

Morgan Stengel '05
Executive Vice President – Giarratana
Nashville, TN

Morgan Stengel serves as executive vice president for Giarratana, where her responsibilities include leading the development and execution of Giarratana projects. Giarratana specializes in urban high-rise multifamily development in downtown Nashville. She brings 15 years of experience in real estate, with previous roles at Wood Partners, Mesa Capital Partners, and JLL.

Morgan graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she majored in Business Administration and was team captain for the varsity cross-country and track teams. When not working, she can be found running or in the mountains, joined by her Scottish Terrier and Rhodesian Ridgeback.
