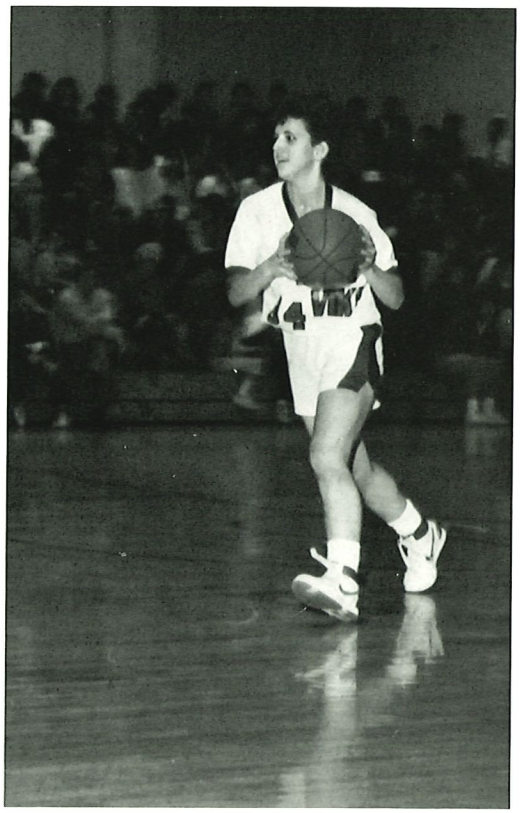
Because of hard work and dedication to each other and the skill of each individual player, the Riverside Lady Vikes went 24-0 to put themselves into the state playoffs. They needed to win the next four games to reach their goal of the state championship game.

There are only three seniors on the team, Mary Lisowski, Jennifer Oustrich, and Lisa Sporer. Joined by Shannon Powell and Missy Evanish to complete the starting five. They were supported by Michele Tippet and Dana Ozark off the bench.

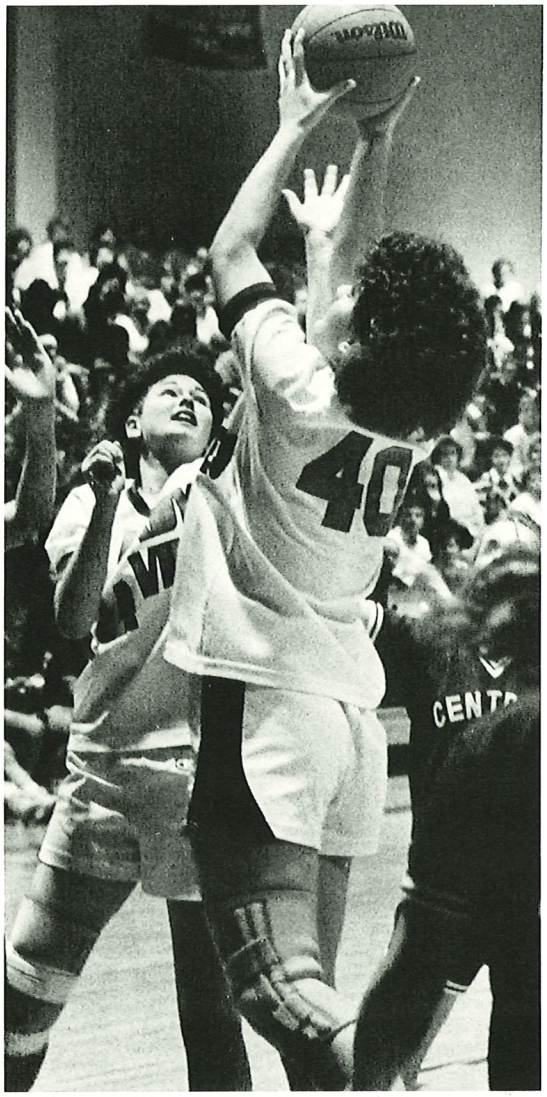
With their record of 24-0 and with the hope of things to come, there is no other way to sum up their year except, "That Championship Season."

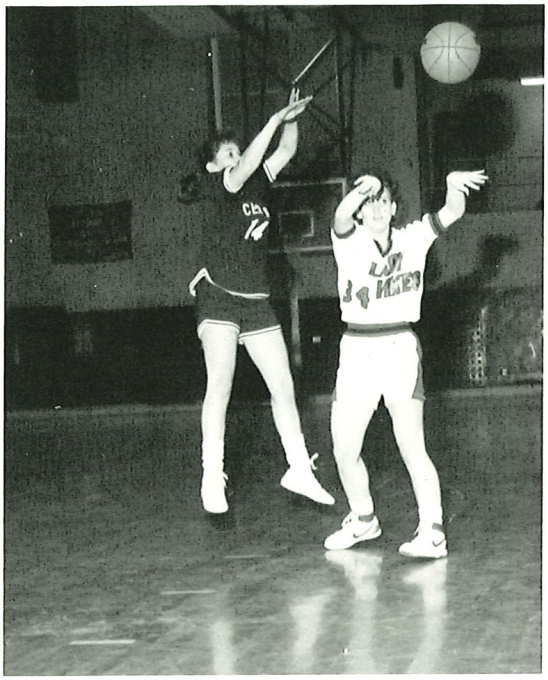


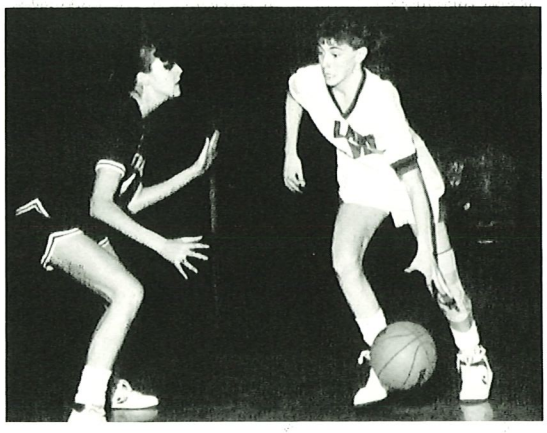
THE ROAD

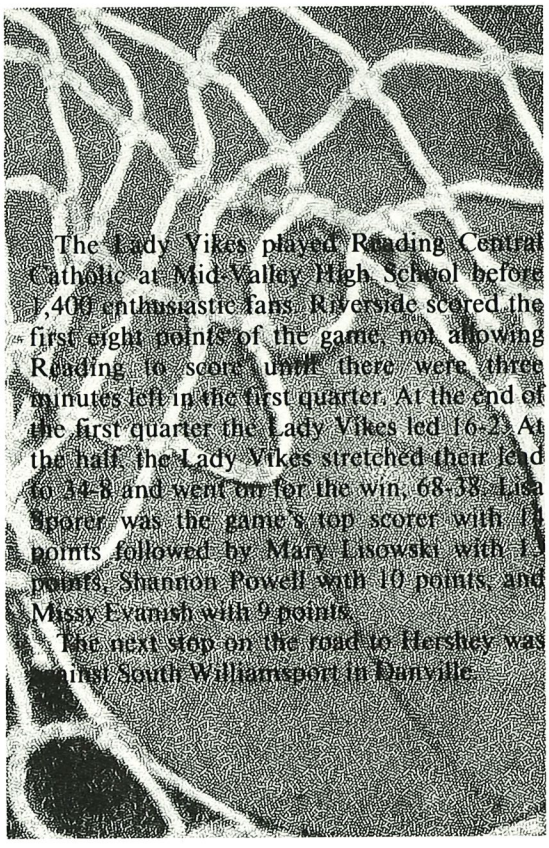
TO HERSHEY

. . . . . READING CENTRAL CATHOLIC





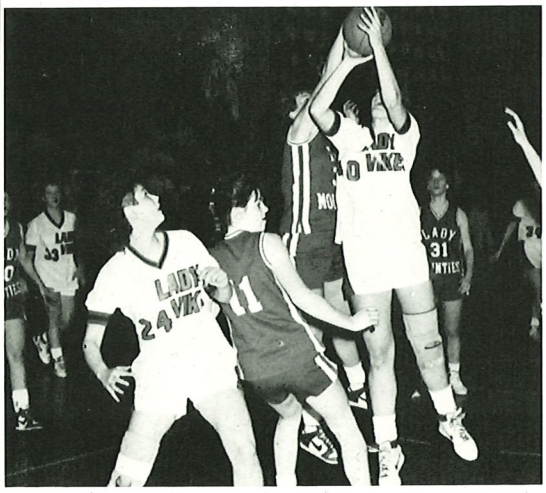




The Lady Vikes played Reading Central Catholic at Mid-Valley High School before 1,400 enthusiastic fans. Riverside scored the first eight points of the game, not allowing Reading to score until there were three minutes left in the first quarter. At the end of the first quarter the Lady Vikes led 16-2. At the half, the Lady Vikes stretched their lead to 34-8 and went on for the win, 68-38. Lisa Sporer was the game's top scorer with 14 points followed by Mary Lisowski with 13 points, Shannon Powell with 10 points, and Missy Evanish with 9 points.

The next stop on the road to Hershey was against South Williamsport in Danville.

SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT . . . . . .



The Lady Mounties from South Williamsport gave the Lady Vikes one tough fight. In the first quarter they were beating Riverside by the largest season deficit they ever trailed by, 17-4. The contest was played at the Fred Diehl School in Danville. At the half the Lady Vikes trailed 19-16. In the fourth quarter with one minute and five seconds left, Shannon Powell stole the ball, gave it to Sporer and with forty-five seconds left she was fouled. The foul shots gave Riverside its first lead 36-35. After a basket by South Williamsport, Sporer was fouled with eleven seconds left, made one foul shot to send the game into overtime with the score tied 37-37.

With the Lady Vikes trailing 43-42, Lisowski then made two free throws to put Riverside up by one. Lisowski later scored two more free throws and with ten seconds left in overtime hit an easy lay up to give the Lady Vikes the victory 47-42.

TRINITY

The name on the sign post was revenge. Last year the Lady Vikes lost in the playoffs 50-39 to a Trinity team that went on to win the State Championship. The game was at Martz Hall in Pottsville before an estimated crowd of more than 2,00 spectators. Lisa Sporer led the team by scoring 2 points, adding 16 rebounds and 8 blocked shot Jennifer Oustrich, playing her best game, scored 1 points. The Lady Vikes led from the start. At th end of the first quarter they led 19-7; at half tim they widened their lead to 16 points, 31-15. Th lead expanded to 18 points at the finish of the thir quarter 44-26. The Lady Vikes held on to this lea to win the game 60-42 to give them the right t play Pine Grove.

PINE GROVE . . . . . .

The Lady Vikes took on the District 11 Champion Pine Grove Cardinals at North Schuykill High School. In their 28th game this season the Lady Vikes found themselves tied 11-11 after the 1st quarter but opened up a margin of 9 by halftime to lead 28-19. Lisa Sporer had 9 of the teams 11 points in the 1st quarter and 15 in the first half. During the third quarter the Lady Vikes led 40-19 and went on to win 58-40 with Mary Lisowski adding 8 points in the 4th quarter. When the win was in sight the crowd of 1,600 chanted, "No school Friday!" They were right; school was canceled, for we would all be heading down the "Road to Hershey."

RIVERSIDE JUNIOR

The road ended here in Hershey, Pennsylvania when the Lady Vikes played Bishop Guilfoyle. The game was played on March 27, 1987, at 2:00 p.m. at the Hershey Arena before a large crowd of 4,500 excited fans. Bishop Guilfoyle, the District 6 champions, led for basically the whole game. In this Nail Biter Lisa Sporer was in foul trouble in this half and sat out for over 5 minutes. Michele Tippet entered the game with practiced poise and did a remarkable jo[b]. The La[dy Vikes] shot three of twenty-one for 14% in th[e first half]. In the fourth quarter Dana O'Ark ca[me] on[to] Shannon Powell and buried a [twenty-t]wo shot with 6:22 left in the [fourth] qua[rter] to tie the Lady Vikes within two [at] 40-38. [Sporer] hit two free throws with 5:41 left to [tie] it at 40-40. With the score tied 44-44 [with] twenty-nine seconds on the clock Lisa Sporer stole the ball, dished it to Missy Evanish, who dribbled up the court, passed to Jennifer Oustrich who then slipped it to a perfectly positioned Lisowski under the basket for an easy lay up, with four seconds left the Riverside Lady Vikes led 46-44. As time ran out, there was sheer pandemonium. The Lady Vikes finished their undefeated season in grand fashion, as State Champions. The road to Hershey ended here with the sweet taste of victory. Upon returning the State Victors received a hero's welcome. Both towns came out in full force to honor the State's finest, the AA State Champion Lady Vikes of Riverside.

THE GAME!

Congratulations LADY VIKES

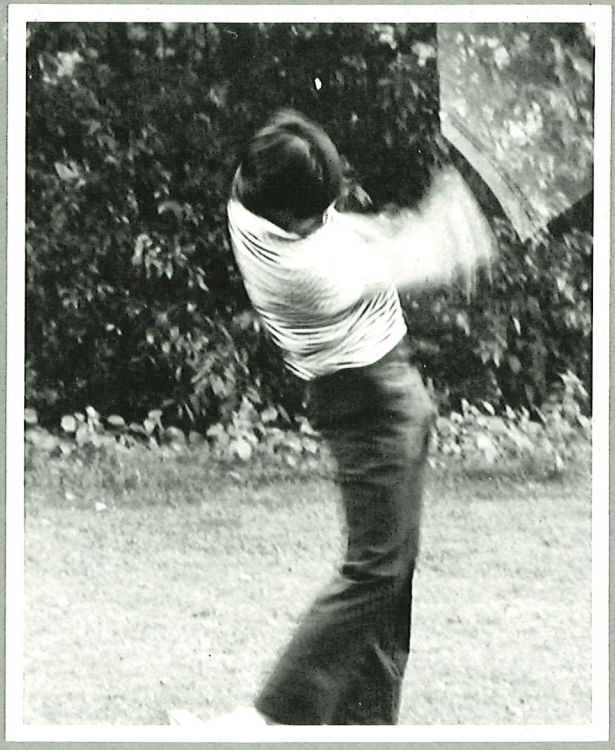
Sports played an integral part in starting the year. The football team fell only one game short of the "Class B" Championship. Their hard work, determination, and sportsmanship served as an example for the entire senior class.

Providing halftime and pep rally entertainment was the Riverside Band and Marching Units. Their shows were unique and their efforts were appreciated.

The Riverside Golf Team had another winning season. Led by captain John Argonish, they ended with a record of 6-2-1.

LL



The second year of the Riverside Girls' Tennis Team included State Competitor Chris Labosky and many other talented athletes.

One of the many highlights of the year was Spirit Week and the selection of Homecoming Queen which was sponsored by the Student Council. This year's lucky recipient was Michelle Yeck. It was a fun time for all who participated.

In back of every good class stands the faculty. They are the fundamental element which a school is based upon. They have taught, advised, and assisted us through our years at Riverside. We would like to thank them for all they have done.

Our golf team had another successful season posting a record of 6-3-1 to finish a competitive third in the league. Serving as co-captains were John Argonish and Mike Quinn. They were both named to the all-star team and have each started at Riverside for the past two years. Other contributing underclassmen were Tim Oustrich, Rick McNally, Mark Mekilo, Greg Reilly and Mark Sigman. Once again our golf team upheld the tradition of finishing among the league leaders.

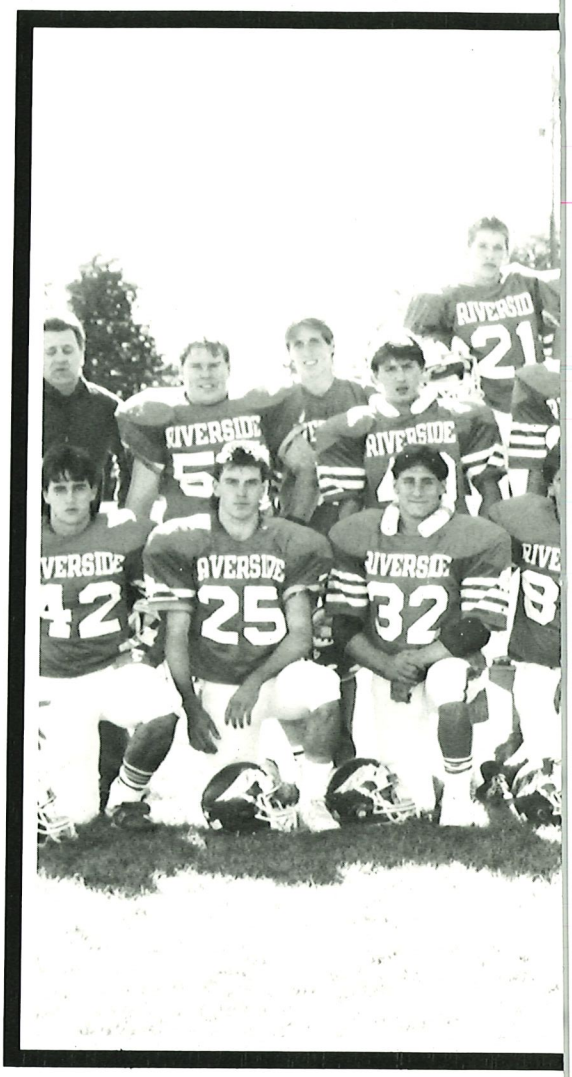
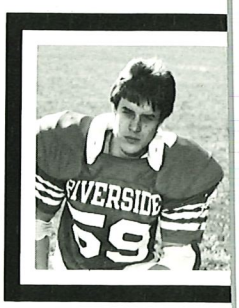
FOOTBALL





The 1986-1987 football team finished with a record of six wins and four losses. Serving as tri-captains were Joe Cikowski, Bill Sochovka, and Bill Nash. Other senior members were Steve Borosky, Danny Capwell, Mark Chimock, Greg Flanagan, Barry Lindemuth, Micky Osmolia, Billy Ozark, Sean Rooney, and Paul Rusincovitch. Several underclassmen played key roles in this year's successful season.

The 1986-87 Girls' Tennis Team had another fine year, only its second year in existence. The coach was Jeanne DeFazio. Senior members were Chris Labosky, Laura Ponkevitch, Kara Calpin, Lisa Lorenzotti, Tanya Popil, and Maria Krawczyk. They were supported by many talented underclassmen.

In District Singles Competition, Chris Labosky made it to the finals before losing. But she gained the right to compete in state competition.

Overall, the Girls' Tennis Team proved to be another successful sport at Riverside.

FACULTY ADMINISTRATION BOARD OF EDUCATION

They were responsible for educating each and every one of us in the Class of '87. Some served as coaches and others served as advisors. Their most important role was as our friends. They were always there to lend us their guidance and support. This diverse group of people — the faculty — influenced our lives more than we will ever realize. We are forever indebted to them for their dedication. We thank them for their patience and understanding throughout our days at Riverside High School.

How does one measure the contribution of dedicated professional staff members upon the occasion of their retirement? By what instruments do we assess the impact of those who spent their early and middle years in service to generations of youth that they might acquire the skills to lead successful, productive, and fulfilled lives?

As Mrs. Kimmel, Mr. Mozeleski, and Mrs. Swetlick embark upon their leisure years, we offer them our gratitude for helping light a path to knowledge. The Class of 1987 extends to them our best wishes for health and happiness in the years that lie ahead.

CLASS HISTORY

Setting: A basketball game in the year 2007. JannaLee is cheering when Eric walks into the game. JannaLee is in Eric's way.
E: Ah get out of my way! I'm trying to watch a basketball game.
J: Why Eric Holweg what are you doing here? I haven't seen you since graduation 20 years ago.
E: Janna . . . JannaLee DeSanto, the shy, quiet girl from high school who was so afraid to give the class history back in 1987, is now big mouth cheerleader?!
J: Well, things have changed, but then again I guess things haven't changed too much. I remember how your promised never to sha until you got a hit. It's been a long time between hits right, Eric?
E: Get a hit? We're still trying to win a second game!
J: So you've come to see the big basketball game. Do you think it will be as great as the Lady Vikes championship game in 1987 whe the girls took the state title?
E: No, nothing could ever surpass that. The team really brought our two towns together.
J: The excitement of the big game was something we'll never forget.
E: That's for sure. And those signs proclaiming Moosic and Taylor the home of the Lady Vikes, still stand to this day!
J: Well our twin towers stood tall against all our opponents.
E: Mary Lisowski and Lisa Sporer. They were real heroes for us that year.
J: And don't forget our unsung hero, Jennifer Oustrich.
E: Oh, I haven't seen her since the last days of high school back in 1987.
J: Just like we haven't heard from Dave Noakes or his '58 Chevy since he pulled out of the parking lot on graduation night.
E: He really burned out of there that night.
J: But he wasn't the only one doing any burning that year. Remember when Tanya Popil came into school red as a lobster from stayi too long under a sun lamp?
E: I thought you were talking about the incident in chem lab when Pam Deininger almost burned the school down.
J: With all the smoke we had to get out of the room and didn't work the rest of the day.
E: Well, that's a lot better than Mr. D'Amico's class; they didn't work all year!
J: But what students missed in D'Amic's class all evened out in Mr. Evan's class.
E: That's for sure, he worked us like . . . SNAVES!
J: Well Ralph Layland didn't work in anyone's class during his senior year!
E: And Mr. MacArt can attest to that fact.
J: Remember how Mr. MacArt chewed him out and then kicked him out of class?
E: I still wonder if Ralph ever made up that test.
J: Speaking of making up, didn't John Gaidula and Maria Malinoski do enough of that during our high school years?
E: After all this time, are they still going together?
J: No, they just broke up last week.
Both: Again!
J: Another famous couple that year was Lou Steffanelli and Lisa Lorenzotti.
E: Oh, you mean Lupe, the Pasta Boy.
J: Will you ever forget the day Tom Derenick drew the picture of Lupe . . . I mean Louie.
E: No, I've never seen Lupe that mad since they shut down his Coca-Cola sweatshirt business in school.
J: And we all knew Tom Derenick's business was art, judging by the colorful wall mural that he and his team put together in Room 20
E: Speaking of teams, our boys' basketball team really had a tremendous season.
J: Topped off by their District II playoff victory against a much taller GAR team.
E: Stick, Ed, Doc, Bill, and Dom, along with our boys' and girls' JV teams and of course, our state champ Lady Vikes helped mak 1987 the year of the Vikings in basketball.
J: Dominic Preston really had all the moves on the court.
E: And his moves off the court, especially with the younger girls, were just as impressive.
J: Still greater moves were the ones he put on while being chased down the hall by an enraged Mr. Hordich, only to be tackled by litt Mr. Joyce.
E: Greg Flanagan made the best open field tackle I ever heard of. In practice one day, he accidentally ran into Mr. Butcher with such force that the coach fell to the ground.
J: Mr. Butcher was so impressed by the hit that he even let Greg start the following week.
E: Nothing could impress me more than the polka performance Squiggy put on the night of the prom.
J: Some of those polka moves were really hair raising, as anyone could tell from Matt Loughney's new hair style that evening.
E: His hair stood tall the rest of the year.
J: It was even cause for his standing ovation at Class Night. He was one guy who really came into style.
E: Speaking of style, remember all the different Madonna styles Michelle Occhipinti put on during high school?
J: Madonna really drew the crowds back then.
E: But not as much as Bon Jovi, when it seemed like everyone in school attended at least one of their concerts.
J: Yeah, it seemed as though there was always an excuse to miss school.
E: What about the time when Mr. Imdorf's "little fitness helpers" all decided to take the afternoon off?
J: But at least they furthered their education.
E: With a field trip to the McDade Coal Mine.
J: They really did some fast talking when Mr. Kryzanowski came down on them.
E: Just like the fast talking Mr. Nee did in Vermont when that lady came down on him for knocking over a whole row of skis.
J: With the words he chose, one would think he taught French instead of English!
E: And we chose Michelle Yeck for Homecoming Queen that year.
J: Later that year, she again proved her royalty when she was selected to the honor of Prom Queen.
E: What about the honor our Vo-Tech students Carrie Burns and Maria Michaylo had when they won state competition i cosmetology?
J: Amy Grill could have really used the help of our cosmetology students after she was smacked in the face with a pie on the finale c Spirit Week.
E: Danny Capwell even got his piece of that pie.
J: What a fitting ending to a crazy week which was accented with Herr Hordich's humor.

'll never forget him trying to teach us with sunglasses and a fake beer belly.
'ake beer belly? . . . He always had his own personal display of school spirit.
How about our spirited little exchange student from Bombay, India, Sameer Shetty?
The school system of India must be quite different than ours.
Their respect of teachers is far greater than what we give ours.
And the students of India are better learners. It only took two weeks to teach Sameer the Riverside way!
By school week 2, Sameer had already learned the definition of a long weekend.
That was one word Mick Osmolia always knew the definition of.
His definition of a long weekend was . . . go to school on Monday . . . then don't return till the following Tuesday.
But Mick really had it tough in the fall when his extended weekends were interrupted by a Saturday afternoon football game.
Joe Cikowski also had it tough while on the football field.
He took some really big hits during his career at Riverside.
That one hit during his sophomore year knocked him back into the Vietnam War.
That wasn't the only head injury he received while playing football.
Maybe that's the reason he was the way he was.
What was Dave Barry's excuse then. He seemed more hyperactive than anyone else.
Maybe it was the tightly wound bandanas he always wore.
We'll never know for sure. I guess it will always remain a mystery!
It seems so mysterious how Greg's new binder he received on Class Night, disappeared not long afterward.
That one didn'T mean as much to him as the original Big Blue.
Another mystery of high school was nicknames.
One I'll never figure out is the Squig. Where did it come from? . . . Better yet, where did he come from???
Remember how he'd run onto the basketball court, get the fans clapping and then do his famous V . . . I . . . K . . . (Squig runs onto ge) They never could bust him for not showing school spirit.
Nobody showed school spirit when the senior class tried selling "Viking On Board" signs.
What a total flop; they should have consulted the school's marketing agent Dave Gnall.
Dave always knew what to sell. He could fill a quota on anything.
It only took him to the middle of senior year before he finally closed down the watch business . . .
Ring business . . .
Calculator business . . .
Car business . . .
Stereo business . . ..
It was Karen Fuller's business for three years to run our class.
It seems funny how someone so carefree could have run such a large class.
Brian Riviello was surely a class act when he made the little girls scream, as he sang Old Time Rock n Roll and Sharp Dressed Man
Mrs. Rowland's talent show.
And Scott Yelverton, Michele Occhipinti, Mark Jennings, and Tami Vullo expressed their talents as they made the play "Guys and olls" a success.
Paula Praschak was a complete success as Miss Viking.
She was truly a natural at twirling, spinning, and waving that sword.
What Paula did with that sword, Lori Angerson did with her gum. It must have taken years of practice to wave that gum around yet )t get it stuck to herself!
I know what you mean.
It also wasn't easy getting into the school library.
: Comrad Prusinski wouldn't let anyone cross the border without full interrogation and a legitimate pass.
Passing was one thing seniors forgot how to do by the end of the year.
: Some even forgot how to cheat well; as Alexis Smerecky and Michelle Kapuschak showed.
Mr. Roberts fooled them when he did a switcheroo with a make up test.
: He got a real kick out of flunking them on that test . . . then again did it really matter, I took the test legitimately and flunked it!
We all got a kick out of trying to figure out whether it was Edmund Kowalski or Edward Kovalski they were calling to the office.
: It was just as difficult to distinguish between the names Beck, Peck and Yeck.
Oh heck . . . that was easy to figure out!
: It did take a little to figure out which McGrail you were talking to.
And to make things more difficult, they were almost never found apart.
: Not unlike Sheryl Buchalski and Andrea Bobersky who were never found apart.
A few times during senior year the absentee list even read Sheryl Bobersky and Andrea Buchalski.
: A very simple mistake by the secretary.
Like the simple mistake made at the Woodlands?
: You mean when there was sugar in place of salt at the tables on the night of the prom.
: Well after the prom, everyone began to realize that our days of being seniors were coming to an end.
: There was only class night, class day, and graduation until we left the halls of Riverside forever.
: Class Night was a huge success as everyone got a ditty; most of the poems were really well done and some were quite witty.
: Jim Heil and his water balloons made a big splash; Greg and his microphone did a good imitation of gas.
: Donald Fredrickson with his hat was something we'll surely miss.
Both: I wonder if the ditty committee always talked like this??
: I can remember the hard times we gave Miss Caswell at graduation practice.
: Her gestures and expressions had us laughing instead of singing.
: Graduation was great but when it was over only the memories of our high school days at Riverside remain.
: Well it looks like another win for the Lady Vikes so it's time for me to go.
: Well, if you ever do get that hit, save the hair. Mr. Voytko's been looking for some for years!
: Was she always that loud in school?

THE END !!!

WIN

When winter arrived, the snowflakes brought about the winter semi. The theme was "The Spirit of Christmas" and it was sponsored by the Units.

The Ski Club provided many trips to Montage and Elk Mountains, but the highlight of the year was the trip to Vermont in February. Everyone who went had a good time.

In winter sports, the Boys' Basketball Team served as a challenge to many opposing teams. The senior players were recognized as being a credit to the team and worked hard throughout the season ending up with the District II title.

The Art Club and A-V Crew were two groups of students who had a special interest in their respective areas. The Art Club sponsored a trip to Baltimore to visit two museums there. The A-V Crew was responsiible for setting up the sound and lighting equipment for all the productions that took place in the school.

The annual Induction Ceremony of the National Honor Society was held in the school auditorium on May 20, 1987.

"Passing of the Sword" semi was held on March 22, 1987, at the Holiday Inn in Wilkes-Barre. The music was provided by Quest and a fun time was had by all in attendance.

The Drama Club once again presented a variety show at Christmas time. "The Gift" included a short drama, dancing, and singing.

Student Council sponsored a variety of activities this year. Among them were Homecoming, Christmas tree decorating, and the most successful blood drive ever.

WINTER FORMAL

The theme of this year's winter formal was " Spirit of Christmas." It was sponsored by the u and was held in the Riverside Cafeteria. Music provided by KRZ.

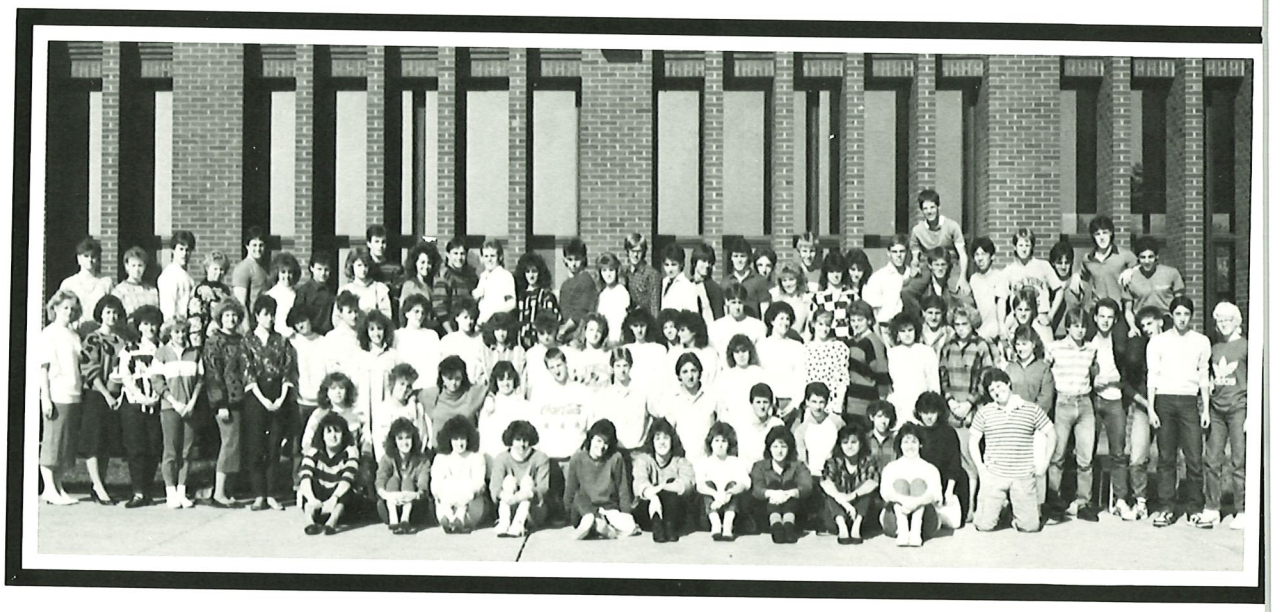
ASTRONOMY CLUB

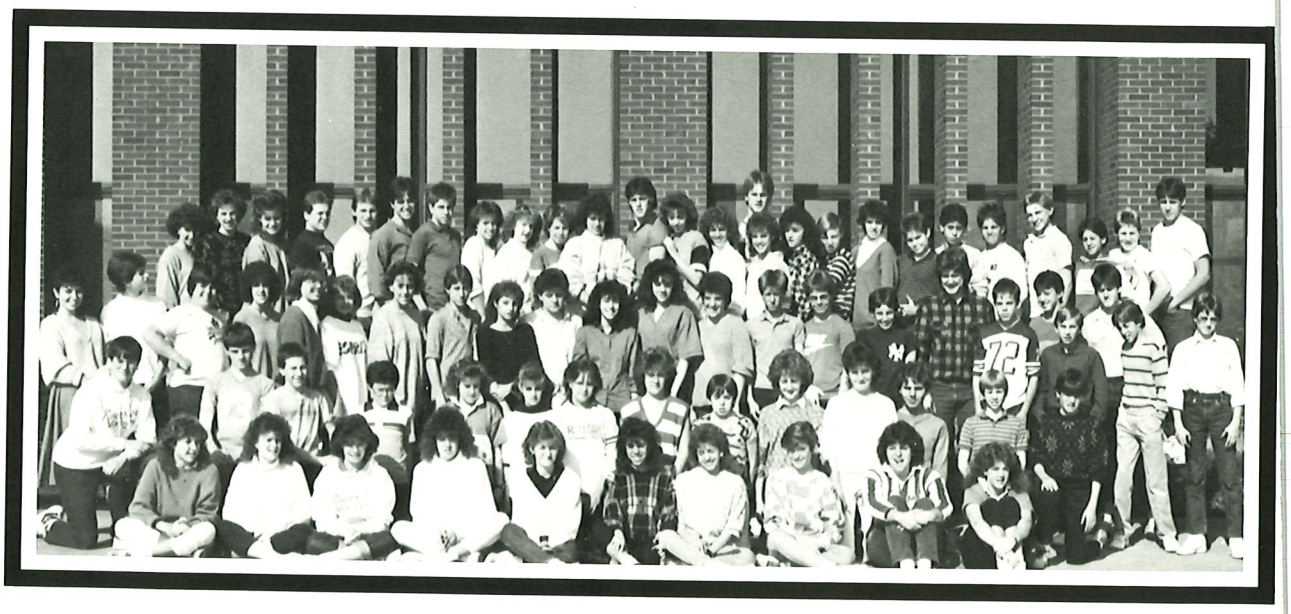
AV CREW

SKI CLUB — VERMONT

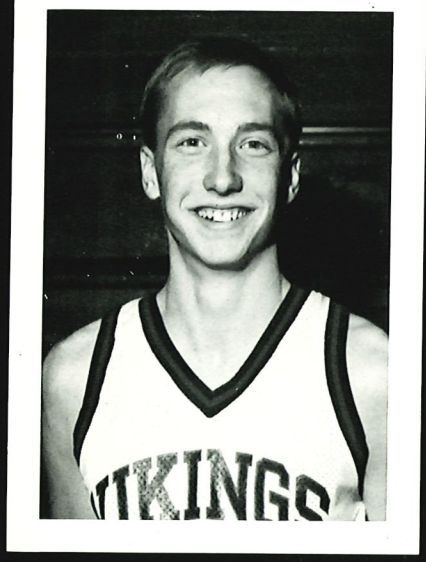
The Ski Club is traditionally one of the most active organizations at Riverside and this year proved no exception. Boasting an enrollment of over 180 members, the combined junior-senior high school club offered several low cost outings to both Montage and Elk Mountain Ski Resorts. The Ski Club offered a safe and economical means for the novice skier to acquire the skills needed to enjoy this healthy and enjoyable winter activity.

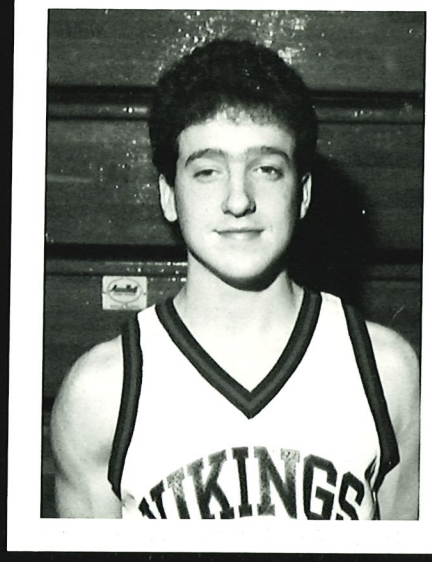
The highlight of the season was the annual weekend trip. The location this year was Sugarbush, Vermont. Everyone enjoyed the challenging slopes, the breathtaking scenery, and the spirit of camaraderie the weekend offered.

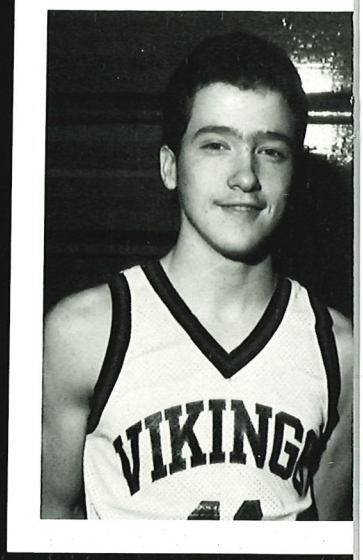




ATOMIC







The Boys' Basketball Team had an unbelievable season. In a first half playoff they beat Valley View and in a five way tie for the second half championship the Vikings defeated Carbondale Area to garner league honors.

The five starters were Dominic Preston, Joe Stevens, Dave Gnall, Billy Nash, and Matt McAllister. Ed Kovalski gave a tremendous effort off the bench as Riverside's sixth man.

The Vikings went on to defeat Meyers in the District Semifinal game. In the District Finals, the Vikings beat a much larger GAR team, in making this the first time in fifteen years, that Riverside won a Boys' PIAA District II AA title. In state competition the Vikings lost to the eventual State Champion team from Colombia.

This year's attitude of never giving up demonstrated the power of perseverance to our other sports teams. This is best summed up by Coach David MacArt. "The coaching staff is very proud of our teams and their achievements. Our accomplishments this year have given our teams to follow lofty goals to strive for."

As the year came to an end Tama Kneiss went on to state level and took third place with Description Manual. Two voting delegates on this level were Kim Yanchowsky and Amy Brown.

THE SWORD

Below, we see two glimpses of seniors enjoying the infamous Senior Hat Day. One includes John Argonish and Dominic Preston along with their favorite teacher, Mr. Hordich. The other shows Shawn Puchalski, Amy Flynn, and Michelle Maikranz, one of the most "together" threesomes. Just underneath are Bob Kilvitis and Tom Derenick waiting to burst through the window. Starting the next two columns, Bill Nash and Sean Rooney smile their wonderful smiles. Next to them are Mary Lisowski and Jennifer Oustrich wearing their red and blue metallic hair. In the middle of the page, Mickey Osmolia, one of Riverside's star football players, seems to be just taking it easy for now. To his right, Chariti Strizalkowski is praying that Chris Labosky won't drop her on the floor. On the bottom is Laura Ponkevitch with her "What is a Phi Psi?" Shirt. To her right are Brian Riviello and Karen Fuller "kissing up" to the cameraman. To their right we have the most bizarre bunch in the school. They are Ed Kovalski, Scott Yelverton, Tanya Popil, and Mike Quinn. To their top right, Joe Cikowski is contemplating something, but no one will ever be too sure what it is. To the left are Bernadine Odzana and Michelle Yeck taking time out from Homecoming hall decorating. Finally, we have Mr. Nee's second period English class. Don't they all look so excited? From left to right, they are Willard Stull, Dave Hughes, Lori Brazen, Michelle Potosky, Bob Jasuta, Marylee Arzie, Alberta Houman, Michael Samsell, Jennifer Oustrich, Dave Morgan, and Kim Coleman.

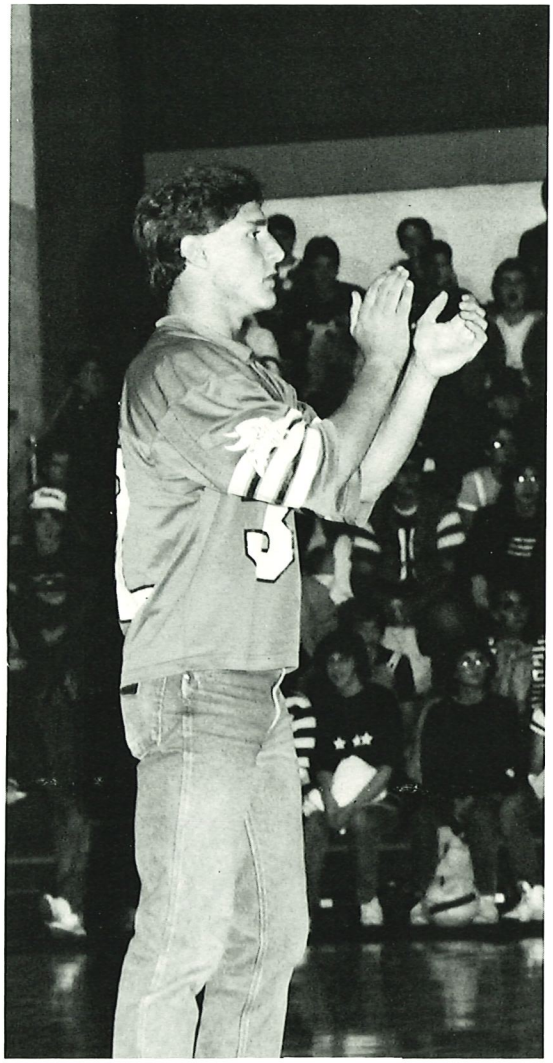
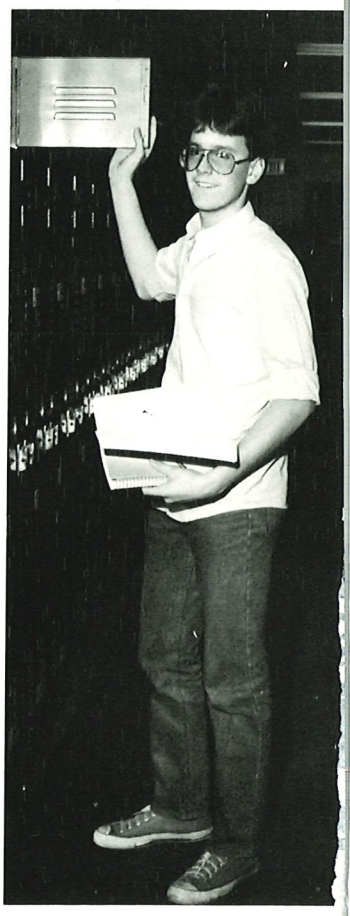
MARIA KA
RIVERSIDE
VIKINGS

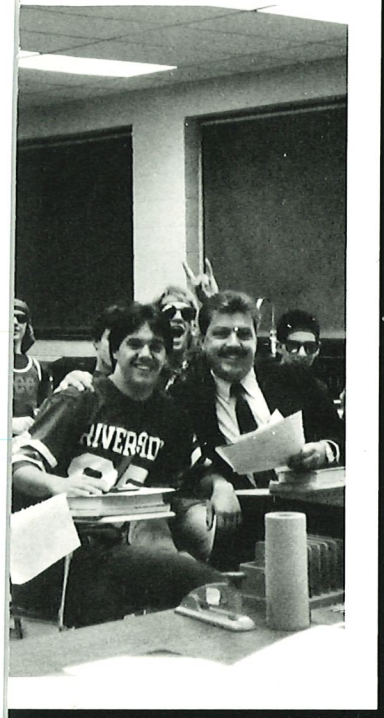


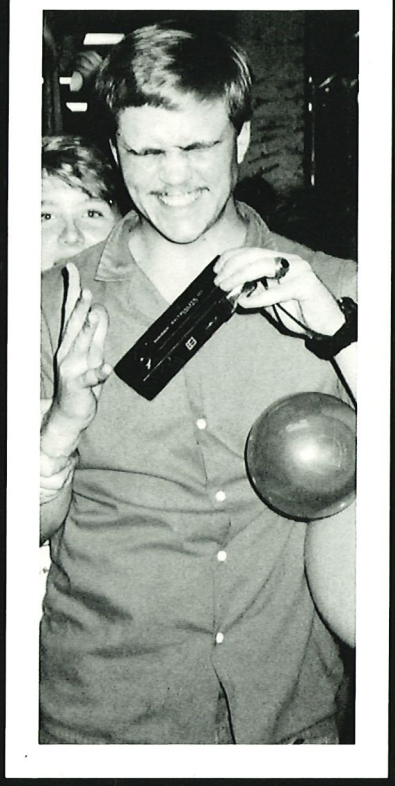
High school has provided many fun, spirited moments. In the Senior Class, there was plenty of reason for cheering and wearing the school colors with pride. To the extreme left, #32, Billy Sochovka, starts to cheer on his fellow football team members and their loyal fans To his top right, Maria Krawczyk is wearing her Lady Vikes softball shirt rooting on the football team. She always seemed a little confused. Below her, the Main Event before the Prep football game is at its height with Mary Lisowski, representing Riverside, and Bob Quinlan, standing in for a Prepster who was too afraid to show up. They battled it out and Riverside came through victoriously.

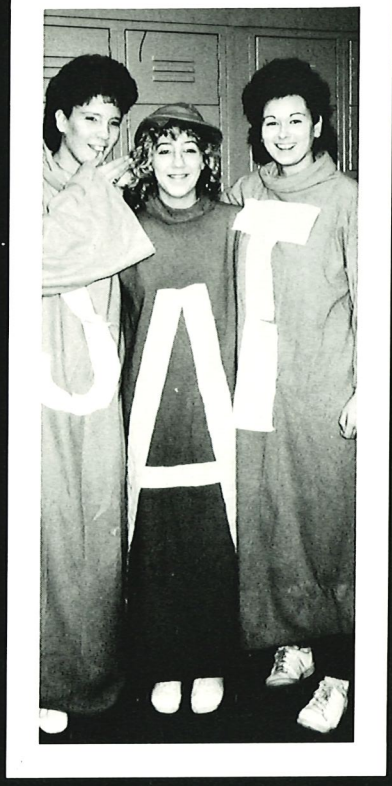
On the top of this page, the Riverside fans are in full swing, screaming and yelling until they can't anymore, They are, from left to right, Mike Talerico, Lynn Gibbons, Carmen Alessi, Louis Stefanelli, Rich Segiel, John Argonish, Bob Edsell, Ed Kovalski, Ralph Layland, Mike Quinn, Eric Holweg, and our one and only Indian exchange student, Sameer Shetty. Below this inspiring group are two pictures of the calmer, everyday school life. To the right are the three guiding hands behind the yearbook. From the left are Cynthia Dopko, Laura Ponkevitch, and Janna Lee DeSanto. Next to them are Mike Quinn and Chris Price trying to understand exactly what physics and Mr. Roberts are all about.

To our right is Paul Rusincovitch pretending he is as great as that paper football player. Next is Mr. Roberts' favorite first period physics class including, from left to right, Susan Gorecki, Paul Rusincovitch, Michelle Yeck, Mark Jennings, Hollie Hunter, Steve Klimas, Karen Bohenek, Tom Lyckowski, Bill Nash, John Argonish, Mr. Roberts, and Carmen Alessi. Don't you wish we could always be that happy? To their right, Mark Jennings wishes Chris Labosky would leave him alone so he could take his picture in peace. In our next picture, Mary Lisowksi, Michelle Maikranz, and Jennifer Oustrich show that their favorite holiday is Halloween by dressing up as Simon, Alvin, and Theodore, The Chipmunks. Below, the members of Mr. Nee's fourth period English class stand around waiting for Mr. Nee. It includes George Bombar, D'Ane Santos, and Lisa Lees. Below them, there stands Kelly Phillips, Jude Gaughan, and Debbie Getts. Don't they look so happy? It's because they just got finished eating a wonderful cafeteria lunch. To their right are two interesting people. Bob Quinlan looks ecstatic to be at his locker while Lisa Nykaza seems to wish that the picture taking was over. To her upper left, Karen Ozack, Kara Calpin, and Tanya Popil are all decked out in their hats and sunglasses for Senior Hat Day. And last, but certainly not least, there sits Gary Lopatka and Ken Turner putting our wonderful library to good use.









The Homecoming Pep Rally proved to be exciting, funny, and embarrassing for some. Throughout the week, people added money to coffee cans assigned to each senior football player and cheerleader. The two people whose cans received the most money would get a pie in their face. The lucky or unlucky winners (depending on how you look at it) were Amy Grill and Dan Capwell. Both looked lovely with all that delicious whipped cream pie in their face and hair.

On the next page are two more spirited Vikings. They are Sean Rooney, the famous football player and Marilyn MacDonald, a.k.a. Juana. Below is probably the best known table in the cafeteria, the cheerleaders' table. They are, from left to right, Michelle Kapuschak, Tami Vullo, Sue Gorecki, Alexis Smerecky, Julie Secor, Michelle Occhipinti, and Amy Grill.

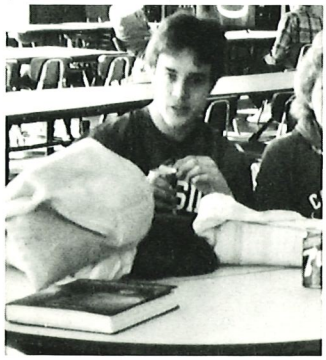
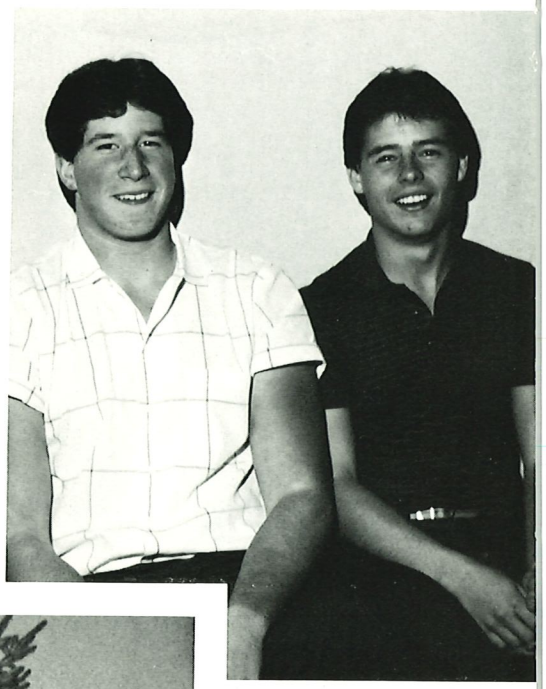
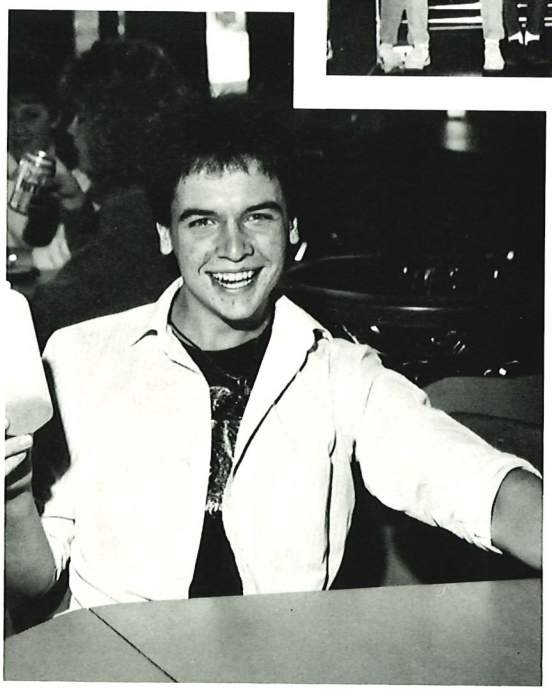
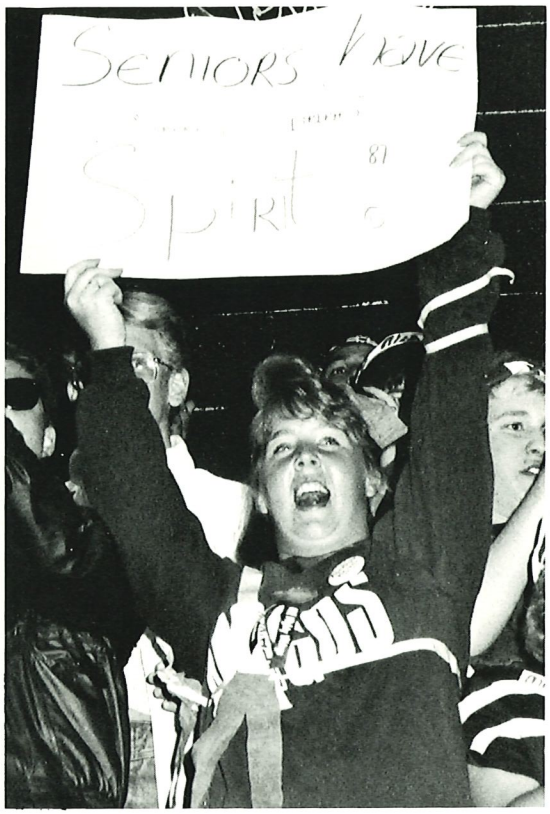
In the far upper left corner, attempting to leave Mr. Nee's class is Ed Martz. To the right of Ed are members of Mrs. Ermolovich's Spanish class appropriately attired. From left to right are Lisa Lorenzotti, Chris Labosky, Marilyn MacDonald, Karen Fuller, Sheryl Buchalski, Kara Calpin, Greg Flanagan, Andrea Bobersky, Ralph Layland, Brian Riviello, and Laura Ponkevitch. Beneath the Spanish crew sits the colorful Joe Stevens and Andrea Bobersky showing their school spirit on Senior Hat Day. In the lower left corner stands Dawn Beck wasting time. In the next picture, Shawn Zigmont, Stephen Brosky, and Mark Morss find time to relax.

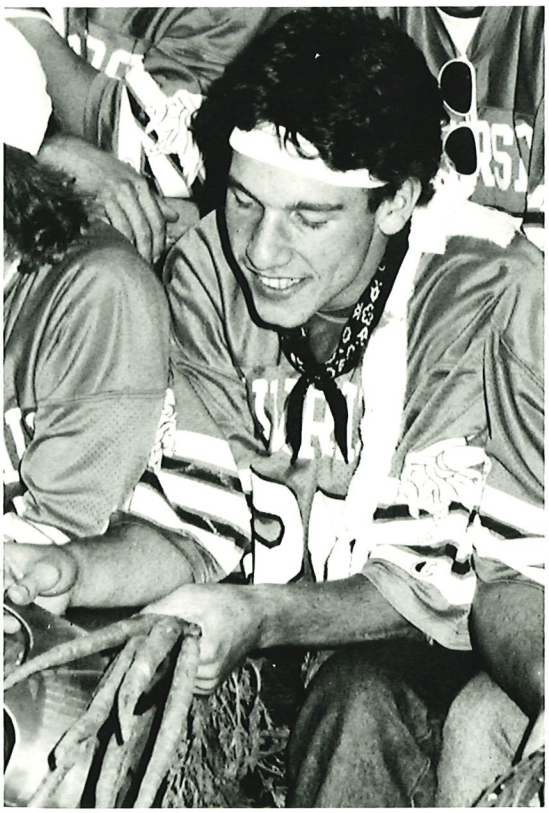
In the upper left picture Chris Labosky, Don Frederickson, Tami Vullo, and Mary Lisowski pose in front of a hall decoration during Spirit Week. Beneath them and left all alone in the cafe are Mark Chimock and Kristin Conte. On their right, Randy Petrucci sits lazily in Mr. Nee's homeroom. In the lower left Tanya Popil, Tracee Henning, and Michelle Maikranz block the entrance to senior hall during decorating. In the lower right Rich Segiel and Lisa Lupinski are taking a soda break.











Waiting around after lunch are John Mochan, Rich Lewis, and Bob Kilvitis. In the background are Mike Talerico, Sherri Peck, and Kelly Phillips watching every step. Next to them are Stephen Brosky and Dominic Preston relaxing and enjoying a laugh after lunch. The center picture shows the tree-cutting crew. It was a tough job but they handled it well. Sitting from left to right are Brian Riviello, John Argonish, Carmen Alessi, Greg Flanagan, Barry Lindemuth, Mick Osmolia, and Billy Sochovka. In the lower left hand corner is Tom Lyckowski expressing his joy to be in the cafe. Next to him is Lori Kuzmich waiting patiently for her picture to be taken.

The pep rallies expressed a great deal of spirit. Showing her senior spirit with a sign is Chris Labosky. Homecoming was a time to remember for many seniors. A tradition at the homecoming pep rally was choosing a homecoming king. This year, Billy Ozark was chosen. His disbelief is shown in the picture to the left.

In the lower left hand corner is our principal, Mr. Rusincovitch, and his wife, Mrs. Rusincovitch. To the right are Stephen Brosky and Tanya Skurka. Below them are Jackie Lewis and Lori Kuzmich "hanging out" in the lav. In the picture beneath them are Pam Deininger and Lynn Gibbons wearing hats and sunglasses expressing their spirit. Expressing more school spirit are Michelle Maikranz, Jennifer Oustrich, Julie Secor, Mike Quinn, Mary Lisowski, Lisa Sporer, and Karen Fuller in the picture next to Lynn and Pam. Above them is a group of happy people including Mike Quinn, Marilyn MacDonald, Dave Paglianite, LeiAnne Kapelanovich, Lisa Sporer, and Tanya Popil. To the right of them are Shawn Puchalski and Karen Fuller, two members of the hall decorating committee. Below them is the great couple of Lisa Lorenzotti and Louis Stefanelli. Beneath them are John Gaidula, Debbie Getts, Michelle Maikranz, and Tanya Skurka showing their school spirit. Taking a break from trig, Jackie Gursky poses for a picture. Last, but not least is a happy trio consisting of Cynthia Dopko, Marilyn MacDonald, and Chariti Strizalkowski.

UKS "R"
the PAPER
heyRE written ON!

Starting at the left is our fabulous football team graced by the presence of the spirited Senior Class, the freshman team, and a large reincarnation of Spud, Riverside's old paper and tape pasttime. On the bottom is one of the many signs created by the cheerleaders and placed in the halls. It truly sums up the way everyone at Riverside felt about our sports teams and about student life in general. Between them are Linda Dolman and Ann Marie Kobilinski mugging for the camera after lunch. Next, the graphic arts room sets the scene. Karen Graham and Lisa Consenza sit on the steps in hope that Mr. Judge will let them stay there for the rest of the class. Under them are Greg Flanagan, John Argonish, and Billy Sochovka selling the Senior Class flop fund-raiser. Those great inventions called "On-Board Signs" should have created a success, but it was not to be. And last, but certainly not least, are Jennifer Oustrich, Lisa Lupinski, and Erin Powell. Hope that they and all of us stay friends in the many years to come!

DRAMA CLUB

On December 18, the Drama Club put on a Christmas play entitled, "The Gift." A variety show featuring singers and dancers followed the play. The production coincided with a food drive sponsored by the Drama Club titled "Give a Gift." A few weeks before the show, collection boxes were placed in the high school, and donations of any non-perishable food items were urged. The food was presented to St. Paul's Food Pantry and then distributed to the area's needy. Both the food drive and the play were a great success.

HONOR SOCIETY

The annual induction ceremony of the National Honor Society took place on May 20, 1987. It was followed by a reception in the cafeteria in honor of the new members.

Speeches that explained the requirements of Honor Society were given by various members. They included History, Ralph Layland; Character, Lisa Nykaza; Scholarship, Cynthia Dopko; Leadership, Laura Ponkevitch; and Service, Lisa Lorenzotti. This year's guest speaker was the first president of Riverside's Chapter, Josephene Kwiatkoski. Advisor Ms. Donna Lisowski turned the reigns over to next year's advisor Mrs. Ann Marie Ermolovich. Each inductee stated their pledge to uphold all the standards of the society. The event ended with closing remarks by Chariti Strizalkowski.

CLASS PROPHECY

K — Well, it's been a long time since I've been in Putt-n-Snack.
S — The last time I was here was with you, you were working behind the grill.
K — Jackie Gursky sure keeps this place intact now that she became owner and Ernie Deininger is head cook.
S — View hasn't changed much. Look! There's Dave Noakes campaigning for Mayor, right in front of Lisa Lorenzotti's pharmacy.
K — That reminds me. Last night at the reunion Bob Kilvitis, Dave's campaign manager, asked me to be at the rally this afternoon.
S — I was really surprised at all of the people missing from the reunion, but I guess they all had good reasons.
K — President Fuller was supposed to attend the reunion with her body guards Stephen Brosky and Ed Martz, but she had to m with Indian Ambassador Sameer Shetty at the White House.
S — Well, at least Vice-President Greg Flanagan showed up in good humor as usual with Tanya Skurka, his personal secretary.
K — Also, Caroline Hurrey, our first female Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, was there with National Budget Directors, Cynt Dopko and Keith Cunard.
S — Aren't they the dynamic duo that finally balanced our national budget last year?
K — Yes, they did. I'm glad they were there. Unfortunately, Michelle Occhipinti, Mark Jennings, and Mike Talerico couldn't get the set of their soap opera "The Dramatists", to make it in time for the reunion.
S — I didn't expect Michelle Yeck to be there either, since she's crowned Miss America and doing a lot of traveling.
K — By the way, did I tell you I was talking to Chris Price after his comedy routine at Jimmy Heil's, "Heil's Palace" in Atlantic City.
S — No, last night Chris didn't even tell me he was a stand-up comic. He did tell me that Joe Labrosky was a card dealer there and th
Walter Arens has a jewelry shop farther down the boardwalk.
K — I still don't believe Matt Loughney is an emcee there and that Paula Praschak, Julie Secor, Tami Vullo, and Michelle Kapusch are dancers there, too. That must be one great casino to vacation at.
S — Speaking of vacations, I hear John Argonish, Dave Paglianite, Rich Segiel and Randy Petrucci are ski instructors at Vail.
K — I was talking to Rich last night, and he said he's going into the 2000 Olympics as a down hiller.
S — He's not the only one; Joe Cikowski told me he's training Billy Sochovka in a track event and Maria Krawczyk in the triathal for the Olympics, too.
K — Well, our class sure turned out a lot of athletes. Ed Kovalski was the "1996 Iron Man", and Dom Preston was signed by t
Boston Celtics.
S — Remember our Girls' State Champion Basketball players?
K — Of course, how could I forget!
S — Well, Mary Lisowski gave me two tickets to see her, Lisa Sporer, and Jennifer Oustrich play for the Harlem Globetrotters at t
CYC before we have to go back to the Buchalski-Wandalowski Hospital and Foundation of Cancer Research and all that ha work.
K — The Foundation is pretty empty this week since our leading researchers Lisa Nykaza, Lynn Gibbons, and Barbara Strohl too time to attend the reunion.
S — I know Tom Lyckowski, the head of our financial department, had the business end of it taken care of before he left. I'm sure E ecutives, Ann Marie Kobilinski and Stacey Salerno talked to our lawyers Don Frederickson and Dave Gnall about that grant fro Lori Angerson's bubble gum factory at the reunion.
K — Well, that's enough about business for now. Did you see Laura Ponkevitch and Marilyn MacDonald last night?
S — Yes, Laura really changed from the valedictorian we knew. I don't believe she became an agent for Bruce Springsteen.
K — Marilyn's just as I remember her, that avid Billy Idol fan; now she's his public relations manager.
S — I hear Marilyn has also contacted her old friend Kara Calpin, who now lives in New York, to design Billy's fashions.
K — Isn't her company named Calpin Klein?
S — Yes, I saw one of her catalogues last night and it features Kelly Phillips and Chariti Strizalkowski as her top models with Theres
Chapman as her seamstress. I understand she wanted Mark Morss in this issue, but he was too busy being photographed fo
JCPenney's fall catalogue.
K — Shawn Puchalski and Tom Derenick also made it big in NY. She has her own magazine and he's the art director. You probabl heard of it. It's called "Fame and Fortune". Just this past week Brian Riviello was on the cover.
S — Of course, I heard of it. We passed it around the nurses' station last week. Andrea Bobersky, Pam Deininger and Michel Maikranz boasted to the other nurses that they knew him personally.
K — Tell me, what did you do after the reunion last night?
S — I talked to George Bombar. He said he's been busy making silent movies with Linda Masters. What did you do?
K — I stayed up to watch TV. "Late Night with Joanne Thomas" was on. She was interviewing Steve Adel who wants to be the ne
"Eddie Van Halen" on electric guitar. Her show seems to be a hit.
S — Did you see today's Philadelphia Inquirer? You'll never guess who was on the headlines. Karen Ozack wrote a feature article abo Eric Holweg.
K — No, why, what happened?
S — Apparently, his position in the Navy had him sent on a secret mission by CIA agent Steve Klimas, to some foreign country whe he saved the lives of Peace Corps members: Jim Zrudlo, Jude Gaughan, Mark Chimock, and Carolyn Burns. He returned them the safety of Admiral David Bradshaw's aircraft carrier in the Mediterranean.
K — Wait, let me see that. Look right below that article. Isn't that Edmund Kowalski's picture taken by photographer Tom Battle?
didn't know Ed was running for the Senate.
S — Yes, the other day I saw a political satire by Bob Edsell. It depicted Ed's stand on women in politics. It showed Ed and Speaker the House Erin Powell in a congressional session.
K — Remember how you were saying you wanted a hair cut? Well, here's an advertisement for "Maria Michaylo and Pattie Mikel Beauty Salon". It's only a few blocks from our hospital.
S — I had a hair appointment the other day but my car was getting a tune-up at Donny Siekierka's garage and I didn't want to walk, s
I scheduled another appointment.
K — Isn't Donny in business with Dave Tisdel?
S — No, Dave has his own garage next to John Gaidula's, Steve Jones, and Scott Stelmak's computer firm on 87th street.
K — The last time I was on 87th Street I was held up in traffic by all the construction of Joe Steven's Hotel and Restaurant.
S — That was because a truck from Ed Tanski's Construction Company was stuck in the middle of the road until his diesel mechan John Mochan came to fix it.
K — If Military Policeman Mike Ambrose didn't get out of his car and direct traffic, I would have been there forever. While waiting, listened to WRHS. Bob Quinlan and Tracee Henning wre on the air that day. They're great D.J.s.
S — If you thought that wait was bad, there was a fire on Riverside Street, and they had to call on fireman Carmen Alessi an paramedic Paul Rusincovitch. I thought I'd never get out of that chaos . . . I don't believe it! Look at that billboard by Montag Manor. Isn't that Scott Yelverton? . . . He's promoting Tropical Blend sun tanning oil.
K — And look underneath, isn't that Lou Stefanelli; I don't believe he's doing Polo ads!!
S — I didn't notice those before.
K —I wish we didn't have to go back to work so soon after seeing many of our old friends from high school.
S — Me neither, but enough of them work at our hospital. I just found out last night that Linda Doman and Lori Yackobowitz we hired last month as a medical technician and a medical assistant.

K — That's great! I hear they're tops in their field. So, what's Danny Capwell been doing? I didn't get a chance to talk to him last night.
— He told me he's living in San Diego and working as a Marine Biologist at Sea World along with Hollie Hunter who's running the dolphin show. In fact, John Mayak is running a bus trip out to Sea World.
K — Why, is he a bus driver?
— No, he owns John-John's Travels.
K — That reminds me, I don't believe Billy Nash works part time as Mickey Mouse at Disney Land when he's not playing for the Dallas Cowboys.
— I wonder what his teammates Mickey Osmolia and Billy Ozark do in the off-season.
K — What did they do during the season?
— A 0-16 record isn't that bad, unlike our great High School team, the Vikings.
K — Maybe the Cowboys didn't do so well but at least the Dallas Cowgirls did. How couldn't they with Alexis Smerecky as their captain? Isn't it ironic that she's a cheerleader?
— If you think that's ironic, what about Karen Bohenek and Tanya Popil owning the world largest nationally televised Bingo with Karen Graham and Liza Consenza sharing air time as callers. Don't you remember how much they hated Bingo during High School?
K — Yes, I remember but some things haven't changed. You still look the same.
— Well, every morning I participate in Maria Malinowski's aerobic class at Dave Hughes' gym. It's the largest in Philly.
K — Not everyone wanted to own their own business. Take Lori Kuzmich, for example. She didn't want to settle with one job. The unemployment office got so used to seeing her, they hired her as a receptionist. On her first day she got John Evans a job at the Moosic Youth Center, and a few years ago he was put in charge.
— Didn't John expand the Youth Center so much they had the room to open a Recruiting Station headed by Brian Kobesky, Debbie Derhammer, and Debbie Walsh.
K — Yes, they did, hey, before lunch is served why don't you hand me the sports section of the paper.
— Sure, here it is.
K — I just wanted to see the results of the Wimbledon match between Chris Labosky and her opponent from Austria.
— I'm sure she won!
K — Here it is; yes, she did win. She only dropped one set.
— While you're checking the scores, see if the Pittsburgh Penguins won their game last night.
K — Wait a second; let me find it . . . Scores . . . here they are: Glenn Jerowski scored a desperation goal in overtime to defeat the Philadelphia Flyers. But, on the play he suffered a broken leg and they had to call physican Kristin Conte, who specializes in sports medicine, to treat him.
— Glenn always gave his best to make the play. John Evangelista also had to give his best when he won the US Open. Here's something interesting. Bill Gould and Rob Jasuta engineered a new type of landfill where all the garbage is converted to useful products such as energy or fuel. They're set to start building a plant in North Dakota this fall; along with it a new development will be built which will use the plant's power supply.
K — I knew that. Last night at the reunion Amy Brown was selling real estate. Kurt Chludzinski and his wife bought land along with Amy Flynn, Chris Belles, Lisa Lees, Barbara Matthews, and their husbands.
— That development sure will improve the economy in that area with all the businesses being built just like Alby's Alleys run by Alberta Houman. She's in partnership with Sherri Fadden who also gives bowling instructions. I'm sure it will keep Ralph Layland, Janna Lee DeSanto and Mike Quinn busy at their new Medical Clinic since the population is expected to double.
K — I heard Sherri Peck is already making plans to move her used and abused car business with Dave Morgan's line of windowless cars to that part of the country.
— My accountant, Sean Rooney, advised me to invest in the new mall which is in the process of being built only miles away from the downtown area.
K — Well, my accountant, Dawn Beck, told me to invest in the businesses not the mall itself.
— Well, what businesses are opening?
K — Amy Grill's opening a shop called "Wigs by Grill", she patterned them all after her models Kim Coleman and Jackie Lewis.
— I hope her business does well.
K — I'm sure it will. Angelo Godino is opening an art institute featuring graphic artwork by Chris Iacovazzi and the archeaological finds by Rich Lewis, too.
— Well, right down the street from the mall Fred Bratchie is oepning another "Pepperonni Bratchie's Pizza Pies" franchise. I hear Bernadine Odzana is his new manager. The only problem with its location is that it's right next to Sue Gorecki's Nutrition Center.
K — Quite a contrast for people who are trying to keep fit.
— I wasn't supposed to say anything but you'd find out anyway. The Lori Brazen Corporation is hiring Shawn Zigmont to design an arena in that area which is dedicated to their top business administrator, Brenda Homschek. Paula Balendy, Lisa Landmesser, and Sue Glogowski are already planning to open another tye-dyed tee-shirt shop, specializing in the Grateful Dead and other concert shirts.
K — They are also printing up tee-shirts commerating Willard Hughes and Kenny Turner's accomplishment of being the first civilians in space.
— My stomach is growling. When's our lunch going to be here? About now I could go for a Wickizer Double Krunch Bar.
K — In grade school Mark used to hand out candy bars, now his company makes them.
— I think they're delicious, but I'd buy them anyway just to see Tom and Joe McGrail on the wrapper as the Double Krunch Boys.
— Kenny, I think we should take a ride up to our old High School after lunch and see it one more time before we go back to Philadelphia.
K — Sounds like a good idea to me. While we're there we can surprise some of our old friends. I'd like to see the new principal, Rich Weinstock and the drivers' ed teacher, Paul Dorunda. But first remind me to stop at Barry Lindemuth's Novelty Shop and pick up some gimmicks for our union party.
— Okay, I'll stop in to see Amy DelVecchio if she doesn't have a class.
K — You know there's been a lot of changes since we've been in school. The faculty never had a day care center like the one Kim Potosky runs for them now. Don't forget the mural they just painted of Dave Barry and Mike Samsell climbing the Alps in the summer of '95. It was designed by D'Ane Santos, the commercial artist.
— Don't they still have the mural of the Vikings next to the office?
K — Of course they do; they painted the other mural down from Nurse Marylee Arzie's office.
— I think they should have painted it in the library. I'm sure librarians Lisa Lupinski and LeiAnne Kapelanovich would have approved.
K — Instead of eating here we should have asked Lisa Radle, Sharon Davis, and Debbie Getts to cook up some Viking Burgers in the caf.
— That would have been a good idea, but look, here comes our lunch.
K — S Thank goodness — I'm starved!!

The Baseball Team did not have a spectacular season, but they provided an example of true sportsmanship for all.

The Softball Team was comprised of many seniors and finished their season in second place.

The Boys' Track Team included several individual school record-breakers. The Girls' Track Team ended their season by sending two members to state competition.

The Boys' Tennis Team provided fun and enjoyment for its second year of existence.

The Yearbook Staff once again did a tremendous job in producing the schools annual publication. Their fund raisers included a jersey sale, a dance, and the always exciting double-header basketball game.

SPR

The annual All Honors Banquet was held on May 7, 1987, in the cafeteria and auditorium. Many awards were given for athletic and scholastic achievements.

The spring play this year was "Guys and Dolls." It turned out to be a great success.

"Forever" was the theme of this year's Junior-Senior Prom. Music was provided by "The Poets" and it was held at the Woodlands in Wilkes-Barre.

Class Night, Class Day, and Graduation marked the last three times the Class of 1987 would be together. These events marked the very end of our high school years. It was now time to say good-bye to RHS.

SAMEER

The Class of 1987 had the great pleasure of sharing their senior year with an exchange student from Bombay, India.

Sameer S. Shetty came to America in order to learn about American life, its traditions, and customs. It took a little while, but Sameer eventually adjusted to the differences in our societies. While here, he made many new and lasting friendships. He resided with the Gronski family in Moosic. However, before anyone realized it, Sameer had to leave, even before our graduation. We will all miss his friendly smile and warm heart.

CLASS

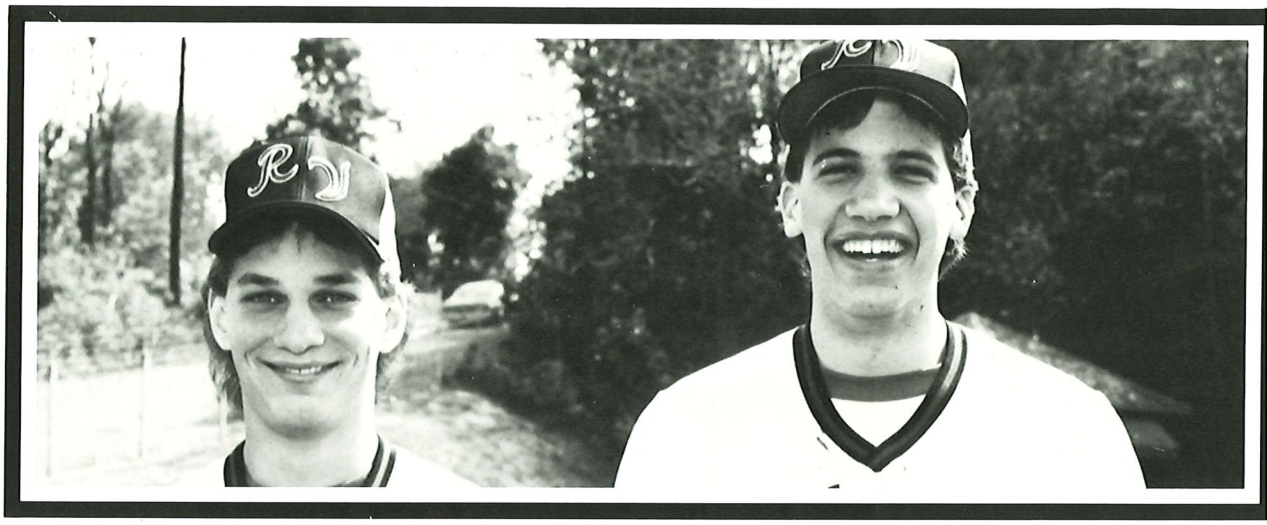
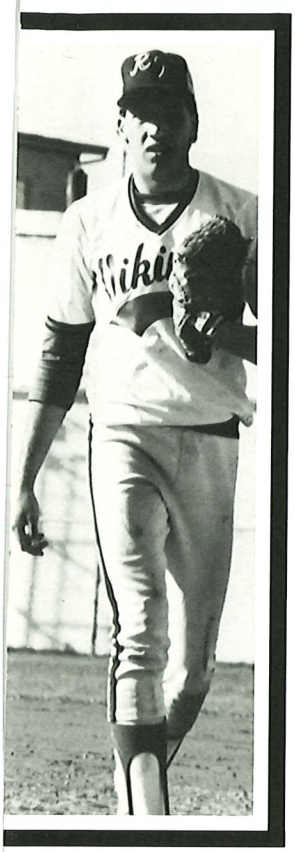
BASEBALL '87

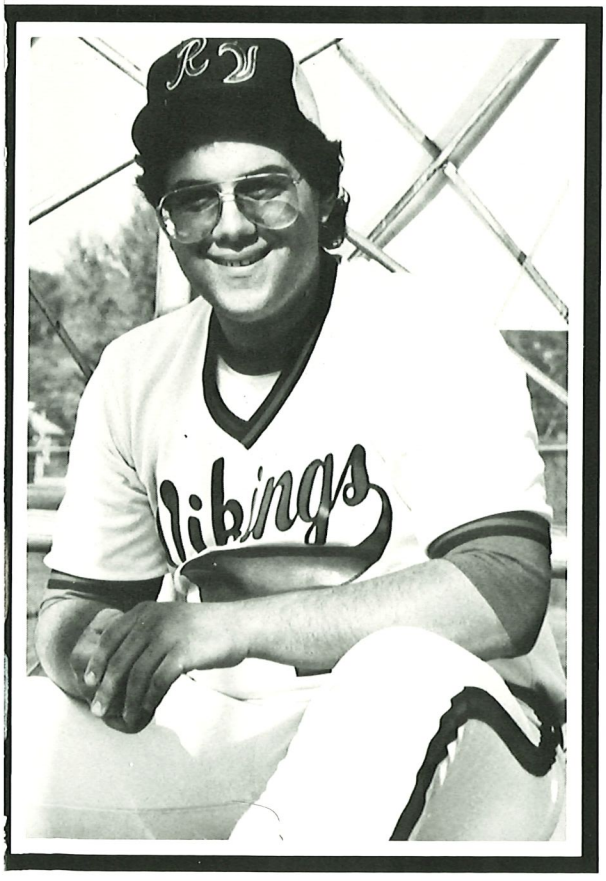


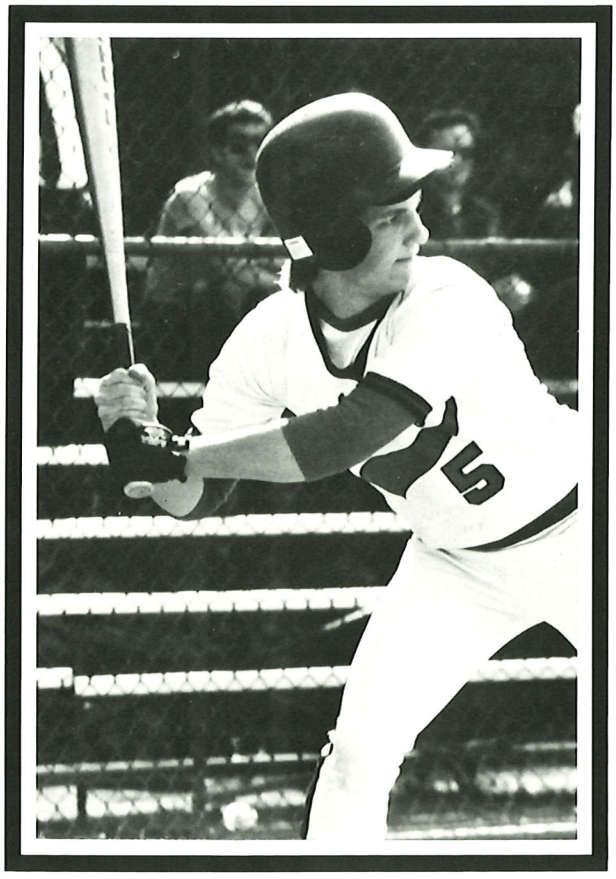
Although it was rough going for our '87 Vikings, who finished the season with a record of 1 and 9, their spirit was never down when it came time for their next challenge.

There were only five seniors on the team, Joe McGrail and Tom McGrail, Gary Lopatka, Lou Stefanelli and Eric Holweg.

Although they did not defeat every team they played, the hard work and dedication they showed proved them the winners they set out to be.





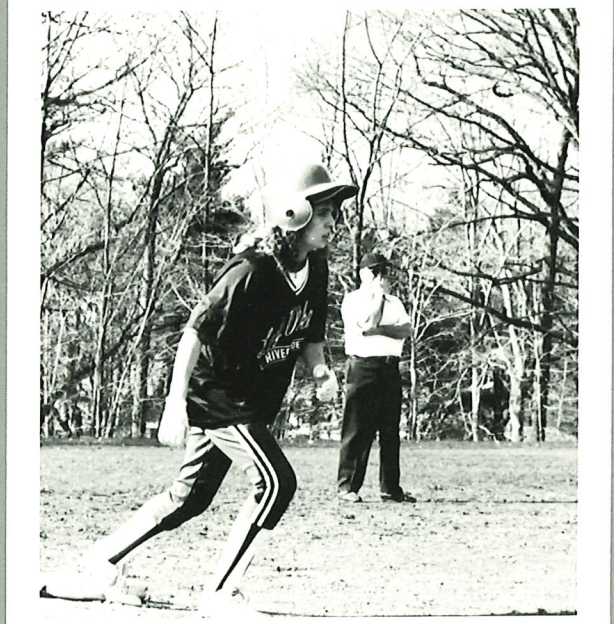


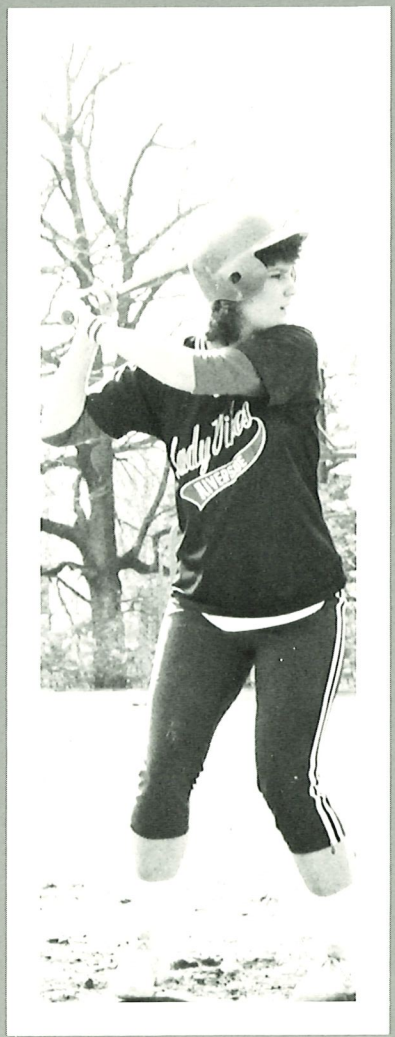
SOFTBALL

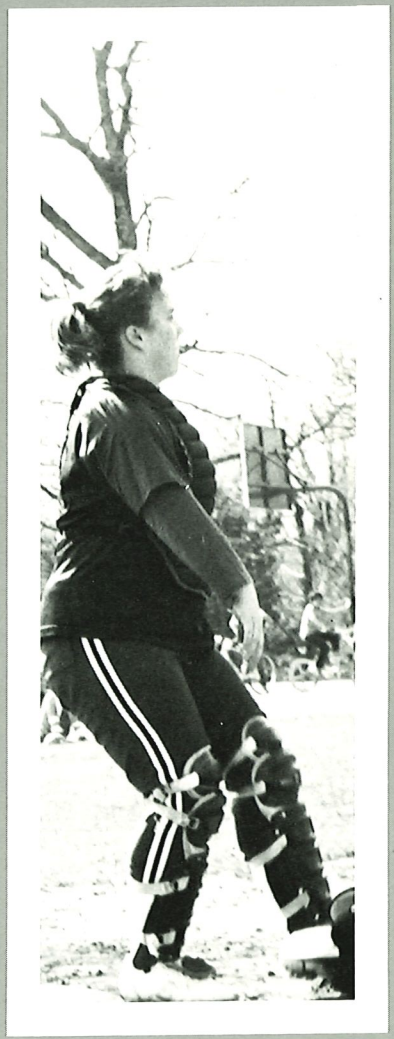
The 1987 Lady Vikes Softball Team compiled a record of 8-4 to finish second in the Lackawanna League Southern Division. Dave Adomiak served as coach, and Pam Deininger, Maria Krawczyk, and Debbie Walsh were tri-captains.

Those given awards on Class Day were Maria Krawczyk for Top Defensive Player, Mary Lisowski and Chris Labosky for Top Offensive Players, and Debbie Walsh for Most Valuable Player of the Year. These four senior members were also selected to play on the All-Star Team. Other senior members were Lynn Gibbons and Tracee Henning.

This year, the softball team proved that hard work and dedication does pay off as the Lady Vikes earned the respect of all the opponents they faced.



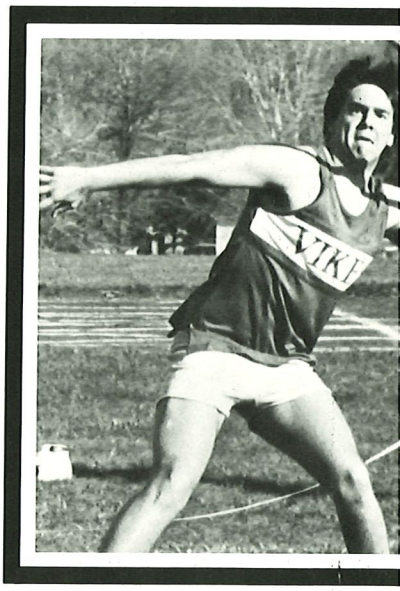


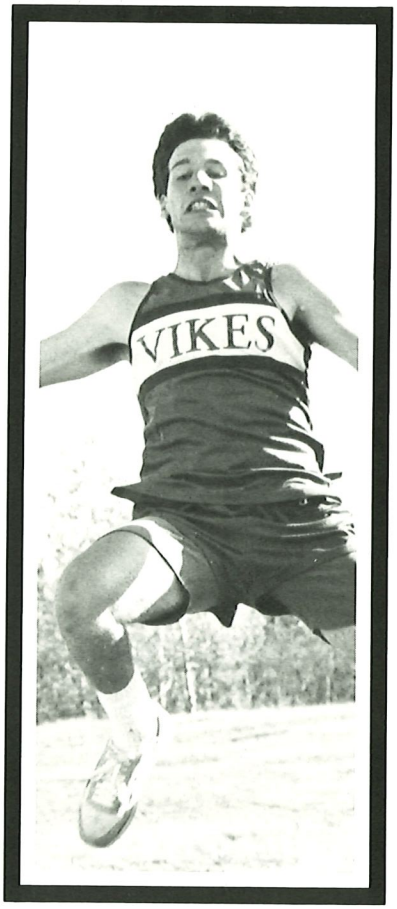


BOYS'

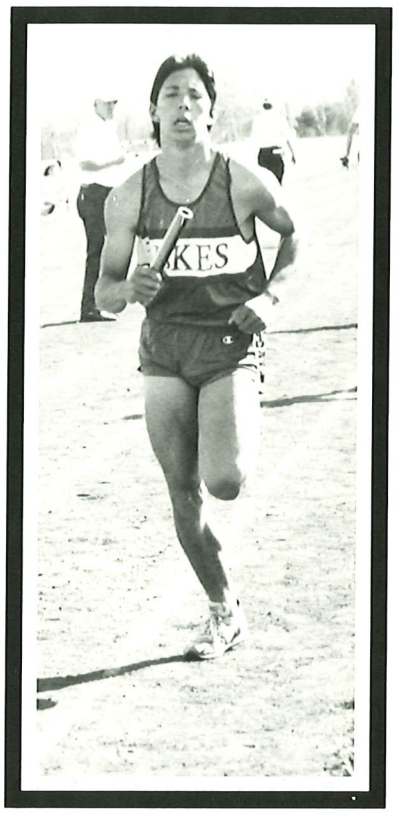
The Boys' Track Team ended the season with a record of three wins and three losses in division play. The coaches were Mr. Steve Armilly and Mr. Ken Bednash. Senior team members were Mickey Osmolia, Brian Riviello, Steve Brosky, Carmen Alessi, Billy Sochovka, Joe Cikowski, Barry Lindemuth, Joe Stevens, Billy Nash, Greg Flanagan, Mike Quinn, Mark Jennings, Billy Ozark, and Sean Rooney.

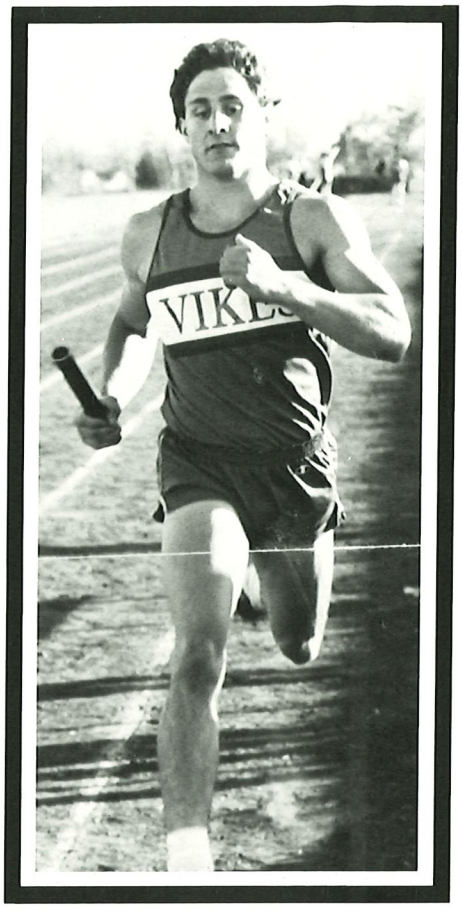
There were many outstanding underclassmen which insures a strong future for Boys' Track.

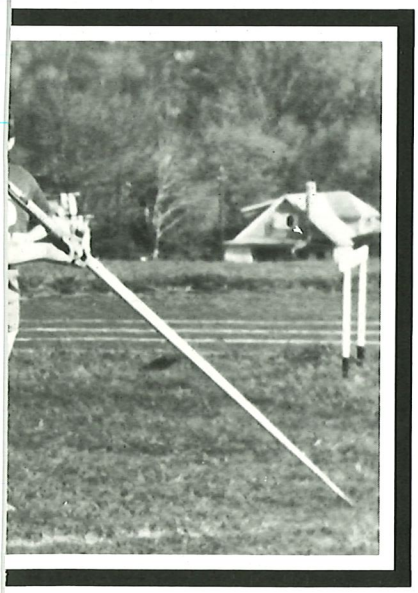


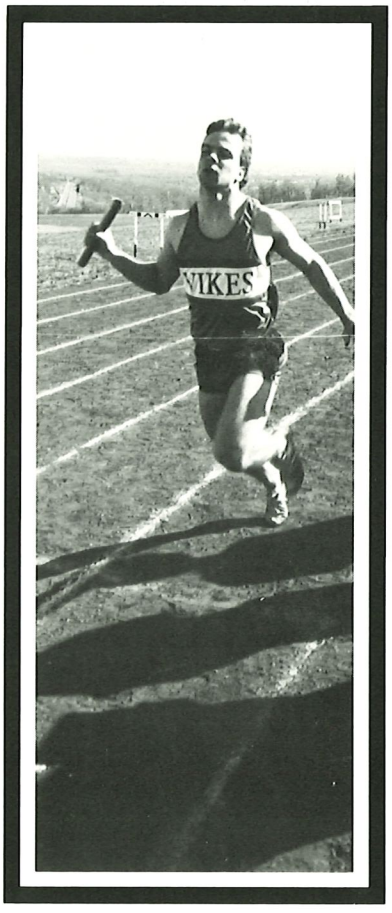


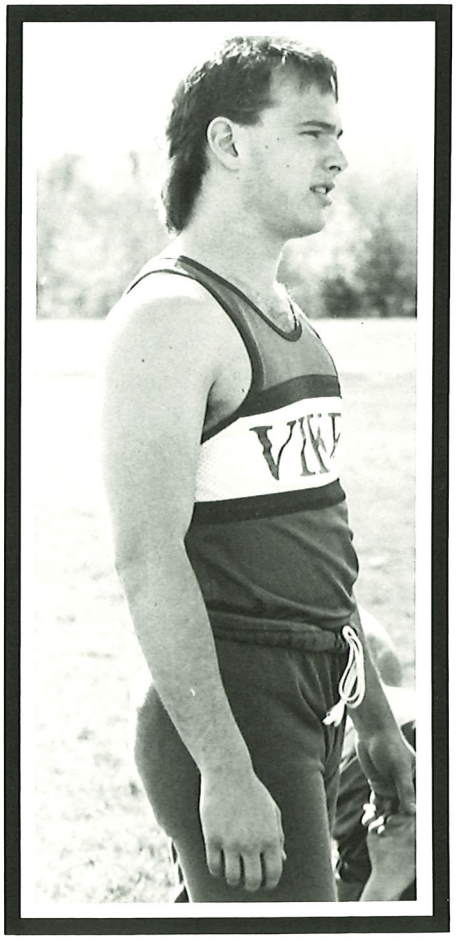
TRACK











'87 GIRLS' TRACK

The Girls' Track Team had many talented individuals in both track and field competition. Seniors, Alexis Smerecky and Jennifer Oustrich, set school records in the 300 meter hurdles and the javelin respectively. A junior, Michelle Cole, set the record in the 400 meter dash. In district competition, Cole came in first in the 100 meter dash, Alexis Smerecky came in first in the 100 meter hurdle, Jennifer Oustrich was fourth in javelin competition, Mandy Godino was fifth in the 3200 meter run, and as a team Riverside finished fifth in the district.

Other senior members were Amy Delvecchio, Kara Calpin, Michelle Kapuschak, Erin Powell, and Tami Vullo.

With many returning athletes, the Lady Vikes have high expectations for next year.

1987 VIKING YEARBOOK STAFF

The Viking Yearbook Staff is an organization comprised of juniors and seniors who work diligently year long to create the school's annual publication. It chronicles all events which take place during the year from the first kickoff of the football season to the last tear at graduation.

A number of fund raisers throughout the year helped reduce the cost of the yearbook. This year the staff sponsored a double-header basketball game, a mesh jersey sale, and several traditional patron drives.

Early in the production season, the Yearbook Staff had received notice that one of the prior publications had gained national attention, winning second place in the Scholastic Press Association's annual competition. The "award winning" R.H.S. Yearbook Staff then set its sights toward carrying on the tradition of its predecessors. We trust that as you glean the pages of the 1987 Viking you sense the dedication, effort, and love with which it was compiled.

The production was enjoyed by all who came as well as the entire cast.

huff, and Lisa Smith.

A night when everyone was at their best, ne memories created will last "Forever."

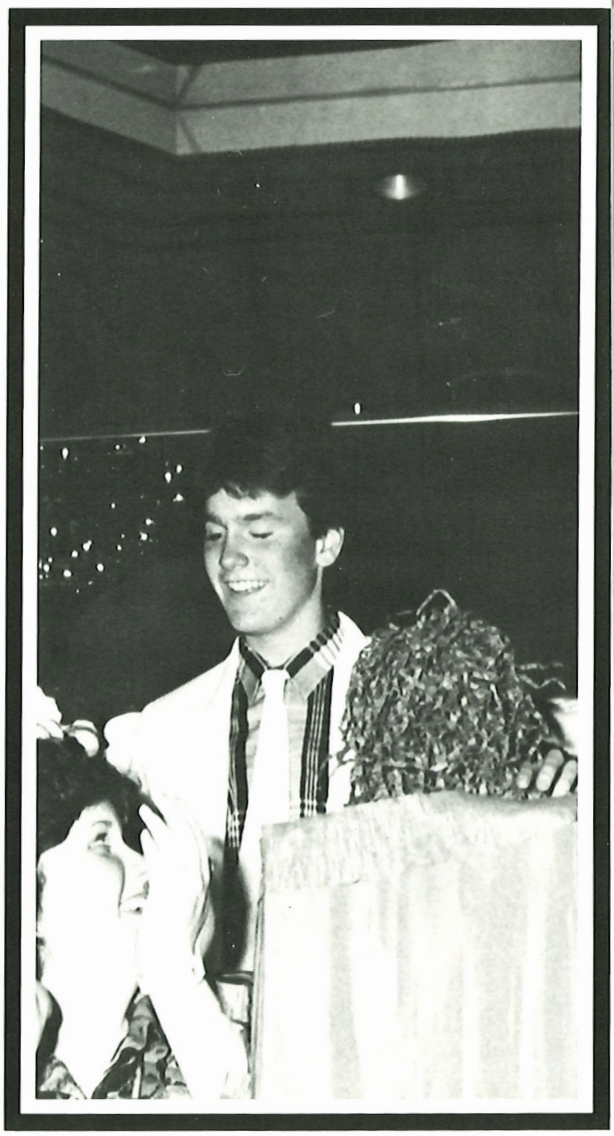
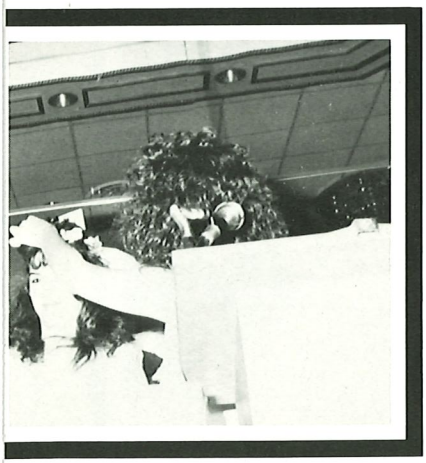
CLASS NIGHT

On Friday, May 22, 1987, the senior class and faculty gathered at Genetti's Manor in Dickson City for the annual Class Night celebration. After dinner 173 "gifts" were distributed by the Ditti Committee. Few seniors did not attend, but those that did come were embarrassed, upset, joyous, and depressed as it was evident that our days at Riverside were coming to a close as we gathered socially as a class for the last time.





CLASS

One of the last times we, the Class of 1987, would spend together was Class Day. Memories of long ago in Riverside High were brought back in the Class History and Salute to Riverside. The Prophecy and Will provided laughs and tears, as we knew it was time to grow up and end our years as high school students.

In addition on Class Day awards were given to those seniors who participated in some of the school activities, as well as, to those who had gained merit in academics and sports.

June 5, 1987 — the day we had anticipated for the past six years had finally arrived. The evening of graduation overwhelmed us with feelings of happiness, sadness, and pride. The speakers were: Laura Ponkevitch, Valedictorian; Cynthia Dopko, Salutatorian; Lisa Lorenzotti, Third Honors; and Lisa Nykaza, Fourth Honors.

Because it was the last time we were together as a class, graduation will always hold a special meaning for us all. Our days at R.H.S. had come to an end. The future was upon us, beckoning us to fulfill the potential we realized as students of the school we will forever love.

SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

THE TIME HAS COME
12 YEARS HAVE PASSED
GRADUATION IS COMING
WE'LL BE LEAVING AT LAST.

THE IMAGE OF THE FUTURE IS MUCH MORE CLEAR
BUT MOST OF US LOOK BACK AT THE PASSING YEARS
AND WONDER WHERE THEY HAVE ALL GONE AS GRADUATION GROWS NEAR.

SEVENTH GRADE SEEMS SO FAR BACK
ONLY A FEW MEMORIES I DO RECALL
WE ALL REMEMBER OUR TROUBLES WITH OUR LOCKERS AND FEARING THE WALKS DOWN SENIOR HALL.

EIGHTH GRADE CAME WITH NOT MUCH OF A CHANGE
IT TOOK AWHILE FOR ANYONE TO CARE
BUT GREG BROUGHT US ATTENTION
WHEN HE SET OFF THE ALARM AND CAUSED A BIG SCARE.

IN NINTH GRADE WE TOOK ON A NAME
FRESHMEN IS WHAT WE WERE TO BE CALLED
WE WERE FINALLY BEING NOTICED AND EVEN MORE INVOLVED.

WE WENT INTO OUR SOPHOMORE YEAR
WITH HIGH IDEALS IN SIGHT
THINKING THAT WE KNEW IT ALL
BUT FINDING OUT WE WEREN'T ALWAYS RIGHT.

OUR JUNIOR YEAR WE SPENT IN GUIDANCE
WHERE EVERYONE WENT TO CHOOSE A CAREER
SOMETHING WE KNEW JUST HAD TO BE DONE.
BUT WE KNEW WE'D NEED MORE THAN A YEAR.

FINALLY WE BECAME SENIORS
THE LAST OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS
WE KNEW IT WAS A YEAR WE'D NEVER FORGET
AS OUR COLLEGE DAYS GREW MORE CLEAR.

THIS YEAR SOMETHING TERRIBLE HAPPENED
TAYLOR WAS UNDER EVACUATION
AND BECAUSE THIS
THEY WERE THINKING OF CHANGING GRADUATION!

PEP RALLIES BROUGHT ABOUT A LOT OF SPIRIT
ESPECIALLY WHEN STUDENT COUNCIL HELD A PIE THROWING CONTEST
IT WAS TO DETERMINE THE MOST UNLUCKY TWO AS DANNY AND AMY BEAT OUT THE REST.

THIS YEAR WE WERE LUCKY
WE HAD LOTS OF CHANCES
TO SHOW OUR SPIRIT
BY ATTENDING ALL OF THE DANCES.

HALL DECORATING WAS SUCH A BLAST
THE THEME WAS CHOSEN TO BE "DREAMS"
AND ALTHOUGH WE WERE BEATEN BY THE SOPHOMORE CLASS
THE SENIORS KNEW THAT OUR HALL WAS SUPREME.

THIS YEAR'S ATHLETES
WERE AMONG THE BEST
IN ALL THE SPORTS
THEY WERE ABOVE THE REST.

OUR FOOTBALL TEAM DID A GREAT JOB
WINNING THE MAJORITY OF THEIR GAMES
AND WE HOPED THE OTHERS WOULD DO THE SAME.

WHAT A SEASON FOR THE LADY VIKES
THEY HAD A RECORD OF 29 AND ZERO
WHEN THE GIRLS WON THE STATE TITLE
MARY, JEN, AND LISA BECAME RIVERSIDE'S BIGGEST HEROES.

EVEN THOUGH THE GIRLS MADE IT TO HERSHEY
AND THE BOYS DIDN'T GET THAT FAR
THEY STILL HAD A GREAT SEASON
AND TO THE FANS THEY WERE STILL STARS.

IN THE PRODUCTION OF "GUYS AND DOLLS"
MICHELE AND SCOTT HAD THE LEADS AND THE PLAY TURNED OUT TO BE A SUCCESS
BUT IT'S NOT HARD TO BELIEVE.

MAY 1st WAS THE DAY OF OUR SENIOR PROM
"FOREVER" WAS CHOSEN AS ITS THEME
A TIME TO REMEMBER FOR EVERYONE
WE WATCHED MICHELLE AS SHE WAS CROWNED AS QUEEN

MAY 22nd WAS CLASS NIGHT
ONE OF THE LAST TIMES WE'D BE TOGETHER
WHEN EVERYONE RECEIVED A SPECIAL DITTIE
TO CARRY ON MEMORIES TO LAST FOREVER.

HERE WE ARE AT CLASS DAY
JUST 2 DAYS NOW UNTIL GRADUATION
A NIGHT WE KNOW WILL BE THE BEST
OUR LAST HIGH SCHOOL CELEBRATION

WE STARTED AT THE BOTTOM
IN A PLACE WE DID NOT KNOW
AND WORK OUR WAY UP TO THE TOP
WHERE OUR SUCCESS WILL FINALLY SHOW.

OUR HARD WORK HAS FINALLY PAID OFF
FOR MOST OF US IT IS HARD TO BELIEVE THAT GRADUATION IS TWO DAYS AWAY
AND IT WILL BE TIME FOR US TO LEAVE.

RIVERSIDE TO US WILL ALWAYS BE SPECIAL
A PLACE WHERE WE ALL GREW TOGETHER
AS WE GIVE OUR SALUTE AND SAY GOOD-BYE
THE MEMORIES WILL STAY WITH US FOREVER.

CHARITI STRIZALKOWSKI
