

6th Grade Reading AIG

Genius Hour

6th grade students finished the year with a Genius Hour project to explore a topic they are passionate about. This Genius Hour project allowed students to have independent learning time to explore their passions, curiosities, and use their individual learning styles. Students chose the topic they were interested in, conducted research, and created a presentation or model for their learning.

