SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Located in Lexington, Virginia, Rockbridge County High School is a comprehensive public high school that serves all students in Rockbridge County and in the City of Lexington. Rockbridge County, in the rural Shenandoah Valley, is home to Washington and Lee University and the Virginia Military Institute. Southern Virginia University is located in the neighboring city of Buena Vista. The school prides itself on its diverse and challenging curriculum, its highly qualified teachers, and on its state-of-the-art equipment and facilities. The RCHS campus also houses the Floyd S. Kay Technical center, which provides a diverse curriculum of Career and Technical Education Courses.

CURRICULUM

Rockbridge County High School is proud to offer a curriculum of over 100 different courses that are designed to prepare students for the finest colleges and universities, for the highly technical workplace of the 21st century, or for post-secondary technical training. RCHS is organized on a seven period school day. A maximum load (excluding marching band) is seven credits per year.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

College Courses at Area Colleges: Many students take advantage of the unique opportunity to take college courses at local colleges, primarily at Washington and Lee University and Mountain Gateway Community College.

Independent Study: An independent study program enables students to pursue, for pass/fail credit, projects above and beyond the regular curriculum offered under the guidance and supervision of a faculty member or other mentor. All projects are approved and evaluated by a committee, and a colloquium presentation is required at the end of the semester.

Special Education Services: Special Education services are provided to identified students, based on the student's need. Services can range from full inclusion, which provides access to the general education curriculum, to more restrictive options as determined by need.

High Quality Work-Based Learning: provides students the opportunity to experience a structured work based experience in one of the following categories: job shadowing, service learning, mentorship, externship, school-based enterprise, internship, entrepreneurship, clinical experience, cooperative education.

Declaration of Non-Discrimination: Rockbridge County Schools offer all programs and activities free from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability or gender. Grievance procedures for any forms of discrimination are published in the Rockbridge County Policy Manual located in the public library, in each school and the school board office, as well as online at http://www.rockbridge.k12.va.us/RCS_Policy/. Specific complaints under Title IX should be sent to the Assistant Superintendent; Section 504 complaints regarding discrimination should be sent to the Director of Special Education; all other discrimination complaints should be sent to the Superintendent. These persons may be reached at the Rockbridge County Schools Administrative Offices, 2893 Collierstown Road, Lexington, VA 24450, or by calling (540) 463-7386.
