GRADE 8 MODULE 3 UNDERSTANDING

PERSPECTIVES

Unit 2: Being Made Invisible: Imprisoned and Interned

Anchor Text: Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand

Terrific Tuesday

Lesson 10 Read the summary of pages 206-209, 209-216 from the book, and the summary of pages 219-235. Answer the focus question: "The men imprisoned at Ofuna participate in small acts of rebellion and subversion. In what ways do they rebel, and what is the effect of these acts on the prisoners?"

Wondrous Wednesday

Lesson 11 Read 236-240, skip 240-242 (top), avoid 242 bottom half, read pages 243-244, 245-248, and the summary of pages 248-250, read 250-253 and complete the structured notes.

Lesson 12 Read pages 254-259, summary of pages 259-264, "Louie's letter" on pages 260-261, pages 265-267, in Unbroken. Complete the structured notes and answer the focus question, "In what ways does Louie continue to resist invisibility?"

Tremendous Thursday

Lesson 13 Read the summaries provided on the structured notes and pages 296-299 and 307-314 in Unbroken. Complete the focus question and vocabulary on the structured notes.

Lesson 14 Look back at your Gathering Textual Evidence note-catcher. Choose the six strongest pieces of evidence to use in your essay (three about the POWs and three about the Japanese-American internees). Place a star in the "Used in your writing?" column next to these six pieces of evidence about the Japanese-American internees). Place a star in the "Used in your writing?" column next to these six pieces of evidence.
