannone. I'm transferring from Father Conaboy's Parish.
M: No! You're not Jill Giannone from Riverside High School?!
J: Mark Roscioli? Is that you behind those sunglasses?
M: (Taking off glasses) I thought you looked awfully familiar!
J: Oh my God! Wendy is never going to believe this! I can't wait to call her tonight!
M: Don't tell me you two still carry on those conversations like you did in high school.
J: Seems like only yesterday we were back at Riverside.
M: My good buddy, Joe Donovan, was in for confession just last week.
J: If he's the same as he was in high school, he should be in confession every day!!
M: Well, he's almost as bald as a Lazevenick now. Remember when he did have hair?!
J: No, I didn't even come to Riverside until 9th grade!
M: I remember our 9th grade speech class when I first met you. You used to be a shy little girl who was afraid of her classmates.
J: Like that Danny Karacs who was in love with the Army and determined to become a Green Beret!
M: Not only was he in love with the Army, but he got pretty friendly with the stop sign he encountered during a game of football.
J: Speaking of football, the Vikings had a pretty good season our senior year.
M: Pretty good?! We were great!! Big 11 Champs and we posted the best record ever at the school.
J: A lot of you guys even made All-Scholastic.
M: Yeah, not only was Kegger All-Scholastic, but he was big enough to be the entire line!
J: And Pat Corby really was an awesome kicker. But if his foot didn't work right, his ego could always carry the ball through the goal posts.
M: Awesome?! Joey Desimone lived up to that word in high school.
J: Yeah, we didn't miss a thing about Joey. He must have told us everything he's ever said and done!
M: He really was a good sport though. Remember how well he took that pie in the face?
J: Yeah, I don't think even that embarrassed him.
M: Remember how embarrassed Jen Coyne was when she didn't know what the "sticks" were in physics class?
J: Embarrassed enough to drop the class the next day after we explained that they were the absolute value signs.
M: She really missed out on all those jokes Mr. Roberts rehearses year after year.
J: Yeah, I think Joey Russincovitch thought he was his protege the way he always tried to beat him to the punchline.
M: Too bad he wasn't ever funny! Maybe that's why they gave him a joke book at Class Night!
J: And how about Geno Class Night? I think if he knew he'd be the center of attention, he would've brushed up on his math skills a little bit!!
M: And Tiffany should have brushed up on her social skills. Remember how she used to burp out loud all the time?
J: The thing I remember most about Tiffany was the way sh beat up Donovan after the Prom!
M: Who could forget our Prom?
J: Roslyn had her one moment in time that night when sh was crowned Prom Queen.
M: I guess Homecoming Queen wasn't enough for her!
J: And Sid Burnside was our Homecoming King. How sad we that?!
M: Remember that one track meet when Sid won the hundre meter dash by a nose?
J: That's the only time Sid was ever awake, because h always caught up on his sleep in the classroom.
M: He never could keep awake. He must have been asleep the wheel when he murdered that poor puppy!
J: Well, he did help our track team murder a few records.
M: Yea, Brian Klimas broke the javelin record, Ron Casey s a new discus record, and even Jeff Albrecht broke the c record in the shotput.
J: Jeff, what a turn around a few years made!
M: I remember when he was a really shy kid. — Before Oz took over his life!!
J: Remember the day he almost flattened Mrs. Ludd f insinuating that he was in love?
M: Well he did have "Jeffy + Jenny + Ozzy" written on h tablet!
J: And what a turn-a-round one night made for Woody!
M: Yeah, Teri Derenick can easily attest to that. When Woo was willing to apologize to the whole world if she trusted h enough to go out with him!
J: Speaking of Woody, I remember the day in gym class wh Joe McGlauchlin hit him in the face with the volleyball a broke his glasses.
M: Woody has yet to get his revenge!
J: Well Mrs. De Fazio got her revenge on Guido by kicking h off the tennis team — three years in a row!
M: Guido's temper always did get him into trouble.
J: Remember when Coach Butcher brought his temper off t field and into the classroom?!
M: When he treated Timmy Lavelle and Dave Prislupski li footballs and kicked them out of the room!!
J: After our fine senior year, Coach Butcher decided it w time to hang up his shoes and retire from the game.
M: Mr. Lisowsli's dream came true when he was named t new coach.
J: Did anybody ever figure out if he was really Dan Fieldi from Night Court?!!
M: Speaking of Dans, how could we ever forget about c valedictorian, "Beatle!"
J: I remember the one time Dan got grounded because didn't get a hundred on an Anatomy test. He locked himself his cell block and didn't come out until he got the key on Cla Night!
M: And remember how nervous he was when he took his da Mrs. Lisowski, to the Scholar of the Year program?
J: We could never forget Mrs. Lisowski. How many times c she ask us, "Are you on drugs?"
M: Boy, Cara and Marissa had her down pat with their i itations of her.
J: Speaking of those two, they always helped make our spri plays a big success.
M: Eddie Popil was a great actor too, but his announcemei on the loud speaker were close to annoying!

J: Speaking of an annoyance, remember Kelly Price?!
M: She lived for cutting people down to Joe Russ's size!
J: Timmy Lavelle seemed to be the only one that could put her in her place.
M: And Shana Barry was the only one to put Timmy in his place!
J: And our basketball team put many-a-team in their place!
M: They were the pride of our school in '87 with their State Championship, and almost repeated the honor as seniors.
J: Missy Evanish really was the team leader as she brought the ball up court and ran the offense.
M: And not only did Missy graduate from Riverside, but she also received high honors at the Peartree!
J: But her highest honor was being selected as a member of the Super Five in basketball.
M: Dana Ozark was considered one of the top offensive rebounders in our school history.
J: She rebounded well off Des's Misses!
M: And Tracy Reider was a dominating force in the middle.
J: Just like her mouth was a dominating force in the classroom!
M: Not just the classroom. She spent half the day in the guidance office talking on the phone!
J: How about Shannon Powell's half court buzzer beater shot to beat Honesdale our junior year?
M: She didn't get half as excited as Mike Mulea did when he hit his last second shot against Honesdale our senior year!
J: Yeah, I've never seen anybody get that excited!
M: And the only other time I've seen Mike that excited was when he was with Lynne!
J: Those two were definitely destined to be together!
M: Just like Paul Novak and Lori Karkut were always together.
J: Do you think Lori was attracted to B.M.'s philosophical approach to everything, or to his terrible jokes?!
M: Neither, I think she liked the variety, 2 months with a beard, 2 months without a beard, 2 months with a beard . . .
J: Mark, Do you remember how Miss Pershinski used to guard the library like it was Fort Knox?
M: Yea, if you couldn't get in the library, you could always make a u-turn and head for an early lunch!
J: I can't even count the number of people who left school to go out for an early lunch to places like Burger King, Third Rail, Family Affair of Grasso's.
M: But we did manage to stay in school long enough to win hall decorating 3 years in a row!
J: Yeah, we always did have the spirit!
M: Speaking of spirit, how about Chris Janeski? We never figured out a way to shut him up!
J: But don't ever threaten Chris, because he'll get his brother after you!
M: Remember Chris' sidekick, Mark Mekilo?
J: Aside from being Chris' protege, he had a tremendous career on the golf team.
M: Mark was always calm on the course, until an opponent called him "Stanko!" This turned into an ugly sight!
J: Speaking of ugly sights, how about Nicole Kochmer's nose after that softball hit her!
M: Yea, she could've donated enough blood so that Sue Fadden could've missed out Student Council Blood Drive!
J: I don't think Sue was too happy with the way things came out!
M: Don't you mean, came out?!!
J: How about all the gum Kevin Conaboy had to come up with day after day? . . . and how many days went by that we didn't see Dione Bowen?
M: But John Secor had a perfect attendance record.
J: Yeah, it's amazing how his grades never showed it!
M: Lynne Arzie was just the opposite, she rarely showed up for class because she was always with Student Council. Yet she still managed to graduate third in the class.
J: And what about that day that Tony Palonis shocked the class?
M: You mean when he brought his 10 ft. Boa Constrictor into Ecology class?
J: He must have thought he was a big as his brother.
M: And how big did Frank DeAngelo think he was when he drove around in his excuse for a black pickup truck?!
J: He used to think he'd actually be able to pick up girls in that truck!
M: The only thing he was able to pick up was his 'Spud Ball' at the pep rallies!
J: And who could ever pick up Lori Lanewski's spirits?
M: Not even a camping trip could put Lori in a good mood!
J: But it was always easy to put Mr. D'Amico in a good mood!
M: All we had to do was stay out of his "hair" and bring him a coffee to make him happy!
J: Val Sterling could've used a few more cups of coffee before school to get her motivated!
M: Speaking of motivated, I think Kevin Ostrowski was a little bit over-motivated.
J: We probably should've given him a tranquilizer to keep him quiet!
M: Dave DeMarzo probably would've volunteered to give it to him, because as our senior year progressed, it became easier and easier to get on Dave's nerves!
J: I guess that's just about the case with everybody by the end of the year!
M: But luckily, we were all able to stick together and have many good times during our senior year.
J: Yeah, I remember the time you and I wrote the class history together and cut everybody down!
M: And everybody took their cut downs in good fun just as they were meant to be taken! That's why we were the best class ever!!
J: Yes, the Class of '89 will never be forgotten!
M: You know Jill, nobody in our class will ever believe that you became a nun!
J: Why not Rico?!
M: I guess because of the way you used to dress, but then again your fashions haven't changed that much! It must be tough to change once you're in the habit.
J: That was bad Rico. But you know I never thought I'd see the day when you'd become a priest!
M: Why is that?
J: Well, don't you remember the terrible temper you used to have, the fights, the cut-downs?!
M: What temper?! (getting mad) I never lost my temper with you, even though I had to write most of the class history by myself. I hate when people say I have a temper! I'm transferring you back to Father Conaboy's Parish! Get out of here! . . . Well, I see Joe Donovan is here for confession again. Here I come good buddy!

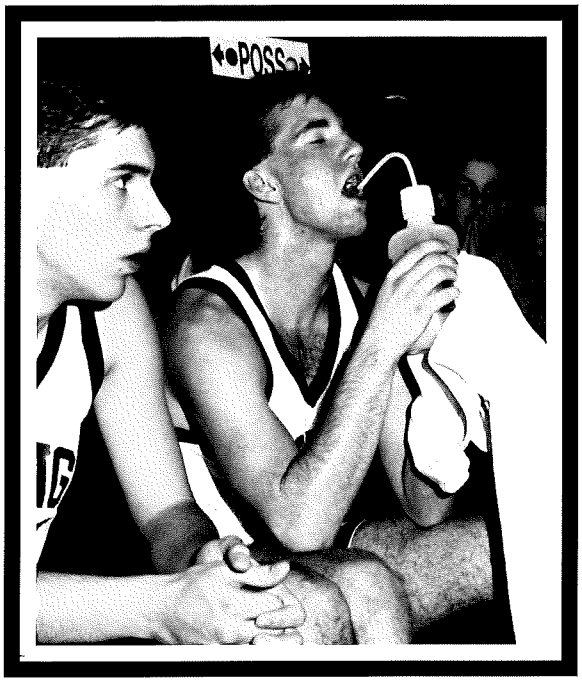
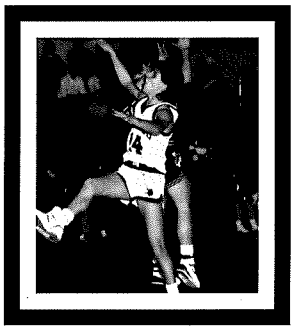
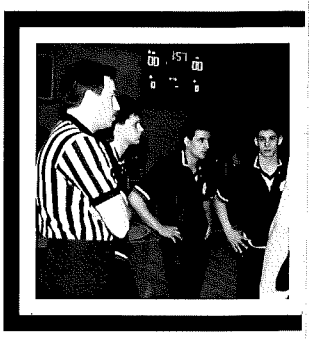
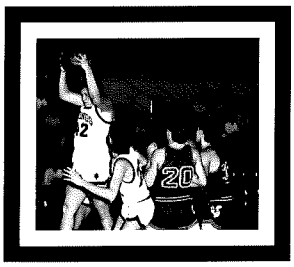
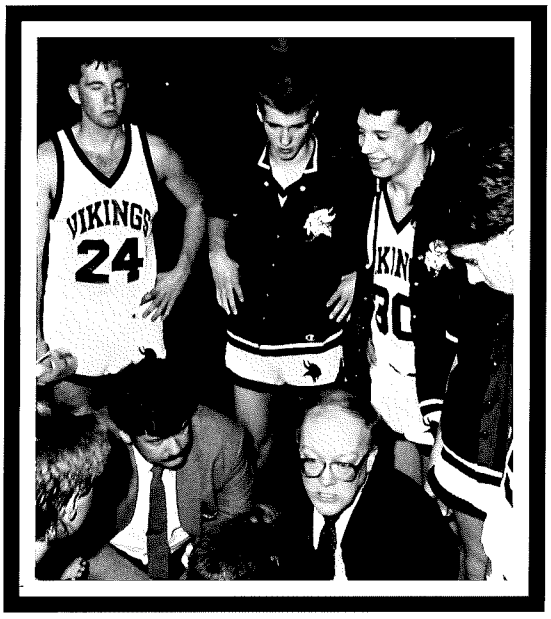
The Boys' Basketball Team enjoyed a winning season. Despite their slow start, they finished the year with a 17-8 record. After beating Lakeland in quarter finals for the Northern Division Championship, G.A.R. defeated them putting them in third place. The starting five players were seniors, Joe DeSimone and Mike Mulea, along with Shawn McGurrin, Ellio Dominick, and Donny Williams. Johnny Connell replaced Donny after Donny's leg injury. The team was coached by Mr. David MacArt who was assisted by Coach Bowen and Coach Ruthkowski.

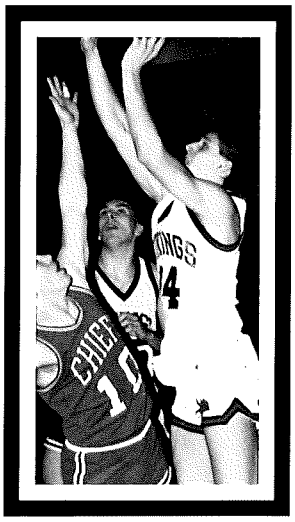


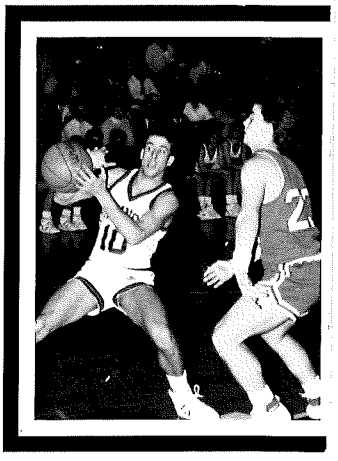


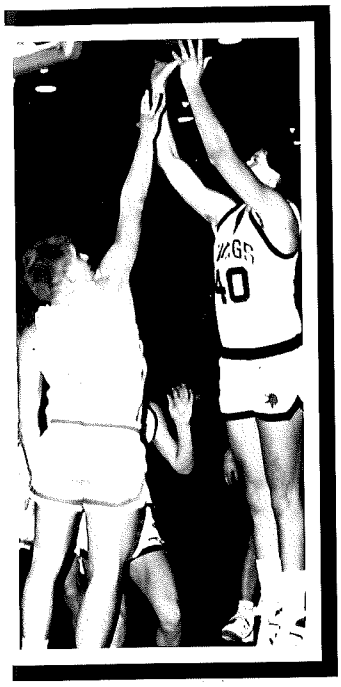


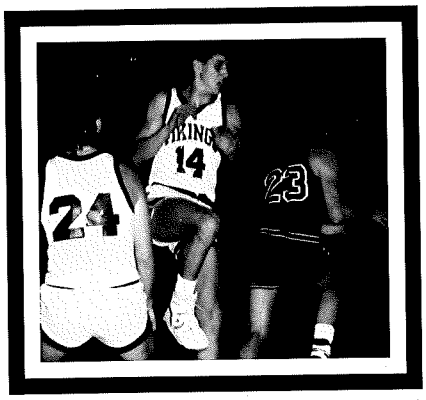


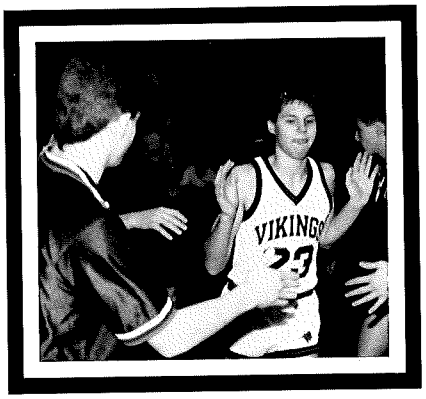


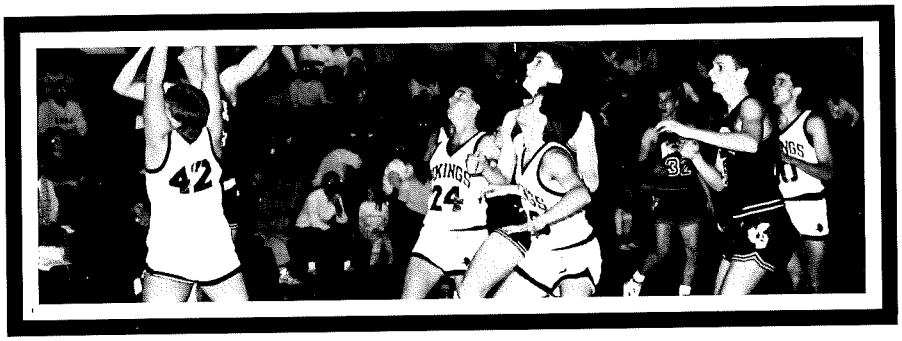


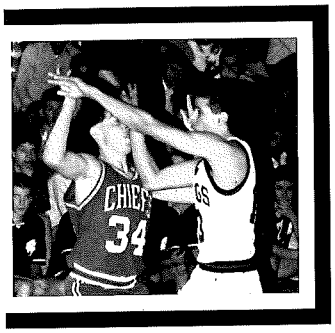


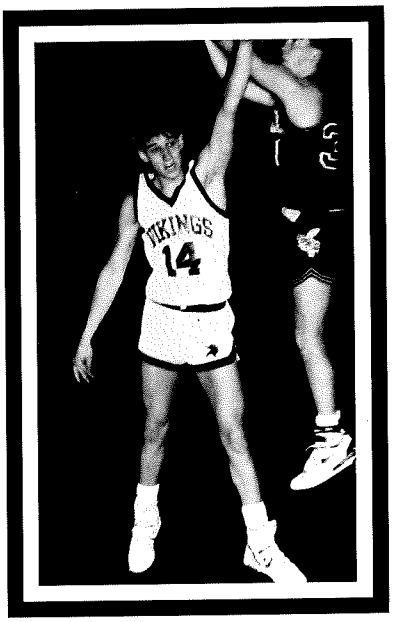


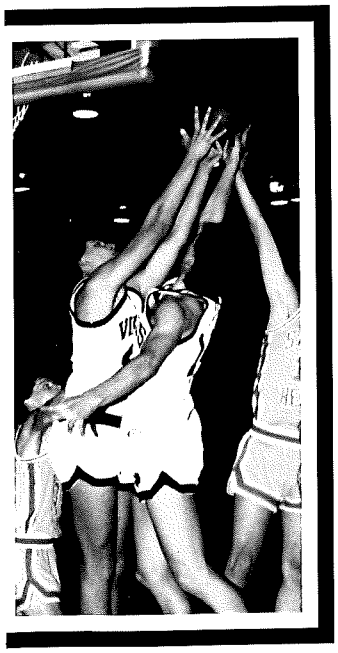


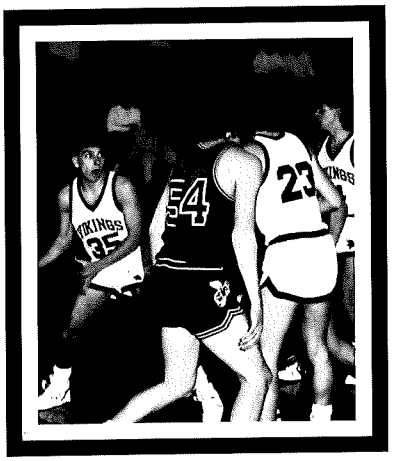


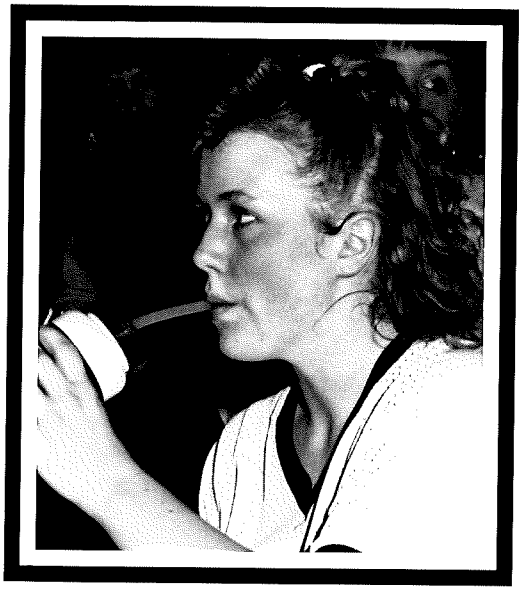


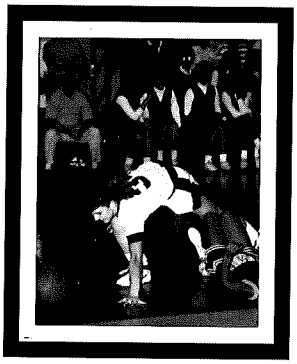












LADY VIKES

The Lady Vikes faced a challengir schedule, yet with our senior girls wh made last year's team a success the were able to turn another year into winning season. The team finished 2 1 with only a loss to Trinity in the Sta finalists. The Lady Vikes finished a champs in the Lackawanna Leagu Northern Division, District 11 Class A and Eastern finalists.

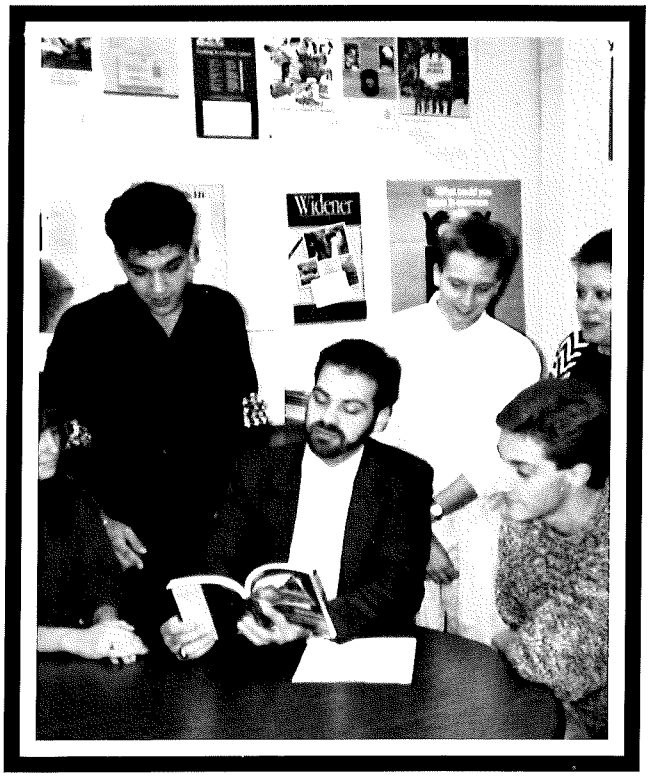
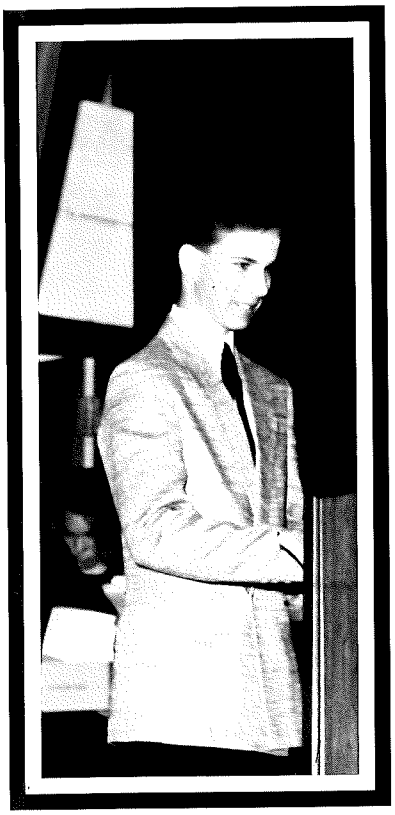
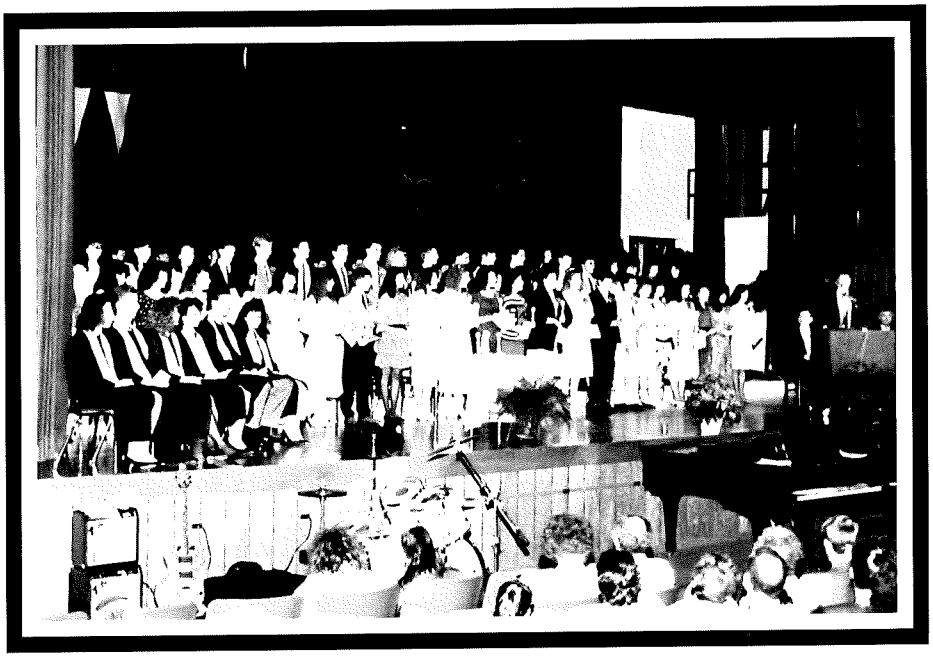
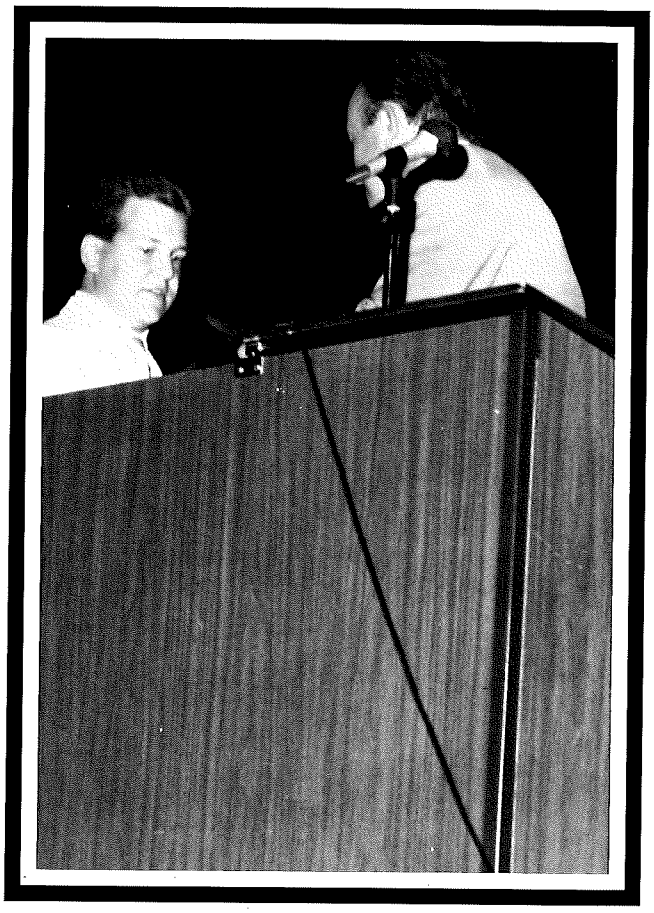
ACADEMICS

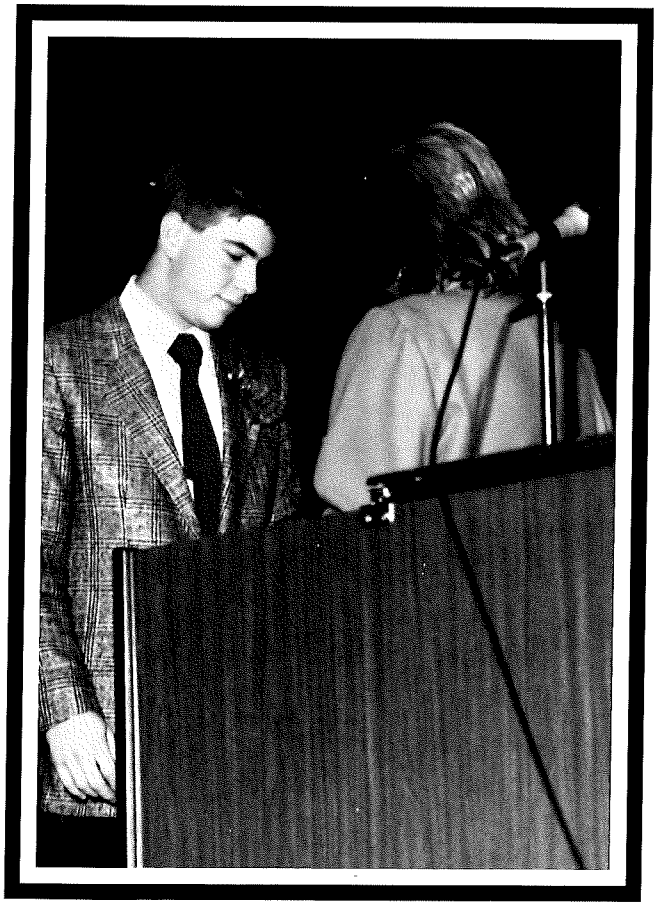
This year, many students were honored for their academic and athletic excellence. Lynne Arzie and Joe Rusincovitch were chosen to attend the Mayor's Prayer Breakfast. Students gather around the representative from the University of Scranton to find out more about what the college has to offer. Kevin Ostrowski received a trophy for his allegiance to the band. Dan Norton received the Kimberly Haas Memorial Award. Lynne Arzie, Kevin Conaboy, Joseph Rusincovitch, and Dan Norton were presented with Honor Society Awards and inducted into the Riverside Chapter of the Honor Society.

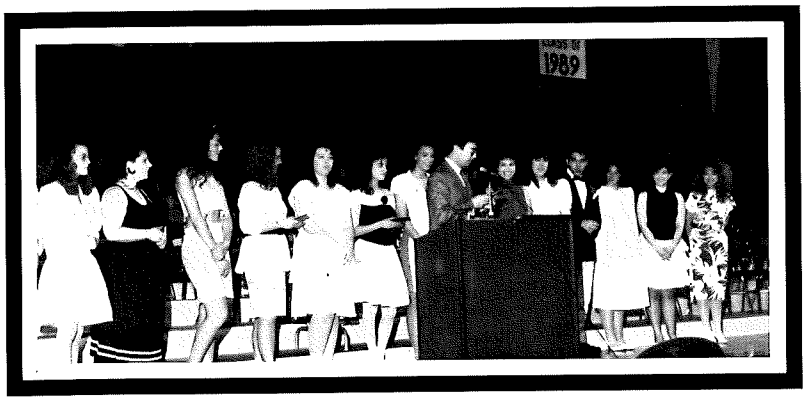




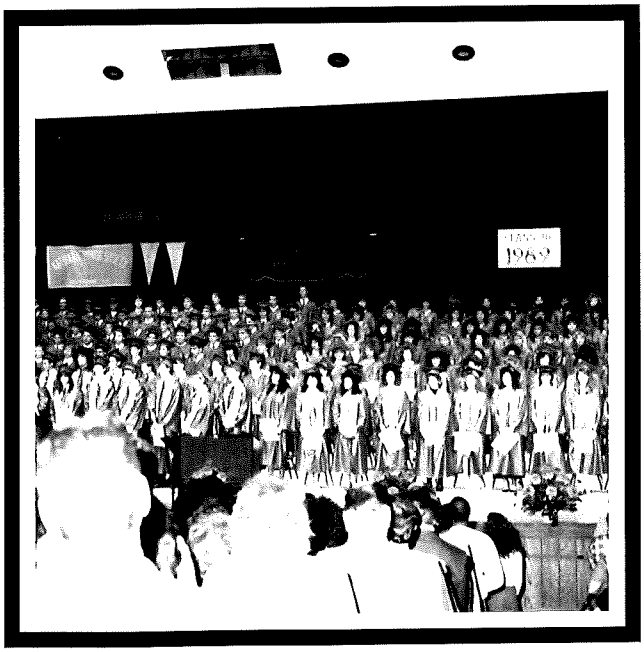








Joe Wegleski was honored for his outstanding musical ability. Joe Rusincovitch received the PIAA Athletic Academics Excellence Award and Mark Roscioli was presented an award for his mathematical ability. Awards were presented on Class Day to members of the Yearbook Staff. Kimberly Elko, Karen Lyckowski, Jennifer Coyne and Lynne Arzie received medical awards.



Mike Mulea, Joe DeSimone, Shannon Powell, Tracie Rieder, Missy Evanish, and Dana Ozark all received awards for their athletic prowess. Jim Gaidula and Missy Evanish received the Marine Corps awards for Academic and Athletic Excellence. Jelina Brown was awarded a pin for typing excellence.

This year's Yearbook Staff faced a tremendous job. Raising enough money to produce an outstanding yearbook seemed an almost impossible task. With three patron drives, a dance, a sweatshirt sale and the ever-popular faculty basketball game, we accomplished this difficult task and could finally start planning a yearbook comparable to all the rest.

The faculty basketball game proved to be one of the highlights of the year. The faculty played the WBRE Peacocks. Even though our daring teachers lost, everyone had fun watching. We think it was those gorgeous faculty cheerleaders who made the team lose control of the game.

As the pictures suggest, our pep rallies have always been interesting, if not exciting. Mark, Jenny, and Terry show their enthusiasm in a spirit contest between the classes. Tiffany and Joe were selected from among the Senior Cheerleaders and Football players to be the main attraction at the Homecoming pep rally. They each received a pie in the face. Since our football team made it to the playoffs, the cheerleaders showed their spirit by decorating the town of Taylor. At one of the dances held in the Cafeteria Joe, Moz, and Mark decide to sit one out.

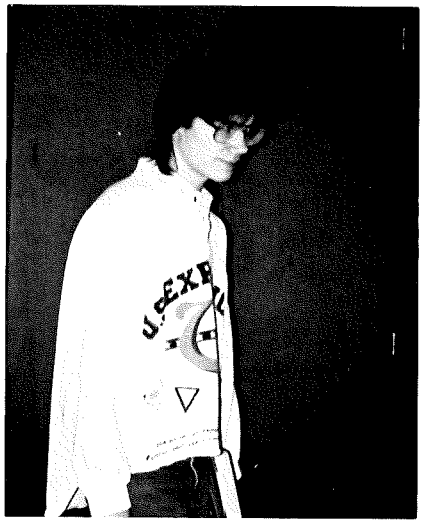
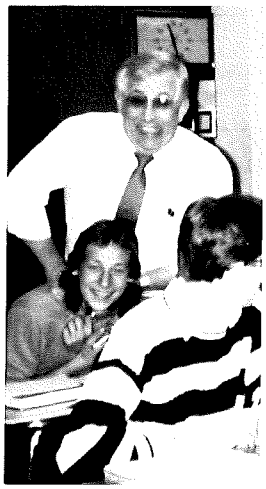
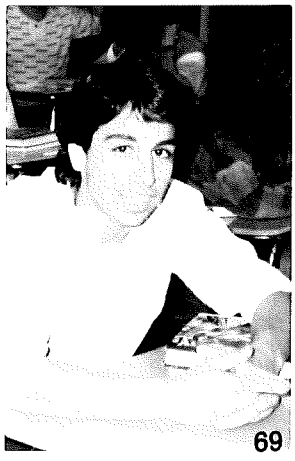
LOOK AT THESE

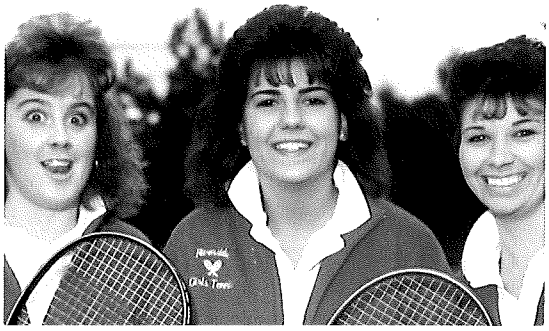


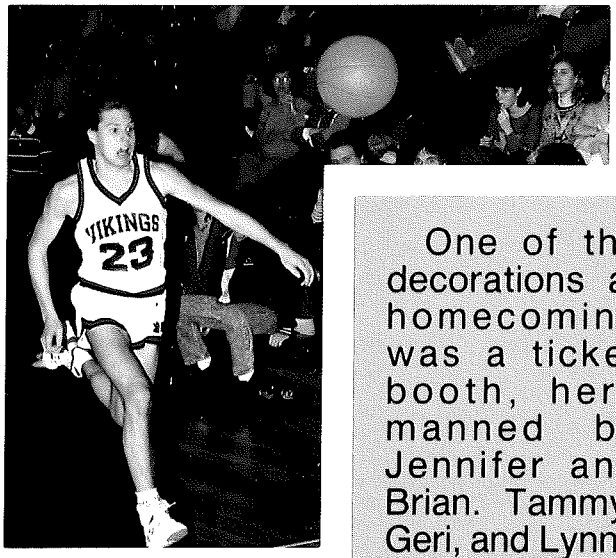


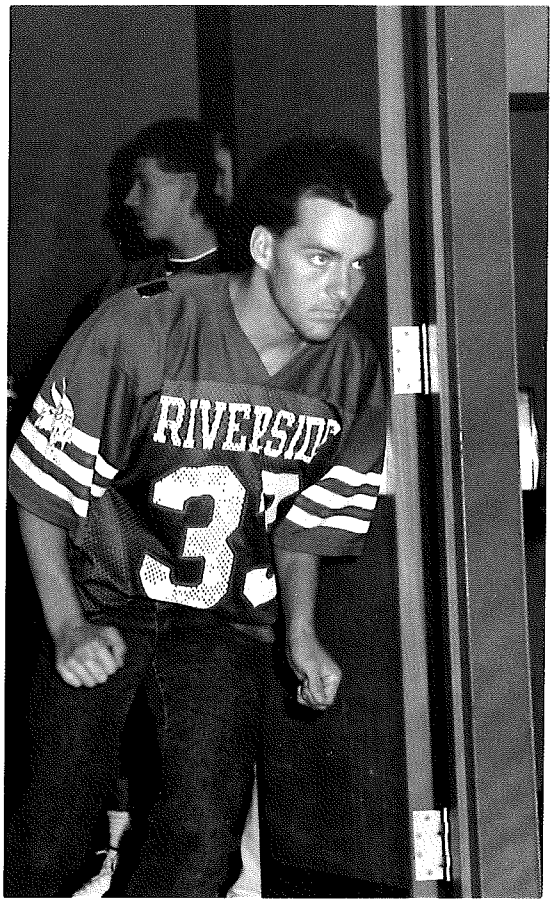
SILLY SENIOR FACES

These pages comprise the silliest faces some seniors have ever made. Of course, most of them didn't think there was film in the camera. Well, Surprise!! Lori and Lisa have found something amusing, while Miss Ludd and Mr. Migal haven't. Trish doesn't seem to want her picture taken at all. Linda, Marty, and Terry, are cooking up something good. Krissy gets caught in the hall again. Yearbook Co-editor Krista and staff members Jennifer, Tammy and Krissy proudly display a proposed cover for the yearbook, and Marissa shows her patriotism in government class. Karen congratulates a shy Ron on becoming a runner up for homecoming king. Ed, Nicole, and Brian show off a portrait of Nicole and Steve tries to look as natural as possible. Last but not least, where else should Carleen be during lunch but on the phone? Here she takes time out to smile for our photographer.









One of the decorations at homecoming was a ticket booth, here manned by Jennifer and Brian. Tammy, Geri, and Lynne take time out from tennis to ham it up for the photographer. Four of our senior cheerleaders, Tiffany, Shana, Kelly, and Jennifer, smiling as usual, pose during a pep rally. As Brian's number is called he runs out to meet the rest of his teammates in the gym. Finally, Mike scrambles after the basketball during a game at the high school.

One of Ed's many jobs is to announce the different activities at pep rallies. Here he is emceeing the Homecoming pep rally. Our photographer caught Frank relaxing in the bleachers before the festivities. Also here is one of our class couples, Roslyn and Bruce.

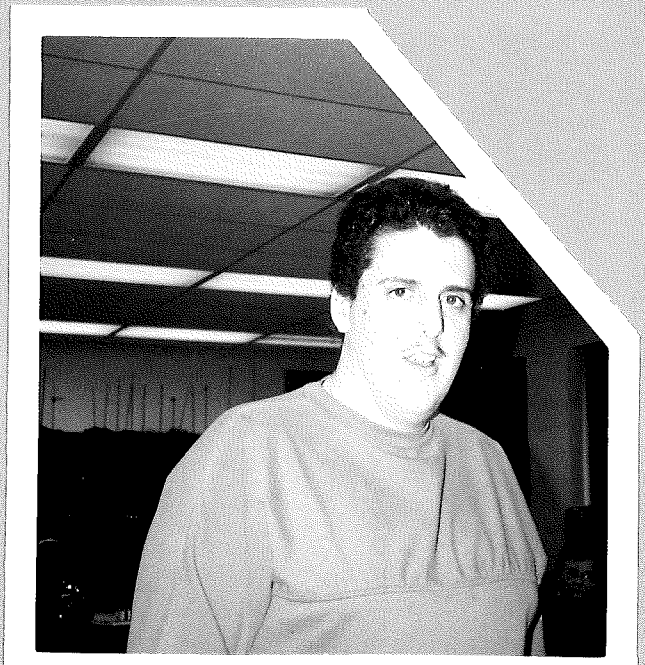
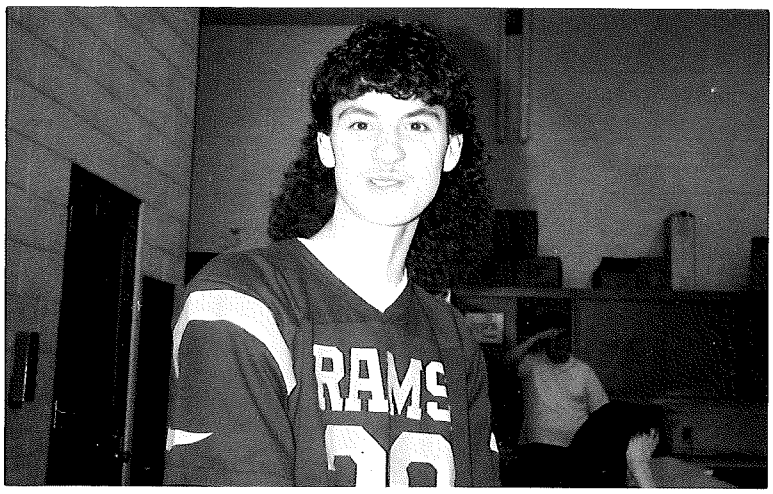
Pat conveys the emotions of the whole team as they win yet another game. Cherese is shown here during a pep rally dance. As always, Joe is wondering what's going on. Mr. Migal's class votes in a mock presidential election held in schools throughout the nation.

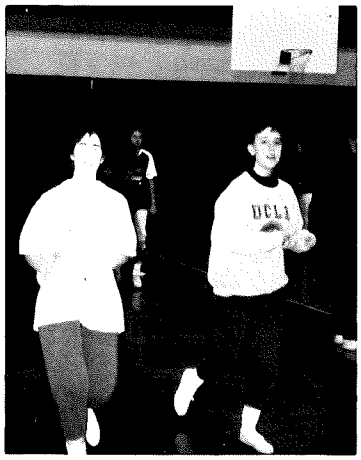
On this page best friends Jennifer and Wendy get together for a picture. Speaking of best friends, we found this group in the caf just waiting for something interesting to happen. Here's Dave protecting his girlfriend Jennifer from anything that might happen. Jennifer relaxes in the commons after lunch. We also caught Tracy at the "first dance she's been to in ages."

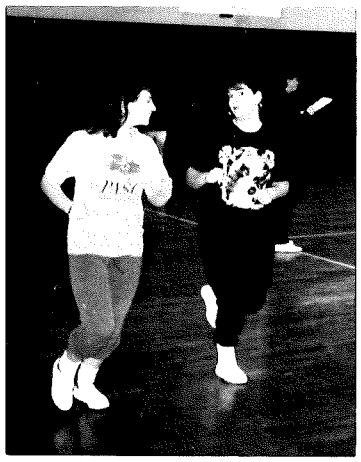


Krista and I, as your co-editors, found it necessary to gather more color candid pictures. We caught Pat on reception in the Commons and Bon in the Physics room. Maria and Robyn were in the Nurse's office feigning sickness. We also opened the door to a classroom for a surprise, candid, picture.



On this page we have Aaron giving himself a break in the Graphics room. Why aren't you chasing young blonde underclassmen Aaron? Tiffany is on the phone in the Band Room. Anything to get out of class, Tiff? Doesn't anyone ever do anything in Mr. Migal's class? Lisa, Krista, and Brian sure look as though they've been working hard and need this rest.





Everybody's favorite activity is running laps in gym. Tracy, Jennifer, Lynne, and Geri, as you can see, are giving it their all, probably just to keep Miss Kresge quiet. Here are Patty and one of her idols, Taylor Dane, posing for a picture together at homecoming. John looks determinedly onward during a game. Miss Sallavanti and Mr. Joyce were the designated pie throwers at the homecoming pep rally. You can tell that the Student Council had to twist their arms to get them to do it. Jeff was crowned first runner up to the Homecoming King. Dione was his escort.

Lynne is psychology so boring that you have to braid Sid's hair? Give Mr. Migal a break and pay attention for once. After runners-up and Homecoming King had been picked, the guys retired to the bench to watch the rest of the show. Naturally, the show they fixed their sights on so intently included cheerleaders. That's what happens when you don't return a magazine to its proper shelf in the library. This poor, unsuspecting victim fell prey to the librarian, Mr. Nee.

ur 1989 Boys' Track Team had an outstand- season this year. Senior Sid Burnside kicked some dirt at district by placing 3rd in the long p. Joe DeSimone tied the school record of 6 in the high jump. Joe took place in jumping the long and triple jumps. Sid managed to r in the 300 m. hurdles and he also ran the 100 lash. Both Joe and Sid ran the 4x100m. relay, hing their achievements for their last year at rside. In field, Brian Klimas threw the javelin '6" setting a new school record and placing 2nd in Districts. Brian also threw discus and peted in the pole vault. Ron Casey set a new ol record by throwing the discus 138'8". Ron threw javelin and ran the 1600 m. relay. Jeff echt threw shotput, and a record 48 feet. er Senior members included Joe Rusincovitch Jon Kreig on shotput, and Frank DeAngelo wing discus. The seniors made this year's k team one of the best ever. Their accom- ments are one's which will not only be re- bered but also admired for years to come.

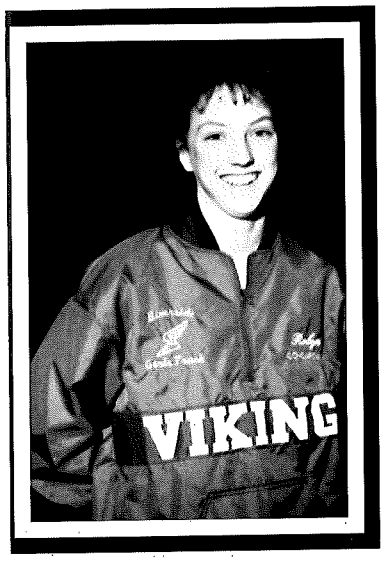
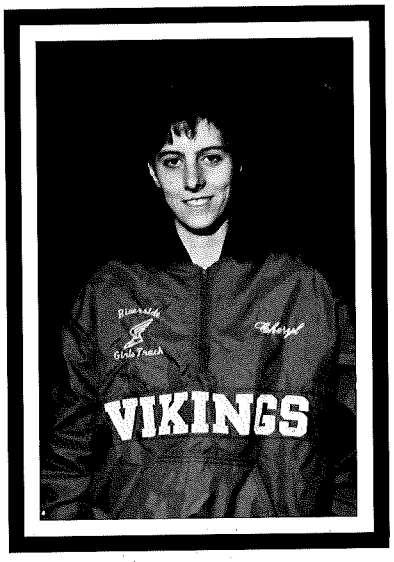
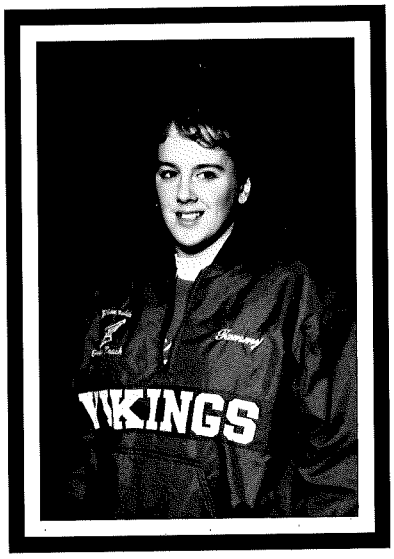
GIRLS' TRACK

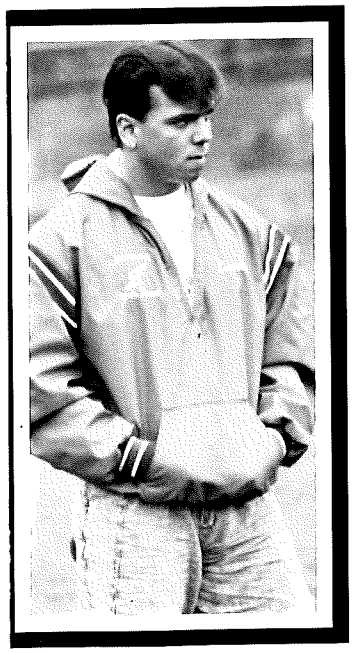
Our Girls' Track Team had an exceptionally good season. This year's new coaches, Kenneth Bednash and Micky Osmolia helped bring new spirit to the girls making them the best they've ever been in years.

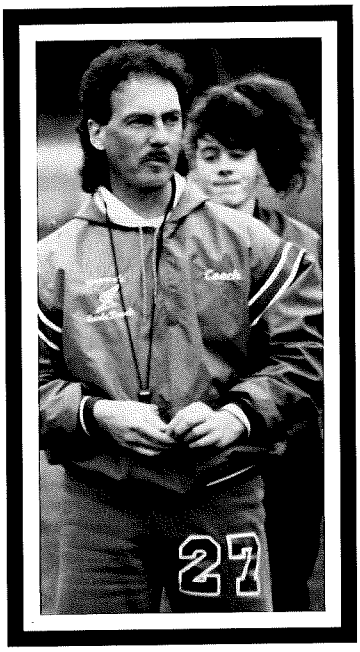
The 1600 meter relay team placed 7th in the State Championship held at Shippensburg and for a second consecutive year were district champs. Runners of the 1600 meter were Carly Donnelly, Becky Metallo, Mary Cohowicz, and Robyn Rowan. Senior Track member Robyn Rowan ran meter and relay for her 4th year. At districts Robyn placed 2nd in the 400 meter run, 2nd in the 3200 meter relay, and 1st in the 1600 meter relay. Other seniors included Tammy Petrowsky, throwing Javelin, and Cheryl Hart jumping the long and triple jump. Captains were Robyn Rowan and Johanna Godino.

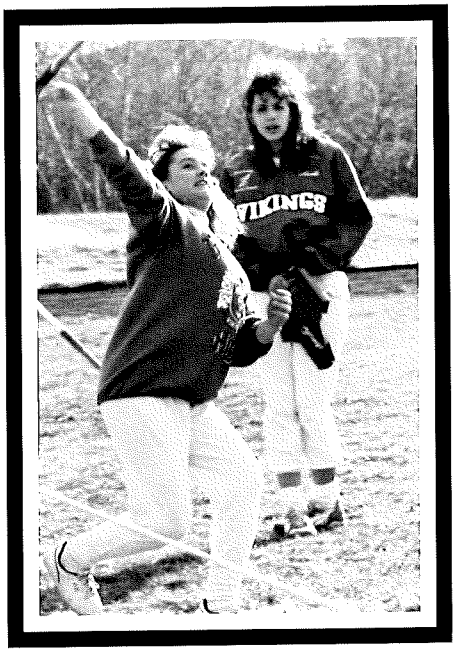


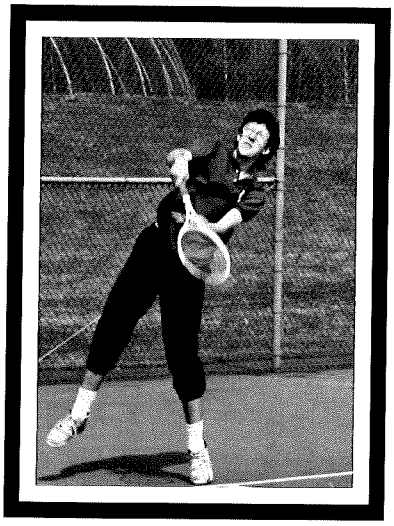


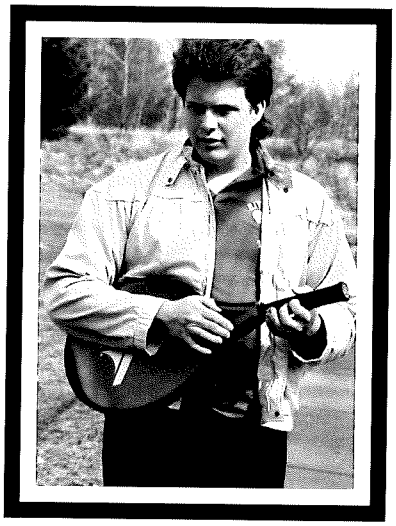


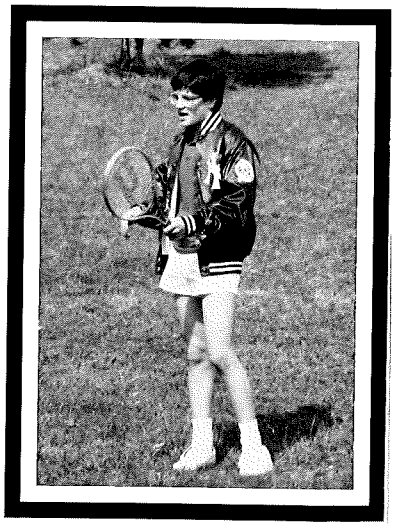


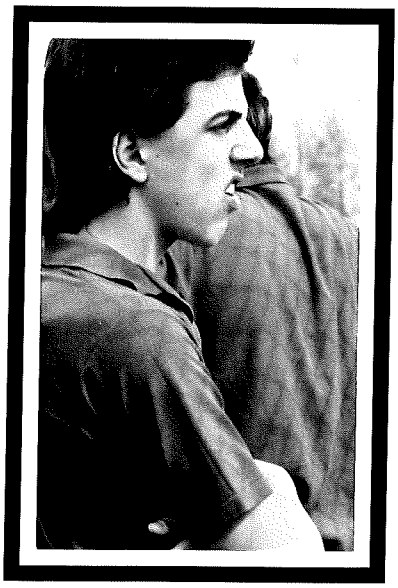


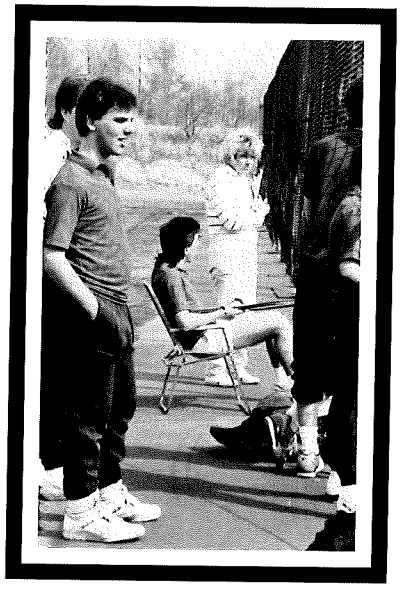


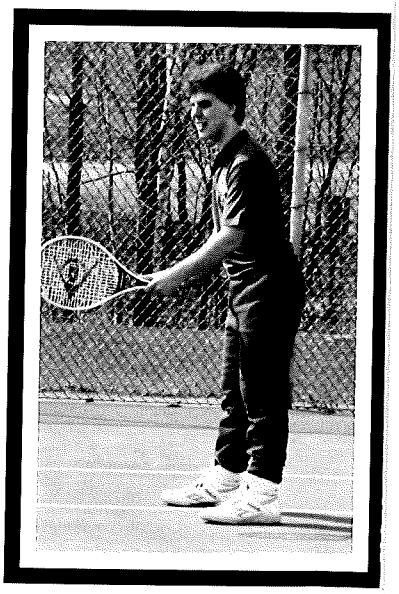


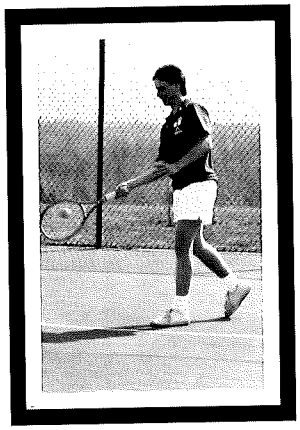






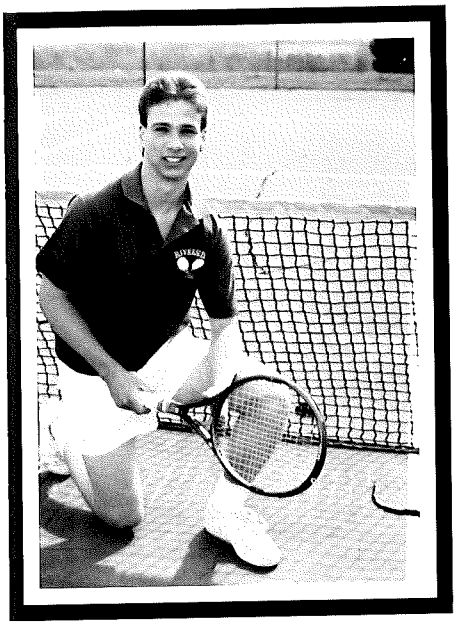


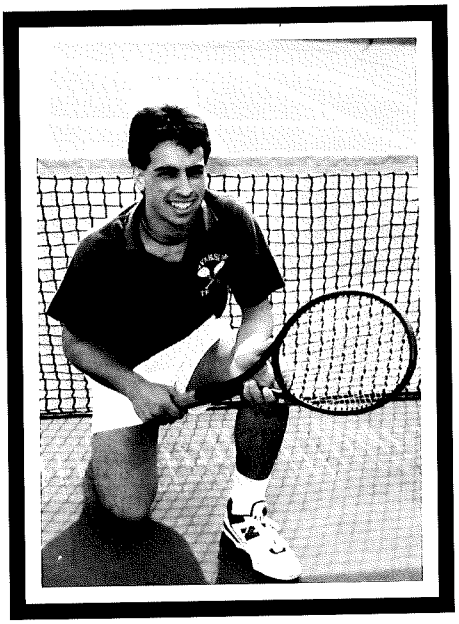


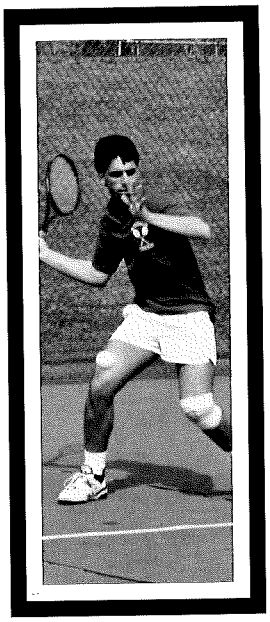


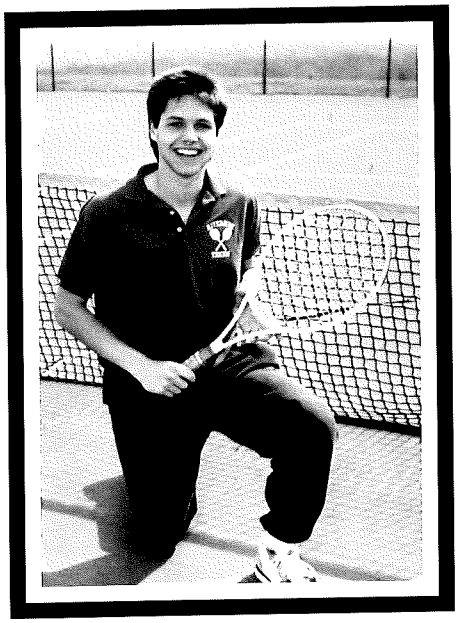
BOYS' TENNIS

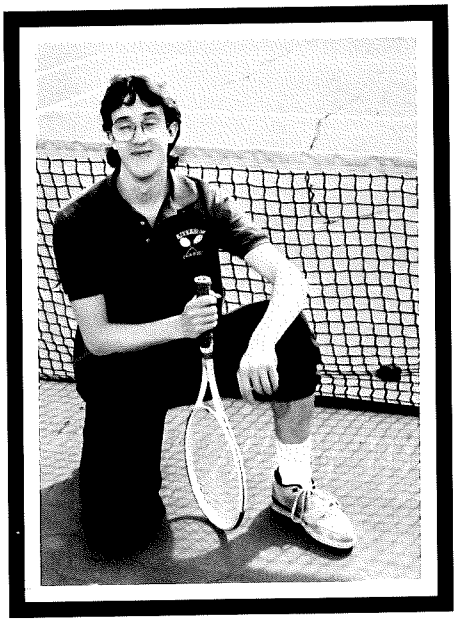
The Boys' Tennis Team enjoyed a successful season this year. Mike Mulea, the team captain, along with seniors Jim Conaboy, Dan Norton, and Steve Griffin had great support from six underclassmen, who are sure to provide Riverside with some wins in the years ahead. Riverside was represented in District II playoffs in both singles and doubles competition. Ms. Jeanne DeFazio coached the team.





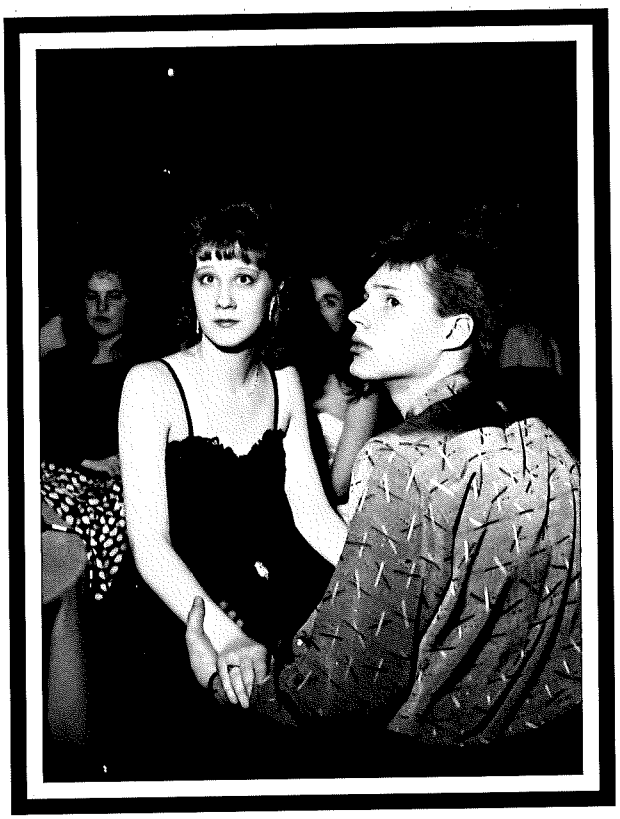






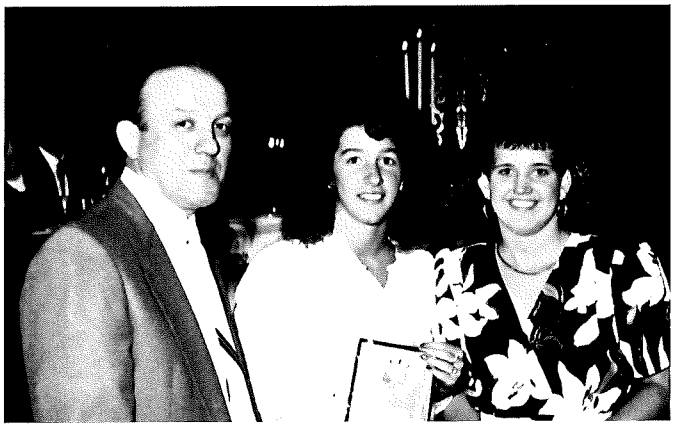
PASSING OF THE SWORD

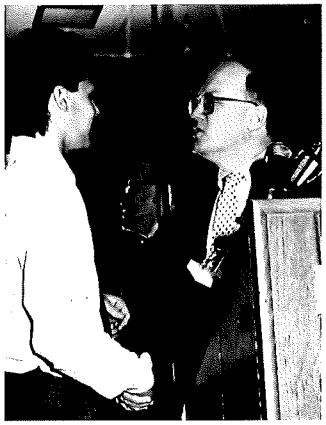
This year's Passing of the Sword was held at Montage Manor in Taylor. 1989 Miss Viking Shana Barry passed her sword to Amy Evanish. Captains for the Units were also announced. Varsity Co-Captains are Becky Metallo and Colleen Gaughan. Junior Varsity Co-Captains are Lisa Morgan and Tracy Roche. Pom Pon Co-Captains are Chris Azarsky and Roberta Lisowski and Michelle Singleton was named Feature Twirler. We're sure they can give us another entertaining year.



ALL HONORS

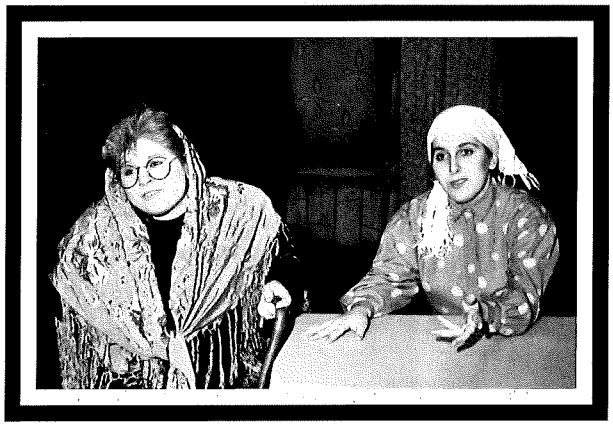
This year's All-Honors Banquet was held at Convention Hall in Pittston. Letters were given to all students for outstanding achievements in sports and academics. Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Adomiak, provided the jokes for the evening. The Yearbook Staff congratulates everyone who was honored with letters or awards for all their hard work and perseverance.

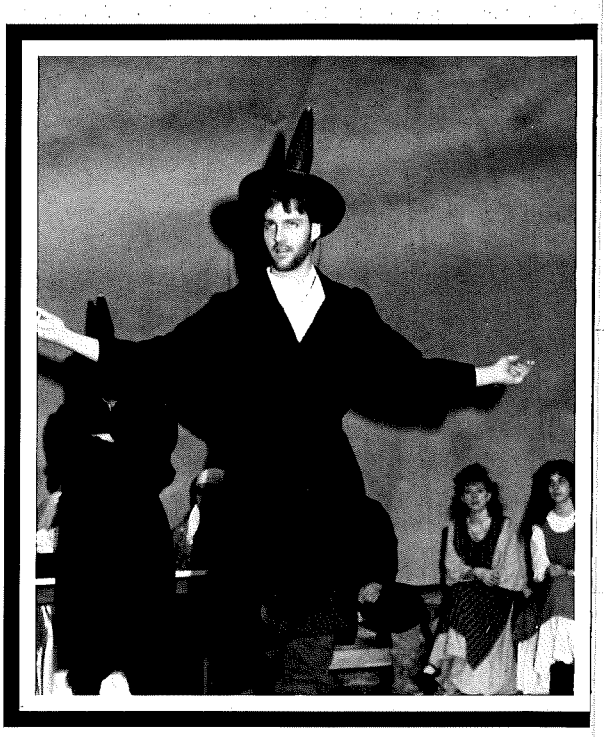


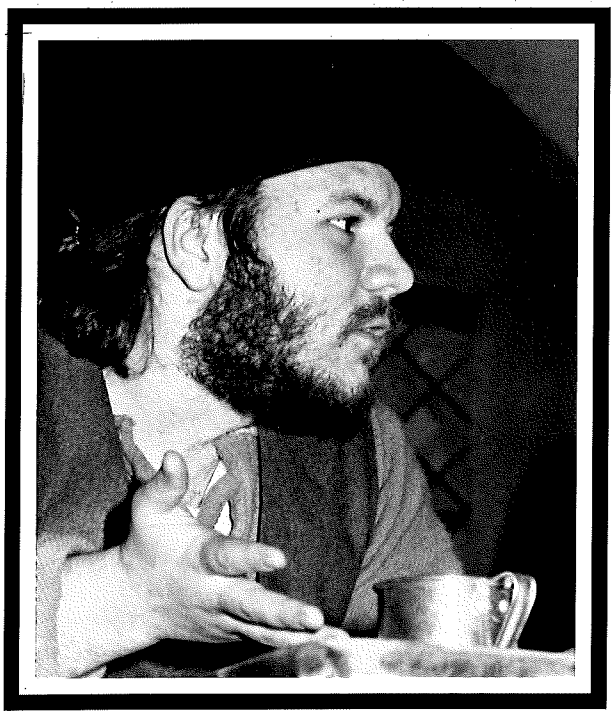


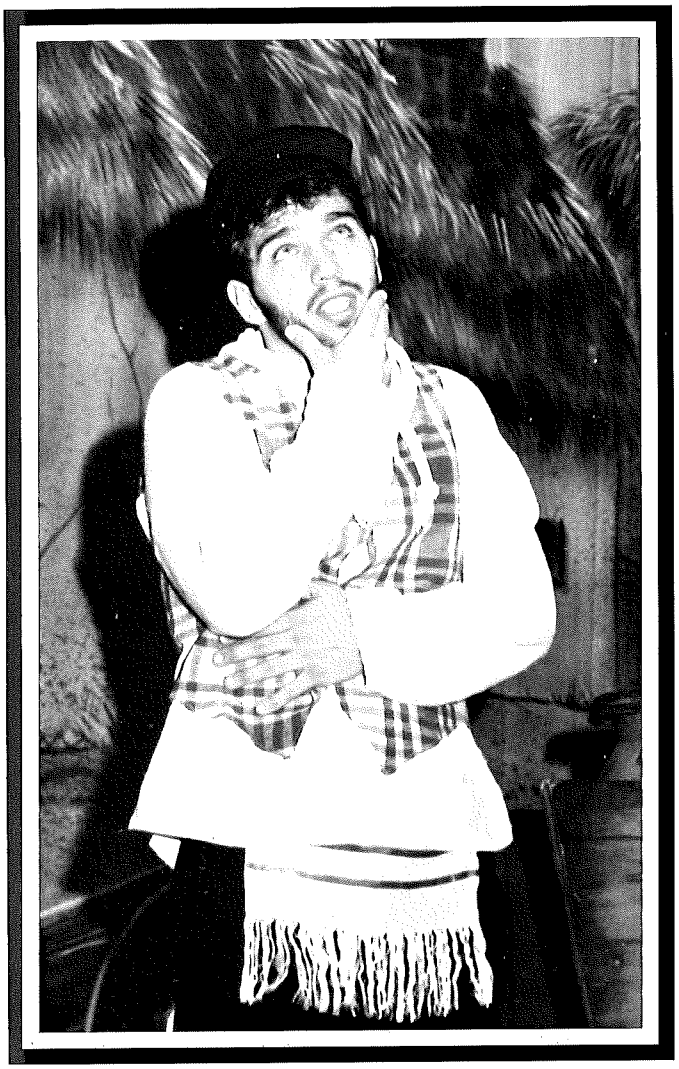
FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

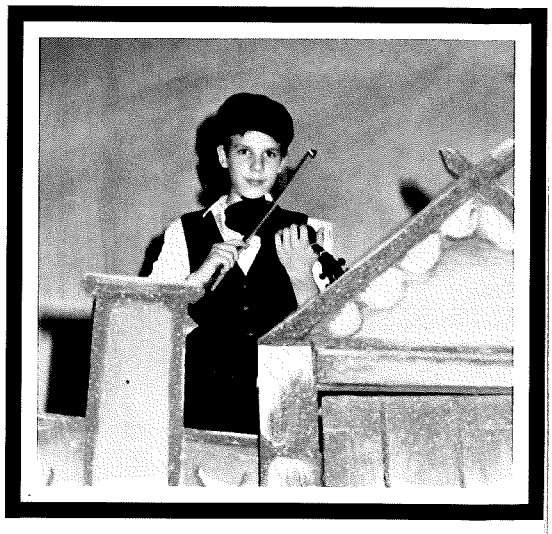
The Drama Club's spring production of "Fiddler on the Roof" opened to a standing room only crowd on April 6 and 7. With Ed Popil and Marissa Harrison playing the partys of Tevye and Golde, the audience couldn't help but laugh, and even cry. All actors and actresses were to be congratulated for what most described as the best play ever at Riverside.

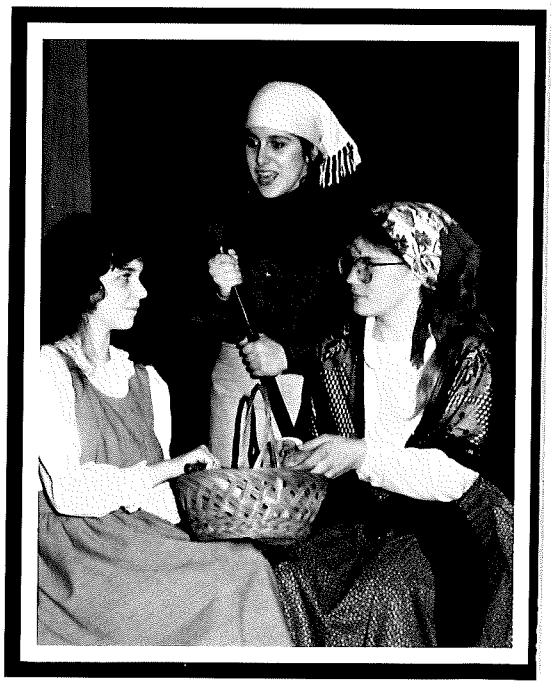


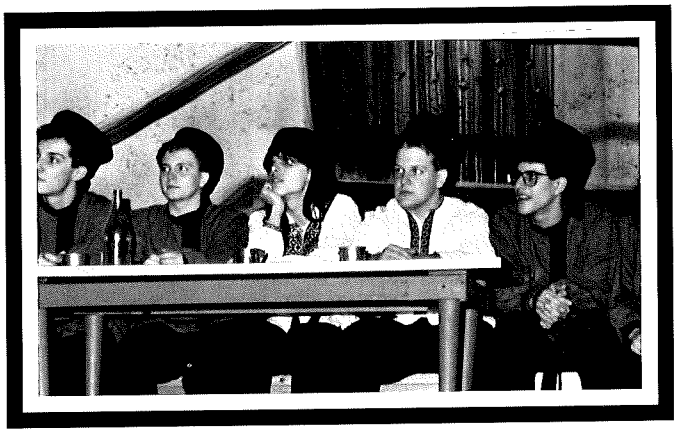












CLASS NIGHT

Class Night 1989 was held at Genetti's in Dickson City. Our Ditty Committee kept everyone entertained with their original, amusing, and very fitting ditties. Tracy Valvano received tissues, Jeff Albrecht was presented with an Ozzy tee-shirt and Tammy Petrowsky received duct tape. Of course, Ditties weren't meant to offend and everyone accepted their own in good humor. The class of 1989 thanks Miss Stampien and Miss Willis for an enjoyable evening we'll always remember.

"ONE MOMENT IN TIME"

Fiorelli's in Peckville provided the setting for this year's Junior-Senior Prom. Music was provided by Fancy Dancer.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Prom Queen Roslyn Rowan, and her court, Wendy Weisenfluh and Cara Smigiel, along with junior attendants Sue Deininger, Stacie Lewandowski, Dana Sadowski, and Becky Metallo.

Although May 12, 1989 has passed and our prom is now a memory, we will always remember that special "One Moment in Time."

ONE MOMENT IN TIME

Each day I live, I want to be
A day to give the best of me
I'm only one but not alone
My finest day is yet unknown
I broke my heart for every gain to taste the sweet I faced the pain
I rise and fall yet through it all
This much remains
I want one moment in time
When I'm more than I thought I could be
When all of my dreams are a heartbeat away
And the answers are all up to me
Give me one moment in time
When I'm racing with destiny
Then in that one moment of time
I will feel eternity.
I live to be, the very best
I want it all, no time for less
I've laid the plans, now lay the chance
Here in my hands
I want one moment in time
When I'm more than I thought I could be
When all of my dreams are a heartbeat away
And the answers are all up to me
Give me one moment in time
When I'm racing with destiny
Then in that one moment of time
I will feel eternity
You're a winner for a lifetime
If you seize that one moment in time
Make it shine
Give me one moment in time
When I'm more than I thought I could be
When all of my dreams are a heartbeat away
And the answers are all up to me
Give me one moment in time
When I'm racing with destiny
Then in that one moment of time
I will be free!

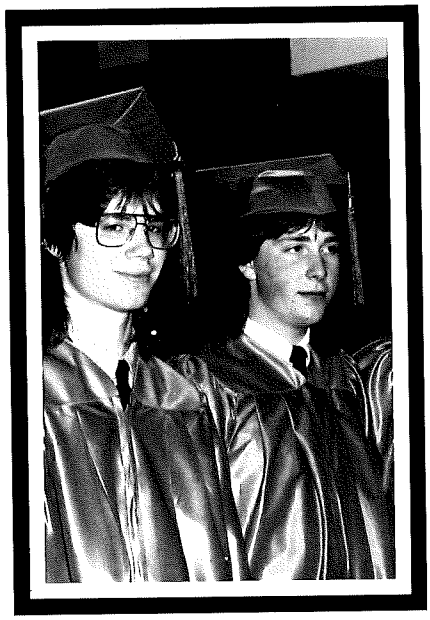
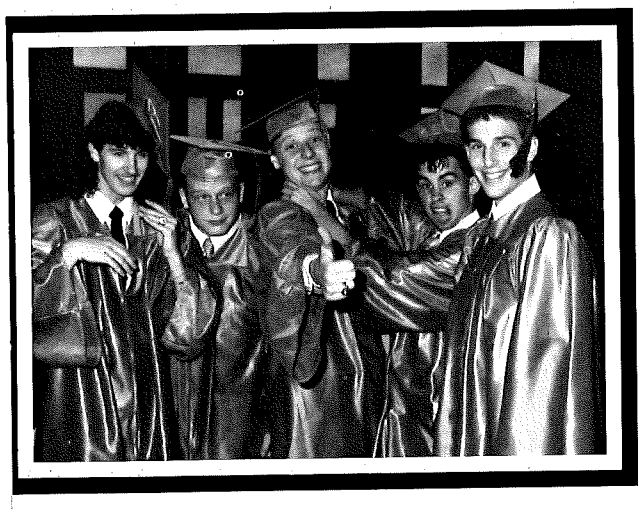
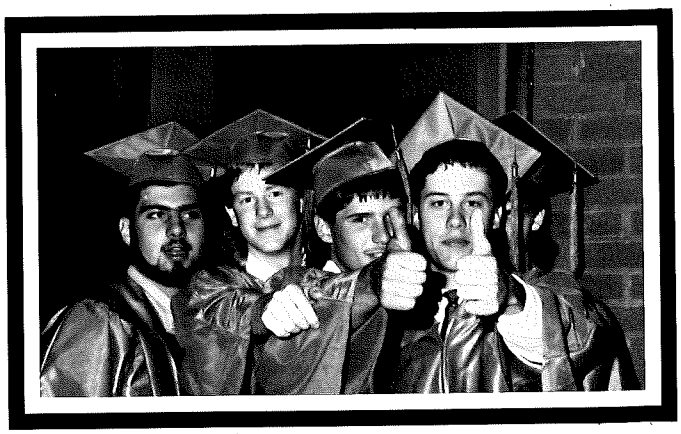
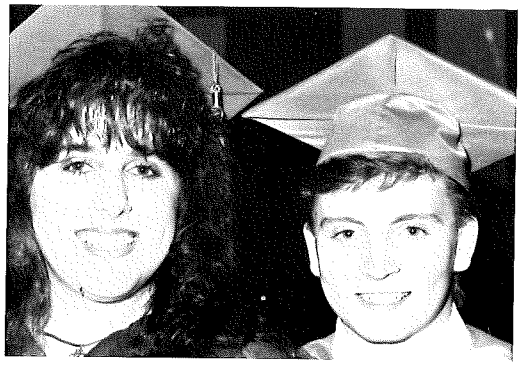
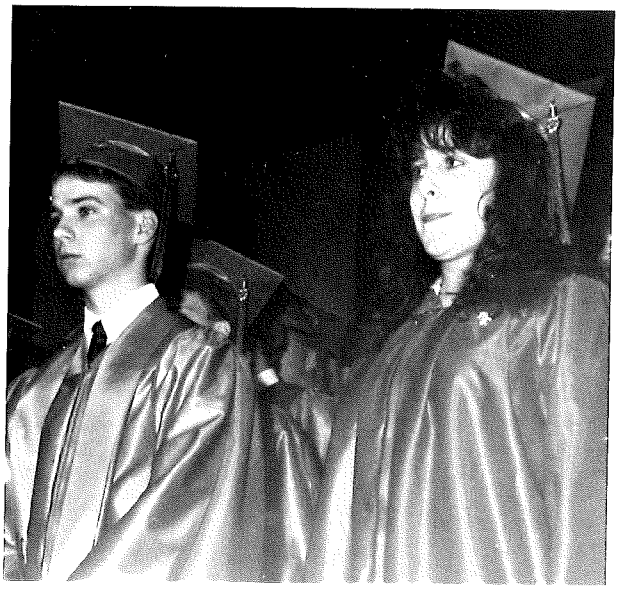
The Graduation Ceremony at Riverside was held on June 9, 1989. Students gathered in the cafeteria to take pictures, secure caps and collars, and say goodbye to friends and teachers. As always, emotions ran high but we made it through the last night the whole class would be together. We will always miss Riverside, but we have all the memories, good and bad, to remember, and carry with us.

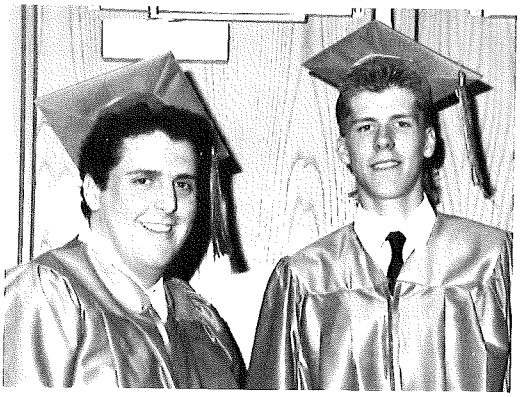


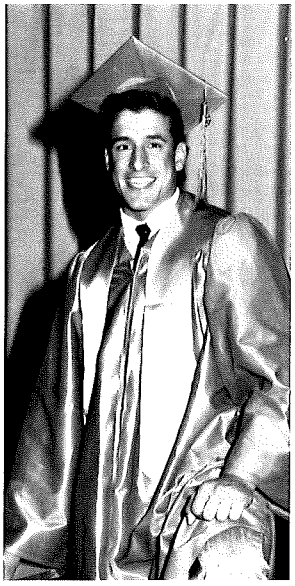




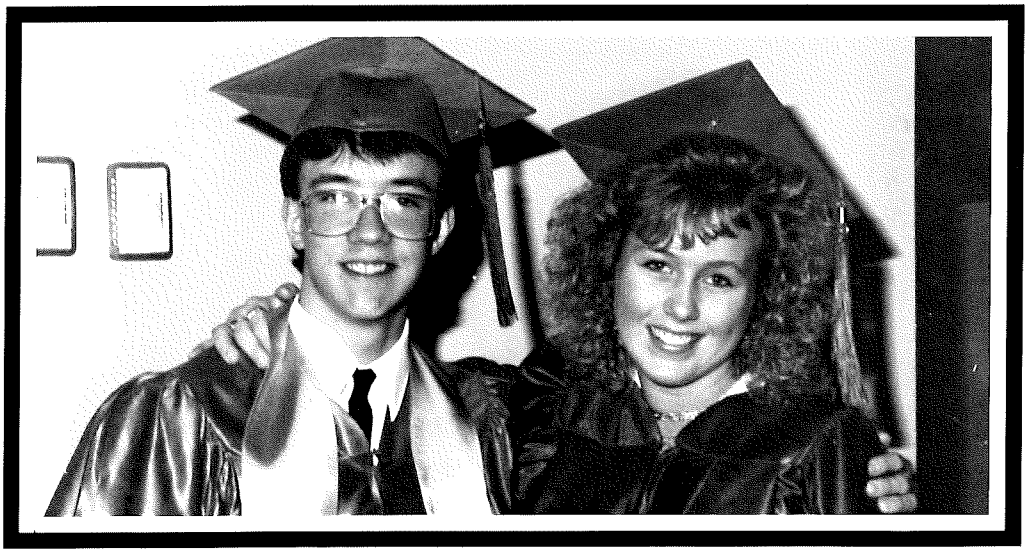


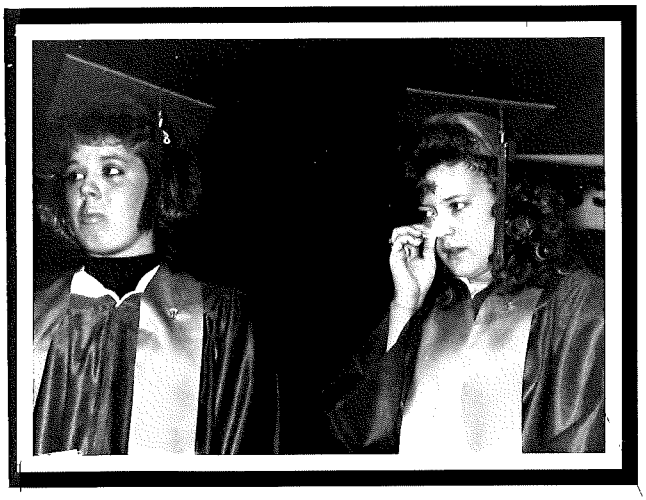


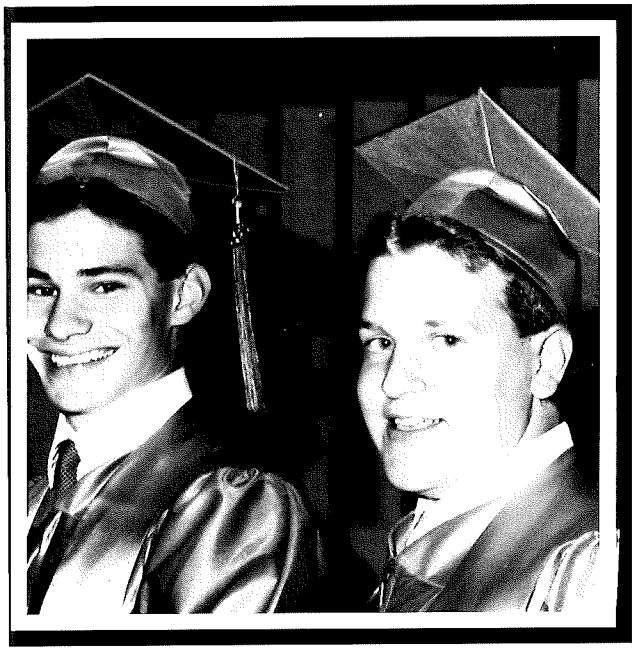


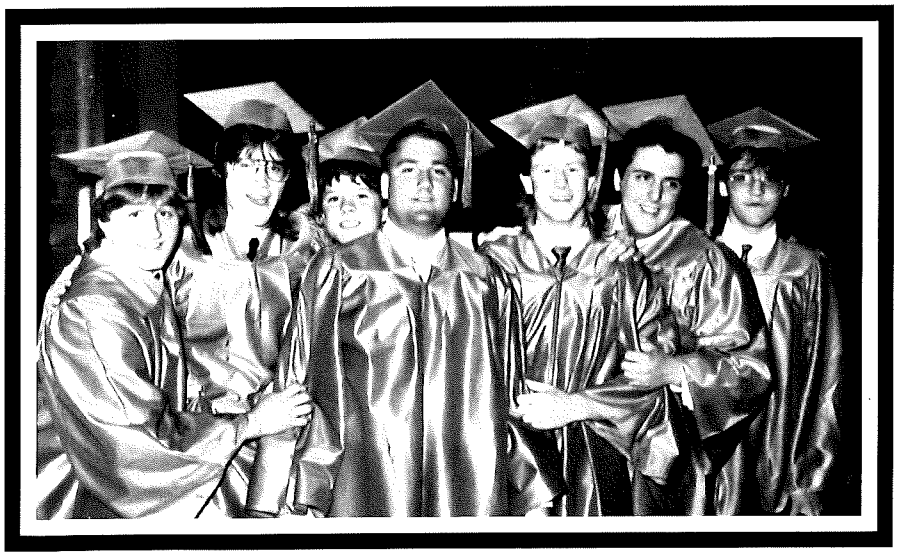


BOYS DRESSING









CLASS PROPHECY

(The scene opens with Paul walking onto the stage, mail in hand. He mutters as he leafs through the letters.)

Paul Junk mail, junk mail, bill, bill, letter from Mr. John Nee, Riverside High School Librarian — What in the . . . (he opens the letter) A recent discovery indicates that you have overdue books that have accumulated fines in excess of 4000 dollars — next (flings the letter, then opens another) You are cordially invited to attend Riverside High School's class of 1989 ten year reunion — Wow, 10 years! (contemplates for a moment, then blurts out) not going. (flings letter, then proceeds to sit at table and read paper) Weather, weather, weather — ah partly cloudy for tomorrow. Oh well. (tries to read, but fades to light sleep)

(From offstage walks Carleen, trying to simulate ghost sounds. OHH, AHH, OHH Approaches Paul, continuing to do the same, Paul awakes)

Paul What in the world? Carleen? Carleen Szymanski?

Carleen Hello Paul.

Paul How have you been? What have you been doing?

Carleen Good. Chrissy DePaolo and I have an engineering consultant firm.

Paul Oh. What do you want?

Carleen You see Paul, I moonlight as an apparition. With all those student loans, my regular job just isn't enough. Anyhow, I was sent here to show you how our classmates have been doing. You haven't seen any of them since graduation.

Paul That's not true. A few years ago I ran into Cara Smigiel. Neither of us was hurt, however. She was working for an advertising company, designing art work I believe.

Carleen You've only seen one member of the class of '89 since graduation? That is pitiful. For the past ten years, it was either college or work that kept you from your friends, your classmates.

Paul Maybe I have lost touch with them. But advertising is very demanding. Do you know how long it takes to shoot one commercial?

Carleen After tonight, your attitude will change. Normally, you would have three escorts, one for past, one for present, and one for future; but I need the overtime, so I'll be taking you to all three. Close your eyes, Paul.

Paul What? Are we playing hide and seek?

Carleen Close them!

Paul O.K.

(Carleen snaps her fingers.)

Carleen All right, Paul. You know, many people from the Class of '89 were successful early in their careers.

Paul Oh really? Like who?

Carleen Just look.

(Paul looks around in wonder.)

Paul Hey, there's Missy Evanish. Is she working at Dave Febbo's?

Carleen No, this is her own store. She opened it in the Pear Tree eight years ago.

Paul I didn't know she had her own — Hey, there's Frank DeAngelo and Sid Burnside. What have they been up to?

Carleen Frank has his own Checker's franchise, and Sid opened a mattress and pillow store.

Paul Is that Mark Mekilo?

Carleen Yes it is. He's the new owner of Pine Hills.

Paul What's up, guys?

Carleen They can't hear or see us.

Paul This is a real dumb dream (leafs through paper he had been holding onto all the while) Riverside Graduates promoted Randy Wasko and Kim Cravetts named production managers at Panel Prints, while Sharon Moore was promoted to manager at Bargains Galore. Mike Reed and Bruce Yackobowitz were recently made supervisors at Empire, and Bon Russomano was promoted to general manager of McDonald's. Tim Battle was named manager of The Hilton. Wait a minute, this paper says 1991.

Carleen Yes, it is today's paper.

Paul You mean it really is 1991?

Carleen Yes

Paul Here's an ad for Sue Fadden's clothing store "That Girl with the Suits"; here's another for Jelina Brown's "Unique Boutique" clothes shop. Val Sterling has a matchmaking business! Wow, I did realize we went to school with so many entrepreneurs.

Carleen There's more, Teri Derenick has her own design jewe shop, Tom Hazelton owns an auto repair shop, and Ned Lane ha deep sea welding business. Kim Yanchowski owns a petite sh Stan Strizalkowski and Pat Tomeo have a carpentry business; Be Ancherani, Kay Bramley, and Dave Derenick have a stereo store; a oh yes, Nicole Onofrey — she conformed and now owns an Iz outlet.

Paul Only two years out of high school, and already all of the people are successful. (returns to paper) Ed Popil's starring ir Broadway play written by Christina Elvidge — I don't believe it!

Carleen Believe it. He even has Natalie Scavo and Linda Rogow as his personal hair stylists.

Paul Wow! Jen Coyne and her band "Spare Change" are playing the Kirby Center, so is comedian Chris Janeski.

Carleen Joe Wigleski and Jim Schaivo —

Paul Who?

Carleen Sorry; Igg and Wig changed the name of their band "Mean," and hit it big. They are being promoted by John Ozack, I Morrell, Ken Smulek, Marty McGraw, and Robert Stacknick, who a promote most of the bands that play at the new civic arena.

Paul I didn't know we had a civic arena. Hey, this ad says that J Krieg is a professional wrestler, managed by George Cooper.

Carleen If you flip to the comics, you'll find Mike Hughes ha syndicated strip.

Paul Let's see what was on television back in 1991; the game sh "What's my Allergy?" hosted by Kevin Ostrowski, a cooking sh hosted by Bill Tanski, and a bodybuilding program hosted by Je Cicon.

Carleen Check the sports and you'll find Paul Hewitt pitching for Red Barons, while Mike Mulea is touring Europe as a tennis pro. newlywed Lynn Davis is keeping busy by studying at some of the l universities in the world. We must go.

Paul I know, close my eyes.

(Carleen snaps fingers)

Carleen O.K. Paul.

Paul (looks to paper) 1999. It's good to be home. I feel like Doro from The Wizard of Oz.

Carleen You mean Lynne Arzie?

Paul What?

Carleen Her gold shoes helped her land the role of Dorothey in sequel to The Wizard of Oz.

Paul Hey, where are we? This isn't my apartment. It looks Riverside High School.

Carleen It is. This is our first stop in the present.

Paul Why here?

Carleen It was here that our futures were first molded, and some of our classmates are now the molders.

Paul Hey, there's Rob Ruthkowski. Let me guess, chairperso the graphics department.

Carleen Right.

Paul And there's Bob Bartosh teaching history. Is that John Sec didn't know he was a teacher.

Carleen Since he never missed a day while he was a studen decided to continue his perfect attendance as an English teache

Paul What's Kim Elko doing here?

Carleen School Nurse.

Paul Oh. Hey, there's Joe Donoven . . . He's not

Carleen He is (both look at each other)

Carleen and Paul Driver's ed.

Paul There are more members of the class of 89 in the building than there were when we were seniors.

Carleen Wait, there are more of our classmates still at River Jennifer Digwood and Tiffany Griffeths are now guidance counse Brian Hannon teaches sociology, Nicole Kotchmer teaches stuc with speech disorders; Emee Hurley and Nicole Yeck teach mentary school, Arron Surridge is a kindergarten teacher, Kim T ico is a physical education instructor, and Dione Bowen is a t officer.

ul Wow. All these people making a difference.
rleen Time to go
ul I know, I know, my eyes are closed.
ırleen snaps her fingers)
rleen Open Up.
ul A hospital?
rleen Moses Taylor Hospital. Our second stop in the present.
ul What are we doing here?
rleen Seeing more people from our class making a difference.
ul Hey, there's Tony Palonis.
rleen He's head nurse.
ul Head nurse? How did he become head nurse in such a short 'iod to time?
rleen He's a very good nurse.
ul There's Kim Brown, Kelly Price, Christine Negvesky, Maria :haely, Melissa Lewis, and Karen Lyckowski. rleen They are all nurses.
ul And Tony is their boss?
rleen Yes.
ul Hey, there's Wendy Weisenfluh.
rleen She's head dietician. And Jennifer Grabosky is an ad- ıistrator, Dave DeMarzo is a resident pediatrician, Tracie Valvano ı biologist, Joe Skronski is an X-ray technician, Roslyn Rowan is a rapist, and Gene Majewski works in the research department.
ul Research? What does he do, splice genes or something?
'leen As a matte of fact . . .
ul Oh. So, is that everyone?
'leen Well, there is Art Tucker. He was slightly injured when his e car smashed into the wall at Pocono International Raceway, but s fine now.
ul I didn't know he was a race car driver.
'leen We have to go.
ul So soon?
'leen It's getting late (Paul shuts eyes as Carleen snaps fingers) (.
ul A courtroom. It's definitely a courtroom. And that's definitely ımy Conaboy
'leen No. That is Judge James Conaboy ul So, what's going on here?
'leen The case itself isn't important. But the people here make a erence.
ul Like Marissa Harrison?
'leen Yes. She's the district attorney. Joe McLaughlin is her ilstant.
ul That isn't Lori Karkut, is it?
'leen Yes. She and partners Tammy Petrowsky and Tracie der run a law firm. Jill Giannone, Cherese Golya, Donna Halko, and ty Sickler also have their own law firm, and are working on various es in other courtrooms. Psychologists Tom Kloss and Jennifer :k are testifying against the N.A.R.C. in the next room.
ul I thought I heard Mettalica. Hey, there is Pat Corby. What is he, tate trooper?
'leen Yes. He's protecting a government informant. So are troop- Kim Heil, Patricia Stull, Bob Coleman, Rob Graham, Tim Lavelle, ve Prislupsky, Bob Steinetz, John Sepelyak, Dave Stinson, and ve Weitz.
ul Some informant! Aren't those stenographers Sue Hawn, Cher- lart, and Anne Korgeski?
'leen Yes. Time to go to our reunion.
ul Huh? Whatever. (closes eyes) rleen snaps fingers)
'leen We are here. Into the future, to our ten year reunion.
ul Great, I get a sneak preview! Everyone is here. Dan Norton, ɔd old Dan.
'leen Dr. Norton found the cure for cancer, you know.
ul I didn't know.
'leen And there's Kevin Conaboy, new owner of Wrigley's gum. sta Knott and Rich Bowen are his accountants, and Paul Salony is top salesman.
ul Hey, there's Joe Rusincovitch. What is he doing?
'leen He's the head of General Electric. Mark Roscioli is his :ountant, Sherry Powell and Regina Zrudlo are his secretaries, and Lisa Getts is his stockbroker.
Paul Wow! (looks to paper) Missy Matsko, Wendi Vancosky, Chris Smith, and Renee Gontarski have art exhibits in Manhattan galleries.
Carleen Here they are now.
Paul Amy Houman wrote a book How to be Heard; so did psychologists Shannon Powell and Lori Lanlewski.
Carleen Their book We Owe Our Lives to Dr. Wilbur is a bestseller.
Paul Is that Kevin Clark?
Carleen Yes, he's a dentist. Melissa Sanders works with him as a dental hygienist.
Paul There's Bobby Champagne.
Carleen He works with Robyn Rowan, Dana Ozark, and Cary Hart at I.B.M.
Paul There's Geri Weltz and Shanna Barry. What have they been up to?
Carleen Geri owns Coppertone, and Shanna is the executive of Mattel toys. Kate Gaughan and Louise Mills are her personal secretaries.
Paul Look, it's Brian Klimas, Jim Gaidula, Chris Rindich, Vince Uher, and someone who looks like Dudley Dooright.
Carleen That's Ron Casey. He's a forest engineer in Yellowstone National Park. Those guys are some of the finest engineers in the country.
Paul There's Joe DeSimonie.
Carleen He's a therapist for the Minnesota Vikings.
Paul Fitting for Mr. Viking.
Carleen Here's Paul Orose. He's running for Congress.
Paul What about Jeff Albrecht?
Carleen He owns a male cosmetic company.
Paul Danny Kapacs?
Carleen He landed his private Stealth at the airport an hour ago. Lisa Nagurney is the plane's stewardess.
Paul So, Danny is still in the Air Force. How about Steve Griffen?
Carleen He's a drill sergeant now. There I am. Do you like my dress?
Paul Where am I? Wait, people are talking about me. My friends . . .
Carleen You have no friends anymore Paul. You aren't even a member of our class anymore.
Paul (sits down, in a stupor) It's not my fault, it's not my fault . . . (puts head onto table.) Meanwhile, Carleen exits. (Paul wakes up in his apartment.) I'm home. What a dream. (sits for a second) It doesn't make a difference, anyhow. (contemplates more) Where is that invitation? . . . How will I get there (goes to paper) Travel agents, travel agents, (stops at a page) Chris Gronski is the Space shuttle pilot? (pauses) Here we are . . . Debbie Timms Travel. I'll have to call her . . . (leafing through the paper) Weather, weather, weather, — ah partly sunny skies. And those library books, where are those library books? Maybe it does make a difference after all. Yeah, Maybe it does . . .
