This club is to bring people together who love and appreciate the talent of Taylor Swift. A place to discuss her music, decipher easter eggs and make Taylor Swift inspired crafts.

Theatre Performances (fee)

Amber Dernbach

Theatre productions happen each Fall and Spring. Every other year, the production is a school musical (see Choir webpage). Students are also able to perform in the annual Fine Arts night held each May. Casting for all three productions is by audition and all rehearsals and technical work sessions are after school and on weekends. Students can learn more about how to get involved in the theatre season each year by checking the Theatre bulletin board outside the Little Theatre or stopping by Ms. Dernbach's classroom 1284. Students are also able to take courses in acting, directing, stage craft, and documentary theatre during the school day. These classes, and the students involved in extra curriculars, go on many field trips throughout the year to see plays and musicals in the area. Email Ms. Dernbach at adernbach@ecasd.us with questions about classes or auditions. There are lots of creative jobs behind the scenes. Students are a crucial component in making props, costumes, constructing and painting sets, running sound and light systems, and creating promotional materials. Participating in MHS Theatre gives students an opportunity to engage in leadership, work collaboratively, and hone communication skills both on and off stage.
