COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

HOWARD BOOKER

Executive Director, In-N-Out Burger Foundation

Howard Booker is a passionate advocate for children and vulnerable populations, dedicating his career to making a lasting impact in the nonprofit sector. Since 2006, he has served with the In-N-Out Burger Foundation, an organization committed to preventing child abuse and neglect by supporting nonprofits that care for children and youth. Now serving as the Foundation's Executive Director, Howard leads with a deep commitment to both the mission and the people behind it.

Before stepping into his leadership role at the Foundation, Howard spent four years in In-N-Out Burger's Customer Service Department and another four years working in the restaurants, giving him a well-rounded understanding of the company's culture and values. With over 25 years at In-N-Out Burger, he has become a respected leader known for his expertise in philanthropy and mission-driven impact.

Howard is also an experienced speaker and educator, having guest lectured at Vanguard University, Concordia University, and multiple California State University campuses. His academic background includes a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Vanguard University and a Bachelor's degree in Business Communications from California State University, Fullerton.

Beyond his professional work, Howard is deeply invested in mentoring and shaping the next generation. He has mentored children and youth for years, with a passion for speaking identity and helping young people discover their purpose. He actively leads a junior high boys' life group and is involved in coaching his sons' sports teams. Howard is a devoted husband to Marissa, his wife of 15 years, and a proud father to Elijah (16) and Marcus (13). He enjoys playing, coaching, and refereeing sports, volunteering in his community and engaging with causes close to his heart. While he considers himself a decent cook and a washed-up athlete, he excels at power napping and has also mastered the fine art of dad jokes. Howard and his family live in Lake Forest, California, where they are active members of Saddleback Church.

STUDENT SPEAKER

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT SPEAKER

AMBERLY R. GOURLAY

Born in Palmer, Alaska and raised in Durban, South Africa, Amberly is curious about the world and seeks to adventure with God in exploring it. With a major in History and Political Science and minors in Theology and Public Policy, Amberly hopes to further her studies in International Affairs after graduation. Vanguard has played a key role in revealing God's plans for her. In her sophomore year, Amberly was a College Corps Fellow where she served at Voice of Refugees. Through her encounter with people forced to flee their home and find refuge, God revealed His heart for the foreigner to her and simultaneously invited her to partner with Him in caring for the foreigner. In her junior year she served as a College Corps intern where she mentored several students as they served their local communities which gave her the opportunity to learn about a variety of students in a deeper way. Moreover, she was a Resident Assistant in Newport Hall where she built friendships with her residents. With such access to a variety of students and her mentoring experience in both roles, she was inspired to run for Student Body President in hopes of serving the student body on a larger scale. She is grateful God opened the door for her to serve Vanguard as Student Body President. Just as God revealed to her that, like the prophet Isaiah, all He needs is her yes, so she hopes to encourage students. "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" (Isaiah 6:8).
