a) The week of March 3rd we celebrated Read Across America week. Students and staff celebrated their love for reading with a spirit week. In addition, we had Mrs. Finn and the National Honor Society students stop by to read to our elementary students. Thank you to Mrs. Finn and our NHS students.

- b) A special thanks to our PTO parents and volunteers who hosted "A Red Carpet Night Out" for our ALES little ladies and their dates. It was a fun night had by all.
 - c) We are in the thick of "March Book Madness" hosted by 2nd grade teacher, Mrs. Zimbardi. This month we are matching up some of our favorite books and voting on the best. We will celebrate the winning book with a celebration ceremony at the end of the month.

A big thanks to Ms. Pryor, Mrs. Finn, CA BOCES and Revolution Languages for making this possible!
 - i) Our 6th Grade Gators won the first-ever SWAMP SHOWDOWN. This is a competition among middle school grades for best attendance, best grade point average, and least number of discipline referrals. Their reward was a self-selected afternoon full of fun games! It was a great way to celebrate their hard work.
 - j) Congratulations to Ms. Merrill and her band students on her first middle-high school performance! The students did a wonderful job under her direction. This Thursday is the middle-high school chorus concert.
