April 25, 2025

Bear Family,

I hope everyone had a restful and enjoyable Spring Break! We have officially hit the ground running into the 4th marking period. Yesterday was Take Your Child to Work Day, and although we spend our days with upper-level teens, it was a refreshing (and slightly exhausting) change of pace to see the little ones bouncing through the halls. I'm still trying to figure out where they get all that energy... and if it's available in coffee form. As we head into the final stretch of the school year, there's still a lot happening! NJSLA testing is scheduled for Tuesday, April 29th and Wednesday, April 30th. AP Exams are right around the corner, and May is packed with performances from our talented Orchestra, Choir, and Band students, culminating in our Music and Arts Honor Society Induction on May 28th. For our student drivers (as well as future drivers) and their families, don't forget to check out the virtual Share the Keys presentation on May 20th. Registration info is below.

Have a great day and as always... Go Bears!
