CEF changing publication date, delivery method

Later this summer, a second edition of this newsletter will be published, highlighting the foundation's activities during the 2024-25 school year. Moving to an August/September publication date will help the foundation keep our news timely and also allow us to highlight anything of interest in the upcoming school year.

The foundation hopes to reduce the number of newsletter copies mailed by offering a digital version. It can be emailed or downloaded from the website (see back page for information on the website). To receive your newsletter by email or to let us know you'll be downloading future editions, please email us at castlewoodeducationfoundation@gmail.com. Thank you!
