Title I Newsletter May 2025

John Muir Book of the Year!

May and June will be fun months filled with Book of the Year activities!

This year, the title of our book is...a secret! For now, we can't share the name of our book, but here is a sneak peak at our schedule:

Book of the Year reveal:

Monday, May 12th through Friday, May 16th.

Every day, our students will receive a video clue shown in their classroom about the name and theme of our book. We will also uncover a piece of our mystery bulletin board each day, until the board is completely displayed.

Friday, May 16th: Each student will receive their very own copy of our book, along with a packet. This packet will explain our reading schedule, and fun trivia questions to complete at home.

From Tuesday, May 20th, until the last week of school in June, classrooms will participate in a trivia contest, and other fun events! Stay tuned for more details!
