

High School ELA Academic Vocabulary

Grades 9 and 10	Grades 11 and 12
 accuracy ad hominem analysis analyze annotating argument audience author's structure bandwagon central question circular reasoning cite claim context clues counterclaim credibility deductive fallacy domain-specific either/or reasoning evidence explicit citation false testimony inference inferential citation informative inquiry interpret objective objective summary paraphrasing plagiarism purpose reliability rereading rhetoric seminal summarizing synthesize task textual evidence validity 	 accuracy analysis analyze annotating argument audience author's structure authoritative sources central question cite claim constitutional principle contested context context clues counterclaim credibility credible source deductive reasoning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ syllogism delineate emphasis evaluate evidence explicit citation exposition foundational U.S. texts inductive reasoning inference informative inquiry integrate legal reasoning medium nonverbal communication nuance objective objective summary paraphrasing plagiarism premises public advocacy purpose refine reliability rereading rhetoric seminal U.S. texts

High School ELA Academic Vocabulary

Grades 9 and 10	Grades 11 and 12
	sequence standard English summarizing synthesize task technical vocabulary textual evidence validity