The following information is for media outlets for the purpose of assigning staff coverage to the event.

VIETNAM WAR VETERANS TO SPEAK TO SOUTH U.S. HISTORY CLASSES

Students at South High School are going to get a firsthand account of the impacts of the Vietnam War as they cover the period in their U.S. History classes.

WHAT: Vietnam Veterans Speaking to U.S. History Classes
WHEN: Monday, April 28 (see schedule below)
WHERE: South High School, 1840 15th Street South, Fargo
CONTACT: Vic Youngs, South History Teacher, youngsv@fargo.k12.nd.us or 701.446.2100 for more information.

Students in Vic Youngs' and Andrew Burns' U.S. History classes will get a firsthand account of the impacts serving in the Vietnam War had on American young adults. Vietnam Veterans will visit six classes on Monday to talk about their experiences in the war.

The veterans will share their personal backgrounds, details of their jobs in the military, and tell stories about how their experiences in the military impacted the rest of their lives and shaped them into the people they are today.

Students will have an opportunity to ask questions and learn more about specific topics that interest them.
