ALMA MATER

Hail, Hail to thee, Our Alma Mater dear,
With praise and love, your honor we revere,
And when the day, our life pathways shall part
Still, still by thee, united one in heart.

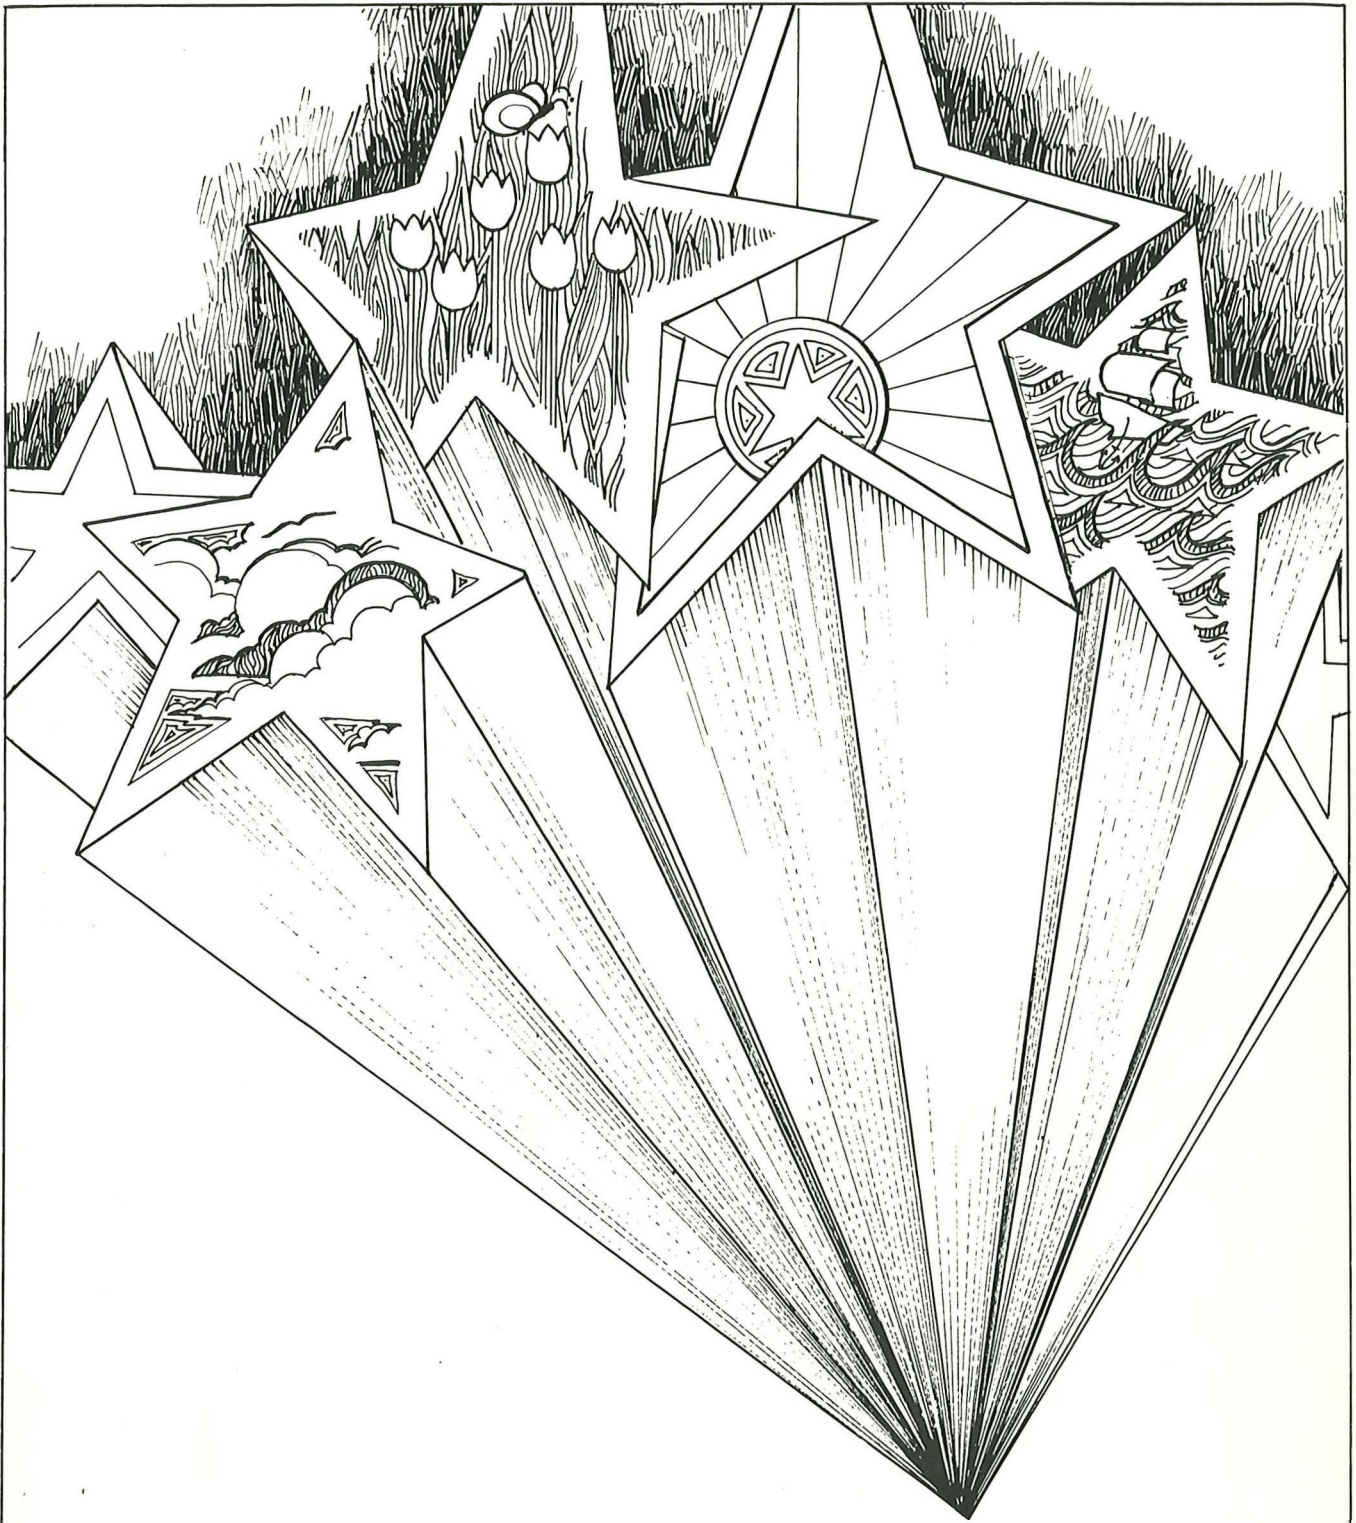

With lofty voice, we sing along the way,
Dear Alma Mater, prosper day by day,
Waving on high, your colors red and blue,
Our grateful hearts to you will e'er be true.

TEACHERS' MARCHING SONG
(with apologies to the Men of Harlech)

Teachers bear the rod of wisdom,
Masters in a little kingdom
"Subjects" bow in awe before us.
Knowledge stands enthroned.
Underpaid, but ever striving,
Eyes a-twinkling, hands contriving,
Holding high the torch of learning,
Till the end of time.
Hear this peroration:
"Johnny, spell persuasion;
Add, subtract and multiply;
Remember, now, the rules of composition."
Repetition: endless, thankless;
Seldom wait to hear a word of kindness,
Our reward awaits in heaven
Teachers are divine.

Dedication

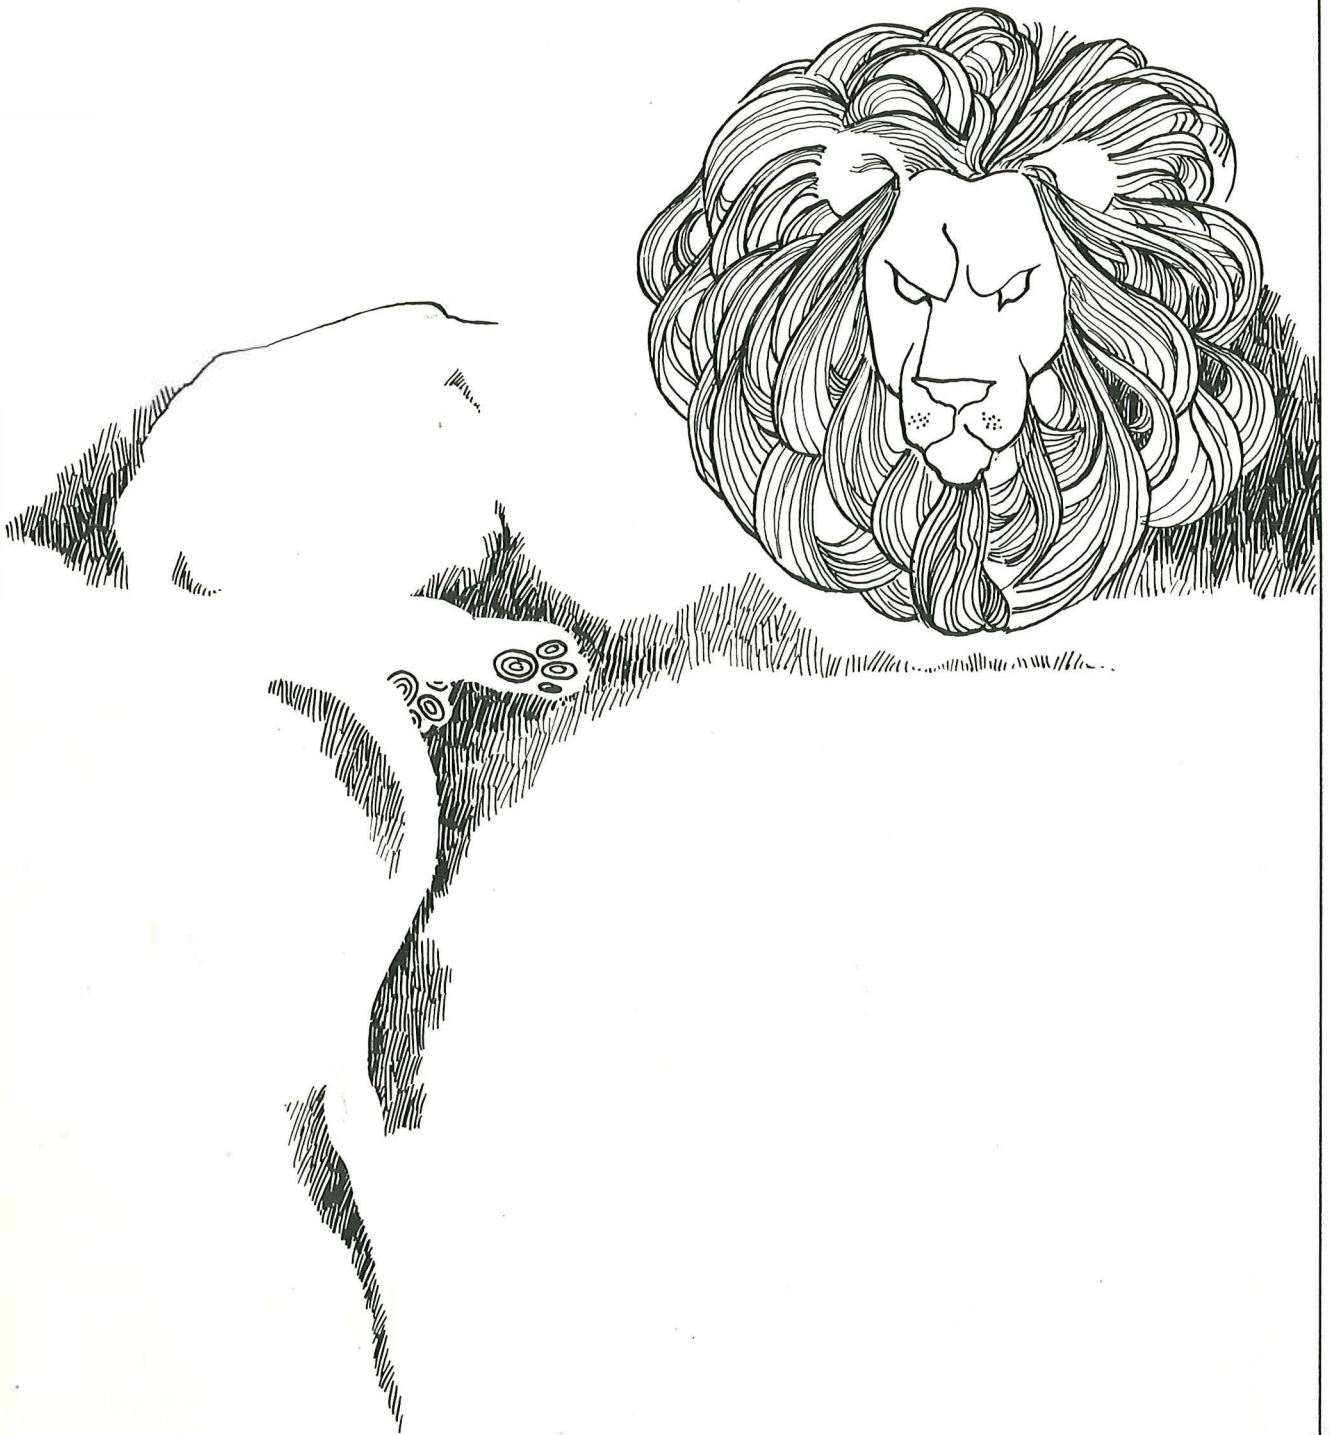

Prof. Melville I. Davis

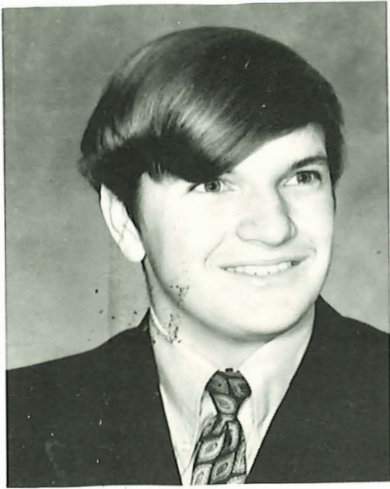

A very wise man once said that no man can reveal to us anything but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of our own minds. He went even further to say that the real teacher does not give us of his wisdom, but rather gives us of his faith and lovingness so that he does not bid us enter his house of wisdom, but instead leads us to the threshold of our own minds.

These words remind us of our Supervising Principal, Mr. Melville I. Davis, who left Riverside with us in June, 1971. In his capacity as administrator of our schools, Mr. Davis has led us to the place in our lives where we must rely on our own minds. He has led us to the threshold, but it is we who must enter the world of more responsible thinking and doing. Through his kind acceptance of us as young people who are not yet aware of the abilities that lie within us, Mr. Davis has given us an awareness of what life can hold for us. He has exemplified tradition in its highest sense by his dignity, his kindness, and his skill in saying the right words at the right times. Through him we have learned that to be a teacher a person often must give of himself without expecting or receiving known rewards.

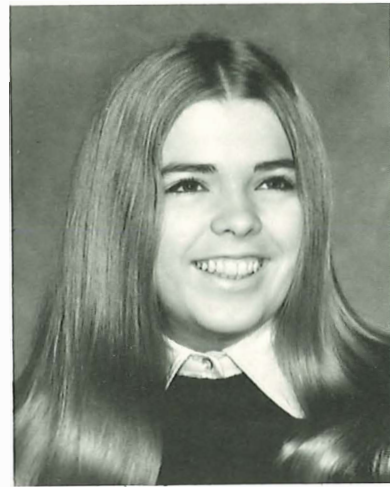

For years Mr. Davis has dedicated his life and himself to his students in the classroom and, more recently, to all students in our school district. In return, we, his last Senior Class at Riverside High School, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Melville Davis, Supervising Principal, teacher, and friend.
