Deion M. Jamison Appointed Assistant Principal at Lake Marion High School

Orangeburg, S.C. –Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) is excited to announce the appointment of Deion M. Jamison as the new Assistant Principal for Lake Marion High School. Jamison brings with him a wealth of experience as an educator and instructional leader with a passion for driving school improvement, fostering equity, and building teacher capacity.

Jamison is an accomplished educator and instructional leader with a strong track record of driving school improvement and fostering equity. He currently serves as an Instructional Coach and Secondary ELA Team Member with the Orangeburg County School District, where he has facilitated data-driven professional learning and achieved significant student growth. He was named the 2023 South Carolina Teacher of the Year and has delivered keynote addresses nationwide, advocating for policies focused on equity and student achievement.

In his previous roles, he helped raise school performance as a Resident Principal with the New Leaders National Aspiring Principal Fellowship, directed professional learning communities, and designed curriculum strategies that improved student outcomes. He has also served as a high school English teacher and leader at Legacy Early College, where his curriculum work led to impressive exam passage rates. Deion is set to earn his Tier 1 Secondary Principal Certification in April 2025.

"I am thrilled to continue my journey in education and join the Lake Marion High School team," said Jamison. "I believe in the potential of every student, and my goal is to work alongside our educators and community to ensure we provide every child with the tools they need to succeed. I look forward to the opportunity to build on Lake Marion's strong foundation and help guide the school toward even greater academic achievements."

Jamison holds a Post-Masters Certificate in Education Leadership from Bank Street College of Education, a Master of Science in Secondary Education & Leadership from Johns Hopkins University, and a Bachelor of Science in Sociology with a minor in Education from Clemson University. He is also expected to receive his Tier 1 Secondary Principal Certification in April 2025.

Sean Glover, Principal of Lake Marion High School, expressed his excitement, stating, "We are thrilled to welcome Deion Jamison to the Lake Marion family. His vision for education and his track record of success will be invaluable assets as we continue to strengthen our school community. Together, we will focus on ensuring every student has the opportunity to succeed and excel in all aspects of their academic journey."
