Student Services Words of Wellness

Your words carry weight. Use them to lift others up, not tear them down. A compliment. A "thank you." A "you got this." Kind words are free—but they're priceless to someone who needs them.

Today, We Learn

On Thursday, many Jewish and non-Jewish people will observe a day of solemn remembrance called Yom Ha Shoah, or Holocaust Remembrance Day. This week, we will learn a little about the Holocaust, and how hate and prejudice led to the murder of over six million Jews in Europe during world war two. It's a difficult topic, but an important one as we remember the past and reflect on the Holocaust Day of Remembrance, Yom Ha Shoah.

Campus Reminders

When you arrive on campus, please stay on campus until your last class of the day. This applies to all students with no exceptions. We have a closed campus. If you have any questions, ask a student services team member.
