

Wellness Policy Assessment Tool and Report Template

Background

Federal regulations at 7 CFR 210.31 require local education agencies (LEAs) participating in the National School Lunch Program to complete an assessment of their local school wellness policy at least once every three years and make the results available to the public. This triennial assessment must measure the implementation of the local school wellness policy and include:

- The extent to which schools under the jurisdiction of the LEA are in compliance with the local school wellness policy;
- The extent to which the LEA's local school wellness policy compares to model local school wellness policies; and
- A description of the progress made in attaining the goals of the local school wellness policy.

LEAs may use a variety of methods to assess compliance and determine progress of their goals and objectives. Action planning documents that contain timelines, goals, and key tasks may assist in assessing changes over time. For example, the School Health Index (SHI) from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is a comprehensive self-assessment tool that helps with action planning and recordkeeping (a shorter version of the SHI is available from Alliance for a Healthier Generation), and the WellSAT 3.0 is an online tool that indicates the strengths and weaknesses of your written policy.

Triennial Assessment Tool and Report Template

When completed in full, this form may serve as both a triennial assessment tool and public report to meet the requirements in federal regulations and prepare for the Administrative Review by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE), Division of Food and Nutrition. This document is intended to be completed using LEA-level information; however, the LEA may determine that a report from each school site, or alternatively, each school level (i.e., elementary, middle, high school) works better in assessing compliance and progress over time. For larger school districts, reporting on a district level may be challenging due to variation in sites' programs and progress in attaining wellness goals. If completing this report for the entire LEA, answer questions using the best available information and consider noting individual building variations or concerns in the "notes" sections.

In the left columns, indicate whether the listed goal or practice is included in your local school wellness policy. Bolded policy elements are required by federal regulation. When bolded items are not in the local policy, include an explanation. This tool uses the Pennsylvania School Boards Association's school wellness policy template (available on PDE's Local School Wellness Policy Information webpage) as the model wellness policy for comparison purposes, but it can be used regardless of the template used to develop your local policy.

In the right columns, indicate implementation of the goal or practice at schools within the LEA. LEAs are always encouraged to develop additional policy elements and goals for schools under their jurisdiction to create a supportive environment for student nutrition and physical activity.

Space is provided at the end of the form for the LEA to describe the progress made in attaining the goals of the local school wellness policy as required.

Notes on nutrition guidelines for foods and beverages at school:

The district provides healthy food and beverages at all school-sponsored events. The concession areas at sporting events feature their own variety of snacks and meals. We could reach out to the sporting event concessions to ensure they offer healthy options as well.

 At least one goal for these categories must be included in the written policy per federal regulations.

Report on the progress made in attaining the goals of the wellness policy (REQUIRED):

The district will engage in ongoing discussions throughout the school year to implement new menu items in school cafeterias. We will provide additional professional development opportunities focused on wellness education and healthy eating habits. The district aims to enhance collaboration with local organizations to expand opportunities for physical education courses district-wide. We will conduct a district-wide survey to gauge staff interest and identify the resources needed to achieve our wellness goals. The Wellness Committee will meet four times a year to update wellness initiatives based on community needs and emerging trends.

Nutrition Education- We will collaborate as a district to provide nutrition education and activities that align with academic standards across our core subjects. We can implement professional development opportunities for staff focused on nutrition education, including a district-wide Wellness Day. During this professional development, we can invite district parents to share their input on changes they would like to see for their children.

Physical Activity- We can implement physical activity breaks in all classrooms district wide allowing students to stand and stretch after a certain time frame. We can implement physical activity breaks in all classrooms district-wide, allowing students to stand and stretch after a certain period. This is especially important at the high school level, where learning periods are longer. Our physical education department has started reaching out to organizations to partner on offering physical activities. Currently, we do not encourage walking or biking to school due to the lack of sidewalks, which makes it unsafe. Our schools are situated on busy main roads with heavy traffic. However, playgrounds and ball fields are available for public use outside of school hours to promote physical activity. Additionally, the district stadium is open to the public whenever it is not in use.

Physical Education- We will create more professional development opportunities for physical education teachers. While there are times when they have a large number of students in their classes, it remains manageable.
