Our Week in the Castle

An AMAZING opportunity for The Fairview Choir Department

On April 3rd, the students in the Fairview Choir Program were honored to work with Sāja, an American vocal quartet, who won a 2024 Grammy Award for its debut album. Sāja was in town for a performance in Denver. Our jazz choirs have performed several Sāja originals and have established a relationship with the group. We invited them to spend the morning at Fairview and they agreed! We had a wonderful time singing together and sharing music.

On Thursday, April 10, the Annual BVSD Unified Basketball Tournament was a celebration of community, inclusion, and heart. Our Knights excelled on the court, representing Fairview with pride and spirit. The event, hosted at Centaurus High School, featured special guest announcer Kyle Speller, the official PA voice of the Denver Nuggets, who brought energy and enthusiasm, giving our players the spotlight they deserved. Graduating seniors were recognized and celebrated before transitioning to the BVSD Transitions Program next year. Thank you to everyone who helped bring this event to life, reinforcing the power of inclusion both on and off the court.

Representative Joe Neguse Visited the Castle: Engaging Fairview 9th Graders in U.S. Government

It was a pleasure to host U.S. Representative Joe Neguse at Fairview on April 14. Representative Neguse, who serves Colorado's 2nd Congressional District, visited and addressed all 9th-grade students in the auditorium. He shared insights about his role in Congress and the work he is doing in Washington, followed by a Q&A session where students had the opportunity to engage and ask thoughtful questions. With all 9th graders currently studying U.S. Government, this visit provided a valuable, real-world connection to their coursework and the opportunity to hear directly from an elected official.

Recognizing our Knight's Excellence

Fairview High School Celebrates Creativity and Innovation at Annual IB Art Exhibition (Featuring National and Regional Award-Winning Student Artists)

Fairview High School proudly hosted its annual IB Art Exhibition, featuring the thought-provoking work of Standard Level (SL) and Higher Level (HL) IB Visual Art students. Among the artists was Grace Abboud, whose sustainably made dress earned a National Gold Medal at the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, blending fashion, environmental consciousness, and sculpture to challenge fast fashion. Isabel Kembel-Rodriguez's short animated film, winner of the Teen Filmmaker Category at the 2025 Boulder International Film Festival, explored family and loss with a unique visual language. The exhibition showcased diverse media—from painting and sculpture to installations and digital animation—focusing on personal themes like identity, transformation, memory, and nature. Each student curated their space and wrote a curatorial rationale, inviting viewers into their artistic process.

Honoring Our Everyday Heroes

George Corcoran: A Leader in Inclusive Physical Education

We would like to recognize George Corcoran (Physical Education teacher) for the exceptional work he did during the Unified Basketball Tournament on April 10, 2025.

George served as a thoughtful coach and leader, bringing enthusiasm, fairness, and kindness to every moment of the event. His ability to foster inclusive and respectful experiences for all students, including our peer tutors, is truly commendable.

George has had a lasting impact on both students with and without disabilities. He is a dedicated and engaging PE teacher, and our students look forward to his class every day. He has gone above and beyond to connect with our ILC students, accompanying them on bi-monthly bowling outings at CU and spending time with them outside of his teaching schedule.

Looking ahead, George is preparing to serve as a PE teacher for this summer's Extended School Year (ESY) program and is excited to explore new activities that best support students with disabilities. We are grateful for his continued commitment to creating an inclusive and joyful learning environment—Fairview is fortunate to have him.

In Class, But Marked Absent?

Attendance Corrections

If your student was marked absent but was in class, there's no need to call the attendance line. Simply have your student stop by the main office to pick up an Attendance Correction Slip or download one here. If a substitute marked the absence and has already left for the day, the student can speak with their regular teacher to correct the attendance for that period. Please note that updates—whether submitted by phone, email, doctor's note, or correction slip—may take 24 to 48 hours to reflect in Infinite Campus.
