Kindness Is Our Standard

No mean words or hurtful actions are allowed in our school.

In a NO HATE ZONE, we DON'T

- Use mean words or names
- Make fun of how someone talks
- Make fun of someone for how they look
- We do not say things about others that could hurt their feelings

Mean words or hurtful names are used to hurt someone's feelings because of how they dress, the color of their skin, what their hair looks like or the language they speak. These names or words are not okay because they can make people feel sad, scared, or unwelcome.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

If you hear unkind or hurtful words, here's what you should do:

- Say, "We don't say that."
- Get help from a teacher or another adult.
- Check in with the person who was hurt to make sure they're okay.

Kindness can inspire others!

YOUR SCHOOL HAS RESPONSIBILITIES

Our school does not allow bullying or hate of any kind. If someone is bullying, or using mean hateful words or harmful angry actions, all teachers and adults will step in to stop it. An adult will help the person who was hurt, and help to make sure it doesn't happen again. All of us should feel safe and happy and treated with kindness here at school.

If you or someone you know is being bullied or has been called mean names or hurt by mean actions. Tell a teacher or any adult on campus.
