Through discussions, hands-on activities, and research projects, students will deepen their understanding of the cultural, historical, and social contexts of illustration and its impact on personal perspectives. Week 1-2: Introduction to Critical Analysis • Introduction to the concept of critical analysis in illustration • Discussion on the importance of analyzing, selecting, and curating artworks • Exploration of different criteria for evaluating artwork • Hands-on activities to practice analyzing and selecting illustrations
Enduring Understanding/s:	Essential Question/s:
1. Artists and other presenters consider various techniques, methods, venues, and criteria when analyzing, selecting, and curating objects artifacts, and artworks for preservation and presentation.	1. How are artworks cared for and by whom? What criteria, methods, and processes are used to select work for preservation or presentation? Why do people value objects, artifacts, and artworks, and select them for presentation?	Week 3-4: Establishing Evaluation Criteria • Research and discussion on relevant criteria for evaluating illustrations • Development of criteria for assessing artistic quality, thematic relevance, and cultural significance • Application of criteria to analyze and evaluate selected illustrations • Peer review sessions to refine and revise evaluation criteria

2. People evaluate art based on various criteria. 3. People develop ideas and understandings of society, culture, and history through their interactions with and analysis of art.	2. How does one determine criteria to evaluate a work of art? How and why might criteria vary? How is a personal preference different from an evaluation? 3. How does art help us understand the lives of people of different times, places, and cultures? How is art used to impact the views of a society? How does art preserve aspects of life?	Week 5-6: Cultural and Historical Influences • Exploration of how culture, traditions, and history influence personal responses to art • Analysis of illustrations from diverse cultural and historical contexts • Discussion on the impact of global issues, such as climate change, on artistic expression • Hands-on workshops to develop illustration skills with cultural and global themes Week 7: Reflection on Personal Responses • Reflection on personal responses to selected illustrations • Discussion on how cultural and global knowledge shapes individual perspectives • Analysis of personal biases and assumptions in interpreting artwork • Peer discussion and feedback on personal responses to illustrations

NJSLS CAREER READINESS, LIFE LITERACIES & KEY SKILLS	Disciplinary Concepts: Career Awareness & Planning, Creativity & Innovation, Critical Thinking and Problem-Solving, Technology Literacy
	Core Ideas:	Different types of jobs require different knowledge and skills. Brainstorming can create new, innovative ideas. Critical thinkers must first identify a problem then develop a plan to address it to effectively solve the problem. Collaboration can simplify the work an individual has to do and sometimes produce a better product.
	Performance Expectation/s:	Make a list of different types of jobs and describe the skills associated with each job. Demonstrate openness to new ideas and perspectives. Demonstrate originality and inventiveness in work. Gather information about an issue, such as climate change, and collaboratively brainstorm ways to solve the problem. Identify possible approaches and resources to execute a plan. Use a variety of types of thinking to solve problems. Describe the benefits of collaborating with others to complete digital tasks or develop digital artifacts.

	Career Readiness, Life Literacies, & Key Skills Practices
	Demonstrate creativity and innovation. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them. Use technology to enhance productivity, increase collaboration and communicate effectively. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.
