In the educational system at Riverside, the students are familiar with three branches. The first of these is the School Board. It is the School Board's responsibility to make the policies and regulations by which the students must abide.

The second branch of the system is the administration whose duty it is to enforce the directives of the School Board. It is apparent that they have done their job well. Our school spirit is high because of their abundant cooperation.

The other branch of the system which we students encounter daily is the faculty. These people try their hardest to teach the students the facts. But, most importantly, they strive to impress their students with the necessity of becoming well-rounded individuals who possess a definite set of values and high moral standards.

HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

The Fourth Annual Induction of the Riverside Chapter of the National Honor Society proved to be a night to remember for parents, friends, and inductees alike. The night was highlighted with several fine speeches by three-year members of the Honor Society. Their topics included History and Purpose, Alan Mlodzienski; Character, Helen Lesavage; Service, Doreen Krypel; Leadership, Marianne Wescott; and Scholarship, Karen Harrison. Master of Ceremonies was the president of Riverside's Honor Society, David Saravitz. The students' speeches were followed by a very moving candlelight ceremony. The guest speaker for the evening, Dr. John F. Stephens, Superintendent of Riverside, then spoke to the newly inducted members. Sharon Getts, the Vice-President of Riverside's Honor Society, then gave the closing remarks. Also included in the program was the song "Day by Day" which was sung by Lori Bracey, Cindy Fadden, Sharon Getts, Karen Harrison, Helen Lesavage, Michelle Sepelyak, and Diana Madura.

This year, Riverside was honored when one of its seniors, Karen Harrison, was notified of her status as Finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. This means that she ranks in the top one-half of one percent of the students across the country. Karen also received a full scholarship to the University of Scranton.

Five of Riverside's most active seniors were chosen for this year's Mayor's Prayer Breakfast. In attendance was Tammy Semian, Alan Mlodzienski (both absent from the photo), Walter Lynch, Paula Hamorski and Mark Donati.

Four of Riverside's top students participated in the Scholastic Bowl. This year's team won their first competition. Team members included captain, Karen Harrison, David Saravitz, Sharon Getts and Tammy Suss.

A number of Riverside's seniors received recognition for outstanding achievement in scholastic extracurricular vocational-technical, and community activities. Among these was Alan Mlodzienski who became the school winner of the Century III Leaders Program. Also honored was Ronnie Geise who became a member of the District Band. Sharon Getts became the first student from Riverside to receive the Jaycee Community Award. In addition, Mary McGrail and Bernice VanLouvender won awards in Distributive Education at district vo-tech competition. Mary then went on to finish fourth in overall state competition.

ACADEMIC AWARDS

This year a number of our school's most talented underclassmen competed with students statewide for the honor of attending the Governor's School for Performing Arts. Several of these advanced to the Finalist phase of the competition. They are Shirley Coyne; Barbara Curmaci (both absent from the photo); Kim DeVergilius; Gina Santilli; Bill Canjar; Jared Cicon; and Larry Levy. It was later announced that both Larry Levy and Bill Canjar won scholarships to attend the Governor's School and that Gina Santilli was an alternate.

Also pictured on this page is Riverside's Youth Advisory Council whose members include Debbie Rosato; Bill Canjar; Dave Gatto; Sandy Roth; Larry Levy; Mary Ann Wylam; and Darlene Benjamin (absent from photo). These seven students, along with Mrs. Herman, aided in deciding the cafeteria's weekly menus.

Four of Riverside's upperclassmen were selected to receive Chamber of Commerce awards for academic excellence in certain fields. Those honored were David Saravitz, humanities; Karen Harrison, sciences; Mary McGrail, vocational/technical; and Sharon Getts, communication/arts.

ACADEMIC AWARDS

The Class of 1980 was indeed, a very talented class. This statement becomes obvious when we see the large number of students that received recognition for their academic as well as extracurricular activities. One such senior was Kathy Maloney who won second prize in shorthand in the "Secretarial Skills" contest sponsored by Keystone Junior College. In addition, David Saravitz was named the Elks Club "Student of the Month" for March 1980. Also our own VIKING 80 photographer, Paula Rafalko, received a Scholastic Art Award Certificate of Merit for her photography. In addition, Scott Odgers won the Pennsylvania State Driving Championship and placed second in National Competition. All of Riverside extends congratulations to Scott on this terrific achievement.

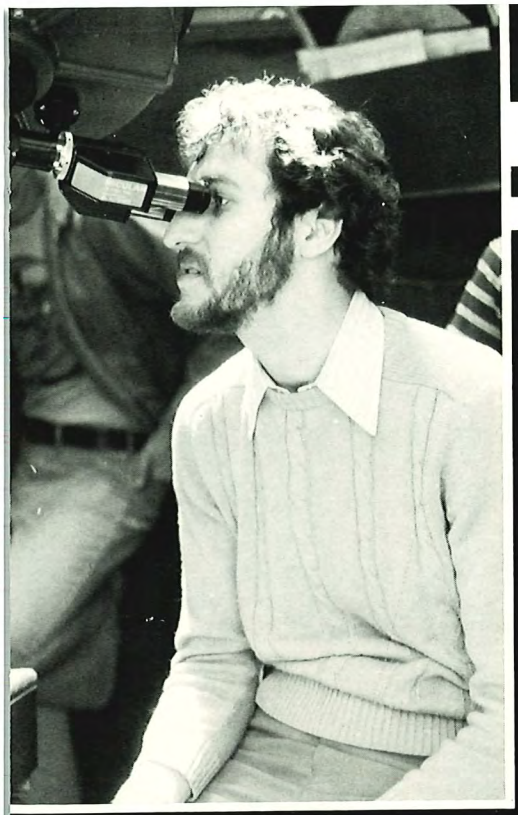

PARENTHOOD EDUCATION

Riverside's Parenthood Education Class is fast becoming one of the favorite classes of students. In the class students learn many interesting facts about children. In addition they often discuss pertinent issues facing today's American family. Also, for part of the year the class conducts a Day Care Center for some of the area's children. In this way the students get to "try out" what they've learned and discover again what it was like to be a child.

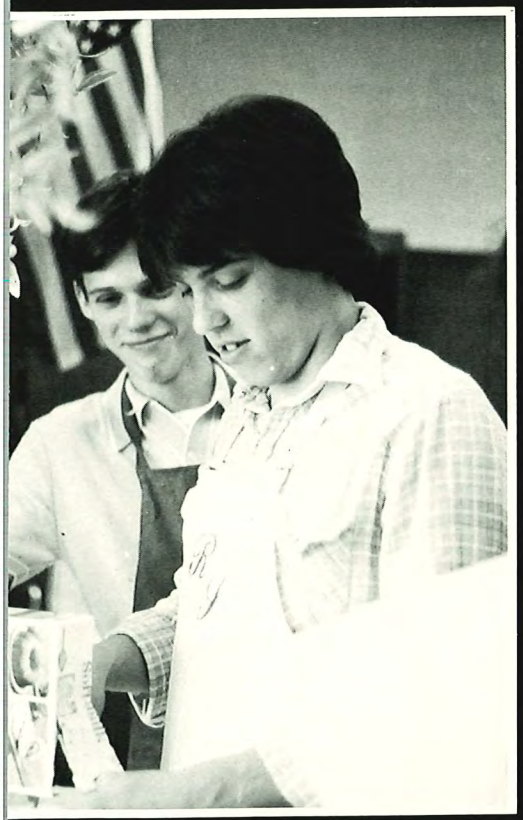

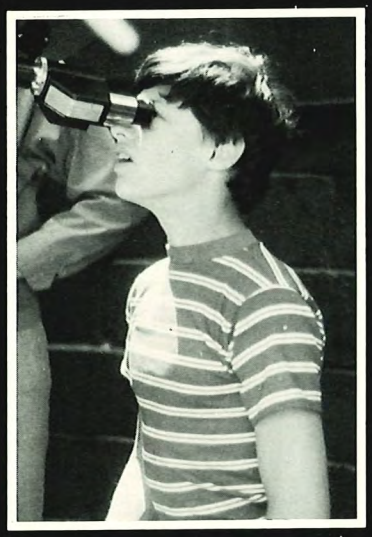

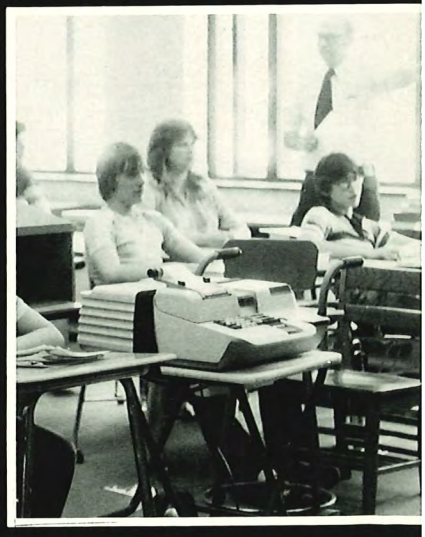

Each year, Riverside hosts a variety of special programs. Among the most popular of these is Astronomy. Students participate on Monday afternoons in solar research and in Wednesday nights in individual astronomical research programs. In addition computer classes are offered as electives. In these, the students learn how to construct flow charts and to convert these into instructions that the computer can understand. Another of the programs at Riverside is Singles' Living. In this course, future bachelors learn the basics of both cooking and sewing. These classes offer students a unique and enjoyable way to expand their horizons.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

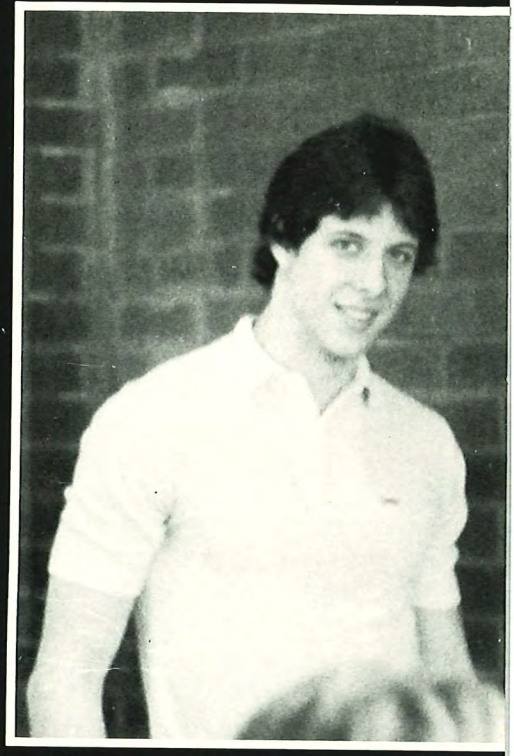

Many athletic scholarships were awarded to Riverside students this year. Among these was a scholarship to West Point, valued at over $100,000, awarded to Wally Lynch. In addition, Mike Holland was awarded a full scholarship to Drake University and Mark Mattioli received a partial scholarship to Bloomsburg State. Also receiving recognition for his athletic talent was Jim Keppick.

Many other honors were bestowed on Riverside students. Mark Donati received a partial academic scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh. Doreen Krypel and Alan Mlodzienski were also awarded partial scholarships to the University of Scranton. Three Riverside students represented the FBLA in state competition. In attendance were Sue Belles, Christine Heil and Lisa Browning. In addition, Alan Mlodzienski and Mark Donati were chosen to lead a workshop at the National Student Council Convention. They were the only two students from Pennsylvania to receive this distinction. Lastly, Debbie Nicholais received a partial scholarship to the Mercy Hospital School of Nursing. Riverside is proud of these and many other achievements by members of our talented student body.

VO-TECH

Vo-Tech offers a wide range of opportunities in career oriented fields. It has programs ranging in areas as diversified as building maintenance, carpentry, graphic arts, food preparation and cosmetology. These different shop areas, along with many others, prepare students for future jobs or technical schools.

At Vo-Tech, students can become involved in VICA or DECA. VICA stands for Vocational Industrial Clubs of America and DECA for Distributive Educational Clubs of America. These clubs, as well as competition in varied shop areas, help students prepare themselves for their future careers.

UNDERCLASSMEN

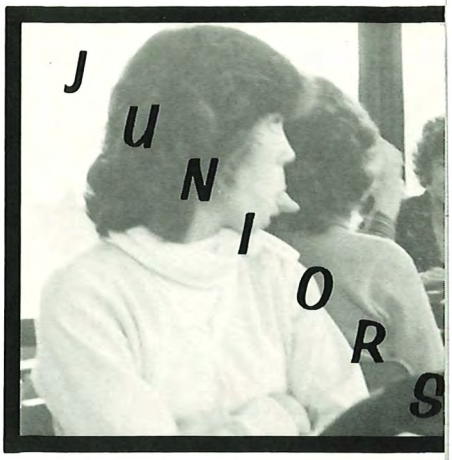

This year the recognition for being hard-working and dedicated goes to the Junior Class. The Juniors are taking this year very seriously and proof of this was their outstanding sale of candy bars. The money that goes into the Treasury is the assurance their senior year will run as smoothly as possible.

All work and no play isn't any way to face a school year, and the Juniors showed they, too, could show school spirit and "start a little action." This was a part of Spirit Day when the Juniors participated by showing up in their Jerseys.

The Juniors must also be given credit for the number of outstanding participants in sports. The Senior Class is sure that the Class of '81 will be a class to remember.

Class officers are: President, Pam Sparacino; Vice-President, Danny Richards; Secretary, Lisa Moran; and Treasurer, Jeff Manzo, Class Advisors are Miss Sklaney and Mr. MacArt.

The sophomores have entered their sophomore year with enthusiasm and zeal. This enthusiasm was demonstrated when the prize for decorating the halls went to the Class of '82. The sophomores once again showed their school spirit by showing up at "Spirit Day" clad in sweatsuits. Although graduation is still two years away, the sophomores realize that the time and effort they put into this year will pay off when the big year of '82 arrives.

Class officers are: President, Dave Gatto; Vice-President, Jeff Colan; Treasurer, Debbie Rosato; and Secretary, Clem Laniewski. Class advisors are Mr. Bernard Lazevnick and Mr. Knecht.

The Freshmen Class is always an important step up. It marks the beginning of the first four years of high school, and this year the freshmen are proof of how it feels to be "moving on up." As a matter of fact the freshmen are trying their best to have as much fun as possible before they even reach their senior year.

Even though the graduating year of '84 seems so far away, preparations must be made for a bright future now. The freshmen realize this, and they are putting their time into projects that will be sure to pay off in the years to come. We wish the freshmen every bit of luck and success in the years to come.

Class officers are: President, Paul Bouselli; Vice-President, Gayle Semian; Secretary, Richard Mozeleski, and Treasurer, Michele Valenza. Class advisors are Mr. and Mrs. Hapstack.

GOLF

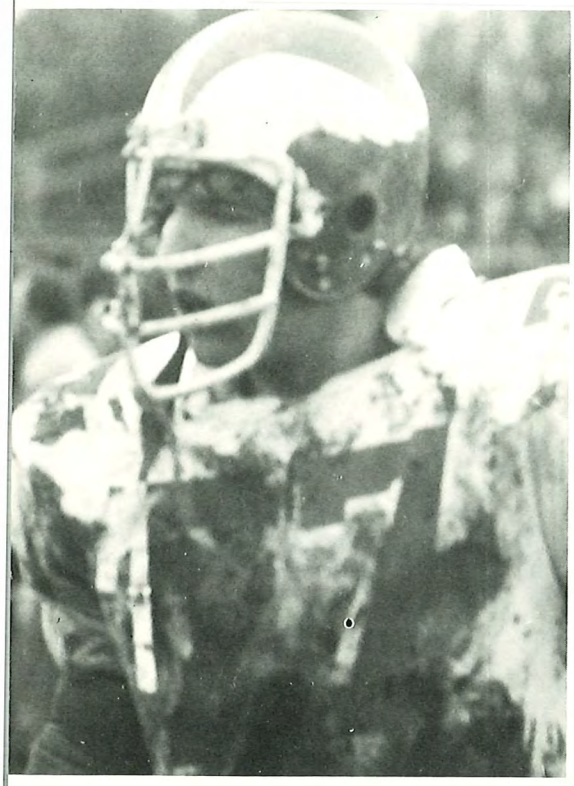

Last year's graduation left this year's golf team in a rebuilding stage. Armed with only one senior, the team compiled a respectable record of three wins and five losses. Leading the team in their wins against Tech, Seton Catholic, and Bishop O'Hara were sophomore Tom Jones and senior Tom Pattison. Aiding them were other starters including: junior, Bob Snyder; sophomores, Andy Rusnak and Rick Wilson; and freshmen, Tom Harrison and Roger Kaetzel. Other members of the team included Bruce Sobol, Scott Coletti, Frank DeSarro, John Hamorski, Gary Golla, and Bob Burkhart.

This year, the team was honored when one of its members, Tom Jones, was chosen for the All-Scholastic Golf Team. Also, receiving honorable mention were Tom Pattison and Rick Wilson. Coach Helcoski looks forward to a great season next year when he hopes that his experienced team will "drive" on to victory.

FOOTBALL 1980

The 1979-80 Viking football team had a good season, nishing with a 5-6 record. The team opened their season ith six consecutive losses. But, during the rest of the sea- n, they showed true Viking spirit, rolling to victory in ve out of five difficult contests.

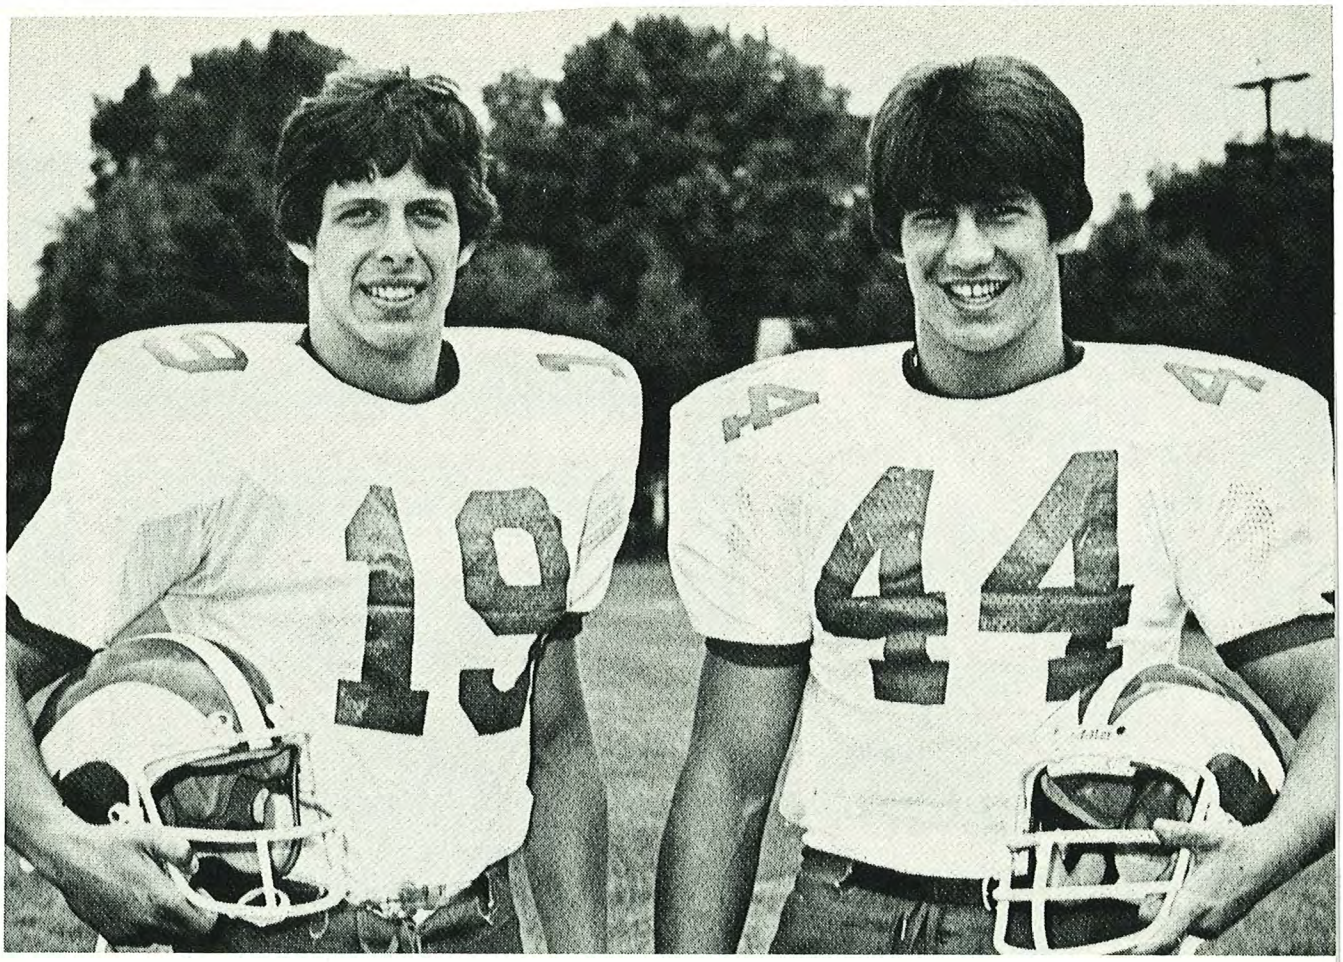

In their first win, they blanked Scranton Tech by roll- g to a 20-0 victory. The next game of the season was the aditional homecoming game. Under clear skies, the ikings managed to score seven points, but this was ough to beat Valley View in a hard hitting contest that ded with a score of 7-6.

The next game was far away in Tunkhannock, but the ip was worth it, because the Vikings came away with a in of 7-0. In the Mid Valley game, the Vikings put on a ectacular offensive and defensive show, winning by a ore of 17-0.

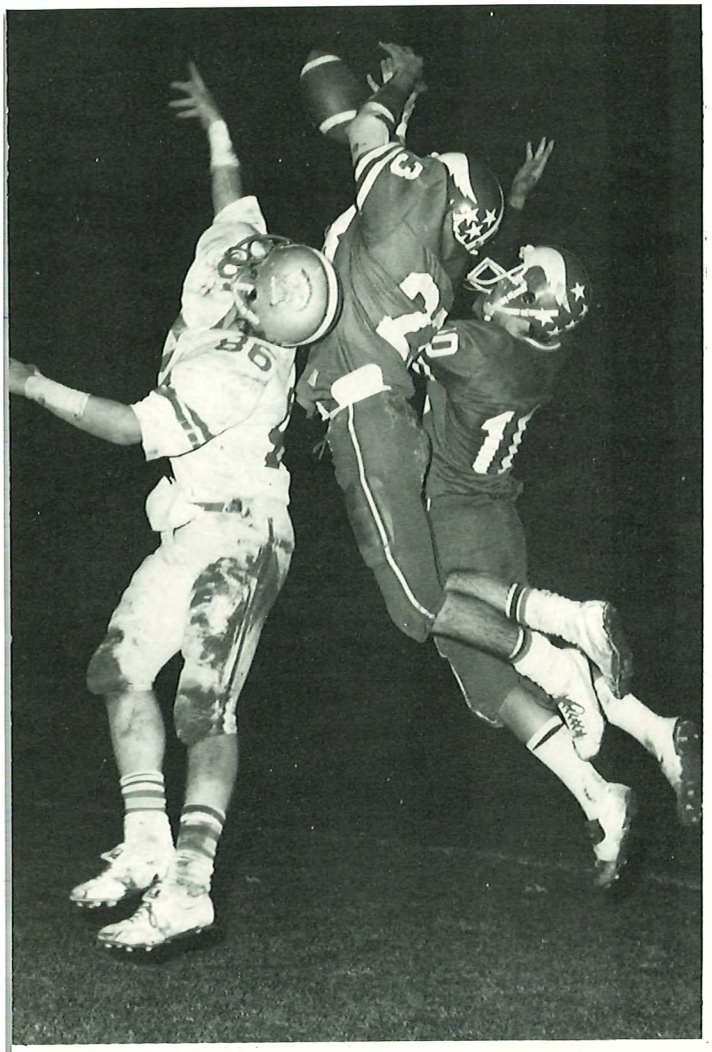

In the last game of the season, a muddy contest in the idst of Blue Devil Country, the Vikings won over a pow- ful Devil squad by 20-6. The fans and the players came way wet and soggy, but with fond memories of a great ason.

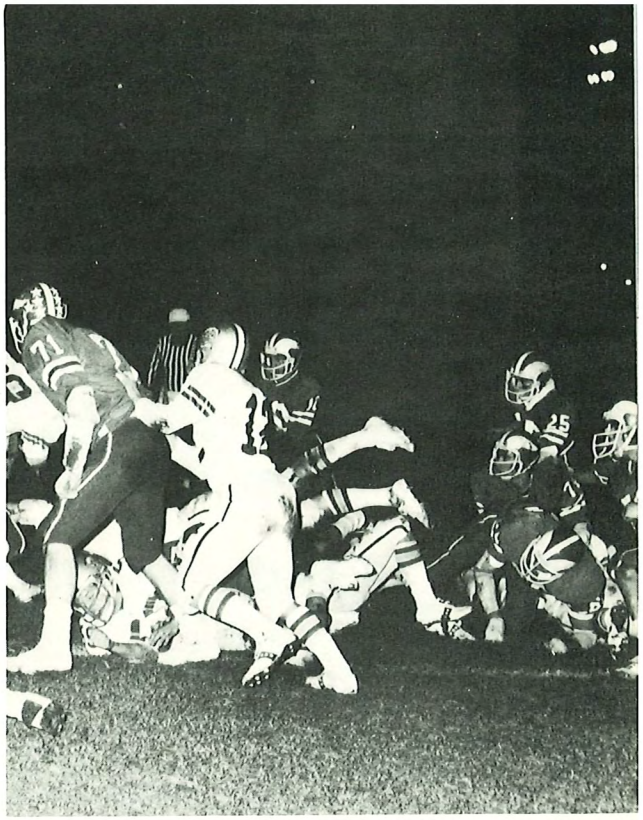

Fine performances were registered all season by the embers of the offensive team: Mike Holland, a quick nd powerful tackle; Wally Lynch, split end; James Kep- ck, a strong and good blocker; Ken Balkunas, an excel- nt tackle, and Mark Mattioli, a good blocker. The efense was strengthened by such exceptional players as oe Rinkunas, a hard-hitting defensive end; Mike eVergilius, a defensive back and Keith Gatto, a defen- ve middle guard. These players performed well as did nderclassman Rich Hale, Joe Briskie, Tom Navich, Dave ikowski, Brad Reed, Jeff Manzo, Troy Weisenfluh, Clem aniewski and Chris Buckley.

BOY'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

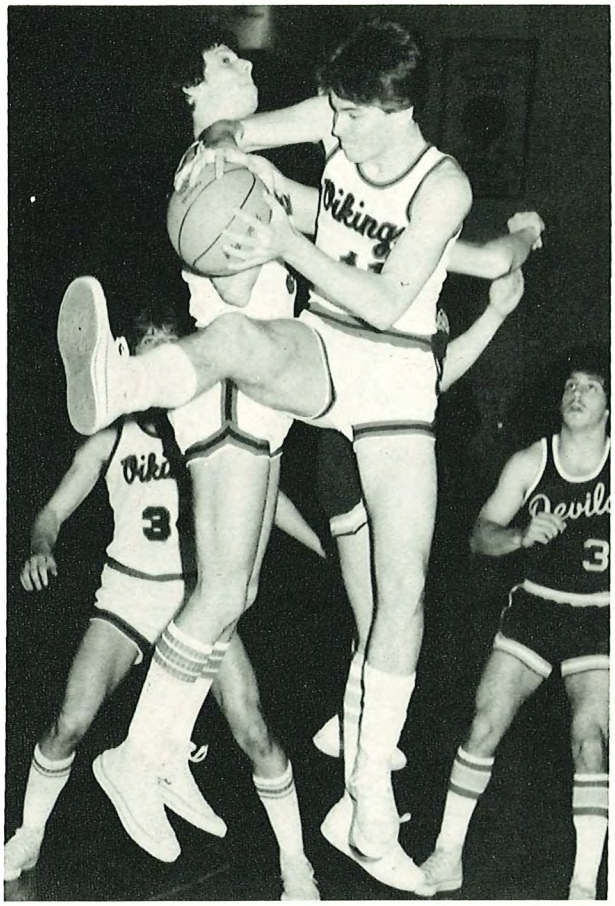

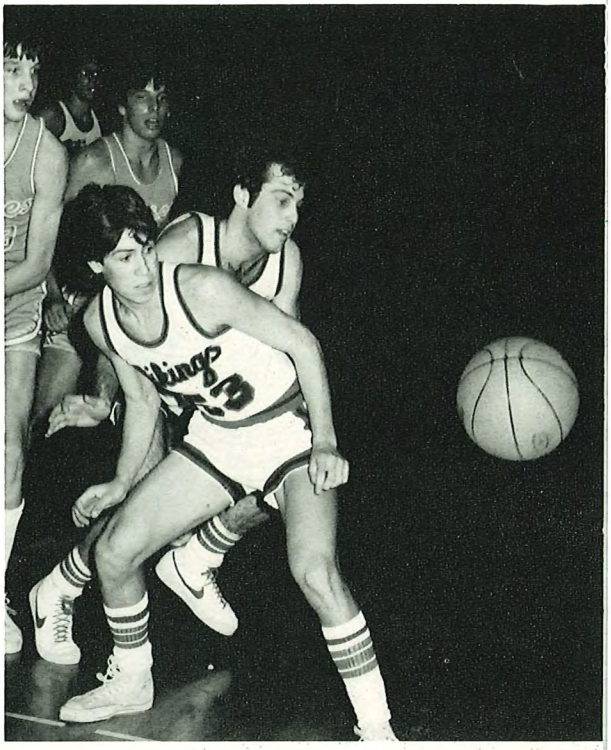

The boys' varsity basketball team started off its season right, winning its first two contests against Bishop Klonowski and Old Forge. In fact, one of the highlights of the season was both of the wins against our near neighbors. In these games, it seemed as though the boys were inspired on to victory by the cheering of the crowds.

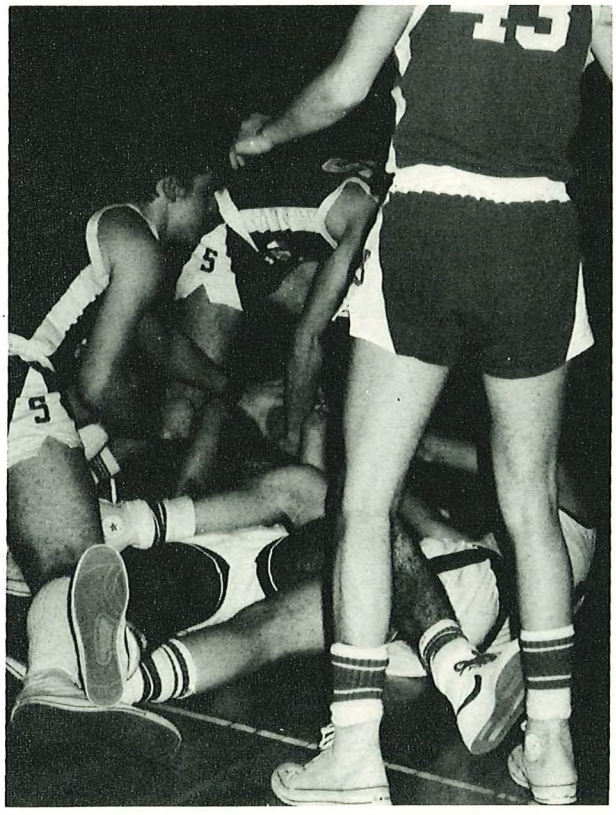

All year, the team was led by senior Mark Donati, who along with Mike DeVergilius, Phil Krenitsky and Wally Lynch and junior Joe Brady formed the nucleus of the team. They received strong support from other players including junior Jeff Manzo and Sophomore Todd Hoskins.

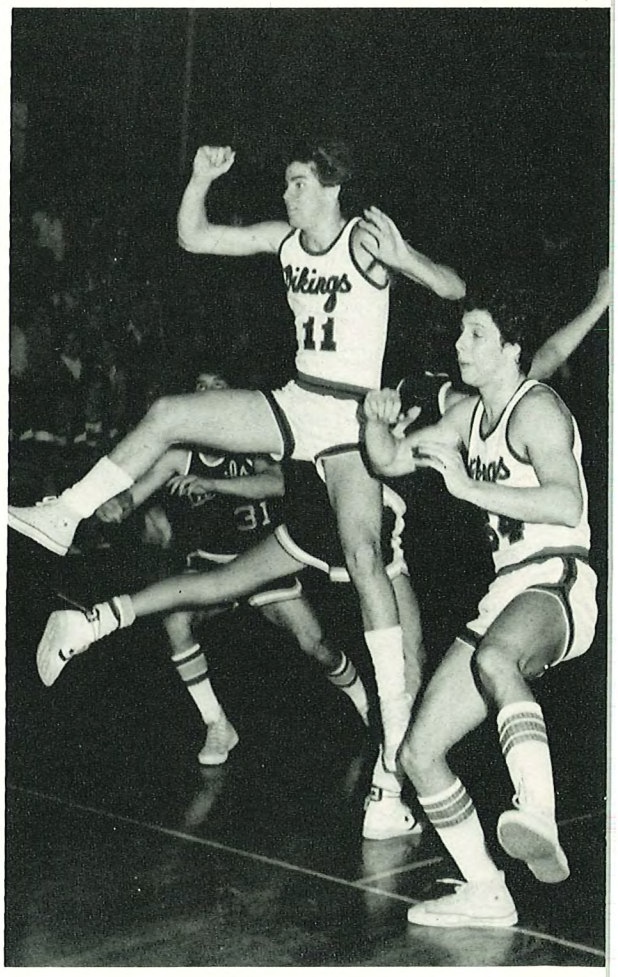

As the final basket of the season was sunk, fans knew that the Vikings would be back next season, and in true Viking tradition, they would "shoot" on to victory.

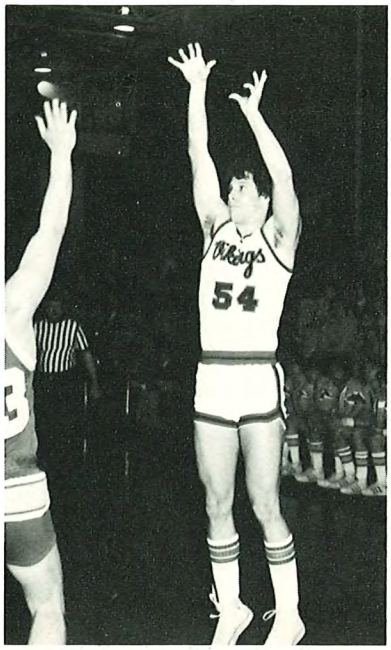

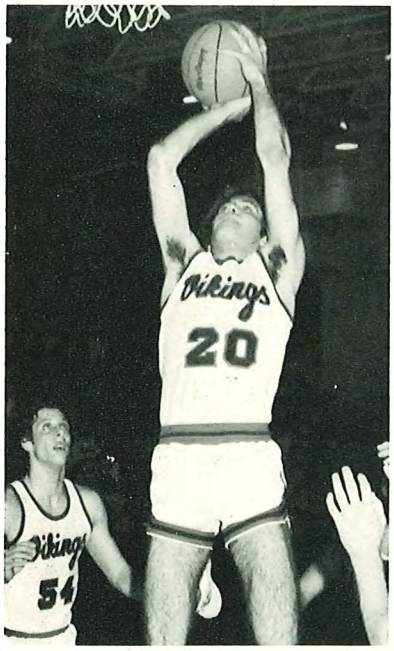

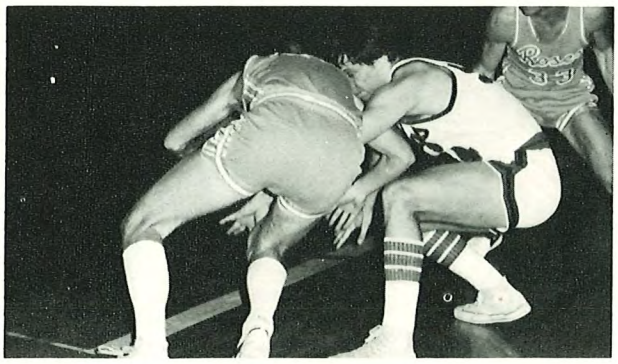

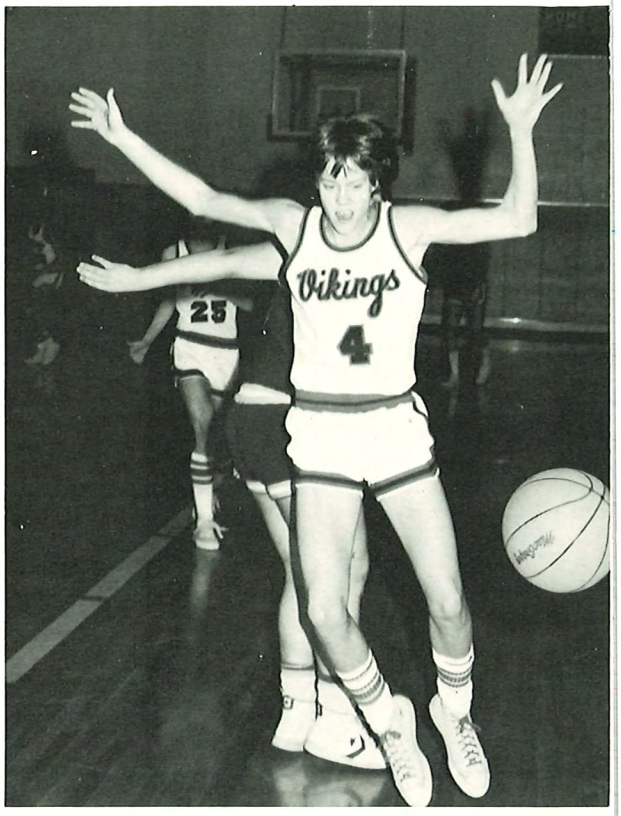

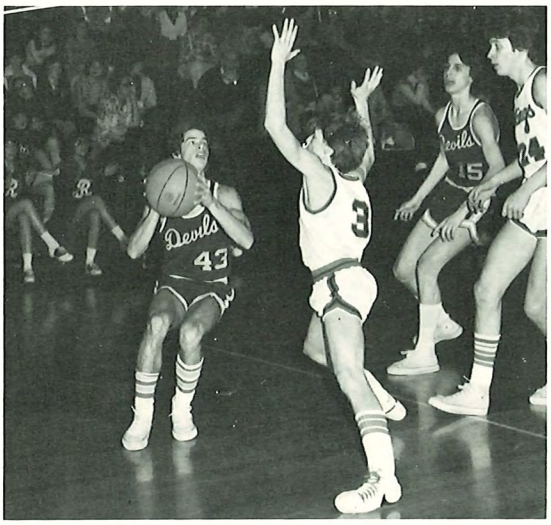

BOY'S J.V. BASKETBALL

A well-developed Junior Varsity Basketball program is inherent to the success of future varsity teams. If this year's team is any indication of the years to come, Riverside will remain on the top of the Lackawanna North for many seasons.

The Junior Varsity, coached by Mr. Butcher, posted a record of 13-3 over the season. More importantly, the boys learned how to work as a team. The experience they gained this year will certainly help them in their bid for future victory.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Once again the Lady Vikes proved that Riverside has some of the best athletes around. The girls finished their season with a spectacular record of 20-3.

The team had such talent — choosing a starting lineup proved to be impossible. Instead, Coach Nageli chose to rotate between six players including: senior, Marguerite Colucci; juniors, Sue Vass and Barbara Sochovka; sophomores, Paula Oleksy and Michelle Mazzitelli; and freshman Sue Brosky.

The team was honored when four of the players were selected for the All Star Team. Paula Oleksy and Sue Vass made the first team squad and Barb Sochovka made the second team. Senior Marguerite Colucci was honored for her great defensive play with an honorable mention selection.

Also, two of the Lady Vikes were selected to the Pennsylvania Underclassmen All State Team. Receiving this tremendous honor because of their outstanding contributions to the sport were Paula Oleksy and Sue Vass.

All of the fans must agree that the great action on the court during the girls' games made the 1979-80 one of the most memorable ever.

DISTRICT 2 PIAA GIRLS' CHAMPS

In post-season play, the Lady Vikes went on to beat Dallas, Carbondale, a perennial power, and finally North Pocono to capture the Class AA Championship of District 2. The girls went on from there to state competition before finally bowing to Susquehanna in the Eastern finals.

All of Riverside, fans and students alike, are proud of the girls and their accomplishments. Their 1979-80 season will remain as one of the most memorable and successful seasons in Riverside history.

Congratulations on a job well done!!!

BOWLING

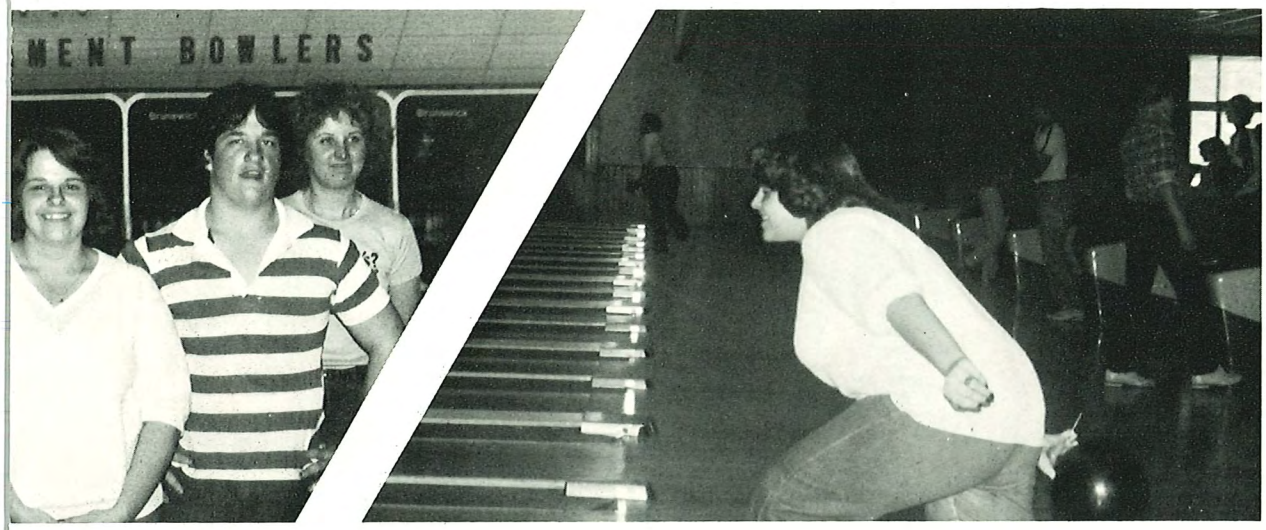

SEASON CHAMPS

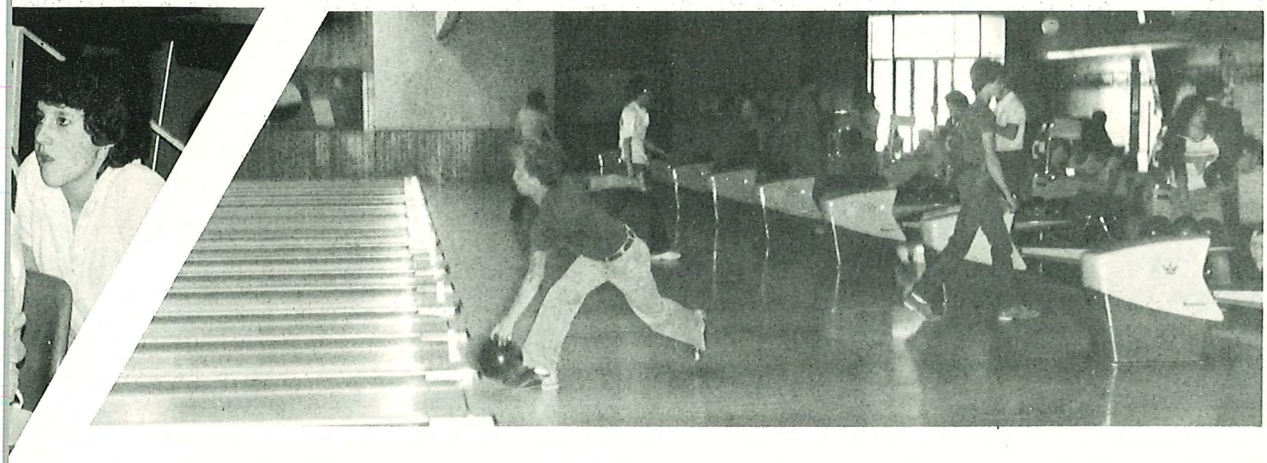

Bowling, which is now in its second year as an interscholastic sport at Riverside, has received much interest. Our school is now represented in the Lackawanna Scholastic League by two teams, Riverside "A" and Riverside "B." Although both teams finished poorly during first half action, the "A" team made an amazing comeback. They beat out 15 other teams to win the second half crown. Riverside "A" then faced West Side Invaders, the first half champs, for the season title. After three difficult and close games, Riverside "A" emerged the victor. Captain of the winning team is Tom Pattison. Other members are Jerry Baldauff, Candy Christian, Pat Hannon and Karen Harrison. Coach Ruthkosky looks forward to next year when he hopes his team will have a chance to defend this year's crown.

BOYS BASEBALL

This year's baseball team was in a growing stage. Under Coach Ruthkosky, the team, made up entirely of underclassmen, did remarkably well, turning in a 4-14-2 record. This is a deceiving one in light of the many close losses that the boys faced.

All year the team was led in batting by Mike Bartoletti who hit the most homers and turned in the best batting average. On the mound, Todd Hoskins was selected as Best Pitcher for the 1980 season. In fielding, Chris Buckley was selected Outstanding Infielder and C. J. Pacholec was chosen as Outstanding Outfielder.

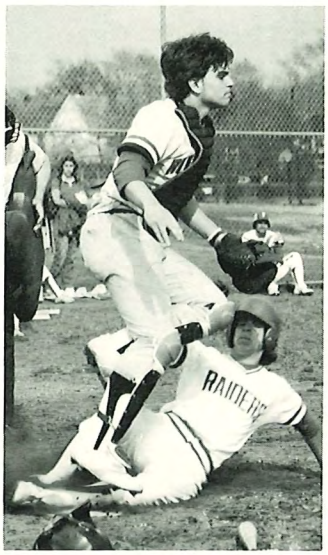

The team's only downfall was its overall inexperience, but in the next few years the Riverside name will be feared on diamonds everywhere.

GIRLS SOFTBALL

Under third year mentor David Adomiak, the girls' team experienced a difficult season. With only one senior participating, Michelle Sepelyak, the girls were hampered by the lack of veteran players.

Great performances were still turned in by the underclassmen. Donna Donati had a sizzling season, turning in a .400 plus batting average. It is performances like this that will aid the team in its quest for future victories.

The team's only shortcoming was its overall inexperience, but in the next few years to come this year of seasoning will surely show itself in Championship style.

BOYS TRACK

Second year coaches Tom Killino and Steve Lamper had another difficult schedule this year. Inexperience hampered the team as only six seniors participated. David Saravitz, who was top scorer, was selected outstanding athlete and outstanding track. Robert Cudworth was cited for oustanding field competition. Each one of them broke three school records apiece. Other seniors who contributed to the team were Alan Mlodzienski, Ed Keppick, Mike Rusnak, and Tom Scalese. Returning juniors, Walter Novotka, Robbie Davis, and Dan Richards, hope to lead their team onto victory next year.

GIRLS TRACK

The girls' track team posted the best record for any spring sport this season, winning five meets and losing six. The team was led by juniors Barb Sochovka and Diane Lashevicki and sophomore Paula Oleksy.

Barb, who set a new school record in the triple jump, scored the most total points. Diane finished the season with the best record in track and two second place finishes in district competition. Paula was awarded a trophy for being the best participant in field.

Next year's track team promises to be a great one, with these three girls along with many other fine athletes returning to face new competition.

HOMECOMING

This year, Homecoming was a fitting climax to a week of activities entitled Spirit Week. During this week, halls were decorated to the theme "Reunited" and each class donned a different article of clothing to demonstrate their spirit for Riverside.

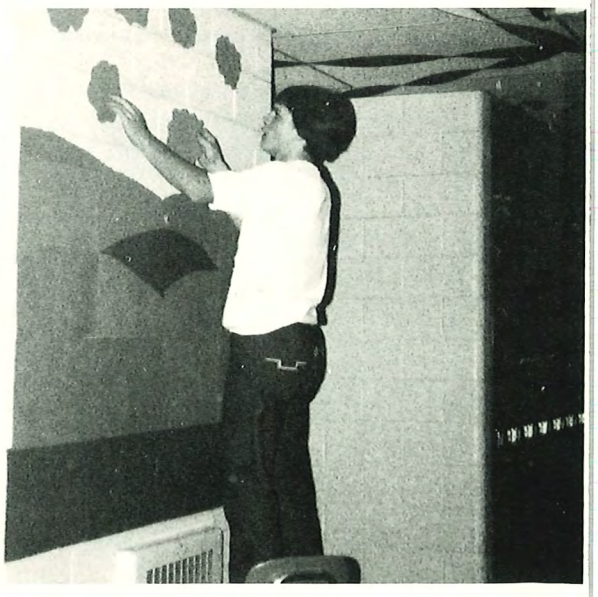

Finally the night arrived. Crowned Homecoming Queen for 1980 was Maria Barry. Her princesses were JoAnne Cicon, Robin Coleman, Ann McGraw and Justine Williams.

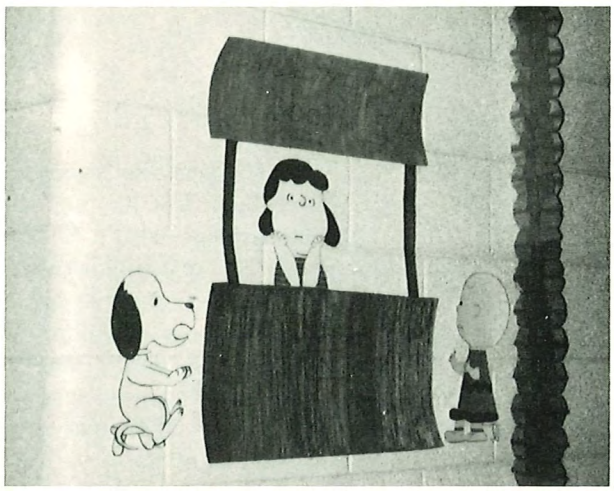

"REUNITED"

UNIT DANCE

This year, the Riverside Units held their first annual recital entitled "That's Entertainment." The revue showcased the talents of all of the unit members. The dances ranged from a solo performance by Miss Viking, Trina Walters, to a number featuring the senior unit members. Because it was a huge success, the event will most likely become a Riverside tradition.

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT

SPANISH SEMI

The Christmas spirit was surely in the air for the annual Spanish Club Semi Formal. Held at Gus Genetti's on December 26, 1979 during our Christmas vacation, the annual gala provided an evening of delicious food and entertainment by the band Music Box. Students who attended found a special touch added to their holiday season.

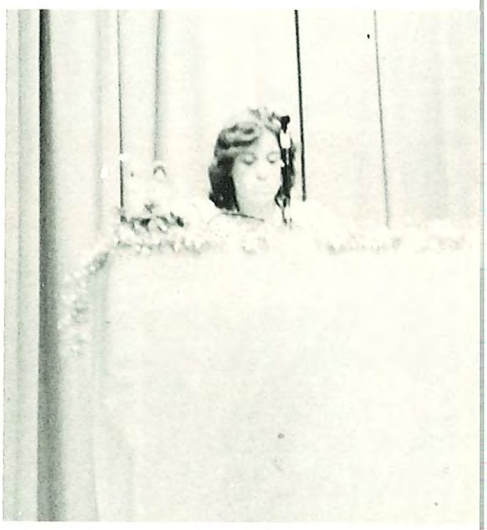

LA CASCABEL ROCA

CHRISTMAS

The annual Christmas show, conducted by the Music Department was held on December 22, 1979, the day before winter vacation began. The Music Department once again used an original idea for their program. They selected to use as their theme a format from a local news station. The program was unique and most delightful. It also put the students in the true "holiday spirit."

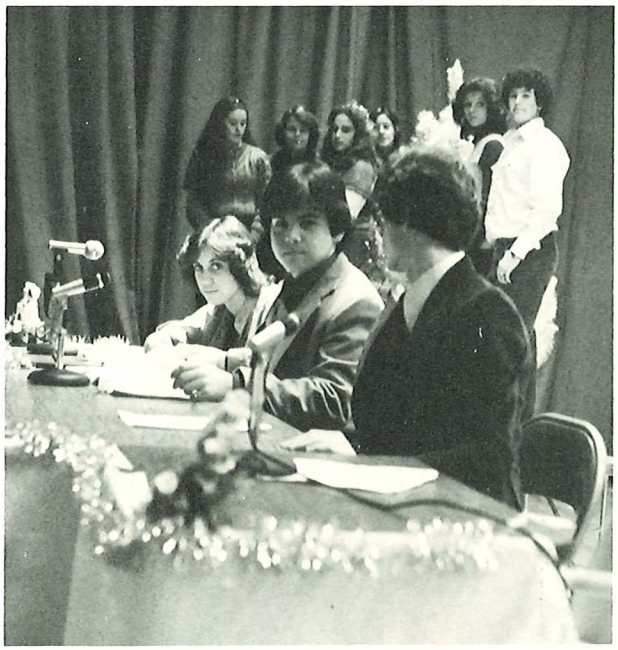

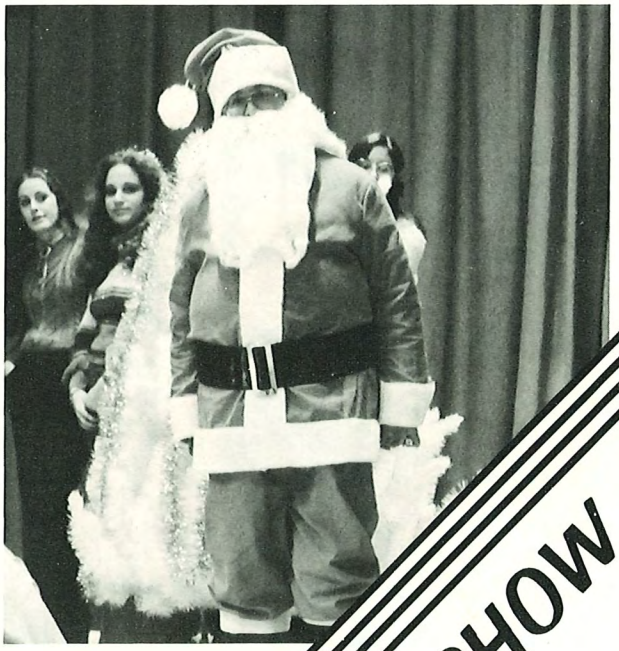

SHOW

CLUB

This year a group of Riverside students journeyed all the way across the Atlantic to get a firsthand look at Spanish culture. For nine days the students visited various Spanish cities. They conversed with the natives and participated in some Spanish customs including festivals held during the Spanish Holy Week.

When one of the travelers lost his passport, it prompted a feeling that their trip would never end. Unfortunately, all good things must come to an end, and, as they boarded their plane home, many were heard to say, "I shall return."

Two weeks later, the German Club departed for Germany and the country will never be the same. While there they visited many historical sites, including beautiful castles along the Rhine River. The students also had a chance to use their knowledge of German for the first time.

Besides being educational, the trip was fun as well. From the tabletops of Munich to the bananas of Trier, the students showed the natives a tiny glimpse of American customs. As they boarded their plane home, all agreed that Germany had not seen the last of them.

TRIPS

EASTER

The annual Honor Society Easter Festival was a success again this year. It delighted area children with its games, prizes and cartoon characters. Some of the characters in attendance were Chewbacca, of Star Wars fame, Big Bird and, the traditional favorite the Easter Bunny. Because of its huge success, the Easter Festival is sure to continue for years to come.

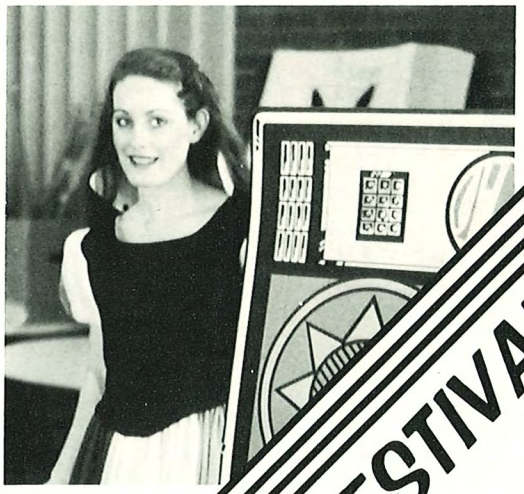

FESTIVAL

SPRING PRODUCTION

The Music Department of Riverside High School proudly presented the popular musical "Fiddler on the Roof" as its spring musical production. The production was under the direction of Miss Betty Jane Caswell and Mrs. Carol Hapstack. Through many weeks of rehearsal and hard work, it became obvious that the actors and actresses who participated in the production were properly chosen for the roles they were portraying. When the curtain finally fell, a capacity crowd rose to its feet and sent a resounding applause throughout the auditorium.

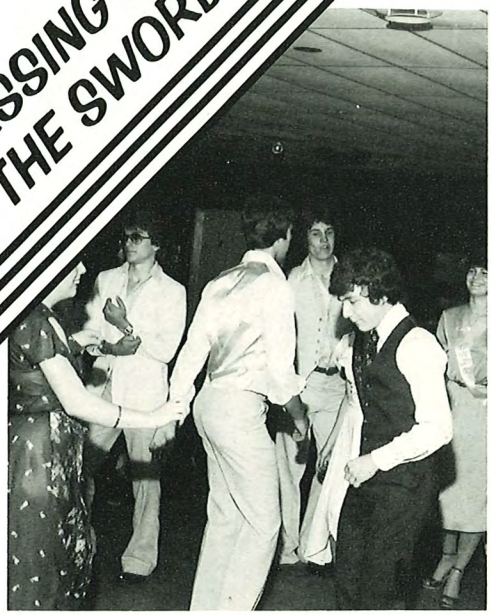

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

PASSING OF THE SWORD

The Treadway Inn of Scranton was chosen as the setting for the third annual "Passing of the Sword" dinner dance. Sunday, May 18, 1980, was the day the new marching units captains and co-captains were announced. Miss Viking, Trina Walters, proudly passed her sword to Kim DeVergilius, while Justine Williams announced that Mary Ann Wylam would be her successor. Other unit captains, with both joy and sadness, passed on their titles to next year's leaders. These mixed emotions made the night special for both seniors and underclassmen alike.

FBLA

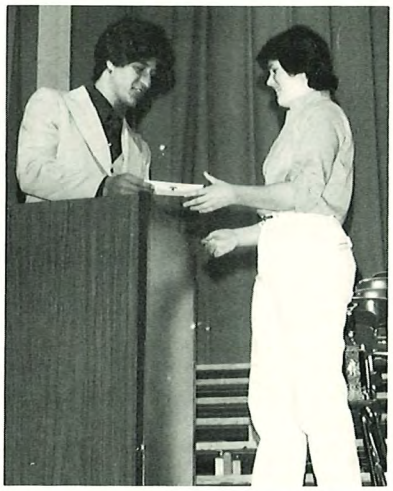

This year, the Riverside Chapter of the FBLA fared well in area competition held at Dunmore High School. Among the winners were: Christine Heil with a first place finish in spelling; Sharon Getts, second place in public speaking; Mary Ann Price, 5th place, spelling; Kathy Maloney, 5th place, shorthand; and a report prepared by Sue Belles placed 4th in Outstanding Chapter Competition.

Each year, the achievements of underclassmen at Riverside are honored at Underclassman Day. This year some of the highlights were the presentation of Governor's School Awards, Yearbook and various sports awards, including bowling and baseball. The honors program was enjoyed by both parents and students alike.

ACTIVITIES

ALL HONORS

Each year the achievements of Riverside High School students in both academic and athletic areas are highlighted at the All Honors Banquet. This year's Master of Ceremonies was Sid Michaels, a 1974 graduate of Riverside. He was joined by the evening's guest speaker, Chick Marra, a humorist famous for his banquet appearances. The event was enjoyed by both parents and students alike.

BANQUET

PROM

Memories are precious, yet proms too few. That is why the juniors worked feverishly all year long, in their effort to provide the outgoing seniors with a most memorable evening. The Woodlands Inn was the setting and May 8 was the date for this very important affair. The atmosphere was carefree, the food delicious and the music, which was provided by Eddie Day and T.N.T., was fantastic. Ann McGraw was crowned this year's prom queen. Her court consisted of seniors, Maria Barry, Robin Coleman and juniors, Beth Naegeli, Lisa Moran, Linda Beyrent and Ann Marie Olexy. The evening was unique in many ways to both seniors and juniors alike, but nights like that are "precious and few."

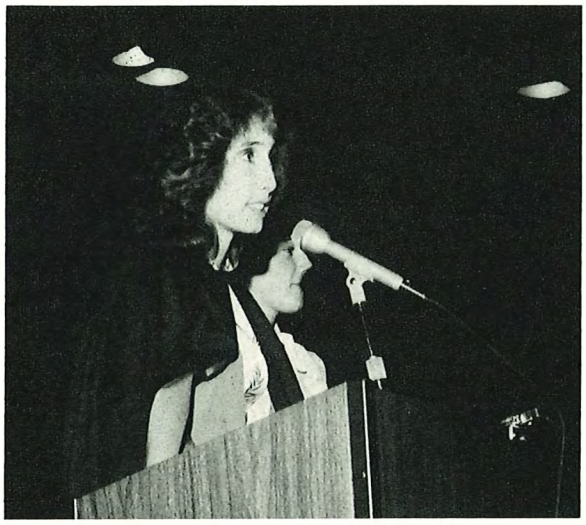

PRECIOUS AND FEW

CLASS DAY

Class Day, an afternoon set aside each year to honor the graduating seniors, was held on June 1st. Highlighting the occasion were the Senior Walk, the Class History presented by Tammy Suss and Alan Mlodzienski, the Class Will by Jill Hunter and Mark Donati and the Class Prophecy by Helen Lesavage and Eugene Kuchinski. Tammy Semian, Senior Class President, was mistress of ceremonies for the

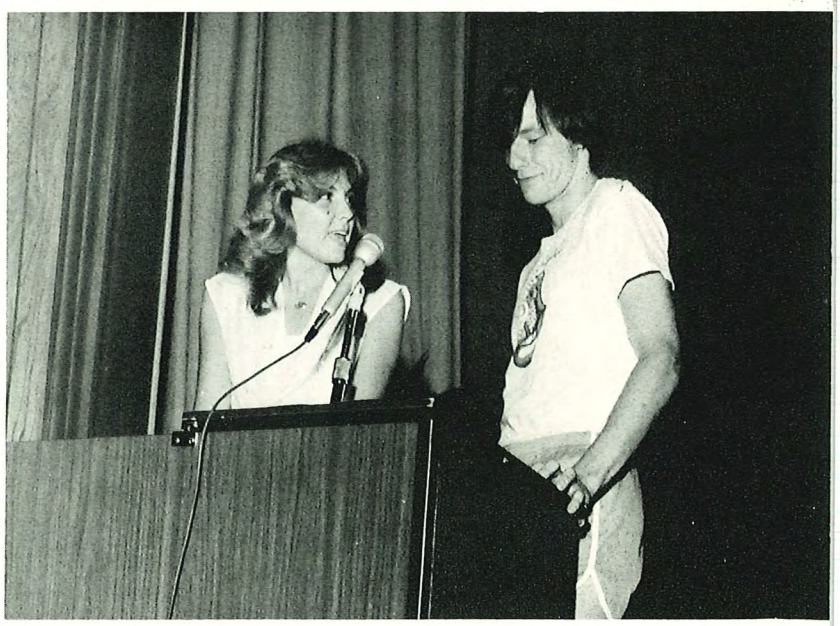

ACTIVITIES

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night finally arrived, and for the seniors, graduation was just around the corner. They laughed together for one of the last times as the "Ditty Committee" delivered a little poem about each and every member of the class. The night was topped off with a special song "And So This Is Class Night." Though the years may fade many other memories of Riverside, Class Night will surely live on as a night filled with gaiety for the Class of 1980.

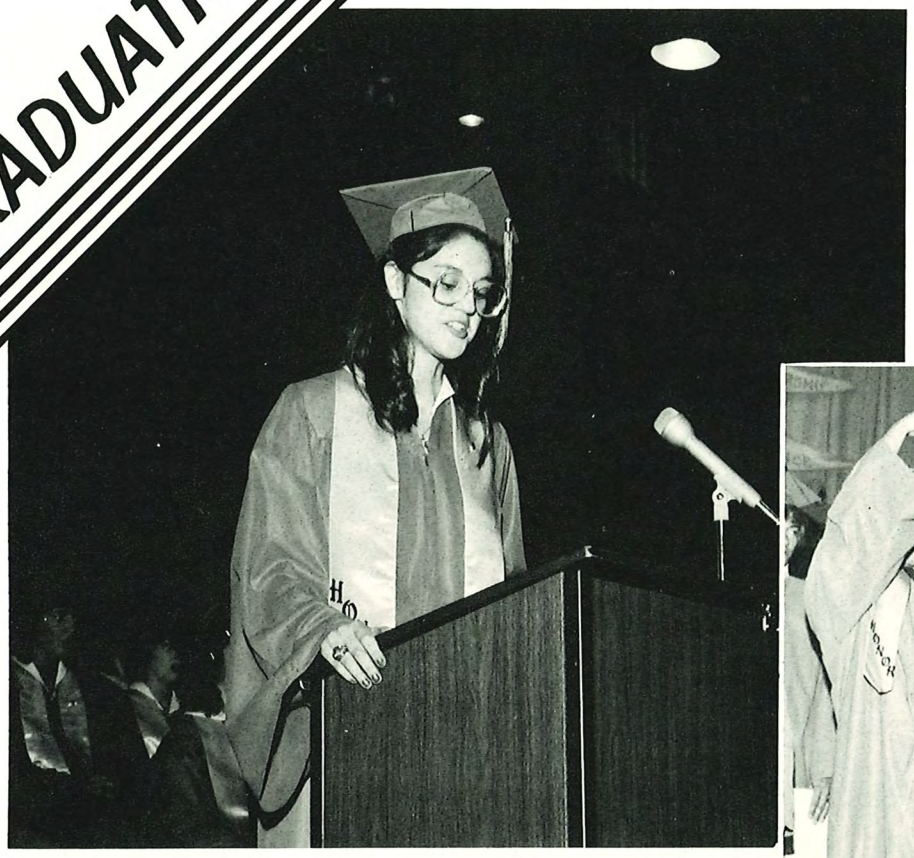

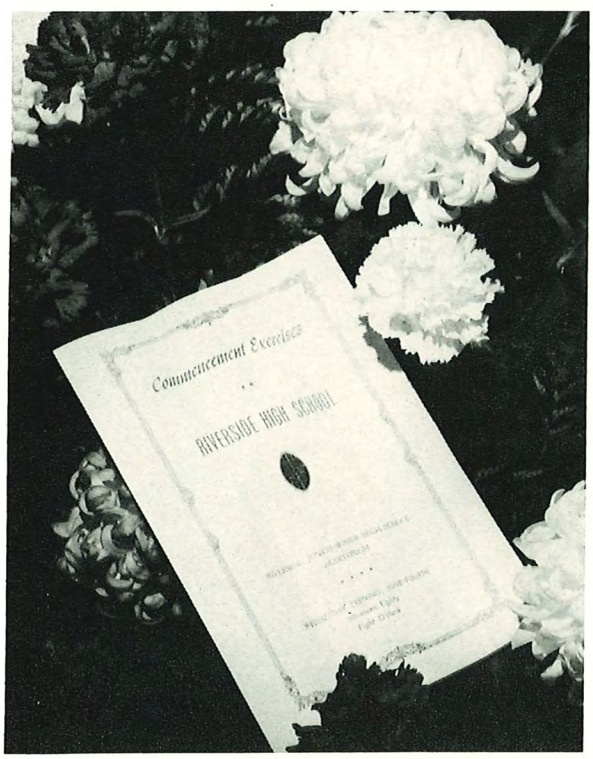

ACTIVITIES

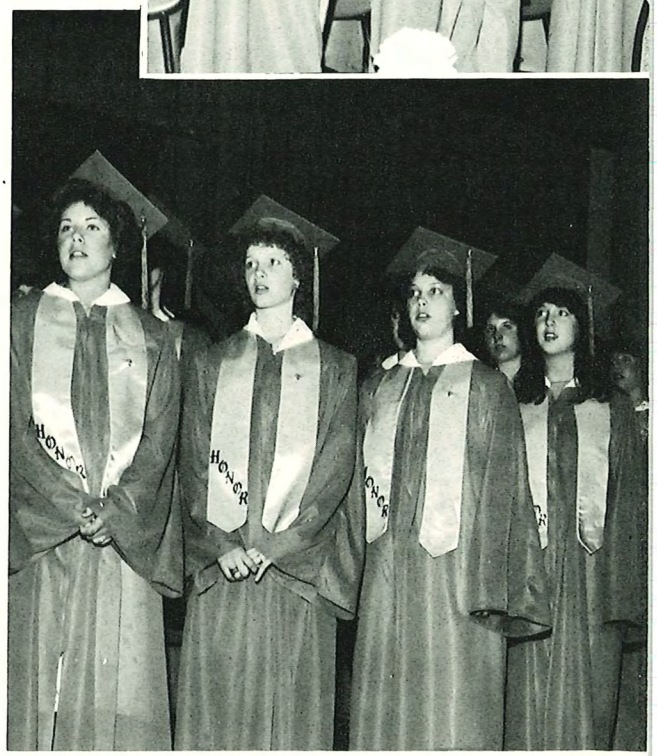

GRADUATION

Commencement exercises were held for the Class of 1980 on June 4th in our high school auditorium. Parents, relatives and friends gathered to watch the graduates end their high school careers. The honored guest speaker, Dr. John Stephens, complimented the achievements of many members of the class. Honored as Valedictorian was Karen Harrison, Salutatorian Sharon Getts, followed by David

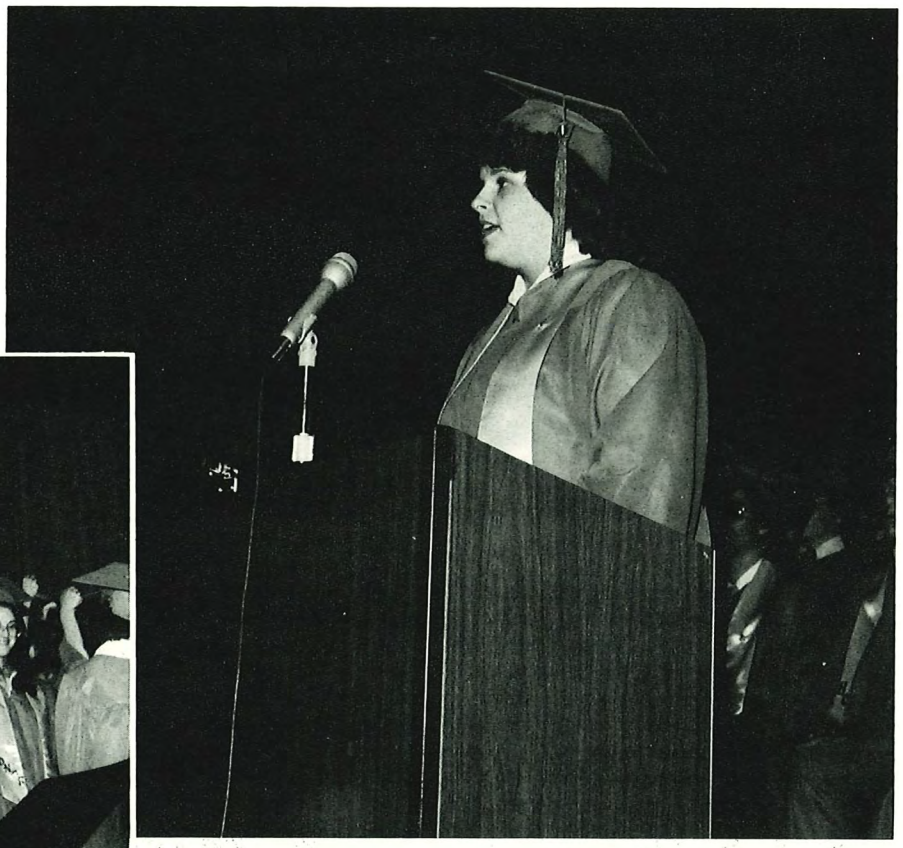

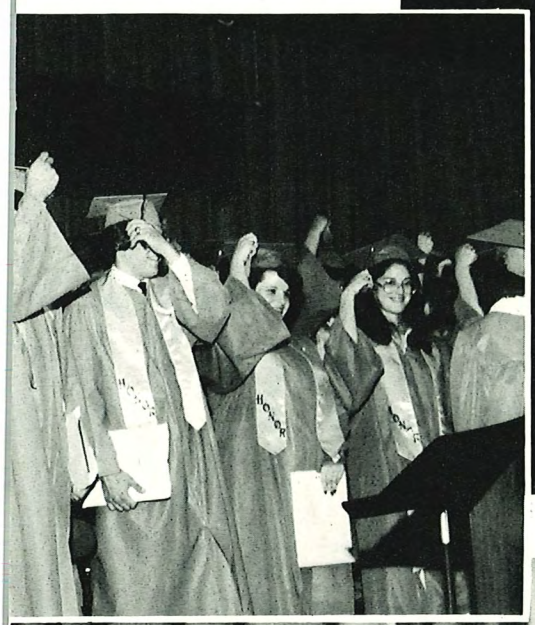

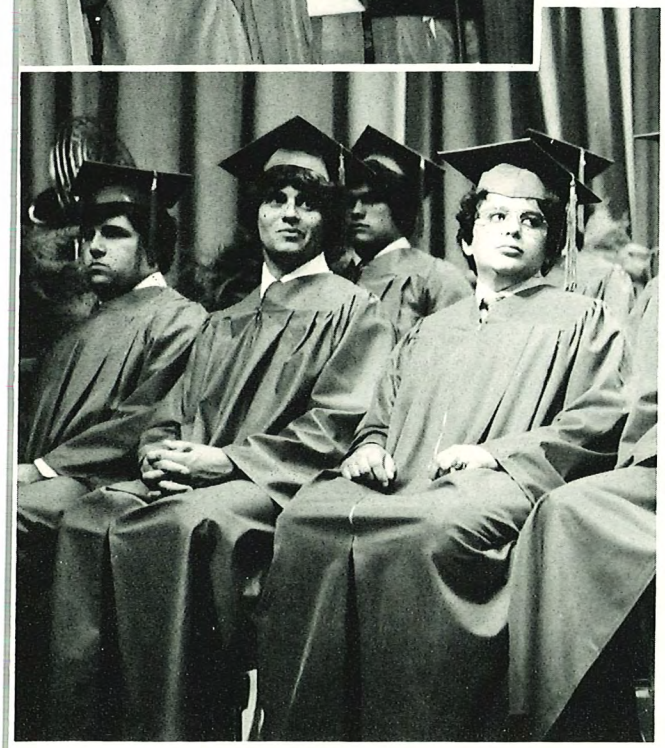

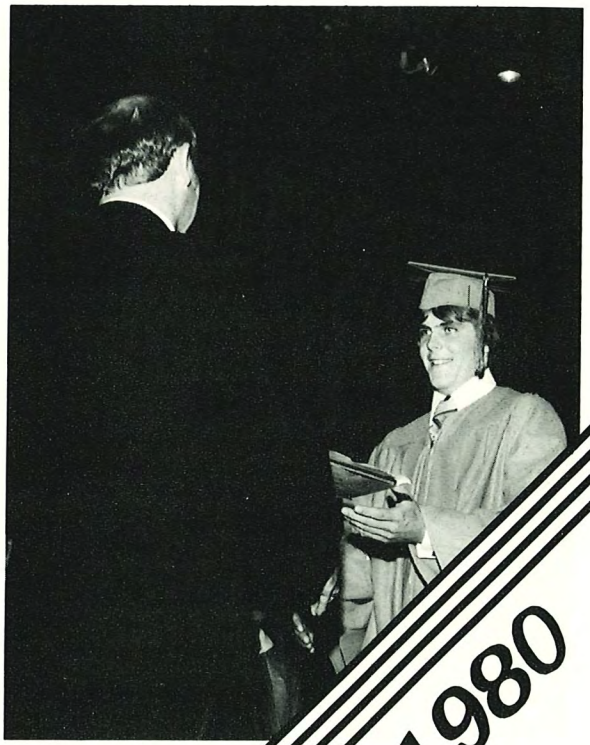

Saravitz with Third Honors and Doreen Krypel with Fourth Honors. Each gave an interpretation of the "ME GENERATION."

The highlight of the evening came when Mr. Stanley Olexy, president of the School Board, presented each graduate his diploma. As the graduates sang their Alma Mater for one last time, they marched off the stage into a world for which they had long prepared.

GRADUATION!

CLASS PROPHECY

WRHS 1999

Good Afternoon and welcome to WRHS News.

I'm Helen Lesavage.

And I'm Gene Kuchinski.

Here is the news for June 2, 1999.

Helen: On the international scene today President Keith Gatto called on the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the Armed Forces. Wally Lynch, Secretary of Defense, appointed Robert Cudworth, Joseph Guzzi, Brian Heffernan and Timothy Healey to develop a plan of action to free the hostages who have been held captive in Iran for 7665 days.

Gene: This is the third day Bob Orloski is in space. He is being monitored by Karen Harrison, Tammy Suss and Chris Amieka at NASA.

Helen: Dr. James Keppick made history today. He was the first doctor to successfully perform delicate brain surgery on Mike Holland who was injured while playing football for Drake University.

Gene: June third there is an art exhibit at the Louvrein Paris, France featuring the works of Tom Scalese, John and Dawn Powell, Mike Mizwinski and Cheryl Emily.

Helen: Famous model Katheryn Auriemma booked a flight on Mary McGrail Airways to appear in the Viking, Ed Keppick's new magazine. She is advertising the new Nancy Zaleski line for summer. Illustrations are by Paula Rafalko and Gloria Mickavitz Photo.

Gene: Margaret Lavelle, a comedian at the Funny Face in Florida, created a hilarious experience for all and Michael DeVergilius is still having fun.

Helen: Scott Odgers, New York's famous taxi driver, was in a serious auto accident today and noted physical therapist, Dr. Candy Christian, was called in to handle the case.

Gene: On the national scene, Diane Chuff, a geologist, discovered a rare stone in the backyard of Ann McGraw, a wife and mother of four. She had the stone appraised by Jill Hunter where she is co-owner with Bonnie Hunter at Hunter and Hunter Jewels.

Patricia Richards, a well known GOSSIP columnist who supposedly exposed the love affair of Phil Krenitsky, Pro Basketball Player, and Maria Barry, a speech pathologist, was charged with a libel suit. When asked about charges a smile swept across her face and she uttered, "It must have been a misunderstanding between myself and my star reporter Donna Borent."

Helen: Joanne Cicon and Susan Bouselli found out today that the problem of improper medication stems back to Margy Loftus' Pharmacy. It appears that a liquified form of Ben Gay was being administered for sinus problems. Mary Ann Price, Mike Rusnak, Kevin Casey and Eric Watkins of the Intelligence Unit of the Armed Forces cracked the case and cleared the minds of many people. Investigating is Police Chief Kathy Maloney.

Gene: Dr. Suzanne Murray took off Wednesday — as usual — to play golf at Joe Checho's and Andy Derenick's Golf Course. She was very disturbed to find Carl Tugend cutting down the trees on the course. In a fit of rage she called the chairman of "Save the Trees," Dr. David Saravitz, a well known Botanist. Michelle Sepelyak wrote a song "Save the Trees" which added to the campaign.

Helen: David Webb, an attendant at Kim Phillip's Garage, discovered today that he could be relieved of the agony of painful corns and callouses after purchasing a magazine at Chludzienski's News Stand. This major breakthrough in modern medicine was made possible by Dr. Steve Tanis.

Helen: Also, Dr. Mark Donati, a dentist, and Dr. Alan Mlodzienski, a foot doctor, are considering going into business together. Their goal — to teach people to walk and chew gum at the same time. They will be assisted by Marianne Wescott and Bridget Bakaysa.

Gene: ANOTHER BRANCH MUST BE OPENED is the campaign of parents of pre-school age children. Linda Frutchey and Elaine Ozack, two child care professors at a community college feel that the one and only Child Care Center in town is too crowded for the proper developmental skills to be taught there. Therefore, Cheri Mustich started plans for the new center where she will be director.

Helen: Cindy Fadden and Jackie Theis cut the ribbon today at the Grand Opening of Norma Kilvitis' Speech Therapy Center. Michelle Navich, a teacher, exclaimed, "Now with the additional funds of the center we can afford the services of the well renowned Dr. Kenneth Balkunas."

Gene: Joseph Gallagher has landed a job at Riverside High School to teach Graphic Arts to anyone who wants him to.

Helen: Al Holly and Mark Sylvester, Deans at the Riverside School of Technology, announced today that there will be a job opening in the electrical shop. They sadly accepted the resignation of Patrick Quinn, the former teacher who is now going into business with Bob Reed, an area electrician.

Gene: A forest fire today almost destroyed the business of Joe Rinkunas but Joseph Symuleski piloted Mike Kapushinski, John Kuchinski and Chuck Molinaro to the scene of the fire and it was quickly extinguished.

District foresters Brad Nash, John Nawrocki and Lori Bracey are being called in to determine the cause of the fire.

Helen: On the local scene there has been a rash of crimes lately. Detectives David Ostrowski, Marguerite Colucci and Cathy Stevens have been sent in to investigate.

Gene: Jerry Baldauff and Jon Baptist were brought in to the hospital from heat prostration after working on the roof of Kim Webb Toiletries. Debbie Nicolais, Paula Hamorski, Janet Best and Elly Yurtin were brought in to handle the case. Fortunately, Jerry and Jon survived and Tammy Semian's business lost again.

Helen: Joseph Bieber was hurt while painting the Joyce Dakun/Marlene Zurek Inc. Building. He was rushed to State General Hospital where he was treated by head nurse Deanna Regletic. He will need care round the clock. Laurie Aldrich, Michelle Mashurak and Barbara Kapacs will be his aids. When asked the cause of his accident Mr. Bieber said the Builders improperly constructed the scaffold he was standing on. In the future he will only do business with the Ray Kempa and Mark Chudley Builders who are represented by Attorney Iacovazzi.

Gene: Riverside's own "Fiddler on the Roof" made its Broadway opening this week but too bad Lori Juba, the fiddler, and Marlin Petro, the dancer, were the only ones to make it. Lori made a SMASHING hit. In the middle of the second act she slipped off the shingles and made a climactic fall on to the stage. The emergency unit at New York State General, John Smith, Roxanne Seliga, Susan Balister and Lori Jones worked feverishly on the fiddle strings — Lori cried.

Helen: Bob Kozy, a mailman trying to get the mail delivered faster, bought a bike from Jeff Lewis' Bike Shop. Lisa Wagner, head anesthesiologist, praised the mailman on the early delivery of her sizeable check. She then skipped to Carl Pollard's bank window to cash the check sent to her from millionaire James White. He exclaimed, "A job well done," after successfully treating him during his operation at State General.

Gene: Janet Orzel was given a job at Riverside High School to plan the meals for the school year. When asked how she felt she replied, "It's a challenge but I think I can do it."

Helen: Joe Zielinski opened his newly made closet today only to find Frank Adams studying the stars through the moon roof. Standing by was Sharon Getts, psychologist, who tried her best to answer the question "why?"

Gene: Justine Williams and David Siminski are starting lessons at Disco Paradise.
Ron Geise and Randy Shotwell are starting a local band called the Rolling Pebbles.

Helen: Lynn Paff, new owner of Turkey Hill, was audited by Teresa Laniewski and Lynn was forced to employ a new business manager, Bernice Van Louvender, to stabilize the business.

Gene: Vince Kuchinski surveyed the land near KBC Electronics where Michael Kohanski, Bruce Besack and Anthony Conforti are co-owners. The land, which was in question before as to its value was assessed today and William Jones Real Estate will open it for sale tomorrow.

Helen: Cheryl Chuprun, an accountant for Denise Sassi's and Judy Kreyer's Roller Disco, enrolled in classes at the Doreen Krypel School of Business. She really didn't like skating anyway.

Gene: Yesterday Trina Walters, Susan Kaetzel, Karen Kakareka, Cheryl Millan, Sandra Miller and Antoinette Olecki walked out because of unfair price wages for secretaries at the business of Pat Hannon and Judy Hinkley Inc.

Helen: Dave "Dice" Price opened a casino on Main Street in Taylor last Wednesday. He was quoted at saying, "I'll get 'em all back."

Gene: Kenny Getts, Gary Puckett and James Walsh opened up a Body Shop on Main Street. Their business will be put to the test with competitor MPN Auto Parts. Scott Moult, Jerry Puckett and Thomas Nagle won't give up business easily.

Helen: Patricia Schuster received her license to open up an animal care center where Linda Srebro will be head of management.
Marie Osmolia, Robin Coleman, Chris Halko and Ellen Gregorczyk are getting into people's hair — at the new Golden Comb.

Gene: Thomas Pattison won the Las Vegas Open last week by bowling a perfect 300 game. It was his first appearance on the Pro Bowlers Tour. He will now retire.

Helen: Troy Hardy, working diligently on the wall on front of the Cathy Sweeney Business Associates, couldn't understand why Laura Stanton kept picking up his bricks and hurling them into mid air. When asked why she was performing this strange act she replied, "I'm only practicing for position of pitcher of the Mets managed by Fred Maikranz."

Gene: Today Mark Mattiolli opened Meatballs, a new pizza parlor in Taylor. His brother, Tony Mattiolli, is head waiter. Mark, in an attempt to make Meatballs the best ever, flew Dave Kleback, world famous pizza maker in from Italy where he trained at the Continental Cooking School. Also, in his employ is Steve Nehme who should get things off to a flying start. AND that's the way it is June 2, 1999, the 6935 day since graduation for the Class of 1980.

CLASS HISTORY

SCENE: Alan is running down the street and bumps into Tammy.

TAMMY: Hey! Watch where you're going. Who do you think you are anyway?

ALAN: I know who I am, but aren't you Mary Ann Price from the Riverside Class of '80?

TAMMY: No. I'm Tammy Suss. Aren't you Alan Moles — Moldzer — Mojen —

ALAN: That's Mlodzienski!

TAMMY: Whatever. Now I remember; didn't they start calling you Chet in seventh grade?

ALAN: Remember those first days in seventh grade?

TAMMY: How could I ever forget, getting lost in the halls, trying to remember locker combinations and NO recess.

ALAN: But we did have gym class, and basketballs weren't the only things bouncing off the walls with Mr. Kreseski around.

TAMMY: The Mattiolis were kept busy trying to keep erasers, garbage cans and desks from bouncing off them in Mr. Armillay's class.

ALAN: And who can forget Mrs. Cole's class? Ma sure was brave staying in that room with all us kids wielding scalpels.

TAMMY: Yea, I think those scalpels are what cut our class apart in eighth grade.

ALAN: That's when the cliques started to click.

TAMMY: You mean like the "Fearsome Foursome" and the "Jocks"?

ALAN: That wasn't the only battle going on — school started late that year because of the strike.

TAMMY: But our Freshman year got off to an early start with our first fund raising project.

ALAN: Mr. Hapstak told us we had better get popping selling that corn or else. Our second project was even better.

TAMMY: ONLY Seniors have dances, Juniors MIGHT have one, but Freshmen DON'T have dances.

ALAN: But WE did. We were the first and last Freshman class to have a dance, with our own Randy Shotwell and Dave Webb and their band Thunder.

TAMMY: In fact, the Seniors invited them back for an encore performance and the band was so hot.

ALAN: How hot were they?

TAMMY: They were so hot that the hose company had to come around and cool things off.

ALAN: But no one could ever cool off good ol' Mr. Butcher.

TAMMY: He was a real Powder Keg.

ALAN: When he talked, E. F. Hutton listened!!

TAMMY: And the Freshman Basketball team usually listened to new coach Mr. MacArt.

ALAN: But when they didn't listen, he couldn't get TOO much gray hair.

TAMMY: Speaking of hair, wasn't that the year that Herr Hordich played Uberman and jumped off a ladder breaking his arm?

ALAN: So that's why we called him Lefty.

TAMMY: The next year, we moved to the left side of the cafeteria so we could be closer to Mrs. Herman's food.

ALAN: What can we say about Mrs. Herman's food that hasn't been said before?

TAMMY: Well, enough was said about Mr. Keating's essay tests. We really did a job on those.

ALAN: Huh, a real "Snow Job."

TAMMY: But he never gave Miss Sklaney the cold shoulder — the little "sneaker."

ALAN: That accelerated class did however. They even refused to take a test for her.

TAMMY: That was only because of a mix up in the bonfire schedule.

ALAN: Which bonfire? The one Old Forge gave us or our own?

TAMMY: The LAST one!

ALAN: Speaking of explosions, (pause) chemistry class was a blast.

TAMMY: Mr. Bugno said the experiment wouldn't explode no matter what the book said.

ALAN: Everything went up — except grades.

TAMMY: Mark Chudley summed it up best when he said, "Old chemists never die, they just fail to react."

ALAN: The entire student body reacted when all trips were cancelled in our Junior year.

TAMMY: But in an incredible display of unity, hundreds of students showed up at the following school board meeting and the decision was reversed.

ALAN: We sure reversed the tables on the Seniors when we became the first Juniors to win the hall decorating contest with our "Junior Jungle."

TAMMY: Did the administration ever find out where we got all those trees?

ALAN: If they did, they would never LEAVE us alone.

TAMMY: No one could ever leave a girl's basketball game.

ALAN: Yeah, they were district champs under first year coach Tom Naegli. They sure knew how to work the fast break.

TAMMY: Well, the track team could never be accused of being fast.

ALAN: The coaches left in a hurry though. We were on our third set in three years.

TAMMY: But the weightlifting coach always kept his dumbbells in order!

ALAN: The team was pumped up that spring.

TAMMY: The prom really lifted everybody's spirits.

ALAN: Except poor Sue Murray who spent her evening visiting me in the hospital.

TAMMY: Things picked up when we finally became Seniors, and got all those long awaited Senior Privileges.

ALAN: What were they anyway?

TAMMY: There was sitting on the benches at lunchtime and there was ahhh . . . there was ahhh . . .

ALAN: Tammy, there was nothing else.

TAMMY: Our football team was something else.

ALAN: A few tough breaks and they were on a six game losing streak.

TAMMY: I heard that wasn't the only streak they ran!

ALAN: The team was led by Kunas, Fred and Elmer, their three big men.

TAMMY: Maybe that's why their helmets were too small.

ALAN: Speaking of small, the band was so small they had to look up to drum majorette Justine Williams.

TAMMY: But everyone looked up to the team when they upset Valley View on Homecoming.

ALAN: Maria Barry wasn't upset. She was crowned Homecoming Queen.

TAMMY: And the Homecoming dance that almost wasn't, was a huge success. Things were really jumping.

ALAN: Bunny Teresa Laniewski really got things hopping for Spirit Week.

TAMMY: Boy, she always clowned around.

ALAN: It was about that time that a disease went around the naive female underclassmen.

TAMMY: The dreaded "Dever Fever." Some of those poor girls got a double dose.
ALAN: You mean "Wally's Dollies"? Not even Mrs. Cudo's cough drops could help them.
TAMMY: But she was pretty busy after the Seniors' movie tributes to black actors.
ALAN: We never did figure out why they called it Sounder.
TAMMY: But everyone enjoyed Powerplay, even though they didn't see EXACTLY what they paid for.
ALAN: The kids ALMOST got to hear some more good music from the Rolling Stones.
TAMMY: Things really got rolling around Christmas time.
ALAN: The holiday season brought good tidings to all.
TAMMY: Except Sharon Getts, she was left speechless at the Honor Society induction.
ALAN: Mr. Rusincovitch was also left speechless when he saw the size of the Christmas tree.
TAMMY: Christmas tree prices weren't the only things going through the roof that year.
ALAN: Price? You mean you're supposed to pay for them?
TAMMY: Chuckie, Iaco and Quinny could have charged admission to their film of the janitors putting up the tree.
ALAN: After we returned from Christmas vacation, we found a gifted basketball team walking around in stockings.
TAMMY: Colluch led the girl's team to three games shy of a state championship.
ALAN: Well, I guess none of the Riverside girls ever did "go all the way."
TAMMY: But what happened to the boy's team?
ALAN: Give them a break. They were champions all the other years; they just ran out of steam.
TAMMY: The entire school was steamed up when the rains came.
ALAN: And when it rained, it poured.
TAMMY: INSIDE and out.
ALAN: Channel 16 had live coverage of the first annual Riverside Swim Meet.
TAMMY: For weeks, kids were throwing coins in the pails to make a wish.
ALAN: Well — it worked; no one kicked the bucket.
TAMMY: Jon was baptizing people with the "holy" water.
ALAN: AH, you're such a drip. Let's just skip this.
TAMMY: Skip? What about Senior Skip Day?
ALAN: What Senior Skip Day?
TAMMY: There was a rumor going around that there were 80 days left until graduation. But, as Mr. Rusincovitch said, "If you don't know about it, don't worry about it; but those of you who know about it will know what I'm talking about"!
ALAN: When he talked, we could tell he was a geometry teacher because he always went off on tangents.
TAMMY: Soon, the Spanish Club finally took off for Spain. Everyone had a great time sightseeing.
ALAN: Except Michelle Navich, she spent the entire trip washing fruit.
TAMMY: Ramon had a run-in with the police.
ALAN: And Debbie Nicholais kept running into those monks with the black robes.
TAMMY: Speaking of monks, the German Club really went bananas when they got to Deutschland.
ALAN: Lori Bracey turned disco; Jackie Theis danced on tables; and Tom Scalese lost more than his balance at the bank.
TAMMY: Everyone brought home lots of souvenirs. Kathy Auriemma even brought home a black eye.
ALAN: A few weeks later, the bowling team brought home a nice first place trophy.
TAMMY: One of the team's hottest bowlers, impressionist Jerry Baldork.
ALAN: Tammy, that's Baldauff.
TAMMY: Whatever. Anyway, he should have listened to his mother when she told him not to play with matches.
ALAN: Sparks were flying at "Fiddler on the Roof" practice.
TAMMY: Bob Cudworth did such an explosive job that even the police and firemen came to watch him.
ALAN: I wonder how Helen got to practice with the "Blue Bomb."
TAMMY: But despite all the setbacks, the play was far from a bomb.
ALAN: Thanks to Lori Juba's fiddling.
TAMMY: Bruce and Paula had a good time fiddling around at the prom.
ALAN: It was a good thing the Juniors had enough money to give us such a nice evening.
TAMMY: Yes, because some of the guys had a tight Budget.
ALAN: When Annie McGraw was crowned Queen, she and her court danced to the theme "Precious and Few."
TAMMY: After that, there were only a few precious moments left in our Senior year.
ALAN: Yeah but we spent most of them working.
TAMMY: Miss Caswell really worked hard at graduation practice.
ALAN: Someone should have practiced counting to 180 so he could tell us when we were supposed to graduate.
TAMMY: What can we say about the administration that hasn't been said before?
ALAN: How about something good? (PAUSE)
BOTH: Naaa!
ALAN: But we did like Mr. Kryzanowski's announcements.
TAMMY: Do you remember the time the intercom system wasn't working in all the rooms?
ALAN: Yes. Mr. Kryzanowski said "If you didn't hear this announcement please send your room number to the office."
TAMMY: Yes, I'll never forget that one.
ALAN: And most of us will never forget Class Night.
TAMMY: The "Ditty Committee" really did a super job. Everyone got a great gift.
ALAN: But none were as great as Dave Kleback's standing ovation.
TAMMY: You know, our whole class deserved a standing ovation. As Lynyrd Skynyrd said in his song "Freebird," "If we leave here tomorrow, things just would not be the same."
ALAN: Because Riverside is losing its "Class of 1980"!
TAMMY: Wait a minute! Didn't we do the Class History together on Class Day?
ALAN: Yeah. I guess it's true what they say.
TAMMY: What??
ALAN: History repeats itself. I gotta run.
TAMMY: You better.
