Madeira Seniors Sign to Play On

Four standout senior athletes in the Madeira High School (MHS) Class of 2025 have or will sign letters of intent to compete in collegiate athletics after graduation

Aidan Hopewell will attend Marian University and play football. Last fall at MHS Aidan was named 1st team All-CHL, 1st team ALL SW District, and All-Ohio. His senior year he had 155 catches and ran 2254 yards.

Anna Cornejo was a member of the Madeira Amazon state winning soccer team and will continue her soccer career at George Washington University. Her senior year at Madeira she was CHL Athlete of the Year, SW District Player of the Year, All-Ohio Player of the Year, Great Lakes All-Region, All-American, Career Assist Leader (55), and Career Goal Leader (93)

Corinne Westbrook was also a member of the Madeira Amazon state winning soccer team and will continue playing soccer at West Liberty University. "When I was given the opportunity to play at the next level at a college that also met all of my academic needs, I was super excited and decided to take the chance," she stated. In the fall of 2024 she was named CHL 1st Team, All-District, All-Ohio, and Great Lakes All-Region.

MHS senior Garan Smith is beginning her senior year of softball at Madeira. On May 13 she will sign a letter of intent to continue her education and her softball career at Hocking College.
