C Day

NEW INFORMATION

- Trumbull Library's 2nd Annual Community Volunteer Fair - Saturday, May 3, from 11:00am to 2:00pm. Whether you're earning school service hours, building your resume, or hoping to make a difference in your community, this event is the perfect place to start. Representatives from 20 local nonprofits will be on hand to share information about their work and connect with potential volunteers. It's a great way to explore a variety of causes—like food insecurity, education, animal care, healthcare, and more—all in one place. This year, 75% of participating organizations offer specific volunteer opportunities for students aged 14–19, with many also offering credit hours and even scholarship opportunities for college students. Please note: This is an informational event—you won't earn service hours just for attending, but you'll meet the people who can help you get started. No registration required. Stop in anytime between 11am and 2pm. Learn more here: <https://trumbull.libcal.com/event/14072972>
