Character Growth Chart

Choose one of the characters from C.S. Lewis' The Voyage of the Dawn Treader and trace his/her evolution and growth as a character by filling in the following chart. Be specific and write in complete sentences as you fill in the chart by describing specific events and/or including quotes. You will need to turn this in on the first day of class.

Write a paragraph (at least 5-8 sentences) in which you describe your character's traits and attributes at the beginning of the story.

Write a paragraph (at least 5-8 sentences) that analyzes the personality traits your character has that could limit their growth?

In a paragraph (at least 5-8 sentences) describe and analyze one transformative moment that the character experiences.

In the end, who does your character become and how have they exhibited growth? Include how they demonstrate a specific value, such as kindness, love, faith, humility, etc. Your answer to this question should be a paragraph (at least 5-8 sentences).

Which character do you relate to the most and why?
